"That's natural." Wan Zhuqing spoke.

"Seems like it's going to be exceedingly lively." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Mhm, in any case, back in Skyflame City, I heard that Princess Nongyue's cultivation is extremely high and she's already half-a-step in the immortal king realm, comprehending a trace of immortal king might. This means that she is also eligible for entering the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Hence, I believe the gathering this time might be hosted by Princess Nongyue. Wentian, you will be able to see one of the most famous princesses of my dynasty this time around. It's said that she's a great beauty." Wan Zhuqing smiled.

"Beiming Nongyue?" A figure appeared in Qin Wentian's mind. He did feel good will towards this princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty because of Li Yufeng.

This couple was an interesting one.

"A true beauty, but she already has someone in her heart." Qin Wentian smiled.

Wan Zhuqing furrowed his brows, "Wentian, the way you speak it's like you've met Princess Nongyue before? At the very least, I've not heard that she has someone she loves. Tell me about it."

"Li Yufeng, Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect." Qin Wentian laughed.

"You actually heard of the name of the Saint Child from the Hundred Refinements Sect before? Seems like I'm the ill-informed one." Wan Zhuqing naturally knew of this power. It was also a peak power of the northern regions, situated right next to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. As for Saint Child Li Yufeng, he wasn't very clear on him as after all, this man wasn't from the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

Qin Wentian saw Wan Zhuqing staring at him and couldn't help but to ask, "What's the matter?"

"You are truly good at joking, speaking like it's real, like you are really acquainted with him." Wan Zhuqing laughed. Qin Wentian blinked as he laughed as well, he didn't try to explain anything.

After all to Wan Zhuqing, regardless of Beiming Nongyue or the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, they were all legendary characters. No matter how good Qin Wentian's talent is, he is merely a minor character. How would minor characters know stuff about legendary major characters?

"What a joke? So shameless." From outside, a mocking voice rang out. "These two, one of them thinks she's so pure and transcendent while the other is even more ridiculous, actually using the names of Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect to elevate his status. How thoroughly shameless. Third uncle, you are really right. The two of them are truly extremely compatible for each other."

Wan Yiyao sarcastically remarked. Clearly, she has been listening to the conversation.

Wan Zhuqing's expression changed. "Yiyao, stop your nonsense."

"Third uncle, don't you feel that I'm right? You can ask the others too." Wan Yiyao coldly laughed, causing many in the surroundings to ask as well.

"Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect? These people are dragons among humans, yet they are actually mentioned by a rat who doesn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth."

"A rat? I might not be some lofty character but I'm still better than those who eavesdrop on people." Qin Wentian smiled. "And also, no matter how I boast, what does it have to do with you?"

"You are staying with my Wan Clan, this naturally has something to do with us. To think that you actually have the face to sit in the sedan as well, truly shameless." Wan Yiyao spat.

"Yiyao, you are going too far. Wentian is my guest, this is my arrangement for him, what problem do you have with it?" Wan Zhuqing coldly spoke, at the same time patting on Qin Wentian's shoulder, indicating that he should endure it for now.

"Third uncle actually is so protective of an outsider. What more can I say?" Wan Yiyao snorted coldly.

At this moment, outside the royal capital, another group of experts entered the capital. The few people in the lead are all extremely handsome, projecting extraordinary auras. One of them was extremely handsome, and was smiling as he entered the royal capital.

"Yufeng, this time around, you didn't come here simply to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, right? I heard that this time, Princess Nongyue might be the one in charge of the gathering." A young man beside him smiled, staring at Li Yufeng.

Li Yufeng's smile widened, this time around, his trip here naturally wasn't just for the sake of entering the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

"Say something, haha are you here to propose marriage?" The person continued laughing.

"If I propose like this, would the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty agree?" Li Yufeng smiled.

"That's hard to say, maybe the dynasty would appreciate your talent and directly agree to it."

"Haha, I wish." Li Yufeng spoke.

"It's rumored that Beiming Nongyue's elder sister, Beiming Youhuang, is an absolute beauty. Sadly, she is still in the sacred academy and we have no chance to meet her. Yufeng, you saw her before, how is she when compared to Beiming Nongyue?" The person continued asking.

"If comparing beauty, Beiming Youhuang is a few shades more superior." Li Yufeng replied, he didn't bother to deny the absolute looks of Beiming Youhuang.

"I really wish to take a look. Haha." That person laughed. The group of them rode upon a supreme treasure, streaking through the air like a bolt of lightning, directly flying past the space above Qin Wentian's group.

The people of the Wan Clan inclined their heads, staring at those characters up there. They were all thinking in their hearts that these must be people from the major powers, right? The fluctuations of this treasure were so powerful.

Qin Wentian was sitting in the sedan and didn't really care about them. After all, his immortal sense might be strong but he wouldn't release it perpetually to scan his surroundings!

Chapter 1333: Minor and Major Characters

Wan Miaoyan inclined her head and stared at those figures flying past. Although among them, some of their auras weren't that strong, roughly the same as her cultivation base, their demeanors were all extremely princely, like lofty characters in the clouds.

"Miaoyan, you are merely lacking an opportunity. Coming here is your bout of good fortune, you must not only enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, I hope that you would be able to join a major power in the royal capital too. The Wan Clan isn't suitable for you to stay in any longer." At this moment, Wan Miaoyan's father Wan Qingshan, spoke.

"I wish to take a look at the royal palace of the dynasty." Wan Miaoyan spoke in a light voice.

"Since we are already here in the capital, we naturally would have to take a look at the outside of the royal palace." Wan Qingshan nodded, a deep respect could be seen in his eyes.

They were people from a small city and wouldn't come to the capital often. The royal palace to them, was naturally like a holy land.

"Going to the capital to take a look?" The people from the Wan Clan around all had a heart of worship as they mumbled.

"To think that I could see the capital of my dynasty in my lifetime." Wan Zhuqing, who was in the sedan, sighed with emotions. For the two young people beside him, they were actually more calm in comparison.

"Wentian you are still so young, you would definitely have great accomplishments in the future. Don't you want to head over to the royal capital too?" Wan Zhuqing asked.

"I will naturally go over." Qin Wentian smiled. Before this, Wan Zhuqing thought that he was just making casual remarks about Beiming Nongyue and Li Yufeng. He naturally wouldn't say that he was a character that can freely move in and out of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal palace.

As they travelled, after some time, they finally arrived outside the royal palace. Qin Wentian and the two others walked out from the sedan and stared at the towering and majestic palace. Upon glancing at it, reverence would appear in one's heart, causing ordinary folks to feel the impulse to bow to it.

Zhiyin also seriously contemplated the palace, as though wanting to imprint the scene she saw in her mind.

"You wish to paint it?" Qin Wentian glanced at her and spoke.

"Mhm." Zhiyin nodded lightly. If she could transplant the scene in her mind onto a painting, the painting would surely be extremely beautiful.

"One day, I will definitely enter this place." Wan Yiming, one of the two supreme geniuses of the Wan Clan spoke, his eyes gleaming with a fiery intensity. Wan Miaoyan was silent but her heart was trembling with anticipation as well. Clenching her hands, her eyes shone with an immense confidence.

Staring at the experts walking in and out from the royal palace, all of these people were lofty characters. One day, they both wanted to become such major characters.

"Let's go." Wan Miaoyan calmly spoke. Wan Qingshan nodded, the group of them changed direction, asking a few questions about the Darknorth Immortal Mountain's location as they proceeded on.

The mountain was located not far from the royal capital, and was situated in an extremely vast mountain range. Outside this mountain range, there was a special region that was like a city within a city. For those who wished to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, they would have to pass by that city for sure.

Hence, this place was naturally extremely prosperous. Especially before the start of every ten-year period, there would be floods of people coming here, and every inn would be packed to the brim, extremely lively.

After the Wan Clan arrived here, they also found an inn to rest.

Every inn here was extremely gigantic, having a seperate courtyard each, allowing customers to enjoy their meals in the courtyard.

At this moment, the people from the Wan Clan sat around a few tables, enjoying the delicacies made from beast meat and immortal herbs. To sate immortals desire, ordinary food wouldn't suffice, no one would have any interest to eat them.

The people of the Wan Clan enjoyed the food. The food was extremely expensive but since it was rare for them to come to the capital, and the people who came were all elites, they naturally didn't mind splurging a little.

"Let me toast everyone. This is an early toast to wish Miaoyan and Yiming success, smoothly entering the Darknorth Immortal Mountain and break through to immortal king, gaining glory for our clan. Wan Qingshan lifted his cup and spoke to everyone. Everyone from the Wan Clan reciprocated the gesture, but at a small table at the side, among Qin Wentian's group, only Wan Zhuqing did so. Qin Wentian and Zhiyin acted as though they didn't hear the toast.

By toasting Wan Miaoyan and Wan Yiming, they were basically neglecting Zhiyin.

"Elder brother and sis Miaoyan would definitely succeed. In the future, our clan would then have multiple immortal king experts. Let's see how the Yan Clan dares to act arrogant then." Wan Yiyao smiled. Their group was extremely confident, as though trying to console themselves.

The other people at the side glanced over but all of them merely smiled. For those who came to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, which of them wouldn't want to break through to the immortal king realm? Everyone was naturally extremely confident but how could the immortal king realm be so easily reached?

"Everyone." At this moment, an old man came over, clasping his hands to everyone. The people fo the Wan Clan turned their gazes over only to hear Wan Qingshan asking, "Old sir, can we help you?"

Just like what he commanded when they arrived at the capital earlier, in this place, their Wan Clan dared not offend anyone.

The old man pointed to a table at the front. Over there, a young man exuding elegance was drinking wine alone, exuding a faint sense of arrogance. Behind him, an expert stood with his arms crossed in front of his chest, like a bodyguard.

"He's the young master of my clan, the Duanmu Clan of the royal capital." That old man introduced, his words causing Wan Qingshan's expression to turn a little heavy. He then turned to the young man and clasped his hands, "Wan Qingshan greets young master Duanmu."

"Mhm." The young man nodded lightly. He was still as arrogant and didn't even glance over. Wan Qingshan's gaze flickered before he slowly put his hands down, his heart filled with trepidation.

"It's boring to drink alone. Can I invite a lady to join me?" The young man spoke, putting down his cup as his gaze turned to Wan Miaoyan. Wan Miaoyan was pretty and she would naturally attract the attention of others.

"This…" Wan Qingshan froze. Wan Miaoyan's eyes gleamed with sharpness, this was the first time they met and it was clear this man was trying to pick her up. His manner felt extremely disrespectful as well, but he was someone from the royal capital and she had no idea what his background was like. How would their Wan Clan dare to offend him?

"What? You are unwilling?" The young man frowned as a wave of cold intent gushed forth.

The faces of everyone in the surroundings turned over, some of them had looks of pity, while others had looks of enjoying the drama.

"Naturally, we don't mean this." Wan Qingshan spoke. He turned his gaze over to Qin Wentian's direction and spoke, "Zhiyin, go and accompany young master Duanmu for a drink."

Wan Zhuqing and Zhiyin's countenances changed. That young man turned his gaze from Wan Miaoyan to Zhiyin.

Zhiyin's demeanor was elegant and transcendent, and because she was veiled, this aroused the interest of the young man. He then spoke, "Remove your veil."

Zhiyin clenched her hands, as her body stiffened. She was naturally unwilling to do so, being threatened by that young master.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. He directly turned to the young man and stared straight at him, "Young master Duanmu."

"Huh?" The young man glanced at Qin Wentian, frowning. "Did I speak to you?"

"I only wish to ask what sort of power is the Duanmu clan here? An immortal-emperor clan? Or an immortal-king clan." Qin Wentian smiled. His eyes gleamed with golden light from the art of truth, capable of seeing through all lies. A strange expression flashed on the face of the young man, he faintly sensed that this man could see through all his secrets.

"What are you trying to say?" The voice of the young man turned cold. The old man standing before the Wan Clan was also radiating a cold intent, as he coldly smiled while looking at them.

Wan Qingshan's expression turned dark, "Insolent, are you even qualified to speak here?"

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply. Before this, on account of Wan Zhuqing, he ignored the words of contempt spoken, as he couldn't be bothered with these people.

However, Wan Qingshan actually pushed Zhiyin out with no hesitation. This was an extremely shameless behavior.

Qin Wentian finally understood why Wan Zhuqing wanted him to travel with them. Most probably, if Zhiyin travelled with the Wan Clan alone, she would definitely be in an extremely disadvantageous position.

"As an elder of the Wan Clan, the first reaction you had was to sacrifice your niece when you encounter such a situation. How shameless and thick-skinned can you be?" Qin Wentian spoke in disdain. "Since you don't wish to interfere, just shut the hell up. There's no need for you to comment on our matters."

"You…" Wan Qingshan didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so brazen. Wan Miaoyan also furrowed her brows.

At this moment, Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the young man, "The opening of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain causes characters of different personalities to gather here. You know many people came from small cities, and don't dare to offend people of the royal capital. Using the fear of others to establish your own dominance. Truly an intelligent plan indeed. If some fools were scared by this, wouldn't your next step be to bring the lady you want away?"

The young man's countenance changed. He stared at Qin Wentian, "What are you talking about?"

A cold smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face as a cold intent suddenly gushed forth from him as he shouted, "Scram!"

The sound of his voice was like thunder, shaking many of the tables nearby. The eyebrows of the young man twitched, he was terrified by Qin Wentian's gaze and had an ugly look on his face.

"Very well. Just wait here if you dare." The young man stood up, leaving behind a domineering sentence before bringing his guard away.

"When has it become your turn to interfere in matters of my Wan Clan?" Wan Miaoyan frowned when she saw the young man leaving. If that young man truly had a powerful background, her Wan Clan would definitely be implicated.

"If you don't need me to interfere, why don't you directly go over and accompany him to drink?" Qin Wentian stared at Wan Miaoyan as he spoke.

"Impudent!" Wan Miaoyan's voice turned cold. But as she spoke, she discovered the young man from before walking over them. Beside him, several other experts could be seen.

"Everyone, junior apologizes for my earlier actions. Please forgive me." Right now, the expression on this young man's face was extremely fascinating to behold.

"Before this, there were quite a few cases of beautiful women being harmed. You are the one who did it right?" At this moment, a young man at a nearby table quietly spoke, causing everyone to turn their gazes over.

"I don't know what you mean." That person denied.

"It's fine even if you deny it. But since you dare to use the name of my Duanmu Clan, you should already know your ending." That young man calmly spoke. He slowly stood up and as he turned about, everyone could see a handsome face, exuding nobility.

"Young master." Those several experts who caught the young man from before, escorting him back here, all turned and bowed to the young man at the seat, causing their prisoner who stole the Duanmu Clan's young master's identity to turn pale.

"The true young master of the Duanmu Clan." This time around, everyone here felt shock in their hearts. Who would have thought that there would be such a coincidence? Since the fake met the real, the ending of the fake could very well be imagined!

Chapter 1334: Wisdom

The fake young master's expression was extremely fascinating to behold. He was using a disguising technique and hence, this wasn't his real face. Everytime he acted, he would change an identity, proceeding in a very cautious manner.

In addition, he knew that were many from outside cities coming to this place, and his understanding of them was extremely thorough. These people from small cities wouldn't dare to act recklessly or offend others as they weren't capable of doing so. Hence, they would act extremely cautiously. So, as long as he acted well and behaved a little more domineeringly, he would usually get his way. Even if he failed, he would be able to leave easily.

For example this time around, he heard the conversations of the Wan Clan. Wan Yiyao said that after this, the Wan Clan would have a few more immortal kings and she seemed very excited. Clearly, the Wan Clan was an immortal-king power that came from outside. He was sure he would definitely succeed if he used scare tactics. But he didn't expect his plan to be spoiled by Qin Wentian. But that's fine as well, he can always choose to leave. But what's worse is that the person he was impersonating was here, the true young master of the Duanmu clan.

His expression kept changing. After that, a thudding sound could be heard as he knelt directly, kowtowing to the real young master of the Duanmu Clan. "I have eyes but no sight, Young Master Duanmu, please spare my dog life."

"Clean him up." The young master quietly spoke. After which, those experts who brought the fake young master here nodded as terrifying auras gushed forth from them. After that, many of them instantly launched attacks, deleting the fake young master and his bodyguard away.

"They are all immortal kings." The hearts of the crowd trembled. These people killed so cleanly, and after that, they moved the corpses away. Just like what the Duanmu young master had said - to clean them up.

"How tyrannical." Wan Miaoyi sighed softly. Her beautiful eyes stared fixedly at the real Duanmu young master. This is a true major character, direct and tyrannical.

The people of the Wan Clan all looked at the young master with reverence in their eyes. A true major character was truly extraordinary, determining the life and death of others with a single sentence. Only people like this were legendary characters.

Only to see the young master of the Duanmu clan turning to Qin Wentian as he spoke, "Earlier you asked what sort of power my Duanmu Clan is. In any case, regardless of what level of power we are, it isn't something you can imagine."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, he didn't expect that when he asked the fake young master the question, this also rankled the heart of the true young master of the Duanmu Clan. This young master must have felt that Qin Wentian was ill-informed, hence, he gave such a domineering reply.

"That's only natural. For the brazen words uttered by this man, we beg young master Duanmu for your forgiveness." Wan Qingshan hurriedly apologized and lifted his cup, "This time around, we have to thank young master Duanmu for resolving the crisis for us. We are filled with endless gratitude."

As he spoke, he drained the contents in his cup. He didn't offer any toast because he knew he wasn't qualified.

Those watching the drama all smiled, this was the difference between minor and major characters. Before this, that fake young master could lie to them because the Wan Clan was undoubtedly minor characters. They didn't dare to offend anyone or even dare to probe the fake young master at all. They decided to obediently sacrifice someone to save the rest.

Luckily there was a more intelligent young man in the Wan Clan, managing to expose the fake young master. However, this young man didn't receive any heroic treatment nor thanks, on the contrary, the pretty lady earlier actually scolded him coldly, telling him that she didn't need him to interfere. The others of Wan Clan also blamed him for being a busybody but now, when the true young master of the Duanmu Clan stood out, everyone was so respectful, even thanking him for exposing the fake earlier.

Could it be that the person they should be thankful to, isn't the young man who first spoke out earlier?

At this instant, there was no doubt of the arrogance of major characters and the humility of the minor characters.

Qin Wentian naturally has seen through all of this. He came all the way here from a particle world, and had experienced the humility of minor characters and the glory of major characters. What has he not experienced before? Although the Wan Clan might be one of the lords of Skyflame City, over here, they are nothing but lowly ants.

These people made him feel pity, yet they were truly detestable as well.

"How boring." Qin Wentian smiled at Zhiyin, lightly shaking his head.

"You can still laugh?" A smile also appeared in Zhiyin's beautiful eyes.

"Since others are boring, I naturally can't be too boring. In addition, there's such an interesting beauty before my eyes." Qin Wentian gracefully smiled, not minding the atmosphere at all. The Wan Clan were all minor characters, they naturally would have the humility of weaklings. He was different. So what if the Duanmu clan was an immortal-emperor power? What does that have to do with him?

Leaving aside a character from an immortal-emperor power, there are even immortal emperors wanting to kill him. How could he care for the attitude from some young master of just an immortal-emperor ranked power?

"Am I interesting?" Zhiyin blinked.

"Much more interesting than them." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Enough." Wan Miaoyan coldly berated. "Before this, I ignored the matter of Redwing for the sake of third uncle. Since you came with our Wan Clan on this trip, you should follow our orders. Right now, you kept fooling around here, it's fine if something happened to you, but you shouldn't implicate my Wan Clan."

"When has he ever implicated our Wan Clan?" At this moment, Zhiyin stood up, staring at Wan Miaoyan.

Staring at Zhiyin's movements, a strange look appeared on Qin Wentian's face. Wan Miaoyan and the others froze as well. Zhiyin, who has always avoided competition and conflict, was actually standing up for him?

She had never stood up for her clan members when they fought with the juniors from other clans before yet now, she was standing up for an outsider?

"Old third, the daughter whom you taught. She truly is excellent." Wan Qingshan's voice was cold, his words causing Wan Zhuqing's expression to change. In reality, earlier Wan Qingshan didn't hesitate to sacrifice Zhiyin, how could he not be angry at that? He was actually now enduring. Now, these people are all showing their hypocritical side.

"Second uncle, you are an elder that's why I respect you. However, the things which happened earlier are clear for all to see. All of you are cowards, wanting to push me out to die. If Qin Wentian didn't act to stop it, and if there was no real young master of the Duanmu Clan, I might have really already become the sacrifice for you all. Doesn't the Wan Clan feel shame for this? Qin Wentian stepped out to save our Wan Clan's face, all of you didn't feel gratitude and are now even blaming him? Zhiyin wishes to ask second uncle, are you even worthy of respect?"

Zhiyin slowly spoke. Not interested in competition and conflict didn't mean that she wouldn't do so when the situations called for it. Each of her words were the truth, and stung extremely bad. Who was wrong and who was right could be determined with a single glance.

"Impudent." Wan Qingshan's countenance turned unsightly, smacking his palm on the table as waves of cold intent gushed forth from him.

"Before this, I didn't discover that your mouth is so sharp." Wan Yiyao coldly spoke.

"Old third, your daughter is refuting an elder. Tell me what do you think you should do?" Wan Qingshan's voice was cold.

"What's so difficult? I knew all of you never liked me. I will just leave then." Zhiyin lightly spoke, in an extremely calm manner.

"Hehe, you truly have the heart to betray us and have never deemed yourself as one of the Wan Clan before." Wan Qingshan instantly added another crime of betrayal to Zhiyin.

"Everyone, enough!" At this moment, Wan Zhuqing suddenly roared, causing everyone to quiet down, turning to stare at him.

"This time around, why did our Wan Clan come here? Second brother, you should know in your heart what you did. And having an internal fight before the public, what does this seem like? I, Wan Zhuqing, am still the number three of the Wan Clan. Second brother if you still treat me like your younger brother, we should temporarily leave this issue aside and make no mention of it until after we return to the Wan Clan." Wan Zhuqing spoke.

Wan Qingshan's gaze was cold, "Since old third has spoken, I will temporarily not pursue this. When we return to our clan, we will have an accounting. It's just that your little friend best not interfere in our matters too much or I won't be polite."

"If this didn't implicate Zhiyin, I wouldn't even bother." Qin Wentian sat there, calmly replying, as though everything had nothing to do with him.

"Zhiyin, let's go back to rest."

"Mhm." Zhiyin nodded her head lightly. After which, the two of them stood up and departed directly.

"Kinship should always be first. That young man is no different when compared to the fake young master. Old third, you should pay more attention to your daughter." Wan Qingshan coldly mocked. Wan Zhuqing unhappily flicked his sleeves and left.

In the courtyard which Zhiyin was staying at, melodious zither music could be heard. In an instant, all worries melted away, and Qin Wentian forgot about the boring things which happened just earlier. He quietly faced Zhiyin who was sitting in a pavilion, as he enjoyed the music, relaxing himself, even forgetting about cultivation.

After the music ended, Qin Wentian's eyes were still closed but there was a smile on his face. "My mood did indeed get better. Zhiyin, why would such a marvelous person like you be in the Wan Clan?"

"How can I be considered a marvelous person?" Zhiyin lightly shook her head.

"How can you not count as one? No matter from which aspect, you are superior to Wan Miaoyan." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Wan Miaoyan is the number one genius and beauty of our Wan Clan." Zhiyin replied in a light voice.

"I can't determine talent, but at the very least from the perspective of beauty, you are more prettier than her." Qin Wentian laughed.

Zhiyin froze. She stared at Qin Wentian, "You have never seen my face before, how would you know?"

"Instinct." Qin Wentian continued lying there with his eyes closed.

"Maybe your instincts are wrong." Zhiyin's voice was still as soft. Qin Wentian sat up and opened his eyes, smiling as he turned about. After that, his eyes stared at the young woman before him.

Zhiyin removed her veil, her beautiful eyes that were like the beauty which could only be found in poetry, was looking at him as a smile appeared on her face. Her smile was pure and clean, and there were no hints of complexity in her eyes.

"Seems like my instincts are pretty inaccurate." Qin Wentian seriously spoke and shook his head, "My instincts are too bad, comparing Wan Miaoyan to you is basically an insult to you."

"Yet my instincts told me that everyone else at the scene treated the Duanmu young master as a legendary major character while you were extremely calm, with no fluctuations to your heart. Your gaze when looking at him, was like looking at an ordinary man. This indicated that in your eyes, you probably don't even care even if he is from an immortal-emperor ranked power right?" Zhiyin softly spoke.

Qin Wentian stared at the flawlessly pure young woman before him as he smiled, "For those who are pure in their thoughts, their sensitivity to things are much higher compared to ordinary people. The vast majority of people in this world have eyes but they can't see what is right before them. As for you, you are able to sense things a lot more clearly. Right now, I can be sure that Wan Miaoyan's talent is also inferior to yours."

"You spoke so much, even changing the topic. Are you just silently admitting to what I said?" Zhiyin smiled.

"Naturally." Qin Wentian nodded, as the two of them exchanged glances and laughed!

Chapter 1335: Melodramatic Plot

As the date for the opening of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain grew closer, more and more people gathered in this special region. There were geniuses from all areas, a chaotic mix of fish and dragons.

The people of the Wan Clan brought their humility with them as they wandered around, wanting to witness the splendor of a major city.

Qin Wentian quietly waited in the inn, he would occasionally cultivate, and occasionally enjoy the beauties walking up and down the streets, while occasionally listening to the beautiful music, living a life of relaxation.

Finally, a piece of news circulated over, causing a commotion in this region.

It's said that Princess Nongyue has already arrived at the entrance of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, she brought a group of experts and was already preparing for a banquet for all of those who wished to enter. There would be a qualifications test to see who is capable enough.

Just as the rumors stated, the gathering this time around, Princess Nongyue was in charge of it.

This time, all the various geniuses here would be able to witness the splendor of Princess Nongyue.

This naturally is a thing which fills others with anticipation. The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty ruled this area, and the princess is a daughter of the empire, with towering amounts of authority and a beautiful face. It was unknown how many wanted to look at her beauty and there were even many among them who were having a sweet fantasy, thinking that they might be able to gain her favor, and become the prince consort of the empire in the future.

Although this wasn't a realistic fantasy, it was enough to make one mesmerized. It was truly a wonderful imagination.

Today, a group of powerful experts in black appeared in the airspace above this region. All of them exuded sharpness, and were immortal kings.

"The entrance to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is opened. Princess Nongyue has organized a banquet to welcome the geniuses from all regions. For those who wish to enter the mountain as well as those who escorted the geniuses of your sects and clans here, you all can enjoy the hospitality of the princess." A thunderous voice echoed out, shaking the entire region.

From the air, the immortal kings all sped away after speaking, returning to the entrance of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. A moment later, countless people here all soared up into the air, filling up the space completely as they flew towards a certain direction.

Qin Wentian, Zhiyin and Wan Zhuqing were together. When they inclined their heads, they saw Wan Qingshan already leading the rest of the Wan Clan to fly over.

"Let's go!"

"Go, go…"

Numerous voices rang out, echoing through the air as everyone in the inn prepared to set off.

"We should leave too." Wan Zhuqing spoke, and a moment later, the three of them soared into the air, following after the Wan Clan. Although both sides had deep conflict, they decided to settle all this later. Right now, there's nothing more important than sending Wan Miaoyan, Zhiyin and the others to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

"There are so many people." Qin Wentian glanced at the inconceivable amounts of people. The scale of this banquet definitely exceeded the birthday celebration of the Fallen Devil Emperor back in the Myriad Devil Islands by several times. After all, there were no restrictions and everyone in the region could attend the banquet.

Even if this is merely a portion of people who came every ten years, the number was simply terrifyingly astronomical.

"To think that the host for this banquet would actually be Beiming Nongyue." Qin Wentian smiled. He came all the way to the northern regions to cultivate and fate immediately arranged an acquaintance for him to meet. How coincidental.

The Darknorth Immortal Mountain was located in a vast mountain range of laws. Nobody knew how that mountain range was formed but ever since the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was established, they hurriedly took control over this place and set rules to open it once every ten years, drawing countless geniuses over, increasing the prestige of their empire.

They would naturally organize a banquet for such a grand gathering. By doing so, they could show geniuses from the other areas of the immortal realms how great and prosperous the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was. And even use the chance to draw future cultivators to join their dynasty army, boosting their strength.

Qin Wentian's countenance flashed, flying through the air with the rest of them. His gaze finally landed on an incomparably vast and majestic mountain range. That place, should be where the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is located.

The Darknorth Immortal Mountain naturally wasn't just a single mountain, it was all the mountains here in this mountain range.

Although he already saw the mountain range, the distance there was still very far apart. After flying for sometime, all of them finally flew to the boundary of this region. Before them, guards from the Darknorth Army could be seen, they were surrounding a huge space, where numerous tables and chairs are set to welcome the geniuses from all directions.

The crowd sped up, entering the banquet, while staring at the Darknorth Immortal Mountain Range ahead.

At the front most area of this banquet, there was a stage formed from ninety-nine stairs. Above the stage, there were many seats for major characters of the immortal dynasty and at the upper most tier, a black throne could be seen there. Upon sitting there, one could see everything down below, every inch of this banquet.

That throne, was naturally the seat for Princess Nongyue.

More and more experts arrived, joining the banquet, casually finding seats and sitting down. Many of those who came from major powers all gathered together, wanting to occupy a good spot, sitting in a location close to Princess Nongyue.

There were also many who were already discussing about the fact that now, they could already see the real entrance of the Darknorth Immortal Mountains. This time around, they wondered if Princess Nongyue would select those qualified to enter, or would she allow everyone to go in. However, the latter case was extremely rare, if everyone were to enter the Darknorth Mountain Range, the entire place would be extremely chaotic and would affect those who truly needed to enter the place for their cultivation.

Hence, a limit on the number of people entering, still had to be set.

Qin Wentian and the rest of the Wan Clan landed, they too found a pretty good location. Wan Yiyao then sighed, "So many experts here, our Skyflame City is truly too small. In the future, I don't even wish to go back."

"Yiyao, having such thoughts are good. This world is extremely vast and after Princess Nongyue arrived, only when you see her demeanor would you understand what a character at the very peak is. In fact, the age of the princess might be even younger than you." Wan Qingshan smiled. The people of the Wan Clan were visibly emotionally stirred, they were filled with a slight nervousness.

Only Wan Yiming and Wan Miaoyan's eyes flashed with anticipation. This time around, the trip to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain was a great opportunity for them. They had to enter no matter what.

"Young master Duanmu is there." At this moment, Wan Yiyao suddenly exclaimed. Not far from them the young master of the Duanmu Clan, whom they met in the inn before, could be seen standing there. He was extremely dazzling, like the moon surrounded by stars. It was like he was the focal point of the crowd.

"Young master Duanmu is a dragon among humans, that's someone with true status. Miaoyan, let's hope that one day, either you or your husband would become characters of this level." Wan Qingshan stared at his daughter as he spoke, filled with anticipation.

"We should go over and greet them." A gentle smile appeared on Wan Yiyao's face.

"Right." Wan Qingshan nodded.

They were clearly people of different levels but Wan Qingshan still wanted to do such a thing. When Qin Wentian saw this, he could only shake his head lightly. Human nature was as such, currying favor with those in power.

"We pay our respects to young master Duanmu." The people of the Wan Clan walked over. The young man from the Duanmu Clan turned around, his expression was calm, exuding a faint hint of arrogance. He glanced at the Wan Clan and in here, the only one whom he felt wasn't bad, was the beauty Wan Miaoyan.

"You guys came here for the Darknorth Immortal Mountain too?" Young master Duanmu asked.

"Mhm, this is my daughter, Wan Miaoyan. This time around, we came here to send her and my nephew to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain." Wan Qingshan respectfully replied.

The young master Duanmu glanced at Wan Miaoyan, only to see a rare smile also appearing on her face, as she nodded to him.

"Miss Miaoyan's aura is extraordinary. There's naturally no problem. You guys can just sit here." Young master Duanmu waved his hand and spoke.

"Many thanks young master Duanmu." Wan Qingshan respectfully replied. Being able to have a faint connection with a character of this level was an extremely glorious thing to him.

Several people in the surroundings surveyed the Wan Clan. These people naturally were acquainted with young master Duanmu and were all from the royal capital. Also, their backgrounds weren't bad. They were naturally clear of his intention, given his status, how would he lower himself to speak to these people? Most probably, he wanted to court the beauty. If he had a chance to play her, wouldn't that be wonderful? He naturally wouldn't mind it and it's the Wan Clan who offered themselves up on a platter to him.

"Duanmu, your luck with the ladies isn't bad. Who is this beauty?" From afar, a young man naturally already knew the answer but he still asked.

"Mu Qiu, stop your nonsense. I just got acquainted with lady Miaoyan." Duanmu stared at the person as he replied.

"Haha, such a beautiful woman. She matches you perfectly, why don't you just marry her?" Mu Qiu laughed. After that, he glanced at the Wan Clan, "Naturally, you still have to seek the opinion of her clan members."

The tone of this young man was extremely frivolous, intentionally sounding polite as though it was filled with respect. If it was someone ordinary who said that, the Wan Clan might be unhappy, but this person who spoke was a character on the same level as young master Duanmu. Since that was the case, things were different. In fact, even a wild surge of pride appeared in Wan Qingshan's heart.

"I also hope my daughter would manage to find a good husband." Wan Qingshan's face was pretty thick, he wasn't tactful at all. Wan Miaoyan was in fact, somewhat bashful. She stared at Wan Qingshan, "Father, what nonsense are you talking about."

"Naturally nothing but the truth." Wan Qingshan smiled.

Qin Wentian couldn't help but to laugh softly. This family truly was...extremely melodramatic.

Wan Qingshan had a completely different attitude when facing him, exactly the same as Wan Miaoyan. But before this young master Duanmu, their personalities seemed to have taken a 180 degree turn.

Could it be that they couldn't tell what the true meaning hidden behind the words spoken by the young man Mu Qiu was? To people with status like them, this was nothing but a game.

Naturally, only those watching calmly from the side would be clear of what the true situation was. For those from the Wan Clan, each of them felt that this was an opportunity for their clan to rise up. There was only excitement and anticipation in their hearts!

Chapter 1336: Interesting Matter

Although Qin Wentian's laughter wasn't loud but how sharp were the senses of martial cultivators? It was naturally heard by the people around him. Wan Qingshan and Wan Miaoyan frowned, as an unhappy look appeared on their face. But since they were in front of young master Duanmu, they couldn't seem lacking in manners, and hence, didn't immediately act to confront him.

However, Wan Yiyao couldn't care less. She coldly smiled, "What are you laughing about?"

"Nothing much." Qin Wentian shook his head.

"Scram to the side." Wan Qingshan didn't erupt forth in anger, he transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Only to see Qin Wentian's eyes gleaming with coldness, staring right back at him, unmoving.

The gazes of everyone turned to Qin Wentian. Evidently, even if Wan Qingshan didn't want to make a public scene, the others would still notice as well.

"What were you laughing about earlier?" Wan Qingshan icily asked.

"Can't I laugh?" Qin Wentian counter-asked.

"No." Wan Miaoyan also replied. Her eyes were cold. Qin Wentian's laughter sounded like he was mocking her.

"In that case fine, since you all want to know, I will tell you all about it. A casual sentence by others yet you already show such willing looks on your faces. Regardless of finding a son-in-law or as a woman yourself, can you act more reservedly instead of like a whore?" Qin Wentian's tone was no longer polite. After being cursed at by the Wan Clan again and again, his patience has reached the limits.

And as expected, Qin Wentian's voice filled with undisguised contempt, seeming to have activated a switch. A moment later, both the gazes of Wan Qingshan and Wan Miaoyan, turned exceedingly cold.

Even the young man named Mu Qiu and young master Duanmu, were both staring with a playful look in their eyes at Qin Wentian. This young man was pretty interesting.

"This is?" Mu Qiu's smile was warm and gentle, as though he was like a real gentleman.

"A mere minor character which hid himself in my clan to come here. He is thick-skinned and shameless." Wan Qingshan coldly spoke.

"Oh," Mu Qiu smiled and nodded. He then added to Qin Wentian, "You are really interesting."

"Thank you." Qin Wentian smiled back.

"It's just that you don't have the qualifications to speak here, and even if you are an interesting character, you might easily die very soon." Mu Qiu was still smiling, but his words caused everyone to feel the chills. Even the Wan Clan could feel pressure. A character like Mu Qiu was able to easily squash Qin Wentian to death, like how an ordinary human could squash ants.

"How eccentric." Qin Wentian stared at Mu Qiu, his words causing Mu Qiu's eyes to narrow as cold intent gushed forth.

"Impudent!" At this moment, killing intent radiated from Wan Qingshan. It was so tough for them to finally make contact with characters of such high status, yet Qin Wentian was intentionally trying to spoil things. It didn't matter if Qin Wentian want to die, but he shouldn't affect the way Mu Qiu and Duanmu looked at his Wan Clan.

Wan Qingshan didn't wish to miss such a good opportunity to rub shoulders with those of high statuses.

"Before this, I gave you face numerous times, yet you don't understand what the word 'gratitude' is. Could it be that that you think because of the words you spoke to the fake young master Duanmu before, others would hold you in high regards?" Wan Miaoyan stepped out, similarly radiating coldness. She stared at Qin Wentian, "You are merely an ant, people of statuses like them only need to step out to stomp you to death."

"You are comparing Qin Wentian to ants, while Duanmu and his gang as people who stood on the clouds. In that case, Wan Miaoyan, what do you count as?" Zhiyin stepped forward, as she stated calmly.

Wan Miaoyan turned her gaze to Zhiyin. This was already the second time Zhiyin was rebutting her.

"I don't need you to point your finger at me. Zhiyin, you have always disdained conflict, when our clan needed you, you didn't even bother at all. However, you stood up for this man countless times before the Clan. Could it be that the two of you share some dirty secrets?" Wan Miaoyan's words were extremely unpleasant to hear.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with coldness.

He was truly angered. If before this, these people from the Wan Clan were merely disgusting. But now, Wan Qingshan showed his killing intent, and Wan Miaoyan insulted him and Zhiyin both. He couldn't help but to be enraged.

"A person would usually judge others based on their own true states of heart. This should be your true personality." Zhiyin lightly spoke. And as she spoke, with no other signs at all, Mu Qiu who was standing at the side suddenly moved. A ripping sound rang out as he tore the veil covering Zhiyin's face, revealing her face which was as beautiful as a character in a portrait.

The eyes of all the experts here landed on her face. Upon staring at it, Mu Qiu, Duanmu and the others all had looks of fascination. Wan Miaoyan was stunned as well when she saw Zhiyin's face. She was always referred to as the number one beauty of the Wan Clan, ranking top in both talent and beauty. As for Zhiyin, almost no one knew of her existence. But right now, her beauty when revealed, was actually not the slightest bit inferior to hers.

"Is this beauty from your Wan Clan as well?" Mu Qiu's expression suddenly turned much gentler than before, as he stared at Wan Qingshan and asked.

Wan Qingshan's heart trembled when he saw Mu Qiu's expression. He nodded and spoke, "Yes, she is my useless niece, and is now actually ganging up with an outsider against us. This must have made young master Mu laugh."

"Beautiful women are always more wilful than others. She is just being made use of by a minor character. If Miss Zhiyin is interested, how about we interact more and get acquainted with each other?" Mu Qiu smiled.

Zhiyin's expression turned unsightly. Rudely removing her veil yet now, this Mu Qiu was so warmly inviting her to be his friend. How shameless was this?

"I'm not interested." Zhiyin coldly spoke.

"Zhiyin, since young master Mu wants to be acquainted with you, that is your fortune. Go over." Wan Qingshan berated.

"You…" Zhiyin stared icily at this uncle of hers, Wan Qingshan.

"The matters today have truly refreshed my understanding on the word 'shamelessness.'" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Scram." Mu Qiu smiled at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian raised his head, staring at Mu Qiu.

"You don't need to harbor any more hopes of entering the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Scram." Mu Qiu stared at Qin Wentian, his expression was calm but his tone was filled with imperiousness.

"Just get lost." Duanmu also slowly spoke. The tone of their voices was filled with absolute confidence.

As though it was already fated that Qin Wentian would never be able to step into the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

Qin Wentian stood there, staring at the two seemingly so lofty figures whose words could decide the fate of a person.

"These two young master have spared your dog life. Why are you not scramming away?" Wan Qingshan coldly mocked. Some people would always overestimate themselves.

"What if I refuse to?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Wan Zhuqing and Zhiyin behind him, both had unsightly expressions on their faces.

"I've never seen such a lowly person like you, not knowing your own worth at all." Wan Miaoyan coldly spoke. "Could it be that you don't understand that any of them before you can easily take away your cheap life? Now, they are merely asking you to scram. Do you think your unyielding behavior would really cause people to regard you highly, and thus spare you? It's already enough that you bluffed Zhiyin."

Just as this conflict occurred, and many were watching the drama, very few people noticed that a group of extraordinary experts had arrived. One among them was extremely handsome looking. This man was none other than Li Yufeng.

"Princess Nongyue has yet to arrive, why are you in such a hurry to rush here?" Someone beside him laughed.

"Haha, isn't it interesting to enjoy the liveliness here?" Li Yufeng smiled. His gaze turned downwards, the people gathered here today are truly many in number. Very swiftly, that lass Nongyue would surely be worshipped by these people.

And at this moment, Li Yufeng suddenly froze as he stared in a direction. He still thought that he might have seen wrongly.

His pair of bright eyes flashed, after ascertaining that there was no mistake, he suddenly laughed. "You guys go find a place first, I just saw a friend and I'm going over to greet him. I will join you all later."

As the sound of his voice faded, Li Yufeng directly sped off. The people around him started, this fellow… was there really any need for him to be in such a rush?

However, there actually was someone in the crowd that is his friend?

For those being able to become Li Yufeng's friend, what sort of character would they be? Since such a character came to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, things would definitely be interesting.

"Brother Qin, long time no see."

Just as Qin Wentian was being told to scram, a voice rang out in the air. Qin Wentian turned his gaze over, only to see Li Yufeng descending from the sky, landing beside him. He smiled, "It has been more than a year. To think that I would meet you here."

"Li Yufeng." Qin Wentian smiled. How coincidental. It's said that Princess Nongyue was the host of this banquet, he was wondering if Li Yufeng would come here. And to think that his speculations were right, Li Yufeng really did.

At this moment, Li Yufeng sensed that the atmosphere was somewhat tense. He stared at the surroundings, and soon saw Mu Qiu and young master Duanmu coldly laughing, as well as the coldness from the people of the Wan Clan. On this side, only Qin Wentian stood here lonely with a beautiful girl behind him. This fellow, back then when in the sacred academy, he was already surrounding by a bevy of beauties. What good luck he has with women.

"Brother Qin, what's going on here?" Li Yufeng smiled when he saw this scene.

"Someone told me to scram, and said that for the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, I'm fated never to be able to enter there." Qin Wentian shook his head and bitterly smiled.

"..." Li Yufeng's eyes flashed, staring at Duanmu and Mu Qiu. A look of interest appeared in his eyes. Thinking of back then, Qin Wentian, the imposing young man who roasted white tigers and ate their flesh in the sacred academy, was actually bullied by people here?

"What an interesting matter." Li Yufeng laughed.

"Who the hell are you?" Wan Qingshan coldly asked, this young man beside Qin Wentian seemed a little familiar.

"Since I came here, I'm naturally someone who is prepared to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain." Li Yufeng laughed.

"No matter who you are, since you are standing beside him, you too, are fated never to be able to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Scram now, get the hell from my sight." Mu Qiu smiled at Li Yufeng, the smile on his face was just like before, filled with absolute confidence.

Chapter 1337: Unable to Tolerate Any Longer

"Cough…"

When this sentence was uttered, Li Yufeng's face was filled with black lines. No matter who he was, he wasn't fated to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, and he was even told to scram?

He came from thousands of miles away to see his lover Beiming Nongyue. And right now, at the banquet Beiming Nongyue was hosting, there actually was someone pointing at him, telling him to scram?

Li Yufeng didn't know whether to cry or smile. He stared at Mu Qiu who was before him as he asked, "You sure you want to talk to me like this?"

After speaking, Li Yufeng still glanced at his side. There was no one standing beside him.

"Another retard." Mu Qiu pitifully glanced at Li Yufeng. After that, he turned his eyes onto Qin Wentian, "Do you need me to tell you to scram again for the third time?"

"I'm also from the Wan Clan. Wan Qingshan, do you have to be so ruthless?" Wan Zhuqing's expression was extremely ugly. It's fine if the Wan Clan wanted to curry favor with those with high status, but now, they actually wanted both Qin Wentian and Zhiyin to lose the chance to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

"It's you all who don't know what's good for yourselves. You should really discipline your daughter, and as for this young man, tell him to scram. We are already being very polite here." Wan Qingshan coldly spoke.

Li Yufeng was somewhat sympathetic as he glanced at Qin Wentian. Who would have thought that this fellow came all the way here and was actually repeatedly told to scram by such trashy characters. Right now, most probably their feelings were both the same - their hearts were filled with helplessness.

"Princess Nongyue has yet to arrive, she didn't say anything about us. Who are you guys? Do you all really have the qualifications to decide for her?" Li Yufeng's temper was very good. His voice was calm as he spoke to Mu Qiu.

"So what?" Mu Qiu gave a 'couldn't be bothered' glance at Li Yufeng, while radiating a cold intent.

"If that's the case, I really want to see how you can get us to scram." Li Yufeng stared at Mu Qiu, "The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty organized a gathering for geniuses from all over every ten years. Now you actually want to force us to leave. I really want to see what you would do when the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty notices this commotion."

Mu Qiu's expression changed. If this was not here, killing two immortal-foundation characters naturally would be a very minor thing, especially to someone of his status. But this place was the entrance of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, the place where Princess Nongyue was holding the banquet. If he domineeringly gave the command to kill these two, it was impossible for him to avoid discovery. Since that was the case, he had no way to anticipate the reactions of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty."

Although he was from an extraordinary background, there naturally would be no one who would dare to go against the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty now that they are in their territory.

"Very smart, using the prestige of the dynasty to suppress me? You might be too clever for your own good. From now on, my men will keep an eye on you. If you don't scram, there's naturally no problem. In that case…" Mu Qiu's eyes gleamed with coldness, "Die."

As the sound of his voice faded, a cold killing intent gushed forth, enveloping Li Yufeng and Qin Wentian. The gaze which he used to look at Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng was like someone looking at dead men.

Wan Zhuqing paled. "Young master Mu, mercy please."

He was the one who asked Qin Wentian to travel here together. Right now, Qin Wentian actually met a life-and-death crisis.

"One cannot escape one's sin." Wan Qingshan coldly spoke.

"Courting your own death." Wan Miaoyan's expression was cold. "Sometimes, the price for acting tough, is your life. How utterly foolish, a clear example of overestimation of one's own abilities."

Among the Wan Clan's crowd, numerous mocking voices rang out, extremely ear-piercing.

Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng stood alone, seemingly extremely lonely.

"Naturally, if this beauty is willing to beg for mercy for you, maybe I will reconsider." Mu Qiu stared at Zhiyin as he smiled.

Zhiyin frowned, her expression was cold.

"You really think much of yourself." Qin Wentian spoke to Mu Qiu. His calm gaze had no fluctuation of emotions within.

"Princess Nongyue is here!"

"The Princess has arrived!" At this moment, sounds of exclamations rang out. The people in this vast area started stir up. Countless gazes stared up in the air only to see that in a certain direction, a group of experts were soaring through the air. Princess Nongyue was mounted upon a black-colored demon with countless experts beside her for protection.

"Princess Nongyue is truly a phoenix among humans."

"The daughter of heaven, not only is her status and talent extraordinary, her beauty is flawless as well."

"I wonder who would be so lucky to marry the princess in the future. Most probably, one could die with no regrets."

Countless sighs of admiration rang out from the crowd. At this instant, even over at Qin Wentian's location, the people of Wan Clan were also staring up at the dazzling Princess Nongyue.

Beiming Nongyue, the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, an unexcelled and lofty character.

Wan Miaoyan stared up in the sky, feeling envy in her heart. This was a true daughter of the heavens. Although in Skyflame City, she was respected by many, here in the royal capital, almost everyone used flirtatious gazes on her. The characters they encountered randomly, the Duanmu young master and Mu Qiu, were both characters that the Wan Clan had to look up to. Only Princess Nongyue had the qualifications to cause others to look up at her in reverence.

This, was the absolute distance between them.

Staring at Princess Nongyue sitting upon the black throne, Wan Miaoyan clenched her fists tightly. One day, she also wanted to become a glorious character like that. In that case, let everything begin here in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

"Princess Nongyue grows more and more beautiful." Mu Qiu sighed with admiration. This was a woman he truly wanted to pursue. If he was able to marry her, he would instantly gain boundless glory, rising to the upper echelons of his clan. As for Wan Miaoyan and Zhiyin, although they were pretty, their statuses were lowly. At most, he would only play with them.

"We pay our respects to Princess." Countless voices rang out in unison. The countless number of people here all bowed to show their respect. The joining of the voices gathered together to form a terrifying current, shaking all directions. The female figure sitting on the throne nodded in response, radiating authority and regalness.

Such a feeling caused the hearts of Wan Miaoyan and the others tremble. The rush of impact it brought to them from witnessing such a scene, was shocking to the extreme.

"This time, the opening of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is hosted and organized by me. I represent the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty to welcome the geniuses who came here from all regions. Now, the banquet has already been prepared, everyone can enjoy it to the fullest. After the banquet, I will then officially select the geniuses who are eligible to enter the mountain for cultivation." Beiming Nongyue stood up, stretching her hands to indicate her intent to the masses, appearing extremely impressive. Although she was facing countless people, as a princess, she didn't feel nervous or fear at all.

She was born lofty and extraordinary.

"Many thanks Princess!" Everyone spoke in unison. After that, many of the geniuses sat down and began to enjoy the banquet. There are also many people who still remained standing. The sight of so many people truly marks this as a grand occasion.

"Beiming Nongyue seems to be more beautiful compared to before." Qin Wentian glanced over, as he smiled at Li Yufeng beside him.

"That's only natural." Li Yufeng was also looking at her. Right now, Li Yufeng as also staring at her. His mood now was much better than before. This lass Nongyue, actually had such an impressive side to her. In his heart, he couldn't help but to feel a faint feeling of satisfaction.

"Yet another disgusting act." Wan Miaoyan had a look of extreme disgust on her face. "Using the Princess' name casually, to elevate yourself to be extraordinary. You are clearly a lowly existence yet you kept pretending to see through many things, trying to act calm in the face of whatever you faced. This is really the first time I met such a shameless person."

Qin Wentian stared at Wan Miaoyan. In her eyes, there was real disgust, from the depths of her heart.

But truly, his casual attitude of calmness even in the face of characters with high status like Duanmu, Mu Qiu and even Beiming Nongyue, might felt a little too fake in the eyes of Wan Miaoyan, causing her to feel disgust for him.

"Despicable and lowly." Wan Qingshan coldly spoke. "Also, Zhiyin, in the future you should stay in the royal capital and accompany young master Mu Qiu. This is a command from the clan."

Zhiyin's countenance being revealed was something that caused Wan Qingshan to feel extremely uncomfortable. Her beauty might block the path of his daughter, Wan Miaoyan. Now, Miaoyan had a sliver of chance to get together with the young master Duanmu, hence, he wanted to settle Zhiyin as soon as possible.

No matter how good Qin Wentian's temper was, no matter how much he couldn't be bothered with them earlier, right now, in the face of these countless insults, he could tolerate no longer. A wave of coldness finally radiated from him.

"You actually dare to get angry?" Mu Qiu had a look of interest on his face.

"Do you believe that I can make you guys unable to walk out from here?" Li Yufeng smiled as he stared at Mu Qiu and Duanmu before him.

Mu Qiu and Duanmu's expressions froze. After that, Mu Qiu started laughing. The people in the surroundings all laughed as well. Duanmu icily spoke, "Even if the Princess blames us, it seems that there are some things we must do no matter what. Lowly characters should have the attitude of a lowly character, an ant trying to shake a tree? Overestimating yourselves would only be courting death."

"Can you still tolerate this?" Qin Wentian asked in a light voice.

"No." Li Yufeng shook his head.

"Would we cause Nongyue to be unhappy?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"Nongyue wouldn't care about such a minor matter." Li Yufeng replied.

"They seem to have several immortal king guards." Qin Wentian continued.

"No problem, they wouldn't dare to act." Li Yufeng smiled.

"In that case, fine." Qin Wentian nodded lightly. The conversation between the two of them was extremely calm, filling Wan Miaoyan with even more disgust.

After that, everyone only saw Qin Wentian stepping out, moving towards Wan Qingshan.

Wan Qingshan looked at Qin Wentian as he coldly snorted.

"Before this, there was plenty of mocking, I might mind it a little but because you are nothing more than a pitiful worm, I didn't really hold it against you. However, although I didn't hold it against you, the mouths of you guys only got more and more smelly, as your countenances grew more and more ugly. I can forget everything that happened in the past, but your insult towards me and Zhiyin earlier, as well as that killing intent you unleashed, you ultimately would still have to pay a price for that." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Price?" Wan Qingshan unleashed his might, might from the peak of immortal-foundation.

"BOOM!" At the instant his aura gushed forth, Qin Wentian's palm already landed on his face, like a bolt of lightning.

"HOW DARE YOU!" Wan Miaoyan screamed. Wan Qingshan's aura fluctuated. Qin Wentian's palm attack transformed into a runic inscription palm imprint, directly breaking through all defenses.

"PAK!" The clear resounding sound of a slap rang out like thunder as Wan Qingshan was smacked to the ground. His face was swollen and on it, a bright red imprint of five fingers could be seen on the side of his face. The force of the blow was so great that his brain was rattled!

Chapter 1338: If He Doesn’t Die, Your Entire Clan Shall Be Annihilated

Wan Qingshan was stunned, so were the others of the Wan Clan. They didn't think that Qin Wentian would really act, and act so violently that a single slap sent Wan Qingshan flying to the ground.

Duanmu and Mu Qiu both were startled badly as well. Has this fellow gone mad?

"You are courting death!" Wan Yiyao shouted. Only to see Qin Wentian's left palm moving as another crisp sound rang out. Wan Yiyao was similarly sent flying.

"DIE!" Wan Qingshan who was on the ground suddenly erupted forth with an intense killing intent. However, even before he could climb up, Qin Wentian's feet already stomped down, like a foot of divinity, pressing against his chest. With a plop, Wan Qingshan coughed out fresh blood as his internal organs shuddered.

"Wentian." Wan Zhuqing's expression froze. Did the scene he feared finally occur?

"ARGH!" Wan Qingshan was being trampled upon, he had never felt such humiliation before. A terrifying killing intent surrounded him, as a surge of destructive energy was channeled into him. But the young man with his foot on him didn't even look at him? The calmness on his face also indicated contempt for Wan Qingshan. At this instant, everyone could feel the threat Qin Wentian represented.

"Release your feet!" Wan Miaoyan's anger surged forth, like a blazing goddess, wanting to burn everything to cinders.

"How truly impudent." Duanmu murmured.

"Since you guys acted first. You can only blame yourselves for courting death." Mu Qiu smiled. He then spoke, "I don't wish to see the two of them any longer."

As the sound of his voice faded, the protectors around him all radiated coldness, as immortal king might bore down on Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng.

But at this moment, those immortal kings froze and didn't move as their expressions changed.

"Huh?" Mu Qiu frowned, staring at his protectors. "Didn't you all hear my words?"

"Young master, the other party has experts protecting them too." An immortal king spoke in a low voice, causing Mu Qiu's expression to stiffen. He stared at Li Yufeng only to see Li Yufeng smiling. In the next instant, numerous experts walked over here, causing the atmosphere to instantly turn tense.

When this scene occurred, both Mu Qiu and Duanmu narrowed their eyes. While the people of the Wan Clan all had extremely fascinating expressions.

Wan Miaoyan stared at these experts who appeared before she glanced at Li Yufeng and Qin Wentian. Could it be that there's some major power behind that fellow?

But Qin Wentian had always been alone and was in Skyflame City with them.

"There doesn't seem to be a character like you in the royal capital. Who are you?" Mu Qiu stared at Li Yufeng,

"Someone from the outside." Li Yufeng lightly laughed.

"Since you came from the other regions, even if you have some immortal kings protecting you, this place is the royal capital after all and you don't have the qualifications to act wild here. Apologize now and scram." Duanmu icily spoke. As an emperor-ranked power in the royal capital, his perspective was naturally higher compared to many. Li Yufeng's guards might frighten the Wan Clan, but to them? It was still far from sufficient.

"Earlier I've already said that I will make you guys unable to walk out of this area." Li Yufeng's countenance was as calm as ever. "Tell me, do you all want to fight against me solo, or do you all want a group battle?"

"What audacious words. I truly want to see where your courage comes from, daring to say such words in front of I, Mu Qiu." Mu Qiu spoke loudly. More and more people in the surroundings glanced over, and for those who knew of the Mu Clan and the Duanmu Clan, all had looks of interest on their faces as they prepared to watch the incoming drama.

Things are going to be exciting. The Mu Clan and the Duanmu Clan in the royal capital are extremely terrifying, both of them are emperor-ranked powers and had deep roots in the royal capital.

Right now, there seemed to be someone from an outside power who clashed with the young masters of both clans. Given the confidence of the outsider, maybe his background might be extraordinary as well. In fact, the probability is high that the outsider also originated from an emperor-ranked power.

Immortal emperors were characters who stood at the highest peak in the immortal realms. In perspective of the entire living entities, the number of immortal emperors were pathetically limited, leading to a small amount of emperor-ranked powers. It wasn't easy to encounter anyone from an emperor-ranked power normally.

A genius that was nurtured by such a power would naturally have an unexcelled arrogance in their bones.

"The two of you, come at me together." Mu Qiu stepped forth, speaking to Li Yufeng and Qin Wentian.

"....."

Li Yufeng truly didn't know whether to laugh or cry. It was very rare for someone to treat him like this, acting towards him with such contempt. A mere descendant from an emperor-ranked power actually dared to tell him and Qin Wentian to come at him together?

One was the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect while the other was a peak genius who caused storms of blood in the sacred academy. In addition, both of them were rankers of the Supreme Might Rankings.

Mu Qiu, wanted them both to come at him together?

"Do you want to do it, or shall I?" Li Yufeng turned back and asked Qin Wentian.

"You can do the honors." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Although Li Yufeng's cultivation was slightly lower than his, Qin Wentian wouldn't doubt his strength. Facing against a mere Mu Qiu, Mu Qiu simply wasn't even worthy of a mention.

"Sure." Li Yufeng smiled and nodded his head. After that, an extremely powerful aura gushed forth from Mu Qiu as golden light illuminated the area around him. This powerful technique caused the people of a large area around here to notice.

Li Yufeng released his immortal-foundation. In an instant, boundless light cloaked him, forming into layers of battle armor. A terrifying furnace that seemed to be able to refine everything in the heavens and earth took form behind him, flowing with dark golden currents, brewing a firestorm of devastation. His immortal law energy covered this entire space and for an instant, everyone nearby felt that they were being baked in a furnace.

Mu Qiu and Duanmu's countenance both changed. This aura was way too overwhelming.

A peak-level immortal-foundation expert releasing his aura instantly drew countless gazes over. Many people had a puzzled expression. At this banquet organized by Princess Nongyue, someone actually dared to create a scene here?

"BOOM!" Mu Qiu stepped out. The golden killing light he radiated blasted out as his domain contracted, shrinking the battlefield to a very small space.

The terrifying furnace seemed capable of devouring everything, directly engulfing the golden light, devouring it as it flew towards Mu Qiu.

"ARGH!" Abruptly, a scream of misery rang out from Mu Qiu. He felt the temperature around him soaring drastically, to the point where he felt he himself was directly being refined. A smaller furnace appeared above him, cascading its light down onto him, wanting to melt him down.

"Stay your hand!" A violent roar rang out, Mu Qiu's protectors stepped forth but at the same time, the experts around Li Yufeng also stepped out, directly blocking them. The auras from both sides swept out, gushing against each other, causing everyone in the area to notice.

"It's them, those whom we met before." The expressions of people of the Wan Clan all turned unsightly. Li Yufeng's group was actually the group they saw soaring through the air just as they arrived at the royal capital. To them, this group of people was also legendary characters.

And this Li Yufeng actually called Qin Wentian as Brother Qin. In that case, what sort of character was Qin Wentian exactly?

The expressions of everyone from the Wan Clan all changed. At this moment, they finally understood that they just got dragged into a storm that was beyond their level to handle.

Wan Qingshan was still trampled on by Qin Wentian. Wan Yiyao was bleeding from the corner of her mouth. But at this instant, the shock in their hearts far exceeded the pain of their injuries. Even a character like Mu Qiu could feel the threat of death.

"Do you want to die in the royal capital?" Mu Qiu glared at Li Yufeng.

"Earlier, didn't you still want the two of us to come at you together? Who would have thought that you are such trash. You can't win against me and you decided to threaten me now?" Li Yufeng laughed.

"The Princess is coming over. Release him." Duanmu spoke. Everyone respectively inclined their heads and saw Princess Nongyue bringing some experts over. Her magnificence caused those who saw her to bow and pay respects to her. Even those from the Mu and the Duanmu Clans all bowed as they called out, "We pay our respects to Princess."

"We pay our respects to Princess." The people of the Wan Clan all bowed as well, as they stared at this legendary character, the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

"Princess, I'm Duanmu Xiu of the Duanmu Clan. The origins of this man are unknown, he actually dares to create a scene at the banquet Princess is hosting. This crime of his can only be payable by his death." The young master Duanmu bowed to Beiming Nongyue as he spoke. At this moment, Mu Qiu's life was in danger. In that case, Duanmu Xiu decided to make use of the princess' presence instead.

Li Yufeng laughed, he laughed in a very interesting manner.

Qin Wentian lightly shook his head. This Mu Qiu and Duanmu Xiu are both courting their deaths.

Beiming Nongyue turned to Duanmu, she then spoke, "Before this, I've already noticed the scene here. The conflict happened only because of both of you. If I have to administer punishment, doesn't that mean that I have to execute all of you involved?

Duanmu Xiu instantly stiffened as his countenance grew unsightly.

"Princess, I'm Mu Qiu of the Mu Clan. This man is barbaric and has no one in his eyes, he even shows great disrespect towards Princess." Mu Qiu could feel the threat of death looming over him, at this point of time, how could he care about face?

"Is that so?" Beiming Nongyue spoke. "In that case, I should have to thank you for acting for the sake of me? Fine then, you guys can continue."

Everyone felt their hearts tremble. A princess of the dynasty, even if it was descendants of an emperor-ranked power, does she even needs to care?

Naturally, there was no need for her to give any face. The people of the Wan Clan had countenances as pale as paper.

"Before this, I've already reminded you twice. Today, you won't be able to leave this place." Li Yufeng stared at Mu Qiu. Instantly, a terrifying surge of destructive might gushed forth.

"ARGH!" Mu Qiu screamed in agony, his body was being refined inch by inch and at this very moment, a terrifying burst of immortal light gushed forth from him, forming into the silhouette of an imposing expert, an immortal emperor's protective strand of immortal sense.

"How dare you!" This immortal emperor roared, coldly looking at Li Yufeng.

"You are the impudent one." Beiming Nongyue snorted coldly. Only then did the immortal emperor notice her.

"Princess Nongyue, what's going on? Why is someone trying to kill my grandson?" That immortal emperor asked.

"Your grandson is too tyrannical, having no one in his eyes, wanting to expel me from here on behalf of the princess. He even told me that I won't be leaving the royal capital alive. Hence, he has to die." Li Yufeng inclined his head, staring at the immortal emperor as he slowly replied. Countless people were shocked by this. Despite the appearance of an immortal emperor, he actually still dared to be so domineering!

"You think you can touch him?" Killing intent radiated from the immortal emperor, only to see countless immortal king experts swiftly appearing before Li Yufeng, protecting him.

However, Li Yufeng was laughing when he felt the killing intent.

"The battle was initiated by him. He can't win against me so an elder of his clan stepped out?" Li Yufeng mockingly laughed. "You want to protect him? Fine, I can give you a chance. But if he doesn't die today, do you believe I will exterminate your entire clan as the price?"

Chapter 1339: Everyone Shudders

As the sound of Li Yufeng's voice faded, silence descended upon the entire area.

At this moment, the person before Li Yufeng was a projection of an immortal emperor's immortal sense. There was naturally no way for Li Yufeng to not know who he was speaking to.

However, even when facing an immortal emperor, he actually said such a thing about exterminating his entire clan if Mu Qiu didn't die.

Do you want Mu Qiu to die? Or do you want your entire clan to die?

Was this arrogance? How exceedingly arrogant! In addition, he was actually this arrogant before Princess Nongyue.

When arrogance reached an extreme, others wouldn't think that this person was ignorant any longer. Only those with a truly terrifying background and self-confidence would act like this. What capabilities does he have to threaten an immortal emperor? Immortal emperors wouldn't be frightened so easily.

The destructive might enveloped Qiu Mu. Duanmu Xiu also froze. The immortal king guards beside them and the people of the Wan Clan didn't dare to move as well.

Mu Qiu and Duanmu had always confidently thought that as long as the other party isn't from the royal clan of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, in this royal capital, they only couldn't afford to offend very few characters who were similarly from emperor-ranked powers. Especially when Mu Qiu stood together with Duanmu Xiu, their confidence grew even more intense. They all were acquainted with those they shouldn't antagonize. But they didn't recognise Li Yufeng.

The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's territory was extremely vast but in this royal capital alone, the number of people they can't afford to offend, was truly only a limited few. Hence, they naturally felt that they were qualified to be domineering.

But at this moment, both Mu Qiu and Duanmu could feel an extraordinary aura. Could it be that this man before them really was from a power which both of them couldn't afford to offend?

If not, why would he dare to say such words in front of an immortal emperor?

Right now, all the Wan Clan was so terrified that they stood there dumbfoundedly when they heard those words. The beautiful eyes of Wan Miaoyan were still cold, but great waves of shock were buffeting her heart. She discovered that things were much more complicated than what she imagined. The people whom she thought lowly of, might very well be existences her Wan Clan couldn't afford to offend. They might be someone on the same tier as those legendary characters.

Wan Qingshan was still being trampled upon by Qin Wentian. He raised his head and stared at Qin Wentian, only to discover Qin Wentian's expression was as calm as ever. It was as though his expression would never change and as though Li Yufeng's words were only natural. At this moment, Wan Qingshan suddenly had an extremely uncomfortable feeling, as chills appeared in his heart.

That immortal emperor stared at Li Yufeng, wanting to see through him. After that, he glanced at the technique unleashed by Li Yufeng as his eyes narrowed. This type of energy isn't similar to anything he knew from any of the peak powers in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

"Who are you?" That immortal emperor asked.

"Li Yufeng." Staring at the other party's eyes, Li Yufeng calmly smiled. Naturally, he didn't think that just a name was sufficient to frighten an immortal emperor. Similarly as a peak power of the northern regions, the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty might be located in the neighbouring area next to the Hundred Refinements Sect, the distance was still too vast after all. Everyone in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty recognized the princesses, but only a few of them would recognize a Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect.

Only those immortal kings who were truly at the peak, or famous immortal emperors would have their names circulated around the vast immortal realms.

Qin Wentian's name could circulate around the eastern regions of the immortal realms because it was a miracle. As for Li Yufeng, he hasn't done anything so miraculous yet.

"I came from the Hundred Refinements Sect." Li Yufeng's next words were like thunder from a clear sky, ringing out loud in the ears of that immortal emperor and Mu Qiu.

"As expected…" That immortal emperor narrowed his eyes. When he heard this immortal-foundation character threatening to exterminate his clan, he should have already thought of the possibility that this young man might be from a peak power. And for the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, there weren't any other peak powers other than their royal clan.

Mu Qiu and Duanmu Xiu were descendants from emperor-ranked powers. Although they didn't know who Li Yufeng was, they naturally wouldn't be so ignorant to the extent where they have never heard of the Hundred Refinements Sect before. It was a peak power on equal standing as the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

Their hearts, continued sinking.

"This is the Saint Child of my sect." An immortal king guard beside Li Yufeng coldly spoke. At this place, his Saint Child was actually threatened by a junior at the immortal-foundation realm, saying that Li Yufeng has to die in the royal capital. What nonsense was this?

Mu Qiu turned pale. He finally understood that he encountered someone he couldn't afford to antagonize.

"Mu Qiu, kneel down and apologize." That immortal emperor berated. Mu Qiu was trembling, and his face was now completely pale. Before the countless gazes of everyone, before Beiming Nongyue, he had to kneel down to apologize?

The expressions of those from the Wan Clan all turned extremely fascinating to behold. The waves of shock in the hearts of Wan Miaoyan, Wan Yiyao and their group, was the most intense. They initially thought that Duanmu Xiu and Mu Qiu were legendary lofty characters at the peak. Hence, their Wan Clan wanted to spare no expense to curry favor with them.

However, to their horror, they discovered that those whom they looked down upon with disdain, were actually characters Mu Qiu and Duanmu Xiu couldn't afford to offend.

"Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, Li Yufeng." Wan Zhuqing mumbled. Right now, his state of heart was being shaken by waves of shock. This… wasn't this the name Qin Wentian had mentioned before?

Qin Wentian said before that Beiming Nongyue, the princess of the immortal dynasty already had someone she loved. And the person she loved was none other than the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, Li Yufeng.

At that time, Wan Zhuqing still thought that Qin Wentian was joking. He said that Qin Wentian was such a good joker, speaking of such things with such conviction as though they were true… But now, Li Yufeng was right before his eyes and he is really the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect. Not only that, he was also acquainted with Qin Wentian and referred to Qin Wentian as Brother Qin.

When he connected everything together, one could very well imagine how great the waves of shock in Wan Zhuqing's heart were.

Was what Qin Wentian told him before really a joke?

Wan Zhuqing trembled. He inclined his head and stared at Beiming Nongyue in the air. She had been quietly standing there from the start. Earlier, Duanmu Xiu and Mu Qiu wanted her to back them up but she didn't bother with them. If what Qin Wentian said was real, in that case, then...

Since Wan Zhuqing could think of this, Zhiyin naturally could as well. After all, she was in the sedan with them too. However, her state of heart was much calmer in comparison. After all, she had once asked Qin Wentian about who he was before and Qin Wentian did admit that he had a pretty extraordinary background. It was just that Zhiyin didn't expect how extraordinary Qin Wentian truly was.

Next, Wan Yiyao started to tremble. Wan Zhuqing's soft words reminded her of the words she heard before. Back then, she mocked Zhiyin for acting pure, and mocked Qin Wentian for speaking about lofty characters to elevate his own status. But now, the lies she assumed, were all proven real one by one.

"Li Yufeng is the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect. In that case, who was Qin Wentian?" Many of those from the Wan Clan turned their gazes to Qin Wentian. Wan Qingshan who was being trampled upon, seemed to have forgotten the shame of being trampled on. His mind was in chaos, and thinking of everything that happened before, his heart couldn't help but to shudder.

"Cough…" A low groan was heard as Wan Qingshan coughed out another mouthful of blood. However, nobody from the Wan Clan dared to move.

"Apologize?" Li Yufeng suddenly laughed. If apologizing was enough, there wouldn't be any fights in the cultivation world. I insulted you and wanted to kill you but when I discovered I'm weaker than you, I apologize to you… Where would there be such a wonderful thing in the world?

"Have you thought clearly? Can I kill him now? So is it he who dies, or your entire clan?"

Li Yufeng coldly spoke. Earlier his temper was too good. He even found it somewhat funny. It has always been him suppressing others with his background, when had it ever been the other way round? Truly, this is such a shameful thing.

Mu Qiu dies, or his entire clan gets annihilated?

These simple words were sharp and tyrannical to the extreme. Mu Qiu felt a bone-chilling cold, he had never expected death would be so close to him.

"Princess, can you spare Mu Qiu?" That immortal emperor turned to stare at Beiming Nongyue. Li Yufeng wasn't willing to spare Mu Qiu, in that case, he can only place his hopes on Beiming Nongyue. This place was the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty after all. As long as Beiming Nongyue was willing to help, everything could be settled easily.

"Emperor Mu, one must ultimately pay the price for the things they have done. I've seen everything which happened earlier, Mu Qiu was too domineering and arrogant, wanting to expel people who came to participate in this gathering, even using death to threaten them. Since this is the case, he must pay the price for his actions. Luckily, your Mu Clan still isn't implicated within. Hence, Emperor Mu, you should just step back." Beiming Nongyue calmly replied.

After that, her gaze turned to Li Yufeng again, "You too, since you are already here, you can just look for me directly. Why must you create such a scene."

After she spoke, the hearts of countless people shuddered, look for her directly?

The princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Beiming Nongyue seemed to be acquainted with the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, Li Yufeng. In addition, their relationship seemed to be quite deep.

"I initially wanted to give you a surprise." Li Yufeng laughed. Beiming Nongyue rolled her eyes. After that, her silhouette flashed as she appeared beside Li Yufeng.

In the next instant, their hands intertwined.

Sounds of exclamations instantly rang out, as the entirety of people here were shocked.

Seeing such a scene, how could they still not understand what's going on.

The Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect and Princess Nongyue of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty were actually a couple.

Mu Qiu's countenance was like dead ashes as despair rose up in his heart. Duanmu Xiu's face was filled with panic. Although right now, nobody was making a move on him, his body was trembling from the fear in his heart.

The people of the Wan Clan were pale white, everything Qin Wentian has said before, was real.

Beiming Nongyue, princess of their dynasty, someone so lofty which they can never come in contact to, was now holding Li Yufeng's hand while Li Yufeng referred to Qin Wentian as Brother Qin.

"Is this the surprise you want to give me?" Beiming Nongyue speechlessly said.

"Haha, you can't blame me for this. All this happened because of Brother Qin. Being able to meet a character like him here, how can that not be considered a surprise?" Li Yufeng laugheed.

Beiming Nongyue and Li Yufeng both turned together, staring at Qin Wentian. The lofty princess in the eyes of the Wan Clan now had a smile on her face as she spoke, "Since you came to my Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, why are you still here to take the test? You can come and find me directly too, would I not dare to welcome a grand character like you?!"

Chapter 1340: Too Late for Regrets

Beiming Nongyue's words instantly shifted the attention of everyone to Qin Wentian. She came here personally, and was holding Li Yufeng's hands, causing boundless shock to everyone. Li Yufeng was the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect.

And now, Beiming Nongyue was treating Qin Wentian equally too. Who was he exactly?

In fact, Beiming Nongyue's tone had the lilting hint of a tease.

"You can come find me directly too, how would I not dare to welcome a grand character like you?"

What status did this young man have exactly? Why was he qualified for the princess to joke with him? Also, the term which Beiming Nongyue referred to him as, was very interesting as well. A grand character?

In addition, Li Yufeng earlier also said that he came here only because he discovered Qin Wentian was here. For someone that could instantly attract the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect over, and even made the Darknorth Princess refer to him as such, what sort of person was he exactly?

At the very least, this Qin Wentian must have an equal status in comparison to them. Not only in terms of cultivation base, but also in terms of talent and background.

After all, if speaking of cultivation bases, most of the people here had equal cultivation bases to Li Yufeng and Beiming Nongyue.

Originally, Duanmu Xiu's heart was already numb. Earlier, if it still wasn't bad enough that he offended Li Yufeng, right now, he was thoroughly in the throes of despair. He had insulted Qin Wentian much worse compared to how he insulted Li Yufeng.

And now, the words spoken by Princess Nongyue were undoubtedly telling him that it didn't matter who he offended because he couldn't afford to offend any of them.

The people of the Wan Clan were all shaking, even for Wan Qingshan who was still being stomped on by Qin Wentian. At this instant, he didn't feel anger nor humiliation. He only felt despair.

Before this, all those mocking words he had spoken to Qin Wentian before now contained a pressure heavy enough to squash him to death.

"Grand character?" Qin Wentian didn't think so much. When he heard how Beiming Nongyue addressed him, he couldn't help but laugh as he shrugged his shoulders. "I came here to temper myself and just so coincidentally, the date for the opening of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is near. And who would have thought that the person hosting the banquet would actually be you? If I knew this, I wouldn't have mingled with the crowd. I was even told to scram and received death threats."

Qin Wentian's casual words, were like thunder ringing out in Mu Qiu, Duanmu Xiu and the Wan Clan's ears. Before this, Qin Wentian was merely a 'minor' character. Nobody would care about his words. In fact, he was even insulted by others as they assumed his words to be of arrogance. But now, each and every one of his words would determine the life and death of these people around him.

"Am I wrong saying that you are a grand character? Back then, wherever you went, all the geniuses there would tremble as you caused a storm of blood." Beiming Nongyue laughed. "At that time, compared to you, I who am a princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty did truly seem insignificant."

"Yeah, when I was knocked off from the Supreme Might Rankings by you back then, I always wanted to find you for a spar. However, I soon discovered that I wouldn't be able to win. As the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, I can only shake my head in despair." Li Yufeng laughed. He still couldn't see through Qin Wentian, but back then in that intense battle at the sacred academy where Qin Wentian fought against Huang Shatian to a draw, Li Yufeng knew that he wouldn't be able to do the same.

Also, afterwards he also learned that at the foot of the devil mountain, Qin Wentian had actually defeated Huang Shatian. Under the immortal king realm, there shouldn't be anyone else who can defeat him despite the vastness of the immortal realms.

"Who is this fellow exactly?"

"Princess Nongyue and Saint Child Li Yufeng, although they seem to be joking, their words clearly indicate that they are inferior to Qin Wentian. How terrifying is Qin Wentian exactly…?"

Beiming Nongyue's fame wasn't simply dependent on her beauty. And since Li Yufeng could become the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect, it naturally depended on his absolute talent. However, the two of them were actually indicating that they were inferior to this inconspicuous character among the crowd. How could the hearts of everyone not tremble?

"You guys should stop praising me so much." Qin Wentian shook his head and smiled. "It has been so many years since we last met. Now that I met you, a couple who engenders envy in others, shouldn't you two treat me to a drink?"

"Naturally, after the matter here is settled, come with me to my pavilion. I will show graciousness of being the host." Beiming Nongyue nodded and smiled.

Their conversations were like old friends speaking, ordinary and mediocre. Qin Wentian's tone was as calm as ever, even when he was facing the incredibly lofty and high-up Princess Nongyue.

Right now, the faces of everyone in the Wan Clan were burning with shame when they thought that in the past, Qin Wentian was intentionally speaking arrogantly to elevate himself. But when a person of his status spoke to people like Duanmu Xiu, did he even need to act? Even if he was speaking to Beiming Nongyue, he was as calm as ever. Those with true pride in themselves who acted like this no matter who they were facing. Hence, there was no need for him to look up to anyone, he could calmly treat them equally.

Only now did the people of the Wan Clan understand. Their hearts were like being sliced by blades. Wan Yiyao didn't even dare to look at Qin Wentian directly now, that young man who was speaking to Princess Nongyue.

As for Mu Qiu, it was as though the three of them have forgotten about him. Even for the immortal emperor's immortal sense, it was being ignored as well. What attitude was this?

It was like from their point of views, Mu Qiu basically was an insignificant worm. As for the immortal sense of the immortal emperor, it was after all, merely a strand of immortal sense. Unless of course the immortal emperor personally appeared, maybe then, they would take him more seriously.

"Pu."

At this moment, a light plopping sound rang out, causing the eyes of everyone to narrow as their hearts pounded.

The young master of the Duanmu Clan actually knelt down to Li Yufeng and Qin Wentian at this moment.

The lofty and arrogant Duanmu Xiu was actually kneeling on the ground and even kowtowing to them. "I, Duanmu Xiu, have eyes but couldn't see. Earlier, I insulted both sirs but luckily, I have not commit any great mistakes yet. I hope that Princess and the two sirs would be able to forgive me. If you have any requests, I, Duanmu Xiu, would naturally do my best to fulfil them."

Duanmu Xiu knelt on the ground and begged for mercy, there was an intense struggle in his heart. He was lofty and arrogant. However, this completely destroyed his pride. Earlier, the three of them casually spoke, yet this made Duanmu Xiu truly sense how extraordinary they are. They simply didn't care about the life or death of Mu Xiu. Naturally, they didn't care about him as well. Even for the protective immortal sense of an immortal emperor, they had the guts to ignore it.

He wanted to leave here alive, and if he wanted to do so, he could only kneel and beg for mercy.

Mu Qiu, Duanmu Xiu were both incomparably arrogant people. Right now, Mu Qiu was on the verge of death. Duanmu Xiu was kneeling and begging for mercy.

Before this, their arrogant behaviours were still fresh on everyone's minds. Duanmu Xiu, the legendary character whom everyone revered, was know on his knees, begging Qin Wentian for mercy.

She once said that Qin Wentian was just an ant while Duanmu Xiu was a legendary character standing on the clouds. Duanmu Xiu only needed to casually stomp and Qin Wentian would be squashed to bits.

She once said that Qin Wentian was a lowly character who didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth.

But who was it exactly that was the lowly one?

Who was it exactly, that was the legendary character standing on the clouds?

Sometimes, those legendary characters might just be beside you but was ignored completely. In fact, they even insulted this man, projecting their contempt to him.

Today, the people of the Wan Clan clearly understood the idiom, 'having eyes but unable to see clearly.'

"Brother Qin, have you decided?" Princess Nongyue asked.

Qin Wentian calmly regarded Duanmu who was kneeling before him. He had no looks of satisfaction on his face. With regards to this, he really couldn't be bothered at all. At the start, Duanmu Xiu was exceedingly arrogant and even insulted him. But now, his arrogance most probably had completely crumbled.

Actually, he didn't need to do anything. From now on, Duanmu Xiu would never be able to raise his head high again. The moment he knelt today, his prestige had been completely destroyed.

"Scram." Qin Wentian blasted out a palm strike and with a bang, Duanmu Xiu was blasted far away. An imprint of five fingers could also be seen on his face. Qin Wentian didn't take his life, but the misery in Duanmu Xiu's heart now was even tougher to endure compared to death.

He really rolled away, leaving here like a defeated dog. He might have kept his life, but he lost all his face and prestige. From now on, he would never be the same again.

Qin Wentian naturally understood this. Duanmu Xiu's life was in his hands, but he still chose to spare him. The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty ruled over this area, but no matter what, the Duanmu Clan was still an emperor-ranked power. With the Mu Clan, these two emperor-ranked powers must definitely have terrifying influence. Although the dynasty wouldn't care about a single immortal emperor, Qin Wentian still had to consider things for Beiming Nongyue. It was enough to kill a single Mu Qiu. Duanmu Xiu wasn't as disgusting as Mu Qiu, and so, he decided to spare him.

"Plop." Mu Qiu also knelt down at this instant. Qin Wentian glanced at him with disgust. Earlier, the words he spoke to Zhiyin were already sufficient to determine his death.

"It's useless even if you kneel." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. As he spoke, Li Yufeng nodded, "I think so too."

As the sound of his voice faded, the people of the Hundred Refinements Sect naturally helped him to make a move. A blast of refinement energy shot out, enveloping and devouring Mu Qiu completely. Mu Qiu was being refined by that terrifying destructive might as he screamed in agony. The body formed by the immortal emperor's immortal sense was trembling in anger but he couldn't do anything. He then turned to Beiming Nongyue, "Princess, I will take my leave."

As the sound of his voice faded, the immortal sense dissipated away. A powerful young master of the Mu Clan died just like that.

"Are there any of your friends among them?" Beiming Nongyue glanced at the Wan Clan.

"This is Zhiyin, a friend of mine. This is her father, Wan Zhuqing, they are good friends which I got acquainted with as I travelled here." Qin Wentian smiled as he introduced.

"Miss Zhiyin, Mr. Wan." Beiming Nongyue smiled and nodded to them both.

"Princess." Zhiyin bowed, she naturally knew of etiquette. But Wan Zhuqing wasn't as calm as her. He was trembling as he bowed, "Wan Zhuqing pays his respects to Princess."

"Old sir, since you are the friend of Brother Qin, you naturally are a valued guest of my Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. There's no need to be so polite." Beiming Nongyue smiled. When the people of the Wan Clan saw this scene, they even had thoughts of wanting to die.

Chapter 1341: Sorrowful

Zhiyin, Wan Zhuqing, both were people despised by their own Wan Clan. In fact, Wan Qingshan had tried to sacrifice Zhiyin multiple times to please Mu Qiu.

Princess Nongyue was someone they could never match up to. But now, Princess Nongyue actually said to Zhiyin and Wan Zhuqing that they were valued guests of her Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

Such an opportunity could at first be given to the entire Wan Clan. However, because of their attitude towards Qin Wentian, they all lost the chance. In fact, they even became Qin Wentian's enemy.

"What about them?" Beiming Nongyue glanced over to the rest of the Wan Clan.

"Not really familiar with them. However, these strangers repeatedly insulted me. I still have not accounted the debt with them." Qin Wentian spoke in a light voice, his words causing the Wan Clan to turn pale.

After that, Qin wentian stared at Wan Qingshan. "Initially, I couldn't be bothered with your attitude. But over here, you tried to sacrifice Zhiyin to curry favor with Mu Qiu, you used the word 'lowly' to insult me. Just based on these two points, you already deserve death."

Wan Qingshan's countenance was like dead ashes as despair rose up in his heart. He knew he wouldn't be able to live.

At the next instant, Wan Qingshan abruptly started laughing, in a very crazed manner. He crawled up and his appearance did seem like a mad man.

"I Wan Qingshan have eyes but am blind." Wan Qingshan mockingly laughed at himself. "Back when Zhuqing invited you into our clan, we initially had the chance to befriend you. But because of Yiyao's wilfulness, Miaoyan's arrogance, and our pitiful false pride, we ignored and even insulted you. After coming to the royal capital, our arrogant Wan Clan became civil, clad in humility, not daring to offend anyone. We treated people like Duanmu Xiu as legendary characters but what's laughable is that people like him simply weren't even worth a mention before your eyes. How ridiculous, how pitiful."

Wan Zhuqing felt sorrow in his heart as he stared at his second brother. Truly pitiful indeed, who would have thought that right in their Wan Clan, there already was a legendary character who could cause Duanmu Xiu to kneel down.

"Yiyao, Miaoyan, both of you kneel down." Wan Qingshan suddenly spoke. Wan Miaoyan and Wan Yiyao froze. They had to kneel?

Wan Yiyao glanced at Qin Wentian, great waves of shock rose up in her heart at this moment. If it wasn't for her willfulness, telling Qin Wentian to go and tame Redwing,purposely kept making things difficult for him and even insulted him, would the ending today be different?

When Qin Wentian spoke, he was incomparably calm, no matter who he was speaking to. She didn't like that expression and thought that Qin Wentian was pretending to act cool so as to elevate himself. However, how wrong was she?

She cast another glance at Beiming Nongyue who was beside Qin Wentian. This magnificence princess was a lofty character who stood on the clouds. Right now, she was standing beside Qin Wentian just like an old friend.

"Father, I know you want to save me. However, since we are already wrong, just let us continue to be wrong." Wan Miaoyan calmly spoke. She closed her eyes but she was feeling extremely complicated in her heart.

"However, I'm still extremely reluctant. This time, we came here to the royal capital for the sake of entering the immortal mountain, for the sake of breaking through to immortal king." Wan Miaoyan closed her eyes and sighed with despair. She then opened her eyes and glanced at Qin Wentian, "I want to challenge you. If you really depended on true strength to gain the favor of princess and saint child, even if you kill me, I won't complain."

"Miaoyan." Wan Qingshan shouted.

"Father, there's no need to persuade me. Before this when in front of Duanmu Xiu, we were already bending over our backs to please him. This time, I won't kneel even if it means death." Wan Miaoyan stared at Qin Wentian. She soared up into the air and coldly looked at him. Blazing flames spread around her, "Even if I have to die, I will fight to the death."

Qin Wentian inclined his head, a mocking smile appeared on his face as he stared at Wan Miaoyan.

"Do you think you would appear very respectable just like that?" Qin Wentian faintly spoke. "Insulting others to show your arrogance, nothing but a bitch with a dirty mouth. What qualifications do you have to speak of the word 'challenge' to me? Or could it be that you still harbor a trace of hope? Thinking that it wouldn't look good on me to act against you if you defeated me?"

If Wan Miaoyan simply looked down on him, he wouldn't have minded it. But words like lowly, despicable, ant-like being as well as many other words of mockery had already completely eradicated his patience. Those words spoken before weren't something that could be cancelled out just like that.

Wan Miaoyan felt her heart pounding rapidly when she heard his reply, as her countenance couldn't help but change.

Qin Wentian glanced at her expression and coldly laughed, "As expected, you still have your pitiful pride, having those lowly thoughts."

As the sound of his voice faded, a powerful law energy gushed forth from Qin Wentian. He lifted his palm as countless runes transformed, forming into a gigantic palm imprint of destruction.

Wan Miaoyan's expression drastically changed as she frenziedly released her energy to defend. However, as the destructive palm landed, she was akin to an ant, directly being grabbed. The palm then flung her down with force as she slammed harshly onto the ground, feeling her inner organs shaking as she coughed out blood. Qin Wentian calmly stood there. From start until the end, he didn't move at all.

The people in the surroundings felt their hearts trembling. What terrifying strength. They were all at immortal-foundation but that palm strike was simply too fearsome.

Qin Wentian didn't stop. His palm continued pressing forward towards Wan Qingshan. With a single strike, the destructive energy flooded into Wan Qingshan's body, shattering his immortal-foundation.

At the same time, his left palm slammed out, smashing against Wan Yiyao, sending her flying through the air.

Wan Qingshan, Wan Miaoyan and Wan Yiyao all landed together, each suffering various degrees of injuries. Their faces were filled with despair as they stared at the young man whom they looked down upon.

However, Qin Wentian stopped. He merely turned and faced Beiming Nongyue, "Sorry, is it very boring?"

"I found it quite interesting." Beiming Nongyue laughed. She turned to Wan Miaoyan and spoke, "Given Brother Qin's current cultivation base, most probably in the entire immortal realms, at the same level, it's rare to find anywho could stand against him. However, you choose to bow down to characters like Duanmu Xiu and Mu Qiu to curry favor and to think that you even have the face to mention the word 'challenge.' Isn't this very interesting?"

Beiming Nongyue's words caused Wan Miaoyan's heart to pound badly, destroying her pride. Was she acting like what she disdained? The same thing she had said to Qin Wentian back then, by pretending to be respectable and lofty in order to elevate her own status. From this point, who was the truly lowly one?

In the eyes of people like Qin Wentian and Beiming Nongyue, what does she, Wan Miaoyan, count for?

"Truly interesting. Haha, let's go to the pavilion." Li Yufeng laughed.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly, ignoring the others from the Wan Clan, as well as Wan Miaoyan and the rest who were knocked down by him. At this instant, Wan Miaoyan and the others finally understood that they simply didn't exist in Qin Wentian's eyes at all. So, his calmness before this, was because he disdained to even bother with them.

"Zhiyin and old sir, let's go together." Beiming Nongyue smiled at them. Zhiyin glanced at Qin wentian but she didn't say anything but Wan Zhuqing was still stunened from the words Beiming Nongyue spoke earlier. In the entire immortal realms, it's rare to find anyone who could stand against Qin Wentian given his current cultivation base?

Beiming Nongyue's words were sufficient to cause the hearts of everyone to tremble. If it was spoken by ordinary people, it would most probably be laughed off. But the person who said this was the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Beiming Nongyue.

In that case, the weightage of these words were naturally worth their weight in gold.

Beiming Nongyue's figure flashed as she moved forward. Qin Wentian and the others respectively followed behind. There's naturally someone who already set up the tables necessary for the banquet at the pavillion. Beiming Nongyue didn't sit on the black throne, she chose to sit with the others, just like a gathering of friends.

She then stood up and smiled to everyone, "Although some minor things occured, don't allow the atmosphere to be spoiled because of that. These few are my friends and everyone should already know from earlier that Li Yufeng is the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect. Brother Qin is someone I got acquainted with back in the sacred academy. The sacred academy gathers the most talented geniuses in the immortal realms and among them, Brother Qin ranks right at the top."

Everyone turned to Qin Wentian. No wonder Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child Li Yufeng placed so much importance on this man. This man was even able to cause intense storms in the sacred academy, and although Beiming Nongyue said it simply, all of them understood how terrifying someone must be in order to rank at the top among the geniuses in the sacred academy.

"He seems to be another absolute character. Such a character came to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty as well. Seems like the reputation of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is real." Someone spoke.

"To think that we actually could meet Sir Qin here. I wonder if we can request for a few cups of wine from the Princess as well?" At this moment, a melodious voice rang out as quite a few beautiful figures soared into the air. As everyone turned their gazes over, sounds of exclamation could be heard. These maidens who just appeared seemed to be intent on masking their features. All of them were veiled. But at this moment, their veils were removed as their beautiful faces appeared in the vision of everyone.

"This...there are so many beauties here." Everyone's hearts trembled.

"Oh, so it's the celestial maidens from the Jadestage Immortal Palace. Please feel free to join us." Beiming Nongyue smiled, causing the sounds of exclamations to grow even more intense.

Jadestage Immortal Palace...It was also another peak power in the northern regions. In addition, these faeries all seemed to be acquainted with Qin Wentian too.

"Many thanks to Princess Nongyue," The faeries stepped forth. The person who spoke earlier was none other than the holy maiden of the Jadestage Immortal Palace, Shen Yuehua. She was acquainted with Qin Wentian back then in the sacred academy.

"Sir Qin, how have you been?" Shen Yuehua smiled.

"Fairy, I'm fine, what about you?" Qin Wentian laughed. Everyone then sat down and enjoyed the banquet.

The people of the Wan Clan had yet to leave. Wan Miaoyan stood up, and stared at the scene on the pavilion. Princess Nongyue, Fairy Jadestage, Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect. These people were all legendary characters, but they were so respectful to Qin Wentian. Or more accurately, right from the very start, Qin Wentian was someone on the same level as those people.

Such a character was actually insulted and had things being made difficult for him in their Wan Clan.

Only Zhiyin and Wan Zhuqing didn't act as such. Hence, both of them right now were sitting in the honored seats, together with those legendary characters!

"Let's go." Wan Qingshan's face became very aged. Those two words he just spoke seemed to contain a boundless sorrow!

Chapter 1342: Good Friends

The people of the Wan Clan left. They came here with high hopes and longing but left with sorrow and disappointment.

However, there wasn't anyone who took note of their existences. In this world, everyone would only pay attention to those legendary characters who stood on the clouds. For example, people like Beiming Nongyue, Qin Wentian, Li Yufeng and the Fairy Jadestage.

These people who sat before the throne, enjoying the banquet, any casual words spoken by them were more dazzling compared to the life and death of the Wan Clan.

"The lady beside Qin Wentian seems to be from the Wan Clan as well. She is so beautiful, like a portrait. Luckily, her judgement is good and didn't stand with the rest of the clan, looking down on Qin Wentian. Also, her father is the same as well, and hence, they obtained Qin Wentian's friendship, resulting in the fact that they could sit with the princess. What glory was this?"

"The old man from the Wan Clan seemed very restrained. Haha, however, given the sort of people the Princess and the Saint Child are, they would naturally treat him with courtesy. They wouldn't be like Duanmu Xiu and Mu Qiu, behaving extremely arrogantly, showing off to the weak."

Everyone here was fervently discussing what happened earlier.

At the pavilion where the throne was located, Beiming Nongyue smiled at Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, since you came here for the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, after the whole thing ends, you definitely have to come to the royal palace for a visit and allow me to show you the grace of being a host."

"Li Yufeng is already here, do you want me to be a lightbulb when the two of you are dating?" Qin Wentian joked.

"Hey, hey, I'm not as grand as Brother Qin, being able to gain the recognition of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor just when you are at the immortal-foundation realm, bethrothing Princess Qing`er to you." Li Yufeng laughed. He lifted his cup and continued, "In any case, we do owe Brother Qin a toast. Congratulations."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stared at Li Yufeng with some surprise in his eyes. The Hundred Refinements Sect was located in the northern regions and was incredibly far away from the eastern regions. Yet, Li Yufeng actually knew of this matter. Seems like the peak powers in the immortal realms were all paying attention to that commotion.

"Yes, we do need to toast Brother Qin." Beiming Nongyue smiled.

"Oh, Brother Qin and Princess Qing`er's marriage is already approved by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor? This is truly an event worthy of joy." Shen Yuehua also lifted her cup to toast him.

"In that case I, Qin, will have to thank everyone then." Qin Wentian also wasn't polite as he smiled and drained the contents of his wine cup.

Wan Zhuqing felt very restrained here as everyone was far above his league. When he heard Li Yufeng's words, his eyes flashed and he couldn't help but to feel a little disappointed. Before this when he saw how well Qin Wentian was getting along with Zhiyin, he still hoped that what he joked about before would come through. How good would it be if the two of them could really get together.

A bitter smile appeared on his face as Wan Zhuqing abandoned his unrealistic fantasy. Seems like he thought too much. The princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and the Saint Child, Li Yufeng, of the Hundred Refinements Sect, both had such high evaluations towards Qin Wentian, treating him as their good friend. What sort of character was he? How could there be no females in love with him? And how would his background be simple?

And as expected, when he heard that Qin Wentian was going to marry a princess, and it was approved by an immortal emperor. Wan Zhuqing could only sigh in admiration. Never in his wildest dreams would he have imagined that Qin Wentian, a young man which he met by chance, would actually have a status an ordinary immortal king can't compare with.

"Which princess of which empire is your fiancee from? Why have I never heard about this before." Zhiyin smiled at Qin Wentian. Her expression was very calm and was as elegant as before.

"A place very far away, the Evergreen Immortal Empire located in the eastern regions of the immortal realms." Qin Wentian replied.

"She must be a great beauty right." Zhiyin mumbled.

"Mhm, she's very beautiful." Qin Wentian thought of Qing`er as a gentle smile appeared in his eyes. However, he suddenly felt that it wasn't too good to keep praising his future wife in front of a beauty. Hence, he hurriedly smiled and added, "Zhiyin, you are very beautiful too."

"Thank you." Zhiyin didn't mind it and laughed. Li Yufeng smiled as he stared at the two of them, as an expression of interest appeared on his face.

"Brother Qin, when do you plan to get married with Princess Qing`er?" Li Yufeng asked.

"We still haven't thought about it. It should be after I break through to the immortal-king realm as after all, in the immortal realms, immortal-foundation characters are just too weak." Qin Wentian replied.

That's true. Although you are now at the peak of immortal-foundation, but as long as you have not broken through to immortal king, you are still considered weak in the perspective of the entire immortal realms. However, I believe that once you step into the immortal king ream, your strength would leap up exponentially. Most probably, ordinary immortal kings wouldn't be your match." Li Yufeng seriously spoke. Everyone in the sacred academy knew of Qin Wentian's combat prowess.

"It's still early to speak about this. After all, it isn't going to be that easy to break through to immortal king. Let's hope the Darknorth Immortal Mountain would be able to provide some aid to my cultivation." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Haha, that's right. It's just that for Brother Qin's future wedding with Princess Qing`er, if I have the time, I would definitely head over there for a drink or two. At that time, Brother Qin wouldn't mind it, right?"

"I will naturally welcome you." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Mhm, me too! I will definitely head there if I'm free." Beiming Nongyue laughed.

"The two of you should stop talking about me. Maybe your wedding would be earlier than mine." Qin Wentian stared at the loving couple before him. Their statuses determined if they could sit together, but only personality would determine if they would able to become friends. Qin Wentian admired both their personalities and hence, he naturally didn't mind making friends with them.

Zhiyin quietly sat there with a smile on her face. Wan Zhuqing naturally didn't attempt to begin any conversation as he still felt very restrained. Although Beiming Nongyue and the others didn't mind his presence, he was still a little nervous. He had lived for so long but this was the first time he was enjoying such a treatment. Maybe in this lifetime, there wouldn't be a second chance for him to experience this.

"Brother Qin, I will go and organize the matter about entering the mountain." As they chatted, Beiming Nongyue glanced at the crowd. Qin Wentian nodded, "Princess Nongyue, please feel free to. I will just enjoy drinks with Brother Yufeng."

"Mhm," Beiming Nongyue nodded to the maidens of the Jadestage Palace and Zhiyin before she stood up and walked towards the throne. She sat down and glanced at everyone. With a wave of her hands, the crowd started to quiet down. They turned their gazes towards the throne, waiting for Beiming Nongyue to speak.

"The reason why everyone rushed here to the royal capital isn't to see me, Beiming Nongyue. Hence, I don't wish to delay too much time." Beiming Nongyue spoke in a teasing manner, causing many people to laugh. This even prompted someone to call out, "I came here precisely to see Princess."

When the crowd heard this, they laughed even louder than before. Beiming Nongyue then raised her hand, causing the crowd to quiet down again. When Qin Wentian saw this, he couldn't help but to silently be impressed.

As expected of a princess of a dynasty, she had her own charm to her. Beiming Nongyue's simple words were able to cause laughter, instantly bridging the distance between her and the crowd.

"However, there's something which I must say. The Darknorth Immortal Mountain is a holy ground of cultivation of my Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. After all, since the space is limited, the people cultivating within would surely be disturbed if too many were to enter. Hence, regardless of which batch, the number of entrants would always be limited. I hope that for those who can't enter now, please don't feel hatred or regret. You can always come and try again next time."

Beiming Nongyue continued as everyone nodded. The strong shall enter while the weak will not. Everyone could understand this point.

"For those who can enter the immortal mountain, they should all have cultivation bases at the peak of immortal-foundation. The entrance of the mountain is directly located behind me but in order to pass the test, one first has to go through an army of divine puppets stationed below. There's only one requirement, those flying in the air are not allowed to fly too high." Beiming Nongyue spoke.

As the sound of her voice faded, the experts behind her moved. One of them took out a supreme treasure, creating numerous powerful puppets in an instant, blocking the entrance of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

"Alright, everyone prepare yourselves." Beiming Nongyue spoke. Everyone nodded as they stepped back, giving space for the crowd. Qin Wentian glanced at the puppet army as he felt shock in his heart. Before the entrance, the formation of puppets were like a huge black web, enveloping all area.

"What level of strength is needed to break through?" Qin Wentian asked.

"As long as one has gained insight into a trace of immortal-king might, there shouldn't be any problems for them. These puppets all have combat prowess at the peak of immortal-foundation and because of the formation that was set up, it's useless to gang up on the puppets. One has to break through by virtue of single combat." Beiming Nongyue explained. Qin Wentian nodded, he understood that despite the vast number of people here, the number of people who comprehended a trace of immortal-king might should still be extremely limited.

"Brother Qin if you are in a hurry to enter, you can go in first." Beiming Nongyue smiled.

"It's better for both me and Qin Wentian to pass the test, in case the others in the crowd are not convinced." Zhiyin spoke in a gentle voice, she was exceedingly understanding. Beiming Nongyue glanced at her with a trace of admiration in her eyes. Although she didn't mind such a minor matter, by being able to be so considerate on behalf of her, clearly indicated that Zhiyin's personality wasn't bad. Ordinary people wouldn't have cared less.

"Zhiyin's words are right. If we want to enter, we should also attempt the test." Qin Wentian laughed. He didn't really mind it. Since he came all the way here, he might as well take a look at this test. Things would be alright as long as he didn't delay for too long.

"Mhm, alright, the two of you can go and take the test together then." Beiming Nongyue smiled as she nodded.

Chapter 1343: Darknorth Immortal Mountain

The puppet formation opened as countless experts rushed into it. In just an instant, a shocking battle erupted.

Qin Wentian and the others stood at the back as they observed. These puppets were capable of launching different attacks, and their attacks contained might at the peak of immortal-foundation, capable of destroying everything.

There naturally would be experts joining forces, but this puppet formation was exceedingly marvellous, able to read the situation and react accordingly.

Among the crowd, there were naturally some extremely powerful individuals who had comprehended a trace of immortal-king might. They directly unleashed the power of the laws they comprehended, easily passing through the formation.

"This formation is so wondrous." Qin Wentian commented.

"We intentionally invited a grandmaster of inscriptions to create it, specifically for this purpose." Beiming Nongyue replied.

"Mhm. However, as expected of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, its allure truly drew many experts here over. There are already quite a few who broke past the formation and entered." Qin Wentian smiled.

"This event is held once every ten years and a majority of those who come would usually be the confident ones. Hence, their strength wouldn't be too bad," Beiming Nongyue explained. Qin Wentian nodded, "We should enter too."

"Right. Brother Qin, Fairy Jadestage, let's go in." Li Yufeng laughed. After that, the group of them headed into the formation. Beiming Nongyue didn't join them. She was the host of this event and naturally had to stay behind. Given her status, she could enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain anytime she wanted to.

"Wentian, I'll leave Zhiyin in your care." Wan Zhuqing spoke.

"I'll take care of Mr. Wan. After you all exit the mountain, don't forget to come and visit the royal palace." Beiming Nongyue smiled.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian didn't say thanks but he noted this with gratitude in his heart.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian and the rest also entered the formation. He spoke to Zhiyin, "Zhiyin, you head in first."

"Okay." Zhiyin lightly replied as she entered. Releasing her aura, she was clad in law energy as a huge painting scroll appeared. Pointing her finger out, a sword appeared from within the scroll, emitting sharp sounds of tearing as it flew forwards. Zhiyin followed after the sword.

Only to see that everything near the sword was ripped apart. When it encountered attacks from the puppets, all of them disintegrated. The puppet shone brilliantly once again with light and set out another attack, shattering the sword. But there was an immortal brush in Zhiyin's hand, she lashed out with it, painting a prison that directly locked that puppet up.

"Art as law." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Zhiyin's mind was extremely pure, she loves music and art and the law energy she was proficient in was actually so wondrous as well, a complete match for her.

More terrifying swords were drawn by her, sweeping forth with such speed that they created sonic booms, shattering everything that came in contact with them. With a loud thunderous bang, that puppet shattered into nothingness and Zhiyin sped forth with the speed of lightning, bypassing the formation.

"Awesome." Qin Wentian praised. The people of the Wan Clan truly had bad judgement. Zhiyin didn't like combat hence she wouldn't purposely show off her strength. However, that didn't mean that her strength was weak. From what he saw now, her strength was definitely higher compared to Wan Miaoyan.

"Lady Zhiyin's talent is truly outstanding." Li Yufeng also laughed. After that, they too stepped into the formation. Qin Wentian's law energy circulated around him, transforming into currents of destruction that shot towards a puppet.

In just an instant, the puppet was bombarded so badly that it completely burst apart. After that, he easily stepped past it, disappearing completely, passing the test in a domineering manner.

After passing the formation, the entrance to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain could be seen. Zhiyin was waiting there, and after an instant, Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng both appeared with a smile on their faces. She smiled as well, and didn't wonder why Qin Wentian was so powerful. Since both Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child Li Yufeng had a high evaluation of Qin Wentian, his power must be so overwhelming to an extent where she couldn't imagine it.

"Let's go." The group of them entered the mountain range. Before them, numerous majestic mountains could be seen everywhere, cloaked in immortal light. Although they were still very far from the mountains, they could already sense the law energy flowing their way.

By placing the entrance here, the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty must have considered things well. If they placed the entrance deeper in, everyone outside would surely have been affected by the pressure of the law energy.

One mustn't forget that the Darknorth Immortal Mountain was also known as the Law Immortal Mountains.

"Brother Qin, how well do you know the Darknorth Mountains?" Li Yufeng asked.

"I only know that this place is suitable for peak immortal-foundation characters, and recently advanced immortal kings." Qin Wentian replied.

"As expected, that's merely the surface. In fact, even immortal emperors are suited to cultivate in here. Even immortal emperors have no way to see through the secrets of this mountain range. What we are looking at now, is merely the boundary of this place. This boundary is the place the vast majority of people are talking about. But there are many experts in the northern regions that understand how truly terrifying the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is."

Li Yufeng laughed, "If not, why do you think experts from my sect and the Jadestage Immortal Palace would come all the way here? Not only that, there are even other disciples from other major powers here as well. Also, this entrance isn't the only one. The ten-year mark per opening is only a limitation for characters on our strength level. For truly powerful experts, there wouldn't be so many restrictions."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, "Seems like I'm really ill-informed."

"You can't say it like that. After all, at our current level, we don't need to know so much. For the depths of this mountain range, even immortal emperors had no way to see through everything completely. We basically aren't qualified to enter at all. The reputation of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain isn't just for show. In addition, do you know why this mountain is at the side of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty?" As they proceeded forward, the law fluctuations grew stronger and stronger as Li Yufeng smiled and asked Qin Wentian.

"Could it be that the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was constructed as an empire dependent on the Darknorth Immortal Mountain?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"Smart. The Darknorth Immortal Mountain is a natural treasure ground born from the heavens. Long before the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty existed, the Darknorth Mountain Range was always occupied by peak powers. After that, when the ancient emperors all disappeared and the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty rose up, they immediately built their empire next to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain to control it," Li Yufeng smiled.

"In that case, the strength of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty should be extremely strong." Qin Wentian seemed to be mumbling to himself. Although he had come in contact with the various peak powers, he was only familiar with those powers in the eastern regions. He wasn't that clear on the exact level of strength for the other peak powers in the immortal realms.

"Naturally. If not, how could they protect this sacred land? Even the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty isn't strong enough to forbid the experts from the other powers from coming here to cultivate. If not, they would surely become the target of a multitude of arrows." Li Yufeng spoke.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly.

"Okay, this mystical holy land will soon be displayed before us. I'm filled with some anticipation. It's a pity that my current cultivation realm makes it so that I won't be able to venture too deep into it. Or I might never return." As Li Yufeng and the others proceeded deeper, they felt the law fluctuations growing more intense. Laws of the Great Dao were everywhere, permeating the atmosphere here.

"Truly a mystical land. I wonder how this mountain range was formed." Qin Wentian murmured. As they advanced in, they finally arrived at the foot of a single mountain here.

Not only for them, for those experts who entered, there were many who came to this place. There were even some who started to ascend the mountain.

"This mountain is the first law mountain after we entered. It's said that for our cultivation base, we are only suitable to cultivate in the area near here. Nongyue said that we mustn't exceed the boundaries of this place, or we might be in danger. The place after this region is known as a forbidden area and there are some extremely powerful experts guarding it." Li Yufeng reminded.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the mountain before them. The formless law energy grew stronger and stronger. He lifted his foot and moved forth, attempting to climb the mountain.

"The law fluctuations here are so thick that it feels as though it is corporeal and could be touched," Zhiyin mumbled. She stretched out her hand and spoke, "The law energy here feels like the law domains of immortal kings, permeating the entire atmosphere."

"If we can be like this mountain, releasing such law energy that envelops the heaven and earth, forming a domain where our law energy could flow freely and be used for attack, defense, protection, augmentation of innate techniques, forming a body of laws… We would have reached the immortal king realm." Li Yufeng spoke in a low voice.

"There are many caves around this area, we can enter there to cultivate if we choose." As Qin Wentian climbed up, he saw several cultivation caves. These caves might have been opened up by others who came here before them."

"The law energy fluctuations are everywhere. We can cultivate wherever we like to, but if we don't want to be disturbed by others, we can choose to head to a cave." Li Yufeng spoke. "Naturally, there are some mystical caves where the law energies would congregate together and form a super strong surge of law energy where one can more clearly sense them."

Qin Wentian nodded and continued climbing. After sometime, they came before an ancient tree. This ancient tree seemed to be drinking in law energy, and sparkling fruits could be seen hanging on its branches. The fruits were exceedingly vibrant, bright red in color, like the color of blazing flames.

"Fruits of law. This must be one of the immortal law mountain range's fruit trees of law. There are many mystical plant-type beings and immortal herbs here. The deeper you enter, the more secrets there are." Li Yufeng spoke. Qin Wentian grew more and more curious regarding this Darknorth Immortal Mountain!

Chapter 1344: Forbidden Ground

"Can we eat the fruits?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"Naturally, we can. Especially for experts who are proficient in those certain type of law energies, if they consumed the corresponding fruits, it would actually help their comprehensions." Li Yufeng spoke.

Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he moved towards the fruit tree. He directly stretched his hand out and grabbed towards a fruit of law but at this very moment, a fearsome fire law energy gushed out, wanting to burn his fingers. Qin Wentian's reactions were as fast as lightning as he instantly retreated. However, his clothes were still burned and a powerful fiery streak of destructive fire law energy gushed into his body.

"Eh, I've not finished. I wanted to add 'if you can eat it'..." Li Yufeng mumbled behind him as a smile appeared on his face. Qin Wentian speechlessly nodded, "I got set up by you. However, I should have expected that since there are fruits of law, the tree must have absorbed plenty of spiritual qi and gained a hint of sentience. It isn't going to be so easy if one wants to eat it."

"Yup, in any case if one takes the risk and swallows it down, if they lose control of the law energy, they might even lose their lives." Li Yufeng spoke.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. He then walked past the fruit tree and continued climbing the mountain.

"You are okay to miss out on this opportunity?" Li Yufeng had a puzzled look on his face.

"Although these fruits are valuable, they are useless to me. Hence, why is there a need for me to waste my time on them? It's better to leave them for others." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Li Yufeng couldn't help but laugh, what a truly interesting fellow. Before the fruit tree of law, there would naturally be many who would do all they can to grab the law fruits. However, Qin Wentian was still very calm.

It wasn't that Qin Wentian had no desire for treasures. It's just that they just started climbing the mountain. This place was so mysterious and boundlessly vast. Also, this was just the external boundary of the true Darknorth Immortal Mountain. In that case, there definitely would be more fascinating things as they proceeded deeper in. Since that was the case, why must he limit his own perspective?

As they ascended step by step, the law energy could be felt everywhere. Qin Wentian quietly sensed the energy, attempting to comprehend the formless laws. From him, law energy would radiate forth as well, as though wanting to meld as one with the law energy present in the atmosphere.

For experts at the immortal-foundation realm, they are already able to come in contact with law energy. However, although they could radiate law energy, the intrinsic difference between them and immortal kings are simply still too far apart. The control of law energy for immortal kings isn't a simple emanation of law energy from their immortal-foundation. Their bodies are bodies of law and in an instant they could manifest their law domains. That was a qualitative evolution.

It's easy for a quantitative evolution to happen, but not for a qualitative one. Hence, it was unknown how many geniuses couldn't step past the final gap and break through to the immortal king realm. Right now, Qin Wentian was considered to have one foot into the immortal king realm but if he wanted to completely stepped over to it, the difficulty was still immense.

Immortal-foundation realm is from the inside to the outside, unleashing their law energy from within their immortal-foundation.

Immortal kings are the fusion between inside and outside. They can formed their law domains with ease.

"If I can do the same as the Darknorth Mountain, radiating boundless law energy unceasingly, permeating the atmosphere, I would have succeeded." Qin Wentian mumbled. However, he wasn't able to find that spark of necessary insight.

Finally, Qin Wentian stood at the peak of this mountain. He turned his gaze towards the mountains in the surroundings. This place was extremely vast and many experts have arrived. Some of them directly sat down to cultivate, some proceeded forward, while some found rare treasures like the tree of law.

"Li Yufeng, Zhiyin. We came to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain to search for an opportunity to break through. There's no need for us to travel together." Qin Wentian spoke to them.

"Mhm, I think so too. Everyone's opportunity would be different. As for me, my cultivation base still lacks a little before I reached that point. I should find a cave and cultivate first." Li Yufeng carefreely spoke.

"You go on ahead, I will look around." Zhiyin smiled to Qin Wentian.

"If there's trouble, let me know immediately." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Okay." Zhiyin smiled. Qin Wentian nodded to the two of them before he stepped out and went to seek his own path.

The path of cultivation ultimately still depended on oneself. This is especially so when one encountered a bottleneck. Nobody else could help you. No matter which major power you belonged to, they would at most provide heavenly materials for you to better comprehend the insight but the one taking that final step to break through would still be dependant on oneself.

Li Yufeng nodded to Zhiyin. He then left in a graceful manner, seeking out a cave to cultivate.

Zhiyin stared at the back of Qin Wentian as a smile appeared on her face. She found a place and sat down. With a wave of her hand, an ancient zither appeared as she actually played a music piece right here and now. The enjoyable music spread out towards the desolate mountain range, as she became one with it.

This melody seemed to be sending Qin Wentian off. Qin Wentian didn't turn back, he continued forward step by step, with no purpose in mind. Right now, he was quietly feeling the law energy.

He was different from Li Yufeng. His cultivation base had already reached the maximum limit of immortal-foundation. Right now, as long as he could gain a park of insight, he would be able to complete the step, directly ascending to the king realm.

The next cultivation realm after immortal-foundation, was known as the king realm. Immortal kings and immortal emperors all belonged to the same realm.

The cultivation base of a stellar martial cultivator was segregated by the number of their astral souls and the amount of constellations they formed an innate connection with. Both immortal kings and immortal emperors belonged to the same realm. It's just that people of the immortal realms further split this realm into two. When one's comprehension deepened, they would break through from kings to emperors, becoming the supreme beings of this king realm.

Everyone in the immortal realms knew of the importance of this level. Qin Wentian naturally understood as well. As long as he broke through, he would become an immortal king, at the same realm as immortal emperors.

As long as they were in the same realm, the distance between them wouldn't be so unreachably far any longer. He would be able to see them and he would be able to feel their strengths.

Upon crossing the barrier, he could be considered a true expert of the immortal realms, standing at the peak.

Because of the importance of this realm, Qin Wentian was filled with anticipation and hope towards it.

But he understood that right now, he shouldn't be in such a rush. He had to steady his state of heart and mind and try to contemplate the laws in the atmosphere.

Qin Wentian continued on his way, taking his time to feel the law energy in every place he ventured to, regardless of how intense or weak the law fluctuations were. He ignored all distractions and closed his eyes, using his heart to feel the law energy.

After this mountain, he came across another mountain. On his journey, he encountered another tree of law but the fruits were already taken by someone else. Even so, he still sat below the tree to contemplate the law energy here and it was only after a long time did he stand up and leave.

He passed by a sacred rock. this rock was on the top of a mountain and had the word 'King', engraved upon it.

The ancient rune for the word 'king' contained boundless law energy, wanting to gush into his body. Qin Wentian sat down before the rock and quietly contemplated, only leaving after several days.

Qin Wentian continued on his way and came across an icy waterfall. The water flowing down from the top of the mountain was actually frozen solid, forming ice pillars around the area, causing the temperature nearby to plummet. When he got closer to it, Qin Wentian felt that he himself was about to be frozen, as the icy energy corroded his inner organs.

However, he still released his own law energy as he drew nearer. Until he reached the point of the limit for his endurance, he finally stopped and stood there to contemplate. Very swiftly, his entire person was covered in frost, becoming an ice statue.

After several days, cracking sounds rang out as Qin Wentian broke out of the ice, leaving here without sparing a backward glance.

Qin Wentian's speed of advancement was very slow. He attempted to contemplate the law energy of each and every mountain, without avoiding any places, wanting to explore the entire mountain range.

Today, he passed by a mountain radiating gravity. With much difficulty, he lifted his foot and started the ascent. The pressure was overwhelming and every step forward caused his body to almost collapse.

Despite so, he continued to persevere on. His internal organs were all under great pressure that was exceedingly hard to bear.

Only after several months did he finally conquer this law mountain.

This wasn't the most terrifying thing. There was one day where he encountered a mountain radiating laws of corrosion. That mountain wanted to corrode his entire body and he had no choice but to bear the pain as he proceeded forward step by step, with the law energy destroying his flesh while his innate recovery abilities healed him. He once had the thought to give it up after travelling half the mountain but he ultimately depended on his unbendable will and finally passed it.

Day after day, Qin Wentian suffered much, just like a monk believing that sufferance would lead to deliverance. His long hair fluttered wildly as his robes were all torn and tattered but he didn't seem to have noticed at all. He just walked and walked until one day, he finally finished conquering each and every mountain here in the outer boundaries of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain Range.

But because he kept walking and kept moving about, not many people paid attention to Qin Wentian's cultivation method. His companion Zhiyin attracted more attention on the contrary. Because the moment they entered this external boundary, she kept sitting there to play a zither, to draw her art and has never left the area at all. She wanted to draw this entire mountain range in a painting, and give form to the formless law energy fluctuations.

It has already been about a year plus since Qin Wentian entered the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. The deadline for entering was three years. Once the three years were up, everyone who entered had to leave and wait for seven more years to attempt the entry test again.

Naturally, if there's someone who managed to find good fortune and was in the midst of breaking through to the immortal king realm, the guards of the mountain wouldn't intentionally chase these people away.

Today, Qin Wentian in tattered robes reached the boundary of the other side of this external region. As to why the boundary existed is because he could feel that if he took another step ahead, there was a formless energy in the atmosphere that seemed incredibly heavy, pressing down on his spirit. That place ahead was the forbidden ground of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Once someone entered there, only death would be the result. No one has ever returned alive.

Hence, although right now there were plenty of people beside Qin Wentian, all of them stopped here, not daring to proceed forward.

"Do you all know anything about this forbidden ground?" Qin Wentian asked. Everyone shook their heads, but there was one who glanced over to Qin Wentian and spoke, "Although we don't know anything, but there's one thing which is as clear as day. This place is a true forbidden ground. In the past, one person entered but when he returned, only half of his body was left, with a single breath of life in him. An instant later, before he could say anything, a blurred shadow sped over and took him away. Nobody could see clearly what that blurred greyish shadow was."

Chapter 1345: A Land of Death

"Forbidden ground." Qin Wentian stared ahead. The desolate mountain range stretched forth endlessly. Only this place could be considered the true Darknorth Immortal Mountain by right.

Outside the boundary, many powerful experts were standing guard. One of them spoke, "The place ahead is the forbidden ground, with 100% chance of death. If you all wish to enter, you all should be responsible for your own consequences."

These people came all the way to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountains. Hence, the guards would give them the choice to choose and wouldn't block them from entering. Naturally, let alone immortal-foundation characters, even immortal kings wouldn't dare to venture in recklessly. The forbidden grounds were too dangerous. As guards of the dynasty, they were clearer than most how terrifying this place was.

The true law mountain range was boundlessly vast. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed but he felt some hesitation in his heart. Since this place was known as the forbidden grounds, it would naturally be extremely dangerous. He already knew this from Li Yufeng. Even immortal kings wouldn't dare to enter this place recklessly, and even immortal emperors had no way to find out all secrets hiding within it.

"Up till today, I have explored all the mountains in the external boundary yet I didn't gain any insight to break through at all. If this continues on, I might take ten years, or even hundred years and there's no guarantee that I might be able to find that spark of insight. Since I came out to temper myself, I should try entering it." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with sharpness and determination.

"Is there anyone willing to enter? You guys can try it out and cultivate at the edge of the forbidden ground. If you are met with danger, you would at least still be able to escape." Someone spoke. The eyes of everyone flashed. Those who dared to stop here are all extremely powerful geniuses. If not, they wouldn't dare to harbor any hope at all for this forbidden grounds.

As the sound of this voice faded, many people steeled themselves. In their hearts, they also had such thoughts but they didn't dare to make a decision. Now that they heard these words, the determination in their hearts grew more resolute. Someone then continued speaking, "Those who cultivate all know how hard it is to enter the immortal king realm. For us, we may have one foot across that gate, but there's also a possibility that we will never be able to cross it. We should really take some risk and enter the forbidden grounds."

"That's right. This old man has already reached my current level 1,800 years ago. I also came to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain many times but I'm still unable to break through, unable to take that last step." A skinny old man spoke. He had a conical bamboo hat on and seemed very ordinary, exuding no aura at all. However, in reality, he has been stuck at the peak of immortal-foundation for many years. During these years, his state of heart grew more and more unsteady and right now, he only had a purpose in his life. He wanted to break through.

If he couldn't do so, it meant that he would be stuck here for the rest of his life. Hence, he needed to take a risk.

"That's right, the forbidden grounds are full of danger but it's also rumored that that place is filled with good fortune. There was someone in the legends who became an absolute genius after a single day, soaring up to the clouds in terms of his cultivation, becoming the true ultimate peak expert of the immortal realms." Someone spoke in a solemn voice, as though wanting to firm up the determination in everyone's heart.

With regards to the forbidden ground, even those with great courage, they couldn't be resolute enough. After all, this was a matter of life and death. Stellar martial cultivators sought the path of the strong but once your life was lost, everything would be turned into nothingness.

"Let's go." Someone spoke as he stepped out, across the boundary line, entering the forbidden ground.

"Everyone, let's go together." Someone followed soon after and after that, everyone started to move in, entering the forbidden ground.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stepped forward as well, joining the others and entering the forbidden ground. For those more hesitant ones, when they saw everyone entering, they too, decided to steel their hearts and enter as well.

Beiming Nongyue, Li Yufeng and Qin Wentian could be considered ultimate geniuses at the peak among all at the immortal-foundation realm. Even without entering the forbidden ground, Qin Wentian would definitely break through to immortal king in the future. But even he chose to enter now, so what qualifications did those geniuses with lesser talent have to not take the risk and enter?

Those guards closed their eyes as though this was a very ordinary occurrence. Every time the Darknorth Immortal Mountain opens, there would be no lack of people like this. But who among them would be able to step out alive?

Having courage was commendable, but those with no strength to support this courage would only be courting their deaths.

After Qin Wentian entered the forbidden ground, he discovered that there was actually no law energy here. This place seemed to be even more desolate, cloaked in total silence.

The steps of everyone slowed, all of them were thinking that if some variable happens, they would directly retreat. But as they proceeded forward, they discovered that there seemed to be no danger at all. Hence, they continued forging forward in an incomparably cautious manner.

"The path, the path has disappeared!" At this moment, somebody trembled and called out. Many people turned to him but as they noticed the direction of his gaze, they too turned their heads and turned pale.

The path they took had completely transformed. Right now, they were in the middle of the desolate wilderness.

"What should we do?" Someone frantically asked.

Many people trembled only to hear a voice cursing out loud, "We are already here, what else can we do? Let's just continue ahead. Our purpose is to find some good fortune that can enable us to break through to the immortal king realm. If we retreat simply because of some small things like this, what's the point of coming here?"

This voice caused the state of hearts of many to calm down. However, a majority of them took out divine weapons. Even Qin Wentian took out the demon sword, wielding it in his hand.

"Could that be an illusion?" Everyone was pale. They could only control their fear and continued heading forward. But other than the path disappearing, there didn't seem to be any danger in here. Their hearts gradually calmed down but the nervous atmosphere didn't dissipate at all.

"Bzz." From afar, the sound of gusts of wind whistling could be heard. In the sky, a grey shadow appeared, moving as quick as lightning, causing others to be unable to see it clearly.

"What terrifying speed." Everyone trembled. They released their auras and at this instant, that grey shadow swooped downwards rushing at them, transforming into a fearsome beam of grey light.

"Careful!" Everyone split in all four directions. Qin Wentian's eyes shone with a terrifying light, he discovered that the grey shadow was a type of demonic beast which he has never seen before. Its eyes were white, like that of a blind man. It radiated a sinister feeling and its speed was simply horrifying to behold. Everyone was frantically retreating.

"Pu…"

The person who shouted out the word 'careful' earlier was instantly torn to pieces under the onslaught of the monster's claws. After that, the grey monster flew back up into the sky, circling around.

"Everyone, attack it together." Another voice called out. But as the sound of that person's voice faded, that terrifying demonic beast directly lunged towards him. That expert's expression changed drastically as he slashed out an arc of terrifying blade light. However, the grey monster ignored that attack, directly bypassing it as it ripped the head of that expert off, crushing his skull.

Everyone instantly turned and fled when they saw this. This monster was too terrifying to fight against. It could actually ignore that attack made by the expert.

After killing, that monster flew back up in the air and continued circling, like it was looking for prey. Abruptly, it moved again and one of those who were fleeing, was caught and ripped apart.

At this instant, the hearts of everyone were like dead ashes.

Forbidden grounds clearly indicated that it was forbidden for people to enter. Why did they choose to come in here? Weren't they simply courting death?

"Why did I enter?" Many people had hearts filled with despair. But at this moment, that old man with the conical bamboo hat abruptly laid down on the ground, unmoving, while retracting his aura completely.

"Does he want to die?" Many people passed by him, not stopping at all as that monster continued hunting. It flew past the old man yet it made no moves to attack him.

Qin Wentian's immortal sense noticed this and he immediately decided to keep his demon sword. His body moved forward, and fell onto the ground while retracting his aura completely.

"ARGH~" Another scream of pain echoed out as the monster killed off another expert again, flying past Qin Wentian.

"This monster is blind." A thought appeared in the minds of everyone. They instantly reacted and in the blink of an eye, all of them kept their weapons and retracted their auras, playing dead on the ground.

A raging wind gusted by, that demon that resembled a vulture, flew past everyone and circled the skies. After some time, it flew towards the horizons and disappeared from here.

But even so, everyone still laid on the ground, not daring to move. Only after a long time did somebody sit up. Everyone was still extremely fearful.

"Let's leave this place as soon as possible." After speaking, he sped away in the direction where they came. Everyone then stood up and flew away as well, not daring to remain here.

They continued on their way but abruptly, a human silhouette appeared before them. This person was clad in white, he had a sword in his hands with his back facing everyone.

"Senior!" Some of the experts were filled with joy. Being able to meet someone here undoubtedly indicated that that person must have great skills in order to remain alive. It should be a supreme expert.

Just as he called out, the expert ahead turned slowly. After that, everyone felt a bone-piercing chill. The eyes of this man were bleeding, seeping with a gooey substance, appearing extremely eerie and terrifying.

"Bzz~" The speed of this expert in white was quick to the extreme, even faster than the demonic beast earlier. Slashing out with his sword, he chopped off the head of the person who spoke. Everyone drew in a cold breath, their hearts which were filled with joy all turned cold at this instant. They felt doomsday approaching.

The forbidden ground was clearly a place they weren't supposed to be in.

Swishing sounds rang out as many silhouettes could be seen speeding over in the distance. There were human silhouettes and demon silhouettes. Their auras were extremely icy, and had the feeling of a corpse.

"They are the same as the earlier vulture monster." Qin Wentian felt chills in his heart. This place was simply a land of death!

Chapter 1346: Despair

Qin Wentian held his breath, not daring to make a sound as he completely retracted his aura.

These people and demonic beasts had no lifeforce at all, they were like corpses yet they would kill people. Everyone else had some experience too as all of them held their breaths, not daring to make a sound, causing silence to descend on the atmosphere.

The desolate mountain range gusted with swirls of cold wind. This forbidden ground, was it really still considered a part of the Immortal Law Mountain Range?

This was simply like a mountain of death.

"Swish~" A light sound rang out as wind fluttered their clothing. In this silence, it sounded extremely ear-piercing. A figure instantly turned over due to the sound, and the person who emitted the sound instantly turned pale.

"Bzz~" A raging wind sprang out as a grey shadow radiating immense corrosion energy, instantly lunging over. In just an instant, the target turned into a ball of corpse qi, causing those near him to feel their hearts trembling.

One who was nearby couldn't control his fear and made a slight sound of exclamation. And instantly, a thunderous bang echoed out as immortal might from thunder law exploded forth. A demonic beast with purple wings turned its malevolent face over as it launched out an absolute killing strike.

Another bout of silence. These figures of death quietly waited here. To everyone else, they were like gods of death, waiting to reap their lives away.

An expert started trembling, and the slight movement actually caused one of the monsters to walked over towards him.

"WE CAN'T LIVE!" That person screamed as he sped upwards into the air. Several attacks instantly launched over, directly exterminating him. That person couldn't have died in a more miserable manner.

Those who are still alive all began to perspire but they still held their breaths, not daring to make any noise at all. Their eyes were all filled with fear and despair. Naturally, there were also some who closed their eyes, not daring to even look at the monsters. They only hoped that this group of death gods would hurry up and leave the area. But, these monsters seemed to have no inclination of leaving.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes. To him, this was a land of death. Even though he was extremely powerful, even though he had supreme treasures, the moment he was discovered, the death gods would all launch attacks at him instantly. He would die without a doubt.

He knew that these humans and demonic beasts were all terrifying immortal kings when they were alive. Now, they have descended into such a state, akin to gods of death.

He came here to break through to the next realm, he didn't come here to die. He didn't want to die.

However, who could resolve this current situation?

"Noise. As long as I can create a noise somewhere else, I can lure them away." Qin Wentian mused. If he could move, he would easily be able to create a commotion elsewhere. But in order to do so, he had to move first. The moment he moved would be his death.

He could use his abilities and create some echoes elsewhere. However, for immortal-foundation, all their energy had to be unleashed from within. Right now, he had to keep his aura completely retracted. If he didn't do so, his ending would also be death.

"Only one with strength of an immortal king can resolve the current situation." A thought surfaced in Qin Wentian's mind as an intense thirst of survival appeared in his heart.

Another scream rang out. Right now, Qin Wentian's body was soaked in perspiration. If this continued, all of them would die here.

The intense nervousness he felt caused Qin Wentian to fall into a strange state of mind where there was complete and total silence. It felt like everything in the world ceased moving. The wind blew past his body, he seemed to be able to see the direction of the wind, feel the rhythm of the wind, and even the veined patterns where the wind flowed.

"Laws, the laws of heaven and earth. The heavens itself exist in its own dao, and have its own language. We first have to understand the language before we can control the laws of the Great Dao." A voice appeared in Qin Wentian's heart. Wind, was an original attribute source of heaven and earth, it exists everywhere in the world. It wasn't the same as suppression or destruction type attributes. It only needed the bestowment by an astral soul.

"I need to understand the language of wind laws by the traces they make when they flow in the air." Qin Wentian mused silently. Back then in the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he consulted the Heavenly Talisman Treasure Tome and had his own understanding with regards to cultivation. Right now, he was trying out his own method to sense the way to the immortal king realm.

Each and every immortal king would have different insights when they broke through, using different methods. Qin Wentian would also have his own methods. Naturally, the prerequisite is that he had to be able to take that step.

Silence was everywhere and Qin Wentian forgot everything. He was just quietly contemplating the heavens and earth. In this instant, his senses turned incredibly sharp, reaching a realm which he had previously been unable to reach.

Stellar martial cultivators, for them to be able to have high accomplishments, it was critical with regards to what they experienced in a situation of life and death. Nobody would be able to evade the threat of true death. And at that instant where they were facing death, even those with the strongest will would definitely tremble. Their will might be broken and their fear might cause delays to their reactions or dull their senses. Hence, the ending would only be death.

There was also another kind of person. The nearer these people got to death, their potential would be ignited. When one was forced to the extreme, the intense survival instinct would kickstart a strength that would eclipse their previous power. Because, these people knew that if they couldn't pass this situation, the only result left would be death.

Before death, people would usually gravitate towards these two extremes. As for the latter one, the number of people would usually be much more limited.

Qin Wentian precisely was one of these latter ones.

In the external world, two more experts were killed. The slightest movements would instantly cause attacks to be launched out. Everyone was trembling in terror, nobody knew what gave birth to these monsters.

Time was extremely slow and long.

Right now, Qin Wentian has forgotten about everything in the external world. He was no longer nervous or fearful. He was in a state of total focus, and he wanted nothing more but to survive.

Since he wanted to survive, he had to comprehend and gain insights.

His senses were stretched to their limits. The imprints and traces of the Great Dao gave birth to the various laws. All of these imprinted into his mind. He attempted to use his immortal sense to communicate with them. Immortal sense was the only thing that he could use, without causing any aura to leak out.

Another person made a soft noise. Instantly, the death gods turned to that person, causing that person to pale, feeling as though time had stopped.

"BOOM!" At this moment, an intense explosion rang out in the distance, the sound waves gushing over. Immediately, those death gods rushed over with the speed of lightning.

Destructive attacks were launched out instantly towards the location of the sound, but as these destructive might dissipated the faint sense of an aura was still there, speeding away. Those death gods instantly chased after it and this scene caused that expert who was filled with despair earlier, to stare dumbfoundedly, feeling that he managed to get back his life.

Those death gods flew further and further, leaving this area completely. In this instant, everyone felt hope once more. A cold wind gusted by and all these experts could feel was chills. All of them were soaked in cold sweat for the entire duration earlier.

Qin Wentian opened his eyes as a bright light gleamed within. He was another step closer and he manage to resolve the crisis.

With a flash of his silhouette, Qin wentian also sped away. Before him was a ravine and far ahead, there was another mountain range.

Everyone proceeded forward, crossing over into the ravine. During their journey, they encountered many of those monsters but all these monsters were lured away by Qin Wentian. This caused many people to stare at Qin Wentian with a puzzled look in their eyes. This fellow seemed to have become stronger. What did he comprehend exactly? Right now, he was immeasurably close to the immortal king realm.

This ravine was extremely vast and the surroundings were vibrant. There were mystical petals dancing about in the air, releasing a fragrance, filled with the force of life.

"What petals are these?" Someone halted, as he moved towards the sea of petals. There definitely was many strange and mystical treasures here in the ravine. Were these petals a kind of heavenly ingredient or earthly treasure?

A stirring could be felt in the air. Qin Wentian froze and he instantly sped away. The sea of petals actually multiplied in number, causing swishing sounds to ring out as they floated upwards, transforming into a terrifying domain that sought to devour everything.

That expert's expression changed as he soared high up into the air, wanting to evade the reach of the domain. However, the speed of the petals was much faster than him, easily enveloping him. An instant later, the petals around him grew even more vibrant as his cold and dried corpse fell onto the ground.

The others were frenziedly fleeing but the sea of petals chased after them and bloomed into flowers, exuding great beauty and a demonic charm.

"Save me!" A scream rang out as another expert was devoured. The others were so frightened that their hearts were pounding. Qin Wentian directly took out his demon sword and slashed towards the recently bloomed flowers. A terrifying great roc's shadow appeared, as he slashed his way through them, and flew through the gap created. The demon sword then expanded to a hundred meters as he swung it downwards.

All the other experts took out their divine weapons and were madly fleeing forward. Finally, after the death of several people, Qin Wentian managed to leave the ravine of petals and came to the mountain range. Right now, their party members were only left with five. All the other experts have already died in this forbidden ground.

The four others floated in the air, they stared at the boundlessly vast mountain range before them with ashen expressions as despair filled their hearts.

"We won't be able to live, we can't survive here." One of them said in a somewhat crazed manner. He felt that he would die for sure in here, there was no way he would be able to make it out of the forbidden ground.

Qin Wentian glanced ahead and similarly, a sense of helplessness appeared in his heart. In the depths of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, in this forbidden ground, their supposedly powerful strength was so tiny and inconsequential!

Chapter 1347: Pei Qing

The five survivors glanced at each other. Among them there was one whose will was the weakest. He kept repeating that they wouldn't be able to survive. Clearly, his will was collapsing.

"What should we do?" Someone asked. All of them were staring at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the strongest among them and Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child Li Yufeng had high valuations of him. He naturally would be from an extraordinary background as well. Only after they came here did they know that the person who lured all the death gods away earlier, was Qin Wentian.

His cultivation base was the highest among the five.

"Let's continue on, it's useless to keep thinking about how we can't survive. You might as well directly commit suicide if that's the case. For those who want to live on, even if there's only a sliver of chance, we have to continue on." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. He himself wasn't that confident but he had no other choice. Who would want to be in such a situation? But since all of them entered the forbidden ground of their own will, they should already be prepared for their deaths.

At this point, they could only continue on no matter what.

As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Wentian continued forward as the others followed behind him. Qin Wentian's words weren't wrong, if one still wanted to complain uselessly in such a situation, they might as well commit suicide. If they didn't want to die, they can only continue forward.

The person who kept mumbling about dying froze. He gritted his teeth and followed after.

Only when one truly entered the depths of the forbidden ground did they know how vast this place was. Their desolate surroundings seemed endless, but luckily, they didn't encounter any more danger which caused them to feel utter despair.

After passing the mountains here one by one, Qin Wentian could faintly sense the law fluctuations again. Somehow, there seemed to be something more here compared to the external boundary, but he didn't know what it was exactly.

"I can't take it anymore. I'm going to soar through the air, speeding towards a random direction. Maybe my good fortune would appear." The person with the weakest will couldn't endure travelling like this anymore with no purpose. He glanced around and asked, "Anyone want to come with me?"

The eyes of the others flashed. One of them added, "I will go with you. Let's hope that there's good fortune to be found."

The remaining two glanced at Qin wentian. Qin wentian shook his head, "Since this is the forbidden ground, how can it be so easy to exit? I will continue heading deeper into it."

The eyes of the two of them flashed. Immortal-foundation experts were able to fly through the air. But Qin Wentian is right. If one could leave here so easily like that, how could this place be called a forbidden ground?

"Let's go." The two who wanted to leave soared up into the air. Qin Wentian glanced upwards, the figures of the two experts grew smaller and smaller, gradually vanishing from his vision. They were already at an extremely high altitude.

However at this moment before their silhouettes vanished completely, a burst of green light suddenly appeared, enveloping the two of them.

"This…" The eyes of Qin Wentian and the others froze, they could feel a terrifying aura from the skies. The demonic green light illuminated the entire area, growing increasingly resplendent in an instant.

"They vanished!" One person spoke in shock. The two experts who left them had disappeared just like that.

"Did they die?" That old man who was stuck at the peak of immortal-foundation for over a thousand years mumbled. He stared in the air and radiated a lonely and sorrowful feeling.

"How can they not die?" Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. A chill appeared in his heart, he also wanted to live but truth has proven that the path of survival wasn't so easy to seek. At least up till now, Qin Wentian couldn't see any.

"Let's hope that there's really something as we continue to proceed into the depths." The old man sighed. Other than Qin Wentian, his will to survive was the strongest. After being stuck at this realm for so many years, how could his determination to break through be weak? With regards to death, he had already calmed himself and was ready to face it.

The other person remaining was a handsome young man with an extraordinary aura. He had an ancient sword strapped on his back and seemed to be a sword cultivator. He didn't really talk much and kept quietly following after them.

"That's true, who says there wouldn't be a glimmer of hope at the darkest night?" Qin Wentian smiled, attempting to lift the mood. As he spoke, they continued to proceed forward. After a few months of time, they came to another place with a special characteristic. Before their eyes was a canyon but it was actually formed from a gigantic palm imprint.

The crater created was exceptionally clear, and that place even emanated an overwhelming pressure. Just standing by the side of it, one could feel a vast aura pressing down on them, wanting to crush everything.

"Is this forbidden ground really the immortal law mountains?" That old man asked in a low voice. "Being able to leave behind such a palm imprint, the cultivation of the person must at least be at the peak of the immortal-emperor realm.

Qin Wentian wondered about it as well. This mountain range had existed for countless years. The history of the palm imprint must be unimaginably long as well. Even now, the aura emanating from the palm strike had yet to fade. How terrifyingly strong it must be when at the beginning?

"Now, I'm only curious how vast this place is exactly." The handsome young man quietly spoke. After they entered the forbidden ground, already a year plus of time have passed but they still could see no end to it. They didn't know where they were supposed to go either. Hence, each of them were asking themselves, how vast was the forbidden ground exactly. Where would it lead to eventually?

"Let's go." Qin Wentian sighed silently. They then walked past the crater formed by the palm strike and could feel the powerful aura pressing down on their bodies.

This crater was extremely large. They spent quite some time before they finished walking past it. After that, they saw another mountain in the distance.

"There's someone there." At this moment, they could see a figure cloaked in black quietly standing in front of them. They instantly halted, not daring to make any movement.

At the next moment, the figure slowly turned about. Qin Wentian and his group saw a heroic looking face, the eyes of this figure were pitch black, gleaming with a divine glow, as though he was able to see through the three of them.

"He's alive, a cultivator like us." The old man sighed in relief. This was the first living human they met in the forbidden ground.

Li Yufeng told Qin Wentian that there was more than one entrance to enter the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Those powerful experts would use the other entrances to enter. This man before him is highly likely to be one of those powerful experts.

"We pay our respects to senior." Qin Wentian spoke.

That person glanced at Qin Wentian and the others. His heroic face was filled with curiosity and a little disdain. After that, he spoke in a low voice, "You guys are not afraid of death? Being able to survive for so long, how unexpected. Your lives must all be very tough."

"Senior, we came in by mistake and met danger several times. Many of our comrades died on the way here. Is senior able to point out a path of survival for us?" The handsome young man beside Qin Wentian clasped his hands and spoke.

"There's no path of survival. Given the cultivation bases of you lot, there's only a path of death." That expert calmly replied, his tone filled with certainty.

"A path of death?" The expressions of Qin Wentian and the two others changed. The old man spoke, "May junior be so bold to suggest, can all of us follow senior?"

That expert's mouth curled up in contempt, "Are you all even qualified to?"

The countenance of the old man dimmed, he didn't know what to reply. It was true that they weren't qualified to get a supreme expert to bring them about.

"Senior, this brother Qin here is a friend of Princess Nongyue of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. He has an extraordinary status." The young man beside Qin Wentian spoke, seemingly filled with reluctance. It was so difficult for them to find a hope of survival. As long as the expert before them was willing to help, there would be a high possibility of them being able to exit safely.

The eyes of the expert flashed as he glanced at Qin Wentian. After that, a mocking smile appeared on his face.

"What do you mean by this sentence?" He stared at that young man as he asked.

Upon sensing the sharpness of that expert's gaze, the handsome young man hurriedly apologized, "Senior please forgive my words, junior has no other meaning."

"No other meaning?" That expert laughed. After that he took a step out. With just a single step Qin Wentian and the two others all turned pale. They were instantly surrounded by an intense killing intent.

"Senior, mercy please." Qin Wentian and the old man both spoke. Right now, this expert actually wanted to kill them because of a single sentence.

"Mercy? The friend of Beiming Nongyue? Are you attempting to use status to pressure me?" Lightning flashed in the eyes of the supreme expert. After that, a miserable scream rang out. The handsome young man was blasted into bits. Pieces of his flesh and droplets of his blood flew all about, some landing onto Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's countenance grew extremely unsightly.

Although the handsome young man was a little rash, it surely wasn't enough to warrant his death. But this expert killed that young man just like that.

"I won't kill you two. If you all can survive here and exit, you might as well help me to tell that little lass Nongyue that you've met Pei Qing in here." That expert sighed. After that, he turned and left, departing this area completely.

"Pei Qing." The old man's eyes flashed with sharpness.

"Are you acquainted with him?" Qin Wentian asked.

"In this dynasty, the name Pei Qing is even more dazzling compared to Princess Nongyue." The expression of the old man trembled. No wonder that expert killed off that young man for a single sentence.

"Pei Qing is the youngest immortal emperor of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. His speed in attaining the emperor-realm was unprecedented ever since the dynasty was established." The old man spoke in a low voice, causing Qin Wentian's eyes to gleam with sharpness. No wonder that expert was so proud, directly killing off a junior who spoke the wrong things just like that.

That expert looked so young, but he is actually an immortal emperor.

"Only the two of us are left." The old man sighed. The group of them had entered the forbidden ground but now, only him and Qin Wentian remained.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian continued forward. They proceeded on and not long after, they halted again. Before them, numerous tombstones could be seen, all of them with no engravings, erected from the ground.

This place was like a graveyard!

Chapter 1348: Ancient Battlefield?

Qin Wentian walked up, staring at these nameless stone tablets which exuded an ancient aura.

Some of these stone tablets had already shattered, and were lying in crumbled pieces on the ground. For others, they were split apart in the middle and below the stone tablets, huge deep holes could be seen.

"Why do I feel that this immortal law mountain range feels like an ancient battlefield? Regardless of that gigantic palm imprint or all these tombstones, it felt like the great war of an era had once erupted here, and the aftermath caused all this uneven ground with craters, wiping out everything, even turning cities into dust. As time flowed by, this entire place became an incomparably vast desolate mountain range." Qin Wentian mumbled.

"If this is really a battlefield, this place must be a grave of ancient times. In that case, what are those holes beneath the stone tablets? Are they the place where those zombie monsters originated from?" The expression of the old man changed. Those monsters were simply too terrifying. Could it be that the dead here could rise again?

"I don't know but this place is really strange." Qin Wentian continued forward. "That Pei Qing is an immortal emperor, even immortal emperors would come here to cultivate. From this, we can see that there's definitely a startling secret hidden within the mountain range. If not, just like what you said, as the person who became an immortal emperor with the fastest record in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, what reason does he have to come here?

"Pei Qing has always been incomparably arrogant. That's true. He would definitely come here if this place is extraordinary." The old man nodded. Although he wasn't acquainted with Pei Qing, he had heard too many rumors with regards to the youngest immortal emperor ever in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. Pei Qing is an absolute character of the legends, a true supreme genius.

Many youths with overwhelming talent would either perish in the end, or reach a bottleneck. However, Pei Qing managed to break through to immortal emperor and nobody dared to doubt his talent. In the immortal dynasty, there was nobody who didn't know of him.

"Pei Qing is really so awesome?" Qin Wentian curiously asked. He was a little unhappy towards Pei Qing. Although he knew the other party was an immortal emperor, and nobody would dare to say anything when Pei Qing crushed an immortal-foundation character, he was still unhappy about the other party's attitude even though there was currently an immeasurable distance between their strengths.

"Naturally, as the first person in the history of the dynasty who broke through to the immortal emperor realm at such a quick speed, how could he not be strong? Also, no one would dare to say if there were any others in the future who can do the same he did. However, everyone in the dynasty knows that there's one more person who might have the talent and ability to surpass Pei Qing but no one knows for sure if that person can achieve it yet." That old man spoke.

"Who?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"Her highness, the princess."

"Beiming Nongyue?" Qin Wentian was puzzled.

"No, Princess Nongyue is only at the immortal-foundation realm now, how can she be the one? I'm talking about her elder sister, Beiming Youhuang, the person who is known as the number one beauty of our Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, a true absolute character. It's rumored that in the future, the position of emperor might not be passed on to the princes but to her instead. Despite the numerous royal descendants, there's none among them who can compare to her."

"Beiming Youhuang is so powerful?" Qin Wentian was somewhat shocked.

"Seems like Brother Qin's understanding of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty isn't very deep at all. Who doesn't know about Princess Youhuang in our dynasty? Even Pei Qing had always proclaimed that he would woo her and make her marry him." The two of them idly chatted, as though the tense atmosphere has alleviated.

"This Pei Qing is really arrogant. But since he wants to woo Beiming Youhuang, why did he kill the other man earlier when he spoke about Beiming Nongyue?"

"Because he was too arrogant, I think he hated the tone of that young man earlier. After those words were spoken, for ordinary immortal kings, they would definitely help us out. But he is Pei Qing! Those words infringed on his pride, and there's no need for him to care about Princess Nongyue's feelings. After all, as the youngest immortal emperor in history, he would definitely become a peak-level emperor in the future and even might have a chance to break past that realm, becoming an ancient emperor. Given how politely the dynasty's emperor is treating him, as well as the adoration and worship of so many experts, who does he need to put in his eye?"

"That's true." Qin Wentian nodded. For the youngest immortal emperor in history, as long as there was no hatred between them, who didn't want to make friends with him?

This graveyard seemed extremely large, the stone tablets could be seen everywhere. Qin Wentian was thinking that if this place was really as he had speculated, a battlefield from ancient times, the number of geniuses buried here would definitely be a terrifying amount.

"This place seems to be safer in comparison. Actually Brother Qin, we still have an option to choose. We could stay here and not leave." The old man spoke.

"There's no way we can anticipate the danger. For those zombies, who knows when they would appear? It would be dangerous as well even if we stayed here." Qin Wentian shook his head. He didn't like being passive. He would rather advance forward and although this place was filled with danger, he would still choose to proceed on as long as there was the slightest hint of a chance. In addition, he still had some trump cards he hasn't used yet.

"What a strong baleful aura." At this moment, their eyes flashed. They continued forward and came to the boundary of this mountain. Staring at the ravine before them, it felt that the atmosphere here was covered by a sinister cloud, giving the area a gloomy and dark aura. Despite the passage of countless years, the gloomy atmosphere had yet to be alleviated. This place seemed to be the gathering of vengeful spirits who died during the ancient war, and the baleful qi originated from this place.

"Should we enter?" That old man glanced at Qin Wentian as he asked.

Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly, "Before entering the forbidden ground, our purpose was to find a sliver of opportunity for us to break through. But after entering, our purpose actually became to simply live on. How sad."

"That's true. Without really experiencing true dangers, we would never grow. But once we were met with so many life-threatening situations in here, we have already forgotten what our original purpose for coming in was." The old man sighed.

"Hence, I choose to enter this place. Old sir, you should choose according to your heart." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. He wouldn't convince others to follow him. This was his choice and not the choice of others. Everyone would have a choice of their own, and they had to take responsibility for the choice they made.

"Being able to survive up till now, is already a very fortunate matter. I no longer harbor any high hopes. After so many years, I couldn't take that final step to break through and if I really die here, that would be my destiny. However, before we enter. Can I ask you who are you exactly? Why did both Princess Nongyue and the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect have such a high evaluation of you? I've always been very curious about this."

"My name is Qin Wentian, from the eastern regions of the immortal realms, from an emperor-ranked power. Beiming Nongyue and Li Yufeng treat me as their good friend because during the time when the sacred academy opened, we got acquainted with each other in there. At that time, Li Yufeng was on the Supreme Might Rankings but he was replaced by me. Maybe, it's because of that that he started to notice me. In the sacred academy, I created quite a large amount of commotion and warred against the juniors of the other peak powers of the immortal realms. That's basically the summary of what happened. Nothing special really."

"That's not special enough?" That old man was speechless when he heard that. He shook his head and bitterly smiled before stepping forward.

"Old sir." Qin Wentian called out. The old man halted, turned and glanced at Qin Wentian.

"Before this, when we were facing the zombie monsters, I couldn't release any of my aura at all. But in fact, if we weren't in that situation, as long as I had some time, there's a chance I could escape alive. But because of a vow I swore to my sect, I cannot bring old sir along with me even if I flee. Hence, there's no need for you to make the same choice as me. Just like what you said earlier, you might be able to cultivate in safety here and might even have the chance to break through to immortal king before you encounter any more danger."

Qin Wentian was naturally referring to the fact that he could escape by entering the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Qin Wentian might not be acquainted with this old man and since everyone should take responsibility for their choice to enter the forbidden ground, he actually need not say anything. But now, only the two of them survived. He felt sorrow and naturally wanted the old man to live on if possible. This was why he tried to persuade him.

The eyes of the old man flashed as he turned back and stared at Qin Wentian. As expected of someone from a major power. Even in this forbidden ground, Qin Wentian still had some methods to save his life.

Smiling, he didn't say anything and chose to continue forward.

Qin Wentian sighed as he stepped out as well, entering the gloomy and dark ravine. Very swiftly, he discovered that the old man in front of him had disappeared.

"Old sir!" Qin Wentian called out, but nobody replied.

"Brother Qin, take care. Live well." Amidst the sinister blanket of cloud, a voice echoed out. The old man decided to roam about alone.

Qin Wentian sighed as he proceeded forward as well. He could finally sense law energy fluctuations again and this time around, the feeling was exceptionally clear and there wasn't just a single type of law energy. The law energy fluctuations here seemed to be in a chaotic mix.

There were fluctuations of slaughter, destruction, death… And in this depressing atmosphere, he could feel a hint of life too. As though it was possible to come back from death's door.

Qin Wentian moved towards the source of the baleful qi. The baleful qi grew stronger and stronger and when the law fluctuations were intense enough to shatter everything, he slowed his steps and gaze ahead. Before him was still a blanket of clouds, but within that blanket, there seemed to be a supremely cold light, illuminating the area.

That, was a saber, a broken saber with half its original length. But despite it being broken, it still radiated a supreme light.

"There's someone." Abruptly, Qin Wentian saw a human silhouette appearing beside the broken saber. It was a zombie. The head of the zombie was slashed into half as well, and his expression was extremely malevolent. Qin Wentian drew in a breath of cold air and instantly retracted his aura. That silhouette turned to his direction. It felt like he had eyes and knew of Qin Wentian's existence. However, the zombie didn't move. He simply stood there beside the saber, radiating waves of longing.

"Is he the owner of the saber?" Qin Wentian's heart trembled. It was clear that this person had already died. But how could he still be moving?

What place was this exactly?

Qin Wentian attempted to leave this place and as expected, the zombie didn't bother with him. It was as though after he died, the zombie still had an unquenchable longing for his saber.

Changing direction, Qin Wentian departed from here. He continued to wander in the blanket of clouds. In the atmosphere, the law energy of destruction could be felt. He quietly contemplated it and walked towards the source of it. After that, he met another zombie who was sitting on the ground with a white piece of cloth in its hands. That clothing seemed to be for females, and yet despite the zombie who had already died for countless years, it was still filled with longing for the owner of the white clothing.

The aura of destruction was from the clothing. When she was alive, it was unknown how many terrifying destructive attacks she had endured.

Qin Wentian once again changed direction. As he proceeded, he saw many strange scenes and terrifying divine weapons. All of them were things he wasn't qualified to touch. He also encountered many zombies but all these zombies seemed to be filled with their own longing.

Chapter 1349: Mysterious Man, Stone Tablet

The area this blanket of cloud covered was far vaster compared to the mountain ranges which Qin Wentian had been in. Qin Wentian would pause occasionally and sit down to contemplate. Just like this three years passed by, yet he wasn't able to find an exit to this place. But these three years weren't useless, his senses towards law energy was much sharper compared to before.

During these three years, he had seen many different sceneries before. He couldn't imagine how vast this place was. If a war truly did happen here before, the strength of the experts involved were also something he couldn't imagine.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was sitting beneath a gigantic tree. Its branches could reach the sky, and its roots sprawled all over the ground. Its trunk was so large that even a thousand people joining hands wouldn't be able to embrace it. A fearsome law aura emanated forth from this tree, forming a law energy domain around it.

Naturally, Qin Wentian was suspecting that this ancient tree itself was formed from law energy. If one used the cultivation realms of humanity to gauge it, this tree should be a body of laws.

Qin Wentian sat there in cultivation, quietly sensing the flows of destruction, wanting to understand the language of the destructive laws. After several months, he could already use the destructive energy of his own body. Even without using it via his immortal-foundation, he was able to create the law energy of destruction in his surroundings. This was quite a major improvement. He knew he was slowly improving step by step towards the realm he wanted to reach.

Qin Wentian had his eyes closed. In his perception, in the formless space around him, black runes of destruction flowed about unceasingly. It was still difficult for the him now to completely control these runes. If he could do so effortlessly, it would mean that he was infinitesimally close to the immortal king realm.

After a long time, Qin Wentian stood up as he proceeded closer to the source. The destructive energy grew even more intense but luckily, the gigantic tree wouldn't attack of its own volition, or it would be the same level as a supreme peak-level immortal king.

Walking to the front of tree trunk, Qin Wentian could sense that he was at his limits. If it wasn't for the fact that he was proficient in this kind of law energy, he wouldn't be able to get so close to it.

Taking out a divine weapon, Qin Wentian pierced the weapon into the trunk of the tree. Despite the sharpness of the weapon, as it came into contact with the tree, it started to crumble bit by bit from the destructive aura. An instant later, the sword was corroded halfway and fell onto the ground. Qin Wentian didn't dare to pick up the divine weapon with the destructive law energy flowing all over it. He decided to turn about and leave.

After some months, Qin Wentian came to another canyon that was blanketed by sinister clouds. This place felt incredibly heavy, with the law energy of gravity. Every step Qin Wentian took would result in an overwhelming pressure boring down on him. It was hard even to lift his feet. His body felt as though it was about to be bent but finally, he saw the source of the gravity energy. The source was a huge rock on the ground, but the shape of this rock wasn't regular at all. It shone with a brilliant luster and seemed to be formed naturally from the heavens.

"The heavens and earth are so miraculous, able to create such natural entities glimmering with their spirit. Is this also a kind of source origin?" Qin Wentian mused. He sat on the ground and endured the pressure, quietly comprehending this energy, feeling the flow of law.

After contemplating for a long time, he once again stood up and left the area. On his journey, he encountered many marvelous scenes, widening his horizons.

Qin Wentian had completely lost his sense of direction. He didn't know where he was but fortunately, he didn't really encounter any danger. It was just that most probably, ordinary people would find it very hard to leave. Luckily for him, he still had a trump card. If he couldn't handle the danger, he would instantly open the tunnel to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and flee.

Several years passed by again. Qin Wentian had already been in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain for a very long time. Right now, his face was filled with weariness, there didn't seem to be an end to this place, and it seemed that he wouldn't be able to find his way out for all eternity. However, Qin Wentian knew that there would not be any other place more suitable for him now at his current stage of cultivation.

This was known as a forbidden ground, but it was similarly a holy land for cultivation. Once he broke through to the immortal king realm, he would instantly open up the pathway and leave via it, to the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"What a powerful suppression aura." At this moment, Qin Wentian felt a tyrannical aura with fearsome might. He walked towards that direction and after some time, he halted, staring in a dumbfounded manner at the sky.

"This…" Qin Wentian was slightly speechless. He could see two gigantic stone tablets in the distance, both glimmering with a divine glow, shining resplendently. Astral light cascaded from the sky, landing onto them as they absorbed the light and illuminated the area.

"Resonance with the astral constellations from the nine heavenly layers?" Qin Wentian was incomparably shocked. This was a technique which only immortal emperors could use. How could Qin Wentian not be shocked?

"BOOM!" Abruptly Qin Wentian suddenly felt that he couldn't move. A supreme suppressive might descended on him and under the pressure, he groaned and coughed out blood as his face turned pale.

One of the stone tablets suddenly moved. That's right, under the gaze of Qin Wentian, that gigantic stone tablet flew over, exuding overwhelming suppressive might. However, the entirety of the pressure didn't slam into Qin Wentian. It seemed like the stone tablet only emitted this to show Qin Wentian how terrifying it was. If not, Qin Wentian would have already died from enduring the pressure.

Qin Wentian radiated suppressive might of his own, but it was like he was an ant trying to shake a tree. When he saw the stone tablet lunging towards him he couldn't help but to feel despair.

To think that he survived even when encountering zombies, but was he destined to die to a stone tablet?

However at this moment, the stone tablet suddenly stopped. It transformed into a smaller size, roughly the size of a human and floated above Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at this scene in puzzlement. Did this stone tablet have sentience? It has gained its own intelligence?

With a flash, Qin Wentian rose up and fled. However, the stone tablet followed after him, instantly catching up. Qin Wentian didn't even move two steps and he was directly suppressed onto the ground, coughing out another mouthful of blood.

However, the stone tablet showed mercy and didn't kill him. If not, given how terrifying this stone tablet was, he would be destroyed in a single strike.

"Junior accidentally ventured into this place. If senior is sentient, please show mercy." Qin Wentian spoke and stood up, continuing to attempt to leave. The stone tablet gleamed with light. Qin Wentian could only move another two steps before he was knocked onto the ground again.

Qin Wentian didn't give up. For a total of over ten times, he tried to leave again and again. The bones in his body felt close to their breaking point as he was incomparably depressed in his heart. Clearly, this stone tablet was playing around with him.

This time around, Qin Wentian who was lying on the ground, folded an incantation gesture. Abruptly, spatial fluctuations radiated as the sky changed color. The stone tablet trembled for a moment as it paused.

"One mustn't open up the tunnel to the Heavenly Talisman Realm in front of any other living beings. Although this stone tablet might be sentient, it cannot be considered a living being." Qin Wentian remembered the rule of the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He wanted to open the spatial pathway and flee.

"Bzz~" A terrifying suppression might gushed over, wanting to break the tunnel apart. However, the tunnel merely shook, but it held strong. Qin Wentian hurriedly moved towards it. This stone tablet was too intelligent, let's hope that it wouldn't really kill him. Right now, he could only risk doing this.

All of a sudden, Qin Wentian took out the demon sword and knocked it against the stone tablet. His body was about to enter the tunnel but at this moment, the suppression pressure increased explosively in might, and severed the tunnel into two, forcibly closing the pathway.

"This…" Qin Wentian turned pale. The stone tablet actually also cause the demon sword to be flung away from the impact and once again released that energy to suppress Qin Wentian, causing him to cough out blood. Qin Wentian gritted his teeth, was this forbidden ground going to be his burial place?

But at this moment, that trace of suppression pressure abruptly vanished completely. Qin Wentian was puzzled. He inclined his head and a moment later, his heart trembled. Before him, a human silhouette could be seen.

The figure had hair so long that it touched the ground, and was like a ghost or demon.

"Zombie?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. After that, he only saw that figure turning over. The features of this figure was blocked by his hair, but a pair of black eyes shining with light could be seen.

"Living human?" Qin Wentian's heart shook. He then called out, "Senior."

"Return." That figure glanced at the stone tablet, and a moment later, the stone tablet directly flew back. A terrifying energy enveloped Qin Wentian and he discovered that he couldn't move at all. He simply floated in the air and there was some force causing him to follow behind the demonic-looking like figure. He couldn't control himself at all.

"Is this a human or a ghost? If he is a stellar martial cultivator, how strong is he?" Qin Wentian couldn't imagine the strength of this figure. That stone tablet was already extremely terrifying, able to resonate with the constellations. However, a single sentence from this man caused the stone tablet to retreat. Also, this man seemed to have been living here in this secret realm. How long had he been in here?

Qin Wentian floated there. He glanced up at the sky as terrifying waves buffeted his heart. He passed through the two stone tablets, and that stone tablet which pursued after him earlier, transformed back into a giant version of itself, and continued to absorb astral light from the nine heavens.

"Bzz~" Qin Wentian only felt his body being tossed through the air. After awhile, he was slammed onto the ground as the energy enveloping him dissipated. He stood up and glanced at the mysterious man before him but that figure didn't even look at him at all. He was staring right ahead instead.

Qin Wentian also stared ahead. After that, his gaze froze. A majestic city could be seen before him. However, this place was extremely worn down, the palaces and halls all disintegrated and seemed extremely dipliated.

"I will give you a year of time. You can cultivate safely in here but if you fail to break through to the immortal king realm, you will die." That mysterious figure left behind a sentence before he disappeared completely.

Qin Wentian was astonished. A year to break through to immortal king? What did the mysterious man mean?

Who was he?

What sort of secrets did this forbidden ground contain within it exactly?

Chapter 1350: Monstrously Terrifying Expert

Qin Wentian stood up and stared at the dipliated city before him. Right now, he could faintly be sure that a great war once erupted here.

This majestic city was extremely vast, the two gigantic stone tablets which he passed by, were like guards guarding this place. They were both sentient and were existences similar to immortal emperors. From this, one could very well imagine how grand this city was originally.

What a pity, right now, everything in the city seemed to have collapsed into ruins.

"Those zombies and their longings. That graveyard. Could it be that all of them were heroes and experts of this majestic city of the past?" Qin Wentian mused, he felt that this had quite a high probability of being right.

Could the mysterious man earlier be a lucky survivor?

If that was the case, this forbidden ground was even more ancient compared to the history of the Darknorth Immortal Empire, countless times more ancient in comparison.

By thinking on this train of thought, if that mysterious man was a lucky survivor of the ancient war, how long must he have lived for?

Just having this thought alone, Qin Wentian was already extremely shocked.

If this was true, that mysterious man must be a supremely terrifying ancient old freak.

Before this, the tunnel to the Heavenly Talisman Realm was forcibly closed. Qin Wentian guessed that that shouldn't be something the stone tablet was able to do. That stone tablet earlier only wanted to suppress him, and the actual act of closing the tunnel should have been done by the mysterious man. Even though the mysterious man didn't appear, he was able to close the spatial tunnel with ease. How monstrously terrifying was he?

"I might have met a supremely old freak." Qin Wentian mused. In this Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, the strongest experts he heard of before, were the ancient emperors. Ranked below them, were immortal emperors followed by immortal kings. What cultivation realm must this old monster have reached?

Could he be a peak immortal emperor? Or has he reached the legendary ancient emperor level?

Why did such an existence wish for him to break through to immortal king within a year? If he failed to do so, he would die.

With a flash, Qin Wentian entered the depths of the once majestic city. He discovered that not only was this city was extremely dipliated, there were strong traces of destructive law energy everywhere.

As he continued deeper into the depths, he saw a ten thousand meter absolute devil saber hanging suspended in the air. Even now, devil might was gushing ferociously forth from the saber, despite the long passage of time.

He saw terrifying stretches of abyssal flames, burning a large area of land in the city, causing the space to look like the underworld. From afar, he could already feel how scorching that place was. He didn't dare to get close to it and chose to take a long detour to bypass it.

He also saw a region filled with lightning which constantly fell from the sky. If one watched from the air, he would determine that that place was simply impassable. Qin Wentian who was in the city, could clearly sense how terrifying the lightning bolts were.

"I have to hurry up and break through to the immortal king realm." Qin Wentian mused silently. He no longer had time. When he saw the terrifying destructive might in so many areas within the city, he didn't doubt that if he failed to reach immortal king in a year, the other party would definitely kill him.

In addition, he also didn't attempt to escape using the spatial tunnel. Because although he couldn't sense the aura of that mysterious man, he had a strange feeling that the mysterious man was observing him.

Given the fearsome cultivation base of the mysterious man, maybe his immortal sense could surround this entire city with just a thought. Since he could easily close off the tunnel to the Heavenly Talisman Realm, Qin Wentian had no way to flee at all.

Qin Wentian began his cultivation journey, advancing and pausing at times. He would sometimes sit down to contemplate the energy fluctuations as well.

And as he was cultivating, a huge commotion appeared in the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

When Qin Wentian opened up the spatial tunnel and the spatial tunnel was forcibly closed off by an outside force, the immortal generals in the Heavenly Talisman Realm sensed it. They couldn't afford to treat this matter lightly.

Not far away from the gigantic stone tablets, at the location where Qin Wentian opened up the spatial tunnel earlier, a terrifying surge of spatial fluctuations radiated as a void gate appeared and a group of experts emitting terrifying auras walked out.

"As expected, this place is the mysterious forbidden ground within the Darknorth Immortal Mountain." A person spoke.

"Mhm, we have to be careful in this forbidden ground. I wonder which junior brother came here. It's best for us to be more cautious as this place is exceedingly mysterious. It's also rumored to have extremely fearsome monsters within and the secrets inside are still unknown." Another person spoke.

They continued forward and eventually, saw the two gigantic stone tablets, resonating with the constellations, producing a suppressive pressure on the surroundings, gleaming with a dazzling light.

"Emperor-ranked weapon?" The eyes of the experts flashed with an intense sharpness.

"RUMBLE!" One of the stone tablet suddenly increased the suppressive pressure, causing this entire space to tremble. The expressions of the experts all changed. Could it be that these stone tablets were able to launch attacks with their own will?

One of them stabbed out a finger strike, causing cracks to appear ahead. The ground started trembling as an earthquake occurred, terrifying to the extreme.

After that, numerous figures suddenly descended from the air, exuding no auras at all. There weren't the slightest hints of life from these figures.

"Zombies?" The eyes of everyone flashed. What secrets did this forbidden ground have exactly?

Who was it who forcibly closed the spatial tunnel?

"I wonder if there's anyone here? Would the person in the shadows be willing to show your face?" An expert from the Heavenly Talisman Realm spoke, his voice booming like thunder. However, the suppressive pressure from the stone tablets actually acted as a barrier to the sound, causing his voice to be unable to leave this region.

"Setting up a secret realm outside this layer of the immortal realms? I have no interest with regards to your secrets. Stop bothering me." A voice from the void echoed out, filled with the ancientness and vicissitudes of time. The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm didn't even know which direction the voice sprang from.

The eyes of everyone flashed, there was actually a supreme expert here hiding inside the Immortal Law Mountain Range of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and he was able to see through the secrets of their Heavenly Talisman Realm with a single glance, and could even forcibly close the spatial tunnel.

"Senior, who might you be? Before this, a junior from our sect was here. Can senior please show mercy?" An expert spoke, politely referring to the unknown person as senior. Clearly, he could already sense how terrifying this unknown character is.

"Nameless people, I don't really like killing. The junior of your sect is still alive for now, but if he wants to live on, he can only depend on himself. All of you should return." That voice rang out again, causing the eyes of the experts present to flash with reluctance.

The immortal realms were extremely vast and there would definitely be some secret existences. Just like the fact that their Heavenly Talisman Realm existed, it was a closely kept secret only known to a limited few.

Frowning, all of them didn't know how to handle this matter. There was a fearsome supreme expert and this place was a forbidden ground. It wasn't really too serious for such a character to know of their Heavenly Talisman Realm, but they were truly feeling reluctant to leave just like this.

"Return, return, return!"

At this moment, an intense thunderous sound echoed unceasingly. The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm stiffened, they could feel a powerful energy causing their bodies to freeze. After that, to their horror, they discovered that they were all being forced back to the spatial tunnel they created earlier as the tunnel closed before their eyes.

"If there's someone else from your realm coming here to disturb me in the future, I will charge right through the spatial tunnel and slay everyone within."

A voice rang out like thunder in the minds of the experts. After that, the spatial tunnel closed completely.

Within the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the few experts felt their hearts trembling with terror. They had never met such a terrifying person before, or even heard of someone like this.

"What cultivation realm does that person have?" One of them turned to the strongest expert among them, an immortal emperor.

"I don't know." That immortal emperor had a look of fear on his face. He didn't know what the cultivation realm of that supreme expert earlier was. They were basically not on the same level. He only knew that in his entire life, he hasn't met anyone as strong as that.

"We will stop antagonizing him and keep his existence a secret." That immortal emperor's expression turned solemn. "Seems like the junior who entered the forbidden ground is extremely fortunate. Just like what that man has said, he didn't like to kill. If not, regardless of how many major characters went there, I'm afraid none of us would survive."

"But the rumors said that the death rate of the forbidden ground is extremely high. At the very least, only those at the immortal king realm would barely qualified to enter there."

"Maybe the cause of their deaths were because of the zombie monsters and that mysterious expert had no hand in it. If he really acted, who in the immortal realms can stand against him? Luckily, he seemed to be living a life of a recluse and has no interest in matters of the external world." That immortal emperor spoke. After that, all the experts turned and departed, no longer daring to probe this matter. If they continued probing, that supreme existence might truly be angered.

Qin Wentian had no idea of this incident, he was in a state where he forgot everything, fully focused on his cultivation. Time was tight, he could feel that he was already very near the immortal king realm. He had to break through as quickly as possible.

At this moment, a figure akin to an apparition suddenly appeared beside him. It was none other than that mysterious figure. He stood beside Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, "Not even a bit of improvement? Why is your cultivation speed so slow?"

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows, as his cultivation was interrupted. He opened his eyes and glanced at the mysterious figure as he spoke, "Senior…"

"Those experts from your secret realm opened up a spatial tunnel and came here. They simply didn't know how the word 'death' is written. If it isn't for me vowing not to kill people, they would long be dead. You better remind them not to divulge any details of my existence. If they do so, in the future for anyone who comes in here, I will personally kill them all."

"Senior…" Qin Wentian wanted to speak but before he could add another word, the other party continued, "In any case, did those major characters from all parts of the immortal realms who came here really believe that they are truly supreme characters who can survive here? They didn't know they saw what I wanted them to see, and hear what I want them to hear. In fact, they are simply like ants whose fate I can determine with a snap of my fingers."

"Also, as for you, you are lucky that your life is truly tough. I don't even know why I allowed you to come here. Why did I allow you in here?" That old man inclined his head, and as he stared at the two gigantic stone tablets, he suddenly seemed extremely ancient at this moment.

"Senior…" Qin Wentian wanted to speak, but he was interrupted once again.

"Your cultivation speed is really too slow. Hurry up and break through. If you fail to do so within a year, you won't be so lucky any longer." That person spoke. After that, he turned about and disappeared. Qin Wentian had a look of bewilderment on his face, he completely couldn't see how the figure vanished at all. The speed was simply too fast, so fast that it was terrifying to an extreme.

"This…"

Qin Wentian was somewhat speechless. He discovered that the mysterious figure seemed to love to talk a lot. He couldn't even say anything and was constantly interrupted. Could it be because the mysterious figure had been lonely for far too long?

Chapter 1351: Distance of a Single Step

Qin Wentian glanced at the spot where the mysterious figure vanished. His heart shook as he recalled the words spoken by that expert.

There were major characters of the immortal realms who came here to the forbidden ground, wanting to explore and probe the secrets. However, none of them knew that they only saw what that mysterious figure wanted them to see, everything was in his control. If it wasn't for that mysterious figure having taken a vow not to kill, all those major characters would have already died.

That mysterious figure was then the king of this forbidden ground.

Dispelling all the random thoughts in his heart, Qin Wentian quieted his mind. He drew a deep breath and began his cultivation journey once more.

"There's dao in the heavens and earth, I need to seek them." Qin Wentian mumbled. He wandered about the ancient city, everytime he arrived at a terrifying place, he would sit down and contemplate on the law fluctuations, and the traces of their source origins. Gradually, he attempted to control, to evolve, and to form his own dao of law.

This vast city was like another world. If there were major powers in this place in the past, Qin Wentian didn't even dare to estimate their strength. The powers of the ancient era, didn't ancient emperors exist then?

In fact, Qin Wentian was thinking that there would still be a surviving ancient emperor in this current era? Even if the ancient emperor didn't show himself, it didn't mean that none existed. They might be living in seclusion and wouldn't proclaim themselves to be the hegemon of this era unless they really had the intention to.

Time flowed by, it has already been several years since Qin Wentian entered the forbidden ground. During this time, currents in the dark were moving in the eastern regions of the immortal realms. Although the various powers didn't directly cause a war to erupt, there would often be small-scale battles. For example, the descendants of the Evergreen Empire would frequently find themselves in conflict. In fact, there were even descendants of nobility who died when they were out tempering themselves.

Clearly, things weren't peaceful at all and someone was in the shadows, planning all this, slowly weakening the strength of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

All this small-scaled combat might seem random but in fact, the currents in the dark would definitely have a devastating effect once they erupted.

Qin Wentian had completely vanished, no one in the eastern regions knew where he went. There were rumors he returned to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and was in closed-door seclusion, preparing to break through to the immortal king realm.

Hence, during this period of time, the days of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect weren't peaceful as well. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect began large-scale combat, with many immortal kings sent out as generals, and started piling up the pressure, slowly encroaching the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's territory.

In response, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect adopted a defensive stance, slowly giving an inch while the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect kept forcing things. In fact, among the immortal kings sent out, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect discovered that there were quite a few immortal kings on the side of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect who weren't part of their sect at all.

Everyone knew what was going on, but they can't do anything. Right now, conflict has already formed and unless immortal emperors stepped out to fight a decisive battle, they could only continued on with immortal king-ranked battles.

For battles in the immortal realms, a majority of them would be of extremely long durations. It was evident the current situation would intensify in the future.

At the same time, the close friends and kin of Qin Wentian were all silently sent away to various parts of the immortal realms for their cultivation by the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord.

Right now, in a certain immortal mountain in the eastern regions, there was an emperor-ranked power named the Unaging Immortal Mountain.

The master of this mountain was an very old immortal emperor. His age was even older compared to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, but his cultivation level was lower, stuck at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Hence, although he was the master of an emperor-ranked power, he had no way to become the hegemon of an area.

Also, the Unaging Immortal Emperor didn't have the ambition for conquest. He was proficient in pill concoction, and hence, the other major powers weren't willing to offend him, they would all rather be friends with him.

Hence, the Undying Immortal Mountain was considered a holy land of the eastern regions, and resembled the God Hand Mountain Manor of Emperor Yu. It was just that the God Hand Mountain Manor didn't accept disciples, Emperor Yu was a recluse, preferring to live a life hidden away from the world. Right now, his only goal was to protect the entrance of the dimension leading to the Battle Saint Tribe.

The Undying Immortal Emperor was different, he accepted many disciples, and on this mountain range, there were many ancient peaks, lorded over by his chosen disciples and their own disciples.

On one of the ancient peaks, there was a small commotion during these years.

Because, a few years ago, a new disciple joined their sect. This female was flawlessly beautiful, like a celestial maiden, causing envy and jealousy in females, while adoration in males.

If it was just a pretty face, it was still fine. But later on, she showed startling talent in pill concoction and was heavily favored by her master, treating her as a treasure.

At this moment, this maiden stood before the cliff of the ancient peak and was staring into the horizons. Her beautiful eyes were seemingly able to pierce through space, and she was somewhat in a daze, as though longing for somebody.

"Qingcheng." At this moment, a beautiful female walked over and stood beside her. Upon staring at Mo Qingcheng's beautiful face, this female couldn't help but to smile. "Staring at the clouds in a daze again, who are you thinking about?"

"Senior sister." Mo Qingcheng smiled but she didn't reply. She wasn't that well known here and although she was the wife of Qin Wentian, other than those from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, not many knew of her existence. Also for this place, although the Emperor Lord arranged for her to be here, she didn't use his name to become a disciple, but rather, she depended on her own abilities. Hence, not many people knew of her.

However, although they didn't know her, this didn't mean that they didn't know of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's name was too famous in the eastern regions. Even in a place like the Unaging Immortal Mountain, people would still have heard of it.

"There are a few seniors from the main peak that have come over to our place. Everyone knows their intentions. Qingcheng, ever since you came, the frequency in which they came over has increased tremendously. Your charm is truly great." That beautiful lady smiled. Mo Qingcheng's expression was as calm as ever. She merely smiled slightly, and continued looking into the horizons, at the floating clouds.

"Senior sister, I came to the Undying Immortal Mountain simply for cultivation. I don't wish to be disturbed by matters of the secular world." Mo Qingcheng spoke in a low voice. She knew Qin Wentian was outstanding, although she wouldn't be able to chase up to him, at the very least, she didn't want to remain so far behind. She had to continue climbing upwards and this way, she at the very least wouldn't be that far away from him. Of course, it would be for the best if her achievements in pill concoction would be able to aid him in the future.

She truly worked very hard and put all her heart into practicing pill concoction. Although her talent couldn't be compared to Qin Wentian, she was baptized once before by the Sacred Luminance and she was someone who had entered the sacred academy, listening to the dao lectures there. Hence, in this Unaging Immortal Mountain, she was still considered extremely outstanding.

"But there are a few senior brothers who enjoys the favor of our teacher and the ancestor. Junior sister, won't you consider them at all?" That female smiled.

Mo Qingcheng shook her head and didn't reply. That female then spoke, "Alright, I won't disturb junior sister any longer."

After she spoke, she turned and left and came to another place where many young men gathered.

"Isn't junior sister Mo around?" Some of the young men asked.

"Junior sister Mo has an empire-toppling countenance and outstanding talent, how would she look up to all of you? She isn't free to see you." That female smiled, causing the expressions of all the males here to change.

"Mhm, pretending to be pure and noble. I just wanted to chat with her, yet she even needs to put on airs?" A person coldly snorted, and left after flicking his sleeves.

Mo Qingcheng naturally didn't know about this matter. She was still staring at the clouds. For the extraordinary, they were fated to be envied, adored, evoking jealousy in others. She wouldn't bother about them. She just had no idea where he was now, and she longed for him very much.

A handsome face seemed to appear among the clouds. Upon seeing that, a radiant smile appeared on Mo Qingcheng's face.

He was so outstanding, most probably, he would soon reach the immortal king realm. She had the utmost confidence in him.

Just like what Mo Qingcheng was thinking, Qin Wentian was also working very hard. The him now was sitting before a dilapidated palace and at a distance away from him, a giant spear embedded in the ground could be seen. Destructive energy crackled terrifyingly around the area, dangerous to the extreme.

"Laws, laws." Qin Wentian mused. The destructive law energy in the air stirred according to Qin Wentian's will, flowing towards him before being absorbed into his immortal-foundation.

At this moment, Qin Wentian abruptly stopped. He opened his eyes as they gleamed with sharpness.

"It's about time, I'm merely a single tiny step away." Qin Wentian stood up. His silhouette sped forth and came to a vast area. In this place, there were no disturbances from any law fluctuations. Only then would he be able to depend on himself to form laws that belonged to his attributes alone.

"There's still a few months worth of time. Let's hope I have enough time to take the last step." Qin Wentian closed his eyes and sat down and began to sense the dao of the heavens and earth. After that, under the effects of his immortal sense, the space started churning. This space had formless flows which were invisible and untouchable. One could only feel them through their senses.

"RUMBLE!" Releasing his astral soul, a destructive-attribute ancient halberd materialized in his hands. Destruction-law attribute energy radiated from him, gradually fusing together with the language of destruction laws. Although his immortal-foundation already had the destruction-attribute law, if he wanted to become an immortal king, he had to ensure that a law of his own had to exist within the heavens and earth, present everywhere, creating his law domain, as well as a body of laws.

This was a long process. Qin Wentian used his immortal sense to communicate with the language of laws, wanting to form a resonance. The formless flows flowed unceasingly, according to their own unique rhythm. Gradually, these law flows formed a connection with Qin Wentian's body, producing a resonance. After that, a dark current of destructive qi flow appeared. Although right now it was only a single strand, this could already be considered a major breakthrough.

Qin Wentian suppressed the excitement in his heart and steadied his mind. He continued to focus. Right now, he was truly infinitesimally close to the immortal king realm, just a tiny step away from it!

Chapter 1352: The 7th Astral Soul

Cultivation knows not of the passing of time. In the blink of an eye, the deadline of a year had been reached. However, the Qin Wentian now was still in a state of total focus, he simply didn't know of the passing of time. He has forgotten everything in the external world, and was completely immersed.

At this moment, he was still cultivating. Not far from him, the mysterious figure quietly lied there. It was unknown when he appeared. He was simply quietly staring at Qin Wentian.

At this moment, destructive law energy flow frenziedly circulated around Qin Wentian, akin to a long river of destruction, emitting churning noises. It continued permeating the area and Qin Wentian's astral soul began to glow with destructive light. That halberd-shaped astral soul was emanating a fearsome destruction-attribute law energy.

His body shimmered with the runes of destruction, causing the nearby destructive energy to gather on his body. Under the light from his astral soul, Qin Wentian now resembled a god of destruction, evoking fear in the hearts of all who saw him.

"Not bad." A voice rang out. Qin Wentian felt his heart tremble and his cultivation was directly interrupted. He opened his eyes, his heart was filled with unhappiness as he glanced at the mysterious figure beside him. "Senior…"

"Enough, although right now you can only be considered a half-step immortal king, I will temporarily let you pass the test. However, don't be in a hurry to form your law domain. You should first comprehend your other law attributes. I will give you another year of time to do so and failure also means death." That mysterious figure spoke before disappearing again.

Qin Wentian was directly stunned into speechlessness. He couldn't help but to curse under his breath, "Bastard."

"Who are you talking about?" A voice suddenly echoed out, causing Qin Wentian's heart to shudder. He then speechlessly replied, "Senior, I was cursing at myself."

"Mhm, although you are truly weak, you don't have to be unduly humble to the point that you scold yourself. If you can live on, you can still make a living pretty well." That mysterious figure spoke sagely. Qin Wentian gritted his teeth when he heard that. This fellow… At the immortal king realm, even if he could comprehend his other law attributes, there was no way it would be so easy for him to finish doing so within a year of time.

Right now, Qin Wentian was already on the immortal king path, but he needed time for him to fully consolidate his step on it. The mysterious figure actually broke his concentration and said that he is a half-step immortal king, and forcibly woke him up from his contemplative state. He then gave him another year to comprehend other attribute energies. How detestable.

"Fine, I'll show you what I'm capable of." Qin Wentian silently mused as he closed his eyes once more in cultivation. Three months later, a powerful suppression aura gushed forth from him as the entire space was filled with an extremely tyrannical suppression might.

At the fourth month, he finished comprehending his sword-law attribute.

At the halfway mark to the fifth month, he finished comprehending the demon-law attribute.

At halfway to the sixth month, he finished the dream-law attribute.

At the sixth month mark, he finished the force-law attribute.

For the next half year, he began to try his best and enter the immortal king realm fully. He started to form his body of laws. Once the body of laws are formed, one would be the central core component of their own laws, and they could turn into the laws with just a thought.

Just as Qin Wentian wanted to establish his law domain, that mysterious figure appeared once more. Qin Wentian glanced at that mysterious figure with some self-satisfaction and before he even said anything, Qin Wentian already spoke, "Senior, how are my achievements?"

"Mhm, barely passable I guess. After you managed to comprehend your first law-attribute, the following ones would be much easier. Luckily you are not a block of wood, or it would have been to boring to leave you alive." That mysterious figure calmly spoke. Qin Wentian almost coughed out blood when he heard that. He put in so much effort and achieve it well within the time limit but in the perspective of the mysterious figure, it was merely barely passable?

However, this undying freak's judgement was pretty accurate, able to see his current state and the method he used.

It was true that once he managed to comprehend his first law attribute energy, the others were much easier in comparison.

Some immortal kings depended on a single type of law-attribute energy to reach the immortal king realm. After that, they still needed a very long time to perfectly integrate and solidify their step into the immortal king realm. They first had to perfect their comprehensions of other law attributes.

"Next, you should be able to condense your 7th astral soul. You can choose whatever you want to, when your 7th law attribute is born, you should try to form different law domains." That mysterious figure spoke. After that, he turned around and left again just like that. Qin Wentian was completely speechless, this damnable bastard.

Although he was silently cursing in his heart, Qin Wentian still followed his instructions. He continued to cultivate and opened up his 7th astral gate, and reached out with his perception to the nine heavenly layers.

In the boundless starry space, there were the nine heavenly layers. Right now given how powerful Qin Wentian's perception was, he broke through the barriers with ease and directly appeared in the 7th heavenly layer. Although the pressure here was great, it wasn't able to do anything to him. His previous astral soul was condensed from a constellation in the 8th heavenly layer. Although he did so in a hurry, he did manage to succeed. Since that was the case, his new astral soul now, would also have to be condensed from the 8th heavenly layer.

Bringing with him, his powerful will, Qin Wentian's perception rushed up to the 8th heavenly layer. The constellations here weren't as many as the layers below, and they were all spaced extremely far apart from each other. The vast auras of these constellations were able to cause heaven and earth to crumble. And despite the vast distances, the Qin Wentian now could clearly sense their law energy fluctuations as well as law domain of the constellations.

It was as if as his cultivation base grew, his affinity with constellations would grow stronger. The higher his cultivation base, the easier it would be for him to discover the constellations within the nine heavenly layers.

This time around, Qin Wentian's perception was able to roam the 8th heavenly layer freely. Although the pressure was fearsome, he was able to endure it. He might not be able to go up to the 9th heavenly layer for now, but he was able to freely choose his constellation in the 8th layer.

The constellations here all emitted vast amounts of law energy. Although after immortal-foundation, one's astral souls would be congregated in their immortal-foundation and no longer appeared directly during combat, in reality, a stellar martial cultivator's energy source all came from their astral souls. Without powerful astral souls, their potential would naturally be lower compared to others.

In addition, after entering the immortal king realm, powerful constellations would grant one powerful law attributes. They were able to cause stellar martial cultivators to gain a greater advantage during combat.

Qin Wentian's perception roamed about the 8th heavenly later and saw many powerful constellations. Finally, his perception halted before a constellation that was emitting an imposing and tyrannical aura as he contemplated the law energy fluctuations.

This was an ultimate demon constellation, the constellation itself was shaped like a powerful devil, exuding an imposing aura that would cause the multitude of living things to kneel down in submission.

What was more terrifying is that this constellation still possessed the power of disintegration. Parts of the constellation were disintegrating one moment, and being fully recovered the next. It radiated an overwhelming amount of devilish energy.

"I've cultivated devil path techniques and can be considered very compatible with this constellation. In addition, this constellation seems to contain dual attributes." Qin Wentian was now no longer a weakling, he had read many ancient text and his knowledge was incomparable to before. He knew that there were some unique constellations that would give the cultivator two kinds of law-attributes.

Naturally strictly speaking, it couldn't really be considered dual attributes. It was just that the attribute of the unique astral souls, would usually have a second function or ability which he would also gain after he condensed it.

Also, right now Qin Wentian even knew that this kind of dual-attribute astral souls were more often seen in demon-type, devil-type and buddha-type constellations. After condensing an astral soul from these constellations, the cultivator would find themselves able to pursue either the demon, devil or buddha pathway. Other than that, there were still other unique abilities granted.

"This terrifying devil constellation still has an additional ability of disintegration?" Qin Wentian mused. For the constellation before him, if he condensed an astral soul from it, other than giving him the innate condition of comprehending devil law energy, it would still bestow on him the power of disintegration.

"Constellations from the 8th layer are truly tyrannical, it's worth a try." Qin Wentian's perception was already under great stress from the pressure. After confirming his choice, he hesitated no longer and sent his perception into one of the constellations.

This time, Qin Wentian was still under the overwhelming pressure, his will was corroded by devilish energy but he held strong and successfully connected with this constellation.

Resplendent devil light fell from the sky, cascading down on Qin Wentian's real body that was in the forbidden ground. In that instant, that mysterious figure inclined his head and stared at the sky as a terrifying sharpness gleamed in his eyes.

The process of condensing an astral soul proceeded smoothly and after everything stabilized, Qin Wentian continued his cultivation. His newest astral soul's law energy fluctuation was weaker in comparison to his other attribute-energies. He needed more time to solidify his cultivation base and refine it.

This time, he spent a long time in cultivation. The mysterious figure no longer came to disturb Qin Wentian. This time, he condensed his astral soul, formed his body of laws in a single step. When all seven kinds of attribute energies congregated on his body, he was like a true fiendgod, simply unexcelled in the world.

When Qin Wentian opened his eyes, a terrifying sharpness gleamed as he stared at the sky. Slowly, a smile then appeared on his face.

Clenching his fists, a clear sharp sound could be heard.

"To think that I would gain such a power, the constellations of the 8th heavenly layer are truly near the pinnacle." Qin Wentian stared up, wanting to see through the 9th heavenly layer. A hint of excitement appeared in his eyes. Earlier, he had been completely focused in cultivation but now, he finally couldn't suppress the excitement in his heart any longer.

"Do you think that you are already invincible because of that devil-attribute law energy?" A voice rang out. Qin Wentian's excitement abruptly vanished as black lines filled his face. This undying freaky bastard. He came to pour cold water on him every single time.

"Do you believe that I can exterminate you with my little finger? Completely destroying your soul, leaving you with nothing but a corpse?" That mysterious figure spoke. He then continued, "You are still weak, law-attribute energy will only grow stronger along side with one's cultivation base. But with your current level, no matter how high the quality of your law-attributes are, what's the use?"

Qin Wentian gritted his teeth. It was true that his strength was insufficient now or he would definitely violently beat up this death-deserving mysterious figure!

Chapter 1353: Cultivation

The mysterious figure appeared before Qin Wentian. His long hair touched the ground and seemed like a mad man from primordial times. The slits of his eyes though were exceptionally sharp. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "Next, you should start to form your law domain. Consider this well, you should have seen plenty of law domains here in the forbidden ground and your experience cannot be considered limited. If possible, you should try to merge all your law attributes into the domain you form."

"I have my own plans." Qin Wentian stared and replied somewhat impolitely.

"What? You dare to speak to me like this just after you broke through to the immortal king realm?" That mysterious figure snorted coldly. In an instant, Qin Wentian felt a terrifying power enveloping him. He felt that the heavens and earth were sealed away and his body was out of his control. An unsightly expression appeared on his face as he stared at that mysterious figure.

"I can kill you with the ease of flipping my palm. I will give you one more year of time. When I return, you best not think that your current strength is already sufficient. If you want to exit this place alive, you are still far too weak. If one day, when I don't find you interesting any longer, you staying alive would have no more meaning to me."

That mysterious expert spoke as he turned about and vanished. Qin Wentian didn't even have the chance to retort. His expression was unsightly, like he just got dumped with a bucket of cold water. With that undying freak here, it would be useless even if he broke through to immortal emperor. He wouldn't be able to defeat that mysterious figure.

Could it be that he would always have to live under that mysterious person's control? He couldn't even exit this place.

Right now, it has been some years since he entered the forbidden grounds. He also had no idea what was happening to the eastern regions. Also, were Qingcheng and Qing`er doing well?

It has been many years since the conclusion of the adjudication battle, he had no idea if the various major powers would start a war with the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

"Another year again, does this bastard only understand this phrase? A year is simply not enough." Qin Wentian cursed under his breath. At his level, the period of one year for cultivation was simply too short. Especially so in this case where he needs to solidify his foundations and strength in all aspects. That undying bastard only gave him a year of time everytime, causing him to feel extreme pressure.

Also, Qin Wentian had no idea what the undying old freak wanted to do after a year. Most probably, it wouldn't be anything good.

Qin Wentian stood up and sent out his immortal sense. Flows of light circulated around his body as his aura changed, turning more extraordinary. This was especially so when he radiated light, he seemed like the king of a generation.

His immortal sense continued gushing forth, reaching an extremely far area. He could sense every inch of soil and every blade of grass extremely clearly. His vision also grew stronger and was able to see a further distance. Clenching his fist, he felt an extremely comfortable feeling coursing through his body.

"Law domain." Qin Wentian breathed. With an intention of his will, a destructive devlish might instantly permeated the atmosphere, transforming into a terrifying law domain. In his domain, destructive energy overloaded the area, able to destroy anything in it.

This was the simplest form of a law domain.

However, the undying old freak had no interest with regards to law domains formed by ordinary immortal kings. His request was extremely high, and it's not so easy to meet his tastes. If he wasn't able to evolve his law domain within a year, the undying old freak might get bored of him and end his life.

"Law domain, since I want to establish a proper one, it would have to strengthen myself and weaken others. Only then would this law domain be effective." Qin Wentian mused.

Given Qin Wentian's understanding of cultivation, he believed that as one proceeded forward on the path, their understanding and insights of strength, cultivation realm, comprehension, and proficiency in usage of the force of the heavens and earth would all evolve.

For example the immortal-foundation realm would start to cultivate law energy. In fact, ever since a long time ago, stellar martial cultivators must already comprehend the rudimentary traces of law - their Mandates. Mandates were the embryonic form of laws, which had to be evolved as one proceeded higher up.

At the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, they were able to manifest their constellations. At the immortal king realm, they were able to manifest their law domain. All these stemmed from the same source but as one climbed higher, it was a qualitative evolution.

In the past, he was mortal. Now, he was immortal.

"For manifested constellations, those with only one kind of power in it belonged to the weakest tier. Only by fusing different insights from various mandates, would the manifested constellation be stronger. Law domains are the same as well, the simplest usage of law domains is simply to blast it out and release law energy. In this type of law domain, one's control over their law, would be strengthened.

Qin Wentian was contemplating silently. This was the simplest type of law domain, and the strengthening effect was also the smallest. Usually, for immortal kings who were at the initial-stage, this was the law domain they formed. But as they grow stronger and reached the peak of the immortal king realm, their domains would also evolve along, becoming more tyrannical and terrifying.

"Back then, senior brother Bai Wuya was able to kill the Deepflame Immortal King with absurd ease. Was that because of an extremely powerful law domain?" Qin Wentian pondered, thinking back to the scene where Bai Wuya fought against Deepflame.

"That madman didn't want me to form my law domain so early, is it because he was afraid that I would form an ordinary one?"

Back then, Qin Wentian had fought against many immortal kings of the Evergreen Empire. However, because he was only at the immortal-foundation realm then, those immortal kings were all ordinary ones and weren't heaven chosen. Hence, what he knew about immortal kings were limited. He still needed to depend on himself to comprehend.

Qin Wentian once again wandered about in this ancient city. There were many rare scenes here, and he believed that they would give him some insights.

Qin Wentian would stop often during his roaming, he wasn't in a hurry to establish his law domain. He spent a majority of his time pondering.

He thought of the process in which he contemplated the immortal king realm. When he thought about the creation of innate techniques, there were actually some similarities between both. Comprehension of cultivation and proficiency of using innate techniques were linked from a certain perspective.

At the immortal king realm, one had to form a body of laws, and had to radiate their own law energy to permeate the atmosphere, forming a sort of control over on a certain area. And as for powerful innate techniques, they act as a trigger to unleash the might of laws.

In that case, when a person has sufficiently powerful perception as well as control over divine inscriptions and runes, couldn't he straight away establish a domain of laws of sorts? Congregating ordinary law energy to transform into terrifying attacks.

It might be easy to think about it this way, but actually doing it was definitely a feat of immense difficulty.

"God's Hand." Qin Wentian suddenly thought about the ultimate art. He once saw Ancient Emperor Yi unleashing the true power of God's Hand from a projection shown to him by the ancestral phoenix of the Southern Phoenix Clan. The power of that palm was sufficient to slay supreme experts over an extremely vast distance. And that kind of power would cause even gods and devils to tremble.

And as for the energy origin of God's Hand, it came from one's body. Similarly for law domains, they had to depend on one's body of laws. He wanted to refine his body of laws by using God's Hand to temper it.

As Qin Wentian roamed about, he would frequently sit down to contemplate and started to establish his body of laws. Right now, his entire body gave off a dazzling divine glow, unexcelled in the word as boundless might circulated around him.

Also, Qin Wentian clearly wasn't satisfied with just this. God's Hand's might is an all-out emphasis on attack. By the usage of runes, it was able to fuse with any attributes and unleash different types of energy. This was something possible because Qin Wentian had studied the Battle Saint Art. As long as his comprehensions of divine inscriptions and runes were deep enough, he was able to use God's Hand to manifest anything he wanted.

Hence, Qin Wentian wanted to try fusing the art of truth within an attack. The power unleashed would definitely be even more terrifying.

Qin Wentian started on his journey of testing things out, making mistakes and learning from them, overthrowing his past conjectures. Back then in the sacred academy, he once faced a mirror and through that, he perfected his innate techniques. That, in addition to the Myriad Law Records he gained from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, Qin Wentian's comprehension abilities could only be described with the word monstrous. And because one's comprehension ability was something internal, it wouldn't be directly seen by others.

Now, he had to depend on his monstrous comprehension abilities to establish a truly powerful law domain.

Ordinary law domains were useless to him, they would just be a symbol to show others that he reached the immortal king realm.

The time period of a year quickly arrived. Time simply passed to fast. At his current level, every time he cultivates, the amount of time taken naturally couldn't be compared to previously. The mysterious figure silently appeared beside Qin Wentian. At this moment, he saw Qin Wentian who had his eyes closed, was radiating boundless law immortal light. Terrifying fluctuations gushed forth from Qin Wentian, as his body of laws took form. Just his physical form alone was so strong that it was unexcelled in this world.

Before Qin Wentian, a gigantic area was covered by the law domain he formed. Countless ancient rune characters floated in the air, as devilish might towered up into the sky, emitting fearsome destruction and suppression attributes. Qin Wentian was constantly testing out things, how was he able to gain the greatest strength and create the most perfect law domain that could instantly unleash such might instead of needing time to store up power?

A truly powerful law domain had to be able to burst forth with tyrannical might in an instant. The difficulty of doing so was extremely high.

The mysterious figure glanced at Qin Wentian but this time, he actually didn't wake him up. He merely stated, "What a slow cultivation speed, but this law domain isn't too bad it seems. There are some minor methods and techniques here. After the embryonic form of your law domain is formed, you can cultivate from them. You better refine your law domain quickly, my temper isn't very good."

After speaking, he waved his hand and tossed some items onto the ground before he turned about and departed.

The items he tossed out, there were some ancient books that were gleaming with light, some treasures, and some powerful divine weapons. If these items were seen in the external world, it would definitely cause an earthquake-level commotion. But now, these items were tossed out like trash, lying on the ground, and were given to Qin Wentian to cultivate and comprehend from them.

Qin Wentian did hear the mysterious figure's words but even so, he was still in his state of focus and continued to immerse himself within the insights, deepening his comprehension and was constantly trying to achieve the perfect state.

Time flew by without anyone noticing. Qin Wentian had just broken through to the immortal king realm but now, he was already galloping ahead relentlessly!

Chapter 1354: Undying Scripture

The Darknorth Immortal Mountain opened once every ten years. Right now, over ten years have passed since Qin Wentian entered and another batch of experts were about to go in. For the banquet this time around, Beiming Nongyue was still the host.

The test to enter has concluded and those who passed had all entered. Li Yufeng didn't leave. This time around, he decided to enter together with Beiming Nongyue.

Within the mountain range, on a certain ancient peak, a strange phenomenon appeared, attracting countless cultivators.

So it turned out that there was a maiden with looks comparable to beauty in a portrait currently sitting there in cultivation. Her hands were stroking the strings of an ancient zither, producing a music that seemed to have a life of its own. In the air, numerous marvelous drawings appeared, using music to replace the painting brush, simply startling.

"It's said that the name of this maiden is Zhiyin and she is proficient in music. Her comprehension abilities are amazing and she managed to gain her Dao after being here for the past ten years." Someone in the crowd spoke, causing the hearts of others to tremble. Right now in their eyes, Zhiyin had become a legendary character.

Sometimes, ten years was sufficient to create a legend.

"Darknorth Immortal Mountain, the Immortal Law Mountain Range, allowing others to gain good fortune. However, how can the immortal king realm be so easy to attain? Although this place can increase the chance of breaking through slightly, it's a fact that only a limited few could truly break through to the immortal king realm. Since Fairy Zhiyin was able to have such attainments, her state of heart must surely be transcendent. She originally already had an extremely high comprehension ability and it was said that after she entered here, she has just been sitting on that ancient peak to paint and play her music, she had never moved from there at all. Initially, she should have left after three months but Princess Nongyue wasn't willing to tell her to leave, allowing her to stay in here to continue her comprehensions."

"Princess Nongyue seems to be paying a lot of attention fo Fairy Zhiyin." Somebody glanced in the direction of Beiming Nongyue. This time around, both her and Li Yufeng entered together. The two of them stood side by side, sighing with admiration in their hearts as they glanced at Zhiyin.

"Lady Zhiyin is truly extraordinary." Beiming Nongyue spoke in a light voice.

"Yeah, who would have thought that she would actually be the one who reached the immortal king realm? How unexpected. Brother Qin's friends are truly outstanding." Li Yufeng smiled. He then continued, "I can't seem to find Brother Qin anywhere, I wonder how he is doing now."

"He should have entered the forbidden ground. He would really dare to do so, we already know his personality from our time in the sacred academy."

"Is the forbidden ground really that dangerous?" Li Yufeng asked.

"Yes, the best estimate for survival is 10% but that's an exaggerated amount that doesn't really match the danger level in there." Beiming Nongyue was a princess of the Darknorth Dynasty, she naturally was clear about how truly dangerous the forbidden ground of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain is.

"The life of that fellow is so tough, let's hope that he is alright. If not, the immortal realms would lose an important character that could directly influence the entire situation in the future." Li Yufeng sighed.

"Your valuation of him is truly high." Beiming Nongyue glanced at Li Yufeng.

"It has always been me surpassing others, but he is the one who caught up with me and even surpassed me. If I don't give him a high valuation, wouldn't that mean that I'm indicating my future is limited?" Li Yufeng placed his arm around Beiming Nongyue's waist as he smiled. "If that really was the case, what qualifications would I have to take you as my wife?"

"Oh, so you are going one round to praise yourself." Beiming Nongyue laughed. "When are you going back?"

"Why do I need to go back?" Li Yufeng replied.

"What are your plans then?" Beiming Nongyue smiled as she stared at Li Yufeng.

"I will cultivate well and try to break through to the immortal king realm as soon as possible, bringing a wife, a princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, back to my Hundred Refinements Sect. Only then would I have more face to return." Li Yufeng laughed, causing Beiming Nongyue to roll her eyes at him.

"Nongyue, you are a princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and should have a good understanding of the forbidden ground. Do you know what the situation within is like?" Li Yufeng seriously asked.

"I know a bit. It's said that everywhere inside there is filled with intense danger and ordinary immortal kings would definitely die if they ventured in. Even immortal emperors have no way to probe out all the secrets of that place. You should also be clear of all this information, but that fellow Qin Wentian actually chose to enter when he's only at the immortal-foundation realm." Beiming Nongyue was somewhat worried. She felt that Qin Wentian was too impulsive.

"Has anyone of your dynasty entered before?" Li Yufeng asked.

"There are several, and I also know of one who managed to exit safely after entering the forbidden ground." Beiming Nongyue spoke.

"Who?" Li Yufeng had a look of curiosity on his face.

"My elder sister." Beiming Nongyue replied.

...

The Qin Wentian at this moment was still cultivating assiduously. He had established his first type of law domain and decided to stop for now. Law domains were different from manifested constellations. Law domains could be improved on as one grows, the evolution for it would never cease. As long as one didn't fix the form of the domain fully, in the future, they can change it however they want, allowing their law domains to become more perfect and stronger.

Hence, there was no need for him to keep pondering over his insights to improve his law domain right now. Since he temporarily met a bottleneck, he decided to stop.

For the next few years, he started to cultivate and comprehend things based on the items left behind by that undying old freak. Among the items, there was a saber technique. This saber was an all-out destructive and extremely tyrannical saber art that sought to annihilate everything. It had boundless might and once one cultivated this to the extreme, he would be able to kill gods and devils.

There was also a wondrous movement techniques that contained many transformations. Even for him who didn't cultivate in wind-attribute energy, he was able to comprehend it. This movement technique was created from the movement of a true divine roc and had some compatibility with the techniques Qin Wentian cultivated before in the past. This was just a much more stronger version and was very suited for him.

There was a divine weapon, this weapon radiated black qi and a terrifying aura. When Qin Wentian held it for the first time, he instantly threw it back onto the ground. At the instant his hand came into contact with the weapon, he felt like his soul was being slaughtered and his entire person turned numb. He had no way to control his body. Hence, from then on, he didn't dare to touch that divine weapon again.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was staring at it with a puzzled expression. This divine weapon was in the shape of a rod. Although he knew it was overwhelmingly powerful, it looked extremely ordinary.

"Since the old undying freak tossed you here, it should mean that it's for me. If I fail at even holding it, I'm afraid…" Qin Wentian's heart trembled a little when he thought back to that mysterious figure. That fellow was too powerful, who knew if he was hiding in a corner right now and spying on him?

"Let's try it again." Qin Wentian gritted his teeth and walked out. He closed his palm around the rod and in just an instant, that terrifying energy struck his soul with a speed as fast as lightning, causing him to be unable to control his body. An attack to the soul was simply terrifying to the extreme.

"Damn, I can't toss it away." Qin Wentian's expression turned unsightly. He couldn't control his body at all. That terrifying energy kept attacking his soul and for the first time in his life, he could feel his soul trembling. This was too frightening. He felt that his soul was about to be separated from his body before it disintegrated into thin air. Did the undying freak want to harm him?

At this moment, the silhouette of that undying freak appeared. He simply stood before Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's gaze reflected a request for help but that undying freak simply sat down before him, staring at him. Qin Wentian's eyes widened, he was here fighting for the survival of his soul and this undying freak was simply sitting down to watch the show?

"Don't you know that this rod is an ultimate treasure? Giving it to you is truly a waste of heavenly material." That old freak spoke. Qin Wentian suddenly felt an impulse to kill the other party. Could it be that the undying old freak didn't know what he was enduring now?

"Don't look at me like that, you being able to live for so long is already a miracle. I don't even know why I allowed you to come here. But truthfully speaking, in the countless years which I've been here, you are the second person who managed to enter this ancient city. The first person is an extremely beautiful little doll. I really liked her looks and couldn't bear to let her die in here. Of course, she worked hard as well and managed to have some achievements and ultimately, I sent her out from the forbidden ground.

Qin Wentian's body was still trembling, how the hell would he have the time to care about the old undying freak's story? This bastard used the divine weapon to tricked him.

Also, was this because after being in here for so long, the old undying freak longed for company?

But why did he choose to stay here? With his strength, he could go anywhere he wanted to in the immortal realms. He could even lord over the entire immortal realms.

"Continue to endure. When you truly feel the sensation, I will help you out." The mysterious fellow spoke. Qin Wentian was completely depressed, he knew this undying freak wouldn't help him for sure. Under that terrifying attack, Qin Wentian actually managed to gradually sense the existence of his soul.

Souls are extremely mysterious and couldn't be separated from their bodies. For stellar martial cultivators, the vast majority of innate techniques cultivated, all stemmed from using one's body. Those who cultivate the secrets of the soul are only a limited few, but their powers were extraordinary strong. Naturally, because of how rare soul cultivation methods are, the number of soul cultivators were as rare as phoenix feathers and kirin horns.

Qin Wentian had never came into contact with his soul before. At this moment, he was passively enduring the soul attack. Luckily, this soul attack didn't directly annihilate his soul, or he would have died for sure.

After enduring for a long time, Qin Wentian was reaching his breaking point. The undying freak was still talking, "Right now in this era, the souls of stellar martial cultivators are so weak, simply incomparable to the past. If it was in my era, characters like you guys would die even without knowing why. The heavens have truly changed, there is more innovation now but the successive generations are growing weaker and weaker than each generation before them. Or more accurately, the truly strong experts are no longer here."

"..." Qin Wentian seemed to be unable to endure any longer.

"But luckily you met me. If you can't endure this bit of pain, just die here, there's no point for you to continue cultivating as you would be killed off sooner or later. Considering all factors, you actually can be considered quite lucky." The undying freak was still speaking. Qin Wentian could faintly sense that his weakened soul was about to be separated from his body.

"Seems like it's about time, feel it well." The undying freak glanced at Qin Wentian and all of a sudden, a gleaming resplendent light burst forth from his eyes.

"Exit!"

With that roar, Qin Wentian's soul shuddered. He felt himself floating. Wait, that was wrong, his body was still on the ground, standing there unmoving.

"This…" Qin Wentian only felt his body at the brink of collapse as despair appeared in his eyes. Had his soul been separated from his body?

The undying freak glanced at Qin Wentian before mumbling, "You can be considered to have some potential."

"Return!" With a shout from the undying freak, Qin Wentian's soul returned to his body and the divine weapon in his hand finally dropped to his feet. Right now, his entire body was convulsing as white froth could be seen bubbling out of his mouth. He had experienced a truly frightening thing.

He stared at the ancient-looking old man before his eyes. This undying old freak, what sort of terrifying existence was he exactly?

"Back then, that little doll obtained the Death Scripture from me. Let me give you the Undying Scripture then." The undying freak spoke. After that, he stretched out his hand and placed his palm atop Qin Wentian's head. In an instant, Qin Wentian's entire body froze as his soul felt as though it was restricted. A moment later, Qin Wentian fainted into unconsciousness.

"Ai, how useless." The old man shook his head. He then continued, "When you can finally hold this divine weapon, I will send you out of here then."

Chapter 1355: Exit

When Qin Wentian awoke, there were many streams of information in his mind, as well as the words spoken by that undying freak. Even though he was unconscious, the voice of that old freak was still branded into his mind. Qin Wentian could only curse at this undying old freak silently in his heart.

"Undying Scripture, Death Scripture? What the shit are those?" Qin Wentian silently mumbled. When he thought back to those zombie monsters, he suddenly was seized by a sudden thought. Could it be that the zombies were created by the scriptures? How can this be? According to logic, dead people should stay dead, it was impossible for them to return to life. Those zombies were walking corpses, they had no hints of intelligence at all.

"Soul...that undying old freak was actually able to cause my soul to be separated from my body, and even made it return." Qin Wentian thought back to his earlier experience as cold sweat dripped down his back. He felt chills all over his body, even though the ordeal was over, he still felt that the experience was extremely frightening. If the undying freak wanted his life, he would truly be able to take it with ease. The strength of that person had already far surpassed Qin Wentian's scope of understanding.

Given his current cultivation level, even immortal emperors wouldn't be able to kill him silently. They had to release their law energy in order to do so. Even for peak-level immortal emperors, if they wanted to kill immortal kings, they still had to use the laws of the Great Dao. But this undying freak could make his soul leave and return with a single shout. It was simply too terrifying.

If Qin Wentian had to pick a word to describe that old man, the word would definitely be 'unfathomable.'

Qin Wentian closed his eyes as he silently contemplated over the information of the Undying Scripture. Very swiftly, he soon learned what sort of art the Undying Scripture was. It was a cultivation art to train one's soul.

Although he had never come into contact with any soul cultivation techniques before, he knew that this Undying Scripture was a terrifying supreme ultimate-level soul cultivation art.

There's no one in the world who cannot die, regardless of body or soul, as long as they existed, they can die too. It was just that the fearsomeness of the Undying Scripture was with regards to this. When one cultivates the Undying Scripture to its extreme, one would be able to achieve a state where one's soul could survive even after their body perished. In fact, there were also other terrifying abilities like allowing the soul to gradually reform their body. It was simply too tyrannical to contemplate.

Naturally, the usage of the Undying Scripture wasn't limited to this. It could be said that it was a perfect soul cultivation art.

"Why do I feel that that old undying monster already had this plan when he allowed me to enter the ancient city right from the start?" Qin Wentian mumbled. "If it wasn't for the old undying freak intentionally acting so, how could he survived till now?"

"Maybe my talent is too outstanding, unrivalled in the heavens and earth and he admires me. He isn't able to go out in the world and hopes to find a valued successor and hence, placed his hopes all on me?" Qin Wentian shamelessly speculated, discovering that the possibility of such a thing was truly very high. He couldn't even help himself as he nodded sagely, "It must be so. After all, people like me with peak-level talents are truly too rare. The old bastard most probably never met any before."

"Mhm, luckily, he didn't say that I have to join the power he is from and didn't accept me as a disciple. Most probably, he knows he isn't qualified enough to become my master and this can't be considered as me breaking the rules of the Heavenly Talisman Realm. In the future after I grow stronger, I will come back to look for him to settle this debt." Qin Wentian continued to shamelessly speculate. If the undying freak knew what he was thinking about, one could only wonder if he would instantly cause Qin Wentian's soul to be separated from his body again.

Lowering his head and glancing at the divine rod on the ground, panic arose in Qin Wentian's heart. The experience earlier was simply too miserable, he still had fear in his heart. Seems like he had to do his best to cultivate the Undying Scripture. If not, when he tries to hold the rod again in the future, he didn't know if he could endure that terrible feeling of his soul being under attack or not.

When he thought of this, Qin Wentian closed his eyes and quieted his mind, beginning to cultivate the Undying Scripture, starting from the basics to build up his foundation.

Because he had never come into contact with soul cultivation techniques before, his starting speed was extremely slow. Before this, he couldn't even feel the existence of his soul, and didn't pay any attention to the connection between the body and soul. That time when he held the divine rod, it was the first time he felt the existence of his soul.

The soul was something extremely weak which existed within the body. If it left the body, it would be destroyed easily. Once the soul was destroyed, the body would only be an empty shell. There was no meaning of living on any longer.

Luckily with that painful experience, Qin Wentian managed to sense the existence of his soul. In that case, the first step wouldn't be too difficult. Once he knew of the soul's existence, he would be able to start training it up.

Qin Wentian once again entered into a state where he completely forgot about everything. He didn't know the flow of time and in the past, he also didn't expect that he would continue to cultivate after reaching the immortal king realm, training his soul after forming his law domain. His recent experiences could be said to be extremely bizarre.

However, the old monster did promise him that as long as he could hold the divine rod successfully, he would allow him to exit. Today, finally came. He should be able to leave this place soon.

Over ten years passed by in the blink of an eye. He didn't know the situation of the external world and could only hope that nothing major occured. After all, war among peak powers would take an extremely long time. Before an extreme conflict occurred, the decisive war wouldn't break out so fast. Back then, the war occurred only because the Skymist Immortal Empire felt that they would win for sure. But after the adjudication battle, none of the powers would dare to act recklessly.

This time around, he spent the longest amount of time for his cultivation in a single sitting. Even breaking through to immortal king didn't take so long as those attribute energies all had a common source. However, he was like a blank piece of paper when it came to cultivating the soul. This was something of extreme difficulty, The abilities granted by this Undying Scripture could be used to complement the other unique ability he obtained from his 7th astral soul. He had to do his best to comprehend them as they would definitely be of great use to him in the future.

As he cultivated on, Qin Wentian's soul energy gradually grew stronger and stronger. Now, he could finally cause his soul to be separated from his body by his own will. His soul could even turn corporeal, shining with a dazzling light. This was simply shocking. The difference in the strength of his soul was simply many many times stronger when compared to the him before he started cultivating the Undying Scripture.

Finally during one day, after many repeated failures, he finally held the divine rod and grabbed on to it tightly. Although his soul was trembling badly, right now, he could already weaken the influence on his soul to a very great extent.

The figure of the old undying freak appeared. He stared at Qin Wentian and shook his head, "You actually needed such a long period of time, how weak. You are too shitty. If I knew earlier, I would definitely have given you a time limit."

Qin Wentian was boiling every time he glanced at the undying freak, his heart filled was with hatred.

"What? You unhappy?" The voice of that undying freak turned cold. Instantly, Qin Wentian felt the trembling of his soul increase in intensity. "How would junior dare to?"

"Ai, it's good that you know you don't dare to. After cultivating here, your improvements aren't too bad and it's all thanks to me. I don't really require you to do any grand deeds to repay this debt of gratitude. You can just accompany me for about eight to ten years, we can chat everyday before you exit this place." The words of this old man instantly caused Qin Wentian to roll his eyes. He almost coughed out white froth from his mouth and fainted right there and then.

"This, this…" Qin Wentian felt like dying. Accompanying this old freak for eight to ten years? Wouldn't he be driven mad?

However, if this old freak really wanted to do this, there wasn't any way Qin Wentian could say no.

"You don't like to accompany me?" The old undying freak tidied his hair, revealing an aged countenance as he stared at Qin Wentian. He then continued, "Do you know how many people want to meet me, but I refused all of them? In these countless years, the only people I met was you and that little doll. You are actually unwilling to interact with me? If you accompany me for another eight to ten years, your improvements with regards to your cultivation would be vaster than before."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, as his heart wavered. If his strength could really be boosted greatly, he didn't mind considering this.

"Stop thinking about it. Even if you want to now, I wouldn't want you. Just scram, just scram." That old undying freak waved his hands and Qin Wentian instantly felt an energy enveloping him, whisking him through space with a speed so fast that it was inconceivable.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian was directly slammed onto the ground as a huge crater appeared. Inside the crater, he cursed out in a low voice before he leapt out of it. A moment later, his entire being froze.

"This…"

Qin Wentian glanced at the surroundings before him. He actually returned to the entrance of the forbidden ground, at the external boundary of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

With a wave of his hand, that undying old freak directly sent him here. Wasn't this simply too monstrous?

With no other indications at all, Qin Wentian had already returned to the entrance of the forbidden ground.

Those guards around here glanced at Qin Wentian as they froze. Qin Wentian actually returned? Wasn't this one of those who ventured into the forbidden ground ten years ago? He actually came back alive?

He, who was at the immortal-foundation realm when he went in, actually didn't die?

Qin Wentian didn't care about their strange looks. He glanced at the horizons as he sighed with relief.

After a moment, Qin Wentian actually bowed in the direction of the forbidden ground while silently speaking, "Old freak, let's hope you can wait for my strength to reach your level. At that time, I will definitely give you a fiery battle."

With a flash of his silhouette, Qin Wentian sped away, bypassing those law mountains. After that, he finally came before an ancient peak and saw a familiar silhouette on it.

That silhouette sat on the ground silently, playing the strings of her zither, creating an atmosphere of longing, telling the story of someone waiting for something. Qin Wentian quietly stood there and when he heard that familiar melody, a smile could be seen on his face.

To think that for this trip to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, both him and Zhiyin managed to break through to the immortal king realm. What fortune.

The melody continued, and only after some time did it reach its end. The music gradually dissipated as Zhiyin opened her beautiful eyes. Her eyes were filled with a radiant smile as she stared at Qin Wentian, "I knew you would return, hence I've been waiting here for you."

"Why wait for me?" Qin Wentian shook his head and laughed.

"Since we came here together, we should leave here together as well." Zhiyin spoke in a light voice, her reasoning was very simple, but it was also very logical.

"Let's leave then." Qin Wentian smiled. Zhiyin stood up as the two of them proceeded to the exit side by side.

Outside the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, when experts there saw both Zhiyin and Qin Wentian coming out together, all of them couldn't help but to be stunned. After that, a guard spoke, "My good lord and madam, please halt. Princess gave an order saying that if we saw the two of you coming out, we have to inform her immediately. She will come by personally." "Princess Nongyue is too polite." Qin Wentian laughed. He glanced at Zhiyin and spoke, "In that case, let us wait for Beiming Nongyue here."

"Okay." Zhiyin nodded.

Chapter 1356: Return as an Immortal Emperor

Beiming Nongyue came together with Li Yufeng, and there were even some immortal kings with them as guards. When they saw Qin Wentian standing together with Zhiyin, Li Yufeng couldn't help but smile, "The two of you seem pretty compatible with each other."

"Seems like your joyous occasion must be happening soon, to think that you would tease me and Zhiyin, haha." Qin Wentian laughed. Beiming Nongyue surveyed Qin Wentian. Initially, there seemed to be no difference to him, but as she observed further, she discovered that Qin Wentian's demeanor seemed to have changed somewhat. But she couldn't describe what changed exactly.

This fellow, he actually came out alive from the forbidden ground. What a miracle.

"Did you break through?" Li Yufeng couldn't be bothered to guess and asked directly.

"You guess?" Qin Wentian smiled.

Li Yufeng's eyes flashed as a shocked look appeared on his face. Beiming Nongyue also drew in a deep breath. Did he really break through?

"How old are you this year?" Beiming Nongyue curiously asked. Usually, the age of stellar martial cultivators in the immortal realms couldn't be speculated just by looking at their faces. At the peak-level of immortal-foundation, even those who cultivated thousands of years, they would still look extremely young let alone immortal kings. For immortal kings who cultivated ten thousand years, they too, would also look extremely young.

Both Qin Wentian and Zhiyin just broke through to the immortal king realm and looked like they were only twenty plus years of age. But the scope of their actual age was very wide.

"I forgot." Qin Wentian shrugged as he smiled. Cultivation was basically a thing that would waste plenty of time. Only a few people would care about age, what they cared about was how strong they were in terms of cultivation bases.

As to why Beiming Nongyue inquired about his age was because she felt that he might be extremely young. If Qin wentian really was extremely young, he might have broken the record of being the youngest immortal king. If that was the case, his future achievements would definitely be extremely terrifying.

Beiming Nongyue glared at Qin Wentian, "Let's go to my royal palace. Ever since you came to my dynasty, I have not really organized a welcoming banquet just for you."

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded. The group of them then sped away as Qin Wentian asked, "How's the situation in the eastern regions?"

"There shouldn't be too great a commotion there or my side would have received the news. Don't worry, I will send out some people to gather the information, there might be some currents in the dark but a supreme immortal war has yet to erupt." Beiming Nongyue spoke in a light voice. Qin Wentian nodded lightly. As expected, a war among the peak powers of the immortal realms wasn't something that would fully erupt even after eight to ten years. Both sides were playing for the long game.

Qin Wentian set his heart at ease. Since no immortal war has erupted, Qing`er and the others naturally would be fine as well, they should still be quietly cultivating or he would have to leave the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty immediately to look for them.

The royal palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was vast and majestic. Before this, Qin Wentian and people of the Wan Clan glanced at it from the outside but now, he was entering this place with Beiming Nongyue. As they entered deeper and deeper, Qin Wentian could sense powerful auras all over the place.

There naturally were plenty of experts within the royal palace, with immortal kings present everywhere. This place here was the congregation point of the strongest experts in the boundlessly vast Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, there were representatives of all the peak powers of the dynasty in here.

"We pay our respects to Princess." On their way in, many people knelt down when they saw Beiming Nongyue, indicating their respect.

Beiming Nongyue nodded lightly as she led Qin Wentian and the others along.

"Clang…" At this moment, the sound of a bell chime rang out, causing Beiming Nongyue to halt as a strange light flashed in her eyes.

"Clang…"

The sound rang out once more and continued for some time. The entire royal palace was in shock as countless gazes turned to a certain direction.

The bell chime echoed from the emperor palace. The immortal emperor was summoning everyone. Something great must have happened.

Beiming Nongyue's beautiful eyes flickered as she spoke, "The Darknorth Bell. Now, the nobles all have to gather at the emperor palace. What happened exactly?"

"Princess, the entire palace is in joy. His Majesty gathered everyone to welcome the return of Princess Youhuang." One of her subordinates bowed and reported.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with sharpness. He naturally knew what the return of Beiming Youhuang indicated.

The immortal kings of the sacred academy have all returned.

Since Beiming Youhuang returned. It means that his senior brother Bai Wuya must have returned as well. The immortal kings with the highest talent of the various major powers around the immortal realms also had returned. Seems like the period of relative peace in the immortal realms was soon coming to an end.

As for them, they came out from the sacred academy with cultivation bases at immortal-foundation, they naturally wouldn't be able to cause any storms in the immortal realms. But people of the immortal king realm are different, especially so for those who had the highest talent. This time around, after their expedition to the sacred academy, all of their strengths must have been greatly improved.

Beiming Nongyue firstly was shocked, but her eyes soon revealed the hint of a smile. "Maybe my elder sister has broken through to the immortal emperor realm."

Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng both shuddered. Beiming Nongyue drew in a deep breath and continued, "The youngest emperor in the history of my dynasty is born. The record holder is no longer Pei Qing, but my elder sister instead. As a female, this is truly impressive.

"It's very rare for royal father to use the Darknorth Bell to issue a summons. If it's a case of purely just my sister returning, there definitely wouldn't be such a great commotion. She must have stepped into the immortal emperor realm!" Beiming Nongyue smiled. "My elder sis is truly awesome, she is the number one beauty of our dynasty and now, she has become the youngest immortal emperor in history. Seems like I can only admire my elder sis from afar."

"You can't put it this way, at the very least, you still have one point in which you surpass your elder sis." Li Yufeng spoke.

"Oh, what is it?" Beiming Nongyue curiously asked.

"You managed to find an outstanding man such as me." Li Yufeng spoke in mock arrogance. Beiming Nongyue secretly cast a glance at Qin Wentian and Zhiyin and became speechless. Qin Wentian suppressed his laughter, he didn't expect the Saint Child of the Hundred Refinements Sect to be so shameless.

"However, for those worthy enough to match up to my sister, they can probably be counted on my ten fingers. No wonder she doesn't look up to anyone. Now, even Pei Qing isn't worthy of her." Beiming Nongyue spoke with some pride.

"Let's go, since it's a celebration, I naturally can bring all of you along. Qin Wentian you wouldn't mind for the banquet for you to be postponed right?" Beimong Nongyue asked.

"How would I mind, his Majesty is gathering all the nobles to throw a celebratory banquet. Such a grand event and you are welcoming such an important person like me as a guest, I only have gratitude for this." Qin Wentian grinned. For a moment, Beiming Nongyue didn't know how to reply… Li Yufeng laughed uproariously, "To think that Brother Qin is even more shameless than me."

"It's fine if you all are happy." Beiming Nongyue was utterly nonplussed by these two fellows. She turned and changed a direction, heading towards the emperor palace instead.

"Li Yufeng, have you met the Darknorth Immortal Emperor before?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"No." Li Yufeng shook his head.

"In that case, are you nervous?" Qin Wentian smiled. This was the same situation as when he first met the Evergreen Immortal Emperor back then.

"I'm handsome and elegant, exuding grace and a sense of chivalry. Why would I be nervous." Li Yufeng replied imposingly.

"Mhm, let's hope that you are still this confident after you meet with his Majesty." Qin Wentian this time nodded in a cooperative manner. "Oh also, she still has such a powerful sister. Good luck."

Li Yufeng glared at Qin Wentian and smacked his forehead. Oh yeah, Beiming Nongyue had such a powerful sister, how would things turn out for him? Let's hope the Darknorth Immortal Emperor wouldn't compare him to Beiming Youhuang. That would truly be extremely miserable.

At this moment, the major characters of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty were all rushing to the emperor palace. However, only nobles of high status had the qualifications to enter there. Many of them were extremely powerful, and they didn't need to bow when they saw Beiming Nongyue, merely acknowledging her presence with a nod of their heads as well as a simple greeting. There were even elders of Beiming Nongyue who were related to her by blood. For this case, she was the one that needed to treat them with respect.

Hence, Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng who were beside Beiming Nongyue, attracted many judging looks. Clearly, these people were very curious on what sort of character is the man Beiming Nongyue loved. Right now, she was actually bringing Li Yufeng and some friends to the emperor palace for the celebratory banquet? There naturally was a deeper layer of meaning behind this.

Inside the emperor palace, at an extremely vast area, the immortal banquet was already prepared as the experts gathered together.

At the frontmost location, several princes appeared. When they saw Beiming Nongyue bringing her friends here, all of them had astonishment in their eyes.

"Nongyue, who are these people?" Someone laughed.

"They are good friends of mine." Beiming Nongyue didn't mind it and replied. However in reality, many people knew about the existence of Li Yufeng. After all, it has been ten plus years since he came to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

"Nongyue, your elder sister has already broken through to the immortal emperor realm. You should work hard too and not neglect your cultivation." A young character spoke. His aura was outstanding and radiated a sense of heroism. He was one of the princes of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, an immortal king expert.

"Royal brother, the same to you as well. Elder sis' age is younger than yours but she has already broken through to the immortal emperor realm. Royal brother must work hard alright?" Beiming Nongyue laughingly replied, her words causing the young man to stiffen. He felt that he lost some face and truly, although Beiming Youhuang's talent is the glory of their Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, the other royals all felt that they were bring suppressed and their light was masked.

"Your elder sister wouldn't allow some emotions to delay her cultivation. To think that you are already restricted by emotions given your current cultivation base. Once your sis is back, she will definitely teach you a lesson." That prince continued.

"You should care more about yourself." Beiming Nongyue calmly replied. The eyes of that young man turned sharp as he glanced at Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng.

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines, he felt somewhat depressed. He felt that him coming here today might have implicated Li Yufeng.

Li Yufeng had to meet his future father in law, as well as the many princes of the dynasty, and another princess who had broken through to the immortal emperor realm. From this, one could see how great the pressure on him was. He would surely attract the attention of many. And as for him right now who was already an immortal king, by being beside Li Yufeng, this simply was… Qin Wentian could only silently scold himself for not thinking the situation through. If he knew this would happen, he wouldn't have accompanied Beiming Nongyue over.

"Princess Youhuang is unrivalled in our dynasty, a bright light that illuminates us all. Such a young immortal emperor, this is simply unprecedented in the past, and it's rare for anyone to overtake her in the future. In the future if she could break through further…" A person laughed, but he stopped himself as though he was fearful of mentioning a taboo matter. And as expected, the countenances of some princes grew unsightly.

"Princess Youhuang is truly spectacular, I admit my inferiority to her."

"The number one beauty of our Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, as well as the number one genius."

"Daring to enter the forbidden ground at the immortal-foundation level and even manage to exit there safely. At that point of time, I already felt that Princess Youhuang would have a boundless future."

Everyone was praising Beiming Youhuang. The faces of some of the princes turned dark. If things continued to develop like this, in the future, there might be an empress ruling their Darknorth Immortal Dynasty!

Chapter 1357: Shocking Everyone

Qin Wentian surveyed the experts in the surroundings. For those who could attend this banquet, they would all be on the level of immortal kings and had high statuses within the royal palace. Even for the princes and Beiming Nongyue, they wouldn't be able to garner too much respect here.

However, these people kept heaping on praises on another princess of the dynasty, Beiming Youhuang. All sort of voices entered Qin Wentina's ears, in an extremely chaotic manner. Although Qin Wentian didn't especially pay attention to them, everything he had heard were all praises for Beiming Youhuang.

Immortal Emperor… this height, how many people were doomed only to be able to stare up at that height in wonder and hope? Everyone at the banquet were immortal kings? In the end, only a limited few would be able to break through the barrier and enter the immortal emperor realm.

However, Beiming Youhuang had succeeded in stepping across the gap. Such success couldn't merely be described with the word 'genius.' She was simply unrivalled under the heavens and her talent was high enough to shock everyone in the immortal realms.

At this moment, there were experts walking out from the emperor palace. Many people turned and bowed, these experts were all immortal emperors of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

For immortal emperors, they would be revered no matter where they went, let alone they had the youngest immortal emperor in history among them.

Finally, a majestic looking middle-aged man who looked to be about 40+ years of age walked out. Vitality glowed in his eyes, unfathomably deep, but his aura was extremely calm. When he glanced around the crowd, everyone felt as though the immortal emperor was looking at them alone.

"Today, I invite all of you here for a celebratory banquet. That lass Youhuang has been extraordinary in all aspects since young and now, she broke the record and became the youngest immortal emperor in the history of my Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. Everyone wouldn't mind me making such a big fuss for my daughter, right?"

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed. His voice was gentle-sounding, sounding very amicable. Everyone laughed, "Princess Youhuang's talent is truly outstanding. Now that she returned as an immortal emperor, it's naturally a joyous occasion. Everyone, we really have to congratulate his Majesty."

"Congratulations to your Majesty." Everyone bowed. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed, "Everyone there's no need to be so polite. Please feel free to sit."

"Thank you your Majesty, please take your seat first." Everyone understood the etiquette of nobility. If the emperor didn't sit, who would dare to sit? Even if the emperor truly didn't mind it, they would still choose to follow the etiquette.

"Fine." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor nodded as he entered and sat down. The princes and princesses sat below him and everyone else began to move in and took their seats.

"Everyone, we might have to wait a bit before we begin feasting. After all, this banquet is thrown in honor of Youhuang. I hope that all the lords here wouldn't mind it." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor smiled gently. Everyone nodded, they naturally understood that it was only natural.

"Nongyue, why are you seated there?" At this moment, that prince who spoke to Beiming Nongyue earlier suddenly stated. This caused Beiming Nongyue to glanced at that prince unhappily.

As the sound of this voice rang out, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor turned his gaze over to Beiming Nongyue. When he saw the three people beside her, he smiled, "Nongyue, why hasn't father met these three people before?"

"Royal father, they are my friends." Beiming Nongyue spoke, silently cursing at her father for pretending. This entire dynasty belonged to him, how could he not know of things in the royal palace? Let alone things such as the man whom she was fond of. Most probably, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor already knew all of this.

"Why have you not introduced them to father yet?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed, still extremely amicable. However, Qin Wentian was very clear in his heart, given a character like the emperor of a dynasty, how could he not already know about the existence of Li Yufeng?

"These are my friends Qin Wentian and Zhiyin, they came from afar and hence, I wanted to invite them to visit our royal palace. I hope father wouldn't blame me for this." Beiming Nongyue pointed at Qin Wentian and Zhiyin as she spoke. After that, she pointed to Li Yufeng but she didn't say anything.

Li Yufeng then stood up and bowed to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, "Li Yufeng of the Hundred Refinements Sect pays my respects to your Majesty."

"Someone from the Hundred Refinements Sect?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor still pretended to not know anything. He smiled, "Your sect is so far away, why do you have the time to come to my dynasty's royal palace for a visit?"

Qin Wentian silently smiled in his heart, this Darknorth Immortal Emperor's acting abilities were truly outstanding. The emperor wanted to see if Li Yufeng would dare to brag about himself before him.

"Junior is acquainted with Nongyue and we are both fond of each other. I'm unable to hold back my longing for her, hence I especially paid a trip to the immortal dynasty." Li Yufeng also understood the Darknorth Immortal

Emperor's intentions, hence he might as well directly say what was in his heart. This made Qin Wentian silently admire him for having such guts. He truly dared to say it, directly speaking about their mutual love in front of the Darknorth Emperor. Qin Wentian was very impressed.

"Oh?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor glanced at Beiming Nongyue. "Nongyue, is this true?"

Beiming Nongyue also stood up, "Royal father, it is true."

"Ah, females always tend to side with outsiders as they grow up. Such a great matter, why didn't you discuss this with father? Could it be that you both made a pledge to be married without your parents' approval?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke, but he was no longer as amiable as before. Even Qin Wentian who was at the side, could feel a wave of pressure gushing over. With just a slight fluctuation of his mood, others would easily be pressured.

"Your daughter doesn't dare. This time, I brought Li Yufeng here, it is precisely for father to take a look at him." Beiming Nongyue bowed.

"Aren't you simply acting first before making a report to royal father?" That prince earlier coldly laughed. Beiming Nongyue coldly glanced at him. The relationship between the royalty wasn't that harmonious. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor has many wives and this particular prince was just a half brother to Beiming Nongyue. Conflict would naturally be hard to avoid in terms of politics within the royal palace, cultivation was the same as well.

"Also, just casually bringing your friends to this banquet. Could it be that Nongyue, you don't understand what qualifications the people coming here must have? Is this a place your ordinary friends can enter?" Another prince rudely spoke. The nobles at the banquet silently watched on. This was his Majesty's matters, it wasn't their place to say anything.

"I originally was bringing them to my palace to hold a banquet, but when I heard the Darknorth Bell ringing, I knew that my elder sis has broken through to the immortal emperor realm. The entire palace is celebrating and this isn't some state secret. As a princess of the dynasty, why can't I bring my friends here?" Beiming Nongyue counter-asked.

"How wilful." That prince snorted coldly.

"Enough, Youhuang is here." The Darknorth Emperor spoke, instantly ceasing the bickerings. The gazes of everyone turned to the distance and as expected, not long after, a few figures could be seen flying over. These people were immortal kings who went together with Beiming Youhuang into the sacred academy. Now, they were all flying over.

The Darknorth Emperor stood up, and so did everyone else. Staring at Beiming Youhuang who was in the lead, her extreme beauty made everyone sigh in admiration. When she stood there, all geniuses around her lost their luster. Nobody could fight for the limelight against her.

"My daughter Youhuang!" The Darknorth Emperor laughed, his voice filled with the doting love of a parent as well as pride. This daughter of his was the most outstanding one out of all his children. Regardless of beauty or talent, she stood the highest. Naturally, he was also the most fond of her.

The youngest immortal emperor in history. In the future, her achievements might even surpass him. He was naturally very proud of his daughter.

"Father." Beiming Youhuang halted and greeted the Darknorth Immortal Emperor.

"We pay our respects to your Majesty." The other immortal kings bowed.

"Congratulations to Princess Youhuang for entering the emperor realm." The experts at the banquet all stood up as they clasped their hands, causing the atmosphere to instantly turn lively.

Beiming Youhuang nodded lightly to everyone, there was no joy or sadness on her face, only calmness. Her personality was as such, as cold as ice and as calm as water, there was no fluctuations in her heart.

"Truly, an ice princess." Qin Wentian silently mused as he stared at Beiming Youhuang. He met Beiming Youhuang a very long time ago. But at that time, in the city of ancient emperors, he didn't meet the original self of Beiming Youhuang. He didn't know what methods she used to create an apparition that could seize the bodies of others for the sake of obtaining the inheritance of the Heavenly Brahma Demon Emperor.

"Youhuang, come sit beside father." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed. Beiming Youhuang nodded lightly and stepped out, appearing beside the emperor instantly.

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor shifted to allow a space for Beiming Youhuang. The hearts of many nobles trembled, and many princes and princesses stiffened, their eyes flashing with an unsightly expression which was quickly masked.

The emperor himself told Beiming Youhuang to sit beside him, at a position of immense honor. If one thought deeper about this, the consequences were extremely telling. Nobody knew if the emperor had this intention to cause everyone to think like this or not. Maybe, some of his intents were buried in truth, some were buried in illusions.

However, Beiming Youhuang didn't mind it. Since her father wanted her to sit beside him, she would do so.

"Alright, let the banquet begin." The Darknorth Emperor waved his hands as everyone sat down once more. As the banquet started, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor raised his cup, "Let's give a toast to Youhuang, and welcome the return of my beloved daughter."

"Congratulations to Princess Youhuang returning in glory!" Everyone raised their cups and toasted.

"Youhuang, this time all the immortal kings exited the sacred academy, what's the situation within?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor asked.

"Father, with the opening of the sacred academy, the era is truly changing. If things were truly like the rumors, the era of ancient emperors is now upon us. Bloody storms would soon rise up in the immortal realms." Beiming Youhuang sighed, her words causing everyone to freeze. The emperor asked again, "Why do you say so?"

"This time around among the immortal kings who entered, there were five who exited as immortal emperors." Beiming Youhuang spoke, her words were like thunder in the minds of everyone, shocking them beyond belief.

It has only been a few hundred years and five immortal emperors were born in the sacred academy? Isn't this crazy?

When has it ever been so easy for an immortal emperor to appear?

Qin Wentian's eyes also flashed. He knew how difficult cultivation was. Back then at the immortal-foundation realm, their batch was chased out from the sacred academy once the 50th year mark was reached. Although there were no immortal kings born, many of them were already close to the immortal king level.

However, for the immortal king batch, actually five immortal emperors appeared. This was simply incredible and hard to imagine. No wonder everyone was shocked. Clearly, all the people here were stunned by this news.

Even the Darknorth Immortal Emperor started. After that he asked, "Seems like a storm would truly soon rise up in the immortal realms. Although five initial-stage emperors wouldn't be able to cause too great a commotion, it must be a sign that a new era is approaching. Maybe, an ancient emperor would be born among one of you five."

Everyone nodded as they contemplated. Maybe, the ancient emperor would be none other than Beiming Youhuang!

Chapter 1358: House Arrest

"Ancient Emperor!" Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed. After that, she turned her eyes in Beiming Nongyue's direction as she asked, "Nongyue, what are you doing together with him?"

"Him?" Beiming Nongyue's gaze froze. Everyone turned their attention over only to see Beiming Youhuang was looking at Qin Wentian, who was beside Beiming Nongyue. She wasn't looking at Li Yufeng, but was looking at Qin Wentian.

"Brother Qin?" Beiming Nongyue asked.

"Why did you appear within my Darknorth Royal Palace?" Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian.

"Elder sis, Brother Qin is a friend of mine." Beiming Nongyue explained.

"Nongyue is acting to wilful, bringing any random person into our royal palace. This banquet was held to welcome Youhuang's glorious return, are your friends even qualified to be here?" The prince earlier didn't forget to toss a stone at Beiming Nongyue when she was down.

"Why don't my friends have the qualifications?" Beiming Nongyue was extremely unhappy.

"Who knows what sort of lowly characters they are. They should have eyes and not overestimate themselves." That prince coldly snorted.

"Even if he is a lowly character, he is unquestionably stronger than you." Beiming Youhuang glanced at that prince, causing that prince to freeze. He had an unsightly expression as he stared at Beiming Youhuang. He can talk back to Beiming Nongyue but now, this half sister of his Beiming Youhuang, was sitting in the position of honor beside their royal father. He didn't dare to retort and could only snort unhappily.

"You are unwilling to accept this?" Beiming Youhuang's countenance was cold. "The first time I met him, he was only at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm. Not even a hundred years have passed, I met him once more at the opening of the sacred academy and at that time, he was already in the immortal-foundation realm. Now, he's already an immortal king. What about you? From Celestial Phenomenon to the immortal king realm, how long did you take?"

The people in the surroundings all drew in a deep breath as they stared with shock at Qin Wentian. They didn't think that a random friend of Beiming Nongyue would actually be so impressive and was such a young immortal king.

Taking a hundred years to break into immortality from Celestial Phenomenon. And now, he was already at the immortal king realm. What sort of cultivation speed was this?

Many people were staring at Beiming Youhuang. The cultivation speed of this Qin Wentian seemed even faster compared to her.

"You can't even get in the sacred academy and you even have the face to make remarks here? Why don't you put more effort into your cultivation?" Beiming Youhuang wasn't polite at all as she continued to berate him. The prince's expression grew incredibly ugly. He was about to reply but the Darknorth Immortal Emperor interrupted, "Youhuang is right. You should put more effort into cultivation, why are you wasting time on such a minor matter?"

That prince instantly paled, his temper was completely gone as he nodded, "Yes, Father."

However, the hatred in his heart for Beiming Youhuang deepened. But in that exchange of words earlier, his image and status had already plummeted immensely.

"Qin Wentian, could you be the fellow who caused an emperor war in the eastern regions? Ten plus years ago, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor announced that he would be marrying off his daughter Princess Qing`er, to a young man named Qin Wentian. Are you him?" At this moment, somebody suddenly felt that the name Qin Wentian was extremely familiar when Beiming Nongyue introduced him. Right now, when Beiming Youhuang said all of this, he suddenly recalled about this matter.

"Oh?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor suddenly had an expression of interest on his face. This friend of Nongyue actually had such a grand background, and even caused an emperor war in the eastern regions. Even he had heard of this young fellow who caused the first adjudication battle of this era.

To think that the main character of that commotion was currently at this banquet and he was so young and with such a terrifying cultivation speed. Even the Evergreen Immortal Emperor approved of him, and he became his son-in-law.

"You came here for the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, right? Did you break through in there?" Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she asked. Qin Wentian glanced at this supreme beauty, he only felt a sense of danger. This woman was too cold, lofty and seemed to have no emotions despite her fair face was so stiflingly beautiful.

She actually easily guessed where Qin Wentian had broken through to the immortal king realm. Qin Wentian felt that encountering her here would bring him nothing but endless trouble.

"Princess Youhuang is wise, I did indeed break through to immortal king within the Darknorth Immortal Mountain." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Back then you obstructed me from getting an inheritance, how do you explain that?" Beiming Youhuang coldly stared at her. Only then did everyone realize that Princess Youhuang was acquainted with this young man. Not only that, they seemed to have a conflict between them.

"It has been so many years, Princess Youhuang has already entered the immortal emperor realm. Why is there still a need to bother about the conflict back then? If I had offended princess, Qin Wentian is willing to apologize." Qin Wentian replied.

"I naturally wouldn't bother about that. Failing to obtain the inheritance is my problem. But since you came here today, many things can easily be settled." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke, causing Qin Wentian's expressions to change. Was Beiming Youhuang planning to do something to him?

"Princess Youhuang, what do you intend to do?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Where's the demonic beast that is always by your side? Also, you should have the ultimate technique of Ancient Emperor Yi, God's Hand, with you, right?" Beiming Youhuang spoke.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as a look of unhappiness could be seen. "Is this how the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty treats their guests?"

"Elder sis, he is a friend whom I invited." Beiming Nongyue spoke unhappily.

"Nongyue, this matter has nothing to do with you." The voice of Beiming Youhuang was as calm as ever.

"I'm sure everyone has heard about the emperor war in the eastern regions. If it was I, Qin, who had first offended the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, there's nothing I can say. However, since I'm being invited here as a guest, and if something happened, I'm sure plenty of powers in the eastern regions wouldn't be willing to close one eye. Why must princess be so stubborn with regards to matters of the past?" Qin Wentian's voice also turned cold.

"I won't do anything to you, I just want to get something back. You won't even lose a strand of your hair. In addition, I will invite you to my princess residence as a guest." Beiming Youhuang calmly spoke, Qin Wentian was completely speechless.

This woman was simply incomprehensible. In her eyes, there was only cultivation.

"Everyone, please don't mind me, just continue enjoying the banquet. After the banquet concludes, I will invite him to be my guest." Beiming Youhuang acted like nothing had happened. Everyone smiled, also pretending that nothing had ever happened. Even the Darknorth Immortal Emperor pretended as well. When Qin Wentian saw this, he wanted to cry but there were no tears.

These major characters of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty were simply a bunch of hooligans.

"Youhuang, look at the young man beside your younger sister. She said that he is her boyfriend. What do you think of this?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor suddenly turned to Beiming Youhuang.

"It's tough to escape the entrapment of emotions. It's fine as long as one doesn't sink into it, allowing their emotions to influence their cultivation. Nongyue, you should know control. But this matter is after all your own, you have to walk your own path. We can't walk it for you." Beiming Youhuang calmly spoke, reminding her younger sister. However, she wouldn't interfere too much with her younger sister's decision.

As for whether she approved of it or not, the current Li Yufeng clearly wasn't qualified enough. Being able to not reject it outright, was already considered very polite of Beiming Youhuang.

"Oh." Beiming Nongyue was a little unhappy. She shot an apologetic glance at Qin Wentian. For matters her elder sis has decided, she had no power to obstruct them. However, she would observe her elder sister so Beiming Youhuang wouldn't be able to do anything much to Qin Wentian.

"Brother Qin, if there's a chance, I will secretly let you go. Today, I'm truly sorry to have implicated you." Beiming Nongyue transmitted her voice over.

"We can't blame you for this matter. In any case, your elder sis said it herself that I wouldn't even lose a strand of my hair. I can only blame my own ill luck." Qin Wentian didn't really mind it.

In the banquet, praises to Beiming Youhuang naturally couldn't be avoided as she was the main lead today. Occasionally, there would be people noticing Qin Wentian and Li Yufeng. These two fellows were both extraordinary. This was especially so for Qin Wentian, he also created a miracle being such a young immortal king.

After the banquet ended, Beiming Youhuang spoke to her father, "Royal father, I've cultivated for many years in the sacred academy. I should take some time to solidify my foundations, hence I will be returning to my residence first."

"Mhm, you should do so." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor naturally wouldn't disagree.

"Qin Wentian, come with me to my residence." Beiming Youhuang spoke to Qin Wentian, her tone was like ice. The simple white robes she was wearing couldn't mask her magnificence. Regardless of her face or her figure, both were perfect.

"Since Princess Youhuang has issued an invitation, I will naturally comply." Qin Wentian spoke. In the royal palace, how could he reject it?

"I will go as well." Beiming Nongyue spoke.

"Princess Nongyue, it's fine. I believe Princess Youhuang wouldn't do anything to me." Qin Wentian glanced at Zhiyin. Beiming Nongyue's beautiful eyes flickered before she nodded, "Elder sis, I believe you won't do anything to my friend. If not, I will never forgive you."

"Let's go." Beiming Youhuang glanced at her younger sister before she stepped out. Qin Wentian smiled to Zhiyin, "Zhiyin, take care of yourself in the future."

"I…" Zhiyin was somewhat worried.

"I will arrange a mentor for Miss Zhiyin, Brother Qin, there's no need to worry. In the future, you can pay us a visit." Beiming Nongyue spoke. She then continued, "Is Miss Zhiyin okay with this?"

"Many thanks Princess." Zhiyin nodded lightly. This time around, she didn't reject it.

Qin Wentian gave a carefree laugh and followed after Beiming Youhuang.

Beiming Youhuang's princess residence was very quiet and the environment extremely beautiful. There actually was no one here, not even serving maids or guards. Most probably, this has something to do with her personality.

"You are living here alone in such a big space?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"Isn't it good that there's no one to disturb my cultivation?" Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian. "Are you not worried at all?"

"Princess Youhuang has already promised that I won't even lose a strand of my hair, why do I need to worry? In addition, given such a beautiful environment and being able to interact with the number one supreme beauty of your dynasty, how many people would wish that they were in my shoes?" Qin Wentian joked, his words causing Beiming Youhuang to stare coldly at him.

"You are truly audacious, how dare you speak to me this way." Beiming Nongyue spoke.

"I'm only speaking the truth. A maiden like Princess Youhuang, truly makes my heart fonder the longer I look at you." Qin Wentian continued. Since he couldn't beat her in a fight, he would tease her a little. This can also be considered revenge for the house arrest.

"Let's hope you can continue acting this way." Beiming Youhuang suddenly flashed a brilliant smile at Qin Wentian. This smile was beautiful to the extreme, causing Qin Wentian to be somewhat dazed. However, there seemed to be something behind her smile.

"What is this female demon planning?" Qin Wentian mused silently, he told himself that he must never be tempted by her beauty.

Chapter 1359: I’ve Never Met Someone So Shameless Before

"Princess Youhuang, where will I stay? This princess residence is just for you to stay in. Could it be that I'm going to stay here together with you...?" Qin Wentian's heart silently trembled, but he still shamelessly said those words out loud.

Beiming Youhuang's smile vanished as her expression turned cold, "I want to see how long can you continue to be so glib for. You best not wander about randomly in my residence. Although I did promise that I wouldn't do anything to you, but if you take the initiative to court death, I definitely won't be polite. Also, if you are unhappy about having to come with me, you can talk to me directly. If you sneak away secretly…"

"How would I do that? Being able to live together with Princess Youhuang is like a dream for me. How would I bear to leave?" Qin Wentian replied.

"Hmph." Beiming Youhuang flicked her sleeves and departed with a flash of her silhouette. She actually really didn't do anything to him, only placing him under house arrest. As long as he doesn't step out of the princess residence, there shouldn't be any problems at all.

"What does this female apparition want exactly?" A look of pondering appeared on Qin Wentian's face. The first time he met Beiming Youhuang was in the City of Ancient Emperors. At that time he already found her to be unbelievably beautiful and mysterious. She was able to appear from the void and even possess the bodies of others. Even now, there was still a shadow in his heart when he recalled her mysterious abilities, and he silently still called Beiming Youhuang as a female apparition.

Beiming Youhuang had completely departed from the area, leaving Qin Wentian behind.

His immortal sense enveloped the princess residence and with a flash, Qin Wentian came to an elegant-looking hot spring in the midst of fake mountains within the residence. Since there was nothing to do, he decided to solidify his foundation. He had just entered the immortal king realm and there were still many techniques worthy of his contemplation. Since he was placed in house arrest, he decided to just quietly cultivate for now.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes and soon sank into an immersed state. He completely forgot his surroundings, he really didn't seem to mind this house arrest at all.

Time slowly flowed by and night arrived. Starlight cascaded downwards, bathing this ancient residence in a beautiful light. The astral energy permeated all area, clearly, a powerful cultivator was using their constellation to attract astral energy for their cultivation.

Qin Wentian's heart had no distractions but at this moment, an apparition-like figure silently came over. This apparition was clad in white, so soft looking that she seemed to drift about in the air. She had no aura at all. Also, the face of this apparition was extremely beautiful, it was actually none other than Beiming Youhuang.

Just like what Qin Wentian had imagined, she was now really like a female ghost.

Beiming Youhuang moved closer to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian furrowed his brows as though he sensed something, but his eyes were still closed. Beiming Youhuang's figure floated behind Qin Wentian and slowly wanted to enter him, as though she truly was a spirit, intent on possession.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian's body started trembling. Beiming Youhuang's apparition was also trembling within Qin Wentian's body. That, was a tremble of their souls.

In the soul world, Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang's souls were standing in opposition. They were in Qin Wentian's soul world within his body and right now, there was a terrifying energy sealing this body, causing her soul to be unable to hide.

"What? You also cultivated soul energy?" A strange light flashed in Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed with a strange light. She was actually trapped here. Seems like she had underestimated Qin Wentian.

"Princess Youhuang, what do you mean by acting like this? This is a great taboo for all cultivators. One's soul would is one's forbidden territory, don't you know that without a soul, the body would only be an empty husk?" Qin Wentian's soul stared at Beiming Youhuang. The two of them were communicating via their souls, in the real world, there were no sounds emitted.

"Don't you need to pay a price for spoiling my plans to obtain that inheritance?" Beiming Youhuang spoke.

"What price do you want?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. "Wanting to pry the secrets of my soul, how can you guarantee not to even harm a hair of my head? This method might be powerful but Princess, don't you find that you are too overbearing?"

By prying into one's soul, one could gain access to Qin Wentian's deepest memories, spying on everything. All sorts of secrets would be revealed. Beiming Youhuang's actions were too ruthless.

"You refuse to pay me what you owe. I can only personally act myself to collect the debt." Beiming Youhuang icily replied.

Qin Wentian was enraged, his expression turned unsightly as he said, "Since this is the case, I truly want to see how would Princess Youhuang be able to seize my memories."

As he spoke, Qin Wentian's soul unleashed a tyrannical attack. His soul energy transformed into a giant palm and he utilized the technique of God's Hand, directly blasting out towards Beiming Youhuang's soul. The amount of soul energy was terrifying, Beiming Youhuang groaned and was sent flying. Her body trembled as her aura fluctuated.

Qin Wentian's soul walked towards Beiming Youhuang only to hear her icily speaking, "Seems like I have underestimated you. However, if you think your soul is stronger than mine, you might be in for a rude awakening."

As the sound of her voice faded, in the real world, Qin Wentian suddenly felt a tyrannical aura enveloping him. After that, he saw a figure flying over, exuding dazzling light.

Beiming Youhuang's magnificence could last through the generations. Under the starlight, she was like a divine maiden from the nine heavens, possessing supreme beauty and an ice-cold demeanor, as she walked towards Qin Wentian.

Clearly, Beiming Youhuang's soul hasn't left her body. If not, how could she control her body and move towards Qin Wentian in the real world?

In that case, what was that apparition trapped in Qin Wentian's soul world?

"Is this the technique she used to enter the City of Ancient Emperors?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Things must be so, Beiming Youhuang had cultivated a unique soul art, able to manifest soul energy to form a clone. Back then, this was how she entered the city of ancient emperors, and appeared among those who were at the Celestial Phenomenon level.

"I promised Nongyue not to hurt you. Don't force me. You best cooperate with me." Beiming Youhuang's voice turned cold as she moved closer and closer to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's expression was extremely unsightly. "Princess Youhuang should understand that prying into one's soul is an extremely taboo subject. Do you really intend to force your way through?"

"Hmph." Beiming Youhuang stepped forth, "Who asked you to block my way to the inheritance back then?"

She stood before Qin Wentian and stabbed out with a finger. Momentarily, a terrifying surge of energy gushed forth from her. With an explosive bang, Qin Wentian's body trembled and his soul was actually forced out of his body. At the next instant, Beiming Youhuang closed her eyes and her soul came out as well. A tyrannical soul energy enveloped the area, gushing forth towards Qin Wentian's soul.

"Soul battle?" Qin Wentian's expression turned ugly. He didn't expect that the first battle he fought after cultivating the Undying Scripture would be a soul battle against Beiming Youhuang. But luckily, he did cultivate the Undying Scripture or things would be even more dangerous. He might not even have any chance to resist.

This Beiming Youhuang was actually able to force someone's soul out of their body. This was simply terrifying. Her insights to the soul are definitely more superior than him.

"I can obtain your memories without harming your soul. Just cooperate with me." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. Although the two of them were speaking via their soul energy, this was the first time Qin Wentian experienced such a thing. For a moment, he didn't know how to react.

Abruptly, he glanced over at that Beiming Youhuang's soul wisp that was injured by him earlier as his eyes flashed with ruthlessness. He then spoke to Beiming Youhuang. "Princess Youhuang, I still respectfully refer to you as princess. However, one's memories are their sacred ground. I cannot let you pry into them. Don't force me."

"You have no other path to choose." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. Her soul pressed towards Qin Wentian as a fearsome energy gushed forth, much much stronger compared to Qin Wentian's soul energy,

The time which Qin Wentian cultivated the Undying Scripture was just too short. How could it be possible for his soul energy to be stronger than Beiming Youhuang? He was clearly being dominated.

"You have no choice," Beiming Youhuang's soul pressed over again as the amount of soul energy blotted out the sky. Qin Wentian could sense how terrifying it was. His arm suddenly raised as he snatched that wisp of soul of Beiming Youhuang and launched an attack that further weakened it.

Beiming Youhuang's expression turned cold. That wisp of soul coldly spoke, "So what if you exterminate a wisp of my soul?"

"Who says I want to exterminate it?" Qin Wentian's soul stepped out and grabbed that wisp of soul into an embrace. Both his hands started to roam about her body, grabbing her waist. Although they were in soul form, they still had the feeling of touch, there was no difference from reality. In fact, their senses would be even sharper and more sensitive in soul form.

In an instant, Beiming Youhuang grew completely enraged. That wisp of soul radiated cold intent as well.

"Insolence!!"

"Insolence!"

Two exact same words were uttered, the cold intent radiated was so chilling that the surrounding temperature plummeted.

"Princess, please stop. If not I, Qin, might do something disrespectful." Qin Wentian icily spoke. His hands were still roaming about, and was about to touch a place where he shouldn't touch. The coldness Beiming Youhuang exuded shot up through the roof, terrifying to the extreme.

She was actually profaned by this bastard.

"Shameless prick." Beiming Youhuang cursed in anger.

"Princess, do you feel your earlier actions were honorable? You wanted to pry into my soul, why do I still have to show restraint for? Princess, please return. Don't bother me in my cultivation." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. His gaze was resolute and his hands were still moving about, causing Beiming Youhuang to tremble from anger.

"I will really kill you." Beiming Youhuang spoke.

"Princess Youhuang is the number one beauty of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, a rare flower in the mortal world. Even if I have to die under a peony flower, I would die as a happy ghost." Qin Wentian coldly spoke, he was already prepared in his heart when he did this. He had no way to accept anyone prying into his memories. No one can be allowed to do so.

"There's no one here in the surroundings. No matter what I do, nobody would know. In any case, it's just a small matter of Princess' reputation being ruined. Princess naturally can continue to obstinately cling to your course of action. Worse comes to worse, my death here would surely implicate your Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, and might even create a war between the north and the east." Qin Wentian continued. Beiming Youhuang trembled in anger. She glared at Qin Wentian, "I've never met someone as shameless as you before."

"Thank you Princess for the praise." Qin Wentian replied.

Chapter 1360: We Are a Match Made in Heaven

Beiming Youhuang glanced at the shameless expression on Qin Wentian's face which caused her cold intent to tower up into the air once again. However, although she was being profaned, she didn't want this news to spread around the immortal realms. If not, how would she face anyone in the future? Right now, she could only do her best to suppress her emotions.

"There's only a small grudge between us, why must Princess force things to such an extent? Why don't I leave the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty? Princess, please don't continue to make things difficult for me and I will release this soul wisp immediately." Qin Wentian spoke, wanting to use this chance to leave.

"Let you go? Who knows what the shameless you will do? You release my soul wisp right now and I can pretend nothing has ever happened." Beiming Youhuang icily spoke.

"Since Princess cannot trust me, I find it very hard to trust Princess as wekk. In this case, things will be extremely difficult to resolve then." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The negotiations had entered a stalemate.

"You are a friend of Nongyue and she invited you to our royal palace. Yet, how can you do such a shameless thing? How will you explain this to Nongyue?" Beiming Youhuang's tone wasn't so cold now. She then continued, "Also, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor has betrothed his daughter to you. If they knew of this matter, what would they feel?"

"Princess Youhuang, since you also know that I'm a friend of Nongyue, why are you acting in such an overbearing manner, wanting to pry into my memories? Do you know what a great taboo this is? Even if the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and my fiancee knew about this, if they knew my current situation, they naturally would understand me. If you don't believe, it would be best if Princess went and tells them about this. The best thing you can do is to announce this to the world." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

Being trapped in the princess residence, since he just broke through to the immortal king realm, he clearly wasn't a match for Beiming Youhuang who had already broken through to immortal emperor. His cultivation of the soul was inferior as well and there was no way for him to fight at all. But even so, how could he allow the other party to pry into his memories without a fight? Since Beiming Youhuang wanted to play the ruthless card, he will play it as well.

Beiming Youhuang was shaking from anger, she only heard Qin Wentian saying, "Actually I have a solution that both sides will have no problems with."

"What solution?" Beiming Youhuang coldly looked at Qin Wentian.

"It isn't impossible if Princess Youhuang wants me to get the inheritance for you. However, there's no relationship between us at all. If Princess Youhuang is willing to become my concubine and serve me in the future, once I'm happy, I will naturally do my best to seek out all sorts of inheritances for my beloved concubine. In fact, even if you want to pry into my memories, I will let you do so." Qin Wentian spoke with a straight face. "Naturally, I have to gain something from Princess first, if not once Princess fails to honor her words, I will be in a miserable state for sure. Oh princess you…"

"Shut it." Beiming Youhuang trembled even more intensely from the anger. Her countenance was ashen as a terrifying gust of cold intent radiated from her. Killing intent flashed in her eyes and she wanted nothing more than to slice Qin Wentian into pieces.

This brat was truly shameless, using words to profane her.

Her, Beiming Youhuang as a concubine and to serve him? And he had to gain some ambiguous benefits from her first? What does that mean?

Beiming Youhuang was a heaven chosen, the number one beauty of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty with the highest talent, resulting in her becoming the youngest immortal emperor in the history of this generation. Who would dare to profane her the slightest? But today, a junior in cultivation actually touched her soul body, and used words to profane her. If this news was to be spread around and the experts of the royal palace were to learn of it, Qin Wentian would surely be torn into pieces. Even the Darknorth Immortal Emperor would personally act to kill him.

Upon feeling the towering cold intent from Beiming Youhuang, Qin Wentian's hands were still touching about dishonestly. However, he didn't dare to be too over, at the very least, he didn't dare to touch the forbidden areas. If not, Beiming Youhuang would definitely ignore the consequences and kill him right away. Right now, his purpose was to cause Beiming Youhuang to allow him to go free.

"Princess Youhuang, why is your true body not leaving here yet? Could it be that you really want something to happen between us?" Qin Wentian's hands moved about. Beiming Youhuang's expression turned incredibly ugly. After that, her soul returned back to her body, as she stared at Qin Wentian while exuding a terrifying aura. "If you dare to touch me again, I will really kill you."

Qin Wentian's hands froze. He smiled, "As long as Princess leaves this place, I guarantee I won't dare to do anything else."

"Bzz~" Beiming Youhuang was extremely decisive and left immediately. She couldn't endure another moment of Qin Wentian constantly using his hands to roam around her. She had never been humiliated like this before. If she wasn't an immortal emperor whose sanity far exceeds her impulses, she might really have killed Qin Wentian in a fit of anger.

After her true self left, her soul wisp still remained but it was no longer of threat to Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian didn't dare to relax, staring at that soul wisp, he spoke, "Princess why must you do this. As long as you free me, I would never have dared to do what I did."

"You still wish to walk out of the Darknorth Royal Palace?" Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. Qin Wentian couldn't help but to tremble, "Princess, stop threatening me. When I'm afraid, my hands would tremble. If I accidentally touched somewhere I shouldn't touch, things wouldn't be too good."

"You…" The soul wisp of Beiming Youhuang was so angry that she almost exploded.

Right now, Qin Wentian was having a headache. Although he had no choice but to use such a shameless method to resolve the situation, that beautiful apparition was ultimately still an immortal emperor. This residence was naturally covered by her immortal sense and she could instantly appear beside him. She was still of an immense threat to his life. He couldn't help but to be cautious.

"I have to trouble Princess a little." Qin Wentian blasted out a palm strike, heavily injuring the soul wisp. He was forced to do this, he had to injure her so it would be easier to control her. If Beiming Youhuang chose to destroy this soup wisp in a fit of rage, he would have no more means to control her.

After that, Qin Wentian made use of techniques he learned from the Undying Scripture to form a soul prison, locking the soul wisp up. He then spoke, "Princess, as long as you don't act against me, I can promise you that I won't try anything funny. However, if Princess wishes to kill me, I, Qin, am also someone who has cultivated an avatar-creation technique. If my true self dies, my avatar wouldn't die. At that time, I will announce to the whole world that I was killed for molesting Princess Youhuang."

"Who will trust you?" The weakened soul wisp of Beiming Youhuang replied.

"You don't believe that I have an avatar? I can swear on my soul that this is true. And as for the matter of molesting Princess, as long as my avatar sends out his immortal sense, the world would definitely believe me. Why must you offend the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect just for a minor grudge in the past?" Qin Wentian then continued, "Princess, please don't force my hand."

The face of the soul wisp changed. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Who taught you the soul arts?"

"I learned it myself." Qin Wentian shamelessly spoke.

"Did you learn them in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain?" Beiming Youhuang asked. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stared at her.

Seeing his gaze, Beiming Youhuang continued, "Within the Darknorth Mountain, an old man with hair so long that it touches the ground?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a brilliant light as he thought back to the words the undying old freak told him, as a look of enlightenment appeared on his face.

"Are you that little doll spoken of by that undying freak?" Qin Wentian speechlessly asked. How miraculous, Beiming Youhuang was actually the 'little doll' spoken of by that undying freak. The soul techniques they learned had all originated from that mad man.

"What type of soul arts did that old man teach you?" Beiming Youhuang seriously asked. She inadvertently thought back to some things in the past. She arrived at this conclusion because Qin Wentian just came out from the Darknorth Immortal Mountain after breaking through to the immortal king realm. This was exactly the same as her previous experience.

"What, is she really the little doll? What a twisted fate." Qin Wentian silently mused. Qin Wentian then spoke, "That old undying freak gave me a cultivation art before I left. He also told me that he once passed on something called the Death Scripture to a little doll. He said that if I ever met her, I should protect her well because the two of us are a match made in heaven."

Qin Wentian spoke nonsense with a straight face. To protect his life, right now he could only try to link them together by using the old man.

After speaking, Qin Wentian used a gaze with deep emotions to look at Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang's countenance turned extremely unsightly as her beautiful eyes flickered. She stared at Qin Wentian, "You protect me? Do you think you can fool me with these lies?"

Qin Wentian stared at her eyes, he could sense the fluctuations in her heart. After cultivating the art of truth, Qin Wentian's senses were extremely sharp. Could it be that Beiming Youhuang really believed in his nonsense?

"Is this supreme beauty so easy to fool?" Qin Wentian mused silently. His expression grew serious as he continued, "Youhuang, luckily we haven't made a serious mistake and we are still in time to fix things. Although right now my strength is weak, I will definitely catch up to you in the future. Although I might not be able to do like what the old man said and get together with you, I will definitely not shirk my responsibilities of protecting you. After all, although the old freak is a little perverse, he still taught me and can be considered half my master. I will naturally obey his words."

If that old undying freak in the forbidden ground of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain heard this, it was unknown if he would instantly come out to slaughter Qin Wentian.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes flashed as she stared at him. Qin Wentian put on a bold face and continued, "Enough, Youhuang, I was forced to imprison your soul wisp but I will not do anything to hurt you. I really hope you won't make things difficult for me anymore."

As he spoke, Qin Wentian's soul returned back to his body and opened his eyes.

As for Beiming Youhuang, her true body was in her palace but she naturally knew what Qin Wentian had said through the connection with her soul wisp. After all, the soul wisp was part of her soul.

This fellow was actually also the successor of that old man. The words he said… Beiming Youhuang pondered over it. She had never encountered such a thorny issue, there were too many thoughts in her heart!

Chapter 1361: Who is More Shameless Than Who?

Night fell, Beiming Youhuang finally quieted down and no longer came to find trouble for Qin Wentian, causing him to sigh in relief.

Today was truly dangerous, this female ghost was so powerful, wanting to pry into his memories no matter what. Qin Wentian had no choice and could only use all sorts of methods to free himself from it. He only hoped that Beiming Youhuang would understand things faster and allow him to leave as soon as possible.

After he quieted down his state of mind, Qin Wentian once again fell into a state of immersion for his cultivation. Beiming Youhuang's soul wisp was still trapped by him. He didn't free it as he didn't know what Beiming Youhuang was thinking. If he released the soul wisp and Beiming Youhuang instantly acted against him out of fury, he would only have a path of death to tread on given that he was in the Darknorth Royal Palace now.

After several days, there were no movements from Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian finally set his heart at ease. He had no choice either, he wasn't able to leave this place and he didn't dare to open the spatial tunnel leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm since this place was the Darknorth Royal Palace's princess residence as he would instantly be discovered and the secret of the Heavenly Talisman Realm would be divulged.

Today, Beiming Nongyue stopped by and was looking for Qin Wentian. Upon seeing Qin Wentian was still safe and sound, she finally sighed in relief. "My sis didn't do anything to you right?"

Only to see that at this moment, Beiming Youhuang's silhouette flashed as she appeared here as well. Her looks were as beautiful as before but a chilling coldness could still be felt. Qin Wentian and her mutually shared a glance before he spoke, "It's fine, I'm living very well here. Princess Youhuang treats me nicely and our relationship is improving day by day as we chat with each other often."

Beiming Nongyue's eyes flashed, staring at Qin Wentian with bewilderment. How can this be possible? Wasn't this fellow threatened by her elder sister?"

"Princess Youhuang, isn't what I say right?" Qin Wentian glanced over.

"That's right." Beiming Youhuang coldly replied. Beiming Nongyue stared at the two of them as she felt the atmosphere turning strange.

"Qin Wentian, Zhiyin's talent is pretty good and has already joined a sect. Her father is currently staying in the royal capital, they told me to say a thank you to you." Beiming Nongyue spoke. A smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face. Since Zhiyin was able to become an immortal king in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, her talent was naturally outstanding. It was only normal that a powerful sect would be willing to take her in. Qin Wentian was happy for her.

"I should be the one saying thanks to you." Qin Wentian smiled at Beiming Nongyue.

"There's no need for any thanks. Lady Zhiyin was able to have her own good fortune as well as a very high talent. If not, why would an immortal emperor be willing to accept her as a disciple? Immortal emperors have no need to give face to this princess after all. But then again, if my elder sister was the one asking for a favor, all of them would probably rush over to offer help." Beiming Nongyue laughed as she glanced at Beiming Youhuang. She then continued, "Sis, since your relationship with Qin Wentian is so good, why not become friends? There's no need to make things difficult for him any longer. Both of you are geniuses who stand at the absolute peak in the immortal realms and in the future, Brother Qin's achievements will be on par with you. If you two can become good friends, wouldn't that be interesting?"

"Nongyue you are right. I'm already bosom friends with your sister, on very intimate terms, having an affinity with each other." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Having an affinity for each other?" Beiming Nongyue started, staring at Qin Wentian.

"Haha more accurately, our interest in cultivation aligns and we are proficient in the same type of energy. Also, we have share a connection too." Qin Wentian spoke. Beiming Youhuang's expression turned cold but she didn't say anything. She only occasionally glanced at Qin Wentian while emitting an ice-cold aura.

"Your subordinate has something to report to princess." At this moment, a voice rang out from outside the residence. There were no guards here in Beiming Youhuang's residence. Without her approval, nobody could easily enter here. If there was something to report, the subordinates could only wait outside the palace for Beiming Youhuang to reply.

"Speak." Beiming Youhuang glanced over as she calmly spoke.

"Pei Qing has returned and wants to meet with Princess. Right now, he is rushing here with the prince." That person reported. Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed. Pei Qing, that arrogant fellow.

"Back then, this Pei Qing's arrogance already knows no bounds. Now that elder sis has broken through to immortal emperor, he still dares to come?" Beiming Nongyue seemed to dislike Pei Qing. Qin Wentian recalled a young silhouette as a look of coldness appeared on his face. Back then in the forbidden ground, he and two others were the only survivors but one of them was killed just because he spoke a sentence and Pei Qing disliked it.

This Pei Qing was the youngest immortal emperor before Beiming Youhuang in the history of their dynasty. Now, Beiming Youhuang had broken the record.

"What is he doing here?" Beiming Youhuang had an icy expression on her face when she heard that.

"Elder sis, don't you know what he wants? He is too full of himself and believes that him, the past record holder of the youngest immortal emperor, is qualified enough to wed you, the number one beauty of our Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. However right now, this record is already under your name, to think that he still has the face to come to our royal palace." Beiming Nongyue spoke.

Qin Wentian could see Beiming Nongyue's attitude towards Pei Qing. He couldn't help but to ask, "I've heard of Pei Qing before. Isn't he the youngest immortal emperor before Princess Youhuang? But why is able to enter and exit the royal palace freely?"

The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was terrifying, stronger even than the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Pei Qing might be an immortal emperor but there was no way he had free access to enter the royal palace.

"Using the reputation of the youngest immortal emperor, he naturally would receive welcome wherever he goes, even if he came to our royal palace. After all, his achievements in the future has a high probability of being extremely terrifying and he himself is the disciple of a very powerful character, giving him an extraordinary status." Beiming Nongyue spoke. Qin Wentian instantly understood. Seems like there were still many things he was unclear about with regards to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty.

The old man whom was with him in the forbidden ground might not know so many details about Pei Qing.

Not too long after, a voice rang out from outside, "Princess Youhuang, Pei Qing is here to pay a visit."

Beiming Youhuang frowned, but since the other party already arrived outside, she could only say, "Allow him to enter."

As the sound of her voice faded, the sound of the wind whistling could be heard. After that, a group of figures sped over. Other than Pei Qing, there were other experts at the immortal king level as well. Other than that, the prince who stood in opposition to Beiming Nongyue at the banquet was among them. It seems that he was the one who brought Pei Qing here.

"Youhuang, long time no see. Your radiance is ever glowing, your magnificence spreading through the generations. As expected of the number one beauty in our dynasty." Pei Qing gracefully walked over, his handsome face had a gentle smile on it as he stared at Beiming Youhuang.

As for Beiming Nongyue who was beside Beiming Youhuang, she was completely ignored despite her status as a princess of the dynasty. Pei Qing didn't even have her in his eyes at all. For this point, Qin Wentian already knew of it when he was in the forbidden ground.

"What are you here for?" Beiming Youhuang coldly asked, ignoring his praise.

"Can't I just come over to see you? I heard that you have broken through to the immortal emperor realm and broke my record. I'm naturally happy for you." Pei Qing laughed.

"Really?" Beiming Nongyue smiled, her eyes and expression were filled with disbelief. She was very clear on how arrogant this Pei Qing was, constantly strutting around like a peacock with his reputation as the youngest immortal emperor in their dynasty. Now, his laurel was snatched away by Beiming Youhuang. How could he be happy?

Pei Qing glanced at Beiming Nongyue as a proud smile appeared on his face. "Naturally, because I won't be lonely on my cultivation path any longer and can come here often to discuss with Youhuang about the martial Dao."

"My elder sis isn't that free." Beiming Nongyue spoke in a mocking manner.

"When were you ever qualified to speak about the matters of your sister? You should care more about your own cultivation." Pei Qing smiled. After that, he turned his gaze to Qin Wentian as a frown appeared. Almost no men could enter Beiming Youhuang's princess residence, but for this person, he had met him once before. What qualifications does he have to enter?

"Nongyue brought you here?" Pei Qing stared at Qin Wentian and asked.

"My elder sis invited him here." Beiming Nongyue seemed to intentionally want to anger Pei Qing. Pei Qing glanced at the prince at his side and that prince replied, "Nongyue brought him to our royal palace. He has already stayed here in Youhuang's residence for quite some time."

Pei Qing's expression grew ugly. Qin Wentian had already stayed here for quite some time?

"Back then in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, I wasn't willing to act against you because you are just an ant. You actually dare to enter this place? Immediately disappear from my sight." Pei Qing stared at Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke. Undoubtedly, he wanted Qin Wentian to leave here.

Beiming Youhuang furrowed her brows. Although she didn't like Qin Wentian, this place was her residence after all, when had it ever become Pei Qing's turn to give the instructions? It was like he was the owner of her place.

Qin Wentian's expression grew cold as well. Although Pei Qing was an immortal emperor, his attitude was simply rude to the extreme.

"What does this have to do with you?" Beiming Youhuang coldly asked.

"Princess Youhuang, such an ant-like character, how could he have the qualifications to enter your residence?" Pei Qing was very polite towards Beiming Youhuang, but he was filled with disdain towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with coldness. He then coldly laughed and stood beside Beiming Youhuang. "Youhuang, who the hell is this fellow? He actually dares to interfere between us in your residence?"

The gaze he used to look at Beiming Youhuang was filled with gentleness and love. Beiming Youhuang silently cursed the shameless behaviour of Qin Wentian but she didn't say anything. Pei Qing's countenance immediately grew sharp when he heard that.

"Princess Youhuang, what does he mean by that?" Pei Qing asked.

Beiming Youhuang's expression grew even colder than before as her mood sunk. She initially was already unhappy with regards to Qin Wentian. Now, another Pei Qing came to create trouble. He spoke in a tone that seemed as though everything that happened here in her residence, had to be first be approved by him.

"This has nothing to do with you. If you have nothing important to speak to me about, please leave. I need to rest." Beiming Youhuang spoke, issuing an expulsion order.

These words caused anger to be ignited in Pei Qing's heart. A mere ant dares to fight with him for a woman?

He glanced at Qin Wentian as a powerful pressure gushed forth. "A despicable lowly being fantasizing about a heavenly phoenix? You simply don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. Scram out of this residence immediately, or I will make sure you won't live to see the stars tonight."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed dangerously. Was Pei Qing threatening him?

"Don't you understand, Youhuang wants you to scram?" Qin Wentian stared at Pei Qing as he spoke. "You are the previous record holder for the youngest immortal emperor in history or are you the previous record holder for the most shameless man in the dynasty? Why do you keep insisting on staying here when it's clear no one wants you here? Also, you actually dared to interfere in matters between me and my darling Youhuang?"

Chapter 1362: Comparing Cultivation Speed?

Pei Qing stared at Qin Wentian, his eyes flashing with killing intent.

In the past, he was the youngest immortal emperor in the history of the dynasty, receiving boundless respect no matter where he went. Even immortal emperors had to be polite to him. There were no places in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty that restricted his access, even the Darknorth Immortal Emperor treated him differently. Who didn't know that his achievements in the future would definitely be high?

But right now, in the residence of Beiming Youhuang, a junior from nowhere actually dared to call him shameless in public, wanting him to scram?

"I will give you a chance to take back those words. Kneel down before me and apologize before scramming out of the princess residence and I will treat this as if nothing has happened before." Pei Qing's face was lost in front of Beiming Youhuang, he wanted nothing more than to kill Qin Wentian off directly. However, this place was after all Beiming Youhuang's residence, he had to reign in his impulses. Hence, he told Qin Wentian to kneel and apologize before scramming. This was undoubtedly the best choice. He would kill Qin Wentian in the future.

"Don't you understand human speech? Do you need me to repeat what I said?" Qin Wentian stared at Pei Qing. "Since this is the case, let me repeat myself. This place is the royal palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Youhuang's residence. Who the hell you think you are? Pointing your fingers here and there, are you even qualified?"

"This fellow…" Beiming Nongyue stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was truly gutsy enough, being so domineering even before Pei Qing. But then again, Qin Wentian was someone whose status didn't lose out to her. Could it be that he would really obey Pei Qing, knelt down to apologize before scramming away obediently?

Pei Qing's words were truly ugly-sounding and extremely overbearing. If this place was Pei Qing's territory, maybe Qin Wentian would just endure it. But this place was the royal palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, would Pei Qing really dare to kill him here?

Beiming Youhuang and Beiming Nongyue both didn't like Pei Qing at all.

"Who do I think I am?" Pei Qing suddenly laughed in a very sinister manner. He glanced at the experts beside him, those experts all began to laugh as well.

"Although my record has been broken, only Princess Youhuang who is now the youngest immortal emperor in history of the dynasty can speak to me equally." Pei Qing spoke in arrogance.

"I've met many shameless people before, but for someone as thick-skinned as you, this is really the first time I encountered it. Your self-praising abilities are so awesome, and you take so much pleasure in it." Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "The first youngest immortal emperor in history of the Darknorth Dynasty? This is merely temporary. Might I ask how old were you when you reached the immortal king realm and how old were you when you reached the immortal emperor realm?"

"I reached the immortal king ream at age 328, and broke through to the immortal emperor realm within a thousand years." Pei Qing's eyes flickered with pride. Such cultivation speed was simply terrifying. No wonder he was the first record holder.

The immortal kings and emperors which Qin Wentian came into contact with, couldn't be considered many and he doesn't really have a concept about the cultivation time needed to reach those levels. However, he knew that his senior brother Bai Wuya took over a thousand years to reach the immortal king realm and this speed was already considered extremely outstanding in the Eastern Sage Thirteen Prefectures, able to allow his name to resound famously through a region.

However, the speed of cultivation of these unaffiliated geniuses still differed by quite a large amount when compared to the geniuses nurtured by peak powers. After all, those geniuses of peak powers had talent as well as unlimited resources. Pei Qing was able to break through to immortal king in about three hundred plus years and to immortal emperor within a thousand years. No wonder he was so arrogant. In addition from what Beiming Nongyue has said, Pei Qing still had a very powerful master.

Pei Qing himself was an immortal emperor. Most probably, his master was a terrifying existence akin to Matriarch Ji, a peak-level emperor.

"Your memory is pretty good, but sadly, you are bragging at the wrong place. Leaving aside the issue of Youhuang breaking your record, I, Qin, have ordinary talent and cultivated less than 200 years yet now I'm already at the immortal king level. You took 328 years? I'm so scared. Such a trashy cultivation speed yet you really think you are number one in the world? I can only sigh in envy at how thick your skin is." Qin Wentian mocked, not giving Pei Qing any face at all.

Pei Qing's eyes flickered as he stared at Qin Wentian. After that he coldly laughed, "Less than 200 years of cultivation and you broke through to immortal king? Why don't you just say you took less than 100 years?"

"How ridiculous, I didn't doubt that you might give false information yet you have the heart of such a small man. However, it's in line with your personality. It's fine if you don't believe it either. Why don't we make a bet and invite immortal emperors of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty to come and test my bone structure to see my bone age? If I'm above 200 years of age, I will kill myself right away within the royal palace. But if I'm younger than that, you kneel and apologize and you can never enter the royal palace to harass Youhuang ever again. How about it?"

Qin Wentian stared at Pei Qing, exuding a cold intent. Pei Qing wanted to humiliate him and used his arrogance to suppress him? Since this is the case, he didn't mind showing abit of arrogance of his own. Immortal emperor so what? He was now an immortal king, belonging to the same cultivation realm as immortal emperors. He could not weaken his own spirit. After all, he's the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, a disciple of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the Saint Lord of the Battle Saint Tribe. How can he be humiliated by a young immortal emperor like Pei Qing?

As his voice rang out, it was truly domineering. The age of cultivators couldn't be known by a single glance, but if an expert were to examine one via bone age, they would definitely be able to tell. Qin Wentian said that if he lied, he would commit suicide, but if he didn't, Pei Qing would have to kneel and apologize before scramming out of the royal palace.

Pei Qing narrowed his eyes, and there was an unsightly expression on his face. He was truly stumped, he didn't dare to gamble on this. If he lost, he had to kneel and apologize. How can this be possible?

"What do you have to gamble with me? Do you even have the qualifications to talk stakes?" Pei Qing mocked coldly.

"You are the one who started bragging about your cultivation speed, you are also the one who started doubting me. If you don't dare to, just tell me directly. Are you using your awesome number one youngest immortal emperor record to pressure people again? I already told you that's worth nothing to me. Want to brag yet you still have the face to speak of qualifications? You have already utterly destroyed your reputation. If I were you, I would scram immediately from here."

Qin Wentian spoke with disdain. Beiming Youhuang stood by his side but didn't say anything. She silently mused that as expected, evil people still had to be dealt with by evil people. This Pei Qing was insufferably arrogant and not that he clashed with Qin Wentian who was also arrogant and shameless enough, yet able to back his talent with facts, Pei Qing couldn't garner any advantage.

She naturally wouldn't help Pei Qing. In reality, she felt Pei Qing was extremely troublesome.

Pei Qing turned ashen. Given his status, he was insulted time and time again. No matter how good his temper is, there was no way he would be able to endure this. Radiating cold intent, pressure of the emperor-rank engulfed the surroundings, gushing forth towards Qin Wentian.

"What? Before this you wanted to compare cultivation speed. Now that you know you are inferior, your embarrassment turned to anger and wants to bully the junior me? Although you look very young, in fact, it wouldn't be too over if I call you old man. A person with a thousand years of cultivation to suppress me. Is this the true basis of your confidence and arrogance? You even wanted to woo Youhuang? Are you even worthy?"

Each word of Qin Wentian was like a knife stabbing into Pei Qing's heart, making him to be unable offer any counter.

"Youhuang, how did you get acquainted with such a shameless man?" Qin Wentian stood beside Beiming Youhuang and asked. He stared at her with tenderness, as though the two of them were extremely close, akin to lovers. Beiming Nongyue who was at the side had a puzzled look on her face… Her mind was in a little chaos now. Her elder sis and Qin Wentian? What was going on? Could it be that they truly had a very good relationship?

"Who is the shameless and thick-skinned one?" Beiming Youhuang silently mused, cursing at Qin Wentian. However on the surface, she didn't do anything that break the illusion. She simply calmly stood there, causing Pei Qing's expression to turn even more ugly.

"Junior brother Jing." At this moment, Pei Qing suddenly called out. After that, a young man with a sharp countenance walked out. His eyes were cold and sharp as he surveyed Qin Wentian.

This person was someone from Pei Qing's sect, it was his junior brother. The talent of his junior brother was outstanding as well and although it wasn't as shocking as Pei Qing, but in perspective of ordinary people, he could be considered one of those extremely powerful heaven chosen or he wouldn't have been able to be in the same sect as Pei Qing.

However for characters like Pei Qing, in the entire history of the Darknorth Dynasty, there were only two - Pei Qing and Beiming Youhuang. No matter how talented other geniuses were, when in comparison to the two, they could only lose their luster.

"Since you say I'm bullying you on the basis that you are a junior. Fine, we will temporarily leave aside cultivation age. Cultivation speed cannot represent one's true strength, there are some who pursue speed, but their actual strength is unbelievably weak. My junior brother Jing is also at the immortal king realm and he has only broken through for tens of years. Why doesn't he spar against you?" Pei Qing coldly spoke. Although he put it nicely and packaged it as a spar, Qin Wentian understood that most probably, Pei Qing had already transmitted his voice telling his junior brother to take his life.

Given Pei Qing's status, there was nothing he didn't dare to do.

"Why must I spar with him?" Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, causing Pei Qing to start as he replied, "Weren't you the one who said that I was bullying you with my cultivation base? Now, you don't dare to fight against someone the same level as you?"

"I don't dare to? More like I don't think that he is qualified. In addition, I hate the word 'sparring.' If you want a fight, just fight, injuries and death are inevitable. But given how shameless you are, if I really killed him, wouldn't you use pressure from your emperor-ranked cultivation base to suppress me? Also, wouldn't members of your sect find me for trouble? Although I'm not afraid, I don't really like trouble." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Since you put it this way, fine. We won't spar, but fight a true combat battle instead. If you can kill him, it will be considered that you are capable and I won't pursue it." Pei Qing's expression was cold. He was truly enraged by Qin Wentian.

"You are so shameless, do you think I can believe you?" Qin Wentian laughed coldly. Pei Qing, an immortal emperor character, was so angered by Qin Wentian that his aura fluctuated wildly.

"I can guarantee that if you can kill junior brother Jing, both me and people of my sect definitely wouldn't find trouble with you." Pei Qing reiterated.

"I still can't believe you." Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. He wasn't a three year old kid. This guarantee was as good as nothing.

"What do you want then?" Pei Qing asked.

"If he loses, you apologize to me and scram out of the royal palace." Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"So simple? Fine, I will promise you." How could Pei Qing not accept this given how angry he was? He wanted Qin Wentian to die.

His junior brother Jing had actually been in the immortal king realm for about 90 plus years, 90 plus years could also be considered as tens of years if one considered the wording. Before this, when he first met Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian was just at the immortal-foundation realm. An immortal king who had been in this level for 90 plus years against an immortal king who just broke through. There was no need to imagine how this would end.

"Youhuang, I will win. I will chase away this detestable fellow for you, shouldn't you reward me with a kiss?" Qin Wentian smiled at Beiming Youhuang, causing Beiming Youhuang to be so angered that killing intent flashed in her eyes.

Beiming Youhuang coldly shot a glance at him while Qin Wentian smiled, "I was just making a casual comment."

He precisely wanted to anger both Beiming Youhuang and Pei Qing. This Beiming Youhuang really had it easy, standing at the side while watching the drama. As for Pei Qing, there was no need to say anything more about him.

Chapter 1363: Who is the more domineering one?

The name of Pei Qing's junior brother is Jing Yunhe. He had outstanding talent and was a heaven chosen immortal king character. He spent roughly over 90 years at the immortal king realm and his foundation had already been stabilized. His combat prowess was also undoubtedly extremely strong.

As for Qin Wentian, he just entered the immortal king realm and his cultivation base wasn't steady yet. Most probably, his law domain was only that of a single law-attribute. Such a combat would be of no suspense. Hence, Pei Qing asked his junior brother to deal with Qin Wentian. Although he felt that he already overestimated Qin Wentian by asking his junior brother for help, it was clear that Pei Qing's objective wasn't as simple as merely defeating Qin Wentian.

Before this, Jing Yunhe had already received a voice transmission telling him to act with no mercy, to slaughter his opponent.

Pei Qing wanted to pursue Beiming Youhuang, everyone also knew that if this past record holder of the youngest immortal emperor in history were to succeed in his pursuit of the number one beauty of the dynasty, his fame would instantly resound throughout the entire immortal realms. Also to Pei Qing, he believed that only a woman like Beiming Youhuang could match up to him.

Beiming Youhuang was simply a wife bestowed to him by the heavens, his exclusive property. Since Qin Wentian's words contained adoration and love to Beiming Youhuang, how could Pei Qing still allow him to live on?

For a woman whom Pei Qing was fond of, how could he allow others to taint her? Let alone, the character in question was an ant he held in disdain, someone who broke through to the immortal king realm by luck in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain.

Jing Yunhe stepped out, there was a look of contempt on his face when he stared at Qin Wentian. "Get the hell out."

Qin Wentian looked at the arrogant Jing Yunhe as a smile appeared on his face. Beiming Youhuang quietly watched, as though all of this had nothing to do with her.

Beiming Nongyue on the other hand, was filled with anticipation. Both Pei Qing and Beiming Youhuang's understanding of Qin Wentian wasn't as deep as hers. This fellow even dared to tease her elder sister, and insult Pei Qing. His guts were even bigger than what she imagined. As for his talent, Beiming Nongyue needn't even doubt anything. It was just that she really wanted to see how much combat prowess Qin Wentian had, despite the fact that he just broken through to the immortal king realm.

"This place is my residence, make sure the boundaries of the fight aren't set too wide." Beiming Youhuang spoke. A battle between immortal kings, if both sides erupted forth with no restraints, the aftershocks would definitely affect a huge area, able to destroy a small city.

"Don't worry, the commotion won't be too big. He isn't qualified." Jing Yunhe calmly spoke, exuding extreme confidence. Only when both sides are equally matched would the participants not be able to control the aftershocks. But to him, he believed that he could easily destroy Qin Wentian and hence, there would be no problems for him to control the situation.

"In order to avoid damage to your residence, I will use my immortal might and surround the battlefield." Pei Qing smiled. Beiming Youhuang didn't say anything, if Pei Qing was willing to do that, he naturally could prevent the aftershocks of the battle.

Qin Wentian and Jing Yunhe flew up into the air. With a wave of his hand, Pei Qing caused light to fall from the sky, enveloping the entire residence. This action instantly caused many experts to rush over because of the resplendent light. Such a method was one only usable by immortal emperors. What happened exactly in Princess Youhuang's residence?

Many experts rushed over but after that, they saw that a battlefield was being set up with Qin Wentian and Jing Yunhe in it.

"Protecting the residence from aftershocks?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Most probably, Pei Qing was doing so to prevent others from interfering in this battle or to prevent him from fleeing when Jing Yunhe attempts to kill him.

How could Pei Qing hide his intentions from Qin Wentian? It was just that Qin Wentian didn't care, because he wouldn't lose here.

"I broke through to immortal king earlier than you. I don't wish to take advantage of you, I will allow you to act first." Jing Yunhe spoke grandly, as a look of disdain appeared on his face.

"There's no need to act polite. You can make your move first." Qin Wentian replied.

"No need. If I act first, you won't even have any chance left." Jing Yunhe spoke. Earlier, both sides were in direct opposition but now when combat started, both sides were actually acting so politely...

"Oh since this is the case, I will comply with it respectfully then." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded his head. The distance between both was very close, and given such a short distance, as well as the fearsomeness of immortal kings, any of their attacks would instantly reach the other.

Qin Wentian's lips curled, his smile actually caused Jing Yunhe to furrowed his brows. Qin Wentian's gaze felt somewhat evil to him, as though he was the one being played.

"You truly don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth." Jing Yunhe laughed coldly as his aura erupted forth and released his law domain. In an instant, blazing flames surrounded him as a lavaflame king shimmered in and out of existence, terrifying to the extreme.

Not acting first didn't mean that he wouldn't defend. In order to prevent accidents from happening, Jing Yunhe still proceeded cautiously.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian stepped out. In this moment, his entire body glowed with a divine light, as he seemed to fuse together with the heavens and earth as one. His terrifying physique flowed with the fearsome destructive might of the devil path as he proceeded directly, walking straight into Jing Yunhe's law domain, walking towards the lavaflame king which was a manifestation that acted as a core for the domain.

Immortal kings would form bodies of law, and establish their law domains. The strongest point of their law domains was naturally right at the center. The closer one is to the core, the stronger the pressure the law domain would exert. This was also the reason why it is so tough to kill immortal kings. You might be stronger than your opponents but when your attack got close to him, his defenses would grow even stronger. Even if he can't win against you, he could choose to flee, unless of course, the disparity in strength is extremely great.

Only a relatively few immortal kings would do what Qin Wentian did, walking directly towards his opponent's body, entering the core of their law domain. This was a risk, because one's domain would naturally strengthen themselves and weaken opponents.

But even so, Qin Wentian chose to do it. His action in the eyes of Pei Qing was extremely ridiculous.

"Trash, you are truly someone who just entered the immortal king realm. You don't even know the taboos. Most probably, you haven't had any combat experience against immortal kings. Simply courting death." Pei Qing silently mused that his preparations in setting up the protective boundaries were superfluous. This Qin Wentian was simply courting death.

A mocking smile appeared on Jing Yunhe's face as well when he saw what Qin Wentian was doing. The might of his law domain intensified to its maximum as he slammed out with a palm strike. In an instant, the lavaflame king mirrored his movements, and slammed out, wanting to engulf Qin Wentian in lava.

"BOOM!" At this very moment, Qin Wentian also released his law domain. He only released his law domain after entering his opponent's domain. This action was simply arrogant to the extreme.

However, the instant his law domain was released, the lavaking instantly disintegrated. That terrifying devil path might enveloped Jing Yunhe, causing him to shiver in fear as chills rose up in his heart. After that, a look of fear appeared on his face as his countenance paled.

"His law domain, how can it be so overwhelming?" Jing Yunhe mused. Qin Wentian naturally wasn't courting death, one's body would always be the strongest point of one's law domain. This was the reason why he entered his opponent's domain, he wanted to be closer to his opponent. Other than not having combat experience against immortal kings, there was another possibility. That possibility is that Qin Wentian had absolute confidence that his law domain was able to suppress his opponent's.

Clearly, no one had expected such an ending. In an instant, Jing Yunhe felt his law domain being disintegrated. He himself was surrounded by that destructive might and right now, his body was grabbed by a palm of darkness. As long as the palm squeezed lightly, the fate awaiting him would be death.

Jing Yunhe's body involuntarily trembled in terror.

"Why is there a need for you to take his place to be punished?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, Qin Wentian tossed Jing Yunhe away while blasting out numerous attacks, causing his opponent to cough out blood.

"Enough!"

A shout suddenly rang out from Pei Qing. His expression was incredibly ugly to behold. Jing Yunhe was actually insta-defeated by Qin Wentian, unable to stand up to a single strike. This was simply a humiliation.

"BOOM!" Another heavy strike was sent out, Qin Wentian's feet were planted on Jing Yunhe's body, kicking his body down to Pei Qing.

Complete victory yet Qin Wentian didn't kill Jing Yunhe despite him having killing intents towards him.

His gaze stared at Pei Qing as he spoke, "Are you happy now? You can apologize before scramming away."

Pei Qing also looked at Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke, "It's best for you to have some awareness about your own situation or you won't even know how you died."

Wanting him to apologize to Qin Wentian?

Qin Wentian stared at Pei Qing with a puzzled look on his face, he then spoke in a somewhat speechless manner, "Although I knew that you were shameless, I didn't expect that your shamelessness has reached such an extent. This is also the reason why I couldn't bother to fight against him earlier. If I killed him, you would retaliate and your sect would want revenge. Your so-called guarantees and promises are all farts. Because, you keep thinking that it was impossible for you to lose, but reality has already proven my words. Now, he lost but I didn't kill him, I merely told you to face up to your words, to apologize and scram from here. You made all those promises earlier before Youhuang, and now, you are even threatening me so openly. The first youngest immortal emperor in history? Do you even know shame or not?"

"Pei Qing, my elder sister is right before you. You can actually break your promises so fast, how awesome." Beiming Nongyue seemed to be very happy. Today, Qin Wentian had helped her to finally release a breath of suppressed resentment.

Pei Qing radiated a terrifying cold intent as he icily stared at Qin Wentian.

"Do you really think that I won't be able to kill you in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty? If I really want to kill you, do you think you can still live? Are you able to hide forever in here?" Pei Qing coldly spoke. "Let me ask you again, are you sure you want me to apologize?"

"How truly ridiculous." Qin Wentian wasn't weak at all as he matched Pei Qing's gaze. "Could it be that you have no killing intent towards me earlier and didn't secretly tell your junior brother to kill me? You humiliated me time and time again, firstly you wanted to compare cultivation speed, but when you are inferior, you wanted combat. At the very end, you still decided to use your identity to pressure me again? Are you nothing but a joke?"

"Pei Qing, let me tell you this. I have many enemies and there are already many immortal emperors who want to kill me. Adding you to that group wouldn't be anything. I didn't kill your junior brother because I didn't want to offend your sect. However, I don't care about you at all. If you want to kill me, make sure to check in advance who I really am. Make sure to check that you Pei Qing, can really afford the price of killing me."

Qin Wentian's robes fluttered in the wind, his voice extremely cold. "Now, my cultivation base is still weak, I don't wish to kill your junior brother because I don't want things to be too troublesome, involving enmity from your sect. But in the future, after I break through to the immortal emperor realm, let alone you, I won't even give a damn about your master."

Chapter 1364: Worrying Situation

Qin Wentian stared at Pei Qing as he spoke in a domineering manner. He wasn't willing to create multiple powerful enemies but it's tough to avoid conflict with some characters. Back then, the first time was when he was in the forbidden ground, and the second time was now. If he continued to endure it, there was only a single path remaining for him. When Pei Qing told him to scram earlier, he would have already done so, slipping away with his tail between his legs.

But clearly, this didn't fit his personality. Hence, he could only offend Pei Qing. Since it was already fated that he would offend Pei Qing, there was no need for him to worry too much. This was the same with Beiming Youhuang. When Beiming Youhuang wanted to seize his memories then, he used all methods at his disposal to prevent it. Unless he was willing to hand over his memories obediently, if not, he could only struggle with everything he had to resist.

He had plenty of enemies, and there are already immortal emperors wanting his death. Hence, he had no wish to further offend Pei Qing's sect, which was why he didn't kill Pei Qing's junior apprentice brother. Just the conflict between him and Pei Qing wasn't a reason sufficient enough for his sect to move against him too.

Qin Wentian's domineering attitude naturally had a shocking effect to some extent. For the first time, Pei Qing seriously surveyed this young man before him. Someone who just broke through to the immortal king realm actually had such a powerful combat strength, and he seemed to be friends with Beiming Nongyue as well, and even appearing here at Beiming Youhuang's princess residence. In fact, he seemed to be fond of Beiming Youhuang too.

Pei Qing stared at Qin Wentian, it wasn't that he never considered Qin Wentian might have some background but rather, it was because he felt that his own identity was too outstanding. In addition, Qin Wentian's current cultivation base simply couldn't compare to his, especially so when he knew that the first time when they met, Qin Wentian was merely an ant at the immortal-foundation realm. That by itself, along with his arrogance, has already caused him to form a disdainful impression towards Qin Wentian.

But when Qin Wentian so domineeringly defeated his junior apprentice brother and even had the gall to say such words to him, Pei Qing couldn't help but to take a step back and consider what sort of character Qin Wentian was exactly.

Naturally, regardless who Qin Wentian was, at the very least as of now, he was merely someone who just entered the immortal king realm. No matter what background Qin Wentian had, it wasn't important to Pei Qing, who was already at the immortal emperor realm. Because ultimately, he still believed that he would become the number one character at the peak in the entire immortal realms.

"Very arrogant. You are the first person who dares to act in this manner in front of me." Pei Qing was silent for a moment before he suddenly laughed. "In that case, I really want to ask who are you exactly?"

"My name is Qin Wentian." Qin Wentian spoke, he didn't bother to say anything else. He understood that things like background are all illusions. One's own strength is the surest guarantee of everything. There was no need for him to brag about himself in front of a young immortal emperor who thought the world about himself.

However, if he really wanted to introduce his own background, Qin Wentian himself didn't even know where to start. A disciple of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord? A disciple from the Heavenly Talisman Realm? The son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor? The Saint Lord of the Battle Saint Tribe? Or perhaps, the successor of the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance?

Actually, many of these identities would serve no purpose at all. After all, on the surface, only the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and disciple of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord could be used.

"We will meet again." Pei Qing stared at Qin Wentian. His eyes still contained his past arrogance. Qin Wentian, he will remember this name. In addition given his resources, he would soon know the background behind this man.

"Youhuang, I will come and see you in the future." Pei Qing spoke to Beiming Youhuang before he turned and left.

"You have yet to apologize." Qin Wentian smiled. Pei Qing coldly snorted and flicked his sleeves as he left. His people left with him as well. That prince cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before he too, walked out of the princess residence.

Very swiftly, this place returned to its previous quietness. Only Qin Wentian, Beiming Youhuang and Beiming Nongyue remained.

"Humans are really the same, the promises made when they are so full of themselves, usually counts for nothing, the same as a fart. However, before this he spoke in a voice filled with so much determination as though it would sever iron. Regardless of the people at the immortal king or immortal emperor realm, there's really no shortage of trash like that." Qin Wentian shook his head.

"Indeed, humans are like that. If you are strong enough, there's no problem to force him to keep his promise. But sadly, the current you lacks strength." Beiming Nongyue smiled at Qin Wentian. After that, she glanced at her elder sister, "Sis, seems like you are getting along quite well with Brother Qin. I have been thinking too much. Since this is the case, I won't bother the two of you any longer."

After speaking, Beiming Nongyue actually left as well, exuding a slight fatigue. Although she didn't really believe that there is something between her elder sister and Qin Wentian, after seeing for herself how difficult Qin Wentian is to deal with, she would no longer underestimate him. Regardless of all aspects, Qin Wentian was extremely outstanding, including the realm of being shameless!

Such a powerful yet shameless person should be enough to handle her elder sister whose heart is filled only with cultivation.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes flashed. Nongyue's words sounded extremely ridiculous to her.

That pair of beautiful and cold eyes landed on Qin Wentian again. Her impression of Qin Wentian changed greatly. That old fellow actually passed onto him a soul art similar to what he taught her. Also, since this was the case, there was no need to doubt Qin Wentian's talent. Jing Yunhe's strength was absolutely not weak, he could be considered as a heaven chosen among immortal kings but he, who had broken through to the immortal king realm for almost a hundred years, actually couldn't withstand a single strike from Qin Wentian. From this, one could tell how outstanding Qin Wentian's combat prowess was.

"Youhuang, I've already chased off that irritating fellow for you. Isn't it about time for my reward…" Qin Wentian stared at Beiming Youhuang, but he only saw ice from her expression. Qin Wentian shivered and then smiled, "The old freak wants me to protect you, I'm only doing my duty. You don't need to pay too much mind to it. Forget about the reward, but I really have things I need to do in the eastern regions. You keeping me here for so long isn't a solution."

"What did the old fellow give to you?" Beiming Youhuang asked again.

"A cultivation art that can complement your Death Scripture. However, Youhuang, it seems that you still want to seize my memories now. I can't tell you that yet." Qin Wentian spoke.

"You can leave then." Beiming Youhuang suddenly spoke, causing Qin Wentian to start. This Beiming Youhuang, was she really letting him go free?

This made Qin Wentian puzzled instead, he initially thought that he would still have to grind her patience down slowly. A smile appeared on his face as he spoke gently, "Seems like Youhuang, you have thought things through. In the future, I will come and visit you if I have the time to."

"You best scram fast before I change my mind." Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes were extremely cold. She kept being taken advantage of by Qin Wentian in terms of words. There was a limit to her endurance.

"Okay." Qin Wentian laughed. With a flash of his silhouette, he sped outside. In the air, he turned back and spoke to Beiming Youhuang. "Youhuang, I will release your soul wisp after I leave. May we meet again in the future."

Qin Wentian spoke as he flew towards Beiming Nongyue's residence.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian arriving, Beiming Nongyue instantly welcomed him with a smile, "Elder sister released you?"

"Mhm, your sis truly has a great temper. I'm preparing to leave now, where is Li Yufeng?" Qin Wentian asked.

"He's outside the royal palace." Beiming Nongyue spoke. "Let me bring you to find him?"

"There's no need to. I've already delayed some time during my stay here. Just help me pass on a message to him saying that I'm leaving first." Qin Wentian smiled. He was indeed in a hurry to return to the eastern regions as he had no idea how the situation was now.

"Alright, I won't keep you with me then. Do you need to use a teleportation array?" Beiming Nongyue asked.

"No need, I have a method to get back." Qin Wentian spoke. What sort of solution did he have? It was naturally to use the spatial tunnel to connect to the Heavenly Talisman Realm. That would be the quickest way.

"Okay, let me send you out of the royal palace then." Beiming Nongyue smiled as she soared up into the air.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. The two of them flew together and within the palace, there were many people who had strange looks on their faces as they looked at Qin Wentian. The combat prowess of this fellow was so strong, and actually managed to force Pei Qing into retreat. His talent seemed to be extraordinary high too, and he's indeed worthy enough to be a friend for the princess.

After exiting the palace, Beiming Nongyue smiled, "Let's hope you can get married with Princess Qing`er sooner. Me and Yufeng will naturally go to the wedding and congratulate you both."

"I hope so too." Qin Wentian smiled. He clasped his hands together, "Farewell."

As he spoke, his immortal sense extended outward, surrounding this vast region. Although Pei Qing retreated, Qin Wentian couldn't be sure if Pei Qing would camp outside, waiting for him to come out. Such a probability was very high, hence, he would naturally choose to be more cautious.

Under the surveillance of his immortal sense, he didn't spot Pei Qing and his group. He found an empty area and instantly opened up the spatial tunnel and entered the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Back then when he entered the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he did so from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. But when he exited, he followed a senior brother of the Heavenly Talisman Realm and came to the northern regions. This meant that this time after he entered the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he could choose two exit at two points - either the northern region's exit, or the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's exit.

He discovered that if he followed more senior brothers to all parts of the immortal realms, in the future, he would be able to traverse vast amounts of distances using the Heavenly Talisman Realm as the connection point. This was one of the heavenly defying points about the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Right now within the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian's silhouette appeared in the location where he was supposed to have entered seclusion.

From the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, he actually only used a few minutes worth of time to travel. This couldn't help but to cause Qin Wentian to sigh in admiration.

With a flash of his silhouette, Qin Wentian entered his residence. The people there were all arranged and sent out to temper themselves, including Little Rascal and Purgatory. Now, Qin Wentian couldn't help but to wonder how they were faring.

Extending his immortal sense out, Qin Wentian exited his residence and went towards the emperor palace to greet the Emperor Lord. However, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord wasn't there, and the person receiving him was the Taishan Immortal King instead.

"Taishan Immortal King, how's the situation now?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Right now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect has already launched a war against us. For the location of the six prefectures, there are already two prefectures that was seized back by them. Our troops retreated and are now guarding the remaining four prefectures." The Taishan Immortal King spoke, causing Qin Wentian to be aware of how serious things were. Back then the commotion of the emperor-ranked war was too huge. Now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect finally made their move and launched an all-out war. Other than the immortal emperors who didn't take part, many immortal king generals on both sides were all involved.

Comparing the foundations of both immortal sects, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was naturally stronger. Hence, Qin Wentian wasn't really surprised that they could seize back two of the prefectures.

"Fortunately there's also a piece of good news. Bai Wuya has broken through to the immortal emperor realm during his study at the sacred academy. Right now, there are two immortal emperors in our Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Emperor Bai is now in closed-door seclusion to stabilize his foundation." The Taishan Immortal King spoke. Qin Wentian started, but a smile soon appeared on his face.

"I have to make a trip to the southern regions." Qin Wentian spoke. Since he had broken through to the immortal king realm, it was about time for him to pay a visit again to the Battle Saint Tribe!

Chapter 1365: The great roc rises with the wind

In the southern regions of the immortal realms, the three ancient clans were still the hegemon of this boundlessly vast stretch of land. This point wasn't something that could be changed so easily within a short time.

The tyrannical Ying Clan, the Southern Phoenix Clan governed by the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, as well as the mysterious and powerful Jiang Clan. These three great clans were all extremely powerful, their influence affecting the entire southern regions. Although there are still some other emperor-ranked powers existing in the southern regions, they had no way to shake the position of the three great clans.

In the past, when Qin Wentian came to the Southern Phoenix Immortal City, he was still a weakling. The him then was invited by Nanfeng Yunxi and came here to aid her to obtain the position as the holy successor. In the end, he did succeed as well.

Right now, he entered the ancient and majestic phoenix city once again. Qin Wentian couldn't help but to think of Nanfeng Yunxi, he wondered how was her cultivation now. The Southern Phoenix Clan had allied with the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Evergreen Immortal Empire for the emperor-ranked war that occured in the past. Although their point of connection was him, he understood that the true reason why the Southern Phoenix Clan decided to form an alliance, was because of Nanfeng Yunxi. Qin Wentian had always treated her as a bosom buddy who was able to share life and death together with him.

Hence, this time when he arrived at the Southern Phoenix Immortal City, Qin Wentian would have to pay a visit to Nanfeng Yunxi no matter what. Other than paying a visit, he might need to borrow the strength of the Southern Phoenix Clan in the future as well.

Outside the Southern Phoenix Clan, after Qin Wentian reported his name, a group of experts soon came to welcome him.

Upon seeing the person in the lead, a warm smile appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes.

Nanfeng Shengge, she was similar to Zhiyin, someone skilled in the arts and music. Her personality was gentle as water, and she was a great beauty as well.

"Sir Qin, it's been many years since we last met but your radiance is still as bright as ever." Nanfeng Shengge smiled. After that, she winked to Qin Wentian, as a mischievous expression flickered on her face. Her gentleness also contained hints of adorableness within, and she was extremely amicable and intelligent. She was slightly different from Zhiyin. Zhiyin didn't like social gatherings and prefers to be alone. But Nanfeng Shengge didn't mind mingling with crowds and she herself was like a spring wind.

"Shengge, you are getting more and more beautiful." Qin Wentian smiled. As one cultivates further, their aura would constantly be enhanced, their skin growing more radiant, as their beauty intensified.

"Sir Qin, stop teasing me. We rushed here as soon as possible once we got the news. Yunxi is now currently cultivating in the Jiyue Hall, hence I'm the one who came here to welcome you. Let's head there immediately, but I'm not sure when Yunxi will finish her cultivation. If she still hasn't finished when you are going to leave, I will barge in and wake her up." Nanfeng Shengge smiled, as she led the way.

"There's no need for that, if Yunxi is in the middle of her cultivation, I will just pay my respects to senior Guhong before I leave." Qin Wentian spoke.

"How can this do? Sir Qin came all the way here to our Southern Phoenix Clan. If Yunxi knew about this and knew that I didn't awaken her, she will definitely blame me." Nanfeng Shengge shook her head and laughed. "In addition, this time around, it isn't a life and death seclusion for her. It wouldn't affect anything."

"In that case, you have to choose the timing well. I would have sinned if this delayed Yunxi's cultivation." Upon seeing Nanfeng Shengge saying this, Qin Wentian could only bitterly smile and shook his head.

"Don't worry, if she's at a critical point, I won't awaken her." Nanfeng Shengge reassured him. She was one of Nanfeng Yunxi's guardians. Naturally her actions would first consider the well-being of Nanfeng Yunxi.

In the Jiyue Hall, this place was considered a sacred hall to the Southern Phoenix Clan. Because they had high expectations of Nanfeng Yunxi, they decided to bestow this hall to her.

The moment Qin Wentian came here, he instantly saw some familiar people. Other than Nanfeng Yunxi's guardians, there were also those who fought against her for the position of the holy successor. However, other than him being more familiar with Nanfeng Shengge, he wasn't really familiar with the rest.

"You can rest here for now, I will go and call Yunxi over." Nanfeng Shengge brought Qin Wentian to a place before she left. Qin Wentian quietly waited there and not long after, both Nanfeng Yunxi and Shengge appeared before him.

Qin Wentian stared at the two beauties before his eyes. Nanfeng Yunxi was graceful and elegant, and had a bright smile on her face. Nanfeng Shengge's beauty was like a character from a portrait, extremely gorgeous, a feast for the eyes.

"Have you seen enough?" Nanfeng Yunxi glared at Qin Wentian. Upon seeing her gaze, Qin Wentian laughed, "Yunxi, there are two great beauties before me, I naturally will take a few more glances at you two."

"Are we better looking compared to Qing`er and Qingcheng?" Nanfeng Yunxi's eyes flickered with a smile. Qin Wentian started, stunned by the reply. But it seems that Nanfeng Yunxi was in a good mood.

"All of you have your own praise-worthy aspects, cough…" Qin Wentian shivered a little and smiled.

"Why are you free to pay us a visit?" Nanfeng Yunxi didn't beat around the bush and came straight to the point.

"I have something to do here in the southern regions. After not seeing you girls for so many years, I decided to come here specially to pay a visit as well as paying my respects to senior Nanfeng Guhong." Qin Wentian laughed.

Among the major characters of the Southern Phoenix Clan, he was considered more familiar with one of the protectors of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, an elder named Nanfeng Guhong. Naturally, since he came all the way here, he would also pay a visit to her.

"Mhm, do you want to stay here to rest for a period of time? I can make the arrangements." Nanfeng Yunxi asked.

"It's fine, I'm in a hurry. Right now, the situation in the eastern regions is getting more and more tense. Being able to see that you are fine as well as after paying a visit to senior Guhong, my wishes for coming here would have been fulfilled." Qin Wentian spoke in a light voice. He then continued, "Yunxi, accompany me to meet with senior Guhong. After that, I will be on my way."

"You are in such a rush?" Nanfeng Yunxi had a look of astonishment on her face.

"Yeah, Sir Qin, it isn't easy for you to come all the way here. Why are you in such a hurry to leave." Nanfeng Shengge persuaded.

"The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect has a teleportation array leading to you, and so does the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal palace. In the future, I can come here in the blink of an eye and will definitely stop by often to disturb you two beauties." Qin Wentian joked.

"Yunxi will definitely be very happy." Nanfeng Shengge also joked in a light voice, causing Nanfeng Yunxi to roll her eyes at her. This lass actually dared to say such a thing.

"Alright since this is the case, let's go. Shengge, accompany us too." Nanfeng Yunxi spoke.

"Mhm." Nanfeng Shengge nodded lightly. She was extremely close to Nanfeng Yunxi, just like her right arm. Among the many protectors, her talent was the highest, her cultivation speed was the greatest.

Nanfeng Guhong actually felt somewhat unexpected from Qin Wentian's visit. After that adjudication battle, an assassination attempt was carry out against Qin Wentian. Soon after that, Qin Wentian was rumored to have entered closed-door seclusion and didn't appear for over ten years. To think that he would actually appear now in the Southern Phoenix Clan.

"Wentian pays my respects to senior Guhong." Qin Wentian bowed slightly. Nanfeng Guhong stared at Qin Wentian as her eyes gleamed with sharpness. A powerful immortal sense gushed out and surrounded Qin Wentian.

"You actually broke through to the immortal king realm?" Nanfeng Guhong was truly shocked. How long has this young man cultivated for? During the adjudication battle, he was only at the ninth-level of immortal-foundation. But he only took slightly over ten years to break through to the immortal king realm?

Back then, when Qin Wentian first came to the Southern Phoenix Clan, he and Nanfeng Yunxi were both at the first-level of immortal-foundation. Only how many years has it been, and this young man has already become an immortal king. Such a cultivation speed was simply unfathomably fearsome.

Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge both also stared at Qin Wentian in shock. Before this, they already faintly sensed that there was some minor transformation about Qin Wentian. But at their current cultivation level, they weren't able to tell the difference. Hence, they were both shocked when they heard what Nanfeng Guhong had said.

Qin Wentian was actually already an immortal king expert.

The cultivation speed of this fellow was simply inconceivable.

"I had some good fortune and lucky opportunities." Qin Wentian spoke. The Darknorth Immortal Mountain was truly a lucky opportunity for him. He didn't die in the forbidden ground and met an undying freak who constantly pressured him to improve.

"Seems like the rumors are false, you are not in closed-door seclusion inside the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, but went out to roam the places in the immortal realms far from the eastern regions to temper yourself instead." Nanfeng Guhong laughed, but she was somewhat shocked in her heart.

This brat was the same cultivation level as Nanfeng Yunxi back then. They encountered each other and got acquainted in the city of ancient emperors. At that time, he was only at the seventh-level of Celestial Phenomenon. By calculating from there, Qin Wentian's cultivation speed was truly heaven-defying. He managed to reach the immortal king realm by cultivating for less than 200 years.

Also, what's more interesting was that the people around him all also had extremely fast cultivation speed. For example, people like Nanfeng Yunxi stood side by side with him in the past but now, Qin Wentian had broken off from the pack and was leading them. He's gradually becoming a leader of this generation.

"Is there anything you need our help with?" Nanfeng Guhong also didn't ask anything further. She silently already decided that this young man was someone worth the Southern Phoenix Clan befriending.

After the appearance of the sacred academy, the servant of Ancient Emperor Yi displayed his shocking strength. Huge commotions arose in the eastern regions, the demon tribes of the western regions were moving silently as well. As for the three great clans of the southern regions, the Jiang Clan recently produced a batch of outstanding juniors, and the Ying Clan grew increasingly overbearing. From many angles, a period of chaos might descend upon the immortal realms soon as a brand new era unfolds.

Although right now Qin Wentian wasn't of much use, he was already influencing the situation in the eastern regions directly. To protect him, many peak powers engaged in an emperor-ranked battle and there was no doubt that his potential would cause him to shine brightly in the immortal realms. Considering all the factors, Nanfeng Guhong believed that in the future if Qin Wentian could become one of those fabled ones in the legends with a chance of becoming an ancient emperor, their relationship with him now would surely affect their clan's future.

"There's no need to, my purpose here today is really just to pay a visit to senior, as well as saying hi to Yunxi and Shengge. After this, I will leave straight away." Qin Wentian shook his head and smiled. "There's also one more thing. Wentian will remember the acts of gratitude the Southern Phoenix Clan had given me. In the future, I will definitely repay you all."

These words might sound cliche, but they were extremely important to both Qin Wentian and the Southern Phoenix Clan. Why did the Southern Phoenix Clan help him? Was it really only because of his connection with Nanfeng Yunxi? Clearly, it wasn't a factor sufficient enough to influence their decision. Hence, he wanted to make things clear to them as well, by telling them that he would remember their kindness.

In addition, given how quickly he had broken through to the immortal king realm, there was naturally some weight behind those words.

"There's no need to be so polite. The Southern Phoenix Clan will always treat you as a friend." Nanfeng Guhong calmly spoke.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. "After meeting senior and Yunxi, my wish for coming here is fulfilled. I shall bid farewell then."

"Yunxi, send Wentian away." Nanfeng Guhong spoke. Nanfeng Yunxi nodded her head. She and Nanfeng Shengge walked together with him and didn't really attempt to make him stay further. Since Qin Wentian decided to leave, he must have something important he needed to do.

After they left, many people appeared around Nanfeng Shengge. Qin Wentian knew of their existences, but there was no need to hide his words even before them.

"This brat actually entered the immortal king realm so quickly. His potential is truly terrifying."

"Indeed. No wonder the Evergreen Immortal Emperor would agree to him pursuing his daughter. Also, this must be the reason why the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was willing to support him with his full strength, as well as that mysterious Emperor Yu that is constantly on his side."

"What should we do?" Someone turned to Nanfeng Guhong.

"In the future, our Southern Phoenix Clan should give him even more support." Nanfeng Guhong replied. "We have to pay attention to the commotion in the eastern regions."

"Just for a talented junior, our clan might need to face many terrifying enemies. Is this a good thing or a bad thing?" Someone asked in a low voice.

"The great roc rises with the wind, soaring up to the nine heavens with ease." Nanfeng Guhong's silhouette flashed, disappearing after leaving behind this sentence. The eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. Seems like Nanfeng Guhong really thought extremely highly of this Qin Wentian, giving him such a high praise.

Chapter 1366: Segregation of Cultivation Realms

At the God Hand Mountain Manor, silence was everywhere. Emperor Yu had already dispersed the people within a long time ago.

When Qin Wentian came to this location, he stood in the manor as his immortal sense spread out. After that, a smile appeared on his face.

Within the range of his immortal sense, there was a figure standing on the peak of an ancient mountain. This figure was none other than Emperor Yu

Emperor Yu slowly opened his eyes, he directly transmitted his voice over, "The ancient mountain has opened, you can enter."

"Many thanks senior." Qin Wentian politely replied. Although he knew that Emperor Yu was also someone from the Battle Saint Tribe, he was the subordinate of the previous Saint Lord, Ancient Emperor Yi. His cultivation was extremely tyrannical and regardless of anything, he did deserve respect.

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, he instantly turned towards the ancient mountain that was the entrance to the dimension where the Battle Saint Tribe lived.

The interior of the ancient mountain was the same as when he entered previously. The deeper he entered, the more terrifying the will attacks were. Qin Wentian guessed that this should be something left behind by Ancient Emperor Yi, and he was filled with anticipation for what lies ahead.

Back then, the Violet Emperor as a peak-level emperor, also had no way to force his way into it. From this, one could see how terrifyingly strong an ancient emperor was. Their strength was basically at another tier.

Qin Wentian had cultivated God's Hand for many years, he naturally faced no interference from this ancient mountain. He entered the residence of Ancient Emperor Yi, the place where there were greater demons who were on guard.

Qin Wentian didn't wake those greater demons up. He silently proceeded forward and came to the front of the three gigantic bronze gates.

Right now, he had two choices. He could either enter via opening the second gate directly, or through the first gate, and use his immortal king might to break through the barriers existing between the first and second world to enter the second level. According to the experts inside the first level, once someone broke through to the immortal king realm, they would be able to enter the second level.

"Let's take a look at the first world." Qin Wentian decided. Back then, he learned of the Battle Saint Tribe's existence at the first world. Now that he has returned, he should pay a visit there to take a look.

Qin Wentian opened the first bronze gate and stepped through it.

Upon entering, Qi Dongliu and the others was already here to welcome him. All of them bowed, and greeted, "Saint Lord."

Qi Dongliu had a look of bewilderment on his face. He didn't know why Qin Wentian would choose to come back here now. Could it be that something has happened to those tribe members out there?

When he thought of this, a look of worry involuntarily appeared on his face.

"Qi Da and the others are roaming about the immortal realms to temper themselves." It was as though Qin Wentian could understand the worries in Qi Dongliu's heart. He then continued, "I came back here because I'm prepared to head to the second world. Hence, I just came by in convenience to pay a visit to you guys."

"Saint Lord, you've broken through to the immortal king realm?" Qi Dongliu had a look of shock on his face. Such cultivation speed, wasn't it too terrifying? Back then when Qin Wentian first came, he was merely a low-level immortal-foundation character.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly. Qi Dongliu was a little emotional, The stronger the Saint Lord was, the higher the chance of their Battle Saint Tribe to recover their former glory. According to their ancestral teachings, their enemy wasn't in this Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. They were extremely strong, forcing the Battle Saint Tribe to hide away here as they tried to recover their strength with each successive generation while sending out elites of their tribe to adventure with the Saint Lord, hoping against hope that some monstrous genius would be born to them and lead their tribe back to glory.

"Are you familiar with the situation in the second world?" Qin Wentian asked.

These three worlds are part of a whole complete dimension. Although people of the first world are very receptive and willing to follow him, the stronger an expert was, the greater their sense of pride would be. The elites of the second world of the Battle Saint Tribe, would all be immortal kings. There might be many peak-level immortal kings among them. If he wanted these people to obey him, he didn't know if things would go as smoothly as they did here.

"I'm not very sure of the situation there. A staggering amount of time has passed since the previous generation Saint Lord was here. Generation after generation has passed, I can't really be sure of what happened exactly those years ago. What I can confirm is now, inside the second world, the experts of our Battle Saint Tribe should be more in comparison to the first world here. They might have descendants after they ascended to the second world and there's a high chance that some of them might have awakened their Sacred Bone."

Qi Dongliu continued analyzing, "The second world should be able to be of great assistance to Saint Lord."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly. Right now, given his cultivation base and background, ordinary assistance wouldn't be of use to him.

Naturally, there was a difference between the Battle Saint Tribe and other powers that were aiding him. The forces of the Battle Saint Tribe was a power that could be considered belonging solely to him alone.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. "Can I break through to the second world now?"

"I think there shouldn't be any problems." Qi Dongliu replied.

"I will proceed then." Qin Wentian stated.

"Saint Lord, don't you want to stay here for a break for a few days?" Qi Dongliu asked.

"It's fine, I came back just to see you guys." Qin Wentian shook his head and smiled.

"Alright then, we will respectfully send Saint Lord on your way." Qi Dongliu bowed. After that, Qin Wentian soared up into the air.

The three worlds in this dimension were the same as the relationship of particle worlds and the immortal realms. Once one reached a certain level in strength, they would be able to break through the barrier.

The second world, was similarly a brand new world.

When the first Saint Lord created the three worlds, he made it so that the connection here was the same as the connection in particle worlds to the immortal realms. The people living here didn't know that this is a world created by others. Other than members of the Battle Saint Tribe, the others here all believed that this dimension, is the outside world.

Now, Qin Wentian appeared in the second world. He didn't tunnel in from the earth. Earlier after he broke through the bindings of the first world, he was teleported to the airspace of the second world, among the clouds.

Back then when Qin Wentian exited his particle world, he didn't tunnel through the ground of the immortal realms either. Hence, Qin Wentian didn't really feel anything strange about this point.

With a flash of his figure, he descended to the ground. He then extended his immortal sense to surround this vast space.

In the second world, the Xuantian Sect is an extremely large major power, a hegemon of this world. It's said that the old ancestor of this sect, is a legendary immortal king level existence, and had incredible prowess.

As a hegemon, the Xuantian Sect was naturally extremely majestic and filled with disciples.

At this moment, a young expert was currently walking over, directly ascending the main peak of the Xuantian Sect. At this instant, the silhouettes of several disciples flickered as they sped after him while radiating a cold intent, "Sir, please halt."

Qin Wentian didn't stop. He increased his speed, and vanished like a bolt of lightning. Those people all froze as they marveled at his terrifying speed.

"Where did he go?"

"The mountain behind the main peak is the cultivation place of the old ancestor." The hearts of these disciples shuddered. But how could Qin Wentian be bothered about them? He directly came before an old man who was cultivating in a cave, this old man was none other than the old ancestor of the Xuantian Sect.

That old man opened his eyes and glanced at the extremely young immortal king before him as he asked, "Dao friend, what can I help you with?"

"I like to know which major power is the true lord of this world, and how strong are they exactly." Qin Wentian asked. An immortal king expert should know more things in comparison.

The old man furrowed his brows. What did this young man mean? This world? Could it be he isn't someone from this world?

"Battle Saint Palace is the true lord of this world, their strength is extremely tyrannical, I don't dare to jump to a conclusion." That old man spoke.

"Where is that place located? Can you send me the coordinates via immortal sense?" Qin Wentian continued, causing the old man to frown coldly. "Aren't your words a little too tyrannical?"

Qin Wentian didn't show any respect at all.

"RUMBLE!" A fearsome might erupted forth from Qin Wentian as he repeated, "Pass me the coordinates."

The expression of the old man grew unsightly, but upon sensing the might of this aura, he decided to do as Qin Wentian asked and sent him the coordinates via immortal sense.

After getting the information he wanted, Qin Wentian directly sped away. The heart of the old man shook, where did this young immortal king come from exactly? He is actually so overwhelming powerful at such a young age.

Today, the entire Xuantian Sect was trembling when they felt the aura Qin Wentian unleashed. Everyone in the Xuantian Sect felt like doomsday had arrived.

After all, this world wasn't really that vast when compared to a true particle world. It was merely one of the three worlds that made up of this dimension.

The Battle Saint Palace, comparing that to the Battle Saint Tribe, the information should be true. Experts from the tribe should be the true controllers of this major power.

The Battle Saint Palace was far more majestic compared to the power controlled by the Battle Saint Tribe in the first world. With a single sweep of his immortal sense, Qin Wentian could already sense numerous experts in there. Stepping forth, he walked towards the steps leading up to the Battle saint Palace.

The guards there naturally obstructed Qin Wentian, while sharpness flashed in their eyes.

"I, Qin, am here to issue a challenge to the Battle Saint Palace." Qin Wentian spoke, his voice ringing out like thunder, echoing through the Battle Saint Palace.

There was actually someone who came here to challenge the lord of this world. This was simply the actions of a madman.

Within the Battle Saint Palace, numerous experts came out. An extremely powerful aura radiated from Qin Wentian and when the guards sensed it, nobody dared to obstruct him any longer.

Following the stairway, Qin Wentian soon arrived before the Battle Saint Palace in the blink of an eye.

"Who are you exactly? You actually dare to come here and challenge us?" A young man crossed his hands before his chest as he stared at Qin Wentian in arrogance.

"I've broken through to the immortal king realm recently and I'm here to challenge initial-stage immortal kings, not immortal-foundation experts." Qin Wentian calmly gazed at that young man, his expression filled with a lofty pride.

Immortal kings are naturally different from immortal-foundation experts. The cultivation realms are segregated into clear categories. The immortal kings and emperors belonged to the King Realm, but in order to clearer differentiate the two, the people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms further split this cultivation realm into a more detailed segregation.

Immortal kings can be split into initial-stage, middle-stage and peak-stage immortal kings.

Immortal emperors are the same as well.

For every stage, the early and later phases would be determined by the deepness of one's foundation.

Qin Wentian had just broken through to the immortal king realm and was considered an initial-stage immortal king. However, because his foundations are incomparably steady, he can already directly stand against later-phase, initial-stage immortal kings.

The expression of that young man changed immediately. A beautiful girl beside him spoke, "Even if you are at the immortal king realm, you don't have the qualifications to act wildly here."

"I didn't came here to boast of my strength. I'm merely challenging the people of the Battle Saint Palace. Is there no one here who dares to face up to my challenge?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke, he was prepared to use this chance to observe the strength of immortal kings from the Battle Saint Tribe while displaying some of his strength to show them. Only through this method would the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe here in the second world follow him willingly!

Chapter 1367: Sparring

The three worlds were established because of the Battle Saint Tribe, they were naturally the controllers of this dimension. However, the number of people who awakened their sacred bone wasn't that many. Hence, the Battle Saint Tribe couldn't depend on their experts to control the worlds as they were lacking in number. This was the reason why they sought to establish their roots first, creating the Battle Saint Palace as a major power to rule this second world.

Naturally, the true core of this power was still those experts who awakened their sacred bone. Only these people would understand their true mission, and knew the truth about this world.

The young man who appeared might be someone from the Battle Saint Tribe, but he isn't one of the core characters who awakened his sacred bone. But as a descendant of the Battle Saint Tribe, he naturally would be tyrannical and arrogant here.

"There never has been anyone who dares to challenge the Battle Saint Palace. You must be courting death." The beautiful woman coldly spoke. Even if this young man was someone who just broke through to the immortal king realm, so what of it? Any immortal kings from their Battle Saint Palace would easily be able to kill him.

And as expected, there was soon an immortal king who came by. This man who came might be an immortal king but he wasn't someone from the Battle Saint Tribe. Rather, he was an individual being nurtured by the Battle Saint Palace and since he could become an immortal king, he can already be considered a major character here in the second world.

He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "You came here to challenge us, it's clear you wish to gain the attention of the Battle Saint Palace. If you really want to join, you first have to defeat me first and if your performance is good enough, there might be people who would come by to see you."

"I see. You are actually using such a method to gain attention. In that case, let's see how capable are you then." The young man earlier coldly smiled. This young man and the beautiful girl beside him were direct descendants of the Battle Saint Tribe and had the battle saint blood in them. However, they have yet to awaken their sacred bone.

They could only silently muse that it was true the older a ginger is, the more spicer it was. The immortal king was truly extremely experienced and discerned the objective of this challenger with a single glance. But then again, other than this reason, they couldn't think of any other possibilities.

Qin Wentian declined to comment and smiled, "Please."

As he spoke, he soared into the air. That immortal king followed after him as well and the two of them soon appeared in the sky.

Tyrannical law energy started to flow, as the immortal king launched an attack at Qin Wentian. In an instant, a dazzling golden gigantic palm blotted out the sky, seemingly capable of exterminating all existences. A humming sound filled the air as the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe smiled when they saw it. This challenger would have no chance at all.

Above Qin Wentian, his body of laws radiated a terrifying light. Upon seeing the golden gigantic palm closing in on him, he waved his hands causing terrifying runes to gather together as they transformed into a destructive devil blade that slashed out, cleanly slicing the golden palm into two. The remnants of destruction energy from that slash then continued forth towards that immortal king expert.

That immortal king unleashed his own law domain, causing the space around him to be filled with his law energy. However, when he sensed the strength of this law domain, Qin Wentian felt a little disappointed. His opponent should just be an ordinary immortal king, there was nothing outstanding about him.

"Pu ci…" The saber light descended and the immortal king felt his entire body shaking as he broke out in a cold sweat. When the saber descended, he could feel death approaching. However, the saber merely passed by harmlessly beside him and didn't kill him.

Such a battle gave him a crushing sense of defeat. They were both at the immortal king realm but why was there such a vast difference in their combat prowess?

Inclining his head, he stared at Qin Wentian and asked, "Did you really just break through to the immortal king realm?"

"I'm an immortal king expert after all, why would I weave lies to elevate myself? Your strength is too weak, if the Battle Saint Palace only has this standard, it's truly a little too disappointing." Qin Wentian's voice was calm as he began to descend from the air. However, right now, there were other experts who already arrived and all of them were flying up into the air. Among them, there were also several immortal kings.

Qin Wentian's gaze flashed like lightning. He calmly regarded them all and spoke, "All immortal kings here can come at me together."

Those immortal kings instantly turned ashen, as though they were insulted. One of them spoke, "You shouldn't be too arrogant."

Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head. Abruptly, a terrifying aura gushed forth as a destructive-attribute law domain was unleashed, devil law domain, demon law domain… violent to the extreme. Within the law domains, the attribute energies actually began to fuse, transforming into terrifying greater demons that stared imperiously at everyone else.

All the immortal kings stiffened. They began to doubt Qin Wentian's words, has he really just broken through to the immortal king realm?

"There's no need to be polite." Qin Wentian smiled. The immortal kings shared a mutual glance as they nodded. When they saw Qin Wentian releasing his law domain, all of them could already feel that they needed to join forces.

"Bzz~" A raging wind rose up and Qin Wentian directly disappeared. His speed was like lightning, so fast that it was inconceivable.

"Movement technique." The expressions of everyone changed. This was an extremely powerful movement technique. They only saw blurred shadows everywhere which then transformed into the divine bird, the great roc. The shadows extended outwards, filling the entire area of the law domain.

"BOOM!" Numerous great rocs formed, radiating immense demonic qi as they attacked. Qin Wentian's movement techniques were merged into his attacks, causing it to be extremely difficult for others to find a trace of him.

"Careful!" All of their immortal senses locked onto the shadows, as they simultaneously defended against the attacks of the greater demons.

"Why do I suddenly feel so sleepy, like this is nothing but a dream?" A notion suddenly appeared in someone's mind. He felt his eyelids drooping and he could no longer clearly discern the blurred shadows.

"It's dream energy. He comprehended dream laws and integrated it within this complex web of law attributes." The faces of the immortal kings sank. If this continued on, Qin Wentian would truly be undefeatable.

"BOOM!" A terrifying aura suddenly erupted. One of the immortal kings rapidly retreated but Qin Wentian's figure had already appeared before him. The violent destructive might which slammed into that immortal king caused his entire body to shake. His face was filled with terror, but Qin Wentian didn't launch a second strike. He merely stood there, smiling at everyone.

Everyone glanced at each other with unsightly expressions. They had so many immortal kings but they were defeated even without the need to battle.

"We are all inferior to you." A person sighed.

The law domains dissipated. The words of these immortal kings startled many juniors of the Battle Saint Palace. This young man who came here to challenge them was actually so powerful.

"Let me give it a try." At this moment, a young immortal king walked over. After that, the people here all revealed sharpness in their gazes. The other immortal kings all took a step back and retreated, as they stared at this newly arrived young immortal king with respect in their eyes.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with golden light. After that, a smile appeared on his face. His target has finally appeared.

"Let's go up into the air once more." The young man spoke and soared up. Qin Wentian nodded and followed after. The stronger the combatants are, the more fearsome the aftershocks would be.

"You can make your move first." The young man stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, displaying an immense amount of confidence in his tone.

"Please." Qin Wentian smiled and released his law domain. After that, the young man did so as well. With him in the center, the area around him was filled with terrifying might that gushed forth and corroded the law energy in the area around Qin Wentian.

"As expected of someone from the Battle Saint Tribe." Qin Wentian silently mused. The law domain of his opponent flared with golden sacred light and imbued him with boundless strength. Divine apes manifested one after another, clearly, this law domain was a matured one.

Qin Wentian stretched his hand out as a terrifying destructive devil saber materialized in his hand. The law energy flowing around him begin to congregate on the saber and at the same time, the saber began to radiate vast amounts of calamitous might. This devil saber was akin to a saber that could destroy the entire world.

A cold smile appeared on his face as he stepped forth, slashing down with the saber, causing a brilliant light to arc through the air.

The expression of the young man turned heavy. With a loud shout, the divine apes in his law domain all roared in unison, causing golden light to fill the skies. After that, an incomparably gargantuan ape blasted out with both palms, slamming against the wave of destructive saber light as a fearsome explosive sound rang out, rumbling the area. Both the saber and palm imprints shattered at the same time, but a second destructive saber soon materialized as it continued slashing out."

"Cut!" Qin Wentian spoke. An even stronger beam of light slashed down. The face of that young man was filled with shock as he took a step back. A brilliant light burst forth from him as energy from his law domain erupted forth, forming the shape of a palm that struck out once again towards that beam of destructive light.

Another thunderous clash happened as both were destroyed. However, a third devil saber soon appeared once again, with even stronger might. It was as though the power of the two earlier sabers were integrated within this. As it slashed down, the saber intent hummed violently, as though wanting to tear the world asunder. The attribute energies of Qin Wentian's law domain also fused together with the saber.

As the saber descended, a gigantic phantom of a true divine ape appeared behind that young man. His body unleashed a supremely strong battle might as he launched out a storm of attacks, aiming not only for the saber, but also towards Qin Wentian. Clearly, he knew it wasn't enough to destroy the saber alone.

Qin Wentian pressed his palm forward, and in an instant, currents of destructive lightning formed within his domain, and like the light of judgement, they cleaved outwards, cleanly shattering the fists of the ape. As the third devil saber slashed down, the divine ape was torn into two, causing fear to appear in the heart of the young immortal king.

Despair appeared on the young man's face. Although he had the will to continue and fight, he could already sense that he won't be able to defeat this opponent before him.

"Retreat," Another voice rang out and a figure appeared in the distance, speeding over from afar. The young man nodded his head, retracting his law domain as he stepped back. Clearly, he has admitted his defeat.

"Within initial-stage immortal kings, there are none here who can defeat you." The voice rang out again. This time, the hearts of everyone shuddered when they heard that as they stared in shock at Qin Wentian.

"In that case, let me try sparring against some middle-stage immortal kings then." Qin Wentian spoke, causing a huge commotion in the Battle Saint Palace. Who was this man exactly? He came to challenge the true hegemon of this world and could actually display such overwhelmingly shocking might!

Chapter 1368: Conversation

In addition, this young man was extremely brazen, saying that he just broke through to the immortal king realm. In the Battle Saint Palace, there actually was no one who could stand equally against him and now, he wanted to challenge their middle-stage immortal kings.

Below on the ground, the expressions of the young man and young woman were extremely unsightly to behold. This fellow was too arrogant, but his strength was truly overwhelming enough.

"Our Battle Saint Tribe will crush his dominance for sure." The young man spoke in a low voice. Right now from afar, another person came over. The aura from this man was extremely powerful, causing an intense vibration that rumbled the surroundings. Clearly, the cultivation base of this person was deeper and higher than Qin Wentian, at the mid-stage of the immortal-king level.

His eyes glowed with spirit, shining with battle might, giving off an immeasurable feeling.

"Since you want to challenge a mid-stage immortal king, let me be your opponent then." That person spoke. After that, the laws of heaven and earth churned as he exuded a towering battle might. Qin Wentian felt an extremely terrifying pressure boring down on him.

A mid-stage immortal king from the Battle Saint Tribe clearly wasn't weak. The combat prowess of this man was truly astounding.

The immortal king slammed out with his palm, the boundless law energy congregated together, forming a giant palm that descended from the sky, radiating a majestic might. There was simply no space for Qin Wentian to flee to, he could only face the palm head on.

Qin Wentian's body glowed with divine light as an immense strength flowed within him. Law energy in the surroundings gathered on him as he lifted his palm, similarly launching out a palm strike. The light grew even more resplendent as the pressure his palm created shook the heavens and earth. A thunderous boom then sounded out from the collision, so loud that the eardrums of the spectators below on the ground shuddered. As they stared at the battle above, all of them found their hearts shaking.

The mid-stage immortal king released his law domain which instantly enveloped Qin Wentian within. As one's cultivation level increased, their law domain and body of laws would grow to be increasingly terrifying. He wanted to use his law domain to suppress Qin Wentian.

"Kill!" Within his law domain, fearsome battle might flooded the surroundings. True experts of the Battle Saint Tribe cultivates in the Battle Saint Art and has awakened their sacred bone. Hence, the energy they were proficient in were all extremely similar. Although some of their law attributes might differ, the main core component of their strength originates from the Battle Saint Art.

Hence, the law domain of this immortal king was similar to his previous opponent, albeit being much more violent and intense. Numerous palms stacked together before they erupted forwards, wanting to annihilate him.

Qin Wentian right now, sensed an overwhelming pressure on him. He also released his law domain as devil might permeated the atmosphere. The flood of destructive energy caused mini explosions around him as numerous runes manifested from his body. These runes were all actually in the shape of a palm, they then exploded forth with both suppressive and destructive might, against his opponent's attacks.

In an instant, thunderous booms shook the space. The area around his body of laws naturally had the strongest effect of his law domain. It directly disintegrated the energies attacking him, and after that, he purposely expanded his domain, madly colliding against his opponent's domain.

"That palm imprint…" The mid-stage immortal king was frowning. This attack used by Qin Wentian gave him a sense of familiarity.

The color of the sky changed, as law energy churned wildly, blotting out the sun. Qin Wentian's law domain gradually transformed into a black-colored gigantic palm, radiating boundless destructive and suppressive might.

This black palm shot out straight, aiming for that mid-stage immortal king. Only shock could be seen on the immortal king's face. He hesitated for a moment before letting out a roar of anger, triggering the effect of his sacred bone as battle light erupted forth from him. A divine ape appeared before him, its roar shaking the heavens as it struck out with its palm as well, deciding to fight strength against strength.

"BOOM!" Everything trembled as space itself seemed to almost collapse. The two of them were engulfed by the destructive aftershocks and when everything cleared up, both of them were standing in the air, silently regarding each other.

"Come with me." At this moment, that middle-stage immortal king suddenly spoke. After that, he turned around and walked away. Qin Wentian smiled and followed after.

This scene caused strange looks to appear on the faces of everyone. What situation was this?

Why did the fight suddenly stop?

Could it be that the upper echelons truly had plans to recruit Qin Wentian into their Battle Saint Palace?

Some of those experts who awakened their sacred bone stealthily left. They all discovered something when they saw the gigantic black palm imprint blotting out the skies. This palm imprint seemed to be produced by a certain ultimate technique which only existed in the legends.

At the peak of the Battle Saint Palace, there's a number of saint halls where even the upper echelons of the Battle Saint Palace couldn't easily enter. However right now, Qin Wentian gained entry to this place and passed by numerous checkpoints, proceeding into the depths of this place. At the very end, there was a sacred ground filled with immortal mist. Before this, Qin Wentian's immortal sense didn't discover this place. Clearly, this place had the ability to block off all immortal sense.

He knew that this place must be the location where the true controller of the second world resides.

"Now can you tell me, who are you exactly?" That middle-stage immortal king asked.

"Didn't you already guess it?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Let me bring you to meet with the tribe leader then." That middle-stage immortal king glanced at Qin Wentian. There would be a tribe leader in each of the three worlds, in charge of governing the world. The sect leader of this Battle Saint Tribe should be just an ordinary member of the Battle Saint Tribe while the tribe leader was then the true controller of everything.

The two of them continued on. Qin Wentian came to a place where there was an old man waiting there. This old man was currently lost in thoughts as he stared at a chess board. The chess pieces were layered in a complex formation, emitting an air of the Great Dao.

"That attack you unleashed within your law domain earlier, what technique was that?" That old man asked.

"God's Hand." Qin Wentian's body began to glow with a resplendent divine light. A terrifying aura congregated in his palm, brimming with boundless might.

"God's Hand that's evolved from the Battle Saint Art." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice.

"Your combat strength isn't bad." That tribe leader lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian. "Also, you are very young. Did you come here from the first world?"

"Yes, before this I went over there and came right over after that." Qin Wentian nodded.

"In that case, shouldn't I refer to you as Saint Lord?" That old man stood up. Qin Wentian hurriedly spoke in an unpretentious voice, "Senior, there's no need to be polite. You can just call me Qin Wentian."

"Mhm." The old man nodded lightly, "Actually, I'm not in favor of our ancestral teachings. Although the first generation Saint Lord did help us a lot, he is, after all, the first generation Saint Lord. Characters like him are inconceivably rare, and I myself am of the opinion for our experts to train themselves here, living in safety forever."

"After all, for the latter generations Saint Lords, although their talent is outstanding, we have no way to ascertain which step they would reach and no way to determine their moral character. Although the people of our tribe would still follow the Saint Lord's orders, only doing stuff that benefits him and not harms him, but as time flows on, a Saint Lord would only appear after countless generations. We are unable to pay the price if there are any variables which occured."

Qin Wentian nodded his head. The old man was right, who knew what would happen after countless amounts of time passed?

"I have no other meaning when I say this, I'm just feeling rueful. Since the new generation Saint Lord is here, I will naturally command people to follow after you. Despite my personal opinion, I will still follow the ancestral teachings strictly. Also, there are some treasures here in our second world too. If Saint Lord needs them, you can bring some away."

"Senior is too polite, I'm not lacking in terms of treasures or resources. I won't be taking anything away here and if the immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe are unwilling to leave with me, I won't force things at all and naturally, I would never divulge the existence of the Battle Saint Tribe." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He naturally was in need of aid from the Battle Saint Tribe which was why he came here. After all, this was supposed to be a power that belonged to him.

However, from a certain perspective, he shouldn't get a reward if it's not well deserved. Right now, he truly had no contributions towards the Battle Saint Tribe, and could only give them an ephemeral promise. Right now at this current cultivation realm, his perspectives towards many things have changed.

He wouldn't force people to do things against their will. If the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe weren't willing to follow him, so be it.

However, with regards to the wish of the Battle Saint Tribe, that then would have nothing much to do with him. Qi Da and his group did aid him a lot before. In the future, he would only do his best to take care of those guys and try to help them as much as possible.

The old man stared at Qin Wentian with bewilderment, "Are you serious about this?"

Qin Wentian smiled, "Senior, I reached my current level within 200 years of cultivation. Although I dare not say that I'm outstanding, I'm sure it isn't easy to find someone in the Battle Saint Tribe whose talent is higher than mine. Right now, although I need to borrow the aid of the Battle Saint Tribe, but if your people exit here with me, they will know that the aid immortal kings can provide me with is limited, as I have immortal emperors behind my back. Right now, immortal king-level experts might be of aid to me but once my cultivation base reaches a certain level, it would be me supporting the Battle Saint Tribe instead. For example, like the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe which I brought out with me in the first world to help me, in the future, I would be the one to take care of them instead.

"Hence, from a certain perspective, I, Qin, am not taking advantage of the Battle Saint Tribe. Whatever help I received from the tribe now, I will return the debt of gratitude with interest compounded in the future. On the other hand, if experts of the Battle Saint Tribe are not willing to follow me, I won't bother to carry on shouldering the hope of your clan either as well. In the span of time, because of the arrangements made, there would definitely be other Saint Lords surfacing in the future. Your Battle Saint Tribe doesn't lack of me. But at the same time, from my perspective, even without the help provided by the Battle Saint Tribe, there wouldn't be too much difference in my life as well."

The old man stared at Qin Wentian as his eyes gleamed. In truth, the previous generation Saint Lord did enjoy tremendous benefits from their help. The reason why he said those words to Qin Wentian was that he wanted Qin Wentian to truly treat the members who followed him well from the bottom of his heart. Qin Wentian shouldn't be too arrogant in front of members of the Battle Saint Tribe as, after all, those who follow him out from the second world would all be immortal emperors.

Yet he didn't imagine that Qin Wentian's response would stun him into speechlessness.

Chapter 1369: Immortal King Army

The two of them spoke in a reserved manner but if we were to dissect their words, the tribe leader was saying that - look, you saint lords keep taking advantage of my tribe and we even need to take dangerous risks for you to achieve your ends. Qin Wentian's response was that this originally was already a transaction. How much benefits I gain now will determine how much I pay back to your tribe in the future, what do you mean by me taking advantage of your tribe? If you don't wish to follow me, it's fine by me. I will respect your choice. However, in the future, the fate of the Battle Saint Sect would have nothing to do with me.

"How arrogant." The old man mused. After that, numerous figures flickered as they arrived here. These were all immortal kings and had heard Qin Wentian's words. Now, their gazes towards Qin Wentian was all different.

"Senior, you guys take two hours to consider. Let me wait outside, and if there are people willing to follow me, senior can choose the number, junior won't interfere at all. However, there's one point. For those who choose to follow me, I don't hope that there would be any unhappiness. Naturally, I will also respect the experts who choose to follow me."

After speaking, Qin Wentian directly turned and left. Just like what he has said, he took things very calmly and would respect the choice made by the Battle Saint Tribe.

After he left, the immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe glanced mutually at each other. The old man was still standing there in a somewhat dazed state.

"This fellow is truly arrogant." An immortal king spoke in a low voice.

"Indeed, but his strength is the real deal. If what he says is true, that he broke through to the immortal king ream within 200 years of cultivation, his talent is truly extremely terrifying." Another immortal king spoke as he continued, "For such a character, he naturally would be proud and arrogant. Earlier, the tribe leader intentionally wanted to make him feel that he owes our Battle Saint Tribe. However, he clearly felt extremely unhappy in his heart when being spoken to in this manner and felt that it doesn't really matter to him if experts from our tribe follows after him or not."

"What do you all think?" The tribe leader glanced around. The people here were all immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe. At this level, they naturally are extremely powerful and had lived for many years. Right now, wanting them to be like their immortal-foundation counterparts from the first world, wholeheartedly following Qin Wentian, the difficulty was naturally higher.

After all, the cultivation bases of many people here were all higher than Qin Wentian's.

"I'm used to living freely and unrestricted, I really can't accept such an arrangement." An immortal king smiled. Clearly, he was unwilling to follow Qin Wentian.

"This is the order given by our ancestors, even if we want to change the ancestral teachings, it's not so easy to do so. If we choose to reject him, it would mean that we have given up on this generation Saint Lord. But since the ancestral teachings remain, there would always be future Saint Lords and we would have to follow them eventually after all. From what I see, we shouldn't reject this generation's Saint Lord."

"Indeed, since he could speak those words earlier, it means that he is a man of grand ambitions and also has immense confidence in himself."

Everyone expressed their views. Some were unhappy with regards to Qin Wentian's attitude while others felt that he was someone worth following.

However, among those who supported him, there were also some who didn't want to leave their current lifestyle. After all, given their pride, although they felt what Qin Wentian said might be right, there was no question that they would have to follow his every order once they agreed to follow him. Such a sudden change was truly tough to accept.

The tribe leader listened to everyone's opinion before he spoke, "Summon all our immortal kings back. Since all of you have different opinions, I will respect them all. For those who wish to follow after him, you all can do so. For those who don't want to, you all can stay here. Everything will be decided by your own choices."

Everyone nodded. At this moment, Qin Wentian had exited and stood outside the hall. Before this, he already anticipated that things wouldn't go as smoothly as they did in the first world. Hence, he came here by breaking through the barrier and decided to display his prowess openly.

In truth, things were as he had expected. It wasn't easy to make immortal kings follow him wholeheartedly but he wouldn't force others against their will too. He would simply wait for the Battle Saint Tribe to decide.

Time slowly flowed by, Qin Wentian only gave the Battle Saint Tribe two hours to decide. He had no way to determine which choice they would make, but he would just stoically accept it.

During these two hours, more people came by, walking past Qin Wentian. All of them were powerful characters, at the immortal king realm.

Even before the two hours came to an end, the tribe leader had already appeared.

"Tribe leader, do you have a decision?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Saint Lord." The tribe leader called out, causing a smile to appear in Qin Wentian's eyes.

"Saint Lord, there are still many immortal kings who are currently cultivating outside and can't rush back in time. Right now, the main thing I want to tell Saint Lord is that there are quite a number of immortal kings willing to follow you. But as to the exact number, I can only be sure after everyone returns. Saint Lord, are you able to wait here for a few more days?"

Qin Wentian pondered a little before nodding with a smile, he knew it was impossible for all the immortal kings of the Battle Saint Palace to be gathered here.

"Since this is the case, I will roam about the second world. Tribe leader, give me a deadline, I will rush back before then." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Let's make it seven days. Saint Lord, you can choose to stay at the Battle Saint Palace instead and I can send some people to accompany you." The tribe leader spoke.

"Fine as well." Qin Wentian nodded. Since the people of the Battle Saint Palace came to a compromise and was willing to follow him, he naturally didn't want their relationship to be too strained. Since this was the case, he will stay in the palace and familiarize himself with them. In any case, seven days would pass by in the blink of an eye.

"Saint Lord, please follow me." The mid-stage immortal king who was his opponent before walked over. He then led the way, after asking Qin Wentian to follow him.

"Saint Lord, my name is Qi Yuan. Are you angry because of what the tribe leader said to you before?" That mid-stage immortal king asked.

Qin Wentian shook his head, "Nope, because the tribe leader didn't say anything wrong. I can also understand where he is coming from."

Qi Yuan froze, staring with some bewilderment at Qin Wentian's calmness. Qin Wentian's calmness wasn't faked, he could tell that it was real.

"There's no need for you to care about my opinions to the Battle Saint Tribe. Like I said before, I will respect the tribe's decision. I will do what I ought to do, why would I be bothered by his words?" Qin Wentian smiled, dispersing Qi Yuan's doubts.

"Saint Lord's state of heart is truly extraordinary." Qi Yuan nodded. After that, he brought Qin Wentian to a certain residence. "Saint Lord, you can rest here temporarily. I will send out some commands and if you have any needs, you just have to say the word and it would be attended to. Saint Lord can also wander freely about in the Battle Saint Palace."

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. After that, Qi Yuan departed and went to make the preparations. Momentarily, a commotion shook the Battle Saint Palace. The young man who came here to challenge the sect, not only did he not receive any punishments, he was treated as a valuable guest and was given extremely preferential treatment.

The young man and young woman from before felt extremely complicated in their hearts. What was going on exactly? Could it be that this young man was really joining the Battle Saint Palace?

During this week, Qin Wentian didn't head out. He quietly cultivated while waiting for news.

After seven days, the tribe leader personally brought over ten immortal kings to the residence Qin Wentian was in.

"Tribe leader." Qin Wentian glanced at the immortal kings before him. Other than the tribe leader, there were a total of thirty-six others, all of them at the immortal king realm.

"Saint Lord." The tribe leader nodded. After that, the immortal kings all nodded to Qin Wentian respectively as they greeted him as Saint Lord well.

Upon seeing this scene, Qin Wentian already knew their intentions. He understood that these people were the immortal kings who were willing to follow him. A smile involuntarily appeared on his face as he stared at them.

These thirty-six immortal kings were the elites of the Battle Saint Tribe, they would definitely form a terrifying force.

"Saint Lord's combat prowess is sufficient to fight against mid-stage opponents. Hence, these thirty-six experts are handpicked personally by me and their cultivation bases are at the mid-stage or late-stage immortal king ream. Among them, there are three who's already standing at the peak of the immortal king ream." The tribe leader spoke. Qin Wentian nodded, silently musing that this must be the tribe leader's way of mitigating what happened earlier. The strength of these experts he handpicked had all exceeded his expectations.

"There are also initial-stage immortal kings who wants to follow Saint Lord, but from my point of view, even if they joined forces, they wouldn't be able to defeat you. Hence, I didn't allow them to follow. Naturally, if Saint Lord needs them, I can also allow them to go with you." The tribe leader continued.

"I have a suggestion." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Saint Lord, please speak your mind." The tribe leader replied.

"There are many immortal kings here in the second world. If there are initial-stage immortal kings who wish to follow me out, they can do so but I wouldn't need them to support me. The world outside is unimaginably vast, there are many other worlds other than the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It's a good idea for them to go out and gain experience and in the future, if there really is a calamity, at the very least, some roots of the Battle Saint Tribe would still be able to survive in the countless particle worlds." Qin Wentian spoke.

The eyes of the tribe leader flashed before he nodded, "Saint Lord's words are logical, let me seek their opinions and allow them to choose. If they really wish to go out, I will not stop them."

"Right. Tribe leader you can go make the arrangements. The rest of us will stay here first." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded as the tribe leader departed instantly.

"With regards to everyone, Wentian should be considered a junior. But since all of you are willing to follow me, I will do my best to help you all increase your strength and reach a brand new peak. You guys, follow me in." After speaking, Qin Wentian walked towards the cultivation grounds in his residence. The immortal kings here all had looks of curiosity as they followed Qin Wentian in.

After that, Qin Wentian took out the supreme treasured cauldron and allowed the immortal kings to enter it. Given the potential of the Battle Saint Tribe, it shouldn't be a problem for them to endure the baptism of the Sacred Luminance.

Qin Wentian stayed here as he waited for them to finish. With a troop of immortal kings like this following after him, he hoped to form a truly elite army as all of them grew together, ascending newgrounds.

After some time, everyone walked out from the cauldron. The tribe leader had already finished selecting those who wanted to go out and Qin Wentian led all the experts away as he set off from here.

Chapter 1370: Retreating to a Single Prefecture

Right now, within the Thousand Transformations Sect, in the emperor palace, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and many experts including Bai Wuya were there.

"The Thunder Prefecture and Yan Prefecture have already fallen into the control of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. This time around, they directly launched an attack at the Yue Prefecture. Once the Yue Prefecture falls to them, our Cloud Prefecture would instantly be surrounded by enemies on all side. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect will launch waves of attacks in a curved direction, advancing their troops from all directions. They would then start to build teleportation arrays to connect the prefectures, able to appear anywhere in the area within their control instantly.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord calmly spoke to everyone. The expressions of the experts here were all extremely heavy. Clearly, they knew how serious the current situation was.

Out of the six prefectures in control by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, only three remained.

Emperor-ranked experts couldn't act according to the silent agreement and the war was carried out by immortal kings. But on this level, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was at a clear disadvantage and was constantly forced to retreat. Right now, they were forced into this situation, to a path of no retreat.

If they continued to retreat, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would then attack their headquarters - the Cloud Prefecture.

"To think that the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would be so ruthless, secretly mobilizing their troops to the Yue Prefecture. Also, according to our intel, their army doesn't simply only contain experts of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect." Someone spoke coldly as his expression turned grim.

"I know, we were tricked but since we are in an immortal war, we should have expected such a situation. We can only blame ourselves for not being strong enough." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord sighed. "In addition, to think that the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect wanted to launch the final war so soon. They want to swallow us up in a single gulp."

As the immortal war erupted, each battle was planned cohesively in an organized manner but the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect suddenly mobilized such a large amount of soldiers in the Yue Prefecture and before they could react, the Eastern Sage Army already broke past the defenses of the Yue Prefecture and slaughtered many of their immortal kings there. Even the prefecture lord, an extremely powerful peak-level immortal king, was also heavily injured. They understood the meaning behind this, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect didn't intend to fight a long protracted war, they wanted to end things fast.

"Emperor Lord, what should we do now?" Someone asked. After that, the gazes of everyone turned to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. Everyone was clear about the intents of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. In that case, what they had to do next, is find a way on how to deal with it.

"What ideas do you have?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at Bai Wuya beside him as he asked.

"We will give up the Yue Prefecture and mobilize the remaining troops to return to the immortal sect." Bai Wuya spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness.

"What do you mean?" The Emperor Lord continued to ask.

Bai Wuya nodded lightly, "We should get our troops in the Supreme Yin and Western Desert Prefectures to return as well, using the entirety of our strength to guard a single place - the Cloud Prefecture. Since the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect wants a decisive war, let that location be set in Cloud Prefecture then.

The Cloud Prefecture was the headquarters of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. By moving all their strength back and concentrating on a single location, their might would naturally be greater and reinforcements would be much more convenient.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at Bai Wuya. He contemplated for a while before nodding and made arrangements according to the plan. Initially, they planned to sap away the strength of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect bit by bit, but Qin Wentian's fast growth speed, as well as the result of the adjudication battle, had influenced the entire situation to change. After that, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect began to ferociously advance, wanting to seize back the prefectures by force, in order to return to their former glory.

Bai Wuya wanted to withdraw all their troops and consolidate it within a single prefecture. Without a doubt, this meant that they would give up and abandon the other five prefectures, and guard only the Cloud Prefecture, hoping to rise again from the dead.

The expressions of everyone turned heavy. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at Bai Wuya and spoke, "Your words have logic to them. Since the Yue Prefecture is so unstable, if we don't withdraw the forces now, our losses would only be more tragic. Right now, we can only depend on the last decisive battle. Since that's the case, I would have to trouble you."

Bai Wuya nodded. He naturally understood what the words 'trouble you,' means.

The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect started to withdraw their troops from the Yue, Supreme Yin and the Western Desert Prefectures. For a period of time, the situation was extremely chaotic. Back then the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord took the control rights for six prefectures away and now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was unleashing their fury, wanting to wipe out the forces of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect completely.

The other major powers in the east were paying attention to this war too. All emperor-ranked powers understood that the implications weren't simply between the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. This war would affect the situation in the entire eastern regions.

For the observers, one would say that the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect possessed an overwhelming advantage, they would be able to destroy the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect for sure.

Some of the top-tier experts silently snuck away from the Cloud Prefecture as the Eastern Sage Amry closed in. The Cloud Prefecture was affected by the flames of war, but now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect didn't choose to directly launch an attack at the capital. They were slowly encroaching on the external areas, before advancing in steadily. The people of the Cloud Prefecture were filled with panic, everyone in the prefecture knew what sort of situation the Cloud Prefecture was facing.

This time around, Qin Wentian didn't head to the Southern Phoenix Clan on his way back. He just borrowed the teleportation array in the phoenix city and came back. On his way to the sect, he heard many rumors about the war. He didn't expect that in the short time when he was away, such a huge change actually appeared.

Upon sensing the seriousness of the situation, Qin Wentian's mood turned heavy. Many of his kin and friends were out tempering themselves in the Cloud Prefecture. If a war truly erupts here, nobody would be able to predict what might happen. Seems like, the best plan was to send them away.

After all, his foster father Qin Chuan, Ye Qingyun, Medicine Sovereign and the battle Sword Sect, their cultivation bases weren't high enough to participate in a battle of this scale. Once the aftershocks of battles came in contact with them, they might all die just like that.

Qin Wentian brought the members of the Battle Saint Tribe and returned silently to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Since the experts of the tribe came here following Qin Wentian, the people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect naturally wouldn't probe too much.

After making arrangements for the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe, Qin Wentian went to the residence where Qin Chuan and Qin Yao stayed. He discovered that during this period of them when he left, Qin Chuan, Ye Qingyun and the others have all returned. Evidently, they could sense the situation of the Cloud Prefecture and had all decided to rush back to the immortal sect.

"Foster fathers, sister, I just wanted to look for you all. It's good that you all are back." Qin Wentian walked over.

"Wentian, is a war breaking out soon?" Qin Yao asked. During these days, the people of the thirteen prefectures were all discussing this matter. This was the reason why they rushed back.

"I think so. I will go pay a visit to Emperor Lord later. If the situation is really bad, I will send someone to escort you all back to our particle world." Qin Wentian spoke. If a war truly erupted, he definitely has to send his kin away in case they die from the aftershocks.

"How can we hide away? Wentian, we will face it together with you." Qin Chuan spoke.

"Foster father, you guys are different from me. The aftershocks of battles between experts can be extremely terrifying, able to kill those who are at a lower level effortlessly. I naturally hope for us to be victorious in the war but nobody can predict the ending." Qin Wentian persuaded, his words causing Qin Chuan to furrow his brows. Indeed, he had heard all sorts of news when he was outside. Everyone felt that the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was finished, and the thirteen prefectures would be unified under the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect once more.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect now was decisively mobilizing their forces, and intended to win with a single swoop. Now, countless people in the thirteen prefecture believed that the situation is already set. In fact, the majority of major powers in the Eastern Regions all felt this way too.

"Wait for me here." Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he disappeared, moving towards the emperor palace. After some time, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord sensed his arrival, he stared at Qin Wentian and smiled, "You've broken through."

"Emperor Lord." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Entering the immortal king realm so fast, awesome." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord praised. "Are you here because you want to know the countermeasure for dealing with this situation?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Under the onslaught of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, we are planning to withdraw our forces from the remaining prefectures to the Cloud Prefecture, concentrating our strength in a single place, forcing the decisive battle here. Right now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect is still continuing to send in their troops." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke.

"Understood." Qin Wentiaan nodded. The two of them conversed for a little more before Qin Wentian left. After that, arrangements were made, the majority of his kin and friends who came from the particle world, were all sent back.

"Wentian, Qingcheng isn't back yet." The Medicine Sovereign spoke to Qin Wentian.

"I know where Qingcheng is cultivating, most likely, she wouldn't be affected by the aftershocks of this war. I will quietly pay her a visit. Senior Medicine Sovereign, you guys should temporarily return back to our particle world for now. I will get someone to escort you all back. After the situation stabilizes, you all can come to the immortal realms again if you all want to." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm." The Medicine Sovereign nodded.

"It's too boring there. If I return, wouldn't I proclaim myself as the king and lord over there?" Fatty Fan Le spoke in a depressed voice.

"Isn't that what you always wanted?" Qin Wentian rolled his eyes.

"Ai, at that time, it wouldn't be too good to have countless beauties frolicking around me." Fatty shamelessly spoke. Xuan Xin who was by the side was glaring at him ruthlessly as she spoke, "Why don't you just try it and see?"

"It has been so many years since I brought you guys here, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect should have stopped observing our world. Isn't it good to go back to our hometown for a visit?" Qin Wentian smiled. The Medicine Sovereign and the others nodded. Their particle world might be weak but it was the place where they had grown up in after all.

"Qi Yuan, I would have to trouble you guys to escort them back." Qin Wentian glanced at the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe. He planned to secretly send his kin and friends away, in case the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect started paying attention to his particle world again.

Qi Yuan and the others nodded. The group of them rode on divine weapons, and disappeared into the horizons after waving goodbye to Qin Wentian.

"Qi Yu, follow me." Qin Wentian glanced at another expert from the Battle Saint Tribe beside him. Qi Yu was one of the three strongest immortal kings of the tribe and now, given the chaotic situation, although he has always kept a low-profile, it would still be better to get Qi Yu to escort him. In this case, even if he encountered danger, he would be able to resolve it easily. Unless of course, he encountered an enemy immortal emperor.

"Sure." Qi Yu had the look of a middle-aged man, he was quiet and steady, as he nodded in response.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian soared through the air. The Emperor Lord told him that although the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was mobilizing their troops, they were still preparing. The final decisive battle wouldn't erupt so fast.

Hence, Qin Wentian planned to use this window of time to pay a visit to Qingcheng.

Chapter 1371: Tenderness

The Unaging Immortal Mountains was in the center of three major powers of the eastern regions - near the Thirteen Prefectures, Paragon Sword Sect and Taihua Immortal Dynasty. It was still extremely famous as after all, it was an emperor-ranked power.

But because the Unaging Immortal Emperor was merely an initial-stage emperor, he didn't have much influence when compared to the other hegemons of the eastern regions. But even so, immortal emperors were rarely seen existence, and even in the perspective of the entire immortal realms, although there are a number of emperors, they were still existences who stood at the absolute peak.

Any immortal emperors were able to become the tyrants of an area, lording over everything.

On the Unaging Immortal Mountains where the Unaging Immortal Emperor was at, it was located at the external boundaries of all three territories. But despite it being so, his fame had spread throughout. There were some disciples of the Thirteen Prefectures, Paragon Sword Sect and Taihua Immortal Dynasty who were talented in pill concoction, choosing to head over to the Unaging Immortal Mountains to improve their craft.

In the eastern regions, the Unaging Immortal Emperor could be considered a character standing at the pinnacle of pill concoction.

During these days, the Unaging Immortal Mountains was exceptionally lively. Under the mountain, numerous experts came to learn and among them, leading characters of many major powers could be seen. They weren't all people of the mountain but their disciples and descendants are currently cultivating in the Unaging Immortal Mountains.

The Unaging Immortal Mountains would organize a pill concoction banquet every ten years, where the kin of disciples and other major powers might come to attend.

Hence, during this period of time, the mountain was exceptionally lively. Usually, the peaks of the Unaging Immortal Mountains were very quiet but today, this place was bustling with noise and life everywhere.

On a certain mountain peak, the friends and families of the disciples came by but the courtyard Mo Qingcheng was in, was extremely quiet. She was alone, and in the midst of concocting pills, revising the formula again and again.

"Junior sister Qingcheng." At this moment, a voice drifted over. Mo Qingcheng extinguished the flames and walked out. "Senior sister."

"Junior sis is here alone concocting pills again? Although the pill concoction banquet is about to start, there's no need for junior sister to strive so hard, right? It's rare for it to be so lively here, let's go out for a walk." That woman smiled.

"I hope that I would be able to perform better at the pill concoction banquet and wouldn't cause master to be disappointed." Mo Qingcheng faintly smiled.

"Master favors you heavily, it's no wonder you wouldn't want to let master down. However, right now there are many sisters there basking in the atmosphere. Why not go out for a walk?" The woman laughed.

Mo Qingcheng pondered for a moment before she nodded, "Sure."

"That's right then." That woman laughed. After that, the two of them went out and came to a place where there were several people who already gathered there. Mo Qingcheng furrowed her brows, there seemed to be too many people here? In fact, there were even disciples from the other peaks who sought to pursue her.

At the Unaging Immortal Mountain, she only wanted to focus fully on her cultivation and didn't want to be involved in any other matters.

"Junior sister Qingcheng is here." A young man stared at Mo Qingcheng as a gentle smile appeared in his eyes. Ever since Mo Qingcheng came to this place, the title of number one beauty had instantly been shifted to her. In addition, her talent for pill concoction was very high and she had high attainments in that as well. She naturally would become the target of envy by many.

Among the people here, there was some extremely outstanding heaven chosen too. For example, the young man before him was named Qiu Mo. He was highly talented in cultivation as well as pill concoction.

Mo Qingcheng's expression cooled, she simply nodded her head.

"Senior brother Qiu, the banquet will soon start. Given your attainments, your performance later will definitely be extremely dazzling." The woman who invited Mo Qingcheng over earlier smiled happily.

Qiu Mo laughed, "There are several seniors that are more talented than me. But changing the topic, I'm sure junior sister Qingcheng will be able to display a brilliant performance at the concoction of sixth-grade pills."

"There's another batch of people that just arrived, I wonder who are they relatives or friends of." At this moment, another group of experts appeared here. Some among them had very powerful auras. Clearly, they were from an immortal king power.

"Disciples of our Unaging Immortal Mountains are truly influential and have connections to everywhere. During these days, it's unknown how many experts from the other major powers came over." Someone laughed.

"Yeah, in the past, we didn't even know how powerful senior brother Qiu Mo's clan is. Only when they showed up did we know. To think that there are so many immortal kings in your clan, how amazing." The woman who invited Qingcheng here praised loudly, causing many to nod their heads in agreement.

"Senior brother Qiu Mo also has such outstanding talent, easily becoming an immortal king. It's only normal that his background is powerful. In fact, I heard that his clan is the lord of the city controlled by the Paragon Sword Sect." Another person laughed.

"Junior sister Ye Rou, I heard that your clan members arrived as well. There are immortal kings among them and your fiance is also an extraordinary character. Why don't you bring them here so everyone can mingle together? Or could it be that you are afraid someone would snatch away your fiance?" Qiu Mo smiled. Ye Rou was somewhat embarrassed as she smiled, "He is just someone who comprehended a trace of immortal king might, how can he be considered as an extraordinary character? But as for junior sister Qingcheng, she has already rejected many outstanding young men, saying that she is already attached. Most probably, her man must truly be an extraordinary individual."

"Senior sister." Mo Qingcheng shot a look at Ye Rou. This was none other than the woman who invited her here. She shook her head, indicating that she didn't want to talk about such matters.

And as expected, there was someone who instantly replied, "That's right, junior sis Qingcheng has rejected plenty of apprentice brothers already, including some extremely outstanding elites. According to logic, Qingcheng's man should be a dragon among humans, a heaven chosen of the highest peak. However, for such an important event like this banquet, he didn't even appear? What is going on? Or could it be that junior sis Qingcheng is lying to everyone?"

"He's very busy with his cultivation." Mo Qingcheng calmly spoke.

"Very busy with cultivation? With such a beautiful wife like you, he doesn't even appear at this important moment and chooses to continue with cultivation?" Qiu Mo laughed.

"Sister Qingcheng, you might as well just give up on such a man. Given your talent and beauty, there are countless that would wish to pursue you." A young man spoke. Mo Qingcheng's expressions turned cold. Such words were considered extremely insulting to her.

The meaning of these words was telling her to give up on Qin Wentian and choose some other man?

"Everyone here is a disciple of the immortal mountain, please show some respect when you speak." Mo Qingcheng coldly stared at them. After that, she spoke, "Senior sister, Qingcheng bids farewell."

After that, she directly turned and left, causing many people to stand there, stunned.

Mo Qiu stared at the back of Mo Qingcheng. Even when Mo Qingcheng was angered, even though it was just her back view, she was so astoundingly beautiful. If he could somehow manage to obtain her...

"Still acting so proud because of master's doting on her." Someone commented in a jealous manner

"I wonder who would be able to subdue this maiden." Someone else spoke in a low voice. Many young men were fantasizing about that. But sadly, Mo Qingcheng didn't even have Qiu Mo in her eyes, let alone others.

Also, on the main peak, even for characters more outstanding than Qiu Mo, they all failed to gain Mo Qingcheng's favor.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was at the foot of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, outside the sect.

He stepped upon the stairway and entered, there was someone there directing the guests. That person smiled, "Are you two here to root for your kin or friend for the pill concoction banquet?"

"Pill concoction banquet?" Qin Wentian had a look of bewilderment on his face. Upon seeing that, the person there spoke, "Sorry, outsiders are not allowed to enter."

"I came here to visit my wife, she is currently cultivating in the Unaging Immortal Mountains." Qin Wentian politely replied.

That person guarding the entrance had a puzzled look on his face. If the wife of this person was cultivating in the mountain, why didn't he seem to know anything about the banquet? He then asked, "Which peak is your wife at? What is her name?"

"I'm not very clear she peak she's on exactly. The name of my wife is Mo Qingcheng." Qin Wentian spoke. The expression of the guard froze when he heard that. Mo Qingcheng was extremely famous here because she was the number one beauty of the Unaging Immortal Mountains. This guard had seen her once before and her beauty had stunned him.

"What's wrong?" Upon seeing the expression of the guard, Qin Wentian asked.

"Is it true?" That person stared straight at Qin Wentian.

"The Unaging Immortal Mountain is an emperor-ranked power, can it be that I would be so audacious to come here and make trouble?" Qin Wentian smiled. That guard nodded. After that he spoke, "You can enter then, that path will lead you to where she is."

Qin Wentian glanced at one of the paths ahead and nodded, "Many thanks."

After that, he ascended the mountain together with Qi Yu. The scenery here was elegant, yet Qin Wentian had no mood to admire them. Since he had entered, he naturally directly soared up into the air, swiftly arriving at the top of a particular peak. He then swept his immortal sense out, searching for Mo Qingcheng.

"Qingcheng."

A voice suddenly rang out in the mind of Mo Qingcheng. Right now, she was in her room, leaning against the railing of the balcony, staring at the misty mountain as she daydreamed. This sudden voice caused her heart to pound violently. She abruptly turned about and saw a figure appearing before her, smiling at her as boundless gentleness could be seen in his eyes.

Mo Qingcheng's eyes reddened but a radiant smile could be seen on her face. Walking forward, she leaned her head on Qin Wentian's body as she hugged him, silently listening to his heartbeat.

"Qingcheng, I came to see you." Qin Wentian gently embraced Mo Qingcheng as he stared ahead at the beautiful scenery. Being united with a loved one, everything felt as beautiful as a painting.

They didn't move, even time seemed to have stopped. After a long time, Mo Qingcheng inclined her head. Tear stains could be seen on her face, yet her smile was as bright as ever, stirring the soul of Qin Wentian.

"You entered the immortal king realm?" Mo Qingcheng gently asked. Qin Wentian once said that he would definitely break through to the immortal king realm and now, seeing that he was here to see her, this means that he has broken through, right? Such a young immortal king. Mo Qingcheng truly felt proud of this man whom she loved.

"Mhm. How do you plan on rewarding me?" Qin Wentian laughed.

Shyness flickered in Mo Qingcheng's eyes, she then spoke in a low voice, "Naughty fellow, you can have whatever reward you want."

"Hmm, I have to think long and hard about it then." Qin Wentian smiled radiantly as he continued hugging this woman he loved. As they walked towards the railing, he stared at the scenery here as he suddenly sighed. It was like he could sense Qingcheng's loneliness.

"Qingcheng, just being beside me is enough reward for me." Qin Wentian spoke softly.

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng leaned against him. Right now, how was she like the proud maiden of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, exuding a cold beauty that rejects everyone? Her beautiful eyes were filled with tenderness as she stared back at the man she loved!

Chapter 1372: Pill Concoction Banquet

The two of them quietly enjoyed this hard to come by silence. After a long moment, Qin Wentian then spoke, "Qingcheng, when I came here, I heard many people talking about the pill concoction banquet. What's going on?"

"It's a banquet the Unaging Immortal Mountains holds every ten years. Disciples of the various peaks would gather together and compete in pill concoction and it's a very grand occasion. I didn't participate in the pill concoction banquet because I was still too weak then. But now, I'm able to participate in it." Mo Qingcheng spoke in a light voice.

"No wonder there's so many people coming here." Qin Wentian nodded. "Let me accompany you to the banquet then, we will leave after it's over."

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng smiled gently. In her heart, she also hoped that Qin Wentian would be there to see her compete. It wasn't because of glory, but simply because of a pure and simple anticipation and longing for him. In addition, she would be able to tell the people of the Unaging Immortal Mountains that she truly already had someone she loved. If that was the case, those people probably wouldn't bother her again.

"I still have a friend who came here with me. Since this is a grand event, the Unaging Immortal Mountains should be hosting these guests, right?" Qin Wentian laughed as he spoke.

"Mhm, they are." Mo Qingcheng nodded. "In that case, let us go and make some arrangements for your friend first."

The two of them walked into the courtyard. Qi Yu was quietly sitting there. He knew Qin Wentian came here to find his wife, and he naturally wouldn't disturb them.

At this moment, Qi Yu stood up. Upon glancing at Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng, he only felt that the two of them were a match made in heaven.

"Qi Yu, this is my wife, Mo Qingcheng." Qin Wentian introduced.

Qi Yu stared at Mo Qingcheng as he nodded, "Qi Yu pays respect to Madam."

Upon seeing how courteous Qi Yu was, she instantly knew that the relationship of Qi Yu and Qin Wentian wasn't ordinary, but she didn't probe further. She simply smiled, "Let's go to the place where the Unaging Immortal Mountains are hosting the guests."

"I will follow Madam's arrangements." Qi Yu nodded. In fact, most cultivators didn't care about things like this at all.

Mo Qingcheng and the two others continued on their way. This ancient peak was very vast, but it was incredibly scenic. On the way there, many people had strange looks on their faces when they noticed Qin Wentian who was walking beside Mo Qingcheng. This young man was actually walking together with Mo Qingcheng and the two of them seemed exceptionally close?

When Qin Wentian noticed the gazes of many sweeping towards him, he couldn't help but to laugh in a low voice, "Looks like my Qingcheng is still as popular as ever."

Mo Qingcheng's lips twitched as she held onto Qin Wentian's hand. Feeling the warmth of her hand, Qin Wentian tightened his hold as well, as though he was announcing his sovereignty over her.

A young man's expression instantly turned unsightly. He was one of those who adored Mo Qingcheng but Mo Qingcheng had always been cold towards him and couldn't even be bothered to speak with him. Now when he saw her holding hands with another guy, his heart was naturally seized by jealousy.

"I still thought how pure she was. So she is nothing but a plaything of others." Jealousy reared its ugly head as the young man mused silently, feeling extremely unhappy.

As they proceeded on, Qin Wentian was the target of countless gazes and soon became the topic of discussion of this ancient peak. Their movements were specially noted, and after they made arrangements for Qi Yu, when Qin Wentian returned with Mo Qingcheng back to her residence, it caused an even greater commotion especially after the fact that he spent the night together with her in there. In addition, there was even a barrier isolating the immortal senses of others.

As the number one beauty of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, her actions would naturally be observed by plenty. Hence, this incident instantly caused countless people to discuss about Mo Qingcheng.

"Who would have expected junior sister Qingcheng to be such a character? She doesn't care about her reputation at all."

"Yeah, I initially still thought how holy and how pure she was. Most probably, they are engaging in shameless acts in her bedroom now." Someone commented maliciously.

"How can you guys say this? Junior sister Qingcheng has long said that she has someone she loved and she already married. This young man that came should be none other than her husband. What's so strange about staying together? Even if you guys are jealous, there's no need to speak so maliciously, right?" There were also some senior apprentice sisters on the side of Qingcheng. They couldn't bear to hear her being slandered and defended her.

The topics also involved Qin Wentian, "This young man seemed very ordinary, I wonder what background does he have."

"He's probably far from being able to compare to senior brother Qiu Mo. If that man really is Mo Qingcheng's husband, her judgement must truly be shit. Why doesn't she break up with him? Such a beauty, even if she isn't pure of body, everyone would definitely still want her."

Outside, numerous voices rang out, as the discussion spread to the other peaks. After all, there had always been many people paying attention to Mo Qingcheng.

However, Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng couldn't be bothered with these voices of discussion. No matter where they went, it was impossible for them to control the thoughts of others. Hence, they didn't bother about it.

The two of them were spending their time together, it has been so long since they last met, they naturally wanted to enjoy their time together. However, time swiftly passed by. The two of them didn't step out of Mo Qingcheng's residence at all, and didn't know of the intense commotion that was occurring outside because of them.

The pill concoction banquet finally began. Today, the disciples of the various ancient mountain peaks all gathered first at the pill concoction field. Mo Qingcheng also went over. Qin Wentian didn't go with her. When the banquet started, he and those friends and families of the disciples were only spectators. He followed the crowd and tagged behind the disciples, this place was completely flooded by people.

On the field, Ye Rou saw that Mo Qingcheng was in glowing spirits. She walked over to her and smiled, "Junior sister Qingcheng, I heard that you've been living in an extremely 'joyful' manner during these few days."

Mo Qingcheng furrowed her brows, she was growing more and more unhappy about this Ye Rou. It was only because of their connection as fellow apprentice sisters that she treated Ye Rou so respectfully. However, during these few days, Ye Rou's words were getting more and more provocative.

"This has nothing to do with senior sister, right?" Mo Qingcheng unhappily spoke.

"I'm merely asking. Who would have thought that junior sister would have such a great reaction." Ye Rou laughed. "Don't you know that right now, rumors about you and your beau have already circulated around the peaks?"

"I don't wish to know, I'm not interested." Mo Qingcheng coldly spoke.

"Hehe." Ye Rou laughed. "Your husband came alone? There's no one from his clan?"

"Senior apprentice sister, does this have anything to do with you?" Mo Qingcheng's brows furrowed even more intensely.

"Naturally, it has nothing to do with me." Ye Rou laughed but didn't say anything, however, her expression was unsightly. She promised someone from the main peak that she would help him to woo Mo Qingcheng. However, there seemed to be no hope now.

Only to see that at this moment, in the direction of the pill concoction field, a few figures walked over. The person in the lead was beautiful middle-aged woman and exuded an extraordinary demeanor. Qin Wentian could tell that this woman had a high cultivation base with just a single glance. She should be at the peak-level of the immortal-king realm.

This female should be the pill lord of this mountain peak, the master of Mo Qingcheng.

"This once every ten year event is a grand occasion of our Unaging Immortal Mountains. The various disciples of the nine peaks will participate and in fact, the old ancestor Unaging Immortal Emperor would even personally concoct some high-level pills as rewards. You all have to do your best and perform well." The middle-aged woman directly spoke. The disciples then bowed, each of them intending to do their best and fight for glory.

"Everyone came from afar just to spectate the grand event of our sect. I thank all of you for your efforts." The beautiful middle-aged woman smiled and nodded to the others in the crowd.

"Let's move out." With a flash, the middle-aged woman flew up into the air. The various disciples of the different peaks followed, and behind them, were Qin Wentian and the rest of the crowd. They flew towards the highest peak of the Unaging Immortal Mountain, that was the main peak of this immortal sect, named the Unaging Peak.

The pill concoction field here was much vaster in comparison to any of the other peaks, able to accomodate tens of thousands of people concocting pills here. In the surroundings, there are also tables and chairs set up on a higher platform, allowing the spectators to see everything, as well as to enjoy an immortal banquet.

"Friends from afar, if my Undying Immortal Mountain's reception is lacking, please forgive us." On a high platform before the pill concoction field, an old man with white flowing beard smiled. Many people clasped their hands towards him as they smiled back politely.

"The Unaging Immortal Mountains are expending such efforts to host this grand event for us, we are filled with boundless gratitude."

More and more people from the nine peaks continuously arrived here, and other than elders of the peaks there was another group that was exceptionally eye-catching. They seemed to have originated from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

Qin Wentian and Qi Yu casually found a spot and sat down. They could see that Mo Qingcheng, who has already arrived at the edge of the field, turned her head back to look for him as she smiled. Qin Wentian punched his fist up in the air, showing a smile of encouragement back. Qingcheng had given up so many things for him. He also hoped that Qingcheng would be able to find a path of cultivation suited to herself and actualized her talent.

At the location where disciples of the main peak gathered, Qiu Mo and the others noticed Mo Qingcheng. Right now, his expression was like ice. The people beside him whispered, "I initially thought that she was a pure and holy maiden, to think that…"

"It's rumored that she spent all her time together with that man in her room and didn't even take a step out. I wonder what they did there."

"Look, it's that young man. He seems so ordinary. How can he be comparable to senior brother Qiu Mo?" Someone noticed Qin Wentian. Right now, Qin Wentian's good looks and extraordinary aura were intentionally disparaged by these people.

Qiu Mo didn't say anything, but enmity was clear in his gaze as he turned his eyes towards Qin Wentian.

Right now, Qin Wentian could already feel many unfriendly gazes staring at him. However, he seemed as carefree as ever.

"Those people should be from a major power in the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. It's said that one of their elders is cultivating there and has a high position in the dynasty." Someone stared at the group of people who was sitting together with the peak pill lord of the main peak.

"Mhm, I heard that one among them is a disciple of the main peak's pill lord." Someone spoke.

"Aren't these people the clan members of senior brother Xue? Senior brother Xue is a dragon among humans, his talent is extraordinarily high. To think that his clan members are all so powerful, and his background is actually from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty." Some of the other disciples began to discuss.

"Not only for senior brother Xue, the elder of our senior brother Qiu Mo is also extremely powerful, currently sitting beside the main peak's pill lord." Ye Rou spoke lightly. There were many disciples of the Unaging Immortal Mountains who had extraordinary backgrounds. It's only natural that some among them were more extraordinary compared to the others.

"However, all this counts for nothing. Junior sister Qingcheng doesn't even have senior brother Qiu Mo in her eyes. I wonder what the background of junior sister Qingcheng's husband is." Ye Rou smiled at Mo Qingcheng who was standing beside her.

Chapter 1373: Working Hard Only for His Sake

Mo Qingcheng frowned when she heard what Ye Rou said. This Ye Rou was getting more and more overbearing. She clearly knew that she didn't want to be a part of such a conversation yet she still intentionally dragged her in.

"Yes, junior sister Qingcheng. This time, there are so many major powers that are affiliated with our fellow disciples who came here. Even Ye Rou's clan members are here in support, even her fiance that's only a step away from immortal king is also here as well. Junior sister Qingcheng is so outstanding, your husband must surely also be a dragon among humans. I wonder what is his current cultivation and which major power did he come from?"

"Junior sister Qingcheng is someone who didn't even have senior brother Qiu Mo in her eyes. Her husband is naturally more outstanding. It's just that the elders of our sect doesn't know his true identity or they would have already invited him to sit with them." Another person spoke mockingly.

These people were the usual females who were jealous of Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng became the number one beauty here the moment she came, and in addition to her talent and her being heavily favored by their master, her presence completely suppressed that of the other females. It's naturally tough for her to avoid the jealousy of others.

"Today is the pill concoction banquet, everything is focused on pill concoction. Why are you all talking about things like backgrounds? If you all are so proud about backgrounds, why do you still come here and join our sect?" A older apprentice sister berated, causing everyone to fall silent, glancing at Mo Qingcheng.

"Qingcheng, focus on the pill concoction and don't bother about them. Master has high hopes for you, you have to help our peak fight for glory." That apprentice sister smiled at Mo Qingcheng. She was a leading character of this particular peak, someone at the immortal king realm. She naturally has a very high status and she had always treated her juniors fairly.

"Mhm, Qingcheng will work hard. Thank you senior sister." Mo Qingcheng smiled and nodded.

"That's good." That female nodded back.

Qin Wentian's senses was focused on Mo Qingcheng, he naturally could hear what others were talking about her. He could only sigh in his heart, no matter where she went, Qin Wentian knew that the suitors of Mo Qingcheng would be as numerous as the clouds. There would naturally be jealousy and envy within the mix.

He was also clear that although Qingcheng's talent couldn't be compared to those descendants of peak powers, it was still considered extremely outstanding in the perspective of the Unaging Immortal Mountains.

"I've made things tough for you." Qin Wentian mused silently. He came here today just to see Qingcheng. Qing`er had the support of Matriarch Ji and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, no one would be able to bully her. Other than longing for her, there was no need to worry about her safety. However, Qingcheng was different. Here in the vast immortal realms, he was her only kin. Only he could protect Qingcheng, the woman whom he loved.

However, right now the situation in the eastern regions was extremely chaotic, with a war erupting between the Thousand Transformations and Eastern Sage Immortal Sects. When he came out, he had to proceed cautiously and he wanted to be more low-profile when he arrived here. He had no wish to reveal his identity in case it was known by the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, and who knows, they might use Qingcheng to deal with him. Although the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect might not be so despicable, he still had to take precautions, considering what happened in the past with Luo Huan and Qin Yao.

Hence, Qingcheng's matters could only be solved by herself. This was why Qin Wentian felt that it was he who had made things tough for her.

More and more experts gathered and finally when all the alchemists of the nine peaks were here, the pill lord of the main peak laughed and lifted his cup up, "Today is the date for the once-every-ten-years pill concoction banquet hosted by my sect. We welcome all experts to bear witness and hope that our disciples would be able to perform brilliantly. I shall offer a toast to everyone here first."

Everyone else all lifted their cups in response. After that, the banquet officially started. The Unaging Immortal Mountains were proficient in pill concoction and the dishes and drinks of the banquet were all top-graded. When Qin Wentian ate a piece of meat, he only felt an extremely comfortable feeling circulating through him after that. He could only silently nod in admiration, as expected of a emperor-ranked pill-concoction power.

"The pill banquet shall have the same rules as the past. Immortal-foundation disciples have to concoct a sixth-grade immortal pill before they can be considered to have passed. For immortal-king level disciples, they have to concoct a seventh-grade immortal pill. For the first round, disciples who joined our sect for over ten years, all have to participate. If their pill concoction fails, they would have to work harder then. If they failed consecutively for three banquets, they will be expelled from our Unaging Immortal Mountains." The pill lord spoke.

"For the first round, a 100 immortal-foundation disciples will be selected, and 30 immortal kings will be selected. The competition would be to compete in pill concoction speed. We will be the one to select the ingredients and pill concoction methods. The fastest among the participants to complete this will be eligible to go to the next round." The pill lord spoke. Many disciples of the Unaging Immortal Emperor had heavy expressions on their faces. Pill-concoction powers were different from other major powers. If they were able to receive recognition and were heavily nurtured, their benefits would be far greater. They would have access to more valuable ingredients, more powerful concoction methods, and even recipes for immortal flames and other heaven-defying pills.

Hence, many disciples heavily regarded this pill concoction banquet. This banquet gathers disciples of the nine peaks and if they were able to stand out here, their future benefits would be inconceivably huge.

"All disciples take up your positions on the field." The pill lord waved his hands, his movements graceful and majestic. The disciples then all began to move towards the pill concoction field.

Mo Qingcheng turned back and glanced at the direction Qin Wentian was in, only to see Qin Wentian waving to her with an encouraging smile on his face. Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly and walked towards the pill concoction field. This smile of hers caused countless people to be dazzled by her beauty. They all glanced towards Qin Wentian and when they saw how young he was, all of them couldn't help but to envy the good luck of this fellow.

"Brother, is that maiden earlier your companion?" Someone at the side asked.

"She is my wife." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"Brother your fortune is so good." Some of the crowd laughed. "Such a beautiful woman is truly a marvelous treat for our eyes. I wonder where did brother originate from?"

Someone wanted to probe Qin Wentian's background. Many people turned their gazes over and Qin Wentian couldn't help but to frown. These people were truly shameless. A slight cold intent radiated from him but he didn't speak. After that, the people in the surroundings started, but they soon started laughing coldly.

"This fellow truly has dogshit luck. Such a beauty, how can he be worthy enough to match her?" Someone silently mused, but didn't say it out loud.

"The pill concoction is about to start, that little doll Feng`er will definitely be able to display her talent." A spectator laughed.

"Yan`er seems to be very confident in her concocting abilities. I wonder if she will give us a surprise."

"Little Mo, this time, all our clan members are here to support you and watch your performance."

Many people had looks of anticipation in their eyes as they stared at the juniors of their sects and clans. They all came from so far away and naturally hoped that they would be pleasantly surprised. If a powerful alchemist can be born in their clan, that would truly be a matter worth celebrating.

Hence, everyone was filled with anticipation.

The elders of the Unaging Immortal Mountains began to distribute the medical ingredients while announcing the pill that the participants had to concoct for the test. For the first round, to ensure fairness, the conditions for everyone were the same. What was tested was the speed one took to concoct the required pill.

The disciples all took out their furnaces and prepared to start. After that, the pill lord spoke, "Begin."

In an instant, various astral souls and different-colored flames manifested into being. For alchemists, they had to have fire-attribute energies for sure. Fire-attribute energies had different sources, some were from demonic beasts, some were from astral souls, some were from treasures, some were from holy or sacred lands, born from nature.

However, in Qin Wentian's eyes, there was only Qingcheng. A fairy-like shadow appeared behind her. Mo Qingcheng then sat down cross-legged, resembling a celestial maiden from the nine heavens. There was a ball of nine-colored flame in her hands, flickers of the flame shot out and revolved around her pill concocting furnace while Mo Qingcheng folded hand seals in preparation of concocting the pill.

Qin Wentian didn't know alchemy, but he knew how to appreciate the beauty of her motions. Staring at Mo Qingcheng, each of her actions warmed the heart and delighted the eyes. A warm smile appeared on his face. Even without him, Qingcheng would be an extremely perfect female. During these few years, although he did help Qingcheng to upgrade her strength, Qingcheng had never truly enjoyed life at all. She always had him in her heart, and had always been working hard to increase her strength, all for the sake of him.

Staring at Qingcheng who was in the midst of concocting the pill, he felt extremely warm in his heart.

"Qingcheng said that if one could get into the top ten, they would be rewarded. I believe that she should have no problems getting that ranking." Qin Wentian mused silently. Although he didn't care about the reward, but if Qingcheng could acquire it based on her own strength and hard work, the meaning behind the reward would then be extraordinary.

As time flowed, the fragrance of medical pills slowly permeated the atmosphere. Thunderous sounds constantly sounded out from furnaces, there were some who managed to concoct pills with high efficiency, while some failed.

"Qingyang's performance isn't bad." At this moment, a middle-aged person who sat beside the main peak's pill lord smiled.

"Qingyang's talent is the highest among disciples I've seen. He truly lives up to our expectations and is the first to complete the pill." The pill lord laughed, giving lavish praises generously. This Xue Qingyang was an immortal king that had concocted a seventh-grade medical pill. In addition, his speed was faster than others who concocted either seventh-grade or even the easier sixth-grade pills.

"Qiu Mo isn't bad as well." A person of the Qiu Clan spoke. Qiu Mo was one of the first three among immortal kings to finish concocting his pills.

"She's number four." Qin Wentian didn't bother about the immortal-king level participants. His attention was solely on Mo Qingcheng. In the immortal-foundation realm, Mo Qingcheng was the fourth to finish concocting her pill. After she was done, she turned her head and smiled at Qin Wentian, as though telling him that the efforts and hard work she had put in, were all for the sake of him.

The first round then concluded. 100 immortal-foundation disciples and 30 immortal kings passed the test. Some were joyful while some were disappointed. It was only normal, and there would always be people eliminated in a competition.

"Your performance is excellent, there shouldn't be any problem getting into the top ten." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Mo Qingcheng.

"Next, we have to compete in variant-type pills and quality. The test will still be for sixth-graded medicine and it can be further segregated into the bottom, middle, and high tiers. There are many hidden tigers and dragons in the Unaging Immortal Mountains, but I will do my best." Mo Qingcheng transmitted back.

"Mhm, you can do it for sure. Mainly, you are suffering a disadvantage in terms of cultivation base. But once your cultivation reaches the peak of immortal-foundation, my Qingcheng will naturally be the most outstanding among these people." Qin Wentian spoke encouragingly. Mo Qingcheng gave a sweet smile while feeling currents of warmth in her heart. She was filled with even more anticipation for the next test. She will naturally work hard because the person in the spectator area watching her, was none other than the man she loved.

Chapter 1374: Rare Immortal Pill

The first round ended and the vast majority of people were eliminated. All of them returned to their seats and were clearly disappointed.

Only a total of 130 participants still remained.

For the immortal-foundation realm, there were people of all levels, but the majority were at either the seventh, eighth or ninth level. For the immortal kings, all of the participants were initial-stage immortal kings. After all, if someone did break through to mid-stage immortal king, that person could already become an elder of one of the mountain peaks.

For the Pill Lords of the respective peaks, all of them were peak-level immortal kings while the lord of the Unaging Immortal Mountains was the Unaging Immortal Emperor, an initial-stage immortal emperor.

"Next, the participants can unleash their creativity freely. However, you all only have three chances to fail. If pill creation fails despite three attempts, you all will be eliminated. As for the ingredients and what kind of pill you want to create, it would depend solely on your refining abilities. After the pill concoction is a success, we will determine the grade of the created pill and rank you accordingly. Regardless of the immortal-foundation or immortal-level, you will be rewarded if you are in the top ten. If you are in the top three, you will be able to gain an immortal pill created by our ancestor."

The Pill Lord of the main peak laughed. Undoubtedly, this batch of participants were all elites. But for the ultimate winner, the Pill Lord was confident that it would be a disciple of the main peak.

The expressions of the participants turned heavy, they understood that the main show would be up next. Although it can't be said that their futures will be brilliantly bright, according to the past banquets, the prizes for the winners had never disappointed.

"Begin!" The Pill Lord announced. The spectators of the various major powers all observed the participants. If someone outstanding appeared and they were not from their sect or clan, it was possible to get the juniors of their clan to form a good connection with these people. In the future when these talented seedlings become a part of the upper echelons of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, a cooperative relationship between both parties would then be easier to form.

Who doesn't wish to form connections with a pill concoction power?

This time, every one of the participants had already made their preparations. The ingredients for pill concoctions were much more compared to the previous round. All sorts of rare and valuable ingredients could be seen, especially for the immortal king participants who were preparing to concoct a seventh-grade immortal pill.

"Isn't that dragon beard?" An expert pointed towards Xue Qingyang as his eyes gleamed with sharpness. Using such a valuable ingredient to concoct pills was truly luxurious. The price of concocting high-grade pills was truly extremely terrifying. If the pill concoction failed, all the ingredients would go to waste without a doubt.

"Some of those ingredients must have been prepared by their clans. Those with no background can only earn the ingredients by themselves. At this point of time, one's background will become a critical factor." Many people mused silently. Although the competition seemed fair, there was no way to ensure absolute fairness. Everyone understood this logic.

Everyone was more cautious compared to the previous round. This time, it wasn't a test of speed, and the test didn't specify which pill to concoct either. What the participants needed to do was to unleash their full abilities with pill concoction and create the highest grade immortal pill they were capable of in order to get a good ranking.

The temperature in the surroundings instantly soared but luckily since this place was extremely vast, there was still plenty of space between the participants. However, even so, for some with low cultivations, they were forced to circulate their immortal energy to resist the heat of the flames.

Whiffs of pill fragrance unceasingly permeated the atmosphere. Although the pills weren't formed yet, the fragrance of the medical herbs being refined could already be smelt.

Flames of all colors danced about, causing one's eyes to be dazzled. The qi flow of the atmosphere was absorbed into each furnace. This was especially evident for those concocting immortal-king pills. The qi flow of laws could clearly be seen, crazily gushing into their furnaces as tiny explosions rang out within.

"To think that pill concoction can be so wondrous to watch." Someone sighed in a low voice.

"Truly, an eye-opening experience. For these pills that were being concocted now, if they are successful in concoction, the price in the market outside would definitely be staggeringly high."

Other than being a little surprised, Qin Wentian didn't think too much about it. His gaze was still on Mo Qingcheng. Upon seeing beads of sweat appearing on her forehead, as well as the redness of exhaustion on her face, even more gazes were turned to her, appreciating this - another kind of beauty.

A pure and holy light enveloped her while the shadow of a fairy appeared fully behind her, kneading the ball of nine-colored flame. Qin Wentian quietly admired his wife as he waited patiently.

Immortals were all people with patience, let alone in such an important and grand event like this.

"RUMBLE!" A thunderous sound rang out. The gazes of everyone turned over only to see the furnace of a participant emitted black smoke. After that, a look of disappointment appeared on the face of that participant.

Although the success rate of concocting a high-graded immortal pill was pretty low, everyone still hoped that they would be able to succeed on their first try.

The Unaging Immortal Mountain was a major pill-concoction power and had plenty of alchemic technique that could increase the success rate. Once their talent was noticed by the upper echelons, the participants would then gain more highly-skilled pill concoction techniques in the future.

Next, more sounds of explosions rang out. There were actually more failures, causing everyone to feel a little surprised. However, the elders of the Unaging Immortal Mountains didn't feel strange. It was as though this was an extremely normal scene to them.

Time slowly flowed by. Finally, a beam of light shot up into the sky. One of the furnaces was producing this beam of golden light. A heavy medicinal fragrance drifted out from this furnace, causing the spectators to be mesmerized by the scent.

A moment later, a resplendent golden-colored immortal pill erupted from the heart of the furnace and floated in the air.

"Gold Pill of Laws." The elders of the Unaging Immortal Mountains nodded. This pill was a sixth-graded one. Success would cause golden light to illuminate the area around the pill. It's quality was pretty high as well. That immortal-foundation disciple who concocted it heaved a sigh of relief before turning his attention to his fellow disciples who were still in the midst of pill concocting.

Next, there are still some failures, but there were also people who passed.

"Red Fire Immortal Pill." At this moment, a blazing red pill radiating fearsome fire law energy appeared. The temperature around it was scorchingly hot. If one consumed this pill, the attribute energies they are proficient in would temporarily be converted to fire-attributed law energy. This was greatly beneficial for those who used fire-attributed arts or techniques, allowing the might unleashed to soar explosively.

"Seems like the influence of an astral soul to stellar martial cultivators, is and all-around comprehensive one. Even for pill concoction, one's attribute energy plays a main role as well." Qin Wentian mused silently as he spectated. The kind of law-energy one was proficient in, and the strength of it would all be determined by one's astral souls. With regards to what law-attribute one was proficient in, the attribute of the pills they concocted would usually match that.

At this moment, a startling energy filled the air. Qin Wentian turned his glance over only to see Xue Qingyang completed his pill. His pill was a golden yellow yet it radiated hints of king aura. Faint sounds of dragon roars could be heard, tyrannical to the extreme. The law energies in that area were churning wildly as this pill was born.

"Dragon Emperor Pill, a supreme-tier pill among the seventh-grade. Excellent." The Pill Lord of the main peak sighed in admiration, praising Xue Qingyang.

What a dazzling scene, with marvelous sights all about in the pill concoction field. Although many among the spectators were characters of major powers and were even immortal kings, alchemists had always been extremely rare in comparison in the immortal realms. This banquet was truly a grand occasion, none of the spectators felt that they have made a wasted trip here.

Qin Wentian's gaze turned back to Mo Qingcheng. As more and more people completed their pills, Mo Qingcheng focused even more. The temperature was exceedingly high, even her sweat was evaporated before it could drip down on the ground. The state she was in caused Qin Wentian to feel some worry.

Only to see that now, Mo Qingcheng's countenance had turned red and she seemed to be in agony. This caused Qin Wentian to be extremely worried. Mo Qingcheng's master was looking at her too. She mumbled, "What is Qingcheng trying to do?"

"The ingredients she prepared seemed to be for a soul pill. Senior sister I initially thought that you wanted to let Qingcheng test her limits so you told her to create this extremely rare type of pill. Isn't this your intention?" A woman beside asked.

"No, I have never interfered in her pill concoction decisions at all, only hoping she would do her best." Mo Qingcheng's master spoke. At this moment, a sound rang out. Mo Qingcheng actually coughed out a mouthful of fresh blood. Her blood then transformed into strands of blood essence before entering her furnace.

"Qingcheng!" Qin Wentian's fists were clenched. He could see how pale Mo Qingcheng was, and how serious her expression was.

"Has this lass gone mad? She wants to concoct a Blood Refining Soul Pill." Mo Qingcheng's master instantly knew what Mo Qingcheng wanted to concoct. This pill was an extremely rare pill but it has no benefits toward one's cultivation. This was why she had no idea what Mo Qingcheng wanted to concoct earlier.

"Blood essence to refine her longing for a person. Senior sister, this little doll…" Mo Qingcheng's aunt-master was also stunned. She glanced at Qin Wentian. Was this because of this young man? Who was he? Why is he qualified for Mo Qingcheng to do such a thing?

"Pu…" Mo Qingcheng coughed out more blood consecutively for nine times. Her hands folded ancient seals as her aura fluctuated wildly as she focused on the pill concoction. For some reason, her aura seemed to be weakening, growing fainter and fainter.

Many were stunned by Mo Qingcheng's actions. Numerous gazes turned to her, especially for the experts of the Unaging Immortal Mountains. When they knew what pill she intended to concoct, all their eyes glimmered with sharpness.

The number one beauty of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, who was she doing this for?

Finally the ball of nine-colored flame entered her furnace completely. A resplendent light flared out nine times, as an immortal pill erupted from the heart of the furnace. This pill resembled the heart of a lotus, a thing of extreme beauty.

Mo Qingcheng's steps were a little unstable. She was in a very weak state now but she still revealed a smile when she stared at the immortal pill. Fortunately, she has succeeded.

At this moment, Qiu Mo also completed his pill. When he saw the pill Mo Qingcheng created, his heart actually trembled. To think that this woman would have such depth of emotions.

"Qingcheng, can you bestow this pill to me? I'm willing to protect you for all my life." Qiu Mo spoke to Mo Qingcheng, his words causing shock in the hearts of everyone. The news of Mo Qingcheng's husband coming here to spectate had already been spread. Many people knew about this and this time around, the intention of Mo Qingcheng creating such a pill could be guessed at by them as well.

But nobody expected that even now, Qiu Mo has yet to give up. In fact, he even took this chance to confess to Mo Qingcheng.

"Haha, she truly is a good little girl. If she can get together with our Qiu Mo, my Qiu Clan would welcome her grandly." At this moment, an elder of the Qiu Clan who was sitting beside the main peak's Pill Lord laughed, causing the expressions of everyone to turn even more fascinating.

Being able to sit in that position indicated that the elder's status was very high. A person of such status was actually helping Qiu Mo out so blatantly in front of the public.

"Qingcheng, if you really get together as a couple with Qiu Mo of my main peak, it can be considered a beautiful tale as well." The Pill Lord of the main peak smiled. He didn't know about Mo Qingcheng and Qin Wentian. As the Pill Lord of the main peak, he naturally wouldn't pay attention to gossips among disciples. Qiu Mo was his beloved disciple and since an elder of the Qiu Clan already spoke, the Pill Lord of the main peak was naturally more than happy to agree along.

Chapter 1375: Competing for Number One

Mo Qingcheng was initially very happy because she succeeded in her pill concoction. However, when she heard this, her smile was instantly retracted as her expression turned unsightly.

Qin Wentian was frowning as well. Although it was only natural for a beauty like Mo Qingcheng to have plenty of suitors, confessing to her in front of him was simply pure arrogance. In fact, Qiu Mo even wanted Mo Qingcheng to give him her pill. This was clearly disrespecting Mo Qingcheng. Not only that, the elder of Qiu Mo and Pill Lord of the main peak also joined in, causing Qin Wentian to be extremely unhappy.

"This pill is concocted for my husband." Mo Qingcheng icily replied. When Qiu Mo heard her reply and saw the paleness of her face, he still didn't want to give up. The Mo Qingcheng now who was exhausted, was even more enchanting than usual.

"Junior sister Qingcheng, why don't you give me a chance? I don't mind your past, and I will definitely be more outstanding compared to your husband." Qiu Mo spoke.

"You are simply shameless." Mo Qingcheng coldly spoke. She has already made things very clear but this Qiu Mo still said such a thing before Qin Wentian. No matter how good her temper was, she couldn't endure it any longer.

"Qiu Mo." The elder of the Qiu Clan frowned and lectured, "You even want someone who already has a husband? Don't you find it dirty?"

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian's body trembled in anger. He didn't think that Qiu Mo's elder would say such a humiliating thing in public. He stood up and coldly stared at the elder as he spoke, "Apologize."

Qiu Mo's elder turned to Qin Wentian. Upon feeling his aura, the elder coldly smiled, "Initial-stage immortal king? Not too bad but who the hell you think you are? You want me to apologize?"

He was from a great city in the territory controlled by the Paragon Sword Sect. As the ruler of a great city, he was treated as a VIP here in the emperor-ranked Unaging Immortal Mountains. How would he care about an initial-stage immortal king who apparently wasn't even important enough to be allocated a seat at the main table.

"She is my wife." Qin Wentian coldly spoke, announcing his sovereignty.

"So what?" That elder spoke mockingly. Earlier, when he saw Mo Qingcheng's beauty, he had wanted to match her with Qiu Mo. However, he didn't expect Qiu Mo to be humiliated by Mo Qingcheng, and was being scolded as shameless. How could he not be angry? Hence, he spoke out to insult Mo Qingcheng.

"Brother Qiu please cease your anger." The main peak's Pill Lord spoke. After that he turned to Qin Wentian, "Sir, please take your seat. This is the banquet of our Unaging Immortal Mountains, please obey the rules. If there are any matters you want to settle, please wait until the banquet has concluded."

Qin Wentian came here wanting to keep a low profile and didn't want to divulge his identity. However, when he saw Mo Qingcheng being insulted, he couldn't help it and stood out in anger. This matter caused his eyes to gleam with a cold light as he stared icily at the Qiu Clan's elder. In his eyes, this elder was already a dead man.

"Fine." Qin Wentian sat back down. Since this was the case, he will wait for the banquet to conclude before settling this debt.

"Qingcheng, I won't spare him." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Mo Qingcheng.

Mo Qingcheng turned back and smiled at him. As long as Qin Wentian was here for her, everything that occurred earlier didn't matter.

Ye Rou who was not far away, clearly had a look of unhappiness in her eyes. She didn't expect Mo Qingcheng's husband to be an immortal king. Even though Mo Qingcheng's husband was an initial-stage immortal king, it was still far stronger compared to her fiance who was merely at the peak of immortal-foundation. When she thought of this, her jealousy for Mo Qingcheng surged up again.

Senior brother Qiu Mo could even disregard her past and confess his love for Mo Qingcheng in public, yet Mo Qingcheng actually insulted him as shameless. How could she react like that?

If Qiu Mo had confessed to her instead, she would instantly toss aside her fiance and go with him.

"The pill concoction process isn't completed yet, don't be distracted." The main peak's Pill Lord spoke coldly, feeling as though he lost some face. He didn't know the situation earlier and spoke to help his beloved disciple Qiu Mo but he didn't expect her to reject Qiu Mo so directly, even calling Qiu Mo shameless. Seems like Mo Qingcheng's master must have spoiled her, doting on her overly, causing Mo Qingcheng to not know the proper etiquette.

Qiu Mo's eyes were cold as he stared in the direction of Qin Wentian.

Today, he already took a step back, lowering his pride and confessed his love to Mo Qingcheng. Because of her beauty and talent, he could even not care about her past matters. However, he was slapped publicly by her rejection.

Everyone had their own thoughts. The pill concoction banquet continued, while the spectators watched on with interest. This Qiu Mo was an extremely talented heaven chosen but he was actually so mesmerized by a woman.

If one were to speak of who was wrong? Evidently, Qiu Mo's rudeness was clear to all. That beautiful maiden already had a husband and her husband was here among the spectators too. Yet, this Qiu Mo actually made such a proposition, intent on smacking Qin Wentian's face publicly, full of disrespect. It was no wonder that the beautiful maiden would be angered.

More and more disciples finished their concoctions. Finally, among the 130 participants, although a rare minority failed, the vast majority had managed to concoct their chosen pills. But of course, there were differences in tiers among the pills created.

The eyes of the main peak's Pill Lord flashed. He glanced at the other Pill Lords and asked, "Let's grade the immortal-king level first. Everyone, what do you all feel the ranking should be?"

"Xue Qingyang's Dragon Emperor Immortal Pill is a middle-tier seventh-grade pill. The quality of it is very high, able to explosively enhance one's combat strength. In a short period of time, it can drastically strengthen a stellar martial cultivator. It should be ranked #1." One of the Pill Lords spoke. The main peak's Pill Lord nodded with a smile. He felt this way as well.

"What about others? How do you all feel?" The main peak's Pill Lord asked. It was like the number one ranked among immortal kings had already been determined.

"Fang Yan's Golden Vajra Pill should be ranked #2. This pill is extremely difficult to concoct and after consuming it, it would allow an immortal king to transform his body temporarily into an undying body of a golden buddha, greatly boosting one's defense." Another person commented. Everyone else had no objections, hence they nodded in agreement.

As Pill Lords of the nine peaks, their judgement was naturally extremely accurate. It was easy for them to tell which of the pills were superior.

"The pill Qiu Mo concocted should be ranked #3."

"That's right, #3."

Only to see that at this moment, Qiu Mo wasn't excited at all. His expression was very calm, but he was still bothered by what happened earlier. Qiu Mo's elder had a smile on his face. Since Qiu Mo was ranked #3, this meant that he was eligible to acquire a pill concocted by the Unaging Immortal Emperor and in the future, his status here would be more stable than before. From the perspective of their clan, this undoubtedly was extremely beneficial.

Seems like the clan has to heavily nurture Qiu Mo, doing their best to aid him in pill concoction, fulfilling all his requests.

Next, the rest of the top ten were announced and the pills they concocted were brought out to be evaluated. This caused the hearts of all the spectators to pound wildly. It was rare for a majority of them to come in contact with such powerful immortal pills. Today, their horizons could be considered to have been broadened.

Out of the top ten, there were already three from the main peak, including Xue Qingyang and Qiu Mo. This caused everyone to sigh in admiration. As expected of the main peak of the nine peaks indeed.

Next, it was time for the immortal-foundation realm disciples to be evaluated.

The main peak's Pill Lord was silent for a moment. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he pondered.

After that, he spoke, "For the immortal-foundation level, I think the Poison Calamity Pill by Jing Xiu should be ranked #1. If an immortal-foundation expert were to consume this pill, no matter how powerful they are, they would die directly without a doubt."

Among sixth-graded pills, other than immortal pills, there were also poison pills. Since this was a competition that tests the abilities of the alchemists to concoct pills, poison pills were naturally allowed as well.

"Senior brother, why didn't you check with any of us before announcing the result straight away?" Mo Qingcheng's master frowned. Before this for the judgement of the immortal-king level alchemists, the main peak's pill master sought the opinions of the other Pill Lords because he knew the results would be like what he expected.

But at this moment, during the judging for the immortal-foundation level. he actually directly announced who the #1 was and didn't seek the opinions of others. Clearly, this was extremely unusual.

"Why? Does junior sister disagree?" The main peak's Pill Lord asked.

"Obviously. The pill my disciple Mo Qingcheng has concocted is the Blood Refinement Soul Pill, the most supreme of all tiers among sixth-grades medicine. Being able to concoct such a rare pill given her current cultivation base, she should be ranked first. Jing Xiu's Poison Calamity Pill might not be bad, but the difficulty of concocting that pill pales in comparison to the Blood Refinement Soul Pill."

Mo Qingcheng's master was extremely unhappy. The thing that happened earlier was Mo Qingcheng's private matter and she had no wish to interfere. However, the ranking for this banquet should be a fair and open board thing. There was no way she could accept such an unfair judgement.

"The Blood Refinement Soul Pill might be extremely rare, but it is of no use to one's cultivation at all. How can it be ranked first? I think it can't even be ranked within the top three." The main peak's Pill Lord spoke. "Junior sister, you shouldn't be so biased because Mo Qingcheng is your disciple."

The master of Mo Qingcheng had an unsightly expression on her face. She then glanced at the other Pill Lords as she spoke, "What do you all think?"

"This…" Everyone felt a little awkward, it wasn't appropriate for them to speak too much since the main peak's Pill Lord had already made his stance clear.

If based purely on alchemic skills, clearly, the process of creating a Blood Refinement Soul Pill was higher in terms of difficulty. From this aspect, Mo Qingcheng should be ranked #1. However, because the main peak's Pill Lord had already spoken, the others didn't feel right to interfere.

Qin Wentian's countenance was unsightly as well. Qingcheng coughed out nine mouthfuls of blood to concoct this. Right now, her accomplishments were about to be neglected?

From what Mo Qingcheng's master had said, Qin Wentian was naturally very clear that the main peak's Pill Lord spoke first in order to forestall the others from speaking, making it awkward for the other Pill Lords to interfere.

"For the previous pill concoction banquet, we have always emphasized and decided the winner based on the disciple's ability to create pills. If we want to talk about the pill effects, who can say whether Feng Qingyang's Dragon Emperor Immortal Pill is better or Fang Yan's Golden Vajra Pill is better?" Mo Qingcheng's master argued.

"If we don't compare the effects of the pills, what is the meaning of this banquet?" The main peak's Pill Lord shook his head. "Among the immortal-foundation realm disciples, the Poison Calamity Pill should be ranked first. As for Mo Qingcheng, she at most can only be ranked number four."

"Master, it's okay." Mo Qingcheng's countenance was still as pale as before as she smiled at her master. Upon seeing Mo Qingcheng's state, her master couldn't help but to feel for this disciple of hers. How could she allow her disciple to suffer like this?

Qin Wentian's heart was filled with pain as well. Qingcheng put in so much effort to concoct her pill, and even the main peak's Pill Lord didn't dare to belittle the difficulty of the pill she concocted. But even so, he ranked her fourth.

Qingcheng might be able to accept this, but there was no way he could.

"Forget it." Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. He initially wanted to maintain his low profile and didn't want to disrupt Qingcheng's cultivation.

"I desire to ascend to the peak of the immortal realms. But even if my wife is a mere mortal with no cultivation, so what of it? If I really let her suffer such injustice, why the hell did I even cultivate for? What's the purpose of my cultivation?" Qin Wentian silently mused as he stood back up.

Chapter 1376: You don’t Need to Speak Ever Again

Qin Wentian stepped out, actually moving towards the pill concoction field.

Everyone turned and glanced at Qin Wentian. After that, they only saw him appearing beside Mo Qingcheng.

Mo Qingcheng also stared at Qin Wentian who was now beside her. Sweetly smiling, even if she suffered injustice, it was fine since Qin Wentian was beside her.

"Qingcheng, since this pill was concocted for me, can I consume it now?" Qin Wentian asked gently.

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng nodded. She then passed over her pill to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian accepted it and swallowed it down. A whiff of fragrance entered his body and very swiftly, a marvelous feeling flooded Qin Wentian. He could sense a longing in his soul. This longing, was Qingcheng's emotions for him.

"Is this pill your emotions for me?" Qin Wentian smiled as he asked.

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng smile grew even more radiant.

"Not only so." At this moment, Mo Qingcheng's master spoke. Qin Wentian glanced at her only to hear her slowly continuing, "Refining the blood essence to show her longing, this pill not only contains her emotions for you, but it also contains the entirety of her comprehensions and insights towards cultivation. However, because your cultivation realm is higher than Qingcheng, the pill wouldn't have too much of an effect on you. But because of its miraculous effects, it can be considered an extremely rare one.

Qin Wentian nodded. He could feel that in his soul, Qingcheng's intense feelings for him existed.

"Although the benefits aren't that obvious, this pill was made from love and the difficulty of concoction is definitely the highest. I still hold on to my view, Qingcheng should be ranked #1 in this competition at the immortal-foundation level." Mo Qingcheng's master resolutely spoke. This was her opinion and it wouldn't change. Even if the main peak's Pill Lord announced otherwise, she still maintain her own opinion.

"Thank you." Qin Wentian glanced at that middle-aged woman with a smile. "During these years, I have to thank senior for taking care of Qingcheng."

"Qingcheng is my disciple, no thanks are required." Mo Qingcheng's master shook her head.

"Master." Mo Qingcheng glanced at her master and bowed. She also knew that since Qin Wentian stood out now, most probably, her fate with the middle-aged woman as master and disciple would soon come to an end. Given Qin Wentian's temper, there was no way he would let things slide just like this. This also meant that he would offend many people from the Unaging Immortal Mountains, including the main peak's Pill Lord. Since this is the case, there was no way she could continue staying here to cultivate, let alone the fact that she has also already learned of the current chaotic situation here in the east from Qin Wentian.

Since Qin Wentian stepped out, it was no longer possible for her to remain here.

"In my heart, for this banquet competition, Qingcheng, you are number one." Mo Qingcheng's master smiled. This caused the Pill Lord of the main peak who was not far away to turn ashen. Wasn't this smacking his face?

Qin Wentian smiled at Qingcheng, "Since senior feels that you are ranked #1 given the difficulty of the pill you concocted, Qingcheng, you are the most outstanding of everyone here."

Mo Qingcheng had a sweet smile on her face. Her master and Qin Wentian were consoling her, causing her to feel very gratified. The opinions of others don't matter to her. And as for that little injustice, she didn't mind it either.

"You guys, have you all spoke enough?" A cold voice rang out. Qiu Mo's countenance was extremely ugly to behold. He was icily staring at Qin Wentian. "This place is the pill banquet of the Unaging Immortal Mountains. What qualifications do you have to stand in this field? You best screw off now."

"Junior sister Qingcheng, please take notice of the situation." Ye Rou spoke in a weird tone, sounding like she was reminding Mo Qingcheng out of good will.

"Pill banquet?" Qin Wentian stared at Qiu Mo. "So you know that this place is the pill banquet too? Since you know this, what the hell did you say to Qingcheng earlier? Does that have a connection with the pill banquet?"

"This is a matter of our Undying Immortal Mountains. At the banquet, no matter what I say or do, you have no rights to interfere." Qiu Mo was jealous of Qin Wentian. He had admired Mo Qingcheng for a long time but Mo Qingcheng was so fixed on her love for this guy. In addition, Qin Wentian was just as young as him, and had the same cultivation realm as well. This was why he was jealous.

This place, the Undying Immortal Mountains, could be considered his home ground. When had it ever become Qin Wentian's turn to speak here?

"Is that so? You say those things to my wife before my face and I don't have the qualifications to interfere? That man sitting on there at the platform is your elder, right? Is he someone from the Unaging Immortal Mountains as well? Didn't he bark a lot?" Qin Wentian took another step forward. Although his voice was as calm as ever, his robes were fluttering despite there being no wind. Those who understood Qin Wentian all knew that the him right now, was extremely enraged.

"You want to compare yourself with me?" The Qiu Clan's elder stared mockingly at Qin Wentian, his eyes gleaming with coldness. "What qualifications do you have to compare yourself with me?"

"I naturally wouldn't compare myself to you. You are just an old thing with no education. Comparing myself to you would be an insult to me." Qin Wentian coldly mocked. After that, the eyes of the Qiu Clan elder narrowed as a wave of cold intent gushed forth from him.

"Master, this man is insulting my elder and is causing a ruckus here at our pill concoction banquet. Can master allow disciple to act?" Qiu Mo clasped his hands to the main peak's Pill Lord.

"Fine." The Pill Lord nodded. With just a single word, he showed that he was on the side of his beloved disciple Qiu Mo.

Qiu Mo coldly stared at Qin Wentian before turning to Mo Qingcheng. "The words I said before this are still effective. You should consider them. Maybe, I can show mercy and spare him."

"Shameless to the max." Mo Qingcheng icily stared at Qiu Mo. It was very rare for her to loathe someone, but Qiu Mo kept saying such disgusting stuff to her in front of Qin Wentian. He had succeeded in making her loathe him.

"Alright, since you said this. I have nothing to reply. I can only use reality to tell you how bad your judgement is." Qiu Mo snarled as he stared at Mo Qingcheng. After that, flames erupted around him as the temperature soared up. Immortal king might gushed forth in waves, moving towards Qin Wentian.

"Qingcheng, step back first." Qin Wentian spoke gently to Mo Qingcheng.

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng nodded. The other disciples who were participants of the pill concoction banquet all retreated as well, leaving the vast field for Qin Wentian and Qiu Mo. Although this battlefield was considered somewhat small for two immortal kings, both of them didn't say anything. They both felt that they could settle the battle faster since the battlefield was smaller.

"RUMBLE~" Fearsome heat engulfed the area, as a fire-law domain appeared, surrounding Qin Wentian. In an instant, the handsome Qiu Mo turned into a king of flames. He was immersed in the fearsome fire and resembled a divinity that could burn everything into cinders.

Qiu Mo waved his hands causing the law energy of fire to sweep towards Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian calmly stood there, radiating with his own law attribute energy. The terrifying flames unceasingly enveloped him yet they were blocked by a formless barrier of light, unable to come into contact with his body.

Qiu Mo advanced forward, directly crossing through space. The pill concoction field was simply too small in the perspective of an immortal king. The distance between the two combatants could be closed with a single step.

Qiu Mo appeared right in front of Qin Wentian as a palm imprint of fire slammed out towards his target. This fiery palm strike contained a terrifying destructive might within, the heat was so great that the water vapor in the air in the surroundings had all evaporated.

Law energy flowed around Qin Wentian as a divine light covered him.

"Is he courting death, why isn't he evading or counter-attacking?" Everyone stared at Qin Wentian. In the time it took for a spark to fly off a flint, Qiu Mo could slam the fiery palm right into Qin Wentian. However, the ending was different from what everyone anticipated. Qin Wentian wasn't incinerated at all. He simply stood there calmly, as terrifying law energy fluctuations rumbled the area around him.

"Not good." Qiu Mu's elder and the main peak's Pill Lord exclaimed. After that, they only saw Qin Wentian forming his palm imprint and striking out with the speed of lightning, erupting forth with a terrifying suppression might.

"BOOM!" A heavy explosion rang out. This palm strike wasn't used in conjunction with any innate technique, there was only pure force in it. The palm strike harshly smacked Qiu Mo across his face and with a resounding bang, Qiu Mo was slammed heavily into the ground, causing cracks to appear on the surface. One could very well imagine the power of this palm strike. The hearts of the spectators were all pounding wildly.

As an immortal king, Qiu Mo has never felt so humiliated in all the years he had cultivated. His attacks were unable to harm his opponent, yet a single smack from Qin Wentian had actually slammed him into the ground, causing him to cough out fresh blood as his teeth shattered from the impact.

He only felt a ringing sound in his head, that strike was so sudden that his mind was a complete blank. He had even forgotten how to think.

"Get up." Qin Wentian's cold voice echoed out. Qiu Mo climbed to his feet after a few moments.

"BOOM!" Another slap smacked down. A thunderous boom echoed out as the ground trembled once again as cracks appeared. The two sides of Qiu Mo's face were completely swollen. The impact of these two slaps by Qin Wentian had caused Qiu Mo to turn stupid.

"HOW DARE YOU!" Qiu Mo's elder finally recovered from his daze. Coldness gushed forth from him, yet he only saw Qin Wentian grabbing the neck of Qiu Mo and hoist him up in the air. A wild killing intent radiated from him, enveloping this entire space. Everyone here felt a bone-chilling coldness when they felt that.

"Daring to speak such words in front of me to my wife. From now onwards, you need not speak any longer." Qin Wentian coldly stated. After that, his finger pierced towards Qiu Mo's mouth as a violent destructive streak of sword qi drilled into it. Qiu Mo wailed in anguish, the sound he made was extremely hoarse as though he couldn't even produce a scream now.

Everyone felt their hearts shaking in terror when they saw this scene.

Qiu Mo shamelessly pursued Mo Qingcheng in front of her husband, wanting Mo Qingcheng to forsake Qin Wentian to go with him. Qiu Mo told Mo Qingcheng that he wouldn't mind her past and he even stated how bad Mo Qingcheng's judgement was!

Earlier, everyone believed in Qiu Mo's words and felt that Qin Wentian wasn't someone worthy of Mo Qingcheng. However, nobody expected the scene to turn out like this.

However, when the two of them fought, Qiu Mo was actually so weak? Unable to withstand a single strike.

From now on, his mouth was ruined. He would never be able to speak again!

Chapter 1377: Who is the one bullying with force?

Numerous figures stood up, the Qiu Clan's elder was radiating a clear killing intent.

"IMPUDENT!" Qiu Mo's master, the Pill Lord of the main peak didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so audacious, acting in such an overbearing manner towards Qiu Mo in front of his face. From now on, Qiu Mo can never speak again.

Did Qin Wentian ever place the Unaging Immortal Mountains in his eyes?

Everyone was stunned by Qin Wentian's action. Not only because of Qin Wentian's powerful strength, but also because of the things he did. It was simply too crazy, and audacious.

"It's best for all of you not to move recklessly." Qin Wentian still had his hand around Qiu Mo's neck, hoisting him up in the air. As long as he willed it, Qiu Mo's life would be taken away. Right now, Qiu Mo had turned ashen, but his killing intent was still flaring explosively.

"Do you know what you are doing?" The expression of Qiu Mo's master was exceedingly grim. He still sat there as he coldly spoke.

"My wife is also a disciple of the Unaging Immortal Mountains but when she was humiliated, the Unaging Immortal Mountains seem to be blind. In that case, I can only take things into my own hands. Qin Wentian spoke, his voice was cold but calm, as though he was only doing an extremely ordinary thing. How could he endure it when he saw Qingcheng suffering injustice and being insulted by others?

Since he couldn't endure it, he will just use the most direct method to make those who insulted Qingcheng to pay a price.

Qiu Mo was still uttering unintelligible words. Fresh blood flowed continuously from his mouth and his countenance was like dead ashes. It seemed that he had forgotten he was in pain, his eyes were ruthlessly staring at Qin Wentian, glinting with hatred.

"There's no need to look at me like this. Didn't you bring this on yourself?" Qin Wentian glanced at Qiu Mo.

The hearts of everyone trembled. In truth, this was truly brought upon by himself, Qiu Mo. It was just that everyone felt that the unlucky one would be Qin Wentian. None of them expected that the unlucky one would be Qiu Mo.

Ye Rou simply didn't dare to believe her eyes. Until now, she had yet to recover from her daze. Before this, she didn't have Qin Wentian in her eyes at all. Yet now, Qin Wentian was so domineering.

For Mo Qingcheng, he actually dared to make Qiu Mo into a mute. This was simply too crazy, completely toppling her imagination.

Anger for the sake of a beauty, however, why was he so daring?

This place, was the Unaging Immortal Mountains, an emperor-ranked power!

"Merely verbal arguments. Why must you be so ruthless?" Xue Qingyang turned to Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke. He was the number one genius of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, and was respected widely by all. Usually, Qiu Mo was very respectful to him and their relationship wasn't bad. When he saw Qin Wentian acting so insolently, he naturally didn't feel happy.

"Verbal arguments? If I tell your wife to forsake you in front of your face and follow me from now on. What will you feel then?" Qin Wentian icily stared at Xue Qingyang. "For those who aren't involved, you best not interfere in this matter."

Xue Qingyang frowned. Although Mo Qiu had gone too far, Qin Wentian actually dared to speak in this manner to him.

"What if I want to interfere?" Xue Qingyang coldly snorted.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over as he laughed, "If you want to interfere, I will treat it like you want to bear the weight of this matter for him."

"I will bear the weight then. So what of it?" Xue Qingyang's countenance turned sharp.

"I'm afraid you won't be able to bear it." Qin Wentian coldly smiled.

"Is that so?" Xue Qingyang stared at Qin Wentian before glancing towards Mo Qingcheng. "Since this is the case, let me remind you that Mo Qingcheng is also here on the Unaging Immortal Mountains. Do you think you can leave here alive by capturing Qiu Mo?"

Qin Wentian's left hand was grabbed around Qiu Mo's neck. He stepped out as the law energy from his body madly surged forth, causing the destructive might in the area to churn wildly. With just a single step, he crossed an unimaginably vast amount of distance and appeared right before Xue Qingyang.

Xue Qingyang was already prepared. His fire-law attribute energy gushed forth madly, as his aura as an initial-stage immortal king erupted outwards. Compared to Qiu Mo, his strength was much higher, and so was the intensity of his flames.

Flowers of destructive flames blossomed in the skies, radiating brilliant light. Xue Qingyang stretched out his hand, sending the flames towards the palm strike Qin Wentian launched his way.

Qin Wentian's palm was shimmering with a dazzling light. The destructive God's Hand was imbued with supreme strength and he didn't choose to avoid the incoming flames. The blistering heat of the flames wanted to incinerate Qin Wentian's palm as they danced wildly, covering the palm imprint.

"EXPLODE!" Xue Qingyang coldly roared. The people in the surroundings hurriedly retreated, and even the main peak's Pill Lord was shocked. With a flash of his silhouette, the Pill Lord appeared behind Xue Qingyang and waved his hands, creating a barrier to block the aftershock. At the point of collision between the attacks of the two combatants, the area in the surroundings was completely decimated. At this moment, heavenly fire rained down on Qin Wentian but Qin Wentian's palm imprint expanded abruptly, blotting out everything as he smothered the flames.

"BANG!"

With a thunderous explosion, the flames were smothered and not only so, the remnants of energy within the palm strike travelled through the air and slammed into Xue Qingyang. The destructive energy ravaged the interior of his body, causing Xue Qingyang's expression to drastically changed. Terror painted his face but at this moment, the Pill Lord of the main peak behind him directly acted. With a wave, a blast of energy offset Qin Wentian's attack as the Pill Lord brought Xue Qingyang and retreated hurriedly, returning to their original positions.

Xue Qingyang sweated cold sweat. There was still a wave of destructive might within his body. His countenance now was as pale as paper.

"I initially still thought that you really could bear the weight of that. But in the end, you still had to depend on your master. In the future, you best think clearly before you do things. Don't assume that you are very powerful and can bear the weight of troubles for others. You are far from qualified." Qin Wentian sarcastically spoke. The hearts of the disciples of the Unaging Immortal Mountains pounded intensely. How can this be possible? Qin Wentian was actually so powerful? Even their senior brother Xue Qingyang couldn't withstand a single strike?

Xue Qingyang was the number one ranker of this pill concoction banquet and his cultivation base was the highest among them.

But even he couldn't stand up to a single attack and needed the main peak's Pill Lord to save him. If not, that earlier attack by Qin Wentian was already enough to destroy him.

"Qingyang, are you alright?" Xue Qingyang's elder appeared beside him. How dangerous, the pride of their clan was narrowly killed by a single strike.

"I'm fine." Xue Qingyang nodded but there was no way for his heart to remain calm.

That strike earlier had completely caused his pride to crumble. Before this, the glory he had as the #1 ranker of the pill concoction banquet, was also disintegrated by that single strike.

Qiu Mo's elder walked towards Qin Wentian as a startling aura gushed forth. "Release Qiu Mo!"

"Do you understand what you are doing?" The main peak's Pill Lord stared at Qin Wentian, his eyes flashing with killing intent as well.

"Let's act directly. If he dares to touch Qiu Mo, we will finish off his wife too." Xue Qingyang's elder coldly spoke, his tone menacing to the extreme. His Xue Clan was a peak power in the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

However, in the Unaging Immortal Mountains, there was actually someone who almost killed Xue Qingyang. This was simply unforgivable.

Qiu Mo's elder waved his hand and after that, numerous experts stepped out, moving towards Mo Qingcheng, surrounding her. The other disciples all retreated, none of them wanted to be swept up in it.

"How dare you? Mo Qingcheng is also a disciple of our Unaging Immortal Mountains. What are you all doing?" Mo Qingcheng's master slammed her palm down, shattering the table before her as she stood up.

"Junior sister, have your eyes gone blind? That man is threatening the lives of my disciple and even now, you still want to be on the side of unfairness and help your own disciple?" The main peak Pill Lord's voice was extremely cold. Two of the disciples he was most proud of, Xue Qingyang and Qiu Mo, were so domineeringly humiliated by Qin Wentian. Today, there was no way he was going to let Qin Wentian leave this place alive.

"What a good Pill Lord of the main peak." Qin Wentian laughed. "Earlier when Qiu Mo disrespected my wife, this old bastard even added in an insult. At that time, why didn't anyone stand out for my wife? But now, all of you are coming out one by one, using force to bully the weak?"

"That's what we are doing. So what of it?" Xue Qingyang's elder icily spat, his voice was arrogant to the extreme. One could say that a clan of high status would naturally be arrogant.

"So what of it?" Qin Wentian stared at the elder as he laughed. "Xue Qingyang says he wants to bear the weight for Qiu Mo, but I didn't really want to take his life. However, since you already put things so clearly, this means that today, you are certain that you really want to bear the weight for Qiu Mo, and this includes the Pill Lord of the main peak too, right?"

Qin Wentian coldly laughed. He brought Qiu Mo as he walked back. At this moment, Mo Qingcheng was already surrounded and the other disciples of the Unaging Immortal Mountains have retreated. There was only one figure that was near Mo Qingcheng - Qi Yu of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"Since you all want to play, let's play. I want to see who exactly is the one using force to bully the weak!" Qin Wentian angrily roared. He let go of Qiu Mo and instantly slammed a palm onto him. In the next moment, boundless tyrannical waves of destruction rushed into Qiu Mo's body, sending him flying through the air. The Qiu Clan's elder flashed as he caught hold of Qiu Mo's body. However, he only discovered that the destructive energy within Qiu Mo's body was destroying Qiu Mo's bones and meridians, directly crippling him.

"RUMBLE!" A fearsome killing intent engulfed the area. Qin Wentian calmly walked to the side of Mo Qingcheng and spoke to Qi Yu. Kill everyone who is surrounding her."

"I hear and obey." Qi Yu nodded. In an instant, the heavens and earth rumbled as a fearsome aura erupted forth. Qi Yu's body turned gigantic, and a towering battle might radiated from him. The Qi Yu right now resembled a god of battle.

"BOOM!" A terrifying law domain erupted, sealing the entire space nearby. For the experts earlier who surrounded Mo Qingcheng, all of them were trapped inside this powerful law domain, and right now, terror could be seen on all of their faces.

Qi Yu slammed out with his palm, in an instant, the law attribute energies within his domain crackled wildly, powered by battle saint might, intent on destruction. Those experts within the domain sought to flee frenziedly, there were also some who released their own domains to resist. However, when that palm strike of destruction slammed out, there were only screams of misery.

In a mere instant, all the experts inside the domain simply perished. On the ancient peak far in the distance in front of Qi Yu, a gigantic palm imprint could be seen embedded there.

Right now, complete silence descended upon this area. Nobody dared to speak!

Chapter 1378: Wanting to bear the weight? Tell me how can you?

"This man is so powerful." Only now did the people in the surroundings realize that the figure standing behind Mo Qingcheng earlier, was actually so terrifying.

A single strike from him had completely decimated a group of experts.

The Pill Lord of the main peak was stunned, the elder from the Qiu Clan was stunned. Even the elder and other experts from Xue Qingyang's clan were extremely shocked. They didn't seem to have woken up from shock yet.

"Peak-level immortal king." The expressions of everyone changed. Even in this place, a peak-tier immortal king was at the absolute top here. Other than a few others who could stand equal to him, everyone else were simply ants in comparison.

However, why was such a powerful character standing silently behind Mo Qingcheng?

Who is he exactly?

The crowd saw Qin Wentian who was now beside Mo Qingcheng, as well as that expert who was standing ahead of them, when they recalled the command Qin Wentian gave earlier, all of them felt chills down their spine.

This peak-level immortal king actually listened to Qin Wentian's command.

Earlier, Qin Wentian gave the command to kill, hence he acted, destroying all the experts surrounding Mo Qingcheng, with a single strike.

Only to see that at this moment, Qin Wentian held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand as his gaze surveyed the surroundings. "Qingcheng, for those who insulted you today, they will definitely have to pay a price. I initially thought that you can quietly cultivate here in the Unaging Immortal Mountains. But since this place doesn't deserve to have you, just follow me back then."

"Mhm, I'll listen to you." Mo Qingcheng nodded lightly. When Qin Wentian stood out earlier, she already knew it was impossible for her to stay here any longer.

"Who are you exactly?" At this moment, the Pill Lord of the main peak finally sensed that Qin Wentian wasn't an ordinary character. With such powerful combat prowess as well as a top-tier expert like Qi Yu protecting him, what identity would he have?

Qi Yu's cultivation base was the same as him, a peak-tier immortal king. He temporarily couldn't be sure of Qi Yu's actual combat prowess as there basically was no way to tell how strong Qi Yu truly was from that single strike earlier. He only knew that Qi Yu was very terrifying.

"You don't need to care who I am. Since you all want to bear the weight for Qiu Mo, you all can bear it together then. Now, I want this man to die, whoever wants to obstruct me, can come and test the water. You will be responsible for your own consequences." Qin Wentian glanced at everyone, his finger was pointing to the elder of the Qiu Clan, the man who insulted Qingcheng earlier by saying to Qiu Mo that doesn't he feel dirty for wanting a woman who already has a husband.

It was precisely this sentence which enraged Qin Wentian. Initially, Qin Wentian planned to settle this matter with the Qiu elder after the pill concoction banquet ends. However, Mo Qingcheng was clearly suffering from injustice during the judgement. This unfair treatment made it so that Qin Wentian couldn't bear it any longer.

That elder turned ashen. His clan was the king of a city controlled in the area lorded over by the Paragon Sword Sect, and it was an extremely majestic great city, with immense power. His own cultivation base was very strong as well, a peak-tier immortal king. Although he was only at the early-phase of the peak-tier, he can already be considered someone at the peak, let alone the fact that there are others more powerful than him within his clan.

"Qi Yu, finish him." Qin Wentian spoke. Qi Yu was one of the strongest three among the immortal kings that followed Qin Wentian from the Battle Saint Tribe. With regards to his strength, Qin Wentian had no doubts at all.

"Yes." Qi Yu's giant frame stepped forth. With just a single step, the entire mountain peak was trembling. The expression of the elder drastically changed, he stared at Qin Wentian, "Who are you exactly?"

"The dead need not know such info." Qin Wentian's expression was ice-like. This caused the countenance of the Qiu Clan's elder to turn extremely ugly. He had no choice but to release his own aura.

"Bang!" Qi Yu stepped out, causing the ground to crack. The elder instantly stepped back but he was already enveloped by Qi Yu's law domain. The elder's body expanded in form as well as his aura was unleashed to the limits.

Immortal kings formed bodies of laws, their bodies were extremely strong, filled with boundless strength.

Qi Yu had a calm expression on his face. Although his opponent was also a peak-tier immortal king, his opponent was merely at the early-phase. Although they were on the same level, the difference in strength between early and late-phase can be quite substantial. Unless one's combat prowess was strong enough to jump levels to fight opponents, a slight difference would usually be enough to cause the inferior one to be defeated, let alone when the difference is so great between an early-phase peak-tier and a true peak-tier immortal king.

Qi Yu's entire body shone with immortal light. He erupted forth with battle saint might, sweeping over everything, causing the sky to change color. The roars of divine apes filled the air, augmenting his strength. The Qi Yu at this moment was like an ancient god of battle, capable of challenging the entire world.

"BOOM!" Boundless battle saint might reinforced his domain as a towering immortal rod appeared in the air. Qi Yu grabbed it and swung forth, causing the clouds to churn wildly as a tornado ravaged the surroundings, shaking the hearts of the spectators as they all hurriedly retreated.

After that, the crowd only saw Qi Yu taking another step forward. That Qiu Clan's elder was directly flung through the air from the impact of blocking. In the next instant, shadows of the divine rod filled the skies, raining down with brutal might.

Upon sensing Qi Yu's strength, the Qiu Clan's elder turned pale. Such power made him feel despair. It was very difficult for immortal kings on the same level to kill each other. However, the cultivation base of him and Qi Yu didn't differ by just a bit. In fact, he was inferior in all aspects when compared. Even if he was at the true peak of the immortal king realm, the same as Qi Yu, he wouldn't be able to defeat his opponent.

Xue Qingyang's elder and the main peak's Pill Lord were both breathless with shock. When they saw the shadows of the rod filling the sky, they knew they wouldn't be able to block this attack as well. At the next moment, a roar of agony filled with despair echoed out but sadly, it was unable to change the fate of the Qiu Clan's elder. He didn't choose to fight any longer, choosing to flee instead. But, could he flee?

The rod shadows thundered down with indomitable force, causing the entire space to shake as the mountains nearby all crumbled, turning into dust. The Qiu Clan's elder was brutally smashed by the rod attack.

An early-phase peak-tier immortal king died just like that.

The raging wind didn't cease yet, destructive might swept over the surroundings as the landscape now had changed beyond recognition. An attack from a peak-tier immortal king could level mountains to flat ground effortlessly. If an immortal king was so bored as to unleash attacks with their full strength with no reason at all, it wasn't an exaggeration to say that they could shape the world.

Clouds of dust flew about in the air, the crippled Qiu Mo was still struggling while lying on the ground. He climbed to his feet with difficulty, but when he saw the experts surrounding Mo Qingcheng being slaughtered, when he saw his elder being killed so easily, when he thought of himself now as a cripple, boundless despair filled his heart. He wanted to vent his emotions by howling but he couldn't utter any sounds at all.

He, Qiu Mo, was a very proud man. But was he very strong? He told Mo Qingcheng to be his woman in front of Qin Wentian, saying that he wouldn't mind her past and he would definitely be more outstanding than her husband. But now, when he thought back to what he said, he only found his words extremely ridiculous. A smile of utter despair appeared on his face, he had no will to even live on any longer.

One cannot escape the karma of one's own sins!

Right now, he wanted to ask who Qin Wentian was exactly but he had no way to speak. He brought trouble upon himself and caused his clan members here to be wiped out. He was a sinner, a sinner with no hope of reprieve from condemnation.

Moving forward with difficulty, he walked to the crumbled mountain. A moment later, he tossed himself off the precipice, deciding to die. Was there still any meaning to live on?

This scene caused a great rush of impact to the spectators. They didn't pity Qiu Mo, they only felt that the changes to the situation were simply too fast.

Not long ago on the pill concoction field, Qiu Mo acquired glory by ranking within the top three. He was extremely arrogant, speaking like a king to Mo Qingcheng and even his elder stepped in to throw in an insult. But what now? At that time, everyone thought that Mo Qingcheng shouldn't resist, so what if her husband was here? Qiu Mo was strong individually, talented and had a powerful background. Not a single one of the Unaging Immortal Mountain's disciples said anything because they assumed what he said was only natural. After all, in the cruel immortal realms, it was a fact that might makes right.

But now, the members of the Qiu Clan that was here, had been completely annihilated. Their elder who was a peak-tier immortal king, was smashed apart with a single rod attack.

Qin Wentian once asked them, are you all using force to bully the weak?

Someone replied, 'Yes, so what of it?'

Qin Wentian then replied, 'Since you all want to play, let's play. I want to see who exactly is the one using force to bully the weak.'

Who here can use force to bully him, Qin Wentian, and his wife Mo Qingcheng?

The impact to Ye Rou was the greatest. Her body was still trembling. Qiu Mo had died, giving up on life, choosing to commit suicide. In the past, she assumed Mo Qingcheng's judgement was very bad and she was jealous of her talent and beauty. She felt that Mo Qingcheng should have accepted Qiu Mo's pursuing. Her husband came here alone to support her and seemed to have no background at all. How could he compare to the Qiu Clan?

However, at this moment, she saw that Qin Wentian only brought a single man with him. That man, was sufficient to sweep everything aside, easily slaughtering a group of powerful experts.

Mo Qingcheng had bad judgement?

Given a beautiful woman like Mo Qingcheng, how could her husband be weak?

Ye Rou only knew now how foolish her thinking previously was.

The shock of the main peak's Pill Lord was extremely intense too. But at this moment, he actually didn't know what to say. He didn't dare to speak recklessly. When Qi Yu struck out earlier, he could tell how powerful Qi Yu was. Undoubtedly, Qi Yu was stronger than him.

But a top-tier expert like Qi Yu was actually following the command of Qin Wentian.

In that case, who was Qin Wentian? Which power was he from?

The answer seemed to be already clear.

Being able to mobilize a peak-tier immortal king as a guard and command the guard to kill people, is there still a need to speculate what power he was from?

Clearly, Qin Wentian was from a power on the same level as the Unaging Immortal Mountains - an emperor-ranked power.

Since he could speculate this, it was only natural the people of the Xue Clan could too. Xue Qingyang's expression was extremely unsightly. This matter originally had nothing to do with him, it started because of Qiu Mo's rudeness. But because Qiu Mo was his junior brother, he stepped out to aid him, causing him to be implicated in this now.

Xue Qingyang's elder's expression was also extremely ugly to behold. There was someone from his Xue Clan that had joined the Taihua Immortal Dynasty hence they were naturally proud and had no one in their eyes. How could they place a mere initial-stage immortal king in their vision? So what if they were using force to bully the weak?

But now, who was the weak one?

"Didn't you want to bear the weight for Qiu Mo?" Qin Wentian glanced at Xue Qingyang. This statement made Xue Qingyang speechless, he didn't know what to reply. Did he still dare to say yes to this statement?

"You want to kill me along with my wife?" Qin Wentian glanced towards Xue Qingyang's elder, as well as those experts who sat beside the main peak's Pill Lord earlier. He then coldly continued, "Tell me, how are you guys going to bear the weight for Qiu Mo?"

Chapter 1379: Enraged for the Sake of Mo Qingcheng

The eyes of that elder from the Xue Clan flickered incessantly, the him now was no longer as arrogant as earlier. When he saw how domineering Qin Wentian was, and personally sensed the fearsome might of Qi Yu, he naturally already understood that the background of this young man before him, was extremely strong, and wasn't any weaker than his Xue Clan.

In that case, he no longer wanted to step into this pool of muddy water.

As for the words spoken earlier, it made it seem as though he was on the back of a charging tiger and it was difficult to dismount. He didn't expect an initial-stage immortal king to actually be so powerful.

Also, this Unaging Immortal Mountains was truly useless. With a character with such an impressive background here, they actually didn't know of this person's identity?

When he thought of this, he could only silently curse in his heart. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "Sir, there might be some misunderstandings between us earlier…"

"How can there be any misunderstandings?" Even before the elder finished speaking, Qin Wentian directly interjected.

What a joke, since they said they wanted to bear the weight and used Qingcheng's life to threaten him, how can the current situation be so easily settled with a single word 'misunderstanding'?

If he didn't let Qi Yu display his strength, would the attitude of these people change? Would they spare him, would they spare Qingcheng?

Right now, after seeing Qi Yu's strength, he wanted to brush things off saying it was a misunderstanding? How ridiculous.

Qin Wentian's cold words caused the elder to frown. He then continued, "I'm someone from the Xue Clan of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, my Xue Clan has countless experts among our midst. Earlier, it's our fault, we had no idea of your identity or we definitely wouldn't have interfered in this matter. But since we already know now, we naturally wouldn't interfere any longer. Why don't we become friends instead?"

"You really overestimate yourself." Qin Wentian's expression was incomparably calm. He didn't think that even now, the other party didn't seem to want to apologize or admit to their mistake at all.

An expert from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty? Wanting to become friends?

In those years back then, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty had also participated in the adjudication battle. Although they were merely in the background, they had contributed plenty to aid the Skymist Immortal Empire. Wanting to be friends now?

"Qi Yu, kill him."

Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The calmness in his voice caused everyone to feel chills, as their bodies all trembled from the coldness.

Just as the peak-tier immortal king from the Xue CLan of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty wanted to warm the relationship between them, and sought to be friends, Qin Wentian actually gave such a cold reply.

Kill him!

Such a cold voice yet filled with such calmness, caused everyone to feel terrified. In his eyes, even a major power of the eastern regions, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, counted for nothing? Who was he exactly?

"Yes." What was even more terrifying was Qi Yu's reply. It was so calm and had no trace of hesitation. It was as though as long as Qin Wentian commanded, he would definitely do it, even though the other party had a connection with the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

The calm exchange between the two told everyone the absolute control Qin Wentian had over Qi Yu, this peak-tier immortal king. Having a peak-tier immortal king submitting to him completely, wasn't this simply further proof that Qin Wentian wasn't merely from a simple emperor-ranked power?

"Bang!" When Qi Yu's foot stomped down, the hearts of everyone pounded wildly.

Wasn't it already enough to kill the elder of the Qiu Clan?

Earlier, this expert from the Xue Clan had threatened Qin Wentian to release Qiu Mo, using Mo Qingcheng's life as the bargain. He said that if Qin Wentian didn't release Qiu Mo, he would kill Mo Qingcheng in response. At that time, this expert of the Xue Clan had nothing in his eyes and was filled with extreme confidence, unexcelled in the world.

But now, given this situation, things seem to have reversed.

Qin Wentian seemed to be the one filled with extreme confidence instead.

"Sir, why must you be so ruthless?" The expression of the elder of the Xue Clan drastically changed. His cultivation base wasn't higher than the Qiu Clan's elder. Although he was a peak-tier immortal king, he was merely an early-phase one. His combat prowess might be a bit stronger but it was still impossible for him to stand against Qi Yu.

That tyrannical strike by Qi Yu earlier had completely stunned everyone. This was the reason why he decided to lower himself and suggested making friends with Qin Wentian.

However, what he didn't expect that Qin Wentian didn't want to make friends with him. Qin Wentian was merely giving a chance earlier for him to apologize and to make amends. However, he didn't do so. Since he doesn't even have the situational awareness to understand this, and even took out his connection with the Taihua Immortal Dynasty to pressure Qin Wentian, is there still even a need to say anything more?

When the terrifying pressure gushed forth, nobody dared to block Qi Yu, including the other experts of the Xue Clan. Qi Yu's aura was simply too frightening.

The people between them all moved aside, causing the expression of the elder of the Xue Clan to turn incredibly unsightly. He then spoke, "I apologize for the words I said earlier. That was my mistake. Sir please retract your command."

"Aren't these words spoken because of your pride as well?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Since he already gave the order to Qi Yu, how could he retract it? Qi Yu's law domain enveloped the other party and when a towering and terrifying battle saint might bore down on him, the Xue Clan's elder finally started to tremble. Although his own law domain was unleashed, he discovered that his strength was completely suppressed when he encountered Qi Yu's domain.

Before his opponent, his strength was simply insignificant.

Xue Qingyang stared at this scene as his heart trembled, his countenance turned as pale as paper.

The Xuan Clan initially wouldn't have been in opposition with Qin Wentian. It was him who believed himself infallible, wanting to bear the weight for Qiu Mo, and interfered in this matter. If this caused a calamity to befall the Xue Clan, what was he?

An immortal rod formed of law energy appeared once again, exuding tyrannical force as it smashed downwards. The elder of the Xue Clan trembled from terror as he hurriedly roared, "Sir, please spare me. I'm willing to make amends for my mistake!"

"RUMBLE!" The immortal rod smashed down. How would Qi Yu hold back? The elder of the Xue Clan roared in rage as a terrifying surge of might gushed forth from him. An immortal diagram manifested and sought to entangle the rod that was smashing down.

But at this moment, the immortal rod suddenly transformed into a million rod phantoms, blotting out the sky, wanting to destroy everything within the reach of the rods.

"BANG!" Another thunderous boom rang out. There were no flowery techniques, pure force was everything. When the disparity in strength was so great to a certain extent, pure force could achieve absolute suppression. At that time, using the most direct and violent method of attack would be the most effective.

The nearby mountains all crumbled, the entire place was shaking. The eardrums of everyone were vibrating intensely from the explosive sounds but at this moment, none of the spectators could care about that. Their hearts pounded intensely, staring at that elder of the Xue Clan who disappeared.

Yet another strike, achieving the same effect, as tyrannical as before. So what if your clan is someone from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty? I can still kill you with a single rod attack.

The other experts of the Xue Clan stared at each other in dismay, as well as fear. Xue Qingyang kept trembling. Despite him being an immortal king, he actually couldn't control his body.

"Tell me, how are you going to bear the weight?" Qin Wentian stared at Xue Qingyang.

Staring at Qin Wentian's eyes, Xue Qingyang only felt all his confidence and pride instantly being disintegrated. He only felt that he was extremely pitiful, and he didn't mind begging just to survive.

The him right now, had no doubts whether if Qin Wentian dared to kill him or not. The scene earlier was still flashing through his mind.

How? How can he bear the weight of this?

Using his life to bear it?

He wasn't willing to. He, Xue Qingyang, was the #1 ranker of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, a disciple of the highest talent. Will he die just like this today?

The more unwilling he felt, the more agony he was in. Finally, with a thudding sound, he knelt before Qin Wentian.

"I apologize for my words earlier." Xue Qingyang lowered his head, his voice sounding extremely unnatural. With this kneel, all his pride shattered. He was kneeling because he didn't want to die.

A heaven chosen at the immortal king realm, the incomparably arrogant Xue Qingyang was now kneeling on the ground, begging for forgiveness. This scene brought an immense rush of impact to the disciples of the Unaging Immortal Mountains.

Qin Wentian glanced at Xue Qingyang. Wanting an immortal king to kneel was something that took courage. Xue Qingyang's fear of him must have reached the limits. In order to live, such a prideful person actually chose to kneel, giving up his dignity.

"Actually, even if you didn't kneel, I wouldn't kill you." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Xue Qingyang's luck wasn't back, he didn't say anything that stirred Qin Wentian's killing intent. Hence, he had never thought about taking Xue Qingyang's life.

Xue Qingyang's veins throbbed violently while his fists were tightly clenched after he heard that. Qin Wentian calmly watched on, there was no expression on his face. A moment later, he turned his glance towards the main peak's Pill Lord.

The main peak's Pill Lord's countenance alternated between shades of white and green. He stared at Qin Wentian and asked again, "Who are you?"

"You don't have the qualifications to know." Qin Wentian coldly replied. After that, he held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand as they walked towards the main peak's Pill Lord.

Qi Yu followed beside Qin Wentian, and just like that, the three of them appeared before the Pill Lord.

The main peak's Pill Lord stood there, his expression kept changing and finally, he saw Qin Wentian lifting his hand.

"Thud…"

Qin Wentian swung out, directly smacking the Pill Lord's face. As a peak-tier immortal king, the main peak Pill Lord's reaction was naturally fast enough to block that slap. However, he actually didn't block it. He completely could block it but he chose not to in the face of Qin Wentian's domineering attitude and Qi Yu's strength. He didn't know what consequences there would be if he blocked that slap.

In the Unaging Immortal Mountains, since such a huge commotion occurred, how could the Unaging Immortal Emperor not know of it? However, why didn't the immortal emperor appear?

Since the Unaging Immortal Emperor didn't appear, what does this mean?

Maybe...although he was an immortal emperor, he still had to give face to Qin Wentian!

"This slap is for the injustice my wife suffered at the pill concoction banquet. You are not fit to be the main peak's Pill Lord." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, he brought Mo Qingcheng and directly walked past the main peak's Pill Lord. Such dominance had truly stunned everyone present here.

Qin Wentian held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand and smacked the face of the main peak's Pill Lord in public. This was because he wanted payback for the injustice his wife suffered.

Ye Rou stared at Mo Qingcheng. Right now, she discovered that her jealousy towards Mo Qingcheng didn't lessen at all. In fact, the extent of her jealousy even increased.

Why was her husband so tyrannical and overwhelming? No one could block him.

He killed an immortal king from the Qiu Clan, and killed an immortal king from the Xue Clan. Even Xue Qingyang knelt down to beg for mercy while the main peak's Pill Lord got slapped.

All this happened because of the anger he felt, anger because of someone trying to bully his wife, Mo Qingcheng.

For Mo Qingcheng, he swept with invincibility throughout the Unaging Immortal Mountains, tyrannical to the extreme.

"Senior, I want to express my thanks once again for taking care of my wife Mo Qingcheng. Junior bids farewell." Qin Wentian bowed to Mo Qingcheng's master.

"Master, disciple will be leaving now. In the future, if there are any chances, I will come back and visit you again." Mo Qingcheng's eyes were slightly red.

"Go in peace." Mo Qingcheng's master smiled. When she saw how strong Qin Wentian was, she was happy for Mo Qingcheng. At the very least, there was no need for her to worry about her disciple's future.

The two of them bowed to Mo Qingcheng's master once more and departed instantly, soaring up into the sky. Qi Yu waited for a moment before he too, soared up and followed behind them. Countless gazes followed their backs but the fluctuations in their hearts weren't able to regain calmness for a long time!

Chapter 1380: Imminent War

Qin Wentian's group departed like that. But everyone still had yet to regain their calm.

In this pill banquet of the Unaging Immortal Mountains, this grand occasion that occurred once every ten years, many areas of the main mountain peak had crumbled and the two most outstanding disciples of the main peak completely shamed themselves. Xue Qingyang knelt and begged for mercy while Qiu Mo died. The two elders of the Xue Clan and Qiu Clan were slaughtered.

The start of all of this, was because Qiu Mo was disrespectful to Mo Qingcheng, and the elder of the Qiu Clan had insulted her.

If they knew that Mo Qingcheng's husband had such terrifying strength, neither Qiu Mo nor Xue Qingyang would have dared to antagonize Mo Qingcheng.

Right now, Ye Rou's body was drenched in cold sweat. Her body felt entirely devoid of strength but luckily, she was just a nobody and an inconsequential character. Qin Wentian never had her in his eyes. Also, luckily, it wasn't up to her to say anything in the pill concoction banquet, or if she did so, her ending would definitely be the same as Qiu Mo's.

That silent and taciturn number one beauty of the Unaging Immortal Mountains actually had such a powerful character as her husband. What's laughable was that she was foolish enough to actually want Mo Qingcheng to accept Qiu Mo. When she thought of this, she couldn't help to feel how absurd her thinking was. With such a husband, it was only natural that Mo Qingcheng wouldn't have Qiu Mo in her eyes.

Ye Rou glanced at her own fiance as she sighed in her heart. The distance between her fiance and Qin Wentian was just like the distance between her beauty when compared to Mo Qingcheng. It was the difference between heaven and earth, an unmitigable difference.

The Pill Lords of the nine peaks felt extremely complicated in their hearts. They knew that the Unaging Immortal Emperor was currently in the mountains cultivating. Yet despite such a huge commotion, he didn't appear. The unspoken reason behind caused all their hearts to feel a chill.

Next, it was time to clean things up.

However, all of this already had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. Since he chose to stand out, he could only end up bringing Mo Qingcheng away. Even if she wasn't cultivating outside, he would also try to think of ways to increase her strength bit by bit. If not, even if Mo Qingcheng wouldn't be able to grow stronger, he himself had to be strong enough to protect her forever. This, was his responsibility as a man towards his wife.

Qin Wentian and his group silently returned to the Cloud Prefecture. Now, the situation in the thirteen prefectures was extremely tense and there were constant clashes between armies frequently. Despite the vastness of the Cloud Prefecture, the clashes of the armies at the border caused tension to spread across the entire prefecture. And recently, some of the more powerful experts of the Cloud Prefecture all stealthily left, choosing to flee the battlefield.

For a battle of this scale, a large number of immortal kings would surely be involved. If one didn't take the necessary precautions, the aftershocks of the battles would devastate everything, easily demolishing cities. So, for those who had the strength to flee, they naturally wanted to avoid all of these.

Right now, there were only people exiting the Cloud Prefecture enmasse. Almost no one else sought to enter. Qin Wentian directly sped towards the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect after he arrived and on their way there, he briefed Mo Qingcheng about the current situation. Qin Wentian initially wanted to escort her back to their particle world but Mo Qingcheng had adamantly refused to, wanting to stay here together with him. Since this was what she wanted, Qin Wentian didn't insist too much. He didn't think that his side would lose this battle so miserably that he wouldn't even have the strength to protect a single person. Unless of course, he was already dead.

Within the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian first sent Mo Qingcheng back to their residence before he dismissed Qi Yu. After that, he headed towards the place where Bai Wuya was staying.

Bai Wuya's residence was protected by a mystical surge of energy that could act as a barrier against immortal sense and the instant anyone entered, the master of the barrier would know straight away. This was a common method used by powerful characters and the Qin Wentian now could accomplish this as well. After all, others could easily spy on you without this, but as long as you surrounded the residence with your immortal sense using this technique, people would know that you don't wish to be disturbed. This silent rule was fixed in stone and it was considered a great taboo should someone break it, easily offending others. It was like an owner locked up the gate to his house but you came by with lock-breaking tools, wanting to force your way in.

Qin Wentian arrived outside Bai Wuya's place. After he greeted the serving girl, he entered and discovered that there were actually plenty of people who were already here. With a sweep of his immortal sense, a smile appeared on his face. The people here were all from the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Seems like, for this crisis, the strength of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect wasn't enough and still had to borrow the strength of the Heavenly Talisman Realm to aid them. This was also within his expectations. From the start ever since the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord established the immortal sect, there already was a connection between him and the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Also, the Heavenly Talisman Realm had been giving missions to push their disciples and aid the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to help destroy the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect as their end-goal for the short-term was to unify the thirteen prefectures under their name. If they could achieve this, in the future, the name of the thirteen prefectures would be known as the the Thousand Transformations Thirteen Prefectures.

"Junior brother Qin has returned." Everyone sat there as they chatted idly. Upon seeing Qin Wentian coming over, a person smiled and waved in greeting. It was actually none other than the Saberlord of Death.

"It has been many years since we last met, senior apprentice brother is still as glorious as ever." Qin Wentian smiled.

"How the hell am I glorious? I think you are the glorious one instead. Back then when I first met you, your cultivation base was still so low but you are now already an immortal king, quickly chasing up to me." The Saberlord of Death laughed. "Bai Wuya's judgement is truly exceptional."

"But if I want to increase my cultivation base now, it's no longer so easy." Qin Wentian smiled. He intentionally paid attention to the Saberlord's cultivation. The Saberlord was a middle-stage immortal king and back then in the war back in his particle world, he could already see the difference between the Saberlord and Bai Wuya. It was just that he had no clear idea on the differences in their strength. Now, when thinking back, Bai Wuya back then was already at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm.

"Wentian, there's no need to be humble. Your cultivation speed truly puts all of us seniors to shame." Bai Wuya sat on the host seat, laughing as he spoke. The people here were all from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, there was no need to hide anything from each other.

"Senior brother, you are already an immortal emperor, don't make fun of me okay?" Qin Wentian's lips twitched, his words causing everyone here to laugh. A female immortal king among them spoke, "The two of you are truly awesome. But if both of you are intentionally being so civil, that would really be over the line."

Qin Wentian glanced at the female immortal king as he greeted, "Senior apprentice sister."

"Mhm." That female immortal king nodded.

"Is Qingxuan still fine? It has been a very long time since I have last seen her." Qin Wentian asked. Zi Qingxuan, was a beautiful maiden in the same group as Qin Wentian and Jun Mengcheng back then when they first joined, travelling together and taking on the same missions. This female immortal king was none other than the senior apprentice sister who invited Zi Qingxuan to join the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Back then, Qin Wentian met her once before, this was why he remembered her.

"Qingxuan is naturally fine, it's just that the pressure on her is extremely great." The female immortal king rolled her eyes at Qin Wentian. "In the past, the three of you roamed the immortal realms together and headed to the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect to participate in their disciple-recruiting event. At that time, the cultivation bases of the three of you were somewhat similar but now, you have already entered the immortal king realm. Jun Mengchen also recently broken past that stage and he is now with the senior apprentice brother who invited him to join us, roaming the world and tempering himself. As for Qingcheng, she is somewhat a little inferior in comparison."

"Well, it isn't that Qingxuan is weak, it's just that she is in the same group as these two monsters, Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen. Even among us, let alone for Qingxuan, these two youngsters can be considered as monsters given their cultivation speed. However, this might be pressure, but this could also be a source of motivation." Bai Wuya smiled. The female immortal king nodded but she was somewhat depressed in her heart. Back then, she still wanted to compare Zi Qingxuan and the two young fellows but now, the result was clear, her judgement wasn't as good when compared to Bai Wuya and the other fellow sect member who invited Jun Mengchen.

"That's true. With these two powerful juniors, even us old fellows are feeling the heat of pressure." Another immortal king who was sitting by the side, started laughing. This time, all of them received the same mission - to destroy the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Naturally, they were all of one mind.

"Wentian, there are some masks here. Choose one." Bai Wuya waved his hand as a number of specially manufactured different-shaped immortal masks appeared in the air.

Qin Wentian stared doubtfully at the masks before he heard Bai Wuya speaking, "All the apprentice siblings here would often have to roam about in the immortal realms and they might be easily recognized by our enemies. By wearing these masks in combat, we would be able to hide ourselves. If not, if there's a sudden surge of immortal kings in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, it would definitely arouse suspicions."

Qin Wentian nodded. In a large-scale war involving so many immortal kings, it was truly easy to arouse suspicions.

"Senior brother, can I take more of these masks?" Qin Wentian asked, he didn't explain about the Battle Saint Tribe but Bai Wuya had already guessed it. Back then at the immortal-foundation realm, Qin Wentian already had experts from the Battle Saint Tribe following him. Although Bai Wuya was curious, he didn't probe further since Qin Wentian didn't say anything.

"Sure, there are plenty here." Bai Wuya waved his hand as more masks appeared. When Qin Wentian saw this, he instantly understood that senior brother Bai had prepared all these for him.

"Wentian, go make your preparations. Right now, our strength is concentrated in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect is also trying to consolidate their strength, summoning their troops back. Before they launch an all-out attack, we want to test out their strength in a few battles first. Just so coincidentally, since you have already broken through to the immortal king realm. You can use your identity as the Emperor Lord's disciple, and fight the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect as an immortal king of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, tempering yourself using their immortal kings as the grindstone." Bai Wuya suggested. Qin Wentian nodded, understanding Bai Wuya's intent. Bai Wuya wanted to start a few smaller-scale battles as training for him.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. "In that case, seniors, I will bid farewell first."

"Go on." Everyone nodded.

Qin Wentian returned to his own residence and surrounded his place with his immortal sense, erecting a barrier. Qingcheng was waiting for him, and when she saw that Qin Wentian had returned, a smile involuntarily appeared on her face, "The two of us are alone here, the sudden peace and quiet makes me a little unused to it."

Walking to her side, Qin Wentian cradled Mo Qingcheng's face with his hands. He then gently spoke, "The great war is imminent, we should enjoy these rare moments of peace properly. Don't you think so too?"

A radiant smile appeared on Mo Qingcheng's beautiful face, causing the heart of Qin Wentian to stir as he stared on, in a daze.

"These few years, you have been cultivating alone in a faraway location, it must have been hard on you." Qin Wentian's voice turned even more tender.

"Now that I'm back, how do you want to make things up to me?" Mo Qingcheng's smile grew mischievous.

"What do you want?" Qin Wentian smiled in a naughty and playful manner as he winked to Mo Qingcheng. Upon realizing Qin Wentian's intent, Mo Qingcheng instantly blushed. She didn't dare to meet his eyes as she whispered, "You have bad intentions."

"Haha, my Qingcheng finally noticed." Qin Wentian extended his arms and embraced her, carrying her into their room as a sweet story unfolded!

Chapter 1381: Soul Slaying Devil Saber

The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect congregated their strength in one prefecture and was preparing for the final war. During these few days, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect naturally didn't sit about idly. After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect withdrew their forces, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect instantly reinforced their control on the other five prefectures as they started to mobilize more troops and press towards the Cloud Prefecture.

Because they were worried that the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect would suddenly go berserk, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect didn't rush the attack and chose to stabilize their foundations, choosing to take things slowly instead. They first decided to build teleportation arrays in the four directions first to better reinforce their strength. This made it so that it would be easier to assemble their troops in case of any unexpected situations. Naturally, they were only doing so to guard against the unexpected. In reality, their spies had already infiltrated the Cloud Prefecture. If the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect made any large-scale movements with their army, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would instantly get the news.

Right now, the situation was extremely bad. The armies of the Eastern Sage Sect have already completely surrounded the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, and the situation was akin to black clouds blanketing the skies. Once the order came, they would instantly press forth with their attacks.

This time, not only do they want to obtain victory with a single battle, they also want to let everyone in the thirteen prefectures understand who the true owner of the thirteen prefectures is.

At the external common boundary of the Cloud Prefecture, one of the four great armies of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was stationed there. This army took over one of the main cities and was formed from many different units of troops of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, possessing terrifying strength. In addition, the person in command of this army was one of the four paragons under the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

Back then during the war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the White Emperor went personally to the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and killed a paragon with a wave of his hand. Hence, a new paragon has joined the ranks, and as for the other three paragons, they were all extremely ancient existences which had fought for the thirteen prefectures together with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor back in the past.

Each of the four paragons under the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor were in command of the four great armies. One could say that for this immortal war, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was going all out, planning to destroy the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect in one fell swoop. Naturally, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect could also choose to flee and not fight to the death. But if this was so, in the future, the experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect or the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord himself, would no longer have face to appear in the thirteen prefectures ever again.

Back then, because the Emperor Lord fought to a draw with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, he managed to acquire control of six out of the thirteen prefectures. If he abandoned the sect and fled or dispersed the sect without even fighting, that would truly be a humiliation.

At this moment, at the common boundary outside the Cloud Prefecture, over ten figures suddenly appeared in the air. This place was being controlled by the Eastern Sage Army. When the guards saw these figures, one among them shouted out, "This place is under the control of our Eastern Sage Army. Those who are not authorized cannot proceed further."

Those figures acted as though they heard nothing and continued advancing forward. Their speed was so inconceivably fast that they seemed like phantoms, shooting across the sky.

"BANG!" Abruptly, the banging of drums rang out. The immortal senses within the great city swept out and very soon after, numerous immortal kings soared up into the air, coming face to face with the over ten figures. One of the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Army coldly asked, "Who are you guys?"

"We are people from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. We are here to issue a challenge, fighting based on immortal kings on the same cultivation level. Do you all accept?"

The army stirred, and more and more experts arrived below. Based on the numbers they have, they could instantly swallow up these over ten figures who just arrived here.

Merely over ten immortal kings and they actually dared to came here? Are they not courting death?

Naturally, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect could choose not to fight in this challenge and directly overwhelm these ten plus figures with their superiority in terms of numbers.

However, immortal kings were all proud individuals. Since their opponents issued a challenge, how could they not accept it?

Only to see right now, an expert exuding an extremely powerful aura approaching the area. This man was none other than one of the four paragons, Paragon Golden Cauldron. This Paragon Golden Cauldron was the latest to join the ranks of the four paragons. His strength was incredible and his cultivation base was very near the immortal emperor realm. He's most definitely one of the more terrifying existences in this war.

"People of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, don't you all dare to show your identities? Why are you all masking your faces." The voice of the Paragon Golden Cauldron was a booming bell, ringing out with the force of thunder.

"There's no need to waste time talking nonsense. We are here today to issue an immortal-king level battle challenge. Do you all dare to accept it or not?" A masked figure spoke.

"How to battle?" The Paragon Golden Cauldron asked.

"We will set the battles for immortal kings of the same level." As the sound of this voice faded, a masked figure stepped out, releasing his aura. A devilish might radiated forth, as well as the sharp intent of sword qi. This man was none other than Qin Wentian. Right now, he had his features obscured by a devil mask and seemed akin to a devil cultivator.

"A devil cultivator?" Paragon Golden Cauldron frowned. Devil cultivators usually congregate in the Myriad Devil Islands. Although there are still devil cultivators in the immortal realms, they are considered quite rare.

"Paragon Golden Cauldron, why are you so curious. You should have already sensed his cultivation base being at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm. If you accept the battle challenge, you can select someone at the same level." The figure with the kirin mask who spoke earlier, continued speaking.

The Paragon turned silent. After that, he turned and glanced at his subordinates. The people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect are actually so audacious, daring to come here to challenge them for a battle. Most probably, these masked figures were fully prepared. In that case, the combat prowess of them all should be extremely strong.

For the war, immortal kings on both sides were most definitely the cornerstones. Unless the immortal emperors directly fought each other, immortal kings would be the deciding factor of who the victor was.

"Guyu, are you willing to accept this battle?" Paragon Golden Cauldron asked.

"Disciple is willing to." Within the Eastern Sage Immortal Army, a young immortal king stepped out. This young man was the beloved disciple of Paragon Golden Cauldron and was someone with extremely high combat prowess. Paragon Golden Cauldron was filled with confidence towards him. Hence, he decided to let his disciple partake in the challenge.

"Since this is the case, both our sides will retreat, allowing them to have a space to battle." The kirin-masked figure spoke. Paragon Golden Cauldron nodded as immortal kings of both sides stepped back.

At this space, only Qin Wentian and Guyu remained.

Qin Wentian's eyes, which could be seen from the slits in the mask, were gleaming with a cold killing intent. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had always been a power he wanted to destroy. His grudge with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had festered for a very long time.

Now that there was a chance for him to kill immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, he naturally wouldn't miss this and wouldn't show any mercy.

"Guyu is the beloved disciple of Paragon Golden Cauldron, he is proficient in the same kind of attributes as Paragon Golden Cauldron and has a tyrannical attack and an extreme defense." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Qin Wentian nodded in response, after that, terrifying amounts of destructive devil might swirled around him as a fearsome and extremely sharp all-annihilative devil saber materialized in his hand.

The saber art given to him by that undying old freak could be used to mask his other techniques. In addition, he could incorporate God's Hand within his saber attacks, further augmenting the attack power to an extreme state.

A gigantic cauldron floated around Guyu. Its golden light surrounded this space, enveloping Qin Wentian within. Guyu's law domain was precisely the law domain of the golden cauldron.

The disciples of Paragon Golden Cauldron all cultivate the same kind of attribute energy as him and had inherited his techniques and arts.

"BOOM!" An incomparably heavy suppression might gushed out, wanting to forcefully crush Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's devil might erupted forth with overwhelming might, each of his saber intents were infused with the power of his sword-attribute energy. Shadows of devil sabers filled the air as they sliced apart the waves of suppression might.

Guyu stabbed out with his finger, causing a golden cauldron to appear in the air, blotting out the sun. It spun about wildly before slamming towards Qin Wentian, while radiating a boundlessly vast aura.

"Attacks from law domains?" The resplendent light from Qin Wentian infused the saber in his hands. After that, he cleaved outwards, unleashing the first stance, cleanly slicing the gigantic cauldron into two. The law energy in his body madly surged forwards, further powering the saber strike.

"Mhm?" Guyu frowned. The might within the devil saber seemed to be growing stronger unceasingly.

"Slash!" Qin Wentian yelled, as he slashed out the second stance. This second saber directly tore apart the bindings of space, leaving lines of destruction everywhere. Guyu's surroundings erupted with a golden light as numerous cauldrons surrounded him protectively, exuding a sense of indestructibility.

"Bang!" A thunderous boom rang out as Guyu's surrounding defenses were shattered. A coldness flashed past his eyes. Although this saber technique was powerful, it only managed to shatter his external defenses.

But right at this moment, Qin Wentian pointed into the air, causing a third saber to form from the void as his terrifying law energy surged into it.

"Careful!" The Paragon Golden Cauldron reminded. Guyu's expression stiffened, boundless laws concentrated around him, causing his body to gleam with golden light. After that, thousands of cauldrons shot out, wanting to shatter that devil saber.

The saber shadows multiplied and slashed down at the same instant, causing the sky to change color. Devil might churned wildly, slamming against the waves of golden light. A deafening explosion rang out as the thousands of cauldrons were all slashed apart. The billowing devil might continued gushing forth towards Guyu, but Guyu was already prepared. He punched out, manifesting golden divine dragons that shot towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian was as calm as ever. He stabbed out with his finger once more, and under the thunderous devil might, another saber appeared. This was the fourth devil saber manifested, and although it wasn't as gigantic as the earlier ones, the amount of devilish might within was far more powerful.

"DIE!" Qin Wentian waved his hand, the saber then transformed into a black flowing light that slashed out once again towards the golden dragons.

Guyu's expression turned heavy. Staring at the saber slashing down, he could tell that although the size now was smaller, the force of the saber was greater.

"RUMBLE!" A black-colored lightning struck down mercilessly. At this instant, Guyu only felt his soul shuddering. His body trembled violently, and in his vision, the saber suddenly disintegrated into numerous beams of saber light, the attack direction unknown.

"Guyu!" Paragon Golden Cauldron roared, his voice like thunder from the sky, jolting Guyu awake. However, it was already too late, the saber was now right before his eyes.

"Puchi!" The saber strike landed as a black line appeared in the center of Guyu's forehead, slashing downwards. In the next moment, an explosive sound rang out as Guyu's body was sliced in twain, destroyed by the tyrannical burst of devil might.

Paragon Golden Cauldron wanted to act but he was too late by a step. His movements froze there as his expression turned ashen.

What a bizarre saber technique. The true killing stance of the saber, was the fourth attack!

This saber art was none other than the saber technique the undying old freak specially prepared for Qin Wentian - the name of the technique was Soul Slaying Devil Saber!

Chapter 1382: Paragon Sky Roc

The Immortal King Guyu of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, was defeated and killed in the challenge battle.

The countenance of Paragon Golden Cauldron was extremely ugly to behold. A terrifyingly sharp aura gushed forth from him, permeating the atmosphere. Guyu was a disciple he heavily favored, and had received a true inheritance from him. His talent was high and his strength wasn't bad, Guyu was someone with enough potential to reach his master's level. However, Guyu had died in a challenge battle like this today.

As the fourth saber slashed down, Guyu didn't even have a chance to flee. From this, one could see that the power of that saber wasn't something Guyu was able to withstand.

"Do you still want to continue? The devil cultivator will still be here, you all can send any initial-stage immortal kings to fight him if you want to." Even before the Paragon Golden Cauldron could erupt with anger, the kirin-masked figure directly spoke out. The face of Paragon Golden Cauldron sank, but he couldn't say anything to refute what just happened.

Guyu didn't even have an opportunity to flee for his life in front of his devil-masked opponent. From this, one could see how overwhelming the combat prowess of his opponent was. Even if their side sent another initial-stage immortal king up, there was no way they would be able to defeat this devil-masked expert.

Since they couldn't win, the Paragon Golden Cauldron naturally wouldn't be silly enough to send people to their deaths just like that.

"BOOM!" Paragon Golden Cauldron suddenly acted. In an instant, at the location Qin Wentian was in, a gigantic golden palm appeared, grabbing outwards with extreme speed, wanting to crush Qin Wentian.

Simultaneously at the same instant, a punch from behind Qin Wentian shattered the void. This punch directly slammed into Paragon Golden Cauldron's palm, the impact causing both the attacks to shatter.

"A paragon character from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect acts this way?" A mocking smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face as he retreated to safety, exuding a carefree charm. Even the people from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were surprised. The expert among them wearing an ape mask actually could shatter the attack of Paragon Golden Cauldron with a single strike. Although that was merely a casual attack by Paragon Golden Cauldron, one could still see how strong the expert in the ape mask was.

"The army of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect is stationed here but despite having so many immortal kings, none dare to accept the challenge? How disappointing. Since this is the case, we will bid our farewell then." The kirin-masked expert spoke. Their group then turned and prepared to leave.

"Wanting to leave just like that?" Paragon Golden Cauldron laughed. This was a war and not one-on-one combat. As long immortal emperors couldn't act against immortal kings and immortal kings couldn't act against immortal-foundation characters, they wouldn't be considered to have broken the silent rule.

The masked figures didn't bother and continued on their way, treating this common boundary as empty of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect's forces.

"Kill them!" The Paragon Golden Cauldron coldly shouted. At this moment, numerous auras erupted forth as the peak-stage immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect all turned gigantic in form.

When so many peak-stage immortal kings attacked together, the entire sky seemed about to collapse. Destructive might rained down from their powerful techniques but at this moment, many of the masked immortal kings turned about and counter-attacked, causing the space to be filled with countless shadows of palm strikes, numerous beams of sword light and even many summoned gigantic beasts rampaging through the sky.

"RUMBLE!" The thunderous echoes caused the immortal-foundation army to directly lie on the ground. They only felt their eardrums on the verge of exploding. For those weaker ones, they directly bled from all seven apertures and died just like that.

Paragon Golden Cauldron frowned. When he stared at the chaotic immortal-foundation army, his expression was extremely unsightly. They were the ones who initiated an attack and the immortal kings of the other party didn't take the initiative to kill immortal-foundation characters and hence, couldn't be considered to have broken the rule.

In addition, among those masked figures, there were many peak-tier immortal kings.

The masked figures all coldly laughed as they flew away. There were immortal kings who wanted to pursue but Paragon Golden Cauldron stated coldly, "There's no need to chase them."

At the sound of his voice faded, many immortal kings halted. They all had unsightly expressions, were they supposed to let these people go free just like that?

After they killed a disciple of the paragon and the aftershocks of the battle even killed some immortal-foundation characters, were they to simply watch as the culprits got away scot-free?

"Paragon!" There were people turning to Paragon Golden Cauldron and reluctance was plain in their eyes.

"They have so many peak-level immortal kings, it's useless even if we chased them." Paragon Golden Cauldron coldly spoke. Did the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect purposely organize this to cause a disturbance?

The faces of everyone sank, the masked group had several peak-tier immortal kings? If that's the case, it was truly impossible to chase after and hunt them down.

Their Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had a total of four armies and the strength of each army was roughly equal. After many years of governing the thirteen prefectures, although the immortal sect had produced many immortal kings, peak-tier immortal kings were still rare in number. Peak-tier immortal kings are characters that are already near the immortal emperor realm.

"What a pity. Paragon, when would we advance in the war and lay siege to the Cloud Prefecture?" An immortal king asked.

"About time. Most of our strength is being mobilized here and we can soon attack after waiting for a few more people. As long as we completely surround the Cloud Prefecture, it won't be so easy for those experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to flee even if they want to." Paragon Golden Cauldron's countenance was cold as a powerful killing intent radiated from him.

Doomsday is coming soon for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Very swiftly, this thief that seized the prefectures from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would soon meet with a calamity.

"Let's wait then. We can only hope for the day to come faster." All the immortal kings had cold looks in their eyes. This time around, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect directly came over to issue a challenge and held nothing back, slaughtering one of their immortal kings and even managing to leave safely. This was simply looking down on them. This was a humiliation.

"We shall see." Paragon Golden Cauldron nodded, his thoughts mirroring that of his subordinates.

After Qin Wentian and his group left, they didn't directly return to the Cloud Prefecture but chose to head to another location occupied by one of the four Eastern Sage Armies. This army was commanded by an immortal emperor, one of the four paragons under the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, Paragon Sky Roc.

Now, the Paragon Sky Roc is already an immortal emperor.

For the four great paragons under the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, three among them were characters who fought for the empire together with him, they were all as close as brothers and would often temper themselves outside, rarely interfering in matters of the sect. Right now, two immortal emperors were already born. Other than Paragon Sky Roc, there was another one. It was the same immortal emperor whom the White Emperor met when he went to the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect back then.

When Qin Wentian went out together with the other seniors, everyone introduced the rough situation of the four paragons to him. Speaking of which, he could be considered fated with Paragon Sky Roc. During the once a hundred-year recruitment event of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect back then, he obtained a rune bone of the sky roc. This was a treasure from Paragon Sky Roc himself. To think that now, Paragon Sky Roc has already become an emperor.

This time, despite the fact that they were coming into an area controlled by an immortal emperor, Qin Wentian's group acted even more high-profile when compared to earlier. They descended from the air and directly shattered the city gate, walking into the city with an imposing attitude.

Very quickly, the army assembled. Paragon Sky Roc was among them and these people naturally had already sensed their arrival.

"The disciples of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect pays our respects to senior Paragon Sky Roc." Everyone spoke straightforwardly, not planning to avoid this immortal emperor.

Although this army was led by an immortal emperor, there was no way the immortal emperor would personally act against them. If not, they would all die together. If an immortal emperor from the Eastern Sage Sect decided to break the rules and kill their people here, Bai Wuya and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord could similarly annihilate the immortal kings and immortal-foundation characters of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect.

"Swish~" A raging wind gusted as a sky roc soared into the air. A moment later, the sky roc transformed into a black-robed human, standing there arrogantly with a bone-chilling loftiness in his eyes.

"We greet senior." Although the people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect came here in such a high-profile manner, they didn't forget to be courteous.

Paragon Sky Roc didn't say anything, merely looking coldly at them.

"Today we came here because we wish to challenge the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect in one-on-one combat. I wonder if senior is willing to accept the challenge?" The kirin-masked figure smiled, this situation was similar to back when they were at the area controlled by Paragon Golden Cauldron.

"Since you all want a challenge, I will naturally accompany you guys to the end." Paragon Sky Roc's voice was tinged with arrogance. He was a true ancient paragon and was an immortal emperor expert. He naturally had to protect the pride of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Since the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect sent forces to challenge the army under his control, how could he not accept this challenge?

Qin Wentian walked out again while releasing his aura. "Junior is an initial-stage immortal king. Please guide me."

"Who is willing to accept this challenge battle?" Paragon Sky Roc spoke. After that, a junior immortal king at the initial-stage walked out. This person radiated coldness, and the temperature around him plunged. When he stared at Qin Wentian, it was like he wanted to freeze Qin Wentian with a single look.

"I'm willing to." That person spoke.

"Please." Qin Wentian smiled. Vast amounts of devil might gushed forth as a devil saber once again appeared in his hands. Boundless destructive energy congregated around him.

"Ice seal!" At this moment, the other party spoke. The space around them was instantly frozen solid, including Qin Wentian within. The power of frost threatened to turn him into an ice statue.

"BOOM!" The destructive energy around Qin Wentian erupted forth, shattering the ice around him. After that, the frost and ice actually churned wildly within a tornado and transformed into numerous ice spears that shot out like white lightning, aiming for Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian transformed into a shadow, his movements inconceivably quick as his saber slashed out many attacks, breaking apart the ice spears. In the direction his saber was swung, countless ice statues were shattered as he rushed out of the area the ice domain.

Just as he was about to rush out, his opponent flicked a finger strike over, causing ripples to appear in the ice domain. These ripples expanded in size and actually corroded the devil saber that materialized in Qin Wentian's hand. After that, an ice statue melted down to water vapor and swept over towards Qin Wentian.

In this ice domain, there was actually also the law-attribute of corrosion.

"BOOM!" A terrifying divine glow shimmered around Qin Wentian, formed from his multiple law-attribute energies. With a lift of his hand, he blasted out a palm strike, the tyrannical destructive might gushing forth easily evaporated the water vapor. He then continued forward, ignoring the corrosion energy, choosing to strike head-on with his opponent, as he radiated an intense killing intent. He didn't mind achieving his objective even if he was injured.

The other immortal king furrowed his brows, clearly he wasn't willing to risk his life. He chose to retreat but given such a close distance as well as the speed of Qin Wentian's attack, there was no way for him to evade at all. The palm strike of Qin Wentian slammed right into him, causing him to scream in misery as Qin Wentian channelled destructive might into his opponent's body, ravaging the interior of it.

Qin Wentian was also forced back a few steps from the impact, his body similarly suffering the effects of corrosion while a look of panic appeared on his face.

"This crafty little fellow." Upon seeing this, the masked experts all laughed silently. Qin Wentian was pretending to be weak!

Chapter 1383: Personal Disciple of Eastern Sage

They could still be considered to know roughly the level of Qin Wentian's combat prowess. There was no way an attack of this level would be able to hurt him. In addition, he completely could destroy his opponent with a single strike but he chose not to do so, intentionally acting weak instead to cripple his opponent while pretending to almost suffer a grievous injury. This was simply extremely crafty.

Although Paragon Sky Roc was an immortal emperor, but if Qin Wentian intentionally wanted to hide his strength, it was impossible for Paragon Sky Roc to tell how strong he truly was. Right now, Paragon Sky Roc's expression was somewhat unsightly.

"Can you still continue?" An immortal king from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect intentionally asked.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded in response. He then took another step forward and spoke. "I will continue to seek guidance."

"Who else is willing to accept the challenge battle?" Paragon Sky Roc coldly spoke. After that, another immortal king walked out.

"BOOM!" This immortal king released his law domain, causing his attribute energy to engulf the surrounding space. A boundless killing intent infused into waves of sword qi that shot towards Qin Wentian. This immortal king was proficient in sword arts and could fight either in close-combat or at range. His level of threat was exceedingly high in close combat, able to take an opponent's life with a single strike.

Qin Wentian stepped out, using the devil saber techniques to counter his opponent's sword art. The two of them fought wildly, causing the heavens and earth to rumble, each unleashing extremely dangerous attacks while contracting their immortal king might to only affect a small area. One could very well imagine how fierce they both were.

The two of them fought more and more violently, causing chaotic qi flows to fill the area. Qin Wentian was faintly being suppressed, the tyranny of his saber art seemed to have no way to be completely unleashed.

"This time around, Flowing Cloud should be able to kill this masked man." Someone spoked.

"Flowing Cloud Immortal King's sword techniques are as flexible as flowing water, impenetrable by wind and rain. By concentrating and contracting the area his immortal king might affects, he is able to intensify his attacks." Many immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect watched as their eyes gleamed sharply. They hoped that the Flowing Cloud Immortal King was able to slaughter Qin Wentian and uphold the pride of their Eastern Sage Immortal Sect.

"BANG!" Another explosion rang out as sword and saber collided, causing both weapons to shatter. The Flowing Cloud Immortal King once again congregated boundless sword might around him while the devil might radiating from Qin Wentian surged forth wildly with no restraint.

"KILL, KILL, KILL!" The Flowing Cloud Immortal King roared three times as his killing intent towered up into the sky. Three waves of sword might slashed out with impunity. Yet Qin Wentian only stabbed his finger forth rapidly, shooting out arcs of blood-colored light and slashing apart the three waves of sword might. At the same time, a devil saber materialized. It resembled a bolt of black lightning and at this moment, Flowing Cloud actually felt his soul shuddering as the bolt of black lightning thundered down on him. Time seemed to stop for him and when all the dust finally settled, not a sound could be heard.

"This…" The immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect all froze. How could this be? Flowing Cloud had the clear advantage but why did the situation suddenly turn about? The two attacks launched by the masked expert at the end were extremely strong, and the last saber attack clearly had some strangeness to it. However, why did Flowing Cloud not choose to dodge?

Paragon Sky Roc frowned, he seemed to have seen through something. At this moment, Qin Wentian continued, "Does the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect only have this level of strength? Unable to withstand a single strike, simply too weak. Are there some more powerful immortal kings who I can kill?"

Qin Wentian who suddenly turned arrogant, had completely infuriated the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. This masked expert merely was lucky and managed to reverse the situation, yet he was now acting so arrogant? What did he mean by too weak and unable to withstand a single strike? He was the one losing all the way at the start. How truly impudent!

The masked immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had to hold in their laughter. Too sinister and crafty. This fellow suddenly became so high-profile, he was clearly trying to incite the rage of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and make more of them step out and accept the challenge.

However, although the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect were angered, they were still rational. The Flowing Cloud Immortal King was already considered an extremely powerful individual at the initial-stage but he still died in the challenge. Those who are weaker than Flowing Cloud naturally wouldn't rush out to accept just from a moment of impulse.

The attack methods of the masked devil cultivator were extremely bizarre, he wasn't so easily handled.

"Let me do it." A cold voice rang out. As the eyes of the crowd turned over, they saw a young immortal king walking out. This immortal king was clad in white and had an extraordinary aura.

"Wang Yu is personally acting?" The hearts of the immortal kings trembled. Since this was the case, there definitely wouldn't be any problems.

"We will win this for sure." Many of the immortal kings had cold gleams in their eyes as they glanced at Qin Wentian. This masked fellow crippled one of them and kill another. There was no way they would let him leave here alive.

Paragon Sky Roc initially wanted to end the challenge battle but since Wang Yu stepped out, he didn't say anything.

With regards to Wang Yu's strength, Paragon Sky Roc was still very confidence. Wang Yu is a personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, the Flowing Cloud Immortal King couldn't compare to him.

Upon seeing the gazes of the immortal kings from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian could tell that they were all very confident about this person named Wang Yu. Most probably, Wang Yu's combat prowess was extremely terrifying.

"Since you wish to court death, I will grant it to you." Wang Yu stared at Qin Wentian.

"Who the hell do you think you are? Grant death to me?" Qin Wentian didn't change his arrogant attitude. He coldly spoke, "If you dare to, let's fight a death battle. The fight will only end if one of us dies, no one is allowed to flee."

Wang Yu's gaze stiffened. This fellow truly is…

The experts of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect were stunned as well. Many of them laughed coldly, they didn't say anything, yet this masked fellow wanted a death battle? Since he wants to die so badly, they naturally wouldn't stop him.

"Sure." Wang Yu naturally agreed. He didn't expect that this fellow would have such a request.

"Since you agree to, let's start then." Qin Wentian soared up into the air. He could tell that this man should be a very important character. When he walked out, the faces of the immortal kings from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect all changed, it was like this man could kill him for sure. Also, the arrogance in his eyes was on another level, and there were hints of respect in the gazes of the other immortal kings when they glanced at this person. Clearly, the status of this man was extremely high.

For characters with a high status in the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, and given that this man wasn't the disciple of Paragon Sky Roc, it's natural that he had a connection with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor then. Since this is the case, how could Qin Wentian allow his opponent to live? This was why he made such a request, he wanted to kill this man.

Qin Wentian continued flying upwards and Wang Yu followed behind. Paragon Sky Roc coldly spoke, "Since both sides agreed to a death battle, why are you all flying so far up? Just remain here. None shall interfere."

The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's experts were all startled. Paragon Sky Roc seemed to be filled with extreme confidence.

"Senior is right." The people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect nodded. They didn't move and just stared up at the air.

Both Wang Yu and Qin Wentian halted. Wang Yu coldly stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "Back then, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord used dishonorable methods to seize control of the six prefectures. He would eventually have to pay a price for this. I followed my master and had cultivated for many years, but despite so, I made no real contributions. Today, I will take your life first to repay my master for his kindness."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply. Master?

"A disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor?" Qin Wentian asked.

"My name is Wang Yu, I'm a personal disciple of his Majesty, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor indeed." Wang Yu coldly spoke, his voice filled with pride. Qin Wentian's body trembled slightly, causing Wang Yu to coldly laughed. Was this masked expert finally afraid now? But what use was there?

Qin Wentian naturally wasn't afraid. On the contrary, he was extremely excited. To think that he would encounter a personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor here. Wasn't his luck a little too good? Since this was the case, there's no need for him to be polite any longer.

"RUMBLE!" A terrifying aura gushed forth. Astral light flashed as the sky changed color. Because the battle this time was high up in the air, Wang Yu had no reservations and unleashed his might completely. In an instant, for a radius of hundreds of miles, terrifying might crackled. This entire area had turned into his law domain, and burning meteors could be seen being formed by astral light.

Also, the gravity here was extremely heavy, suppressing everything within this domain.

When he felt the pressure, Qin Wentian actually smiled in admiration. As expected of a personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. This man was much stronger compared to the other immortal kings he faced earlier. Wang Yu, was truly strong.

"RUMBLE!" Numerous gigantic meteors directly fell from the sky, smashing towards Qin Wentian with the speed of shooting stars. They burned brilliantly and had the heavy effect of intense gravity added to their force. Those who were in this law domain basically had no way to evade. They could only face the meteor attacks directly.

Towering amounts of devil might gush forth from Qin Wentian, merging together with his demon-attribute law domain. He lifted his palm and pushed forward as a thunderous roaring filled the skies. After that, a gigantic dragon of darkness flew towards the falling meteors, slamming into them.

"Bang, bang, bang…" A deafening sound rang out as shattered rock fragments flew everywhere. Wang Yu roared in rage as his form expanded. The surroundings crackled with hellfire, and swirls of gravity energy congregated around his fist as he punched out towards Qin Wentian, wanting to destroy him.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian's body also expanded in form. His body glowed with resplendent light and his terrifying destructive devil law domain appeared. Numerous palm imprints superimposed as they blasted outwards, defending against the punch.

What was even more terrifying is that these devil palm imprints were actually joining together with such speed that they formed a boundlessly vast palm of darkness which blotted out the heaven and earth.

"Mhm?" Wang Yu inclined his head as his countenance changed.

Below, the eyes of many immortal kings turned heavy. Even Paragon Sky Roc was frowning.

"DIE!" At this moment, Qin Wentian coldly roared. The palm of darkness shimmered with countless runes as it unleashed a wave of absolute destruction.

"ARGH!" Wang Yu howled, the meteors around him all flew towards the palm, wanting to shatter it. However, they did nothing to slow the palm of darkness, the palm continued on its way towards him, exuding a supreme might.

"Wang Yu!" Paragon Sky Roc stepped out, wanting to save him. However, at this moment, a man with a kirin-mask who was radiating with a dangerous aura, appeared before him and blocked his way.

Chapter 1384: Who is he?

The Paragon Sky Roc stared coldly at the kirin-masked figure as he stiffened. "Bai Wuya."

The aura of the man blocking him was at the emperor level. There were only two immortal emperors in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. One was the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and the other, was none other than the White-Robe Immortal King of the past, Bai Wuya! Now, his title was the White-Robe Immortal Emperor. Upon sensing emperor might, he instantly guessed who the man in the kirin mask was. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord's opponent was the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, he wouldn't be so bored and bring a bunch of immortal kings here.

"Paragon Sky Roc, don't forget the rules." The kirin mask shattered, revealing Bai Wuya's face. His appearance was as young as ever, and seemed extremely like a gentleman clad in white.

"You actually hid among immortal kings and came all the way here to challenge me?" Paragon Sky Roc coldly spoke.

"I didn't personally act, and it can't be considered as I broke the rule. You, as an immortal emperor are in command of this army, aren't you the same as me?" Bai Wuya calmly replied. The immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect all had ugly expressions on their faces. They didn't expect Bai Wuya to come here personally. No wonder these people are all so audacious, daring to come here and challenge them.

The other immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect initially wanted to help out but Bai Wuya merely spoke in a cold manner, "The agreement for the death battle was witnessed by all. Whoever dares to break the rules, they shall be slaughtered."

As the sound of his voice rang out, all the immortal kings halted and had ashen expressions. Bai Wuya's words weren't wrong.

Before this, everyone thought Wang Yu would be able to easily kill his opponent. Who would have thought that the devil mask cultivator would be so powerful.

Lifting their heads in the air, they only heard thunderous sounds reverberating throughout. At this moment, the immortal sense of an immortal emperor swept out. It was actually the immortal sense of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

"Your Majesty." Everyone turned to the projection formed from the immortal sense, only to see the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly staring at the masked Qin Wentian. "Release him."

"Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, you cannot interfere in battles of immortal kings." Bai Wuya glanced at the projection as he spoke.

"Bai Wuya, Wang Yu is my personal disciple." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor icily replied.

"Both sides are now in a war, since they are both willing to battle, who would give a damn about things like statuses? In addition, both of them agreed to a death battle and Paragon Sky Roc has also agreed to it. All the immortal kings here bore witness earlier too. If now, senior Eastern Sage wants to break the rules and interfere, don't blame junior for offending you." Bai Wuya calmly replied.

"Spare Wang Yu this time. In the future, I will spare the life of an immortal king from your side." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke.

"I would have to offend you then." Bai Wuya calmly spoke. His eyes gleamed with astral light. At the instant when he blinked, a killing energy surged forth, burrowing into the immortal sense projection of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

"Bai Wuya, how dare you!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor roared!

"Senior Eastern Sage, you should understand the rules of the battlefield." Bai Wuya coldly replied, his voice extremely calm. With a disintegrating sound, the immortal sense projection faded away. The people of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect coldly stared at Bai Wuya. This fellow was too audacious, he actually wiped out the immortal sense projection of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor so forcefully.

"The challenge battle shall continue." Bai Wuya calmly spoke. Although he was an initial-stage immortal emperor, he was after all, already an immortal emperor. How could he not be sufficient to deal with the immortal sense projection of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor?

Qin Wentian's face was cold. Although Bai Wuya said to continue the battle, right now, there was no need for any combat any more. Earlier, he heavily injured Wang Yu with a single strike, it was only due to the immortal sense projection of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor negating some of the force that Wang Yu survived. If not, Wang Yu would have already died. Can this still be called a battle?

At this moment, all arrogance Wang Yu had earlier had now completely dissipated. When he saw Qin Wentian moving towards him, only despair could be seen in his eyes.

"Please spare me." Wang Yu begged.

"Puchi…" The devil saber slashed down, directly reaping the life of Wang Yu away, showing no mercy. Qin Wentian's expression was incomparably cold. This time, a personal disciple of Eastern Sage was killed by him. This should be sufficient to cause Eastern Sage's heart to ache right?

It was only that right now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor still had no idea that the person who killed his personal disciple, was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Kill him." Paragon Sky Roc coldly commanded, pointing at Qin Wentian. Since the battle between Qin Wentian and Wang Yu had ended, they wouldn't be at fault for breaking the rules now even if they decided to surround Qin Wentian.

However, the immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were already prepared. When the battle ended, they instantly appeared beside Qin Wentian. Qi Yu who was the man in the ape mask, directly slammed out with his palm, causing a gigantic divine ape to manifest. Roaring at the skies, a palm imprint blasted out. Those below the peak-tier immortal king realm had to retreat, or they would definitely die if the palm hit them.

This attack was simply too fierce, only peak-tier immortal kings had the ability to defend against it.

"Let's leave." Bai Wuya stated. After that, several powerful immortal kings all launched out attacks together, before soaring up and speeding away, as quick as lightning.

"Stop them!" Paragon Sky Roc howled in rage. Terrifying law domains extended outwards, there were gravity domains, corrosion domains, devouring domains... However, the law domain of an immortal king from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect quickly enveloped his allies. In an instant, all other domains were ineffective against them. At the same time, a person with a law domain boosted their speeds as they fled hurriedly.

"Law domain of negation." Paragon Sky Roc had a very ugly look on his face. The speed of peak-stage immortal kings were extremely fast, and there were many among the masked figures who came today. Only peak-stage immortal kings from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would have a chance to catch up if they chose to pursue.

Bai Wuya laughed, "Paragon Sky Roc, goodbye."

After speaking, he soared into the air and also vanished with a flick of his sleeves.

The peak-stage immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect halted. They roared in reluctance upon seeing the masked figures vanishing from their view.

"Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect!" They clenched their fists tightly as their killing intent surged up into the sky, causing this space to tremble.

"Let's return." Paragon Sky Roc spoke out. "Immediately inform the other three armies about this. If someone seeks to challenge them, tell them to group up and slay all the challengers immediately lest they fall for the same trick."

Right now, how could they still not understand? In the earlier battles, Qin Wentian clearly hid his strength. After that, he intentionally became arrogant, to force them to continue to commit to the challenge battle. For the third battle, he made it a death battle, killing Wang Yu, causing the Eastern Sage Immortal Army to suffer heavy losses and a loss of face.

For this immortal war, they were the ones with the initiation rights and possessed the advantage. The Cloud Prefecture has already been surrounded, yet they still lost so much face here? Even the personal disciple of his Majesty was killed. How could they answer to him?

The expression of Paragon Sky Roc was extremely heavy. He stared at Wang Yu's corpse as he coldly asked, "Who knows the identity of the masked man who killed Wang Yu?"

Wang Yu was the personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor but he was killed publicly just like that. In the future, they definitely had to hunt down the person who did it and avenge Wang Yu, giving the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor an answer.

"Before this, I've never heard of someone from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect that's proficient in devil energy. I know Qin Wentian and some among them had entered the Myriad Devil Islands. Could that masked expert be Qin Wentian or one of those who entered the devil islands?" An immortal king who was more knowledgeable about the adjudication battle, spoke.

"Impossible, how long has it been since that adjudication battle and how long did Qin Wentian cultivate for? Although he was at the ninth-level of immortal-foundation after the adjudication battle ended, how can the immortal king realm be so easily reached? Let alone, even if he really entered the immortal king realm, it's impossible for him to have such combat prowess and this level of cultivation base. That masked man clearly is at the peak-level of the initial-stage. It's impossible for Qin wentian to be him." Someone spoke in a resolute and decisive voice.

"You are right, I was just making a blind guess." That immortal king who spoke earlier nodded. His conjecture was truly a little over-exaggerated. It was basically impossible for that masked man to be Qin Wentian.

"Does no one know who he is? The attribute energies he is proficient in are: destruction, devil saber techniques and palm strikes. Think carefully, if someone like this is from the thirteen prefectures, his identity shouldn't be tough to guess." Paragon Sky Roc coldly spoke.

Everyone was frowning, they truly had no idea if there was such an immortal king character in the thirteen prefectures or not.

"Paragon, unless that masked man had never appeared before. If not, he should be reinforcements from the other powers that came to aid the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. If not, it's impossible for us not to know about him."

"That's right. All of them wore specially made masks to hide their identities. I feel that they must be reinforcements from elsewhere. We are very clear of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's strength. Only a few tens of years have passed, how can they have so many powerful immortal kings? Clearly, they asked for aid from the Evergreen Alliance." Another person supported this theory.

The eyes of Paragon Sky Roc gleamed with sharpness. The possibility of this theory being true was extremely high. After all, this time around, they...

"No matter who he is, remember, if you encounter him on the battlefield, all of you must do your best to take his life for the sake of his majesty." Paragon Sky Roc coldly spoke.

"Roger!"

"Definitely." All the immortal kings nodded respectively.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor right now was raging in his emperor palace. Bai Wuya actually dared to destroy his immortal sense projection, wanting to kill his personal disciple. This act was simply arrogant to the extreme.

His killing intent towards Bai Wuya became increasingly intense.

After that, he gave out an order, commanding the armies to press forward, surrounding the Cloud Prefecture's main city where the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was located.

As for the other side, Bai Wuya and the rest didn't continue to challenge the two other Eastern Sage Armies. They already killed a personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. How could their enemies not be cautious now?

The group of them directly returned to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, back to Bai Wuya's residence, and all of them were clearly in high spirits.

"Our harvest this time around isn't bad. Being able to kill a personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, this should be enough to make his heart ache with pain." The immortal kings removed their masks. Qin Wentian had first allowed the immortal kings from the Battle Saint Tribe to leave first earlier as after all, those gathering at Bai Wuya's place were all disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realm. The Battle Saint Tribe might be a power belonging to him, but the Heavenly Talisman Realm had its own rules. Nobody was allowed to flout them."

"Junior brother Qin is really awesome, and is crafty enough."

"Fellow brothers, why are you all in such a good mood. What happened exactly?" Those immortal kings who didn't go, all crowded around now. When the events of what happened earlier were summarised, everyone started laughing uproariously. Their eyes gleamed as they stared at Qin Wentian. This junior apprentice brother was truly something, able to make the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect suffer like this."

"Our battle achievements now are really not bad. Junior brother Qin alone slayed three immortal kings and crippled one. One of those he killed was even a personal disciple of Eastern Sage. Truly excellent indeed." Bai Wuya nodded his head.

"If all of you didn't coordinate with me, how can things go so smoothly?" Qin Wentian shook his head and laughed.

"Your strength is an important factor too." Bai Wuya spoke. "However, you have to be extremely careful from now on. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect will definitely pay attention to you. You should change your mask when you head out to the battlefield in the future. Also, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect might be making their moves soon. Everyone should go prepare well."

"Mhm." Everyone nodded. The challenge battle this time around was just a warm-up. The war happening next is then the true challenge!

Chapter 1385: Eastern Sage Personally Arrives

Just like what Bai Wuya had anticipated, there were soon movements in the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Spies reported that the four great armies of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had started to advance, from the common boundary outside the Cloud Prefecture, towards the capital of the Cloud Prefecture.

Many people in the Cloud Prefecture all silently sighed a breath of relief. For those who had the strength to leave, they left long ago. The ones remaining were all ordinary cultivators and had no way to traverse the vast distance needed to leave the Cloud Prefecture. But since this is the case, the battle would be set in the Cloud Prefecture's capital and the aftershocks wouldn't spread to too many other places within the Cloud Prefecture.

But even so, they were still extremely worried. Who knows if those immortal kings would choose to fight in the air? Immortal king experts can unleash might strong enough to decimate a vast area around them. If both sides didn't show control, the minor battles of the war could still be fought at any location in the air above the Cloud Prefecture and the aftershocks might reach them.

During the advancement of the four Eastern Sage Armies, the other major powers of the eastern regions soon received this news. They had always been paying attention to this war. In fact, there were already many people from the other major powers who had already infiltrated into the Cloud Prefecture silently.

In fact, even for major powers outside the eastern regions, they were also paying attention to this war.

For the war between Eastern Sage and Thousand Transformations, from a certain perspective, it was merely an extension of the war that happened in the Evergreen Immortal Empire earlier. In fact, if it wasn't for that emperor-ranked battle, the war between Eastern Sage and Thousand Transformations might not have erupted so early.

As the four armies advanced, it was impossible for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to attack any other target. If they did so, the other three armies would use this chance to launch attacks at the capital where the headquarters of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were at. Hence, it was impossible for the the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to stop the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. They could only allow their enemy to continue advancing through the Cloud Prefecture until they reached the outside of the capital.

The four armies advanced at the same pace, and arrived at the same time outside the Cloud Capital, surrounding it from four directions, directly sealing away this vast and majestic area.

The people of the Cloud Prefecture were all shocked. For those who had yet to leave, they were all feeling panic and unease.

The capital was surrounded. They didn't expect the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect to do this. Were they planning to annihilate everything inside the capital?

The situation grew extremely tense, seemingly about to explode with a single strike. The people of the cloud capital were all trying to flee, only immortal kings dared to still remain here. There were some immortal kings who decided to stay because they wanted to spectate the war.

An immortal war was a rarely seen event, given that there was such an opportunity, some neutral immortal kings would naturally be excited to spectate.

Right now, a great enemy was on the doorstep of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. They did once summon people from the countless cities of the five other prefectures to gather here before they lost control. However, only a rare few bothered about it, the vast majority chose to flee. How would the immortal kings of other prefectures really fight for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect? Although they weren't people of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, they were used to following the orders of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect back in the past. Also, a war would mean countless casualties. These people naturally didn't want to participate in it.

Naturally, there were still some who were recruited by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. But sadly, because the time the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect controlled the six prefectures was simply too short, making it so that their influence wasn't that great. They would need a period of ten thousand years to make the six prefectures in their control truly their territory, wiping out all influence from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Hence, in terms of numbers of immortal kings, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect still possessed an absolute advantage, able to suppress the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

At this moment, an announcement rang out through the cloud capital. Within three days, the people inside the cloud capital had to exit it and the Eastern Sage Immortal Armies wouldn't do anything to them. Three days later, they will lock down the cloud capital.

As this news circulated out, the cloud capital was seized by a commotion. There were some immortal-foundation characters who were still hesitating but after they heard this news, they instantly started to evacuate from the capital, not daring to delay. For those who remained, they were neutral immortal kings who wanted to spectate the war and those weaker characters who had no way to leave. These were the people that were filled with uneasiness.

Within the immortal palaces of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, right now, several experts flew towards a gathering point. An immortal-foundation army was stationed outside the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect but in reality, everyone understood that there was already no suspense for the immortal-foundation level battle.

Back then, they depended on immortal-foundation characters from the six prefectures they controlled to resist the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. But now, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect has already lost control of five prefectures. Their armies there were either all scattered to the winds, or already dead. It was basically impossible for a single prefecture's immortal-foundation army to withstand the onslaught of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect on the immortal-foundation level.

Hence, everyone understood that victory or defeat for this war, would still depend on the immortal-king level battles.

The immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were gathered at the huge field outside of the emperor palace. These immortal kings were the entirety of immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord walked over to the platform of the field and glanced at the gathered immortal kings.

"Everyone here, I'm very thankful and proud that you all are here, choosing to fight for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Our sect is considered to be a recently established one and I have not nurtured any immortal kings. Everyone here are those who have followed me in the past, or those who joined me after I took over the six prefectures." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke. He then continued, "The danger in this war needs not be emphasized any further by me. Right now, the Eastern Sage Armies have already surrounded the capital, there will definitely be casualties among us. If we are fated to lose this war, I will give the retreat order and everyone will flee if you can still flee. But if we obtain victory, for those who died in battle, I will take care of your family members. For those who are fortunate enough to survive, the rewards will be given according to what I said earlier."

"Even if you didn't manage to kill another immortal king of the enemy side because your combat prowess is weaker, I won't treat you unfairly too. Next, according to my promise, I will first bestow immortal weapons for all of you to choose." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord waved his hands as hundreds of immortal weapons floated in the air, so dazzling that it dazzled the eyes of everyone.

This scene caused everyone to sigh with admiration. As expected of an immortal emperor, his wealth is truly astounding. Many of these immortal weapons are extremely high-graded and powerful ones.

For this war, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord took out several immortal-ranked weapons and bestowed it to them.

"Choose a weapon which you are most familiar with and refine it. We will make the preparations for war." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord continued as everyone nodded their heads. The people then chose the weapons they were familiar with and many of them were extremely excited. Because, the weapons they obtained were far stronger compared to any other items they owned. The treasures of an immortal emperor are extraordinary indeed. This was the difference between joining a sect and not.

After everyone chose their weapons, the Emperor Lord kept the remaining ones. "I believe that ultimately, victory will still belong to us. Everyone, you have leave to return to your residences and make your own preparations."

All the immortal kings left. Very soon, only the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and Bai Wuya remained here. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord then sighed. "This time, things are going to be tough. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect's immortal kings are already superior in terms of numbers and they even have aid from the other major powers."

"For battles at the immortal king level, the number of people makes no difference. What determines victory is still the power of those who are at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm." Bai Wuya spoke in a low voice.

"Mhm, it's precisely because of that that I'm worried. Before this, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect kept waiting and didn't press the attack. According to news, they should be waiting for more people from the other powers to reinforce them. That, in addition to their two paragons who are at the peak of the immortal-king realm, they should be very strong at the immortal-king level." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke.

"We don't have to worry. The people Wentian brought with him are all very powerful. Among them, there are several who are at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. I think they should be able to handle the two paragons of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect who are at the absolute peak of immortal king." Bai Wuya spoke. The eyes of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord gleamed. He naturally knew of Qin Wentian's followers but he didn't probe Qin Wentian about them. But now, since the time for life and death was coming, they were sure that Qin Wentian would allow his immortal king followers to participate in the war.

"Mhm, let's hope the force under Wentian would be of great use to us." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord nodded his head.

"Emperor Lord, there's no need to worry. If we are unable to achieve victory at the immortal king level, let's launch the emperor-ranked battle then." Bai Wuya's eyes gleamed sharply.

An emperor-ranked battle holds many implications. And they understood that right now, this was the sensitive period of the eastern regions. If an emperor-ranked battle occurs, it might start a chain of unexpected events. Unless they were at the critical junction of taking their last stand, usually, no one would launch an emperor-ranked battle.

"However, things might still be able to proceed according to our original plan. Don't forget, we still have a trump card." Bai Wuya laughed, exchanging a glance with the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord as both of them nodded. They had started planning for this war a very long ago, far earlier compared to Eastern Sage. From this point, they believed that they possessed an advantage.

Bai Wuya then departed. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was staring into the horizons.

Victory or defeat would be determined on this. Would he cleanse the humiliation of being defeated by the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor in the past, or would he have to slink away in defeat.

He had waited too many years for this battle and he had to be victorious for sure, settling this issue in his heart and from then on, continuing to pursue an even higher cultivation realm.

After three days, it was unknown how many experts fled from the cloud capital. This place that was previously extremely lively, was now extremely quiet with no one on its street, resembling a city of the dead.

Finally, today, in the airspace above the cloud capital, swirls of violent wind gusted as the sky changed color. A supreme pressure bore down on everything. The source of that pressure was from emperor might.

A gargantuan throne appeared in the horizons and after that, a gigantic figure appeared there and sat down. The figure was so large that it was extremely imposing. His eyes alone were as big as cities and a single hand seemed capable to wipe out the stars. Sitting on that throne, the eyes of this figure peered down at the cloud capital.

"The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor has arrived." The hearts of everyone trembled. The gigantic silhouette in the air was none other than the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. In addition, he came here personally, and not a projection formed of immortal sense.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor personally arrived to command his army in this war against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

A bright beam of light shot up into the air. Lightning crackled as another gigantic figure appeared up in the air, staring at the capital.

This man, was none other than the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord!

Chapter 1386: Showdown

"Two immortal emperors." Countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky. Their hearts were all trembling, these two were immortal emperors, true hegemons of the eastern regions. They were characters with enough power to turn a small particle world into dust, or destroy an immortal city easily.

They were existences at the pinnacle of the entire immortal realms.

It's said that back then in the once-per-hundred year recruitment event of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord appeared and fought the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor to a draw and forcibly demanded for the control of six prefectures.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had to compromise because he wasn't able to defeat his opponent. This was how the six prefectures got handed over, and how the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was established.

However, everyone understood that it was only a temporary compromise. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor would definitely seek to take back his territories sooner or later and give a harsh smack to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord's face.

Now, this day has finally arrived. For the first time, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor came to the place where the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was located. In addition, he did so in such an imposing way, with four of his great armies in the area, preparing to destroy everything.

"RUMBLE!" The earth trembled as the four armies started to advance forward, entering the capital. Everywhere they passed by was levelled to flat ground.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect wanted to destroy the cloud capital completely. This entire place was a humiliation in the history of the Eastern Sage Thirteen Prefectures. After this war, the Cloud Prefecture would no longer exist.

The Eastern Sage Armies had over tens of thousands of immortals, how tyrannical was that? As they proceeded forward, people inside the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect could already sense the ground trembling even when the armies were very far away. The army of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was incomparably nervous. This war was a true battle of life and death.

"Halt." At this moment, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke. A moment later, the four armies halted at a distance extremely far away from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and didn't continue advancing. Their movements were all extremely uniform and neat to behold.

"A game of chess, how about it?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord.

"Since this is an invitation by an old friend, I will naturally comply." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. The two of them didn't seem to be the slightest bit angry at all.

"Since you are the guest, you can go first." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord stretched his hand out in invitation.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor directly lay down a chess piece. This piece of his glimmered with light and exuded a sense of sharpness.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed and placed his piece down too. His chess piece similarly gleamed with a blinding light, and was like a bolt of thunder, wanting to tear everything asunder.

Countless people below lifted their heads, as their hearts trembled. The two immortal emperors actually still had the mood for chess? The armies below were all waiting.

The two of them played their next piece. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor moved his knight as he commanded, "Start the war."

As the sound of his voice faded, the four armies each sent out a representative. These four were powerful experts, all of them were at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm.

"Great offence, we welcome the battle." The Thousand Transformation Emperor Lord moved a chess piece in response. Below on the ground, within the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Bai Wuya spoke, "The enemy sent out four initial-stage immortal kings. At the same level, who is willing to accept this battle?"

"I'm willing to battle."

"Count me in!" Another voice spoke.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed, "I want to participate as well."

This time around, Qin Wentian changed his mask. The specially made mask radiated a special aura able to block all immortal senses from prying through. No one would be able to see his true features.

Undoubtedly, Qin Wentian was one of those which the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor wanted to kill the most. Hence, it was still better for him to be cautious, in case the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor gave the order for his immortal kings to gang up on him.

"The four of you, each of you will head to a direction and accept the battle." Bai Wuya waved his hand and spoke to the four who volunteered. The chosen immortal kings nodded and each walked towards their respective opponents.

Although the Eastern Sage Army has already entered the capital, they halted at a place quite far away, leaving a huge space for combat. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord would personally command their sides as they played chess. The sparring of their chess pieces is also another battlefield.

Qin Wentian continued forward until he met with the immortal king sent out by the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. He had no idea what the situation was like in the other three battlefields. But since the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor chose this method to announce the start of the war, the immortal kings sent out by them were naturally all extremely powerful without a doubt.

He had to win this battle for sure no matter what, killing his opponent.

The immortal king fighting against Qin Wentian was a middle-aged man with a long face. His eyes gleamed with a sinister light and a dangerous aura radiated from him.

"RUMBLE!" From Qin Wentian, an intense light suddenly burst forth. He soared into the air as his silhouette disappeared in an instant. Numerous shadows of great rocs appeared in the air, shuttling through space, as the wind whistled.

The middle-aged immortal king released his law domain. In an instant, black fog enveloped the entire area as the silhouette of a giant python appeared, breathing out black mist, trying to trap the roc shadows.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" Qin Wentian unleashed the power of God's Hand along with his terrifying movement technique. He shone with an even more dazzling light and moved even quicker, like a bolt of lightning. The black python had completely no way to catch up to his speed.

The middle-aged immortal king frowned. His opponent actually had such quick speed. Also, under the effect of his law domain, his opponent didn't seem to be affected at all. From this, he could tell that his opponent also possessed a fearsome defense.

His immortal sense extended outwards, wanting to lock down on Qin Wentian's silhouette.

"Swish~" The shadow of the rocs shuttled about, he could sense the rough location of Qin Wentian despite his speed under the area locked down by his immortal sense.

In an instant, he congregated terrifying swirls of energy, forming dragon pythons of darkness that breathed out even more black mist as they lunged forward, wanting to devour Qin Wentian.

"Chi, chi…" A brilliant wave of destructive sword beams suddenly erupted. This source of sword might was from the Immortal Vanquishing Swordplay and it was powered by God's Hand. In just an instant, this sword light expanded to over ten thousand feet.

The dragon pythons of darkness were all sliced into pieces. The remnants of the sword might continued slashing out towards the body of the middle-aged immortal king.

Under the shine by the bright glare of the sword light, the middle-aged immortal king turned pale. He launched out a punch, yet it was clearly not sufficient to block the absolute killing might of this beam of sword light. Qin Wentian's attack continued through and directly pierced through him cleanly.

From the light, a face filled with despair could be seen. After a clean piercing sound echoed out, the body of the middle-aged man was torn apart.

One hit sure kill technique.

"Beautiful!" In the direction of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, all the immortal kings were paying attention to the battles with their immortal senses. When they saw how dominating Qin Wentian's strike was, all of them had excited looks on their faces.

Victory was obtained in an extremely beautiful way for this battle.

However, Qin Wentian was extremely calm. He turned and walked back to the direction of the Thousand Transformations Camp. This method of combat was the most direct as well as the most dangerous.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord were still playing chess and didn't even bother to look at the battles below. To people of their level, this was merely the prelude.

After that, the other battles in the three directions all concluded. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect won one, and lost one, as well as fighting to a draw for the last one.

However, for the battle which the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect won, they managed to kill an opponent. For the battle which the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect won, they only managed to heavily injure the opponent.

For the first round of fights, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was clearly at an advantage, managing to take the lives of two immortal kings from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect.

However, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor didn't seem bothered at all. He moved another chess piece and calmly spoke, "Let the middle-stage immortal king battles begin."

As the sound of his voice faded, a middle-stage immortal king walked out from each of the four armies located in the four directions.

"Who is willing to battle?" Even before the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke, Bai Wuya already took charge.

Similarly, four mid-stage immortal kings stepped out. Two of them were the original immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect while the other two had masks on, they were from the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

These four battles were extremely intense and the final result was that both sides won two battles, causing the second round to be a draw.

Countless experts inclined their heads and stared upwards. Initial-stage and mid-stage immortal kings have already concluded their fights. Next, it should be time for peak-tier immortal kings to move out. Will the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor send out people for this level?

This time around, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor didn't say anything. On the chess board, a small-scale encirclement could be seen, the chess pieces charging around violently in an extremely tyrannical battle.

"Sky Dipper Regiments, move out." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke. As the sound of his voice rang out, from the four directions the Eastern Sage Armies were located, 36 immortal kings walked out from each direction. This time around, the entire Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was shocked.

A total of 144 immortal kings, what a powerful formation this was. This clearly was the true foundation of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, a major power that had held sway for countless years in the thirteen prefectures. They had summoned several city lords and prefecture lords to answer their call for this war.

On the chessboard, only now did the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord realize that the chess pieces in four directions just so nicely totalled 144. They had completely surrounded his pieces, causing the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord to furrow his brows. He could tell that this attack was not so easily handled.

The four Sky Dipper Regiments of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect came with unkind intentions and now, they were already in the form of a battle formation!

Chapter 1387: Four Sacred Creatures Battle Formation

Bai Wuya was frowning as well. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor actually used this method, he clearly came prepared. Each of these immortal kings had a different cultivation base, but the positions the four groups were standing at, was clearly in the form of a battle formation.

"They are able to use combination-formations as well." Bai Wuya spoke in a low voice. Undoubtedly, such a formation will be able to boost their attacking prowess. With 36 immortal kings grouped together, each in one of the four directions, the attacking might would be inconceivably immense. If individual immortal kings were to directly defend against it, for those of the same level, they would only find themselves being slaughtered. Unless of course, their cultivation base was a whole level higher in comparison.

"Saint Lord, we also have a combination-formation technique." Some of the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe sent a voice transmission to Qin Wentian, their words causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flicker. He then sent a voice transmission back to Qi Yu, "How many people do you need in your combination-formation?"

"We have a 9 person, 36 person, and even an 81 person battle formation. But this is purely a combination formation made for people of my tribe. Others wouldn't be able to join in." Qi Yu explained.

"In that case, fine. Let the 36 of you group into a formation and deal with their Sky Dipper Regiment in one of the directions." Qin Wentian replied. Although he could split the 36 people up into four groups of nine to a formation, it's evident that a 9-people formation would clearly be much weaker. If he split them into the four different battlefields, there's no way he can guarantee that their side would be able to gain victory. In addition, if they lost, the members of the Battle Saint Tribe might even die."

Qin Wentian, as the Saint Lord of the Battle Saint Tribe, he had a responsibility to these people who willingly chose to follow him. By grouping them into a single formation of 36 people, he was able to guarantee victory in one of the directions.

"We will group into a formation and deal with the enemy in one of the directions." Qi Yu who was masked, gave a command. The other 35 members of the Battle Saint Tribe were wearing masks as well, with the picture of demonic apes on it. There was no way to differentiate who was who but Qin Wentian also didn't need others to clearly recognize the Battle Saint Tribe.

"Right, you all will deal with the enemies in that direction." Bai Wuya pointed to the east. Their opponents there were the ones whose average cultivation bases were the highest, and posed of the most difficulty to deal with. Bai Wuya highly regarded the people Qin Wentian brought with him, he believed that they would be able to obtain victory.

At the same time, Bai Wuya assembled three other groups. Each group had elites in them and the leaders of the groups all had masks on. Clearly, they were people from the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

Bai Wuya's expression was heavy. The battle had started. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was truly prepared extremely well for this, and there were also experts from the other major powers within their ranks. A total of 144 elite immortal kings, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect alone might not be able to produce such numbers.

Very swiftly, the 36 experts of the Battle Saint Tribe encountered one of the Eastern Sage's regiments. They all then stood in unique positions while releasing their law domains. Because the techniques they cultivated in were similar, their law domains were similar as well. When the 36 of them stood together, their individual strength formed a resonance with each other as startling light erupted forth, causing intense waves of battle might to permeate the area, capable of destroying everything.

Their enemy's formation was a battle formation named the Azure Dragon Battle Formation. Their aura was extremely vast and the form of a true dragon appeared in the air, wanting to rip apart this entire space.

"RUMBLE~" Fearsome might erupted forth as the immortal kings in the formation all poured their energy into the true dragon manifestation, causing it to turn even more corporeal. Its majestic head, its shining dragon claws, its dragon scales gleaming with a brilliant light...all these were sufficient to strike fear in the hearts of people.

However, at almost the same time, a divine ape manifested from the combat formation of the Battle Saint Tribe. Numerous smaller divine apes joined together, forming a gigantic one. It exuded a sense of violence and brutality, resembling a battle god.

For the other three battlefields, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had the Vermillion Bird Battle Formation, the White Tiger Formation and the Xuanwu Turtle Formation.

In the area where the vermillion bird formation was, the entire temperature in the area was scorchingly high. When the manifestation formed, the pair of vibrant red wings caused waves of heat to gush forward to those experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

For the White Tiger Battle Formation, a white tiger manifested, its baleful qi towering up into the sky. It was like a king of slaughter and exuded an intense killing aura.

For the Xuanwu Turtle Battle Formation, the divine turtle shell created an iron fortress that was almost impenetrable.

This particular set of battle formations are known as the four sacred creatures battle formations. Azure dragon, White tiger, Vermillion bird and Xuanwu turtle. Each in one direction, their combined might can be considered boundless and this was one of the most tyrannical combination formations of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. It would be the sharpest weapon, created to pierce the heart of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

Even the chessboard manifested into the air. In the four directions, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's pieces were finally in formation, and was slaughtering their way to the side of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord steadily placed down a piece, deciding to use the tyrannical method of force against force, moving against the Azure Dragon Battle Formation.

"Do you think you can break my formation?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor laughed coldly. He didn't even glance below and gave his full focus to the chessboard. After placing down one more piece, all four battle formations below started to act.

"It's a taboo being too full of yourself." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed.

Down below, the roars of the Azure dragon could be heard as it lunged towards the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe, the intensity shaking heaven and earth.

However, the divine ape was also roaring back to exert dominance. The two blasts of sound waves clashed in the air, causing the space nearby to rumble. Upon facing the incoming dragon claw, the divine ape lifted its gigantic palm and slammed out. With a thunderous boom, boundless battle saint light gushed forth, transforming into boundless battle saint might.

"RUMBLE!" A fearsome collision resounded out as the dragon claw shattered. The chess piece in the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's hand hadn't fully landed on the chessboard and he suddenly frowned, finally glancing below.

He only saw 36 beams of light fusing together from the Battle Saint Tribe's formation. At this moment, an overwhelming pressure crushed down on everything, wanting to cause the Azure dragon to collapse. A moment later, under that indomitable pressure, the Azure dragon's body shattered bit by bit and the 36 immortal kings in the Azure dragon formation all coughed out blood.

"ROAR!" The divine ape howled, as a giant palm smashed down from the sky. Those enemy immortal kings all had unsightly expressions, they completely had no time to reform a new formation and could only retreat hurriedly, preparing to flee from the battlefield.

The speed of the gigantic palm was extremely ferocious, killing over ten immortal kings in an instant. This was simply complete dominance.

"ROAR!" Another howl filled the air. The divine ape stepped forth, causing the earth to quake. Both its palms once again smashed out, rumbling the surrounding space. Those fleeing figures felt their bodies trembling intensely as a wave of destructive might washed over them.

A moment later, a heaven-blotting palm imprint grabbed towards the fleeing immortal kings.

All of them had ugly looks as they unleashed their most powerful attacks in order to escape. However, without the augmentation effect of the battle formation, how could they withstand it? They were simply ants trying to shake a tree and were destroyed directly. It was useless even when they took out their divine weapons. In fact, there were even several immortal weapons damaged from the impact of the divine ape's attacks.

The immortal kings of the Azure dragon formation died one after another. In just a few breaths of time, all 36 of time had fallen.

These 36 were all immortal kings, the backbone of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. However, in just a few short seconds, all of them were already wiped out.

The expression on the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor turned gloomy as he asked, "Who are these experts? Which major power are they from?"

"I have no idea." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. However, at this moment, a subordinate below called out, "Your Majesty, these people are very similar to the immortal-foundation characters around Qin Wentian. They seem to be skilled in the same type of techniques, and have followed Qin Wentian into the sacred academy back then."

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor rarely paid any attention to immortal-foundation characters but there were still people in the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect who did so. When the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor heard this, his eyes suddenly gleamed with redness.

"Qin Wentian!" The eyes of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor flashed with a terrifying killing intent. The 36 immortal kings actually didn't even have a chance to flee and were all slaughtered. Even for an immortal emperor character like him, he still felt pain in his heart.

But since they have already died, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor could only depend on the other three battles. For the vermillion bird battlefield, his men had achieved absolute suppression towards their opponents and already killed several immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. The people of the vermillion bird battle formation were all immortal kings proficient in fire-attributed energy. By pooling their energies and forming vermillion bird flames, it was enough to destroy their opponents.

The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's forces were no match, and after suffering heavy casualties, they hurriedly retreated.

Turning his gaze around, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced at the battlefield where the White Tiger Battle Formation was deployed. The manifestation of the white tiger was like a god of slaughter. The 36 immortal kings within the formation were all proficient in brutal killing techniques and under the stacking of their strength, this white tiger formation was extremely terrifying to fight against.

However, for this battlefield, there were actually quite a few powerful characters from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Although they were at a disadvantage, none of them was killed.

The attacks from the white tiger grew even more ferocious as the immortal kings poured in all their energy. Baleful qi swept over everything and at this very moment, a person within the White Tiger Battle Formation suddenly slashed out with his sword, his killing intent engulfing everything around him.

"Chi, chi, chi…" Bursts of sword might ravaged his surroundings as fresh blood splattered about.

"IMPUDENT!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly roared, his expression extremely ugly to behold. This immortal king was actually killing his own allies. Those who formed the White Tiger Formation naturally wouldn't defend against someone in the same formation as them.

Such a powerful strike under such a tense situation was naturally critical. Instantly, four immortal kings from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect were killed and several others were injured. The power of the White Tiger Formation instantly dwindled and before everyone could react, that expert who killed their members had already flown out on a flying sword while the other immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect rushed out to attack them!

Chapter 1388: Prepared for the Final Battle

"Traitor. Is he a spy?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had a very ugly look on his face. As an immortal emperor, even if immortal kings die, it wasn't sufficient to make him furrow his brows. But when such great variables happened one after another, he had no way to maintain the calmness of his heart.

The Azure Dragon Formation was completely decimated. Their opponent's cultivation bases and battle formation were both stronger. In addition, that batch of experts had a connection with Qin Wentian and this already made the Eastern Sage extremely unhappy. Now, there actually was a traitor in his sect too, hiding in the shadows and only acting at the final decisive moment, dealing critical damage.

Staring at the changing situation, the White Tiger Formation who was holding on to an absolute advantage at the start, was now in a state of chaos. Both sides clashed wildly, as the expression on the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's face turned more and more unsightly.

"Thousand Transformations, to think that you are so despicable." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stared at his opponent.

"Eastern Sage, it's wrong of you to say that. All's fair in love and war. If your spies were the ones who managed to infiltrate my Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, would you miss such an excellent opportunity? This is a real war. Being charitable to your enemies is equal to being cruel to yourself."

"This time, the immortal kings we sent out are truly the immortal kings of my immortal sect. But you actually got aid from outside? Could it be that you have long planned on how to deal with me? In that case, ever since you had been defeated all those years ago, you have been unwilling to accept the fact and you've been scheming since then?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke.

"Naturally, in order to pursue a higher cultivation realm, I first have to sweep aside all distractions and regrets of my past. Even if I'm not too attached to authority and power, I still have to take over the thirteen prefectures. Even if I grew tired and decided to abandon the thirteen prefectures in the future, I still must make them mine now." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord stared at the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor as he spoke.

"Haha, I thought you have already forgotten the humiliation of defeat. In that case, it seems that I will have to make you savour the taste of defeat once again properly." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor laughed, radiating immense confidence.

Below them, the battles still continued. Because of that betrayal, the White Tiger Formation was in complete chaos. In addition, Bai Wuya specially chose extremely powerful individuals to group together and fight the White Tiger Formation. The situation completely reversed and in the end, the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had no choice but to flee.

For the Xuanwu Turtle battlefield, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was the one that obtained victory. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had lost several immortal kings as well.

Usually, immortal kings were extremely lofty characters strong enough to become the leading characters in any area. In this war alone, so many of them had died. A war started by emperor-ranked powers was truly incomparably brutal. The immortal kings were all characters at the peak of whichever city they went to. But on the battlefield and in an immortal war, immortal kings seemed so tiny and insignificant.

"Haha, Eastern Sage you are so confident but you didn't even gain the slightest bit of advantage using the four sacred battle formations. In fact, that round could be considered as a loss to your Eastern Sage Immortal Sect." The laughter of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was filled with coldness. Immortal kings were the core and backbone of any major power. The death of each immortal king can be considered a heavy loss but there was no way to avoid this in an immortal war.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had a look of gloom on his face. The four sacred battle formations was a killing move they prepared but they actually didn't manage to gain an all-out victory. Not only that, the azure dragon battle formation was completely slaughtered. That, truly could be considered as a defeat to them.

"Since this is the case, let's take a look at the true strength of both our armies." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the chess piece in his hand landed down onto the territory of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, as it began an invasion.

An instant later, the four armies led by the four paragons all gave the command simultaneously. "Immortal-foundation armies of our Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Kill your way through the immortal-foundation experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Annihilate them all and level their sect to the ground."

As the sound of their voices faded, the killing began. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord's countenance changed. He then spoke, "The immortal-king level battles should be sufficient to determine the results. Why is there a need to let the blood of immortal-foundation characters dye the vast ground red?"

"My armies possessed an absolute advantage when it comes to the immortal-foundation level. You took six prefectures from me back then, and these people are willing to join you to fight against me, this means that they are my enemies. Since this is the case, I will let all the cultivators in the thirteen prefectures know what the ending is like for going against me. I shall let their fresh blood flow endlessly within the Cloud Prefecture and from now on, there will no longer be any powers in the thirteen prefectures who dares to go against me."

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor calmly spoke. His immortal-foundation armies have already advanced and launched the attack. However, the might they could unleash was clearly inferior to immortal kings but even so, it was still extremely shocking.

For some of those neutral immortal kings who chose to remain behind as spectators, their hearts all trembled when they heard the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's words. As expected of the tyrannical Eastern Sage. He started this war and he didn't simply want the defeat of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. He wanted the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to be destroyed completely, annihilating their experts. Razing the Cloud Prefecture to level ground to warn everyone in the thirteen prefectures the consequences of going against him. At the very least, in the thirteen prefectures, he had to be an absolute tyrant.

"Prepare to fight!" Bai Wuya's voice was filled with killing intent. The immortal-foundation characters of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect gradually formed their battle formations and in an instant, violent waves of pressure gushed forth as they rushed forward. Since combat is inevitable, they could only face it head-on.

The armies soon met in the airspace of the Cloud Prefecture's capital. And in a single exchange, countless attacking techniques were launched, causing the heavens and earth to tremble from the intensity.

As the intense rumbling sounds echoed, more and more experts died. In such a large-scale war, an individual's strength was usually not that significant. There were some extremely powerful battle formations, for example, the one formed by Qi Da's group, able to easily slaughter any opponents that encountered them.

There were also some extremely powerful immortal-foundation characters who have the ability to fight beyond their levels. These were the exceptions, they could easily sweep over their opponents with invincibility.

For example, a lanky figure who was clad in white. His speed was extremely fast and he wielded a long spear. The wheels of samsara seemed to turn in his eyes, and could cause his opponents to sink into illusions with a single glance before he executed them. In just a few moments, he alone has already slaughtered over ten enemy immortal-foundation experts.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was still playing chess with the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. But in reality, he was also paying attention to the battle situation below. His immortal sense was extremely powerful, easily able to surround the whole battlefield. As long as he wants to know anything, no details would be able to escape his eyes.

"Isn't that the disciple of Myriad Manifestations?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor frowned, feeling somewhat unhappy. When he first met that young man, it was during his immortal sect's recruitment event. That person was none other than the disciple of the beautiful immortal king, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King.

"Your Majesty, his name is Hua Taixu and he once joined forces with Qin Wentian before. The relationship between the two of them seemed to be pretty close and had acted against our Eastern Sage Immortal Sect together when they were in the city of ancient emperors." An immortal king replied, pointing at Hua Taixu. "Your Majesty, should we kill him?"

"Is Myriad Manifestations here?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced at the immortal kings below them, of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. There were many immortal kings wearing masks, and there were a few with alluring figures. Clearly, these were female immortal kings.

Only to see that at this moment, one of the immortal kings removed her mask. It was none other than the beautiful Myriad Manifestations Immortal King. She stared at the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and spoke, "I greet your Majesty."

"Are you going against me?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor calmly asked.

"Your Majesty, my disciple has some conflict with some members of your sect in the past and was implicated from then on. Even for me myself, I've ran into trouble because of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect many times. As a weak woman, I really have no choice. Please forgive me, your Majesty." The Myriad Manifestations Immortal King smiled.

"Since you have already thought so clearly about this, it's enough." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke as killing intent flashed within his eyes.

"Eastern Sage, don't be so angry that I found many sources of help. You have to understand that your immortal sect is used to acting tyrannical, and can't gain any respect from the public." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. Many experts then turned to Hua Taixu but the long spear in his hand waved about dazzlingly and instantly, his enemies all fell into a daze. Piercing sounds rang out as the immortal-foundation characters around him all died.

"Excellent, his talent is truly good and has learned many tricks from you." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was extremely unhappy. In the battlefield for the immortal-foundation level, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect actually had so many powerful characters. Especially so for a certain formation formed by a group of Battle Saint Tribe's members. Those people should have a connection with Qin Wentian.

"Why don't I see Qin Wentian? Doesn't he hate me very much?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke, glancing at the situation below. Within the sweep of his immortal sense, he couldn't find Qin Wentian. Those with masks are all immortal kings. Could it be that that little brat back then actually broke through to the immortal king realm so quickly?

If this was true, he truly had to slay that little brat. He didn't want to leave behind any roots of trouble.

"Qin Wentian is still weak. Eastern Sage, you care so much about him?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed, he didn't reveal Qin Wentian's location. Since the Eastern Sage was so interested, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord would let him guess as long as he wants to.

Earlier, Qin Wentian in reality, had already fought a round. Although his features were masked, if the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor used his immortal sense and checked meticulously, there's a chance for Qin Wentian to be discovered. However, as an immortal emperor, he disdained using an immortal sense to check each and every initial-stage immoral king.

"For those who dares to humiliate me, I naturally must pay special attention to them." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor icily spoke. As the two of them continued the chess game, Bai Wuya was furrowing his brows. Although his side had several outstanding individuals at the immortal-foundation level, they were suffering too great a disadvantage in terms of numbers. Many of their immortal-foundation experts died unceasingly. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect seemed bent on wiping all of them out.

If this was the case, Bai Wuya can only take the initiative to launch an all-out war.

"Prepare for the immortal-king level war." Bai Wuya spoke. After that, the immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were grouped into four camps and they then headed towards their enemies in each of the four directions.

"No more patience?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly laughed. The four paragons laughed as the immortal-king level war was prepared to be launched in full!

Chapter 1389: Immortal King Tuoba

Staring at the situation below, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor also began to launch an offensive on the chessboard. After he placed his piece, he laughed, "Thousand Transformations, the numbers of my immortal kings far exceed yours. How can your side battle?"

"Have you become so old that you turned foolish? When has an immortal-king level battle ever been determined by numbers?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke. "For a peak-tier immortal king, what's the use even if you use a hundred initial-stage immortal kings to outnumber him? They would all still be instantly slaughtered. Cultivation base and combat prowess are the things that decide victory. Could it be that you have forgotten how Bai Wuya crushed Deepflame back then in the war in that particle world?"

"Hmph." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly snorted when he was reminded about the death of the Deepflame Immortal King. Deepflame was someone who followed him and warred on his behalf for countless years. Who could have thought that Bai Wuya was hiding his strength. He was so powerful that he insta-killed Deepflame, causing Deepflame to be unable to flee at all. Bai Wuya even broke through to the immortal-emperor realm when he was in the sacred academy.

Of the two people whom the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was the most unhappy with, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord wasn't one of them. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was merely someone defeated by him in the past and came back for revenge. He was most unhappy with the two juniors, Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian.

"To think that even now, Thousand Transformations, you are still going to obstinately persist in being wrong. We have an overwhelming advantage in terms of number and can simply smother you with that superiority. How can our battle strength be weaker? Just wait and see." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke.

Below in the four battlefields, the vast number of immortal kings occupied the boundless space. For battles among immortal kings, each of their fights required an extremely vast space or the aftershocks would simply be too terrifying.

Even for forming a battle formation, they also needed to have enough space.

For the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, other than the four sacred creatures formation, they actually had three other grand formations as well. If it wasn't for one of their formations being completely annihilated, they would have a total of eight formations.

For each of the four sacred creatures formations, powerful immortal kings were within. At the same time, the moment someone in the formation died, they would instantly send in reinforcements to replenish the energy the formation needed.

Other than the battle formation, there were also many experts planning for combat. Among these, there are even some extremely powerful characters. Only then would the immortal-king troops be able to unleash their prowess to their greatest potential.

In the eastern direction, the 36 immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe were guarding there. In this area, the number of experts from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was the fewest. Because, in order to produce immense might from a battle formation, other than an individual's cultivation base, one also has to take into account the cultivation techniques they learned. These 36 immortal kings, the 20 weakest among them were at the middle-stage, and there were 16 at the top-stage with 3 already at the peak.

Before this, they easily slaughtered the azure dragon battle formation of their enemies, achieving absolute suppression and dominance. Hence, it wasn't an issue for them to take control of a single direction. There were a total of two enemy battle formations in each direction and they had already annihilated one in the eastern direction.

"How brazen." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly snorted when he saw this scene.

"Earlier, you should have seen the power of this battle formation. With 16 top-stage immortal kings among them, what's the problem in me letting them taking charge of that direction?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke. Although the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had many immortal kings. The vast majority of their immortal kings were initial-stage, followed by mid-stage. Their top-stage and peak-stage immortal kings were the fewest.

As for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, although they didn't have plenty of immortal kings, most of their immortal kings were at the top and peak stage.

"Let's wait and see then." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian was in the northern direction, he didn't stick together with those of the Battle Saint Tribe. After all, he couldn't really contribute much to the formation formed by them.

In the northern battlefield, it was the battlefield Paragon Golden Cauldron was responsible for. He was a peak-stage immortal king, standing at the pinnacle of that realm and had tyrannical strength. And as for Qin Wentian's side, he similarly had a leader responsible for the northern battlefield here. The leader was a senior from the Heavenly Talisman Realm and had a mask on his face. Earlier when chatting within the sect, Qin Wentian heard that this senior's surname was Tuoba, but nobody knew his full name. Many members of the Heavenly Talisman Realm were very respectful towards this person and addressed him politely as senior apprentice brother Tuoba.

Other than several fellow apprentices of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the beautiful Myriad Manifestations Immortal King was in this battlefield too, causing Qin Wentian to be very surprised. Back then, senior brother Bai Wuya and the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King were spectators invited by the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor when he went to Qin Wentian's particle world to recruit disciples to do a favor for Qing`er. That was the first time Qin Wentian encountered Bai Wuya and her.

Now, he actually has the opportunity to fight together with her on the same battlefield.

In this direction, two powerful enemy formations were here. One was the Vermillion Bird Formation, while the other was the Xuanwu Divine Turtle Formation. There were also other immortal kings around them, with Paragon Golden Cauldron standing in their center. Not only that, there seemed to be another extremely powerful expert standing behind the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. The position he was standing in seemed even more important when compared to Paragon Golden Cauldron's position.

"Who is that man?" Qin Wentian silently mused. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had launched an all-out war decisively and they naturally would have completed all their preparations. Other than the four paragons, they definitely would still have some trump cards.

At this moment, an intense burst of immortal light radiated from that man. In an instant, the fluctuations of law energy engulfed all the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. An instant later, the light seeped into them, covering them in a holy radiance and their auras actually were all rising up.

"Supportive augmentation methods!" The countenances of the experts from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect changed. Their opponents were originally terrifying enough. Now, in addition to such a method, the combat strength of their enemies instantly rose to another level. Not just for one enemy, but for all of them. This was definitely critical to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"They actually have such a plan." Qin Wentian frowned. He knew that there were some unique law domains and cultivation techniques that could boost combat strength. But the abilities of that man was truly extremely suitable for large-scale battles like this. Now, the pressure his side was facing, was overwhelming.

The expression of Paragon Golden Cauldron was cold and tyrannical. Before this, their Eastern Sage Armies kept waiting and didn't push to attack because they were precisely waiting for a few more experts to arrive. The man standing behind him was none other than one of those experts. It would naturally be for the best if they could annihilate their opponents just by paying a small price of just waiting a little.

"Today shall be the doomsday for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." Paragon Golden Cauldron coldly spoke. However, at this moment, Immortal King Tuoba stepped out. Fluctuations of might from the laws gushed forth from him and enveloped all the kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Within this law domain, a resplendent sacred light cascaded down on everyone, containing traces of the absorption attribute."

"Don't resist it. Pour all your law energy into my law domain, I will be able to use them." Immortal King Tuoba spoke. After that, everyone nodded and didn't resist the absorption ability, choosing to blast out their immortal energy wildly instead, allowing the law domain to absorb them. This surge of energy entered Immortal King's Tuoba's body, as he suddenly expanded in form, like an invincible king of the world, standing before the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, giving the impression that he was one man fighting against the world.

His real name was Tuoba Saintsky. He had cultivated in the Heavenly Talisman Realm for many years and because of his law domains' unique properties, he grew stronger step by step at the immortal king realm until the stage he was at today. Now, he was able to congregate all different attribute energies within his law domain and convert them into any kind of attribute energy for his own use. This was simply tyrannical to the extreme.

As for his own cultivation base, it was already extremely strong. Being able to produce such a powerful law domain was proof that he had been consolidating his foundation at the immortal king realm for a very long time, Now, he was already at the peak-stage and was considered one of the rarer geniuses in the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Also, after the stint in the sacred academy, he was now just a single step away from the immortal emperor realm.

"As expected, we do have our trump cards as well." When Qin Wentian felt the rising aura of Tuoba Saintsky, he couldn't help but to nod silently. Regardless of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect or the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, both of them made ample preparations and were showing their trump cards bit by bit.

"KILL!"

The Paragon Golden Cauldron commanded. A moment later, the Xuanwu Turtle Battle Formation spat out an icy breath, freezing everything in its surroundings. A powerful frost engulfed everything, causing everyone to shiver. At the same time, the Vermillion Bird battle formation also spat out heaven-incinerating flames. These two energies of different attributes gushed forth from two different directions.

The sacred light from Tuoba Saintsky grew even more radiant. He seemed to possess boundless strength. Stabbing forth with his finger, a giant rampart formed of astral energy materialized, blocking the attacks of their enemies.

"RUMBLE~" Violent surges of chaotic energy ran rampant as the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect rushed over. Paragon Golden Cauldron also had his strength boosted. A gigantic golden cauldron floated in the air above him, spinning wildly about, sending out waves of might that shattered the giant rampart as his men rushed forth.

"Sever his connection with the others." The Paragon Golden Cauldron commanded coldly.

Tuoba Saintsky punched out with both fists, gleaming in golden light, possessing an indomitable force. The heavens and earth rumbled, as both his fist imprints drilled through everything, radiating hints of the law of gold.

"Assimilation? Absolute conversation? He can completely assimilate all those different kinds of law-attribute energies and convert them perfectly for his own use, using different kinds of attribute-energy depending on the situation?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced at the battlefield as an unsightly expression appeared on his face. At this moment, the clash between both sides finally erupted in full. Many outstanding immortal kings that possessed shocking might also appeared.

However, why did the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect have so many powerful peak-stage immortal kings?

"Eastern Sage, your preparations are very thorough indeed. The battle formations in four directions actually have a hidden attribute that boost their strength. Are you sure all these people are from your Eastern Sage Immortal Sect?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord took the initiative and spoke first.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stiffened, he didn't think that the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord would say the things he wanted to say first. He couldn't help but to coldly reply, "What about you guys then? How many years of history does your sect have? How can there be so many peak-stage immortal kings?"

"Haha, seems like we are both the same." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed as he gave a vague reply, as though intentionally planning to mislead the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor!

Chapter 1390: Great War

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was really misled by the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. After all, his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect did borrow aid from external powers. His allies from the war with the Evergreen Immortal Empire back then, helped him out this time as well. As for the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor believed that he also obtained aid from his allies back then, as well as some hidden powers in seclusion.

After all, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was always cautious in everything they do. Even if they did things that caused others to be suspicious, they will ensure there's a logical excuse, so no one could trace their suspicions to the roots. If it wasn't for the grand mission of unifying the thirteen prefectures, the Heavenly Talisman Realm probably wouldn't allow so many of their members to reveal themselves. After all, it was impossible for the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor to link things to the illusory Heavenly Talisman Realm. He would naturally think of the Evergreen Alliance instead.

At this moment, these two powerful individuals also had no mood to continue playing chess. The war had truly erupted and was split into four battlefields. The aftershocks caused by an immortal-king level war with so many immortal experts would cause even immortal emperors like them to feel some apprehension.

In the battlefield Qin Wentian was in, Tuoba Saintsky was truly extremely powerful. The law domain he unleashed had truly reached the pinnacle, able to instantly convert all types of law-attribute energy. The power of his attacks was extremely fearsome, but because their enemies had the advantage of superior numbers, they were using it to the best effect and were preparing to split and encircle Tuoba Saintsky, separating him from his group.

The Xuanwu Turtle Formation was the battle formation with the highest defense. It acted as a meat shield and tanked Tuoba's attacks, while the Vermillion Bird Formation was responsible for attacking. Paragon Golden Cauldron was controlling everything. The expert providing the augmentation effects were standing safely at the very back. He had no need to join in the battle, just his law domain made him far more important compared to anyone else, even exceeding the importance of Paragon Golden Cauldron.

"BOOM!" When Tuoba Saintsky saw that the enemies wanted to surround him. He willed a surge of gravity-attributed law energy to descend upon the enemies in his domain. This vast space was flooded with a formless weight. On the battlefield, he had to make sure he could use different kinds of attribute-energies from his comrades effectively at the right timing in order to unleash their greatest potential.

After the gravity-attribute, it was spatial-attribute. He punched out once more as boundless destructive might roared, tearing apart the void, directly killing two immortal kings who were unfortunate enough to be on the receiving end of his attack.

The expression of Paragon Golden Cauldron grew extremely ugly to behold. He floated in the air, and the gigantic cauldron beside him descended from the sky, suppressing the surrounding space. This giant cauldron didn't attack Tuoba, but was targeting the immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect behind him instead. As long as he could sever their connection, Tuoba Saintsky wouldn't be so overwhelmingly powerful.

When they saw the Paragon's movement, many people on their side knew it was about time for them to attack.

However, Tuoba chose this moment to make his move. This time around, his target was the expert providing the augmentation law domain who stood all the way at the back. When Paragon Golden Cauldron saw this scene, his countenance sank as he commanded, "Stop him!"

The Xuanwu Battle Formation instantly appeared before Tuoba, wanting to block his attack. Tuoba Saintsky's eyes gleamed with coldness, he roared thunderously, ignoring the attacks launched his way as he channeled the entirety of his strength to shatter the Xuanwu battle formation. With a deafening boom, the Xuanwu formation completely disintegrated and the immortal kings within were all pushed back to different positions.

At the same time, a spatial wall appeared before Tuoba, while the numerous attacks sank in, wanting to break apart the wall.

"BOOM!" The gigantic golden cauldron slammed down, yet Tuoba Saintsky didn't seem to see it. Both of his palms were like the hands of god as they grabbed towards the expert with the augmentation law domain, who was standing behind the Eastern Sage Immortal Army.

The countenance of that expert drastically changed, he hurriedly retreated and sought to flee.

"Where can you go?" Tuoba coldly spoke. In an instant, his gigantic palms radiated waves of absorption might, releasing a powerful suction force that locked onto that expert. That expert's expression turned incredibly ugly when he realized he couldn't move at all.

"Kill him!" That expert roared. Paragon Golden Cauldron and the remaining Vermillion Bird Formation directly launched attacks, wanting to take Tuoba Saintsky's head. Flames surged over, wanting to incinerate the heaven and earth, yet Tuoba seemed as domineering as ever. Three types of law-attribute energies surrounded him, granting him an absolute defense. His palms were radiating the absorption might, drawing immortal kings near to him before the attribute-energy switched to frost, instantly freezing his target.

"BOOM!" That giant palm smacked down, directly shattering the frozen body. Even for peak-tier experts, they were unable to withstand Tuoba Saintsky who has access to so many different types of law-attribute energies.

But at this moment, the defense of his back was being targeted by the enemy immortal kings who circled around him earlier. As long as they could break the defense, they would be able to reach the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect's immortal kings who were providing energy for Tuoba. If they could disrupt the connection, Tuoba would instantly be weakened severely.

Tuoba was still as calm as ever. He retracted his palms and at this moment, the area around his body turned into a scorching hell. He glanced at the Vermillion Bird Battle Formation in front of him and punched out with his fists, which burst forth with a powerful sacred light. His punches flew over like meteorites, exuding an incomparably heavy pressure, wanting to destroy everything, His two punches were enveloped by flames of destruction, slamming against the Vermillion Bird Formation. With a clear shattering sound, the Vermillion Bird Formation disintegrated and the immortal kings within all groaned in misery as they retreated.

Taking advantage of this moment, still ignoring the attacks at his back, Tuoba channelled the energy flooding into him into a howl of anger. This heaven-shaking howl was filled with the law-attribute of music. Tainted with his killing intent, this roar directly shook the retreating immortal kings so bad that the weaker ones started bleeding from all seven apertures. Tuoba sent out another fist attack, dealing the critical strikes to the already injured immortal kings, directly killing many of them.

This time around, Tuoba Saintsky's main mission was to kill the expert with the augmentation law domain, as well as disintegrate their opponents' formations. He has already achieved these two points and could be considered to have accomplished his mission.

Finally, with the cost of the lives of so many immortal kings, his connection with the immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was finally severed. The surviving immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect instantly began to target their opponents. Paragon Golden Cauldron had an ashen look on his face when he stared at Tuoba. He couldn't help but to ask coldly, "Who exactly are you?"

Why was such a powerful character in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and was virtually unknown to everyone before? He really wanted to see the true face under the mask.

Tuoba Saintsky didn't reply. He punched out directly, and even without the support from the other immortal kings, his attacks were still overwhelmingly strong. At the same time, he frenziedly absorbed the energy from heaven and earth for his own usage, and even the law fluctuations from Paragon Golden Cauldron's attack which had yet to dissipate, could be used by him as well.

At the battlefield Qin Wentian was at, two immortal kings appeared before him, but they were both initial-stage immortal kings. After all, the aura he exuded was that of an initial-stage immortal king.

Although for this battlefield, the number of experts from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was clearly more than the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, they still need to properly seek out their opponents. Since the battle formations had collapsed, they could only seek out opponents themselves. Qin Wentian was an initial-stage immortal king. By sending two against him was already a clear indication of the superiority of numbers the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect possesses.

Qin Wentian glanced at the two enemies before him. One of them brandished a terrifying immortal-weapon in the shape of an axe. That axe radiated a fearsome sharpness and to immortal kings, ordinary immortal weapons wouldn't be able to boost their attack at all. Only weapons belonging to a higher cultivation tier or matching their attributes, would be able to do so.

That opponent directly cleaved down with his axe at a speed as quick as lightning. A line opened up in the air as space was torn apart. As for the other immortal king, he grabbed towards Qin Wentian as a mysterious energy enveloped and sought to bind him. He could feel a formless energy obstructing his movements.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian's body suddenly erupted forth with a blinding light. God's Hand was activated, his palms became as sharp as a weapon. Runic light flared as devil might churned wildly, grabbing out towards the air. He actually managed to grab hold of that giant axe with his bare hand. A thunderous boom rang out, but Qin Wentian held fast, he didn't evade despite his hand trembling intensely from the impact.

Qin Wentian stared at his opponent. A tyrannical aura gushed forth from him, causing his opponent's heart to tremble. After that, Qin Wentian shot his other palm out as terrifying bolts of destructive lightning painted the sky black. This attack was the power of judgement he obtained from the Myriad Devil Islands. His attack ignored his opponent's defense and directly killed his opponent, leaving the other enemy immortal king stunned by the speed.

The other immortal king stiffened. He glanced at Qin Wentian before choosing to retreat decisively. Qin Wentian was too strong, he knew he was no match for him.

Qin Wentian stepped forth and grabbed out with his hand. That black-colored power of judgement descended, causing the immortal king's expression to turn ashen. After that, Qin Wentian stabbed out a finger strike as a blood-colored glow erupted forth, tunneling through the body of the immortal king as that immortal king died instantly.

Right now, although Qin Wentian was at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm. If he fought seriously in combat, only an extremely rare number of people at the same level would be able to stand against him. Two initial-stage immortal kings fighting him was simply an act of courting death. They wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

Qin Wentian glanced at the battlefield as he moved to other locations. Although they had already caused their enemies' battle formation to collapse, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was still inferior in terms of numbers. If they wanted to obtain victory, he and the other members of the Heavenly Talisman Realm would have to shoulder this burden, fighting in a one-on-one combat style and do their best to wipe out their opponents. This was the only way they could win now!

Chapter 1391: Assassination from the Void

Other than the battlefield Qin Wentian was in, a large-scale battle also occurred in the other three battlefields.

The 36 immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe formed a battle formation that contained boundless might. They took charge of a single direction, defending against several hundred immortal kings but was soon surrounded and suffered terrifying attacks. But even so, the amount of strength generated by their formation was far beyond their opponents.

Although the four sacred creatures formations were powerful, not everyone was suitable to be in them. They could only select those suitable immortal kings to join the formations. It was different for the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe. The battle formation they were using was one tailor-made for their tribe. When the 36 of them joined together in this formation, they could wield the might generated as they desired.

In addition, the cultivation bases of the Battle Saint Tribe's immortal kings were extremely high. 16 among them were peak-stage, just how terrifying was this? The others were also mid-stage at the very least. When they released their battle saint might together, an intense wave of battle might would sweep forth with invincibility.

For every attack launched, if there are people who dares to face it head-on, those who did so would die for sure. There are already over ten immortal kings dead by the hands of the Battle Saint Tribe. Their enemies didn't dare to clash directly with them, they could only use methods to delay and control them while borrowing the strength of their superior numbers to encircle the Battle Saint Tribe. Dazzling immortal weapons appeared and sent out numerous attacks towards the Battle Saint Tribe's formation. However, none of them dared to get too close and chose only to attack from a distance.

In the air, the gigantic divine ape had a fearsome glint in its eyes. With a roar of anger, the entire space shook and the initial-stage immortal kings all instantly coughed out blood as their bodies trembled involuntarily. They felt that they narrowly died from just a roar by the divine ape.

"Break their formation, we can't let them continue attacking us in this manner," The paragon in the air coldly commanded. Although the 36 immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe were standing in different locations, they were still within range of the battle formation they established. When they aimed their attacks at certain experts within, the power of the formation would instantly surge over and protect them. If they can't break apart the formation, they could only wait and be hunted down by people of the Battle Saint Tribe.

The expressions of all these immortal kings were extremely unsightly. All of them were considered powerful experts in the immortal realms and naturally understood that they have to break apart the connection between the experts before they could have a chance to break apart the formation. However, they didn't have any chance at all. Depending on one's individual strength was akin to an ant trying to shake a tree and their battle formation didn't dare to clash head-on with the Battle Saint Tribe directly.

Right now, the experts within the Battle Saint Tribe folded hand seals as a divine glow radiated from their bodies. Their bones shimmered with battle saint light, causing waves of light to descend from the sky, forming a unique resonance with them. The battle ape drummed on its chest before placing its palms together and mirrored the hand seals made by the experts within the formation. An instant later, the unique light resonating with the experts, also covered the divine battle ape as a boundless battle might gushed forth from it.

"Careful, break them apart!" Paragon Sky Roc who was in the air suddenly roared. Although he wasn't able to participate in combat, he could still issue commands and remind his troops. This wouldn't be considered as breaking the rules.

Paragon Sky Roc could already sense the resonating energy within heaven and earth, the amount of power concentrated by their opponent's battle formation was in overwhelming amounts and this caused him to feel a sense of unease.

At this moment, the divine ape roared at the skies, causing the space around it to rumble as an ancient runic character "战" representing the word for battle, appeared in the air. It expanded rapidly and 36 strands of immortal king energy could be felt within it.

Next, the 36 immortal kings slammed out with their palms, as the ancient rune for the word 'battle,' gleamed and produced a torrent of battle might, seeking to destroy all existences. All the countenances of the immortal kings changed. They hurriedly all launched their strongest attacks towards the gigantic rune but when their attacks landed on it, their attacks were all shattered by brute force, transforming into the void.

"BOOM!" The ancient rune appeared before an expert. When that expert directly came into contact with the resonance energy, he instantly disintegrated and didn't even have the time to scream.

"Retreat!" Paragon Sky Roc roared again. All the immortal kings seemed to have sensed something and quickly fled away, while unleashing their most powerful attacks to defend.

The sounds of swishing echoed out as the ancient runic word caused enemy immortal kings to be turned into dust unceasingly. Even their battle formation disintegrated when the battle rune flew near. Several weaker immortal kings instantly died from that and the remaining half suffered injuries of different extents. They had to borrow the power of their divine treasures and weapons to stay alive.

For people within the battle formation, they were already in such miserable states. For those who were not inside, their fates were needless to say. Finally, the power of the battle rune diminished and faded away but now, the hundreds of immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was only left with several tens of them.

Naturally, the battle formation of the Battle Saint Tribe had also collapsed and the divine ape disappeared. Their auras fluctuated wildly. Clearly, that last attack exhausted the majority of their strength. Although the 36 immortal kings were still in their original positions, some of them were sitting cross-legged and some even had their eyes closed.

However, the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect that still survived felt terror in their hearts. Their faces were pale and extremely unsightly to behold. They didn't dare to take the risk to launch another attack.

"Boom!" The chess piece in the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's hand crumbled from the pressure he was applying. His expression turned ashen as he stared at the immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"Same kind of bloodline and their bones seemed to contained battle might. They are definitely descendants of an extremely powerful ancient clan." The heart of the Easter Sage Immortal Emperor trembled. Why was such a powerful ancient clan unheard of in the immortal realms? And why did these people follow Qin Wentian?

Although he also admitted that Qin Wentian's talent was extremely high, along with his quick cultivation speed and ferocious combat prowess. Qin Wentian ultimately, still had a very low cultivation base, merely at the immortal-foundation realm. How could he convince these immortal kings to follow him? Things seemed somewhat illogical.

"Eastern Sage, seems like the superiority in terms of numbers counts of nothing. Your guys are in such a miserable state now." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. In the eastern battlefield, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect only sent the 36 immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe there. Even the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord himself didn't expect such a situation. Qin Wentian's people could actually handle a battlefield alone. This greatly alleviated a great deal of the pressure on him.

"That attack exhausted the vast majority of their strength. Victory isn't clear yet, and there are also other battlefields." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. The battlefield in the northern direction was also extremely intense. Experts of both sides clashed madly against each other. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect still attacked via battle formations with other immortal kings around to provide reinforcement and support. This battlefield was similar to the one where Qin Wentian was in. Standing far behind the immortal kings, there was also an extremely powerful character with a unique domain. His law domain affected emotions, able to boost the morale of his side while giving off crushing despair to experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"Spiritual-type illusion attacks. When one cultivates illusionary techniques to a certain realm, they will be able to form a phantasm-type domain. Eastern Sage, is someone like this really capable of being nurtured from your immortal sect?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord asked.

"As long as I can gain victory in the war, what does it matter if it was my sect who nurtured him or not?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor laughed coldly.

"Naturally there's a connection. If that immortal king was nurtured by your immortal sect, you will definitely feel heartache when he dies. But if they are not, the other major powers would be the one feeling their heart aching instead." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed.

"What do you mean by this?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. But at this moment, he suddenly furrowed his brows as he glanced downwards. In the next instant, his immortal sense extended outwards.

He sensed a ripple from the void but his immortal sense actually couldn't spot anyone, only the existence of that ripple. It felt like someone was hiding in the void, in a separate dimension from everyone else.

The countenance of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor changed, he immediately transmitted his voice out, "Everyone, be careful!"

That expert with the unique domain frowned. His senses were extremely sharp and he could already feel that there was an unknown energy approaching with great speed. His eyes suddenly turned over to a certain direction as a powerful spiritual might gushed forth. However, he didn't find anything. He could not lock into that source of mysterious energy surging over.

"Chi!" A sword pierced forth as cold light illuminated the sky. It happened instantly, that expert didn't even have time to blink. A powerful immortal king stepped out from the void and delivered a killing blow.

That expert with the unique domain slammed out, reacting quickly while unleashing his illusionary attacks. However, at the next instant, the cold light of the sword suddenly vanished without a trace but the sense of crisis grew even stronger. That expert hurriedly retreated and at this moment, spatial fluctuations could be felt from behind him. Terror appeared on his face, he wanted to turn about but another beam of sword light appeared from the void, accurate and ruthless to the extreme.

"Puchi…" A sword blow sealed his throat. That expert with the unique domain didn't even have time to do anything. The assassin simply retracted his sword and as his silhouette flashed, he vanished once again.

The countenance of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was incredibly ugly to behold. He could be considered to have thoroughly prepared for this war and even invited many extraordinary characters to aid him. Not only for the battle formations, there were augmentation domains and domains which could weaken their opponents as well. However, the preparations made by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect seemed even more thorough than him. What made the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor feel cold was that it seemed that each of their plans were known to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and their strategy was designed perfectly to counter them.

"Spies?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor thought about the matter of spies again. There isn't simply a single spy in his immortal sect. Many years ago, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord had already sent people to infiltrate his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and right now, after so long, some of those spies might already even be in key positions.

Chapter 1392: Sons of the Eastern Sage

The war has already started, even if the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor knows that there are spies, there was already no time to ferret them out.

Also, leaving aside the issues of spies, that immortal king assassin used such a top-tier assassination technique that even the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had no way to clearly sense him. When the assassin stepped into the void, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor instantly knew that that immortal king had a unique law domain. When coupled with assassination techniques, that law domain was truly extremely terrifying.

That peak-stage immortal king proficient in the spiritual illusion attacks was killed so quickly in that short instant. Not only that, the assassin didn't stop, he immediately entered the void once more and when he appeared again, a mid-stage immortal king was already killed by his sword. Fresh blood splattered across the sky and this scene made the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect tremble from terror as they felt a chill in their hearts.

Not only do they have to battle, they still had to be on guard against such a powerful assassin. There was simply no way to give it their all on the battlefield. The pressure on the immortal kings of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were instantly lifted.

Swishing sounds rang out as two more immortal kings were assassinated. Not only for the immortal kings of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, even the assassin's allies felt a shiver down their spines. Luckily, this assassin was on their side or they would truly be in an extremely miserable state. With such skill, even peak-stage immortal kings would find it tough to defend against it. There was no need to say anything about mid-stage and initial-stage immortal kings, they would all die with just a single strike.

"There are no powers among the eastern regions that can produce and nurture such a powerful assassin immortal king. The Southern Phoenix Clan cannot either." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's expression was extremely ugly to behold. The strength of a peak-stage immortal king assassin was fully displayed on the battlefield.

"Eastern Sage, I warned you before this that for immortal-king level battles, superiority in numbers cannot prove anything. An extremely powerful immortal king can easily control the situation." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord calmly spoke. "As for his origins, can the major sects only teach disciples based on fixed paths? Each individual has his own talent and comprehension. The path an individual should walk, should be dependant on him alone. Others can guide him and show him the way, but ultimately, it would still depend on the individual himself as to what path he wants to walk."

"A total of four persons. You prepared four peak-stage immortal kings with unique abilities and there are so many immortal kings with masks on. I'm really very curious where do they come from?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. The four he was referring to, other than Tuoba Saintsky who was in Qin Wentian's battlefield, and other than that assassin hiding in the void, there were two other extremely powerful immortal kings at the other battlefields. The strength of those two was exceedingly strong. One emphasized on being the main attacker while the other could increase the combat strength of those around him, somewhat similar to one of the top-notch experts he prepared.

Given how strong these four are, in addition to those from the Battle Saint Tribe, they became the key figures of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and were existences who could determine whatever happens on the battlefields.

However, this was the battlefield for immortal kings. If they pay attention to the immortal-foundation level battles, although the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had the advantage, both sides already had heavy casualties. If they continued on, nobody knew how many deaths there would be.

"Eastern Sage, why don't you withdraw your troops? You wouldn't be able to gain victory against my Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. If we continue fighting, even if the thirteen prefectures don't have my Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, your Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would be weakened by such a large extent that other major powers might covet the thirteen prefectures." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke when he saw so many people dying with every instant. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had a gloomy expression on his face.

Withdrawing his troops? This time, his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect came here in such an impressive manner, confident in their victory for sure. Bringing with them their resolute belief, they wanted to eradicate the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect completely and reunify the thirteen prefectures.

If they retreat just like that like a cowardly rat, their attack this time around would fade to nothing but froth and shadows. There was no longer meaning in them taking back the five other prefectures. In addition, his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect would also become a joke in the immortal realms and the momentum would completely be with the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. In the future, for any clash they might have, they would no longer possess the initiative.

"The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect has to be destroyed no matter what." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly replied. The cruel war continued, and the four immortal king-level battles were fought in the air, with the immortal-foundation level being fought on the ground in the capital itself.

An immortal war has always been extremely cruel. It was unknown how many experts would fall. For those who struggled so hard to reach the immortal-foundation realm, they were nothing but cannon fodder in a war like this. For lofty immortal kings, they had a chance to die in battle as well simply because, this war, was orchestrated by immortal emperors.

In the air, another group of experts appeared. They directly went to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's location as they all greeted, "Royal father!"

"You guys go choose your own battlefield." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at these figures as he spoke, "Eastern Sage, you even dare to send all your sons to participate in this war? You truly want to leave no road for retreat, don't you? Wanting victory at all costs. If your sons died in this war, wouldn't you go crazy from anger?"

"Battles of life and death can be treated as a tempering exercise. What's more is the fact that they won't die so easily." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. All his sons glanced at the battlefield as they advanced forward. Dongsheng Yin, as the eldest son of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, was exceedingly powerful. He directly walked towards the battlefield Qin Wentian was in, intent on killing Tuoba Saintsky.

At this moment, Tuoba Saintsky was currently fighting against Paragon Golden Cauldron. Their battles were exceedingly intense. Dongsheng Yin arrived and instantly joined the fight, punching out his fist, causing demonic dragons to form as they lunged with ferocity towards Tuoba Saintsky.

Other than Dongsheng Yin, another son of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor walked to the same battlefield. Dongsheng Kun, he is also extremely powerful and is now at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm.

"Seems like the old dog Eastern Sage is truly going all out wanting to destroy the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." When he saw this scene, Qin Wentian's expressions turned cold. Back then, he once killed the youngest son of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, Dongsheng Ting, causing the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor to be extremely enraged. However, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had many children. His eldest son was especially powerful and has already reached the peak-stage of the immortal-king realm. In addition, he had emperor-ranked armor and weapons, and could truly be compared to an immortal king at the absolute pinnacle.

Qin Wentian now was killing initial-stage immortal kings and had already hunted down many. In such a chaotic battlefield, it was very easy for either side to hunt down their opponents as the immortal kings are all looking for enemies as the same level as them. Usually, higher-levelled immortal kings wouldn't act against lower-levelled immortal kings because taking down an opponent on the same level as them was far more effective to gaining victory compared to wiping out a few low-levelled immortal kings.

At this moment, Qin Wentian could be seen using another strike to finish off an initial-stage immortal king. Dongsheng Kun came into the vicinity and glanced over. His eyes flickered with a cold light as he rushed towards Qin Wentian. Only a few moments passed before he stood right in front of Qin Wentian, blocking Qin Wentian from any further slaughter.

The eyes that were the only part of his countenance revealed from Qin Wentian's mask, were gleaming with a cold light. A son of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor?

Dongsheng Kun released his law domain. As a mid-stage immortal king, although he was just in the early-phase, his law domain was already extremely terrifying. It contained the ability to rip everything to pieces. Sage light erupted around him as his bloodline power was activated. His aura was tyrannically powerful, unbelievably strong.

"Kill!" Dongsheng Kun coldly shouted. The violent ripping windstorm gushed towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's expression turned heavy. Runic light covered his body, his physique was as strong as a true fiendgod, unexcelled in this world. That ripping law-energy had no way to break apart the defensive law energy enveloping him.

This scene caused Dongsheng Kun to frowned. An initial-stage immortal king actually was able to block his law attack?

"RUMBLE!" A thunderous explosive noise filled the air. Dongsheng Kun raised his fist, flaring with sage light as his fists broke through space, sweeping through everything. The fist light was extremely blinding and was infused with the laceration-law attribute, capable of ripping everything apart.

This fist strike directly tore into the void. Qin Wentian had no way to react, he could only circulate his law energy wildly in response. Lifting his palm, he slammed out, forming a destructive palm imprint that came into contact with the fist strike. The impact forced Qin Wentian back several steps. Devil might churned wildly around him as a devil saber materialized in his hand.

"Mhm?" At this moment, Paragon Golden Cauldron glanced over. "Be careful, he is the man who came to challenge our Eastern Sage Immortal Sect's armies before. His saber arts are extremely bizarre."

Earlier, after getting information from Paragon Sky Roc, Paragon Golden Cauldron instantly understood that Qin Wentian's group hasn't merely challenged his army. He also went to challenge Paragon Sky Roc's army. Hence, the people of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect already knew of his existence. After all, this masked man was the one who killed Wang Yu, the personal disciple of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

"Chi…" Qin Wentian directly cleaved down with his saber. The entire area churned with devil might as his saber slashed out towards Dongsheng Kun.

Dongsheng Kun punched out with his fist as waves of brilliant light flooded the area, negating the saber strike.

Qin Wentian didn't hesitate and continued slashing out with a second strike. The devil light in the area grew more violent. Clouds swirled about wildly amidst destructive might as well as a sharp saber intent.

"BOOM!" Dongsheng Kun stepped out with indomitable force, chaining his punches together, causing the space around him to rumble. A burst of sage light bloomed as his fist might grew even stronger.

Heaven collided with earth once more as the saber light was destroyed together with the fist light. The amount of power was simply shocking.

Boundless amounts of devil might infused Qin Wentian's devil saber. With a thunderous strike, it's overwhelming might swept over everything, wanting to kill Dongsheng Kun.

Dongsheng Kun seemed as though he wanted to see how strong Qin Wentian's saber strike was exactly. He domineeringly took a step forward and howled in anger. His fist attacks stacked upon each other, breaking through everything, shattering the saber attack once more.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, his eyes flashed with a demonic light. An overwhelming supreme saber intent was formed from the devil might. This saber intent seemed to possess sentience and was humming malevolently.

"The fourth saber strike?" Dongsheng Kun coldly spoke. His fist shadows covered the sky as he unleashed his clan's technique, the Sage Fist Art.

"DIE!" Qin Wentian roared. As his saber arced down the air, Dongsheng Kun only felt a destructive devil saber manifesting within his soul. After that, the humming devil saber directly streaked by, avoiding the fist shadows as it continued towards Dongsheng Kun.

"Careful!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced over. In the next instant, a moment before the strike landed, an armor of darkness automatically appeared, covering Dongsheng Kun. This armor of darkness seemed to be made from dragon scales. It gleamed with a bright light, diffusing the attack power but the impact still sent Dongsheng Kun flying through the air!

Chapter 1393: The Third Immortal Emperor

What sort of character was Dongsheng Kun? He is the son of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and would naturally have powerful treasures on him. The armor of darkness enveloped every inch of his body and the sharp-shaped visor also covered his face, only revealing eyes that were coldly staring at Qin Wentian.

"Soul attack? Your fourth saber strike actually contains a soul attack." Dongsheng Kun stared at Qin Wentian, his words causing the others around them to be in shock. This masked expert was actually proficient in soul attacks? Was this the secret behind the bizarre fourth saber strike?

Only to see Dongsheng Kun taking out another powerful weapon. This weapon was a pair of specially made gloves and after wearing them, the aura from Dongsheng Kun's hands, became even more overwhelmingly strong, multiplied by several times.

"You are really the same as your father, as shameless as him. When dealing with someone beneath your cultivation level, you even needed to borrow the aid of offensive and defensive treasures?" Qin Wentian mocked. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor in the air furrowed his brows. The familiar tone of this masked expert, he seemed to have heard it somewhere before.

"There's only one purpose why we fight in the battlefield." Dongsheng Kun coldly spoke. He lifted his palms as his law domain surged forth, causing a stronger than ever might to gush out. When his fist light shot out again, it actually blotted out the sun, tunnelling through space, slamming into Qin Wentian in an instant, shaking everywhere the fist light passed by.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian's law domain was released. This domain contained destructive devil might and the augmentation effect of God's Hand. The sky was covered in God's Hand palm imprints that unceasingly launched attacks to defend against the fist light. However, at this moment, Dongsheng Kun wasn't fearful at all. With two supreme treasures on him, if he really still couldn't handle Qin Wentian, that would be a humiliation to him.

Qin Wentian wasn't afraid at all either. He stepped out as his eyes gleamed with a terrifying light. The devil-attribute law energy churned wildly in his domain, creating a supreme phantom that radiated an imperious and domineering devil intent, shooting straight into the eyes of Dongsheng Kun. At this moment, Dongsheng Kun actually felt his will bending, his mind was filled with the desire to submit to Qin Wentian.

"You guys invited a devil cultivator from the devil islands?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly asked. Such a powerful devil art, it was impossible for someone to learn this in the immortal realms. Only a place like the Myriad Devil Islands would have such a powerful devil-type technique.

"Hmph." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly laughed. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor still had no idea who this person was?

But it can't be blamed on him. How could he have imagined that the immortal-foundation character whom he despised back then, was now already capable of fighting against his son, Dongsheng Kun, who was at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm?

Dongsheng Kun's fist light blasted out while Qin Wentian's palm attacks defended.

"Even with you borrowing aid from the power of your treasures, you won't be able to kill me." Qin Wentian arrogantly spoke. Stepping out bit by bit, the devil might grew even stronger, wanting to dominate everything under the sky.

Dongsheng Ting was naturally unwilling to accept this. He continued to launch attacks frenziedly as the distance between the two of them grew closer and closer. Their attacks could shake the sky and the aftershocks could ravage the earth.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced at their battlefield. When he sensed the even-strengthening devil might, as well as the weakening of Dongsheng Kun's will and aura, as well as the hint of destructive might and God's Hand in the law domain, his expression drastically changed as he sent out a strand of immortal sense to focus on Qin Wentian's body, feeling his aura.

"Eastern Sage, what are you doing?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly asked when he discovered the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor sending out his immortal sense.

"He is Qin Wentian?" The expression of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor turned extremely ugly to behold. After the adjudication battle, Qin Wentian then was still at the ninth-level of immortal-foundation. How many years has it only been from then? Only slightly over ten years but now, not only has Qin Wentian entered the immortal king realm, he was already at the later-phase of the initial-stage, and his combat prowess could even match up to his son, who was at the mid-stage.

"You only discovered this now?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly laughed, confirming Eastern Sage's guess. At this instant, an extremely cold light flashed in the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's eyes.

"You best not interfere in their battle." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord calmly reminded. Right now, Qin Wentian upon borrowing that ever-strengthening devil might, his aura had already risen to the peak. Countless palm imprints congregated and stacked together, forming a gigantic palm of annihilation that smashed out towards Dongsheng Kun.

Dongsheng Kun roared in anger, his fist might swept over, wanting to destroy everything. The heavens and earth rumbled as Dongsheng Kun unleashed the Sage Fist Technique, unleashing a storm of blows towards Qin Wentian.

"GO TO HELL!" With a loud shout, both his fists penetrated through everything, slamming into Qin Wentian's body of laws. At this instant, dazzling beams of fist light shot over. Even the Thousand Transformations Emperor started to frown, he didn't understand what Qin Wentian was doing. Why was Qin Wentian still not taking out divine weapons to defend and actually chose to allow Dongsheng Kun's attack to reach him?

However, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor on the other hand, had a cold smile on his lips. He was very clear of Dongsheng Kun's strength. If this fist landed, the power was sufficient to claim Qin Wentian's life.

"Pu…" From Qin Wentian's eyes, two terrifying beams of darkness shot out. They were like devil sabers, slicing into the soul of his opponent, causing Dongsheng Kun to instantly lose consciousness. Ater that, Qin Wentian stabbed out with his fingers, aiming for Dongsheng Kun's eyes that was the only body parts revealed from his suit of armor of darkness.

"YOU DARE?!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stood up, his rage towering up the sky.

"Chi…" Qin Wentian's body was flung through the air from the impact of Dongsheng Kun's attack. However, his own attacks were akin to saber intents that directly pierced into Dongsheng Kun's eyes. A moment later, a scream of misery rang out. This strike not only pierced Dongsheng Kun's eyes, there was naturally some other effects as well. Dongsheng Kun clasped his hands over his eyes as his body fell from the sky. He was in an extremely pitiful state.

"Kun!" From afar, when Dongsheng Yin saw this scene, his countenance drastically changed. How can this be? Could it be that Qin Wentian purposely endured the strike just to find a chance to strike at Dongsheng Kun's only opening - his eyes?

Qin Wentian's felt his inner organs trembling and on the verge of being destroyed after enduring that fist strike. He coughed out a mouthful of blood, but his eyes were flashing with ruthlessness. His attack should be sufficient right? Even if Dongsheng Kun didn't die, he would be crippled.

Dongsheng Yin and Paragon Golden Cauldron hurriedly rushed to Dongsheng Kun's side, temporarily leaving their battlefield while Tuoba Saintsky also rushed towards Qin Wentian. He arrived in an instant and asked, "Are you alright?"

"If I got killed by the son of old dog Eastern Sage, that would have truly been too shameful." Qin Wentian removed his mask, revealing his pale countenance. His eyes were like lightning as he stared in the direction of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

"Vile creature." The killing intent in the eyes of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor intensified. At the same time, his heart pounded with shock. How could this be? Despite enduring Dongsheng Kun's attack, Qin Wentian was still relatively okay? He didn't seem to be in any life-threatening danger and was merely injured. On the contrary, his strike almost ended Dongsheng Kun's life.

"Eastern Sage, don't forget the rules. It's you who told your sons to join the battlefield. You better not try to interfere." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly spoke, standing up as well, prepared to block the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor if he made any moves.

"Kill him." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly commanded. His killing intent towards Qin Wentian had already reached an extreme.

Many experts instantly rushed in Qin Wentian's direction, wanting to destroy him. This was also the reason why Qin Wentian chose to mask his identity earlier.

Tuoba Saintsky's groups rushed over, protecting Qin Wentian by his side. Qin Wentian was at the center of them and this commotion instantly caused chaos to erupt. Even for those logical immortal kings, they also forgot about finding opponents of equal levels. Everyone started to clash wildly.

The other three battlefields were just as intense. Several figures came by from another battlefield, and it was actually none other than Qi Yu and the two peak-stage immortal kings of the Battle Saint Tribe. As peak-stage immortal kings, their immortal senses were extremely terrifying. When they learned that Qin Wentian encountered danger, they instantly rushed over. Even though their battlefield only has 33 people remaining, it should be enough to handle their enemies.

When these three peak-stage immortal kings appeared, they instantly attacked from outside, killing several enemy immortal kings.

"Kill him." Qin Wentian pointed to Dongsheng Yin. Since the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor wanted to kill him, he naturally wouldn't hesitate if there's a chance to kill one of the Eastern Sage's son.

Qi Yu and the other two nodded as they directly moved towards Dongsheng Yin. Three giant palms covered the sky, blasting towards Dongsheng Yin.

"IMPUDENT!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor turn ashen. This ant-like character who was given up by him as a disciple back then in the particle world, actually managed to pressure him so much now. How utterly ridiculous.

"Eastern Sage, you are the one who initiated this immortal war. Now, can't you endure the consequences?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly spoke.

"Ceasefire." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spoke when he saw the three peak-stage immortal kings killing their way to Dongsheng Yin.

"An immortal war isn't something you can stop whenever you want to." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly laughed. Right now, Paragon Sky Roc also rushed over. Unleashing his emperor might, the pressure he exuded caused the countenances of Qi Yu and the two others to stiffen.

Bai Wuya's silhouette flashed and blocked Paragon Sky Roc. His eyes gleamed with a terrifying light as emperor might also flowed from him threateningly.

But at this moment, another immortal emperor of the four paragons acted. He stepped out and negated Qi Yu's attack. A powerful blast sent Qi Yu and the others tumbling back.

"Bzz~" A supreme beam of sword light flared brilliantly in the air, arcing over at this instant, shooting towards Dongsheng Yin. Dongsheng Yin inclined his head as a look of terror appeared on his face.

Eastern Sage's face changed, his eyes gleaming sharply.

"Yin`er, flee!" He roared! There was no time for him to react as the sword light was simply too fast. A piercing sound rang out directly taking away Dongsheng Yin's life. Dongsheng Yin didn't even have the ability to resist.

And at this instant, another immortal emperor stepped out from the void, arriving at the battlefield. This man was clad in long robes and exuded a celestial-like air.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's countenance alternated between shades of green and black, extremely gloomy to behold. Two of his sons...one was blinded and crippled while the other was killed like that. No matter how good his patience was, he could no longer endure it. A heavy blast of emperor might radiated from him and bore down on everyone.

"You guys truly dared to kill my son." The emperor-might of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor enveloped everyone.

"If that paragon immortal emperor didn't interfere, he should have already been killed. Since you all broke the rules, you naturally have to pay the price." That immortal emperor who just arrived calmly replied.

Chapter 1394: Making Excuses

The anger of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor seemed as though he wanted to burn down the entire sky, as his emperor might threateningly enveloped everyone below.

"Price? Is the price directly killing off my son?!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor roared with wrath. His palm slammed down, a thunderous boom echoed out as the palaces down below all crumbled into pieces.

"Eastern Sage, you are the one who allowed your sons to join the battlefields, wanting them to temper themselves. Now that they encountered danger, you, as an immortal emperor, actually personally acted? You have already broken the rules of the immortal war. If before this, your subordinate Paragon Sky Roc hadn't interfered as well, your son Dongsheng Yin would have also died. What qualifications do you have to be angered?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord blocked the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, his eyes flickering coldly.

As to why emperor-ranked battle wouldn't occur easily, it was because the moment it did occur, the consequences would be extremely terrifying. It was unknown how many people would be implicated within.

But when Dongsheng Yin died, everyone understood that there would definitely be an emperor-ranked battle today. Also, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor would definitely never spare the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. This battle was no longer as simple as who would rule the thirteen prefectures but rather, who would be buried here today. The situation had turned uncontrollable.

This happened because the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had been too overconfident. He believed that this expedition not only could expel the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, but he would also be able to completely destroy them, burying them here. However, as the war continued, reality was far different from what he imagined. The strength of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was so strong that he felt shock, they exceeded his expectations at every turn.

He then decided to send his sons into the battlefields, and even when Dongsheng Kun was blinded and crippled by Qin Wentian despite being under the protection of Paragon Golden Cauldron, he still managed to endure his anger and didn't act personally. He gave the order to kill Qin Wentian, he wanted Qin Wentian's death to avenge Dongsheng Kun.

However, not only did Qin Wentian not die, his eldest son Dongsheng Yin, a peak-stage immortal king, was assassinated by an immortal emperor.

In addition, in the past, one of his sons Dongsheng Ting had already died after being killed in the mountains of the God Hand Mountain Manor by a mysterious man. All these added together have already caused his patience to reach his limits. He had always been flaunting his glory that he unified the thirteen prefectures for countless years. How could he withstand seeing his sons dying one by one before his eyes?

Below, the immortal-foundation level battle has already stopped. Even many people fighting in the immortal-king level battles had halted, staring with shock in the air.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor didn't mind any expenses, going all out and wanting to destroy the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. However, this time around, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect could also be ruthless enough, killing Dongsheng Yin. This made it that the grudge between these two powers would never be resolved unless one side was completely wiped out.

"What qualifications do I have to be angered?" The aura of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor grew even more violent. Boundless astral light cascaded down on him, as his gigantic body glimmered with radiance.

"ALL OF YOU WILL DIE!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor howled in rage. The body of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord also gleamed with boundless light. His aura covered Eastern Sage. "Since this is the case, let's fight."

"BOOM!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor didn't bother attacking the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. He stretched his hand out as a towering palm imprint directly grabbed towards Qin Wentian, Qi Yu and the others. He wanted to kill these immortal kings responsible for the death of his son first.

"Eastern Sage. You best not forget that you have other sons here too. If you do this, don't blame me for killing them all." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly spoke. His entire being was crackling with lightning as he moved towards the other sons of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, radiating a violent killing intent.

As the sound of his icy voice rang out, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stopped his attack. He stared coldly at the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord before roaring, "Everyone, are you guys still intent on watching the drama from afar?"

From an extremely far away place, powerful auras gushed forth. This caused everyone to understand that many of the major powers of the eastern regions were all observing this battle from faraway. In addition, the immortal emperors of those powers had personally arrived, it's just that they didn't show themselves.

Right now, numerous figures soared over, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble. These people were all exceedingly famous and powerful characters, they are true hegemons who stood at the peak.

"Eastern Sage, feel anger from embarrassment after being defeated? This doesn't seemed like your character." A voice rang out. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's expression was extremely unsightly. The person who spoke was the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. This voice carried with it a hint of mockery. His actions had truly tarnished his reputation of being a hegemon. However, he couldn't care about it any longer. He had to kill those people today.

"Evergreen. You went crazy just from a suggestion that your daughter be married to the Skymist Immortal Empire and engaged in an emperor-ranked war. While today, someone has already killed my son. Tell me how you think I should react?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stared at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor as he spoke. Back then in the past, they had a pretty good relationship. After all, they were both hegemons of the eastern regions and were naturally acquainted.

It was only because of Qin Wentian and Qing`er which caused their relationship to disintegrate. Qin Wentian joined the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect while the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was his mortal enemy. Ultimately, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor chose to stand on the opposite side to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and had also participated in that emperor-ranked war to force Evergreen to send his daughter off to marry in the Skymist Immortal Empire. From that war onwards, they were already enemies.

"What qualifications do you have to talk to me about my matters?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor coldly mocked. He then continued, "You sent your sons to the battlefield. They got killed simply because they are not skilled enough. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself."

After being mocked, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's countenance turned ugly to the extreme, but he had no way to refute it. He also knew that the Evergreen Immortal Emperor would stand out to mock him simply because of Qin Wentian's existence. After the adjudication battle, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor had already announced to the world that he would be marrying his daughter to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian could already be considered half his son-in-law.

Also, this son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was so terrifying, using a short few tens of years to rise up in the immortal realms, his fame shaking the entire eastern regions. Now, he was already in the immortal-king realm and could defeat the mid-stage Dongsheng Kun. Such an accomplishment was truly shocking to the extreme.

"Evergreen, you are wrong to say that. Although both their sects are having an immortal war, it's simply too brazen that an immortal emperor personally acted to kill brother Eastern Sage's son." A voice of rebuttal rang out. The person who spoke was clad in violet robes. He was none other than the peak-stage immortal emperor, the Violet Emperor.

Many of the immortal emperors which appeared here, are those who participated in the emperor-ranked war back in the Evergreen Immortal Empire those years ago. This war between the Eastern Sage and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sects was nothing but an extension of that war before.

"If the subordinate of Eastern Sage didn't interfere, Dongsheng Yin would also have died as well." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor calmly spoke.

"That might not have happened. I only know that an initial-stage immortal king after crippling Dongsheng Kun, actually gave a command to kill Dongsheng Yin. Tell me, how did a mere ant of the junior generation have such courage?" The Violet Emperor quietly spoke, his sharp gaze directly staring at Qin Wentian as a pressure bore down on him.

A mere ant? The him right now shouldn't be considered an ant right? But even so, he was still extremely weak before the Violet Emperor. These words of the Violet Emperor were no doubt an attempt to shift the anger of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor back onto him.

"To think that an immortal emperor who stands at the peak of the immortal realms would actually employ such a despicable method to deal with an ant." Qin Wentian mockingly laughed.

"Impudent." The Violet Emperor stepped out, causing the space to rumble. Even Qin Wentian's body involuntarily trembled from the might boring down on him.

"Uncultured insignificant being, how dare you speak to your elders this way. Do you believe I can destroy you with a wave of my hand?" The Violet Emperor coldly threatened.

Qin Wentian's eyes were cold. Seems like the Violet Emperor's killing intent towards him was extremely strong. Even though he was now an immortal king, he was still too weak in front of an immortal emperor. He had to grow stronger faster. At that time when his cultivation realm caught up to them, who would still dare to speak to him in such a manner?

"Violet Emperor, you are after all a peak-stage immortal emperor. It isn't too good to threaten a junior like that, right?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor unhappily spoke.

"What about it? Old brother Evergreen, your daughter isn't married to him yet but you are already speaking up for your son-in-law?" The Violet Emperor coldly laughed. "In addition, this place isn't the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Even if it's you, you don't have the qualifications to converse with me."

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor was now at the mid-stage immortal emperor realm, and although he was only a tiny step away from the peak-stage, the distance between him and the Violet Emperor was still immeasurably far. He needed to borrow the aid of the Eternal Evergreen Tree before he could fight against the Violet Emperor.

"What about me? I should be qualified enough am I not?" A voice rang out. Violet Emperor turned his gaze over as his countenance grew unsightly, "You are truly persistent."

"A peak-tier immortal emperor bullying a junior, can't someone else say something about it? If a character like you existed during the era of Ancient Emperor Yi, you would be nothing but an insignificant trash. If you speak this way in the presence of him, he most probably would have given you a slap in public." That newcomer spoke. It turned out that this person was none other than the follower of Ancient Emperor Yi, Emperor Yu.

"Stop using Ancient Emperor Yi to pressure me. You are just a lowly servant of him back then, do you think that makes you superior to others?" This Emperor Yu kept appearing and spoiling his plans, causing the Violet Emperor to be extremely unhappy. But he could do nothing about it as this old fellow was also a peak-stage immortal emperor.

"I don't feel that I am. It's just that you cultivated for so much longer and are so much older than him. By saying that he isn't qualified to converse with you, don't tell me that you don't understand the logic of those from the later generations would surely replace those of now? When he finally surpasses you one day, where would you put your face?" Emperor Yu laughed. He then continued, "Tell me, Violet Emperor. Can you even compare to him in cultivation speed?"

The Violet Emperor merely stared at Emperor Yu. Emperor Yu continued, "I'm fated with this junior, and he also has the inheritance of Ancient Emperor Yi with him. Just let me remind you of one thing. You may find it easy to kill him, but I won't find it difficult to kill your descendants as well."

"Are you threatening me?" The Violet Emperor coldly spoke to Emperor Yu.

"You threatened him, no? So yes, you are right. I am threatening you." Emperor Yu casually replied. Their gazes clashed in mid-air generating a huge wave of power that caused chaotic flows around their surroundings.

"Also, according to the rules of the immortal realms, today is the war between the Eastern Sage and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sects. For all the years I've been following Ancient Emperor Yi about in the immortal realms in conquest, none would have dared to break the rules by acting against someone below their cultivation realm. Even if this era no longer has an ancient emperor to suppress everyone, since I encountered this today, I will naturally enforce the rules. Those who break it will be punished by death. In an emperor-ranked battle, immortal emperors are forbidden to act against those with lower cultivation bases compared to them."

Emperor Yu flicked his sleeves and calmly stated.

"Are you not interfering too much?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly stared at Emperor Yu.

"Yes, I love to interfere. So what of it? If you are not happy, fight me." Emperor Yu icily replied in an incomparably tyrannical manner. This caused countless people to muse silently. This is the true law of the immortal realms. Words are useless, strength is everything!

Chapter 1395: Fall of a Major Power

When had the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor ever suffered such humiliation? Today, two of his sons were met with misfortune and he who wanted revenge, was actually threatened by someone stronger.

He was the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, the hegemon of the thirteen prefectures but now, he was being suppressed by the strength of another. This was simply a loss of face.

"Since this is an immortal war between the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, let us just observe and watch." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor calmly spoke.

"That's right, let them settle this themselves based on the emperor-level battle. Why is there a need to create additional needless sin of killing? The victor of the emperor-level battle will be the ruler of the thirteen prefectures and the one who loses will leave this place immediately." Emperor Yu spoke. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor started laughing as he glanced at the Violet Emperor and his ex-allies. They didn't seem to be prepared to help.

This immortal war, the ones suffering casualties were his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. What does it have to do with the other major powers? Also, this war could allow everyone to clearly see the entire trump cards of their sects. These people were naturally willing to do nothing but stand around and watch as the emperor-level battle unfolds.

Below, both the immortal kings and immortal-foundation experts have all ceased their battles as they glanced above them. With so many immortal emperors here, this war was already uncontrollable. The expressions of those from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect were ashen. Upon seeing so many of their comrades dying, their hearts felt extreme sorrow. They initially thought that by starting this war, they would be able to crush the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. No one imagined that such an ending would occur.

"What if they fight to a draw?" The Violet Emperor asked. Back then, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord obtained the six prefectures precisely because they fought to a draw.

"If they fight to a draw, just see what they want to do then. They can ceasefire or they can continue fighting until the forces of one side is completely annihilated." Emperor Yu calmly spoke. If the emperors couldn't do anything to each other and their forces were roughly equal to each other, they usually would both choose the first option, splitting their the territories they are fighting for into half, each ruling a portion. If not, none can survive unless the other dies.

Naturally, if their subordinates possess an overwhelming advantage, they would choose the second option. It was just as how the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect thought that they had the absolute advantage, this was why they used their military strength to conquer everything, even wanting to wipe out the headquarters of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"If the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect isn't wiped out, how can I leave?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor soared through the air as battle might gush forth from him. At the same time, the two emperor paragons from his sect also flew up together with him, standing at the two sides of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

The eyes of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord turned cold. He too soared through the air and arrived before the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Bai Wuya, as well as that aged immortal emperor who appeared earlier, also stood by his side.

For the emperors of both sides, regardless of cultivation base or numbers, they were equal. Hence, the deciding factor next, would be their combat prowess.

"Back then when Bai Wuya was hunted by an immortal emperor for killing the emperor's son, it was none other than this Pure Yang Sword Emperor who stood out for him. To think that his relationship with Bai Wuya is so good to this extent that he even chose to stand on his side despite an immortal war against the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect." Someone commented in a soft voice. Only now did Qin Wentian know that this aged-looking senior was none other than the emperor who stood out for Bai Wuya against an immortal emperor back then. His title was the Pure Yang Sword Emperor.

"However, Bai Wuya didn't disappoint the Pure Yang Sword Emperor, his improvements are truly fast and his current cultivation has actually caught up to the Pure Yang Sword Emperor. But, understandably, it's just too difficult to break through once one is in the emperor realm."

Everyone stared up in the air. The Eastern Sage faced the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Bai Wuya faced Paragon Tantai while the Pure Yang Sword Emperor faced Paragon Sky Roc.

In the boundless starry space, resplendent astral light cascaded down, illuminating the sky. The six emperors were shimmering with astral light, they borrowed the astral energy and fought directly using the constellations.

"People of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect listen up. After this war concludes, there will no longer be a place named the Eastern Sage Thirteen Prefectures. This entire region will be under the jurisdiction of our Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Cultivation isn't an easy task, We don't wish to see so many people dying, it's nothing but a huge waste of lives. If all of you leave the battlefield now, no one from our immortal sect will hunt you down. But if you all choose to stay, bear the consequences yourselves."

Bai Wuya's voice thundered out, filled with immense confidence. It was like he was absolutely sure that his side would be the winner in this emperor-level battle.

Countless experts of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect felt their hearts shaking when they heard this. Now that the war has reached this stage, their earlier confidence had completely crumbled. They didn't have any hope with regards to this war any more, and the hearts of many people were like dead ashes. This was especially so for the immortal-foundation characters. When they saw their friends and comrades being killed as though they were weeds, only they themselves could understand how insignificant they were in an immortal war.

"Stop bragging." Paragon Tantai coldly spoke as a tyrannical aura gushed from him. Stepping out, the entire area around him was filled with light. He slammed out with his palm as an overbearing attack instantly arrived before Bai Wuya. The speed of that attack was so fast that it was inconceivable.

Bai Wuya's eyes shone with an intense astral light. In a blink, divine glows shot out, directly shattering his opponent's attack.

"BOOM!" Paragon Tantai took another step forward, causing the space around him to tremble. Even for those experts below, they could feel the heaven and earth-shaking, as though about to crumble apart. The aftershock from an immortal-emperor level battle was truly extremely fearsome.

However, Bai Wuya didn't seem to have felt that. He also directly stepped out as his eyes shot out the divine glow once more, freezing the rumbling in space. In fact, there was also a destructive wave of might that shot towards Paragon Tantai, ignoring all defenses, wanting to ravage the interior of his body.

"Scram!" Paragon Tantai's body erupted forth with tyrannical strength. Grabbing out with his palm, everything crumbled before his might. After the space cleared, Bai Wuya was still calmly standing there, uninjured, looking at him.

"How powerful, Bai Wuya's eyes have already reached the realm of creating an entire world." Many spectators felt their hearts trembling. At this moment, the other two battles had also erupted. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord were at their strongest state after borrowing the aid of the astral energy. Their battle shook the heavens and earth, as swirls of destructive and chaotic energy ravaged the space around them. Immortal thunder rained down unceasingly, causing those below to look up in trepidation. Any bolts of this lightning were able to wipe out anyone below the emperor realm. Luckily, there were other immortal emperors present here and they helped to dissipate the aftershocks, neutralizing the energy of the attacks.

The last battle was between Paragon Sky Roc and the Pure Yang Sword Emperor.

Paragon Sky Roc had the speed of sky rocs, as well as extremely powerful attacks that were as ferocious as thunder.

However, for the Pure Yang Sword Emperor, regardless of speed or attack speed, he isn't in any way inferior when compared to Paragon Sky Roc. His sword shone with the radiance of Pure Yang, and the light cascading down from his constellation was even brighter compared to the battlefield of Eastern Sage and Thousand Transformation. The pure-yang light infused his sword techniques and each of his attacks was unfathomably powerful. Paragon Sky Roc didn't dare to clash head-on, but he didn't enjoy any advantage when it comes to speed.

At this moment, holes opened up in the dome of the sky as streaks of pure-yang light fell down, covering the space around the Pure Yang Sword Emperor. The Pure Yang Sword Emperor stabbed his finger forward as millions of filaments of light started to fuse together as they shot towards Paragon Sky Roc. Each filament of light possessed the might of his Pure Yang Sword Art.

Paragon Sky Roc arced through the sky, inconceivably quick, trying his best to evade the attacks. However, every attack made by the Pure Yang Sword Emperor had an extremely large area of effect, capable of enveloping a huge swath of space, filling the space with destructive sword might.

Paragon Sky Roc howled and struck out with his palms, causing the shadows of millions of rocs to fill the sky as the sounds of explosions rang out unceasingly.

The Pure Yang Sword Emperor directly rushed in. With every wave of his sword, waves of power would generate and build up, as he unleashed a boundless sword might.

"Paragon Sky Roc is now trapped." The eyes of everyone flashed. The powerful Paragon Sky Roc was trapped in a small space by the sword technique of the Pure Yang Sword Emperor. Paragon Sky Roc couldn't break free, and if this continues on, he would definitely be defeated.

"Bai Wuya has the advantage as well." The spectators glanced at the other battlefield where Bai Wuya was fighting against Paragon Tantai. Bai Wuya was actually overpowering his opponent and had already injured Paragon Tantai.

"The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor cannot do anything to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. He is being delayed by the cloning technique of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord."

The three emperor-level battles caused the perspectives of the spectators to widen. And when they saw how things were turning out, many immortal-foundation characters of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect started to retreat and leave. Why did they join the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect? Undoubtedly, they were in pursuit of strength. However, now that their emperors had a high possibility of losing when fighting an emperor-level battle, why would they still want to throw their lives away? What was the meaning of continuing to remain here on the battlefield? Is there a need to die for the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect?

After that, more and more people decided to retreat. The fall of morale of an army was like the crumbling of a mountain. Once someone started to retreat, it would cause a chain reaction. At the start, the immortal-foundation characters left, and after that, even immortal kings were leaving. They decided to heed the advice of Bai Wuya and departed decisively.

"The fall of a major power." When seeing this scene, everyone mused silently in their hearts.

"Trash." The Skymist Immortal Emperor was here as well. When he saw the situation of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, he couldn't help but curse in his heart. They started the war in such an imposing manner and actually lost instead? All three of their immortal emperors were being suppressed. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was not that strong, so he and some of the other major powers lent them their powerful immortal kings. Many of those immortal kings were already dead, resulting in a heavy loss for them.

The expression of the Violet Emperor was unsightly too. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect is allied with the Evergreen Immortal Empire. They clearly didn't want to see the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect growing stronger.

However now that the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had fallen, the unifying of the thirteen prefectures under the name of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was already a foregone conclusion.

"What do you all think?" Violet Emperor transmitted his voice to his allies.

"Eastern Sage will lose for sure. But, this is fine as well. After this defeat, the efforts of Eastern Sage through these countless number of years have all gone up in smoke. In addition to one of his sons being killed and the other being crippled, he will definitely go insane." Someone replied. Everyone here was very clear that even if the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was the winner, there is no way they can kill the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor with them being here.

Also, as long as Eastern Sage doesn't die, what could be more terrifying than the revenge of a crazed immortal emperor?!

Chapter 1396: The Curtain Falls

As the war continued, Paragon Tantai and Sky Roc's inferiority was becoming clearer and clearer. They were completely suppressed and almost at their limits. Eastern Sage was delayed by the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord's numerous clones and simply had no way to aid his subordinates.

"Retreat!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor finally called out. A moment later, those who were still hesitating suddenly felt as though they were free. After all, they were core characters in the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, and if they retreated without receiving official orders, none of them would be able to escape their fate of dying in the future, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor wanted to take revenge for this.

However, as the sound of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor rang out, all his subordinates no longer hesitated and started to retreat.

"Before this, we allowed you guys to retreat but none did. Wanting to retreat now? It's already too late. Kill them all." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly commanded, his voice thundering through the air.

Before the emperor-level battle started, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was powerful enough to contend against them. Their immortal kings and immortal-foundation army wasn't that much weaker in comparison. Especially so for the immortal-foundation level, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was actually the side possessing the advantage. In order to minimize casualties, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord gave them a chance to retreat as, after all, he didn't wish for everyone in the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect to die in the war.

However, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor refused. Now that the emperor-level fight has already begun, and victory was in their grasp, the morale of the Eastern Sage Army completely collapsed. They still wanted to dream about retreating now? How could the Thousand Transformation Army be so kind-hearted to let their enemies flee away scot-free? They naturally wanted to hunt them down.

"Kill him." Qin Wentian gave a command to Qi Yu and the others, pointing at Paragon Golden Cauldron. Since the immortal war reached this stage, he should take the chance to wipe out all future sources of trouble.

After this war, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect would unify the thirteen prefectures and the Eastern Sage's hatred for them would definitely soar sky-high. There's no need to doubt that the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor would definitely take revenge and those loyal to him would join him as well. Hence, it was impossible for them to spare any of these loyal characters.

Qin Wentian stepped out, hunting down those from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect who were trying to retreat.

Right now, everything was already set. Everyone understood that the war has ended. Not only did the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor lose, he lost in an extremely miserable manner.

"Chi…" At this moment, an extremely resplendent pure yang sword attack slashed over, incinerating everything that it passed by. A fearsome collision rang out as a thunderous roar filled the sky.

At this instant, Paragon Sky Roc's body was struck. Paragon Sky Roc unleashed a terrifying destructive might in response, but he had no way of avoiding the fate of being severed.

"Is an emperor going to die today?" The hearts of everyone pounded madly when they saw this. The Pure Yang Sword Emperor actually depended on himself and could overwhelm Paragon Sky Roc?

"DIE!" With a roar, boundless light erupted forth from his sword, turning into the fiery pure yang energy as they slammed into Paragon Sky Roc. Paragon Sky Roc screamed, his body was burning, turning into cinders. There's also a surge of fearsome sword qi ravaging the interior of his body.

"I'M NOT WILLING!" Paragon Sky Roc screamed in misery before turning into ashes, vanishing from the world. Boundless astral light burst forth when he died, before dissipating into nothingness, indicating the death of an immortal emperor.

This, was what an immortal was was. No matter how powerful an existence you are, there is always the possibility of falling.

After killing Paragon Sky Roc, the Pure Yang Sword Emperor retreated and sped towards another battlefield. For the battlefield of Bai Wuya and Paragon Tantai, Bai Wuya has already suppressed his opponent. If he had more time, he would be able to gain victory for sure. The moment the Pure Yang Sword Emperor arrived, victory was already without question. Today would be the doomsday for Paragon Tantai.

Paragon Tantai was naturally clear on this point. Hence, the moment the Pure Yang Sword Emperor arrived, he already started to flee, wanting to leave the battlefield. He understood Paragon Sky Roc's strength. Since the Sword Emperor could kill Sky Roc, he already has a rough estimation of the Sword Emperor's level of strength. If the Sword Emperor joined hands with Bai Wuya, there was only death for him. Right now, he could only flee.

However, how could Bai Wuya let him flee? Right now, his thinking was the same as everyone else. Now that the war has reached this extent, for key figures, the more he could kill, the better it would be. Being merciful to enemies was equivalent to being cruel to oneself.

"Banish!" Bai Wuya barked in a cold voice as an azure eye appeared in the air. The light from this azure eye completely enveloped Paragon Tantai, locking him in place. Paragon Tantai struggled mightily, tyrannical to the extreme, wanting to shatter the bindings. However, he discovered that all his efforts were for naught. He couldn't exit the trapped space.

The Pure Yang Sword Emperor arrived. When the spectators saw this, all of them sighed. This time, Paragon Tantai would die for sure. Bai Wuya alone was enough to handle him, and now, with the addition of the Pure Yang Sword Emperor who could kill Paragon Sky Roc, the ending was already fated.

Joining forces, the two of them swiftly finished off Paragon Tantai. A terrifying surge of destructive energy gushed into Paragon Tantai's body, taking his life away in an instant. Another immortal emperor died just like this.

Two powerful immortal emperors had fallen today, killed by their opponents.

Bai Wuya and the Pure Yang Sword Emperor shared a mutual glance before they both flew towards the battlefield where the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was at.

As they were travelling there, the Pure Yang Sword Emperor slashed out a sword and Bai Wuya also unleashed a terrifying attack from his eyes. Although the two of them were initial-stage immortal emperors and couldn't threaten the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, their attacks would still cause trouble for Eastern Sage. At a fight of this level, a moment of distraction could be deadly especially when one was facing an equally formidable opponent. Everyone was very clear about this point.

At this instant, fearsome fist shadows filled the sky, capable of destroying everything. With a thunderous explosive noise ringing out, the clones of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord were destroyed one after another. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor descended from the air. His eyes stared in the direction of Qin Wentian, as a terrifying law energy fluctuation gathered, resembling a powerful storm, preparing to launch towards Qin Wentian.

"Breaking the rules?" An intense light radiated from Emperor Yu as a dazzling arrow shot out, causing Eastern Sage to turn ashen but that surge of energy still blasted out in Qin Wentian's direction.

"Chi…" An arrow shot out with blinding speed. Eastern Sage howled in madness, as countless sage fist imprints covered the sky. However, that single arrow penetrated through everything, blasting into his immortal body. Eastern Sage swerved to the side, but he was still struck. Fresh blood blossomed from the wound as he was flung far away from the impact.

"FATHER, SAVE ME!" A roar sounded out. One of Eastern Sage's sons was screaming for help as Bai Wuya's immortal energy surrounded him.

"Bai Wuya, you dare?!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor howled in anger.

"You brought this upon yourself." Bai Wuya coldly spoke. "Kill."

As the sound of his voice faded, another son of Eastern Sage was killed directly by Bai Wuya.

"Eastern Sage, you are the one who broke the rules first, you can't blame me for being ruthless." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord coldly spoke. "Kill everyone from the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, show no mercy."

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor watched all the scenes flashing by. Another one of his sons was begging for help but he had no way to help him. This time, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor felt as though his heart was being cut by knives.

A groan of agony rang out as the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coughed out fresh blood.

"Emperor Yu, why did you interfere in their war?" The Violet Emperor coldly spoke. Although he didn't mind the Eastern Sage being defeated, Eastern Sage must not die here.

"I've already reminded everyone earlier not to break the rules. If there's a next time, I won't just fire a single arrow." Emperor Yu calmly replied. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor glanced at the battlefield below, his side was completely defeated.

Not only that, the sons he brought here were all killed today.

"HAHAHA…" Abruptly, the sound of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's laughter filled the air. His eyes gleamed with redness as he stared at the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, before turning to Emperor Yu, Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian. His killing intent towards these four had reached the absolute limit. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had never wanted to kill anyone so badly before. However, if he couldn't kill any of these people. A single Emperor Yu was enough to stop him.

But even so, Emperor Yu wouldn't be able to kill him. Eastern Sage knew that if Emperor Yu really acted to kill him, the Violet Emperor and the others would definitely act.

Right now, everyone understood that although Emperor Yu appeared under the name of a follower of an ancient emperor, in reality, he favors the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After all, Qin Wentian was the inheritor of Ancient Emperor Yi, his master of all those years ago.

"Everything that happened today, has been remembered by me, Eastern Sage." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's hair was completely disheveled, appearing like a crazed demon. His ice-cold gaze swept over to everyone, no longer possessing the majestic demeanour of an immortal emperor as he turned and departed. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord didn't pursue. Although they could suppress Eastern Sage, it was basically impossible to kill him with the Violet Emperor and the others around.

"Farewell." The Violet Emperor and his other allies also left when they saw that the war has concluded. When they initially came, they naturally hoped for the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect to be victorious. However, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was simply too disappointing and lost so badly. However, this had nothing to do with them. It was fine with them as long as Eastern Sage was alive.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and the others also didn't feel joy at winning the war. Although victory caused them to sigh in relief, none of them could feel joy when they saw the number of corpses lying about. Many immortals had fallen in this war.

Also, the fact that Eastern Sage didn't die meant that he would definitely come back to haunt them in the future. Eastern Sage was a source of extreme danger.

Qin Wentian frowned as well. Although they were victorious in this war, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had gone insane. This meant that he would no longer care about rules and as long as there was an opportunity, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor would definitely kill him and the others of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. There was nothing a madman wouldn't dare to do.

"We have to re-establish the immortal sect and temporarily not leave the cloud capital. The other prefectures will still go about their businesses as usual, we can temporarily choose to ignore them." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord commanded. Since Eastern Sage wasn't dead, it's best for them not to take over and govern the thirteen prefectures for now, or they would simply be sending the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor freebies for him to kill.

Since they were the victors in this war, control of the thirteen prefectures was already in the bag.

Chapter 1397: Violet Emperor’s Suggestion

After everyone left, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect started to clean up the battlefield. For those who achieved merit, it was all recorded. Right now, the experts proficient in earth-attribute law energy were currently helping to rebuild the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"The immortal sect needs to be bigger than the past. In the future, we will set it up to encompass the entire capital so our members can stay within for safety purposes, and establish powerful formations surrounding it." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord spoke as everyone nodded their heads. It's best to be more cautious for now.

The existence of Eastern Sage will definitely be a great source of trouble for them in the future.

This was the reason why an immortal war and an emperor-level battle wouldn't erupt so easily. Because, if one didn't have absolute certainty to kill their opponents, they would only be creating a huge future source of trouble for themselves. If an immortal emperor threw aside face and reputation and started hunting the juniors of your clan or sect, that would truly be extremely troublesome.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was definitely crazed now, he would surely never rest until the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect is destroyed.

"Wuya, Wentian." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord called out. A moment later, Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian stepped out, moving to the side of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord.

"The two of you have to be exceptionally careful. You two have the highest possibility of being the number one targets for Eastern Sage." The Thousand Transformation Emperor Lord spoke. Everyone could feel how much hatred the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had towards the two of them. Naturally, Eastern Sage also hated the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and Emperor Yu. But, the two of them were powerful enough and Eastern Sage wouldn't be able to deal with them. This was the reason why it's highly probable that he would target Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Wentian, come to my emperor palace, you need to discuss with Qing`er about when both of you wants to hold the wedding. If Eastern Sage dares to act impudently in my Evergreen Immortal Empire, I will make him pay the price." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke. Qin Wentian's growth has truly shocked him. Before this when he betrothed Qing`er to Qin Wentian, he still felt that the wedding would be many years from now. He didn't expect that Qin Wentian would break through to the immortal king realm so quickly and could already kill an expert like the mid-stage immortal king Dongsheng Kun. "That's fine as well." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord nodded. If Qin Wentian was in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he could set his heart at ease. The Evergreen Immortal Empire had the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, the mysterious White Emperor as well as the supreme ancient treasure, the Eternal Evergreen Tree. If Eastern Sage dared to kill Qin Wentian there, and if he has no helpers, Evergreen would be able to kill him with the aid of the Eternal Evergreen Tree. Eastern Sage would definitely not dare to make a move.

"After I finish handling the matters here, I will head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire through the teleportation array. It has been a long time since I last saw Qing`er." Qin Wentian didn't reject the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's invitation, the pressure on him to grow stronger was even greater now. Although defeating the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect temporarily averted a crisis, but from the situation, he couldn't relax at all. Many powerful characters in the eastern regions were peering at them with a gaze of how a tiger looks at prey.

"Okay." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor nodded. After that, everyone bid farewell as they departed. Qin Wentian thanked Emperor Yu and the others, and sent them off respectfully with his gaze.

Right now, the cloud prefecture was exceptionally quiet after the great war. Those immortal kings who haven't left yet felt their hearts shaking with shock. At the same time, the news of the conclusion of the war swiftly started spreading throughout the eastern regions.

The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect sent out their army, wanting to exterminate the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. They took back five prefectures and even surrounded the remaining Cloud Prefecture as their four grand armies continued advancing to the cloud capital. The flames of war raged, they sought to level the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to the ground. Just when everyone thought victory was already certain, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was defeated.

This hegemon that was the ruler of the thirteen prefectures for countless years who also had deep foundations and a strong army, actually lost to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect that only had a few hundred years of history. Such an ending was truly shocking. The strength of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect shocked the entire eastern regions but there were also people who speculated that the strength of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect came from borrowing the experts of other powers. It was not their strength alone.

For this defeat, all the major powers in the thirteen prefectures understood who the future hegemon of this place was. The once glorious Eastern Sage Thirteen Prefectures would be renamed as the Thousand Transformations Thirteen Prefectures, and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect would be the hegemon in charge of countless particle worlds around this area. As for the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, it was disbanded. Their remnants consisted of weaker immortal-foundation characters as well as those at the mortal-tier cultivation realm, they were simply not qualified to participate in the war and it was impossible for them to make a comeback.

The hegemon of a generation crumbled just like that.

To the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, this war stole away his everything. He now only possessed an emperor palace as well as some women. All his sons had perished in the war.

In the vast and majestic Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor sat on his throne alone, drinking wine. His expression was gloomy and so heavy that it was terrifying.

At this moment, several figures arrived. These people were none other than the Violet Emperor, the Skymist Immortal Emperor, as well as their other allies. The Violet Emperor spoke, "Can we join you for a drink?"

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor inclined his head. His gaze was cold as he stared at everyone before him. He then angrily spoke, "You guys still have the face to come and see me?"

"Eastern Sage, you are wrong to say such words. We have already loaned you many of our elite juniors yet you still lost the war. Could it be that you want us to join in and fight the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect for you?" The Violet Emperor was a little unhappy at Eastern Sage's attitude. He then continued, "I can understand your current feelings, but this war between you two is known by the entire immortal realms. If we interfered and acted on your behalf, that would be tantamount to announcing that the entire eastern regions are involved in that. Have you not heard what that Emperor Yu said to me? If we act to kill Qin Wentian, he would kill all our descendants."

"Emperor Yu…" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's eyes flashed with killing intent. He coldly stared at everyone before him, he naturally understood the intentions in their hearts. He was disgusted by this group of people but what they said was right. He still needed the power of this alliance even now, or he would be all alone. If he wanted revenge, there was no way he could fall out with these people.

"Eastern Sage, we will think of some ideas to help you take revenge." The Violet Emperor spoke.

"How? Should I go hunt down some people of no importance? What's the meaning of doing so? I want Thousand Transformations to die, I want Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian to die as well." The eyes of the Eastern Sage were filled with killing intent. "Since you all didn't dare to act, what's the point of desiring to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire? Do you all want to wait thousands of years for that?"

"Naturally we won't wait so long. It's just that our current strength is still not enough. The strength of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire is very strong and they didn't have many casualties in that war before. Also, the White Tiger Race only sent a single demon emperor to aid us. If we can make them participate in the war as our allies wholeheartedly, the Evergreen Immortal Empire would be crushed for sure." The Violet Emperor coldly spoke. These two powers were the strongest among them, yet they only sent a few immortal emperors, they didn't really put their efforts in it.

"What should we do then?" Eastern Sage coldly asked.

"Unless, some of their immortal emperors also died, things would be very different then." A cold light gleamed in the Violet Emperor's eyes. "Let's wait for an opportunity, you shouldn't act recklessly for now. Thousand Transformations and the others would surely be on their guard against you, if you really have to act, make sure you deal them a fatal and critical blow."

"That's right Eastern Sage. Your existence is enough to make them feel uneasy for a very long time. The longer you disappear, the longer they would be distracted by the unease." An immortal emperor from Sky Mist added.

The eyes of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor flashed with coldness. What they said was true. Initially, he had planned to immediately act for the sake of revenge, killing everyone who dares to exit the safety of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. But when he heard the advice of his allies, he decided to change his strategy. If he wanted to act, the first blow he unleashed had to be a fatal and critical one.

What was the point of killing some ant-like characters? Can that really be considered revenge?

"Eastern Sage, actually I have another suggestion but it would not be honorable. I wonder if you are willing to listen." The Violet Emperor suddenly spoke. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor inclined his head and stared at the Violet Emperor, "Tell me."

"I heard that the conflict between you and Qin Wentian started in a particle world, and the daughter of Evergreen was also involved. You know the coordinates of Qin Wentian's particle world?" The Violet Emperor asked, his words causing the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's eyes to flash. However, he shook his head and replied, "After that battle in his particle world back then, Qin Wentian should have taken precautions and brought those who are close with him away. It's not so easy if we want to try anything now."

"So what even if he brought his kin and friends away? You have to think deeper. That place is the particle world he grew up in. Could it be he has no feelings for it? There are still many powers and people who have a connection with him there. Can he really bear to abandon them all?" The Violet Emperor slowly spoke.

"You want me to act against a particle world? Those innocents have nothing to do with me, I would be incurring great amounts of negative karma if I did so…" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor might hate Qin Wentian immensely, but he was still rational. After all, the people living in the particle world are all innocents. Although a particle world is much smaller in scope than the immortal realms, by destroying an entire particle world, every life there would definitely perish, causing him to accumulate sin.

What's more important is that despite doing so and accumulating such great amounts of sin, he still wouldn't be able to kill Qin Wentian. Such an act was meaningless.

"I didn't say to destroy an entire particle world. You can send men to investigate Qin Wentian's particle world. Given his talent, it shouldn't be tough to find out his history. After that, you can wait and see and make your plans according to the info garnered." The Violet Emperor spoke. Eastern Sage turned quiet as he pondered.

"Right now, he will definitely evade you. If you want to kill him, it would depend on if you can discard the pride of an immortal emperor and do this. I will bid farewell first." After speaking, the Violet Emperor and the others turned and left.

On the other side, within the Thousand Transformations Sect…

The war has ended and they obtained victory. Qin Wentian immediately remembered the kin and friends he sent back to the particle world. Although the possibility of Eastern Sage acting against his particle world was small, he still had to take precautions.

There were countless particle worlds surrounding the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Right now, within the city of one of the particle worlds, two figures covered in dust could be seen sitting in an inn and drinking wine.

One of them was clad in black, his eyes gleaming with sharpness. He looked exceptionally young and his gaze was immeasurably deep. By his side, was an unfathomable old man. That old man was smiling but no aura could be felt from him. Despite so, the young man knew how powerful this old fellow was.

"I've already finished your immortal-king level test. Now, you can agree to my conditions right?" The young man asked.

"What do you want me to promise you?" That old man laughed.

"Help me out, seal the particle world where we first met." The young man replied.

"I thought you still wanted me again to tell you all the secrets of the immortal palace." The old man continued laughing.

"From the beginning ever since I met you, how many of your tests have I passed? Everytime, you would say that I'm not qualified to know the secrets of the immortal palace. Fine then, I can't be bothered any longer. Since I'm not qualified, so be it. If there's a chance, I will leave immediately, who cares about your dog-fart inheritance. I no longer want it." That young man raged, it could be seen that he was feeling a little vengeful towards this old man.

"Ah, young people shouldn't be so easily angered. Don't you feel things would be more interesting if you slowly peel apart the layers of mystery surrounding the inheritance slowly one by one? You don't know how fortunate and lucky you are." The old man replied.

"Scram!" The young man couldn't endure it and cursed out!

Chapter 1398: Comparing the Past and Present

Now, quite some time has passed after the war had concluded. The countless particle worlds surrounding the immortal realms were operating normally, and so was the particle world Qin Wentian was from.

The first thing Qin Wentian did after the war, was to send people to escort his friends and family back to the immortal realms. This time, they utterly devastated the Eastern Sage's forces, his four paragons and sons all died in the war. Nobody knew what state the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was in now and although the probability of Eastern Sage implicating his particle world was small, he still had to take precautions.

However, not everyone wanted to return to the immortal realms. An example was Qin Wentian's foster father, Qin Chuan. He felt that he wasn't suited for life in the immortal realms. Although Qin Wentian did his best to change their physiques, given his talent, he couldn't catch up with the others and he had no wish to keep depending on the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Over there, if they left the sect, they wouldn't be able to wander far away. Just the capital alone was so vast that he couldn't leave it with his current level of power.

Hence, Qin Chuan chose to remain behind. Qin Wentian's elder sister Qin Yao naturally accompanied him. There was also quite a few others who weren't used to life in the immortal realms. They didn't leave with the others who decided to return. Qin Wentian naturally could understand their feelings as well.

The particle world Qin Wentian was from, no longer looked the same as it did in the past. After the war Eastern Sage launched in that particle world, the aftershocks from attacks of immortal kings caused an unknown amount of people to perish. After all, the people from a particle world weren't as strong as people from the immortal realms. They basically had no way to resist at all. The aftershocks from attacks were like a calamity from the heavens to them, able to instantly wipe them out with ease.

After that war, everyone in the world remembered the tyrant, Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. They naturally also remembered the hero who saved them, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, as well as the white-robed immortal king Bai Wuya, and lastly, the hero of their particle world, Qin Wentian.

If it weren't for these people, the consequences would truly be too terrible to imagine. In fact, the people of this particle world even hoped that Qin Wentian and Bai Wuya would be able kill the tyrant Eastern Sage one day.

However, many years after that war, although it was a calamity, it actually boosted the growth of the particle world. The people of the particle world saw an immortal-king level battle and personally witnessed supreme characters, understanding that there's a sky beyond their sky. In addition, some immortal kings fell during the war, and after their deaths, their bodies and blood became treasures, and the area where they died was permeated with law fluctuation energy, becoming rare ruins where cultivators could attempt to comprehend something from there.

Ever since that war ended, the improvement for this particle world has been extraordinary quick. A new batch of experts was birthed and for those rare ruins where the immortal kings had fallen, they were controlled and used as a core area of a sect or clan, giving rise to many Celestial Phenomenon Ascendants as the years passed. In fact, there were even some who managed to break through to the immortal-foundation realm. Back then, an immortal-foundation expert was already sufficient to become the hegemon of this world. But now, the people living here understood that even for immortal-foundation experts, they actually couldn't be considered anything in the outside worlds. There are more terrifying existences above them.

Even the legendary character of this particle world, Qin Wentian, was already an immortal when he returned back then. Now that so many years passed, nobody knew what level Qin Wentian was at.

Right now in the particle world, within the Grand Xia Empire, these days weren't peaceful at all. Currently, inside an inn, many people were drinking wine and chatting randomly.

"I heard that Jiang Feng became an immortal? How powerful. This supreme character managed to break through to the immortal realm, his talent is simply shocking."

"That's right. Jiang Feng is too terrifying. He still looked like a young man yet he is already an immortal now. I heard that he has only cultivated for a few hundred years and had the appearance of a twenty-year-old. I wonder how many beauties admire him and are willing to give up their everything for him.

"If only I was as powerful as him. If that's the case, I would have any beauty I want, hahaha." A burly-looking man laughed.

"Stop dreaming, I've never heard of someone being more outstanding than Jiang Feng before, let alone you. In any case, who among the maidens who are the most beautiful in our world can match up to Jiang Feng?" Another person replied.

"Haha, that's right. Have you all not heard that the beauties of this world are all actively pursuing Jiang Feng?"

"Yeah, he is someone who is unprecedented in the past, and hard to match up to in the future." Another person spoke.

Everyone praised, sighing with admiration. This Jiang Feng could be known as a legend of this world as well. In the past, he attained enlightenment from a ruin and broke through to Celestial Phenomenon in the span of a single night. From then on, his progress was unimpeded, soaring all the way up. His fame was known through the entire world and no one could match his pace.

As a legend, he naturally became the idol of many who wanted to surpass him.

"Unprecedented in the past and hard to match up to in the future? Is that not over-exaggerated?" A voice filled with disdain rang out. A moment later, the gazes of many turned over only to see a group with both males and females sitting there. One among them was a young woman with a veil, and everyone could tell that was a beauty from her back view alone.

The person who spoke was a young man. Someone laughed when they heard his words, "Little fellow you are still so young, do you even know what cultivation is? Jiang Feng's talent isn't something which you understand."

"Frog in a well." That young man mocked, his words causing the person who spoke earlier to laugh. "Yo, this little fellow is intentionally digging the hole deeper. Tell me then, who can compare to Jiang Feng?"

"Why does Jiang Feng have his current accomplishments?" That young man asked.

"Naturally it's because of his talent and the opportunities of good fortune he encountered." That person replied.

"When did his opportunities begin?" That young man asked again.

"What are you trying to say?"

"His opportunities began when he found a ruin left behind by that immortal war in the past. Although many years have passed since the war and you guys might not even have been born then, how could you all have forgotten the war so easily? Have you all also forgotten the legend of that era? How glorious was he back then? Growing up in a remote place like the Chu Country and finally leaving this world even before he cultivated for a hundred years. When he returned, he had already become an immortal and he even invited many existences more powerful than himself to fight for him. In the face of such a grand character, who the hell is Jiang Feng?"

The voice of the young man was solemn and filled with pride when he spoke about this legend of the past. It was like he was speaking about himself.

Everyone fell silent, a person couldn't help but comment, "Young fellow, how long have you lived for? How would you know those things that happened so many years ago? We have never even met that so-called legend before, who knows if his story is true or fabricated? As for Jiang Feng, he is a true living legend right before our eyes. Who can compare with him?"

"The young man is right. Before that legendary character, Jiang Feng is..." A middle-aged man in the inn laughed, "way inferior."

A dispute arose in the inn, for those who revered Jiang Feng, they weren't going to stand for their idol being insulted. As for those who had lived longer and had personally witnessed that immortal war, the scene then was simply unforgettable. Even though many of those were nothing but teenagers back then, that terrible memory was branded forever into their minds and souls.

"Who says Jiang Feng cannot compare to Qin Wentian?" A gentle voice suddenly rang out as a group of figures entered the inn. Instantly, the eyes of everyone turned to the beautiful maiden in the center of this group. Just a single glance caused them to unable to shift their eyes away.

It was a woman whose charm bordered on the extreme, to the point of immensely mesmerizing. A smile in her beautiful eyes could hook the souls of others away.

She was an extremely famous beauty in this world, named An Linglong. Many even referred to her as the number one beauty under the heavens.

And the fact that An Linglong admired Jiang Feng was well known to everyone. After Jiang Feng became an immortal, An Linglong even made a proclamation that Jiang Feng would become her man sooner or later.

"Why would she appear here?" Someone was puzzled.

"I heard that a phenomenon appeared in the skies above the Grand Xia Dynasty, and talk of rare treasures surfacing have been circulating around. Jiang Feng must have also arrived. In addition, there have been many mysterious experts appearing in Grand Xia recently, all of them extremely powerful. They must all be here for the same reason. As for An Linglong, she must have came here because of Jiang Feng." Everyone mused.

"It's just that they belonged to different generations. If Jiang Feng was born in Qin Wentian's generation, who says that Qin Wentian would be more outstanding than him?" An Linglong laughed. "What do you guys think?"

Everyone glanced at An Linglong as they laughed, their hearts wavering, but none seemed to be keen to refute the words she spoke.

"Fairy An is naturally correct."

"Fairy An understands Jiang Feng very well. Since she said that, it must be the truth." Many people continued to speak, supporting her comment, causing her smile to grow wider.

"Vixen." The young man who spoke earlier cursed in a low voice. After that, numerous gazes turned to him, gleaming with coldness.

"Impudent."

"How dare you speak to Fairy An in this manner, how uncultured. Which clan are you from?"

An Linglong glanced over there, but her eyes were on a young woman beside that young man. After that, she smiled and spoke in a gentle voice, "Oh, I still wondered who it was, so it turns out that it's younger sister Yurou. I heard that the clan of younger sister Yurou has quite a deep connection with Qin Wentian. No wonder that little brother would speak up for Qin Wentian."

"Ouyang Yurou?" The gazes of everyone turned to the veiled young woman in the same group as the young man as their hearts trembled. The number one beauty of the Grand Xia Dynasty, Ouyang Yurou? This was a supreme beauty that was comparable to An Linglong.

Ouyang Yurou turned over and removed her mask, revealing a fresh and pure face, marked by the grace of beauty. She seemed unaffected by mortal dust and is extremely beautiful, causing the people to sigh with admiration. What a feast for the eyes this was, there are actually two supreme beauties in this inn.

"I've always heard that elder sister Linglong is extremely sociable and is friends with many people, knowing about much news around the world. Truly awesome." Ouyang Yurou spoke in a light tone of voice.

"All her acquaintances are guys." The young man beside Ouyang Yurou snorted.

An Linglong casually smiled, she stared at them, "I heard that the old friend of Qin Wentian is named Ouyang Kuangsheng. If I'm not mistaken, this Ouyang Kuangsheng should be younger sister Yurou's uncle right?"

"You can be considered to have some knowledge." The young man raised his head up high as he spoke. Everyone finally understood why this group would speak up for Qin Wentian.

At this moment, a figure in black who was sitting in a corner suddenly glanced at Ouyang Yurou. His deep and immeasurable eyes flashed with a bright light.

Ouyang Kuangsheng was the uncle of this little doll?

In that case, she is the descendant of that little lass Ouyang Xiaolu, who loved to follow Ouyang Kuangsheng around back then? Now, who would have thought that the descendant of that little lass Ouyang Xiaolu, would already have grown up to be such a beauty?

Another group of figures entered the inn, among them, there were some terrifying existences who kept their auras retracted. The others in the inn might not be able to sense the power of these figures but the young man in black could.

Recently, there have been many unusual things which occured in this particle world. For example, the news of rare treasures appearing in Grand Xia, was extremely abnormal.

Chapter 1399: Lure

Recently, many immortals appeared in this particle world.

At this moment, this group of new arrival were all immortals. They glanced at the inn before turning their eyes towards An Linglong and Ouyang Yuruo. One of them then spoke, "Who would have thought that a particle world would have beauties of such caliber. Come and accompany me."

After that, this group of immortals sat down at a table. His voice held an unquestionable authority, and those words caused the countenances of people in the surroundings to change. This person referred to their world as a particle world. Could it be that these people were from the immortal realms?

This group of people were truly from the outside, the immortal realms. It's rumored that many supreme treasures appeared in this particle world, hence they decided to come and see if the rumors were true for themselves. However, they discovered that the people of this world were pitifully weak. Even for the weakest immortal-foundation character, they can be the hegemon of this world? Since this is the case, wouldn't they be overlords then?

With strength, comes guts. When one was stronger than other people to a certain extent, they would naturally be arrogant.

An Linglong's expressions changed. She smiled and walked over, "Sirs, are you all from the outer worlds?"

"Mhm, your smile is so mesmerizing. Hahaha, seems like we are truly fortunate to have come to this particle world." The person who spoke before laughed uproariously.

"Don't forget official matters. Recently, the situation of this particle world is a little unusual. We are not the only ones who came here." A person reminded, clearly this man was more mature and wasn't as lecherous as the one who spoke earlier.

"Big brother, why are you always restricting yourself? It isn't easy for us to come here to relax, there shouldn't be any problems for us to enjoy some beauties for a little while. As long as we don't antagonize others from the immortal realms, we can play with as many beauties in this world as we like. Which of these two do you want?" The person who spoke earlier was completely unrestrained, he didn't give a damn about people from the particle world at all.

"Do as you like." His big brother glared at him. The big brother than glanced at the two ladies and they were truly very beautiful. If they were immortals, their charm and beauty would further intensify due to the immortal energy.

"Haha, big brother should like pure ones, right? In that case, I will take the demonic vixen." That person laughed loudly. He then stared at Ouyang Yurou and shouted, "Why are you not coming over yet?"

Ouyang Yurou's countenance changed. The young man beside her stated, "My uncle is also someone from the immortal realms, he is an immortal."

"Oh? An immortal who broke the bindings of a particle world to reach the immortal realms also dares to threaten me? Hahaha." That person laughed evilly. "If you don't get over here now, be prepared to bear the consequences."

"This woman is mine." A cold voice suddenly rang out, causing the immortals here to suddenly stiffen as they glanced at the young man in black who was sitting in one corner. This person had been silence from the start and seemed very young, but his face also seemed somewhat blurry, as though there was a mysterious energy blocking the vision of others, not allowing them to see him clearly.

"Immortal." These immortals naturally knew that the black-robed young man was an immortal as well. The big brother from earlier couldn't help but to speak, "Since you have expressed your interest, we naturally won't interfere and seize what you want."

As for the younger and more reckless one, his countenance turned unsightly. He wasn't able to see through the black-robed young man and could only snort coldly but he didn't say anything else. He simply stared at An Linglong.

"You don't need to worry, I have no malicious intentions." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Ouyang Yurou, his words causing the tensed heart of Ouyang Yurou to be at ease. Staring at the mysterious black-robed young man before her, she was filled with curiosity. The face of this young man could be seen but his features couldn't be seen clearly.

"Bzz~" At this moment, an extremely powerful immortal sense swept through the Grand Xia Dynasty, sweeping over everyone.

The immortals in this inn all turned pale as they mumbled, "Immortal king?"

Their immortal senses spread out only to see a supreme figure standing above a palace in a certain direction. His entire being seemed like a divinity peering down with disdain at the people of the world.

"How tiny, what a small place. To think that a supreme treasure actually appear here." That figure calmly spoke, his voice echoed throughout the entire Grand Xia.

"Master, it must be the heavens granting you a fortune." Another person smiled. An Linglong's eyes flashed as she mumbled, "Jiang Feng."

"He is Jiang Feng?" The hearts of everyone in the inn trembled as they stared at An Linglong. Jiang Feng's master was here as well? Earlier, they heard this group of immortals saying that the supreme character out there was a terrifying immortal king too.

"Maybe. Jiang Feng, your talent is extremely high and it's a waste for you to stay in such a small world. After this, follow me back to the immortal realms. This seat will naturally nurture you well." That person continued. At this moment, the hearts of everyone in Grand Xia were trembling when they heard that.

Jiang Feng was as expected of a supreme genius. Even a supreme character from the immortal realms highly regard his talent and wanted him as a disciple.

"Senior, I'm Jiang Feng's woman." At this moment, An Linglong who was in the inn, spoke out. This instantly caused the immortal-foundation experts to stiffen. That younger immortal coldly snorted, "Are you trying to frighten me?"

"I don't dare to, but Lingling is pretty famous in this world. Everyone here knows that I will be Jiang Feng's woman in the future." An Linglong spoke in a gentle voice. After that, a voice echoed from afar, "Jiang Feng, in an inn nearby, there's a little lass claiming that she's your woman and she seemed to be threatened by someone now. Why don't you go and take a look?"

"Yes, Master." Jiang Feng nodded. A moment later, those immortal-foundation experts all had unsightly expressions. From their immortal sense surveillance, they could see Jiang Feng flying over. Not long after, the door of the inn was ripped apart by sword qi as a handsome figure strode in, exuding an incomparable grace.

"An Linglong." Jiang Feng glanced at her. An Linglong's figure flashed as she directly moved towards him, leaning against him. The next moment, those immortal-foundation characters all had unsightly expressions. The more reckless immortal stood up and clasped his hands, "I apologize for my rude behavior towards Fairy An earlier."

"This is my particle world, how dare you act so arrogantly here. Break one of your arms or die." Jiang Feng spoke, causing the expression on that immortal's face to grow even uglier.

"Puchi…" A saber beam flashed by, slicing off the arm of the reckless immortal-foundation character as he screamed in pain.

"Big brother, you…" That immortal glanced at his big brother in disbelief.

"I already told you not to make trouble, you brought this upon yourself." His big brother calmly stated. After that, the big brother turned to Jiang Feng, "Please forgive us."

Jiang Feng snorted coldly and brought An Linglong away. The inn fell into silence. A few moments later, some of those younger people shouted with pride, "Did you all see that? That was Jiang Feng, an unparalleled character in our particle world. How can Qin Wentian compare? Times are different now, the judgement of the older generations are flawed."

"Jiang Feng is the hero of a generation and is now a disciple of a major power of the immortal realms. His future is boundless."

"Elder sister." The young man from the Ouyang Clan stared at Ouyang Yurou, feeling extremely unhappy in his heart. Ouyang Yurou's lips twitched but she didn't say anything.

For the next few days, more and more immortals came to this particle world. There were even quite a few immortal kings and the majority were immortal-foundation characters.

This particle world was very small. And these experts who arrived were all powerful immortals, stronger than anyone else in their world.

In addition, they even gathered at Grand Xia, causing a huge commotion to rise up in this world. Countless people went to Grand Xia, hoping to be able to obtain some guidance or be taken in as a disciple by these powerful people. There were also many beauties who threw themselves into the arms of these powerful immortals, wanting to exit this world and see how fascinating the immortal realms are.

As for the treasure, there were indeed many resplendent glows of treasure-light within the Grand Xia Empire, shooting straight up into the clouds. But despite so, no matter how the immortals searched, they weren't able to find anything. Somebody then said maybe the time isn't right for the treasure to appear yet. Once it appears, it would definitely be extremely shocking, and might even induce a calamity.

Countless people in the particle world were extremely excited. After all, they had seen the power levels of those supreme characters in the immortal war back then. But then again, there were also some who felt extremely worried, afraid that another war might break out in their world.

As more immortals entered this world, there naturally would be some evil fellows doing whatever they wanted to do. They slaughtered people as they pleased, and acted in a tyrannical manner, grabbing beauties off the streets for themselves, causing chaos to erupt in the particle world.

The young man in black was now inside the Grand Xia Empire and there was a cold expression on his face. He discovered that the master of Jiang Feng was nothing but a scum. He ordered Jiang Feng as well as many of his followers in this world to seek out beautiful maidens for him to enjoy, committing evil deeds of all manners. As for Jiang Feng, he acted sanctimonious and honorable on the outside, pretending to uphold virtue and condemn evil, hypocritical to the extreme.

"Damn, that old dog Eastern Sage actually really decided to act against my particle world." The young man in black cursed in his heart. He was none other than Qin Wentian's other avatar, Di Tian. Earlier, when there was someone who wanted to act against Ouyang Yurou, he stepped out for her because he didn't want her to suffer injustice. After that, an extremely powerful immortal sense swept towards him, tyrannical to the extreme. He pretended not to feel it or he would already have been exposed.

That powerful immortal sense naturally belonged to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. He was outside this particle world, using his immortal sense to survey everything happening within.

Luckily, his avatar cultivates a completely different set of techniques and even has different astral souls. In addition to that, he used seals to suppress his energy levels, and his looks. Hence, when the immortal sense of Eastern Sage swept by, Eastern Sage didn't discover anything. However, from now on, he decided to be more cautious and act like someone from the immortal realms coming here in search of treasure. This means that even if he saw some evil deeds being committed against the people of his particle world, he wouldn't be able to act recklessly.

"That damnable old bastard. He has already promised me but why hasn't he acted yet?" Qin Wentian cursed in his heart. He sent his avatar back here to settle this matter, and that old fellow who has been teaching his avatar, did promise to aid him. Now, he could only hope that the old fellow would take action faster.

Within a certain palace in Grand Xia, the Blazing Fiend Immortal King walked out of his bedroom. Behind him, a beautiful girl whose clothes were in disarray could be seen, revealing some of her perfect skin and graceful curves. However, her face was incomparably pale. This beautiful woman was none other than An Linglong.

"Disciple, you are here." The Blazing Fiend Immortal King spoke. A moment later, Jiang Feng came over and when he saw the state An Linglong was in, a strange light flashed in his eyes.

"Disciple, you wouldn't blame master, right?" The Blazing Fiend Immortal King asked.

"Disciple wouldn't dare to. Also, this is Linglong's good fortune." Jiang Feng respectfully replied.

"Haha, it's good that you feel this way." Blazing Fiend laughed. "Right now, you should put all your focus and energy into cultivation and not let women distract you. Before you get a chance to enjoy them, don't waste too much emotions and energy on women. Do you understand?"

"Disciple will carefully follow the advice of master." Jiang Feng was still as respectful as before.

"Mhm, this Linglong really wasn't bad and took good care of Master. You can bring her away now." The Blazing Fiend Immortal King spoke. "Also, there's another girl of good quality in that inn that day. You should still remember her, bring her to me."

"Yes, Master." Jiang Feng bowed and took his leave. An Linglong followed him out. The Blazing Fiend Immortal King stared at their backs as a coldness flashed in his eyes. He couldn't help but to muse silently to himself, "What is the purpose of senior immortal emperor? Who does he want to lure? Why can't he just make a move openly and has to create so much commotion in this particle world?"

Could it be that the person the immortal emperor was seeking, wasn't currently in this particle world? Since this is the case, he should just enjoy himself for now. In any case, his life recently has truly been extremely comfortable!

Chapter 1400: Capture

Within Grand Xia, the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan...

Right now, the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan was no longer the same as the past. Ouyang Kuangsheng's little sister, Ouyang Xiaolu, was the current leader of the clan.

Qin Wentian was now outside the Ouyang Clan. His immortal sense swept out, and instantly knew the situation within. There was a smile on his face as he entered.

"Sir, please halt." Somebody obstructed him. However, the guards only saw Qin Wentian vanishing after taking that step. Their countenances drastically changed as they mutually exchanged a glance. "What should we do?"

"Right now, the experts in Grand Xia are as many as the clouds. There are many immortals who came here. Could that man earlier be an immortal?"

"I think so, it's best that we don't anger him first. Let's see what he plans to do." The two guards discussed. Earlier, they couldn't even sense or see how the mysterious man disappeared.

At the cultivation ground of the Ouyang Clan, Ouyang Yurou was currently sparring with someone. Right now, her cultivation base was at the Heavenly Dipper Realm and can already be considered very outstanding among her generation. When she fought, she had no trace of gentleness, she was just like a valiant heroine.

Many people were spectating at the side, the young man in the inn was there as well. Qin Wentian stood beneath a tree and quietly watched as a faint smile appeared on his face. If one looked closely, they would be able to see the shadow of Ouyang Xiaolu in Ouyang Yurou's demeanor.

"Ai…" At this moment, a shocked cry rang out. The young man saw Qin Wentian and couldn't help but to ask, "How did you come in?"

"Obviously, I walked in." Qin Wentian smiled. After that, Ouyang Yurou stopped her battle. Everyone turned their gazes over as they felt some fear in their hearts. This person has been watching here for some time and was so near them yet none of them sensed his presence. This was simply an extremely terrifying matter. The cultivation of this person must be extremely high.

The young man thought back to the incident in the inn, his eyes flashed as he asked, "Are you an immortal?"

"Why do you say so?" Qin Wentian asked.

"That day, you said that you are interested in elder sister and those people didn't say anything. Evidently, they must have feared you. You should be the same as them, an immortal. Also, did you want to help elder sis back then? Was this the reason why you said that?" The young man curiously stared at Qin Wentian. This man before him was extremely mysterious even now. No one could see his features clearly.

Ouyang Yurou also curiously stared at this person. Qin Wentian calmly replied, "I only felt your elder sister is very beautiful and have no other intentions."

His gaze held hints of dotingness within, as though he was looking at a junior of his own clan. Ouyang Kuangsheng's juniors were naturally his juniors as well.

"Are you really interested in my elder sister?" The young man winked at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was stunned for a moment before he laughed. Although Ouyang Yurou was a beautiful girl, how could he fall in love with a junior.

"That's right, you got it." Qin Wentian joked, Ouyang Yurou's beautiful eyes flashed. When she heard Qin Wentian's reply she felt a little embarrassed. "Senior, don't tease me. I have yet to properly thank senior for your help in the inn those days ago. Since senior is here in my clan now, please allow me to extend my graciousness as the host to you."

"I passed by coincidentally and saw you guys when I swept out with my immortal sense. Since you have invited me, I will comply and accept the invitation then." Qin Wentian didn't decline. In any case, he wanted to find a reason to see if that little lass Ouyang Xiaolu was doing well or not.

"It's our honor." Ouyang Yurou smiled radiantly.

However, at this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly frowned. He could sense something approaching them and as his immortal sense extended out, his expression became unsightly.

"Senior, what's wrong?" Ouyang Yurou noticed his expression and asked.

"There's somebody coming." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. An instant later, a loud rumbling sound could be heard from outside as numerous powerful auras could be felt. After that, this group of newcomers flew towards the cultivation ground.

Qin Wentian finally saw the people who just came by, they were a batch of Celestial Phenomenon Ascendants.

"Ouyang Yurou, there's a supreme character who wants to meet with you. Come with us." The leader of this group spoke domineeringly. After that, some among them stepped out, wanting to bring Ouyang Yurou away.

"Impudent!" The guards of the Ouyang Clan, who have also arrived, coldly stated. Ouyang Xiaolu personally arrived. She still looked very young but there was now a trace of maturity in her appearance, and a dignified feel to her beauty. She coldly spoke, "Who wants to meet with my daughter?"

"Someone you can't afford to offend. If you don't want your clan to be annihilated, let her go with me." That person threatened. Ouyang Xiaolu's expression turned extremely unsightly.

A supreme character? Could it be one of those immortals that came here?

Right now, there are countless people from the immortal realms gathering in Grand Xia, and a bloody storm seemed about to unfold. If there truly was a supreme character who became interested in her daughter, Ouyang Yurou, that would be a calamity.

"I like this girl. If there's a major character also interested in her, tell him to come and talk to me." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Who the hell do you think you are? How dare you speak out of turn." That person berated.

Qin Wentian sent his palm forth. A slamming sound rang out as the person who spoke earlier directly flew through the air at an inconceivable speed. The expressions of the other ascendants changed as they stared at Qin Wentian.

"Scram." Qin Wentian stepped out as terrifying waves of immortal might radiated from him. The ascendants all paled. They glanced at each other and hurriedly fled away.

"Many thanks to senior for helping out." Ouyang Yurou spoke to Qin Wentian.

"No worries." Qin Wentian waved his hand. Ouyang Xiaolu and the others glanced at Qin Wentian as they bowed, "We pay our respect to senior."

"There's no need to be so polite, you guys can thank me by treating me to some good wine." Qin Wentian laughed.

"That's only natural. Prepare the banquet." Ouyang Xiaolu gave the command as people of the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan started to make the preparations. Very soon, the banquet was ready. Qin Wentian and the others sat down. Ouyang Xiaolu actually allowed Qin Wentian to sit in the host seat.

"Senior, you came from the immortal realms? Why are so many immortals gathering here at our particle world?" Ouyang Xiaolu asked.

"Yes, I'm from the immortal realms. As to why so many experts are gathering here, it's because there are rumors of supreme treasures appearing in this particle world." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed. However, he didn't feel this was truly the case. He had sensed the immortal sense of Eastern Sage but Eastern Sage still had no idea about his existence. These so-called supreme treasures were nothing but bait trying to lure him out.

However, Eastern Sage didn't act directly. Since this is the case, he must be planning some other methods. Qin Wentian could only wait and see where these people would go to next.

"The appearance of these treasures has harmed our world instead. Today, if it wasn't for senior's help, the consequences would be unimaginable. I wonder if there would be more trouble in the future." Ouyang Xiaolu spoke in a voice of worry.

"I've nothing to do anyway. Why don't I stay here for a few days?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"If this is the case, we really do have to thank senior." Ouyang Xiaolu happily spoke, standing up and bowing to Qin Wentian.

"There's no need to be polite." Qin Wentian waved his hand. Seeing the little lass back then being so mature now, he suddenly felt as though time passed truely quickly. This banquet caused Qin Wentian to feel a sense of closeness but Ouyang Xiaolu and the others had no idea at all. In fact, Ouyang Xiaolu even asked, "I have an elder brother in the immortal realms too. Before this, I heard my blood-related brother telling me that this friend of his is extremely famous in the immortal realms. His name is Qin Wentian, I wonder if senior knows of him?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian blinked. After that, he replied, "I've heard of this person before, he did create quite a huge storm of commotion in the immortal realms."

"Really? I wonder how is brother Wentian. I heard my brother telling me that he is extremely powerful, but I have no idea what his actual strength is now." Ouyang Xiaolu got excited as she continued asking.

"Hmm, I don't know about that." Qin Wentian spread his hands helplessly, feeling a little astonished. This little lass Ouyang Xiaolu, actually still remembered him.

The banquet returned to its normal state, while Qin Wentian used his immortal sense and followed the ascendants who fled earlier, tracking their movements. The ascendants entered a palace and met a young man who was none other than Jiang Feng.

This Jiang Feng was the current number one genius of the particle world. He should have rose to prominence after that immortal war and became famous. However, he wasn't any good person. He even gave An Linglong to the Blazing Fiend Immortal King for his enjoyment.

"Blazing Fiend actually named Yurou personally?" Qin Wentian frowned when his immortal sense received the information. It's very normal for an immortal king to enjoy the bliss between the interaction of male and female but there shouldn't be a need for him to pinpoint Ouyang Yurou specifically. What was his purpose in doing so? Was Eastern Sage giving him orders behind the scene?

His immortal sense continued extending, spreading towards Grand Xia. There was also an expert who arrived at the Chu Country. He was extremely tyrannical, behaving like a despot, doing whatever he desired.

"Such a coincidence? Is Eastern Sage trying to lure me to come back to my particle world?" Qin Wentian mused silently. If he didn't know about Eastern Sage's immortal sense, he might have acted in a fit of rage and exposed himself.

Just as Qin Wentian was pondering, a violent roar of thunder echoed through the air.

"Insolence. I, Jiang Feng, am the one inviting miss Ouyang Yurou to come over to my palace to meet with my master, yet the Ouyang Clan rejected so decisively and even injured my master's subordinates? Are you slapping the face of I, Jiang Feng?"

This voice was incomparably tyrannical, spreading through the air, boring down on everyone in the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan.

The people of the Ouyang Clan all turned pale as their expressions became unsightly.

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows while cursing at that old fellow in his heart. Why has he not acted to seal off this particle world yet?

"Haha, Blazing Fiend. Your subordinates were actually attacked by someone?" A powerful expert in the Grand Xia's capital laughed. As an immortal king expert, his voice rang out through the entire Grand Xia.

"Mhm." The Blazing Fiend Immortal King snorted coldly. "An ant-like world. There's actually someone who dares to injure my men? How truly audacious. Since this is the case, capture everyone from the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan."

As the sound of his voice echoed out, the faces of those from the Ouyang Clan turned ashen. They had offended a supreme character.

"Haha, Blazing Fiend, don't you like beauties? In this small Chu Country, there are plenty of beauties. Just in the royal palace alone, there are so many pretty princesses. Do you want me to gift you a few?" Another voice rang out, from the faraway country of Chu.

"The two of you are ultimately still immortal kings. How dull." Another person spoke.

"The supreme treasures have yet to show themselves. We might be immortal kings but we still need some joy in our lives. Things are so boring here, and there are only hints of the treasures so far. Why don't we sweep through Grand Xia, razing the place to the ground and dig through the earth? I don't believe we won't be able to find the treasures then." Another voice echoed out, in an incomparably domineering manner, causing the hearts of countless people in Grand Xia to shudder.

"That's an idea." Blazing Fiend spoke.

"Master, please ease your anger. The treasures would be found sooner or later, why is there a need to implicate the entire Grand Xia? It's enough if we just deal with the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan." Jiang Feng persuaded, his words causing the people of Grand Xia to be filled with gratitude towards him.

"Alright then, go and capture everyone from the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan for me." The Blazing Fiend Immortal King's voice was ice-cold.

"Yes, Master." Jiang Feng nodded. Grand Xia, who was almost toppled over by the dangerous storm of blood, was finally at ease. Everyone was very thankful and praised Jiang Feng for living up to his reputation as the current number one genius of this world, saving Grand Xia. The Ouyang Clan didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth, for just a single woman, they actually dared to infuriate an immortal king, almost causing so many lives to die.

Jiang Feng soon arrived at the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan. The people of the Ouyang Clan were trembling. Ouyang Xiaolu stared at Qin Wentian as she spoke, "There's no need for senior to be implicated in this. Senior, please leave first."

"No need, I will go out with you all." Qin Wentian replied. Right now, he still can't act against Blazing Fiend or his sealed cultivation base would be revealed and Eastern Sage would surely be suspicious.

Chapter 1401: Eastern Sage’s Humiliation

Jiang Feng coldly glanced at Qin Wentian before he spoke, "Everyone in the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan, leave with me."

Ouyang Yurou was pale. She spoke, "Jiang Feng, if I go with you, can you spare my clan members?"

"No. You guys injured the subordinates of my master, this is simply too audacious. Right now, he already gave the order to capture you all. Come with me willingly, I don't wish to make a move." Jiang Feng tyrannically spoke. The people of the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan were speechless. There were even some who started sobbing, especially for those females who had a weaker cultivation base.

"Since this is the case, let us leave with senior Jiang Feng then. I believe that his master, the senior immortal king, is a supreme character in the immortal realms and wouldn't make things difficult for a small clan like ours." Ouyang Xiaolu exuded a trace of heroism and grace as she spoke. She didn't blame Qin Wentian for injuring the subordinates of Jiang Feng's master at all. Since the other party wanted her daughter, even without Qin Wentian here, she would have acted herself as well.

Those supreme characters of the immortal realms simply had no regards for them at all.

"Let's go." Jiang Feng turned and gracefully walked out. The people of the Ouyang Clan followed behind, with experts surrounding them.

On the way over, countless people looked up at Jiang Feng. How glorious was he? The number one genius of this world and was even taken in by a supreme character as a disciple.

"Jiang Feng is so young and good looking, as expected of the number one genius." Some females were in a daze, when they saw their idol.

Those of the older generations felt a little unwilling to do so, but they didn't say anything. Now, Jiang Feng and his master were both present. Nobody dared to say anything bad about Jiang Feng. He was now the symbol of this world.

The people of the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan and Qin Wentian were brought to a palace in the Grand Xia Empire. A cold voice then rang out from within, "A mere ant at the immortal-foundation level dares to injure my men? Do you want to die? Cripple your own cultivation base and I will spare you. As for that little doll, she will be my maid in the future, responsible for serving me. If you serve me well, I might consider sparing your family. But if you don't serve me well, hmph."

Ouyang Yurou's eyes were wet with tears, it was like her fate was set. There was no way for her to resist it.

"Senior, you are a supreme character, why must you make things difficult for minor characters like us? My beloved daughter has always been pampered from birth, she doesn't know how to serve people. I'm afraid she wouldn't be able to serve senior well." Ouyang Xiaolu bowed as she spoke, her words were also a rejection of sorts. The expressions of the people from the Ouyang Clan changed. Wouldn't this cause their clan to be destroyed?

"Are you sure she can't serve people well?" The voice of the Blazing Fiend Immortal King rang out from within the palace again.

"Haha, Blazing Fiend, you truly have none of the imposingness of immortal kings." A voice echoed through the air from afar. "As an immortal king, your anger can kill millions here, turning this world into a river of blood. Yet now, you can't even handle a little doll. This is too funny. Things are completely different from me in Chu."

The person who spoke was currently sitting on the throne in the royal palace of Chu and there were numerous beautiful women serving him at his side, all of them princesses. This world was simply too boring, he had to find things to amuse himself with.

"The two of you are shameless to the max. We came here in search for treasures and not to fool around with women." Another immortal king spoke, filled with disdain for their behavior.

"You are right, but this place is really too boring. We need to find something to amuse ourselves with." The immortal king at Chu replied.

The three powerful immortal kings were chatting, and the entire Grand Xia could hear their voices. Such power simply made the people of the particle world treat them like gods.

"Ouyang Yurou, you really don't know what is good for you. With such an opportunity before you, you actually don't know how to appreciate it? The people of the Ouyang Clan are simply ridiculous. Can it be that you think that uncle of yours has the power to resist the might of senior immortal king? Even for that fellow surnamed Qin of the past, it has already been so many years. His time is already over." An Linglong walked out and spoke. She was still by Jiang Feng's side. Although Jiang Feng wasn't very happy in his heart, but for the sake of his master, he still had to fake being close with An Linglong.

"Jiang Feng is the number one genius in our world, his master is a supreme character in the immortal realms. You guys should kneel and worship them, accepting their kindness." Someone in the crowd spoke.

Everyone stared at An Linglong and Jiang Feng, feeling that they were very compatible. The female was beautiful while the male was unrivalled in this world. Those in the crowd over a hundred years of age suddenly thought back to the magnificent figure of back then. Qin Wentian in the past, to save the famous beauty Lin Xian`er, fought against the Star River Association, and caused many supreme characters from the immortal realms to descend to their world as a war started. The situation then was somewhat similar to the situation now.

For those who had witnessed that war, they all were very sure that Qin Wentian was many times more outstanding compared to Jiang Feng. The beauty of Lin Xian`er from back then, was also something the An Linglong now, couldn't compare with. Qin Wentian back then was simply a legend. It's just that he had left this world for several years and the people of the younger generations have all forgotten about him. In truth, Jiang Feng had cultivated even longer than Qin Wentian but when Qin Wentian's fame shook the world, he was nothing but an insignificant being. It was only later after Qin Wentian left, did he meet with good fortune and receive comprehension from some of the ruins left by the war.

"If senior is determined to do this, our Ouyang Aristocrat Clan really has no way to resist." Ouyang Xiaolu knelt down causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flash as he said, "Stand up."

Ouyang Xiaolu turned her head over only to hear Qin Wentian continuing to speak. "A high-up immortal king bullying the people of a particle world? Don't you feel it's a disgrace to the majesty of immortal kings? As for Jiang Feng, the number one genius of this world? He is nothing but a lackey."

"BOOM!" Jiang Feng's aura erupted, his countenance was like lightning as he stared icily at Qin Wentian.

"Interesting. Haha, Blazing Fiend Immortal King, things are truly interesting now." The immortal king at Chu laughed loudly.

The aura of the Blazing Fiend Immortal King radiated forth. He moved and appeared in front of the crowd, exuding a sense of majesty, like a heavenly god.

"Kneel down." He stared at Qin Wentian.

"Senior, this matter has nothing to do with you." Ouyang Xiaolu didn't stand up, she was kneeling as she transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian.

"Senior, you are way too overbearing. I can't watch this any longer. Although Senior Blazing Fiend is an immortal king, there are many immortal kings in the immortal realms. It's not impossible for you to die if you act recklessly. Not long ago, an immortal war just concluded in the immortal realms and countless experts died. I might be here in a particle world, but I am from an extraordinary power in the immortal realms. If senior wants to kill me, you better take a look at the protective immortal sense on my body first."

Qin Wentian spoke arrogantly. At this moment, he sensed numerous powerful immortal senses from the immortal kings of this world scanning him. Not only that, an even more overwhelming immortal sense from out of this world was scanning him as well.

"That old fellow, why is he not sealing this place yet?" Qin Wentian cursed in his heart. Since this is the case, he had no choice but to reveal himself. He doesn't believe that the old fellow wouldn't save him.

"Trying to scare me?" The eyes of the Blazing Fiend Immortal King turned cold. He stretched out his palm as a formless pressure press down on Ouyang Xiaolu. He then smiled, "Since you say you are from a major power, I won't kill you. But I will slowly torture these mortals. In any case, this woman is really quite beautiful. Does anyone want her? This seat can gift her to you guys."

"Don't force me." Qin Wentian's voice was like frost.

"What can you do to me even if I did force you?" The Blazing FIend Immortal King spoke. Qin Wentian's aura was about to erupt but at this moment, an extremely overwhelming might covered this entire world. The Blazing Fiend Immortal King frowned and lifted his head and stared at the sky. His immortal sense could see that a screen of light was about to cover this entire particle world. Runes shone resplendently as the nodes of the light screen flared, swiftly extending through the exterior of this world.

"What's going on?" The Blazing Fiend Immortal King felt puzzled. The fluctuations of sealing-attribute energy could be felt. Could it be that senior immortal emperor wanted to temporarily seal this world away?

Qin Wentian also inclined his head. The sealing was completed in a short amount of time. Seems like the old fellow kept his word and did help him out in this.

Outside the particle world, in space, the old man clapped his hand. "Little brat, I can only help you to this extent."

At this moment, a figure walked over, it was an immortal emperor.

"Who are you?" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stared at the old man, his eyes gleaming with sharpness. This person actually managed to stealthily complete a sealing formation right underneath his eyelids.

"Does my identity have anything to do with you?" The old man coldly spoke, causing the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor to freeze.

"I've already sealed this world. No one can enter or exit. No matter what you wanted to do earlier, there's no need for you to waste time any longer. Just scram." The old man coldly spoke, causing the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's expression to turn unsightly as violent waves of might gushed forth from him.

"What? You want to fight?" An even more terrifying might radiated from the old man. "I will give you ten seconds. If you don't scram, don't blame me for not being polite."

The countenance of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor turned extremely ugly. When he felt that might, his heart silently shuddered. After that, he could only roar in rage as he left, his yell echoing through the void before gradually dissipating. Eastern Sage's heart was filled with boundless flames of anger. He wanted to make a move towards the particle world but now, this particle world has actually already been sealed away by someone. He had no way to see what was happening within and in addition, once again, he had to slink away like a loser dog, being told by someone to scram.

Such anger almost made him insane.

Within the particle world, Qin Wentian's immortal sense finally felt that this world had been sealed away. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor could no longer interfere. A moment later, he stepped out and walked towards Ouyang Xiaolu as a powerful surge of might from him directly disintegrate the pressure from the Blazing Fiend Immortal King that was boring down on Ouyang Xiaolu. "Little Lu, are you okay?"

"Impudent!" Jiang Feng coldly shouted when he saw this. Ouyang Xiaolu stared at Qin Wentian in bewilderment. His term for her seemed a little endearing?

"Little Lu, it has been hard on you." Qin Wentian's layer of concealment gradually vanished, revealing a handsome face. This caused Ouyang Xiaolu's mouth to be wide open as a look of extreme surprise could be seen on her face. "Big brother Wentian!"

"Mhm, it's me." Qin Wentian smiled. When the people in the surroundings heard that, all of them felt their hearts trembling. Big brother Wentian? This person was...Qin Wentian?

"Uncle Qin?" Ouyang Yurou's beautiful eyes flashed with light. This extraordinary-looking mysterious young man in black was the Uncle Qin whom she often heard about?

"It's Qin Wentian. Oh my heavens, it's Qin Wentian!" Many people exclaimed in shock, especially for those who had witnessed the immortal war in the past before. A look of shock appeared on their faces. Qin Wentian actually returned.

"Qin Wentian has returned. He is a true legend, an unparalleled character. At that time, Jiang Feng was still a nobody." Someone commented in a low voice.

Jiang Feng turned ashen. He also saw Qin Wentian. After that, he angrily spoke, "So what if Qin Wentian is back? Daring to be so insolent in front of my master? He is simply courting death."

Qin Wentian's eyes were filled with a cold disdain as he glanced towards Jiang Feng. That gaze was filled with an absolute contempt for him, basically regarding him as nothing. Jiang Feng's expression turned unsightly but before he could say anything, Qin Wentian already turned to the Blazing Fiend Immortal King. "Did the old dog Eastern Sage send you here? Kneel down now."

"Kneel?" Jiang Feng's expression stiffened. Telling the Blazing Fiend Immortal King to kneel? Has he gone mad?

The people in the surroundings were all in an uproar as their hearts pounded wildly. Why did Qin Wentian suddenly became so domineering?

"Everyone who came here from the immortal realms listen up. Come here and gather before me right at this moment. For those who disobey, you will die." Qin Wentian lifted his head and calmly spoke, his words powered by his immortal sense, spreading through this entire world.

Chapter 1402: End of Crisis

Qin Wentian's voice turned domineering, a completely different tone from his previous one, telling all the immortals in this particle world to gather before him.

Those who failed to obey, will all be killed.

How arrogant. Everyone stared in shock at Qin Wentian. Was this the legend of their particle world? He was still like the past, when he returns here, he is as dominating as ever, incomparably tyrannical.

Once, those who personally witnessed Qin Wentian's radiance back then, all had expressions of being visibly moved on their faces. This fellow was finally back. He commanded all immortals from the immortal realms to gather before him and even told an immortal king to kneel.

Jiang Feng knew who Qin Wentian was. In fact, back then Jiang Feng was filled with incomparable envy when he heard of Qin Wentian's legendary stories. Only after he encountered a bout of good fortune and grew in strength as well, did his confidence swell up, growing arrogant as everyone started to call him the number one genius of this world. He also compared himself with Qin Wentian before, yet no matter in which aspects, he realized that he wasn't able to match up to Qin Wentian.

Now, Qin Wentian has returned. Qin Wentian was actually so brazen, having no one in his eyes, including his master, the Blazing Fiend Immortal King.

"Uncle Qin!" The young man from the Ouyang Clan agitatedly called out. So this mysterious man in black was the Uncle Qin his mom had always mentioned? How imposing, this was his idol. This was also the first time he met Qin Wentian, and as expected, Qin Wentian's bearing was exceedingly impressive.

Qin Wentian glanced at that young man and smiled at him. "Little fellow, you should address me as elder uncle Qin instead."

"Uncle Qin is still so young, if I add the word 'elder' in front, it would make you seem old. I think calling you Uncle Qin is more endearing." The young man had an honest and simple disposition. Ouyang Yurou also smiled, "I agree, calling you Uncle Qin is more familiar to us. No wonder Uncle Qin helped me out earlier, so you didn't come to our Ouyang Clan by chance."

"There's a powerful individual who wants to deal with me and he started paying attention to this world. However now, our particle world has already been sealed off, there's no way he would be able to enter. I won't need to worry then. There will no longer be anyone in this world who dares to touch the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan." Qin Wentian spoke.

"I will naturally believe in Uncle Qin's words. Earlier, this woman said that the number one genius of our particle world is Jiang Feng, unprecedented in the past and hard to match up to in the future. How shameless. Jiang Feng is even older than Uncle Qin, yet she dares to say that his achievements are unprecedented?" The young man pointed to An Linglong who stood beside Jiang Feng as he snorted.

"Uncle Qin, tell them now. In front of you, who is the number one genius of our world, Jiang Feng? Dogshit, he is just a lackey." That young man angrily spoke. Before this, Jiang Feng acted as a lackey for the Blazing Fiend Immortal King and came to their Ouyang Clan to capture them. He had always felt extremely unhappy about it.

An Linglong's expression was pale. She stared at Qin Wentian. This man before her was extremely famous and even though so many years have passed, the legends of him were still circulating around their particle world. Although she admires Jiang Feng and treated him as number one in the world, she didn't feel this way when she stood before Qin Wentian. Also, she was treated like a whore during these few days...

"Qin Wentian, even if you are very strong back then, what's the point of it? Right now, my master is an immortal king. How dare you be so impudent." Jiang Feng coldly spoke. Although he had no idea how strong immortal kings were exactly, he understood that they were at a level he couldn't come in contact with and could only rise his head up in admiration. Qin Wentian couldn't as well.

Qin Wentian didn't even bother to reply. He glanced at the Blazing Fiend Immortal King and spoke, "I told you to kneel. Are you deaf?"

The Blazing Fiend Immortal King had an unsightly expression on his face. He stared at Qin Wentian, "Although you are very famous in the immortal realms, this is a particle world and it has already been sealed. What capabilities do you have to make me kneel before you?"

"You don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, the aura of an immortal king radiated from him, violent to the extreme. An instant later, the Blazing Fiend Immortal King turned pale. He stared at Qin Wentian with terror in his eyes. "How can this be possible? How did you reach this cultivation realm so quickly?"

Although he has heard of the immortal war in the eastern regions, but because he wasn't someone from the thirteen prefectures, he wasn't that clear about what happened there, let alone how strong Qin Wentian was.

Qin Wentian's other more well-known claim to fame was because of the immortal adjudication battle as well as him being the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

"RUMBLE!" A powerful sealing domain erupted forth from Qin Wentian, engulfing the area. A supremely powerful sealing energy bore down on Blazing Fiend, causing his expression to change greatly. He shot through the air, wanting to flee but Qin Wentian merely grabbed out with his palm, causing strands of sealing energy to enter Blazing Fiend's body. Blazing Fiend turned pale when he discovered that his circulation of immortal energy was disrupted.

"This entire world has already been sealed, where can you flee to? With me here, how can you run away?" Qin Wentian tyrannically spoke. He stepped out, instantly arriving before the Blazing Fiend Immortal King. Stabbing out with his fingers, the Blazing Fiend Immortal King instantly felt his vitality being sealed away. He stared at Qin Wentian with terror, "Young Lord Qin, please spare me."

That burst of sealing might was simply too tyrannical, actually capable of sealing away his life force.

"I've already given you a chance but you chose death instead." Qin Wentian punched out, his fist light drilled through the air as Blazing Fiend, a powerful immortal king character, died on the spot just like this.

His law domain dissipated as Qin Wentian descended from the air. Countless people were still in shock. Jiang Feng was trembling.

How can Qin Wentian be so strong, insta-killing the Blazing Fiend Immortal King?

"This…" The hearts of everyone was shuddering. Too powerful, was this the legend of their particle world? The legend that never dies… When he came back this time around, he was even stronger than before, so what if his opponent is an immortal king? He still killed him.

Jiang Feng was the number one genius of this world? Unprecedented since the past and hard for anyone to match up to him in the future?

Jiang Feng's master wasn't even able to withstand a single strike from Qin Wentian. How could Jiang Feng compare to Qin Wentian? They simply weren't people belonging to the same worlds.

The number one genius of this generation from this particle world, didn't even have the qualifications to be compared to Qin Wentian.

A raging wind swept by, only to see an immortal king flying over. Before this, he didn't really care about Qin Wentian but when he saw how the Blazing Fiend Immortal King died, he immediately flew over with his fastest speed, reaching here in the blink of an eye. He steadied himself after he arrived and bowed to Qin Wentian, "I pay my respect to Young Lord Qin."

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at him but didn't bother to reply. He continued standing in the air. The sound of the wind whistling rang out as more and more immortal kings arrived. All of them bowed to Qin Wentian with no exception.

"To think that this is the particle world Young Lord Qin is from. We have disturbed the peace here and are truly sorry. Young Lord Qin, please forgive us for our actions."

"This time, we only came here because we received news that there are supreme treasures here. We have caused a disturbance to Young Lord Qin unknowingly and really do deserve death." The immortal kings all apologized respectfully. After that, many immortal-foundation characters rushed over and all of them did so in a panic, lacking the majestic bearing of an immortal.

Before the people of a particle world, they are all supreme existences. However before Qin Wentian, an immortal-foundation character was no different from a mortal in a particle world, akin to ants. This was especially true after Qin Wentian killed the Blazing Fiend Immortal King with a single strike.

Qin Wentian was as though he was unaware that they have arrived. He walked over to before Ouyang Xiaolu and tousled her hair while smiling, "The little lass back then has already grown up. You are even the clan lord now, hahaha."

The people of the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan pespired when they saw this but they didn't feel it was strange at all. After all, Qin Wentian was very good friends with Ouyang Xiaolu's elder brother, Ouyang Kuangsheng and had even stayed in their clan and roamed the world together before. Back then, Ouyang Xiaolu was already acquainted with Qin Wentian and given Qin Wentian's current status, the people of the Ouyang Clan were naturally happy seeing that he was still so close to Ouyang Xiaolu.

"Big brother Qin, stop teasing me." Ouyang Xiaolu rolled her eyes.

"I'm not teasing you. Look, even your children have grown up. Time truly passed by so quickly." Qin Wentian walked towards Ouyang Yurou and the young man, Ouyang Yu. Ouyang Yu had a silly smile on his face as he stared at Qin Wentian while Ouyang Yurou's beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light.

"Uncle Qin, you are so cunning. In the inn, you even said that you are interested in my elder sister." Ouyang Yu laughed.

"I have to find a reason after all." Qin Wentian laughed. "Yurou is so graceful and elegant, she has inherited the positive points of your mother. In any case, you guys wouldn't suspect anything when you heard that reason I gave. Haha."

"Uncle Qin, stop teasing me too." Ouyang Yurou gently spoke.

"Haha, you will feel shy?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"Uncle Qin, how should we handle this so-called number one genius of our world?" Ouyang Yu pointed at Jiang Feng. This person personally came to their Ouyang Aristocrat Clan to capture them. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

"Since you are just a lackey, I won't kill you. Just cripple your own cultivation." Qin Wentian glanced at Jiang Feng.

Jiang Feng turned pale. He who was known as the number one genius of this world, who basked in boundless glory and light, a disciple of a powerful immortal king, is actually going to have such an ending?

He wasn't willing to accept it.

Jiang Feng's expression turned malevolent. His silhouette suddenly flashed as he lunged towards Ouyang Xiaolu, while immortal might gushed forth from him. He wasn't willing to give up everything to become a cripple. What's the point of living then?

Qin Wentian didn't even glance at him. His law domain instantly sprang up, the energy waves smashing into Jiang Feng. Jiang Feng trembled violently as his expression turned ashen. A moment later, his eyes slackened as his body fell from the air. The blast of energy from the domain had obliterated his everything.

"BOOM!" Jiang Feng's body slammed onto the ground. For this so-called number one genius, Qin Wentian couldn't even be bothered to spare another glance at him. This was the distance between them.

"This is the person you said to be unprecedented in terms of achievements." Ouyang Yu stared at An Linglong as he spoke.

"Little Yu, don't bother with her. She is actually very pitiful." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. When An Linglong heard his words, her state of heart almost collapsed as tears streamed down her face. She once hoped that she could be the woman of the number one genius Jiang Feng. However, after following him, Jiang Feng actually gave her away to his master after just a single sentence from the Blazing Fiend Immortal King. Jiang Feng didn't dare to refuse, neither did she.

And now, Jiang Feng has already died but she actually didn't feel much sorrow for him. She only felt pity for her own actions.

More and more immortals gathered here, bowing to Qin Wentian like they were worshipping an extremely lofty king. Qin Wentian didn't say anything, hence, they quietly waited at the surroundings for his instructions.

Only now did the people of this particle world sense the might Qin Wentian possessed. His strength was already at a level they couldn't imagine.

"From today onwards, for those of you who came to this particle world, I will be sealing your cultivation bases. You all can teach the people of this world, guiding them in cultivation. When the time is right, I will release the seals and allow you all to go back freely." Qin Wentian's voice rang throughout the world, powered by his immortal sense. Countless immortals trembled, while the hearts of everyone in the world shook, feeling immense gratitude to Qin Wentian. This was then, the lord of their world. He would seal the cultivation bases of these invaders and told them to instruct the people of the world in cultivation.

Comparing Qin Wentian to Jiang Feng is nothing but an insult to Qin Wentian.

Even for those of the younger generations, who saw Jiang Feng as their idol, felt extremely regretful right now. Ouyang Xiaolu, Ouyang Yurou and the others all had smiles on their faces. These immortals earlier were all so arrogant. Now, they were supposed to stay here and guide this world in cultivation? This truly served them right!

Chapter 1403: Uncle Black Appears

After the particle world was sealed, he clearly didn't wish for these immortals to leave just like that. If this was the was the case, no one in the immortal realms would know the things that happened in this particle world. Not even the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

Although even if they knew what happened in here, they would not necessarily be able to guess that he has an avatar. However, Qin Wentian had always been cautious when he handled things, not keen on taking unneeded risks. As for these immortals, many of them did as they desired, becoming despots or tyrants in his particle world. It was better to make them stay here by sealing their cultivation bases. It could be considered a punishment of sorts.

As for those innocent immortals who came here purely for treasure seeking, Qin Wentian wouldn't imprison them here forever. When he grew strong enough and when the time was right, or maybe after Eastern Sage dies, no one else would care about this particle world in the future. Releasing them to their freedom at that time, wouldn't be too late.

Naturally, to some people, such a punishment was far from sufficient.

Qin Wentian's gaze turned to the immortal king who was based in Chu that acted like a tyrant as his eyes flashed with coldness.

"Young Lord Qin, please forgive me." That immortal king bowed upon feeling the tyrannical aura gushing forth from Qin Wentian.

"Are you willing to accept the punishment?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"I'm willing to." That immortal king nodded. The Blazing Fiend Immortal King died before his eyes, how would he dare to refuse Qin Wentian?

"However, I guess that you might be someone sent here by the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. In addition, to the things you have done, I really wish to kill you. Tell me, what should I do?" Qin Wentian coldly continued.

"Young Lord Qin, I'm definitely not Eastern Sage's subordinate. As for what I've done earlier, I'm willing to make amends, please show mercy." That immortal king turned pale, worried that Qin Wentian would kill him in a fit of anger.

"Kneel down, kowtow in the direction of the Chu Country." Qin Wentian quietly spoke, wanting an immortal king to kneel and kowtow to express his regret. That immortal king turned ashen, by doing this, his pride would completely be destroyed.

He was a lofty and high-up immortal king. How difficult it must be for him to agree? But for the sake of survival, what was pride? He could toss pride away.

He knelt down and really began to kowtow towards the direction of Chu.

The hearts of everyone here were all trembling, staring at Qin Wentian with a fervent gaze. This was the true protector of their world. Earlier, the so-called number one genius Jiang Feng, was just a lackey of an immortal king. Some people among the crowd felt that even so, it was extremely impressive for being able to follow an immortal king. It was the people of the Ouyang Aristocrat Clan who didn't know what was good for them. Now that they saw Qin Wentian, these people only felt ashamed of themselves.

The young man before them was the true symbol of their world. Everything he did, was for the good of this world.

"Fine, I will pardon you from your crimes. After sealing your cultivation base, you will pay for what you have done in Chu, guiding them in cultivation. For those who are willing to join your sect, you cannot refuse them. If not, I will kill you." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. That immortal king trembled. He, a lofty character who did what he desired in Chu, was now going to become nothing but a slave that teaches cultivation?

Many people were agitated, and even felt like they wanted to go to Chu. A powerful immortal king with his cultivation base sealed had to teach the people of Chu cultivation. This simply was…

"Uncle Qin, beautifully done. It would be a waste to kill these people. Leaving them alive to be slaves to teach everyone cultivation is only something Uncle Qin can think of. How sinister." That young man, Ouyang Yu, laughed. Ouyang Yurou who was beside him glared at him, "How can you say that Uncle Qin is sinister."

"Alright, I won't say it any more. I know that Uncle Qin is your idol. Now that you've finally met your idol, are you very moved?" Ouyang Yu michieviously stated.

"Back then in the inn, Uncle Qin had yet to reveal his identity." Ouyang Yurou smiled. Ouyang Xiaolu glanced at her children as a wry smile appeared on her face while she shook her head. After that, she saw Qin Wentian started to seal the cultivation bases of the immortals as she sighed with admiration in her heart. To think that the big brother Qin whom she was acquainted with a hundred years ago, had actually reached such a height that she would never have imagined.

At that time, Qin Wentian was even pressured by their Ouyang Clan, and humiliated by Ouyang Ting. Luckily her elder brother Ouyang Kuangsheng had a very good relationship with him.

Everything just felt like a dream.

The people of the particle world heaved a sigh of relief, there were many who also felt excitement. Very quickly, there would be many powerful immortals with their cultivation bases sealed to teach them cultivation. In the future, their particle world would definitely grow stronger and stronger.

Qin Wentian's sealing methods with regards to these immortals were naturally different. For those more sinister ones, their cultivation bases were completely sealed, making them into slaves. It was sufficient with their insights to guide ordinary people with regards to cultivation matters. For those immortals who didn't cause any trouble, Qin Wentian left them with plenty of strength, allowing them to maintain their pride and they had the option to choose disciples.

As for the sealing away of this world, he was very confident in the abilities of that old fellow. Every time when he grew stronger, he would discover that the old fellow was even more monstrous than what he imagined, simply unfathomable.

...

In the immortal realms, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor could only leave with suppressed anger. After the particle world was sealed, he completely had no idea what was happening inside it. In fact, he didn't even know who the old fellow was, and could only sense that he was extremely terrifying.

However, he actually never heard of someone like that old fellow before.

Today, he returned to outside the particle world again and didn't sense the presence of the old fellow. He attempted to break through the seal but he discovered that no matter what he did, there was no way for him to break the sealing formation. How shocking was this.

Eastern Sage gazed into the horizons while musing. Could it be that there are truly some extremely fearsome peak-level characters hiding in the countless particle worlds?

The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor couldn't help but to think in this manner. For those ancient emperors whose cultivation reached the pinnacle, where had they all gone to?

The famous ancient emperors whom they knew, were all powerful experts that had unified the immortal realms. However, these people didn't really feel strongly about power and authority but does this mean that their strength was weak? In the countless worlds, it was really highly possible for some of these supremely powerful experts to exist.

Naturally, it's also possible that they have left the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"After taking my revenge, I will leave this layer of the immortal realms too and head to the vast space, witnessing the other fascinating immortal realms with my eyes." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor stared at the starry skies as he mused.

By leaving Qin Wentian, Bai Wuya and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect alive, he would be filled with a reluctance to leave. Even if he left, he might have a heart demon due to this and his cultivation base might remain at his current level forever.

...…..

As for Qin Wentian now, his true body was in closed-door seclusion within the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. During this period of time, it was like he had vanished completely, resembling the time when he went to the Darknorth Immortal Mountain. Only by doing this would it ensure that even if Di Tian was discovered, the people of the immortal realms wouldn't suspect the existence of two Qin Wentians.

However, as the things in his particle world concluded and the world was sealed away. His avatar Di Tian would continue to stay there for a period of time to ensure things went smoothly. Qin Wentian could set his heart at ease.

When he left the particle world back then, he initially thought that there would no longer be any trouble. However, because Eastern Sage forced things too far by showing that he would even act against a particle world, Qin Wentian couldn't help but be worried. In any case, Eastern Sage now was in the shadows while he was out in the open, at a clear disadvantage.

"This Eastern Sage, I'm afraid he might try some other things in the future." At the cultivation ground, Qin Wentian sat cross-legged as he silently mused. He had to guard against Eastern Sage. There was nothing more terrifying than a crazed immortal emperor as your enemy.

At this moment, Qin Wentian radiated law energy of different attributes. He was using the law energy to temper his bones and further nurture his body. At the immortal king realm, one would have formed a body of laws and had already undergone a baptism of sorts, granting them boundless vitality. Hence, even if an immortal king died, their bodies would be considered supreme treasures.

Qin Wentian's immortal sense turned inwards as his bone gleamed with immortal radiance. The runes on his bones contained different attribute-energies as his entire body rumbled with strength. At this very moment, his immortal sense flowed into his heart. Over there, he could sense an aura that didn't belong to him.

He attempted to agitate that aura and after many attempts of probing, a burst of light shone as a silhouette slowly appeared in Qin Wentian's immortal sense vision.

"Uncle Black…?" Qin Wentian stared at the familiar silhouette as a longing filled his heart. Uncle Black's existence held an extraordinary meaning to him. He was the one who brought him up, and Qin Wentian was even closer to him when compared to his adoptive father Qin Chuan.

"You've finally found me. To think that you found me so quickly. I'm really satisfied." A smile appeared on Uncle Black's face. When he sensed Qin Wentian's strength, that smile grew even wider. "When you were young, I was too strict towards you and had never even shown a smile to you at all. Wentian, Uncle Black is sorry."

"Uncle Black, the intent behind your actions was merely to spur me to grow faster. Ever since I was very young, you made me sever my meridians and didn't allow me to connect with an astral soul so quickly, giving me a deeper foundation which enabled me to have a higher starting point in cultivation compared to others. I can naturally understand Uncle Black's kind intentions and efforts." Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude. "Uncle Black, you once said that when I reached the immortal realms, you would come and find me. But to think that you didn't come and have actually always been inside of me. Were you waiting for me to discover you?"

"Mhm, I still thought that I would need to wait for a very long time." Uncle Black smiled. "Given how vast the immortal realms are, looking for an immortal-foundation expert is like looking for a needle in a haystack. How can I find you easily? Let alone the fact, I didn't intend to meet you in the immortal realms at all. Back then, I was so strict towards you because of your father's command. Your father has once said that if you are ordinary, we will safeguard you through your entire life, letting you lead an ordinary lifetime of happiness, and never letting you know of your true background. However, I naturally hoped that you wouldn't be ordinary. Although I watched you as you grew up, I've followed your father for so many years after all. My emotions to him are deeper even when compared to mine towards you."

Through the calm voice of Uncle Black, Qin Wentian didn't feel unhappy or disappointed. On the contrary, he could sense the depth of emotions Uncle Black had towards his father. Qin Wentian only had gratitude in his heart.

"My father...Is he still alive?" Qin Wentian asked. This was a question which he always wanted to know the answer to. In one of the memory fragments within the tiny astral-being, he saw the miserable ending of his father. His blood, bone, essence, spirit, his everything was seized away by the enemies in his clan, there was no doubt that that was a true death. However, from other memory fragments, his father seemed as though he was still alive. Qin Wentian was very confused, he wanted to know the truth.

Chapter 1404: Towering Rage

When Qin Wentian asked this, he was incomparably nervous, staring at Uncle Black, wanting to know the answer no matter what even if the answer was a negative one.

"I have no idea." Uncle Black sighed. His answer caused Qin Wentian to stiffen. Have no idea?

"However, he did die once. But your father was a true genius, pampered by the heavens. Even that incident didn't really manage to take his life away. I only know that he restarted his cultivation and lived on but as to his exact whereabouts now, I have no idea. I also don't know if he is still alive or not." Uncle Black sighed. Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he died once but survived somehow and restarted his cultivation?

"I once saw it in a memory fragment. Father died after being surrounded by many inconceivably powerful experts in a clan. The supreme ancients of the clan grouped together and seized away his everything. Uncle Black, by saying that he died once, are you referring to this incident?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Yes, seems like you have seen it." Uncle Black nodded. "The memory fragments your father left you, might have contained the memories of two lifetimes. During his first life, he was wild and unrestrained, powerful enough to do anything he wanted to. He could spread his hands and give up on everything, or could give it his all and slaughter the heavens. However, at the end, he grew tired of such a life and wanted to leave. But someone refused to allow him to do so and this was the reason why he had a second life."

"During his second life, your father was more steady, not as wild as before and was more mediocre in comparison. He wasn't as brilliant as he was in his first lifetime. He hid away in a particle world and grew up there, practicing his cultivation from the start. Later on, he and your mother had you and after that, in order to protect you, they had no choice but to choose departure. It isn't that they didn't want to watch you grow up but the safest way for you to survive was to sever all connections they had with you. In that case, no one would know your identity, that you are his son. Despite the pain in his and your mother's hearts, they still willingly chose to do this to protect you."

Uncle Black slowly spoke, Qin Wentian's heart trembled as he heard these words. He naturally would trust Uncle Black. He had once seen how powerful Qin Yuanfeng's clan was. The palace his father stayed in alone, was even vaster and more majestic than the entire Evergreen Immortal Empire. The experts of that clan were so strong that their strength was inconceivable. Even though his father had a second life, he was clearly still in danger. This was why his parents chose to sever their relationship. If he grew up and was mediocre, he would never know all of this and would be able to live an ordinary life of peace and happiness.

However, Uncle Black was reluctant. Uncle Black hoped that he would be extraordinary, the same as his father Qin Yuanfeng, capable of warring against anything under the heavens. Even if it was against the king of that clan, I can choose not to fight with you but if we fought, I will still be able to defeat you. It was just that his father Qin Yuanfeng was too unrestrained, with nobody able to control him. He wasn't happy with his clan's way of doing things and in the end, his clan elected another king, plundering everything that belonged to him and bestowed it to the chosen king.

"Not only for you. Even for us old fellows, we are actually the servants of your father. We decided to change our appearances after being heavily injured, becoming half-crippled, hiding in the shadows. But even so, we still had to be extremely low-profile and could only hide in the remote corners of a particle world and watch as you grew up step by step. And now, since you made it to the immortal realms, we will never appear again because we also have to sever our connection with you. Before you have sufficient strength, you must remember not to let others know that you are the son of Qin Yuanfeng."

Uncle Black's words caused Qin Wentian to be speechless. As a son, he had to keep his parentage a secret, living in trepidation? It was all because of his family's powerful enemies.

"They shouldn't be in this layer of immortal realms right?" Qin Wentian asked.

"They are not. Your father has long left his hometown, in fact, he even didn't dare to stay in this layer of the immortal realms. However, there are still some vestiges of your father's past deeds here and it's possible someone might know of his existence. As for the people of your father's clan, they are able to cross worlds easily and they have sent their men here before. Hence, even if our enemies are now not in this layer of the immortal realms, you still cannot let anyone know about this. Now, if our enemies investigate you, they would only know that from the start until now, you are an orphan that was adopted by Qin Chuan of the Qin Residence in the particle world. To the outside world, this is the reason why you are surnamed Qin."

Uncle Black slowly continued, "It's just that your bloodline power might be a little suspicious as it's extremely extraordinary. But as long as the person who sees it isn't someone of your father's or mother's clans, nobody here in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms would know. But after you leave this layer, it's best for you to be more secretive when you need to activate the power of your bloodline. Try to minimize the need to use it, especially so after your cultivation grows stronger. After your strength reaches a certain level, if you use your bloodline powers, its unique characteristics would be extremely evident. You have to remember this."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Upon knowing that his father did have a second lifetime, he felt more relaxed. Although he couldn't be sure if his father was dead, there was now hope that his father might have survived.

"Which of the 33 heavens are our enemies from? What clan is that?" Qin Wentian asked.

"At the strongest layer of immortal realms, the first heaven. It's an extremely ancient and powerful clan but the you now have no need to be too clear about this. When you reach that step, even if I didn't tell you, you would know it yourself." Uncle Black spoke. Qin Wentian's heart trembled for a moment. The strongest layer? How strong are they exactly. From his memory fragments, he could see their terrifying and unfathomable strength.

Right now, he was at the immortal king realm and could have a proper gauge of the strength levels he saw in the memories. He could tell that even for immortal emperors, they would disintegrate into dust in an instant if they were involved in a battle of that level.

"Why did that clan want to act against my father? In the battle of the past, my father defeated the king of the clan, why didn't they allow my father the freedom of choice? I don't understand." Qin Wentian was burning with hatred. Although he did not experience the battle back then, but when he personally saw the enemies using a supreme treasure to seize the bloodline power, rune bones, treasured flesh and energy essence of his father, giving it to his opponent instead, an incomparably towering killing intent would gush forth in this heart, surging up a million times.

One day, if he could reach that level. he would definitely make the enemies pay it back. For the things they took from his father, the entire clan had to repay this debt with their blood.

"This is the greatest secret of your father. He is actually of the direct line of descent. His parents are also great characters of the clan but sadly, they died in battle. From young, your father became an orphan and his personality was slightly antisocial and eccentric, a man of few words. The elders of his faction brought him up, treating him as the future of their faction in the clan."

Uncle Black stared at Qin Wentian as he continued, "Your father didn't disappoint them. He was sent with other chosen of each respective faction that were of the direct line of descent for training. His talent was extraordinary and other than him, there were two others in the same clan who were just as outstanding. One was a young king of the clan, while the other was a female your father secretly admired then. The three of them were good friends since young but in the end, the two of them got together. Your father was depressed but he still gave them his blessings. After that, he decided to leave the clan to roam the world outside, tempering himself alone. He experienced countless difficulties and almost died on many occasions, as time shaped his character, resulting in him becoming wild and unrestrained. He met the woman that would become your mother on one of his trips and began to pursue her madly."

"At the same time, that young king of the clan also grew to prominence, like the sun in the sky. There was no one in the same generation who could compare to him and he became one of the possible successors of the clan and was heavily nurtured. He was born a king, dazzling to the extreme. However, he knew that there was one who could compete with him, and that person was none other than your father. However, your father initially didn't even have the intent to compete for the clan's authority. He matured in a place far from the clan and only returned very rarely. But when he did return, there were no longer many interactions between him and others of the clan. The young king slowly grew stronger and gradually became the indisputable true successor. It seemed that there would be no further interactions between him and your father."

"It was only until it was rumored that when your father was adventuring outside, he managed to obtain an ultimate treasure. Countless people in the world wanted it, and your father was hunted by the major powers there ceaselessly. The clan summoned him back but he refused to return, choosing to elope with your mother instead, roaming the world. No one could bind him, not even the clan. He wanted to live the life of a recluse but one day, the young king and his wife actually found his location. They went to pay him a visit, and your father passionately welcomed these old friends of his. Under the pretext of not meeting for a long time, the young king asked for a spar. He was defeated and left, but it was not known what he told the elders of the clan when he returned. Not long after that, even the members of the clan started to join in the hunt for your father."

"Under a fit of rage, your father decided to sever all connections with him and the clan. His actions only served to further enrage the elders, they had never met such an unbridled clansman before. They sent out even more experts but the end result was that everyone they sent out was heavily injured by your father. In the end, even members of your mother's clan joined the hunt, they found your parents and forcefully brought your mother away."

"However, things weren't concluded yet. The hunt of the clan has never ceased and one day, your father finally decided to return to settle things. The vast majority of his faction within the clan was willing to follow him. They openly claimed for a fair battle between your father and the young king, giving your father a chance to get back everything he lost when he had chosen to leave when he was younger. In that battle, the young king of the clan lost again. However, nobody expected that the other factions were so despicable, actually making the excuse by saying that your father won only because of that ultimate treasure. If he gifted the treasure to the clan, the young king would be ten to even a hundred times stronger than your father."

"How could your father be willing to give up the treasure? A great battle naturally unfolded, and those who followed your father were either killed or heavily injured. Your father's anger boiled over and he started a slaughter spree. This act enraged the supreme ancients of the clan, they who held the most authority. They came out and used a supreme treasure to seize everything belonging to your father, bestowing it to the young king instead. Now, so many years have already passed. That young king of the clan must have already grown so strong that it's unfathomable, there's no one else who could influence his position or compete with him. He wields unquestionable authority and is worshiped and respected by countless people."

Uncle Black's voice was filled with boundless flames of fury. Qin Wentian's eyes also gleamed with the fire of hatred.

Everything was stolen from his father?

Blood for blood, he would make them pay for everything they've done sooner or later.

As for the king of that clan. Right now, his radiance knew no bounds and he was peering down from the heavens like a god?

Qin Wentian's fists were clenched as his veins throbbed. The law energy from him fluctuated wildly. Although he has personally seen what happened in one of the memory fragments before. But when he truly heard Uncle Black confirming the fact, he felt incomparably wrathful as his hatred towered up into the skies!

Chapter 1405: Little Rascal’s Signal

"The strongest heaven among the thirty-three layers of immortal realms?" Qin Wentian's heart was filled with rage. From one of the memory fragments, he saw that his parents gave their everything to him. He could feel the closeness of kinship, and from that time on, he understood that his parents didn't abandon him. On the contrary, because they loved him too much, they would rather choose to part with him and sever their connection, not wanting anyone to know of his existence.

Even if one day his father was hunted down in his second life, there would still be no one who knows that he, Qin Wentian, the son of Qin Yuanfeng, existed.

"What about my mother? Is she fine?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I have no idea as well. It was after your mother was brought back to her clan did your father returned to his and fought that last battle. I believed he has already anticipated the ending and although he did die once, he didn't really die, and managed to start anew with a second life. As for the place your father chose to cultivate in during his second lifetime, I'm sure you have already guessed it." Uncle Black spoke.

"The particle world I was from?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"Yes, that place is the place your father spent his second lifetime. He was the same as you, growing up there, along with some of us old crippled fellows. However, it has been a very long time ago." Uncle Black smiled. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed before he smiled. "That particle world, not only have vestiges of my past deeds, the past footprints of my father can be found there as well. I once saw the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in a memory. That must be the major power father had created when he was cultivating there."

"Mhm, as your father's cultivation grew stronger, he naturally didn't remain in that particle world. He went out to roam the stars, and should have also arrived at the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, leaving behind the vestiges of his deeds. After that, your mother found your father. Although countless years passed, their emotions for each other were still the same. They finally had you, and gave their everything to you."

Uncle Black smiled, his eyes were actually red with tears. Qin Wentian thought back to the memory fragment which he saw right after his birth. At that time, his parents gave their most treasured things to him and sent him to the particle world.

"After you were born, your parents asked me to bring you away. They have actually been to the particle world to see you before, but they still decisively chose to sever their relationship, choosing to bury your existence, not letting anyone learn of it. Even if they were hunted down one day, none of their enemies would know that you existed. As for you, you grew up in the particle world your father grew up in. Us old fellows were your only companions and we naturally hope you would rise up and walk on the path of glory, fighting against the heavenly gods and devils in the strongest sky one day." A strong hint of anticipation flared in Uncle Black's eyes.

"Uncle Black, I will definitely do that." Qin Wentian lightly spoke, but there was an iron-like resolution in his eyes.

"Mhm, I believe you will. Once, when you were in this world, regardless of the dangers you faced, we all had to pretend we didn't know anything and couldn't see it. We don't wish for you to have too much external help. Because, in order for you to achieve what your father achieved, you can only depend on yourself."

"However Uncle Black, you guys wouldn't just watch on if I am really at risk of dying right? Back then in the Pill Emperor Hall, when I had no hope left, didn't you all secretly appear?" Qin Wentian smiled. Uncle Black also smiled but he didn't say anything.

"You already have your current cultivation base. In the future, us old fellows would have no way to aid you. Walk your path well and remember that you will have to head towards that strongest heaven in the future. The strength level there is so high that you cannot imagine as you are now. This Azure Mystic Immortal Realms are the most remote world out of the thirty-three heavens. This is the reason why your father chose to leave you in a particle world near here. This place is the furthest away from the strongest heaven, furthest from all enemies."

"Uncle Black, you all have to take good care of yourselves too." Qin Wentian smiled. The strongest heaven? He would head over there in the future for sure. Uncle Black said that when he reached that step, he would naturally know who his enemies were. One could very well imagine that those enemies, were none other than his father's clan. What sort of peak were they standing on exactly?

"Don't worry. We will still hide in the remote corners of some tiny worlds and watch you ascend to the peak. When you finally reach there, you can tell the people of that clan that they were wrong to make that choice in the past. That, was their mistake, and they have to pay the price for it." Uncle Black seriously spoke. He was the one who watched Qin Wentian grow up. No matter who it was, everyone had to start at the most basic beginning. He aided Qin Wentian to build up his foundation and now, everything in the future would have to depend on Qin Wentian himself.

His anticipation for Qin Wentian was too high. But if it wasn't high enough, it wouldn't be sufficient for them to take revenge.

"This debt… I will definitely make them repay this in full." Qin Wentian's voice was cold.

"Alright, I will leave first. Walk your path well in the future. If your parents are still alive, they are definitely waiting for you in some remote parts of the universe, waiting to see you reach the peak, trampling upon the heavenly gods and devils." Uncle Black smiled at Qin Wentian. After that, his spirit figure in Qin Wentian's immortal sense began to dissipate, turning illusory before disappearing completely.

Qin Wentian opened his eyes as sharpness gleamed within. His fists were tightly clenched, he stared up at the skies as he pondered. The thirty-three heavens, his enemies were at the strongest heaven?

An extremely powerful ancient clan? He would reach that step in the future and stand before them.

After that, Qin Wentian closed his eyes once more as he sent his consciousness into the tiny astral-being. He then sent vast amounts of astral energy flooding into it. He started to open the scattered memory fragments, as the cruel scenes of what happened back then were engraved into his mind. Back then after he saw his father being killed in the memories, he didn't open any other fragments for a long time after that. Because, he felt that what he had seen was already enough. But now, he wanted to know more, he wanted to know everything.

When those memory fragments unlocked, more scenes of his father's growth appeared in his mind and he could gradually differentiate between the memories of his father's first and second lifetimes.

During his first lifetime, his father was wild and unrestrained, daring to do anything and had enough power to back it up. During the second lifetime, his father was more low-profile, his wildness retracted as he grew more mature. Although the only scene of him was during the memory when he was born, Qin Wentian could already clearly feel the emotions his parents had for him. He knew that when Uncle Black brought him to this world, his parents must have secretly came by to see him many times as well.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian clenched his fist as an explosive sound rang out. He still had no way to open the most core memory fragments in the tiny astral-being. His aura fluctuated before it dissipated. He then drew in a deep breath and walked out, entering his bedroom.

"Wentian, what's wrong?" Qingcheng saw a faint trace of hurt in Qin Wentian's eyes. She walked towards him as her gentle and beautiful eyes seemed to be able to melt all his negativity away.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian stepped forward and embraced her. Qingcheng leaned against him, hugging him tightly.

Although this was just a tiny and insignificant action, it did give Qin Wentian strength. She had accompanied Qin Wentian all the way until now ever since they were young. They had experienced too many things and she has also seen the things Qin Wentian had to endure. Even the despair they felt at the Pill Emperor Hall back then, Qin Wentian still had that iron-like resolution in his eyes. She was very clear how strong his character was. But now, this was the first time she saw traces of hurt within his eyes.

When she thought of this, Mo Qingcheng felt her heart melting too. She quietly hugged Qin Wentian, allowing him to feel her warmth.

"Everything will be fine, I will be by your side, accompanying you forever." Mo Qingcheng lightly spoke. Her head laid on Qin Wentian's shoulder as a radiant smile appeared on her face. Within that smile, however, there was a trace of sadness too. She knew the pressure on Qin Wentian was extremely great. Everyone was depending on him.

With greater strength, there naturally would be greater responsibilities. He had to protect everyone close to him. When he faced powerful opponents, he could only forge ahead relentlessly, like a man made from steel.

However, no matter how strong Qin Wentian was, he is still ultimately, a human. As a human, there would naturally be times he was fatigued. Right now, she actually felt sorrow, hating herself for her uselessness, for not being able to share the burden with him.

"Qingcheng, thank you." Qin Wentian could feel the warmth from Qingcheng. He was moved in his heart. Qingcheng had no regrets, choosing to follow him despite him not being there to accompany her on many occasions. She had no complaints, always waiting for him, longing for him in silence.

"Dumbo…" Mo Qingcheng had a mischievous smile on her face. Qin Wentian's heart trembled as a smile finally appeared on his face too.

After he was more clear about the story of his parents, his anger surged up into the sky and the pressure on him further increased. He could tell that even if his cultivation base was at the same level as the ancient emperors, it would still be insufficient to face the enemies of his father.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's countenance suddenly changed as his eyes gleamed coldly.

"Qingcheng, Little Rascal seems to have encountered some trouble." The two of them separated. Qin Wentian stared at Mo Qingcheng as he spoke.

"What happened?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"I can't be sure, but he seems to be in a panic and great hurry, the tone of the signal was filled with agitation. I wonder what exactly has happened." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. As his cultivation base grew stronger, the connection between him and Little Rascal grew stronger as well. At this moment Little Rascal, who was cultivating in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, actually sent him a signal.

"What are you planning to do? Will you go over?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"I will head there to find him, I'm afraid that little fellow might have encountered danger." Qin Wentian spoke. Although Qin Wentian sent Little Rascal and Purgatory there to temper themselves, how could he be at ease if the two of them really encountered danger?

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng nodded lightly as she smiled. "Go on ahead, I will wait for you here."

"Okay, let me go ask the Emperor Lord first." After speaking, Qin Wentian departed and sped towards the emperor palace where the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was at.

"Wentian, come to my place." Even before Qin Wentian reached the emperor palace. another voice rang out in his ear. He shifted his direction and soon arrived at Bai Wuya's palace.

"Senior brother." Qin Wentian called out as he walked in.

"A beast tide was seen in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, there is a major incident happening." Bai Wuya stated.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There were many demons in the immortal realms who could take on the form of humans and were capable of logical thought. Why would there suddenly be a beast tide?

"From the news I received from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, at the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, bordering to the northern regions, there is a great beast tide forming there. There might be supremely powerful demons emerging from the depths of the Desolate Mountains." Bai Wuya spoke. He then continued, "The major powers of the northern regions are taking this matter very seriously and very soon, the entire immortal realms would receive this news."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, the signal Little Rascal sent him. Could it be related to the great beast tide that's happening?

Chapter 1406: Skybreak City

Qin Wentian stared at Bai Wuya and asked, "Senior, do you want to head over there?"

"Mhm, the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range has always been mysterious, the same as the Myriad Devil Islands. Although humans aren't forbidden from entering, only a rare few could survive after they chose to enter. A great beast tide is extremely rare in the immortal realms, I naturally want to take a look. I asked you to come over because I want to know if are you interested in this matter?" Bai Wuya asked.

"I also wish to head over to take a look." Qin Wentian nodded lightly. Even if Bai Wuya didn't ask, he also had to go over there. Something major must have happened or Little Rascal wouldn't send him that signal. A huge change or unforeseen event must have occurred in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range.

"There are no problems if you wish to go but now that Eastern Sage is in the shadows, his killing intent towards you and me must be extremely intense. He might act against us. Even leaving aside Eastern Sage, there are many other major characters who want to kill you. For example, the Violet Emperor is one of them. Although he might want face and not be so thick-skinned as to act against you, but if there's a chance for him to do so, he definitely wouldn't show any mercy."

Bai Wuya continued, "Hence, even when roaming the immortal realms, you have to be incomparably cautious."

Qin Wentian frowned. Eastern Sage is truly extremely troublesome because he didn't die. If he wanted to kill Eastern Sage, unless he had the aid of a peak-stage immortal emperor or an extremely powerful mid-stage immortal emperor, it would be impossible to kill Eastern Sage even if he could defeat him.

For every day Eastern Sage remained alive, he would feel threatened by that.

"Emperor Yu is a peak-stage immortal emperor but there's no way I can request senior Emperor Yu to do anything. In addition, I don't know his attitude towards this." Qin Wentian mused. Because he was the Saint Lord of this generation, Emperor Yu protected him. He had no real way to request Emperor Yu to kill Eastern Sage for him.

If he really wanted to kill Eastern Sage, he would have to request help from some of the most powerful seniors in the Heavenly Talisman Realm. However, people of this level were rare even in the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He also didn't have any connections with such powerful seniors, what could he offer them to kill Eastern Sage?

"You should go to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. If the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor heads to the Desolate Mountains, there should be several powerful characters going there as well, including your father-in-law. If that's the case, he wouldn't be able to act against you so easily then." Bai Wuya laughed. Qin Wentian nodded. After that, Qin Wentian bid farewell and left, bringing along with him several experts of the Battle Saint Tribe as he stepped onto the teleportation array leading to the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

At the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Evergreen Longhao and many other experts were there at the array to welcome Qin Wentian's group.

"Qin Wentian, I heard that your performance was extraordinary during the immortal war. You could cripple Dongsheng Kun and have the combat prowess of a mid-stage immortal king. I have a whole new level of respect for you." Evergreen Longhao stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke. Before this, he knew that Qin Wentian and his younger sister were both in love. But as a prince as well as an immortal king, although he knew Qin Wentian was extraordinary, he didn't treat Qin Wentian as an equal. But after that immortal war, Qin Wentian's performance was simply too dazzling. As such a young immortal king, he outstripped all his peers, his potential was simply shocking.

"Elder brother, don't tease me." Qin Wentian smiled. Evergreen Longhao was Qing`er's elder brother. There was naturally no problem by referring to him as such.

"Don't be so modest. Your talent is really unprecedented." Evergreen Longhao laughed. "Are you here this time around to look for Qing`er?"

"Has Qing`er returned?" Qin Wentian asked.

"She has not yet. Senior Matriarch Ji is guiding her on cultivation. If you wish to meet her, you can use the teleportation array here and head to Matriarch Ji's sect." Evergreen Longhao spoke.

"It's fine then. I heard news that there's a great beast tide forming in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range. Has elder brother received this news?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Mhm, a rarely seen beast tide. Now, the news has already shaken the immortal realms. Experts of major powers should have received this news too as they head towards Skybreak City."

"Elder brother, do you intend to go there? Does his Majesty have any thoughts on this?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Mhm, it's said that the repercussions of the appearance of the beast tide this time around is extremely great. We have to be vigilant and guard against any possible invasion. Royal father will head over too. Since you are already here, let's go together."

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. The Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range was incomparably vast, he had no idea how many demonic beasts were within. Most probably, the number of demons were equal to the number of humans in the immortal realms and if this great beast tide truly intends to invade, the people of the northern regions would all be completely annihilated. No wonder the northern regions spread this news so urgently, wanting the other major powers to be on the alert.

Such an incident was extremely rare, but there were still cases which happened before in the history of the immortal realms. According to some records, the Desolate Mountains did war with the immortal realms before. There were ancient emperors back then, but there were also ultimate demons in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range that were equal to the ancient emperors. The demons then wanted to conquer the human world, unifying the immortal realms under their reign.

"Your highness, would those powers of the northern regions be too sensitive regarding this?" Someone asked. After all, the major powers in the northern regions were all extremely powerful. A beast tide might be terrifying, but if peak-level emperors acted, they would still be able to suppress it.

"We have never experienced it before, hence we naturally have no idea of how fearsome it is. However, you all have to know that the Desolate Mountains are a paradise for demonic beasts, just like how the Myriad Devil Islands are for the devil cultivators. Do you know how strong they are exactly and how many supreme demon powers are within?" Evergreen Longhao spoke, his words causing the expressions of everyone to turn solemn.

Indeed, nobody knew how strong the Desolate Mountains were exactly. Although they had not launched any invasions for countless years, it was sure to have sent demonic beasts out to infiltrate the immortal realms, to understand the situation and our foundation. Their understanding of humans far surpassed the understanding of humans to them.

"This time, a storm will definitely rise up." Evergreen Longhao murmured. They came to the emperor palace and paid their respects to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor before all of them went to the teleportation array and headed towards the northern regions together.

However, this time around, they didn't head to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. They went to a place named Skybreak City situated in the northern regions instead. This majestic city was just next to the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range and many major powers of the northern regions were currently staying here to monitor the movements of their enemy should there be any. There were also some who chose to enter the Desolate Mountains to temper themselves.

Skybreak City was an extremely vast city in the northern regions. It's even larger compared to the royal capital of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, and this place was governed jointly by all the various major powers of the north.

In this city, experts were everywhere, as the yearning for strength was extremely intense, imprinted into the minds of those who lived here. Given that this city was right next to the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, the people here were already used to life and death battles, and were all exceedingly valiant and as tough as nails.

During these few days, Skybreak City became even more lively as the experts from major powers around the immortal realms all rushed here. In addition, the people who came were all exceedingly powerful characters. Immortal kings could be seen everywhere. After all, to cross over to the world of demons, immortal-foundation characters wouldn't be of much use.

At this moment, at the boundary of Skybreak City, countless figures stood atop a golden rampart as they peered into the distance, staring at the mountains while tidal waves of fear rose in their hearts.

Up ahead, countless demonic beasts could be seen around each of the mountains, tightly packed together. Although they were very far from the humans, the humans could all feel a supremely strong demonic qi radiating forth from there. Even for people in Skybreak City, they had never seen so many demonic beasts gathering together before.

On one of the mountain peaks in the desolate range, there were many terrifying Moonnight Demon Wolves. Their cold eyes gleamed with the pale light of the moon and just a glance from them made the crowd involuntarily shiver. These demonic wolves all had gigantic bodies of up to a hundred feet. There were even wolf kings who were the size of a mountain.

This was merely the force of a single mountain in the vast Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range. In there, each mountain had different types of demons. It wasn't that they could not take human form, but all of them chose to appear in their demonic forms at this moment, coldly staring at Skybreak City, as though a violent outburst would be launched at any time.

"The people from the northern regions are finally here." At this moment, everyone inclined their heads and stared in the air only to see a group of experts from the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty flying through the air. There were many people carrying a sedan, and within the sedan, an absolute beauty could be seen.

"Just the side of her face is already so beautiful. I wonder who is she." Many mused silently.

"Beauty, why don't you come out and let me take you for a walk." At this moment, a more gutsy person spoke out. Tyrannical auras instantly gushed forth from this group of people, they were from the central regions, a major power named the Thundergod Hall.

The beautiful woman in the sedan glanced over in that direction. An incomparably cold beam of light seemingly shot out from her eyes.

"Argh!" The person who spoke earlier screamed in misery.

The experts of the Thundergod Hall felt their hearts shaking. One of them inclined his head, "Friend from the northern regions, are your actions not a little too overbearing?"

"Whoever sprouts nonsense again, just die." An extremely cold voice rang out from within the sedan.

"You…" The people of the Thundergod Hall raged.

"You people of the Thundergod Hall better watch your manners. She is the number one genius of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Beiming Youhuang. You all can't afford to offend her." A misty voice rang out, causing the hearts of many to tremble. So that beautiful woman was the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Beiming Youhuang? No wonder she was so domineering.

"Youhuang, long time no see." A group of figures walked over, they were from the northern regions as well.

"He is Pei Qing, the previous number one youngest immortal emperor in history, but he was eventually overtaken by Princess Youhuang." When they glanced at the person who spoke, the eyes of everyone flashed. When Pei Qing and Beiming Youhuang stood together, they were truly a dazzling pair indeed.

Beiming Youhuang quietly nodded, she didn't say anything, exuding her usual coldness. This caused everyone to feel that Beiming Youhuang seemed to have no feelings towards Pei Qing.

Chapter 1407: Enemies Everywhere

Skybreak City was a barrier in the northern regions that connected the immortal realms to the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range. Beiming Youhuang and Pei Qing were both geniuses who stood at the peak in the northern regions and were naturally extremely famous here.

After all, their cultivation bases were both at the emperor realm, standing at the pinnacle of the immortal realms. Even for the boundlessly vast northern regions, most have heard of their names.

"After the sacred academy opens, the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty continuously produced characters that could break all past records. After that, a huge commotion occurred in the eastern regions and now, a grand beast tide is forming in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range. What is going on exactly? Are the skies changing? Seems like the talk of the era of ancient emperors coming back again might have some basis to it."

Someone exclaimed. Recently, many major events happened in the immortal realms, causing everyone to think back to the rumors saying that the era of ancient emperors are approaching soon. If this is truly the case, the immortal realms would soon be in another period of extreme chaos.

Only by struggling within chaos would truly magnificent characters be able to ascend to the peak. There might really be a supreme expert that appears, someone who could unite the immortal realms.

"Another major power has arrived." At this moment, everyone turned over, only to see a group of people mounted on greater demons flying over.

"There are so many beauties. Even Fairy Jadestage is here." Yet another group of experts flew over. This group of experts were from the Jadestage Palace, a major power in the western regions. When the crowd saw so many beautiful maidens, their hearts naturally lit up in delight.

"So many beauties gathering here, truly a feast for our eyes."

"Especially that beauty in the center, she's so pretty. She must be a holy maiden from the Jadestage Immortal Palace, right? I heard many rumors regarding her."

"Mhm, people say that the northern regions have a total of eight beauties. This holy maiden from the Jadestage Immortal Palace and Princess Youhuang are both among the eight beauties."

With so many beauties, this place naturally attracted others to come over. Even more experts came by, all of them stood atop the golden rampart that fortified the city gates and stared at the endless mountains, as though wanting to see what the demonic beasts wanted to do exactly. Once the demonic beasts went crazy and rushed into Skybreak City, endless slaughter would definitely occur. The humans had to take precautions.

These experts were all very patient as well, they didn't mind waiting. Even after several days, they still remained here and at the same time, even more experts from the other major powers have arrived. Initially, it was the experts of the northern regions, after that, the east, south, central and west all gathered here.

Qin Wentian, Evergreen Longhao and the rest of their group also arrived. When Qin Wentian stood on the rampart and peered in the distance, huge waves of shock arose in his heart.

He has long heard that the Desolate Mountains were a place truly controlled by demons. Countless greater demons gathered there. The immortal realms which people spoke of, usually only consisted of the human-dominated regions of the immortal realms, with no inclusion of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, the world of demons. But now when he saw the mountains with his own eyes, he finally understood that the overall power of the demon mountains might not be any weaker when compared to the humans of the immortal realms.

The boundlessly vast mountain range, there were some mountains whose peaks even touched the clouds. There were also many greater demons hovering in the sky. The powerful rocs, the baleful thunder hawk, the violent supreme ox demons, berserk demonic apes...A countless number of demonic creatures could be found within. These weren't ordinary demons, all of them had intelligence and the weakest among them were equivalent to Celestial Phenomenon Ascendants of the human race. There were also many demon immortals and demon kings among them and all of them seemed to be waiting for something.

"Both Little Rascal and Purgatory are training in such an environment?" Qin Wentian's expression stiffened. However, when he remembered that the two of them were demons, he sighed in relief. Nothing should have happened to them, Little Rascal was extremely astute.

"ROAR!" At this moment, an earth-shattering roar rang out. However, this sound didn't originate from the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range but was from the sky instead. A moment later, several greater demons stood atop the bodies of human cultivators, using them as mounts as they arrived here. Those human cultivators had expanded their form and were stepped upon by the demons. They were clearly slaves, and seemed to have been demonized.

The demons on them were none other than the experts from the White Tiger Race of the western regions, as well as some of the other powerful demonic races who were a major power there.

The experts from the White Tiger Race were all extremely imposing, exuding balefulness. When they saw the commotion of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, they all actually felt excited. They wondered what supremely powerful demons were within, and would they be able to sweep across the immortal realms with invincibility, riding above the humans.

However, the humans all had unfriendly expressions when they saw the white tigers. These fellows actually felt excited?

"Sir Qin." At this moment, another group of people walked over to Qin Wentian. Staring at the beautiful maidens who were walking over to him, Qin Wentian smiled, "The fairies of the Southern Phoenix Clan have arrived. Is Yunxi here as well?"

"She isn't here, Yunxi is in closed-door seclusion." A beautiful immortal king stared at Qin Wentian and replied. "My name is Nanfeng Mingyue."

"A holy successor of our Southern Phoenix Clan." Someone at the side introduced. The majority of this group were immortal kings, and Qin Wentian wasn't very familiar with any of them, only knowing that they are from the Southern Phoenix Clan. Hence, this female introduced themselves. As a holy successor, Nanfeng Mingyue was the same as Nanfeng Yunxi, possessing the qualifications to inherit the position of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch in the future. It's just that Nanfeng Mingyue was the holy successor at the immortal-king level.

"Holy Successor Mingyue," Qin Wentian nodded and smiled. He then introduced the person standing beside him. "This is my elder brother, Evergreen Longhao."

"I've long heard of how extraordinary the holy successors of the Southern Phoenix Clan are, but I never had the chance to meet any before. Now that I've met one, I can only say that reality far surpasses the rumors, the holy successors are truly impressive." Evergreen Longhao smiled.

"Prince Longhao praises us too much." Nanfeng Mingyue smiled. She naturally knew that Evergreen Longhao was a son of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

"Oh, so it's brother Qin Wentian." At this moment, an immortal king mounted on a gigantic war elephant glanced over and laughed. "Back then in the sacred academy, Sir Qin and the maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan roasted white tigers to feast on their flesh, sharing the enjoyment with every one of their friends. Now that I've seen Sir Qin with my eyes, you are truly an exceptional individual."

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows as he coldly stared at the person who spoke. This expert riding on a war elephant was an expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire. The intent of his words was clear, wanting to provoke the White Tiger Race.

That matter was a great humiliation to the White Tiger Race. For that, the White Tiger Race sent out one of their emperors to join the war of the eastern regions, against the Evergreen Immortal Empire. However, that mission ended in failure, and they had even lost the adjudication battle after that. It was truly a very shameful thing.

And as expected, at this moment, the experts of the White Tiger Race all turned to Qin Wentian as they emitted baleful qi.

"You are Qin Wentian?" A demon king from the White Tiger Race coldly spoke, his eyes gleaming with killing intent.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced over and didn't bother with the white tiger. He then turned to the expert from Skymist and spoke, "Other than the White Tiger Race, I've also killed plenty from the Skymist Immortal Empire. You guys initiated the adjudication battle but the end result was utter decimation for you all. Now that you all see me here, you actually still dare to attempt and infuriate me again? I'm really very impressed at how thick your skin is."

"Hehe, after breaking through to the immortal king realm, you are even more arrogant than before." The expert from Skymist coldly spat.

"Huang Shatian, so that man is the Qin Wentian who suppressed you so sorely." At this moment, in another direction, there were people glancing over again. Qin Wentian stared in that direction only to see the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire arriving. Among them, one was extremely conspicuous. It was none other than the supreme genius of their empire, Huang Shatian.

The aura from him was much more retracted compared to before, and the sharpness from him seemed somewhat dulled. But despite so, he actually felt more dangerous than before. His cultivation base was also at the immortal king realm now. He actually also managed to break through in such a short amount of time, as expected of a peak-tier genius from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

When Qin Wentian glanced over, their gazes met in mid-air. From Huang Shatian's eyes, he could see a battle intent, as well as a very complex emotion.

He naturally felt very complex towards Qin Wentian. Ever since he let Qin Wentian narrowly escape with his life during their first meeting, until they fought to a draw, and until he was defeated… He initially thought to be the first to break through to the immortal king realm to cleanse the humiliation of his defeat. However, Qin Wentian was also already an immortal king.

"Huang Shatian, you are considered quite famous in the central regions, and is known as the number one genius of the younger generation in your Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. Now, you have already reached the immortal king realm and with your mortal enemy before your eyes, how are you not going up to fight with him?" That voice who spoke earlier rang out again. The person who spoke was an immortal king from another major power in the central regions - the Senluo Immortal Empire. This man was incomparably tyrannical, his aura was extremely shocking as well.

"Yanluo Tian, you think yourself as so extraordinary. If you feel that I don't deserve my reputation, why don't you go up and fight with him?" Huang Shatian calmly replied. He naturally would fight Qin Wentian again. However, the words of this Yanluo Tian were simply too arrogant. Huang Shatian couldn't be bothered with him because he knew what sort of character he himself was. He also understood what sort of person Qin Wentian was.

"During the adjudication battle, you guys were still at the immortal-foundation realm, right? He only entered the immortal king realm for a few years and you want me to fight with him?" Yanluo Tian laughed. "Huang Shatian, you truly regard him very highly. You also regard yourself very highly."

"You are the one who regards yourself highly." Huang Shatian calmly spoke. Compared to his arrogance and sharpness before, after the many clashes with Qin Wentian, Huang Shatian seemed to have changed somewhat.

"Bzz~" At this moment, a sedan could be seen flying over. Beiming Youhuang was within, she stared at Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, "You still dare to appear before me?"

"Youhuang, ever since after we parted in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, I missed you especially much." Qin Wentian spoke in a gentle voice to Beiming Youhuang, causing a cold intent to instantly radiated from her. "How dare you."

As she spoke, the sedan broke apart as Beiming Youhuang walked out. A beautiful countenance could be seen, radiating a sense of grace and ice.

"Youhuang, I'm speaking the truth. The scenes that happened between us back then are still very vivid in my mind."

"Shut up." Beiming Youhuang radiated coldness, not allowing Qin Wentian to continue speaking about those shameful matters. She stared at the smile of that bastard and wanted nothing more than to act directly. However, that fellow said that he has an avatar elsewhere. If she sought to kill him, he would destroy her reputation immediately.

"Youhuang, we should directly kill such a shameless person." Pei Qing walked over, coldly staring at Qin Wentian.

"Who is this fellow exactly? Why does it feel like he has offended the whole world?" Someone glanced in shock at Qin Wentian.

"The Skymist Immortal Empire of the east, the White Tiger Race of the west, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire of the central, the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty of the north. He seems to have offended major powers from every region in the immortal realms?"

"This man is named Qin Wentian. He was very dazzling at that time when the sacred academy opened. In a short hundred years, he rose up and broke through to the immortal king realm. He is the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, and also a disciple of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." Someone added in a low voice.

Chapter 1408: King of the Desolate Mountains?

"Rising up within a hundred years? However, doesn't the guts of this man seem a little too big? He even dares to tease Princess Youhuang of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. Right now, Beiming Youhuang is an immortal emperor after all." Someone couldn't help but to speak up. They were all people of the northern regions and were naturally clear who Beiming Youhuang was. They didn't feel strongly about geniuses from the other regions.

"That's true, the two sentences he spoke is easy to cause others to misunderstand, sounding like he had a story with Princess Youhuang. What's interesting is that Princess Youhuang seems to be angry and wanted to stop him from talking. And the story between them seemed to have taken place in the royal palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. This…" Many people didn't understand. Although Qin Wentian was an outstanding immortal king, how was it possible for him to make Princess Youhuang yield to him?

Qin Wentian didn't bother with what the others were thinking. His glance turned to Pei Qing as his eyes flashed with coldness, "Back then, don't you feel that you have already lost enough face in the royal palace? Now, you are talking so rudely here again? Now you already know my identity and you still want to kill me. You naturally also already learned that what I told you about my cultivation history was true. Are you not slapping your own face by boasting about your cultivation talent before me?"

"He clashed with Pei Qing again." Many in the crowd were in a daze. Wasn't this Qin Wentian a little too arrogant? He seemed to have enemies everywhere in the immortal realms. Was he not afraid?

"What can the cultivation speed of one in a short period represent? In the immortal realms, it is unknown how many geniuses have fast a cultivation speed, rising up like a comet. However, the vast majority of them are like shooting stars, only flaring brilliantly for a short moment. Only when you stand at the same height as me would you have qualifications to stand before me. If not, you are simply not worthy to speak to me." Pei Qing arrogantly spoke.

"Back then you told your junior apprentice brother to challenge me. You swore that if he was defeated, you would apologize to me. However, after his defeat, you changed your attitude and left immediately. Now, you even put such a prideful face before me? How disgusting. Do you think I'm willing to see such a disgusting face?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke as he stared at Pei Qing. "Also, for the matters between me and Youhuang, who are you to interfere? When has Youhuang ever bothered with you? Stop being so freaking shameless."

"You…" Pei Qing pointed at Qin Wentian, his eyes flashing with killing intent.

"Stop pointing your finger at me. You are at the emperor-realm, I naturally won't be able to defeat you. However, if you act against me, the elders on my side in the shadows can kill you with ease." Qin Wentian had no fear at all as he spoke, causing the eyes of everyone to flash. The majority of experts from the major powers here were all immortal kings, there were only a few immortal emperors. However, even if such powerful characters were to arrive, many of the emperors must be hiding in the shadows observing everything.

"Also, for the people from Skymist and the White Tiger Race, those who want to kill me just issue a challenge to me. I will accept all challenges at the same cultivation realm, if you guys don't dare to, just shut the hell up." Qin Wentian swept his glance at everyone, his tone was cold and domineering.

Since he has already offended them, nothing was going to change. Since this is the case, he didn't mind offending further. As long as those who were his enemies and wanted to fight, and if they were in the same realm, just bring it on, he would fight as much as they wanted to.

For those with higher cultivation bases than him, Qin Wentian wasn't so foolish to accept their challenges. If that was the case, he would simply be courting death.

"Arrogant." Everyone stared at Qin Wentian. This fellow was simply too arrogant. It's said that he just broke through to the immortal king realm but he actually dared to challenge everyone in the same realm now.

And as expected, the moment his voice faded, the space turned silent. The people here were all from the major powers, Qin Wentian already said that for those who have enmity with him, either they step up to challenge him or just shut up. If they step up and lost, that would only be smacking their own faces.

"Brother Qin is so glorious." A man smiled and stepped out. Qin Wentian glanced over and saw a familiar silhouette. It was actually an acquaintance from the southern regions, Jiang Ziyu of the Jiang Clan, one of the three ancient clans in the south.

This person was very mysterious but extremely powerful, and is proficient in the Buddhist arts and techniques. In the past, his cultivation base was higher than Qin Wentian and he had entered the sacred academy and even went to the Myriad Devil Islands as well. Now, he was actually also at the immortal king realm, truly causing Qin Wentian to feel shock.

It was a very difficult achievement to break through from the immortal-foundation realm to the immortal king realm. Jiang Ziyu's cultivation base might be higher than him then, but his cultivation speed was definitely slower. However, Jiang Ziyu was actually an immortal king now. One could only say that his talent was very high as well.

"The Jiang Clan of the Southern Regions was the most low profile and mysterious out of the three ancient clans. The Ying Clan was the most high profile, constantly expanding their territory, but even so, the Jiang Clan wasn't any weaker. The number of experts of the Jiang Clan might not be more, but each of them was exceedingly powerful."

Nanfeng Mingyue who was at the side transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, "Jiang Ziyu is of the same generation as you. The man beside him is named Jiang Zihua, someone from the same generation as me. Be careful of him, he is extremely terrifying."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, staring at Jiang Zihua who was standing beside Jiang Ziyu. This man was handsome and extraordinary, he also seemed extremely clean, untainted by mortal dust. His cultivation base was also very strong, much higher compared to Qin Wentian.

"It has been a long time since we last met, Brother Jiang's radiance is as blinding as ever." Qin Wentian smiled. feigning civility.

"When I first met brother Qin, I could already see that you were an extraordinary individual with a boundless future. And now, you actually rose up in a few tens of years, entering the immortal king realm. The words I've spoken to brother Qin back then still counts, if brother Qin is willing to pay a visit to my Jiang Clan, we will definitely treat you as a valuable guest." Jiang Ziyu laughed.

"If there's a chance to, I will definitely head over." One doesn't smack the face of a smiling man. Back then, Qin Wentian could sense that Jiang Ziyu had no good intentions with regards to him. But since Jiang Ziyu still didn't want to fall out, he naturally wouldn't intentionally hasten the process.

"Descendants of the Jiang Clan, when did you guys start sniffing the smelly foot of others?" Another voice tinged with arrogance rang out. This person was clad in long robes, and exuded an imposing aura. He was from none other than one of the three great ancient clans of the southern regions, from the Ying Clan with the biggest territory. Although some juniors of the Ying Clan had issues with Qin Wentian in the past, he didn't know if they would still mind it now that he was already at the immortal king realm.

"A dog's mouth can never produce ivory." Jiang Zihua glanced at the person who spoke. That person's expression turned cold and took a tyrannical step forward. He stared at Jiang Zihua, "Many people said that you are the most outstanding expert among immortal kings of the Jiang Clan. I always wanted a chance to exchange pointers with you."

"Anytime." Jiang Zihua merely replied two words in a casual manner. This caused the aura of the Ying Clan's expert to gush forth as he stared daggers at Jiang Zihua.

"The adjudication battle consisted of so many major powers in the east. Even Huang Shatian was defeated by Qin Wentian at the end, and it's unknown how many people Qin Wentian killed when in the sacred academy. The white tigers were eaten for their flesh too. Under such circumstances, now that Qin Wentian is here, you guys can actually still bear the sight of him and even when he said he would accept all challenges, nobody dares to stand out? How laughable is this?"

An ethereal voice rang out, nobody knew who it was who spoke. The person who spoke was proficient in hiding abilities and seemed intent to cause a conflict.

"What does hiding your face count as? Why don't you show yourself?" A sharp voice thundered through the air. It was a powerful sword-cultivator from the Paragon Sword Sect. He stood there, radiating boundless sword might as he snorted.

"Haha, didn't your Paragon Sword Sect have many who died to him as well? Why? Are you guys not strong enough to take revenge? Why do you want me to show my face?" That voice rang out once more from all directions. Only to see that at this moment, a young immortal king sitting on a sword suddenly radiated a powerful sword intent, as though boundless sword might would gush forth at any moment,

"He has just entered the immortal king realm, killing him would be an effortless task, what's the point of doing so when there are immortal emperors in the shadows, forbidding us to kill him? Why is there a need to battle then?" The young man sat on his sword as he calmly spoke. His cultivation base was at the initial-stage as well, the same as Qin Wentian, but he was already at the peak-phase and could break through to the mid-stage immortal king realm any time.

There was a paragon sword intent from this person, he is definitely an extraordinary individual.

"That's right. We came here now to incite a battle among our fellow immortals or are we here for the great beast tide in the Desolate Mountains?" An extraordinary figure from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty spoke. This man was dressed in ancient robes and had the aura of a king.

"This time around, there are so many elite immortal kings sent here by the major powers." The hearts of the crowd trembled.

"Killing him is letting him off too easily. I will eat him alive." A tyrannical voice echoed out. The crowd glanced over only to see an immortal king with wings flying through the air. Standing on him, there was actually another person. This person was using an immortal king as a mount, and was someone from the White Tiger Race.

"Sir Qin, there are so many people who want to deal with you." A light voice sounded out. This time, the person who spoke was a beautiful woman. It was actually another holy maiden of the Jadestage Immortal Palace with the title of Fairy Jadestage.

"I heard a junior sister mentioning about Sir Qin earlier. To think that Sir Qin has actually broken through to the immortal king realm. Congratulations." That immortal king smiled.

"Many thanks, Fairy." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. He casually glanced at the maidens around her, all of them were supreme beauties.

Qin Wentian knew that this time around, many major powers from the immortal realms were here. There were also naturally many chosen.

"Look at those demonic beasts, they are starting to move." At this moment, the sound of an exclamation rang out. Some of the demonic beasts who were gathered together actually all prostrated themselves on the ground at this moment, as though in worship and welcome of their king.

From afar, waves of terrifying demonic might gushed over, powerful to the extreme. That demonic qi was so overwhelming that it felt it could crush everything.

At the mountains far ahead, countless greater demons, including demon kings, were all kneeling or prostrating themselves on the ground. What sort of existence were they planning to welcome?

"Are the demons of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range really planning to invade the immortal realms?" Many people instantly tossed their personal grudges aside, as they all stared in that direction.

The demonic aura grew even more terrifying. Many people sent out their immortal senses only to find their immortal senses crumbling from the pressure. After that, the boundless demonic beasts howled in unison, prostrating themselves in welcome of their king.

Chapter 1409: Royal Factions of the Desolate Mountains

The experts of the immortal realms all turned to that direction. From their vision, they could see a group of terrifying beasts approaching and finally, after a violent burst of demonic qi, the countless demon beasts here were all prostrating themselves in worship, welcoming their king.

The people who appeared, weren't in the form of demonic beasts, but were in the form of humans instead. In addition, it was not only just a single group of people who showed up.

"Are they from the royal factions of the Desolate Mountains?" An expert asked in a low voice. After that, a group of experts appeared from the void. Without an exception, all of them were at the immortal emperor realm. The immortal emperors from the north were the most in number. They had reached here long ago but were in the shadows, observing the situation. Now that the royal factions of the Desolate Mountains came out, they naturally appeared as well.

"Royal faction of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range?" The hearts of the crowd trembled. Similar to their immortal realms, were the Desolate Mountains ruled by some of the more powerful greater demon races, which made up of the peak powers in there?

For those human-formed demons who appeared, the weakest among them were at the immortal king realm, or better known as demon kings. Terrifying auras gushed forth from them, each of them was an extraordinary character. This group of people were like the royal faction from the White Tiger Race or Sky Roc Race, a faction where kings were born.

The Desolate Mountains were the true world for demons. The demonic races there all had inheritances from the ancient era. After countless years, nobody knew how terrifying they were. There were even cases that the demons from the Desolate Mountains dominating everyone and almost ruled the immortal realms, unifying it under their name. It was only after ancient emperors were born did the situation reverse.

Now, it has been too long since the last commotion occurred in the Desolate Mountains. This time around, the forming of the great beast tide caused the experts of the major powers in the immortal realms to all gather here.

"There are so many from the immortal realms here." One of the demonic beasts spoke. His tone was extremely calm, yet there was an arrogance within. The fearsome aura of a demon king could be felt radiating from this beast. However, he was in his human form. His body was dark in color and he was in a white robe. There actually were horns above his head.

"From the Nether Ao Race." An immortal emperor from the northern regions spoke, as his eyes gleamed with coldness.

The major powers of the northern regions did capture some demons from the Desolate Mountains for their research before, they also had ancient records regarding the Desolate Mountain and had a clearer understanding about the ancient demonic races there.

Demons were different from humans. Humanity might produce supreme geniuses from anywhere, depending on hard work and good fortune. However, for demonic beasts, they depended on their innate talents. Their potentials were usually already fixed and their achievements couldn't be bolstered by hard work.

The Nether Aos were also known as karma beasts. They were a terrifying kind of ancient demons that were extremely brutal and loved to feast on humans. In the ancient records, there were many cases of Nether Aos wreaking havoc on the world. The Nether Aos were one of the most cruel types of demons.

"You are somewhat learned." That demonic young man laughed. "You humans have occupied the immortal realms for far too long, and even treat our Demonic Mountains as a tempering ground to train your juniors. We can't be bothered with that. However, it has been too long, it's about time for you guys to scram out of Skybreak City. For any humans who don't leave, we will treat you all as sacrificial beings. Through these years, you all have hunted many demonic beasts. Just slaughtering a city of humans can be treated as a small price to pay."

"The Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range and immortal realms have long set the boundary lines and neither interfered with each other. Now you all want to exit the mountains and want us to pay with the lives of a city?" An immortal emperor from the Hundred Refinements Sect coldly asked. His aura was very terrifying, causing the air around him to be filled with a sense of heat.

"Just a city and you all dare to refuse?" Another demonic expert spoke. This person was very sturdy in build. His eyes gleamed with green light, causing no one to dare to match his gaze. In just a breath of time, auras of two extremes manifested, one ice-cold, one blazing-hot. He was terrifying to the extreme.

"It's rumored that the Torch Dragon Race is living in the mountain too, capable of controlling night and day, ice and fire. You must be from the Torch Dragon Race." Someone stared at the demonic expert who spoke.

"That's right." A cold gleam flashed in the eyes of the torch dragon. In an instant, the sky changed color as day turned into night. In another instant, dawn arrived. Such was an innate ability granted to them by the heavens, inconceivable by humans.

"No need to talk so much crap, just scram." A woman's voice rang out. The demon who spoke was a charming female. Just a glance was sufficient to cause others to fall in mesmerization.

"Nine-tails demonic fox." An immortal emperor spoke. All these ancient demons could only be found in the ancient records. To think all of them appeared here now.

"There are Qiongqi, Taowu, Taotie race here too." Someone glanced about, naming the demons. All these brutal demons actually gathered together and a woman in pristine white seemed to be at their center. This woman had very fair skin and looked extremely fragile, like nothing but a weakling. However, all the baleful demons seemed to be very respectful of her. Beside her, a young man with golden-scaled armor could also be seen, he was someone from the Kirin Race.

"Could that female be the legendary greater demon Baize? The mount of the demon god?"

Legends had it that Baizes are sacred beasts, the mounts of demon gods. Only when a demon god was born would a Baize appear. Baizes had the ability to transform into a million manifestations and nobody would be able to spot the difference.

The expressions of the experts from the immortal realms all grew heavy. These powerful legendary demons appeared one after another, this clearly wasn't a good omen.

"The Evil God Race? It's said that they are the descendants of the Evil God and cultivates in the most evil kind of energy in the world."

"The Heavenhold Race. They resemble humans but are smaller in stature. Despite so, the energy of the demon god runs in their veins and they are able to hold up the skies, possessing boundless strength and are proficient in bow and spear arts."

"Demon Apes, known for their unparalleled defenses."

"The Phoeroc Race is also here." An immortal emperor glanced at some of the demons. These demons had bright red wings and radiated a king aura. These demons were birthed when a phoenix mates with a roc.

It was rumored that the sky rocs and phoenixes have always been in opposition, the two races always in violent collision. However, under a stroke of fate, a powerful sky roc actually mated together with a powerful phoenix, giving birth to the first generation Phoeroc. This Phoeroc was hunted down by experts of the two races, and fled to the great wilderness, almost dying many times. However, when it matured, it actually possessed the abilities of the two races, and defeated the experts of both races, becoming a unique existence which eventually united the two races. There were naturally a few remnants who refused to follow him, and these remnants became the Sky Roc Race of the immortal realms.

How terrifying would a variation beast born from the union of phoenixes and sky rocs be? They are definitely among one of the most powerful races in the Desolate Mountains.

When the immortal emperors of the immortal realms saw these powerful demons, their hearts all trembled. What was happening in the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range exactly? Did these demons really want to plan an invasion?

Also, there are some demons in human-form that didn't have any special characteristics but their auras were also extremely terrifying. There were a countless number of demons within the Desolate Mountains and even some extremely tyrannical ones like the Phoeroc Race.

All the immortal kings of the immortal realms had a heavy expression on their faces. These demons were truly strong, capable of making them feel a threat.

Once, when the sacred academy was opened, one of the four academies, had a secret realm specifically for demons. Over there, the true intent of countless supreme greater demons could be found. But right now, these demons are all the real deal.

"Everyone, what is your purpose for wanting Skybreak City?" An immortal emperor asked.

"Too much nonsense. If you guys still don't scram, we will directly send out our demon army and attack." Another young man in golden armor from the demon side coldly spoke. Although he was in human form, the demonic qi from him couldn't be mistaken. At this moment, a pair of gigantic sun wings appeared behind him, shocking to the extreme.

He resembled an ancient demonic race that was the Golden Crow Race, as well as an enigmatic race that's known as the Gold Beast. In truth, he was also a variation-type demon, a mix of the two.

"All of you might be from the Desolate Mountains, but if you think you all can invade the immortal realms with your strength alone, that's truly a little ridiculous." Pei Qing coldly spoke. As an immortal emperor, he naturally had the qualifications to speak. These demons might be powerful but there were only a few demon emperors among them, a far cry from the number of immortal emperors the immortal realms had.

"Do you think that all the emperors from the respective demon races would be here?" Another greater demon had a cruel grin on his face. "If they really personally came out, our request wouldn't be so simple as to just wanting Skybreak City alone."

"The demons of the Desolate Mountains are forming a beast tide to obtain Skybreak City of humanity? What are you all up to?" A human expert coldly laughed. "Could it be something major is happening inside the Desolate Mountains and you don't want the humans of the immortal realms to notice it?"

"Humans are truly troublesome to deal with." The demons mused. Powerful auras gushed forth from them only to hear the female Baize saying, "The descent of the demon god, the Desolate Mountains is welcoming its true master. This has nothing to do with your immortal realms. But if you humans want to interfere, I can give you all two choices. First, let a war begin, my Desolate Mountains will invade the immortal realms. Second, you all can choose a group of immortal kings to fight against us one on one. If you all win, we will retreat immediately. But if you all lose, you guys will give Skybreak City to us."

The greater demons silently waited with cold expressions as their demonic auras filled the air. Regardless of which choice, the humans of the immortal realms would lose for sure. There was no need to doubt this point.

Their demon races have developed for so many years in the Desolate Mountain and right now, their strength has already reached the peak, ushering in a new era for demons. Each king of the different races were all extremely powerful, how can the puny humans withstand them? From their spies, the demons already learned about the situation in the immortal realms. Although the rise of a new era was imminent and humanity did produce many geniuses, they were still far from sufficient when compared to the Royal Factions of the demon races!

Chapter 1410: The Terrifying Demon Races

The demonic races all loved and craved battle as well as chaos. In truth, they weren't that much different from humans, and would fight for their respective powers. This time around, so many different demons appeared in the Desolate Mountains and were actually so united. From this, one could tell that something major was really going to happen, resulting in this temporary alliance.

"Invading the immortal realms?" The expressions of everyone turned unsightly. They didn't have a clear understanding of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range's strength level, and didn't know if they were stronger or weaker in comparison. If a war truly occurred, the entire immortal realms would be thrown into devastation, the land ravaged by the demonic beasts. This will especially be so for the northern regions, they would encounter the strongest attacks and their endings would definitely be miserable. Even if they finally obtained victory, it would be a pyrrhic one.

"If we choose the immortal king battle, how should we battle?" An immortal emperor of the immortal realms asked. This female Baize was extremely powerful, there was simply no way for them to reject her choices. Since this is the case, they could only choose the immortal king battle.

This time around, many of the immortal kings who gathered here were all elite characters, the chosen from the major powers. Even if they had to fight against the royal factions of the demonic races, they would still be able to do so.

"Up to you all. You all send out someone first, or we can send out someone first. We will fight until you don't wish to fight. Naturally, the combatants have to both be at the same level, and they cannot use treasures or weapons during the fight." The Baize's voice was filled with an etherealism. She was unfathomable and mysterious, yet extremely powerful, a greater demon at the immortal king realm. Her fair skin had a demonic charm, as well as traces of holiness.

Baize, the mounts of the demon gods.

"Fine." The immortal emperor could only agree. He glanced at the elites from the major powers, and many of these were peak geniuses. Let's hope that they would be able to win against the demons.

Upon seeing the immortal emperors all agreeing, the demons of the Desolate Mountain had cold smiles of disdain on their faces. These humans of the immortal realms wanted to fight against their supreme greater demons?

At this moment, the figure of a greater demon flashed. His entire body gleamed with golden light and looked like an extremely young human with a sturdy build. A sun diagram could be seen on his body and a pair of golden wings spread out behind him.

As for his cultivation base, he was a mid-stage demon king, equivalent to the mid-stage immortal king realm.

"Is there anyone who has a battle platform treasure? You humans love tinkering with stuff of the minor daos." That young man spoke with contempt. After that, a human immortal emperor waved his hand as a spatial battle platform appeared in the center of the humans and demons. The platform instantly expanded and became a dimension of its own.

"The space within is very vast, it's sufficient to accommodate combats below the emperor-realm." That immortal emperor spoke. The greater demon from the golden sun race stepped forth, directly entering the dimension and landing on the platform, not worried that the humans would pull any tricks. He knew that if the humans tried anything, the demons would instantly launch a war to trample the immortal realms.

"Who will fight me?" A golden spear appeared in his hands, blazing with sun flames that could melt everything as he pointed the spear towards the experts of the immortal realms.

The eyes of the immortal kings gleamed with sharpness. All of them were extraordinary characters and there naturally wasn't a need for the immortal emperors to pick them. They would weigh the issue of going up to battle or not by themselves.

Very soon, a powerful immortal king stepped out. This immortal king was also proficient in fire-attribute energy. His entire being was immersed in flames and his cultivation was also at the peak-phase of mid-stage of the immortal king realm. He entered the battle platform and released a terrifying aura. His flames instantly gushed over, enveloping his opponent as a flame giant launched out a gigantic palm attack.

"The law domains of humans?" The greater demon coldly laughed. His entire body blazed with golden flames. These golden flames seemed to be akin to the flames of the sun. They surged forth ferociously, melting everything and actually converted the flame giant into his own source of energy.

The expression of the human immortal king changed. After that, he only saw the greater demon flapping his wings, arriving before him in an instant. The golden sun spear in his hands stabbed out with a speed matching that of lightning.

The human immortal king wanted to retreat but when the spear stabbed out, a golden light flared, as the power of gold-attribute energy locked down this space, obstructing the human immortal king from retreating.

"Pu." The countenance of the immortal king turned extremely unsightly. The golden spear shot out from the greater demon's hands, burning with the fire of the sun, directly piercing through the human's heart as a fiery inferno manifested.

Despair could be seen on the immortal king's face. After that, he was burned into cinders, turning into ashes. He wanted to scream but there wasn't even any time for that. In just an instant, his body disintegrated completely.

"Can't even withstand a single strike. Is this the strength of a human immortal king?" That expert from the golden sun race glanced at the human experts before turning around and walking off the platform, seemingly disdaining to continue to battle.

The humans all had unsightly expressions. Although the immortal king who went up earlier wasn't the most elite among them, he wasn't an ordinary one. His cultivation base was at the peak-phase of the mid-stage, yet he actually died within a single strike. That demon from the golden sun race was too terrifying.

"Flames of the sun, the power of gold. With these two attribute energies fusing together, he should have both bloodlines of the Golden Crow Race and the Gold Beast Demonic Race. The golden crow flames were said to be able to refine everything in the world, while the Gold Beast Demonic Race have supreme attack and defense. By combining all these factors, this is truly a supreme demonic being." Someone spoke in a low voice. The combat prowess of this demon was too violent and fearsome. Unless one is an immortal king with peak-tier combat prowess, most probably wouldn't be able to fight that demon.

"Bzz~" A greater demon leapt up to the battle platform. This demon was in human form, but seemed as tiny and weak like a little monkey. His countenance was as ugly as a wizened old man but a terrifying light gleamed in his eyes. He stared at the crowd and asked, "Who will fight with me?"

"Be careful, this demon is from the Heavenhold Race. Although he is ugly and weak looking, he has boundless strength, capable of holding up the heavens. He is also capable of transformation and his race is an ancient one that has inheritances from the primordial eras. He is also proficient in stone throwing and archery, the one fighting him has to be cautious." An immortal emperor from the northern regions spoke. They lost so miserably in the first battle. This time around, it would be better to give warning in advance so everyone would be more careful.

"Cici…" That Heavenhold Demon bared his fangs at the emperor, showing a hideous smile. Mocking him for being ugly? He will make sure these humans pay the price for it.

"I'll do it." An immortal king who viewed himself as extraordinary stepped out. There was a huge saber strapped on his back and at the instant he stood upon the battle platform, his saber intent engulfed everything. Just from looking, there shouldn't be any problems for someone like him to tear apart the ugly monkey-looking demonic beast.

"It's Saberfool." The eyes of many people from Skybreak City flashed. Saberfool's saber techniques have all reached the peak and he was very famous among immortal kings in Skybreak City as he possessed the strongest saber techniques.

"Chi, chi…" In an instant, saber qi rippled through the void, as its might covered the battle platform. As the saber left its sheath, a simple and unadorned blade could be seen. But no matter how ordinary the saber was, as long as it is in Saberfool's hand, it would be the same as a terrifying divine weapon. As this saber slashed down, even space could be split apart.

The speed of his attack was as quick as lightning, instantly arriving at the weak and thin-looking figure, as though about to tear him into two.

"RUMBLE!" The battle platform trembled. Everyone only saw the thin, monkey-like figure lifting his hand and directly grabbing out towards the saber.

His hand that was as thin as twigs, actually managed to catch hold of the razor-sharp saber that was slashing down.

"Boundless strength, capable of holding up the heavens." The experts all thought back to the introduction given by the immortal emperor before as their hearts shook.

"Bang, bang, bang!" The saber shattered, crushed by that twig-like hand. However, Saberfool's expression didn't change. His palm arced through the air as a million strands of saber intent instantly converged and formed the manifestations of a thousand sabers. Using them as a medium, he unleashed an even stronger saber technique, causing a terrifying storm to rise up in the air. Even the Heavenhold demon wouldn't be able to receive such a saber strike.

As the sounds of swishing rang out, the sabers descended through the air. The body of the Heavenhold demon flickered about, extremely agile as his palms were like illusions, blasting outwards, shattering the sabers. However, there were still beams of saber light that landed on him, causing blood to spill from his body.

"Good!" The crowd all praised when they saw Saberfool's attack. But at this moment, a thunderous roar rang out as the skinny monkey-like figure suddenly expanded in form, becoming even uglier than before. But despite so, the baleful aura from him was enough to cause the hearts of everyone to tremble.

"You are courting death." The ugly demon stretched his palm out with shocking speed, destroying all the saber manifestations. Saberfool's expression changed as he hurriedly unleashed a defensive technique.

"Bang!" A terrifying collision sound rang out as Saberfool's technique was broken. Even his saber had shattered and his body was forced backwards.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" The Heavenhold Demon stepped out continuously, causing thunderclaps to sound out from the battle platform. Each of his steps caused the boulders which were imbued by his demonic qi to be tossed out. When the boulders smashed down, they were like meteors slamming into the ground. Saberfool was continuously struck and soon coughed out fresh blood. His figure was the same size as his opponent, but this made him a bigger target. The boulders continued launching out with destructive force, until Saberfool's head was smashed into pieces.

"This…"

"Too brutal."

The immortal cultivators of the immortal realms felt rage when they saw such a cruel scene. Their eyes gleamed with cold light but before they could say anything, the Heavenhold Demon glanced at them with no fear at all. His eyes gleamed with a killing intent as he spoke with a hideous smile, "Anyone else wants to come up to die?"

Chapter 1411: Domineering Kill

Although the Heavenhold Demon was brutal, causing the immortal cultivators to all be incomparably enraged, it was a fact that the demon was extremely strong. Seems like the rumors were true, the cultivation arts that the Heavenhold Race cultivates, truly enables them to hold up the heavens.

This race was born with innate god’s strength and can be considered descendants of ancient demons. They were ugly and cruel, capable of fearsome long range attacks. Just a single rock in their hands can be likened to a meteor cruising through the sky. The powerful Saberfool had his head smashed just from that.

First, it was the greater demon from the Gold Sun Race and then the greater demon from the Heavenhold Race. No wonder these demons from the Desolate Mountains were all so confident. They strongly believed that they would win for sure.

Staring at these powerful demons, the eyes of the immortal cultivators all gleamed with sharpness. They showed some hints of hesitation when they saw the Heavenhold demon continue to stand there.

“We already said it’s a challenge, why must you demons be so cruel and directly kill off our experts? Since this is the case, we won’t show any mercy if we are the one victorious.” An immortal emperor coldly spoke. Two immortal kings on their side died consecutively, it was understandable for the immortal emperors to be enraged.

“The demons of our Desolate Mountains are brutal in nature, they would have no complaints. In any case, if experts of your immortal realms can’t even withstand a single strike, they would be driven out of the immortal realms by our demonic races sooner or later.” A greater demon arrogantly spoke.

“Since you put it this way, there’s no need for us to be polite any more.” The expression of the immortal emperor turned cold. He glanced at the immortal cultivators and spoke, “Everyone, you guys should have already seen the situation. There are many supreme elites from the major powers here but these demons seem to hold all of us in disdain. It’s time for you guys to step out and show them their place. I suggest each power to send out their experts to join the battle.”

“That’s right. With so many supreme elites here, it’s time for the major powers to act.”

The immortal emperors of the northern regions spoke as everyone nodded. Earlier when the two battles occurred, these peak geniuses were contemplating the demon races too, they are truly very powerful. Leaving aside those greater demons who didn’t step out, just those two who fought earlier did indeed belong to the supreme elite tier when compared to humanity. If they sent out human cultivators recklessly, they didn’t feel confident in obtaining victory.

“Shall we fight or not? If not, just scram out of Skybreak City and stop talking nonsense. We will wipe the city clean of humanity.” The greater demon from the Heavenhold Race coldly spoke, his words extremely tyrannical.

“Shut up.” Beiming Youhuang icily spoke as cold intent gushed forth from her. These demons from the Desolate Mountains actually wanted to kill the humans of Skybreak City. Skybreak City was the barrier of the northern regions. How could they give it up? Even if they had no choice, they also had to protect the people living there.

The Heavenhold Demon glanced at Beiming Youhuang as a smile appeared on his ugly face. “I love the fact that there are plenty of beautiful females among humans. Although this woman is very cold, her flesh seems shiny and tender. How wondrous would it be if she becomes my slave? I will play her till my lust is sated.”

He started laughing uproariously as he spoke.

“Impudent!” The immortal emperors of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty coldly berated. “That ugly demon is spouting nonsense. Who will go kill the demon?”

“Hehe.” The Heavenhold Demon continued laughing as he glanced at the immortal experts. “There are truly many beauties here. There are some with pure auras and even have a hint of the Phoenix bloodline. After we slaughter our way through the immortal realms, I’ll catch them all and make them my slaves, playing them to their deaths.”

The expressions of many experts instantly changed. Beiming Youhuang, the maidens of the Jadestage Immortal Palace, as well as the maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan. The maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan truly had extraordinary auras. They all had the Phoenix bloodline and beautiful looks, constituting a beautiful scenery together with the beautiful maidens of the Jadestage Palace.

“Holy Successor Mingyue. Let me kill him.” A holy maiden spoke. Nanfeng Mingyue frowned, “These greater demons are all extremely powerful. It would be tough for you to fight against him.”

She could faintly sense that only the geniuses at the absolute peak of each major power would be able to fight against these demons. All others would simply be courting death. This Heavenhold Demon alone possessed innate divine strength, a talent granted to him by the heavens.

“Wasn’t an initial-stage immortal king very arrogant earlier, saying that he would accept all challenges from people of the same cultivation level? Now that the phoenix maidens are being humiliated, why isn’t anyone standing up for them yet?” An expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire coldly spoke, clearly hinting at something.

That Heavenhold Demon had a cultivation base at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm, equivalent to Qin Wentian. It was true that Qin Wentian could come up the platform to challenge him.

Qin Wentian glanced over only to hear a sword cultivator from the Paragon Sword Sect coldly adding, “That’s right. He was so arrogantly earlier. Now that the demons are provoking us to such an extent, is he still not going to act?”

“I initially wanted to give the chance to the other heaven chosen. Since no one is willing to step out, I shall act then.” Qin Wentian stepped out and continued, “As for those who only dares to fight with their words, there’s no longer a need to continue shaming yourselves. If you want to fight, just fight. What’s the point of egging others on? The Skymist Immortal Empire and Paragon Sword Sect have truly lost face for our immortal realms.”

As he was speaking, he stepped out on the battle platform. His words, that were filled with a heavy mockery, caused the expressions of both powers to turn incomparably icy. However, they soon relaxed when they thought of the demon’s power. In any case, they hoped that the demon would be able to kill him.

This Heavenhold Demon was extremely cruel, seeking to kill his opponents with every strike. It would naturally be for the best if he could kill Qin Wentian. They wouldn’t need to endure the revenge from the powers that backed Qin Wentian if he was killed by a demon.

“Youhuang, since this demon has insulted you, I naturally will kill him for you.” Qin Wentian didn’t forget to speak to Beiming Youhuang. This woman was an immortal emperor and was extremely powerful. In addition, she shared some fate with Qin Wentian and both of them were half a disciple of that old undying freak. He didn’t want to be suppressed by her, hence he chose to tease her. This can also be considered as making their relationship closer.

“This bastard.” Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian with a cold expression on her face. He actually said this in front of the public, as though indicating that their relationship is extraordinary.

As expected, many people turned to Beiming Youhuang at this instant, causing her to grit her teeth silently. How could this fellow be so shameless?

“Youhuang, there’s no need for you to be moved. Given our relationship, I’ll naturally do my best for you.” Qin Wentian stepped forward and coldly stared at the Heavenhold Demon. “Ugly, you dare to insult Youhuang? You will die for that.”

The Heavenhold Demon grinned. He stared at Qin Wentian, “Yet another one who is eager to court death.”

He hated it when people called him ugly. Hence, he was very angry right now.

The greater demon grabbed out as terrifying demonic qi gushed forth, converging into a boulder which he tossed out towards Qin Wentian. A thunderous rumble rang out, capable of smashing anything, giving the feeling that even a mid-stage immortal king would die if he came into contact with that.

A fearsome divine light erupted forth from Qin Wentian. He lifted his fist and punched out, shattering the boulder.

However, the greater demon didn't stop. He continued tossing out boulders and each of them was like a meteor falling from the sky. His body gigantified, causing Qin Wentian to seem extremely tiny. The boulders hurtling through space cause space to shatter. Qin Wentian seemed helpless against it and would definitely die within this volley of attacks.

"How strong." Qin Wentian's heart mused. As expected of a greater demon from the ancient era. Their inborn heavenly divine strength talent was fearsome indeed.

Qin Wentian released his law energy as palm imprints filled the sky. The sky changed colors as the palm imprints shattered the meteor-like boulders, crushing them into nothingness.

"Boom!" The greater demon stepped out when he saw this. A fearsome bow appeared in his hand as he directly fired. The fired arrows were formed from demonic energy and were incomparably fast and ferocious, wanting to pin Qin Wentian onto the ground.

"Useless!" Qin Wentian roared. God's Hand activated as its energy surged forth. Terrifying waves of devil might churned wildly, forming streaks of judiciary lightning, augmented by the powerful of judgement as they blasted the arrows into pieces.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian's body expanded to the same size as his opponent. He stepped out as his might towered up into the sky.

"So what if you are from an ancient demonic race? You shall be dominated all the same!" Killing intent flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes. In truth, he was already angered by the words of this greater demon. Although he wasn't acquainted with the two immortal kings who died, their deaths had stirred his wrath. In addition to the insults made, as well as the slaughter of innocents should these demons take over Skybreak City, Qin Wentian was already preparing to give these demonic beasts a harsh lesson.

The palm imprints powered by God's Hand shattered everything but the Heavenhold demon howled in defiance and fought back violently, causing some of Qin Wentian's attacks to disintegrate. However, at this moment, a gigantic palm of destruction flowing with runic light smashed forth towards the demon with boundless might, capable of shaking the heavens and earth.

The greater demon sneered. With his inborn divine strength, there were no attacks he didn't dare to receive directly.

"BOOM!" As the palm imprint landed, violent waves of energy gushed forth, causing the body of the demon to tremble. A moment later, a groan of agony could be heard as the demon coughed out blood. His legs turned soft as his inner organs had all crumbled from the impact of that palm strike. Waves of destructive energy also ravaged the interior of his body as they flowed into him.

How would Qin Wentian miss such an opportunity? He immediately followed up with another tyrannical strike. Terror and despair appeared on the face of the demon as he growled with anger and reluctance. A moment later, his body directly exploded, turning into dust from the implosion within.

The tyrannical Heavenhold Demon was actually slain by a human cultivator using such a tyrannical and shocking manner!

Chapter 1412: Commotion in the Desolate Mountains

Qin Wentian returned to his normal size as his violent aura gradually calmed.

“Well done!” The immortal cultivators praised. Earlier, the two immortal kings of their side were slaughtered by the demons. Now, the dominance of Qin Wentian could be considered as helping them vent their frustrations and saving the situation, diminishing the arrogance of the demons.

On the other side, the demons all had cold expressions as they icily stared at Qin Wentian. Especially so for the greater demon from the Heavenhold Race. His ugly face flashed with an unmasked killing intent.

“The experts of the immortal realms are as numerous as the clouds. Don’t think that you all can trample upon us. Since you all used such brutal methods to kill our people, we will repay you with the same coin.” Qin Wentian glanced at the greater demons. His words caused one of the greater demons to laughed out loud, “Interesting, to think that a mere human dares to speak so arrogantly before us demons of the Desolate Mountains.”

“Who will go up and kill him?” A greater demon coldly asked. However, Qin Wentian merely coldly snorted as he continued speaking, “If you guys are so stubborn, I don’t mind coming up to fight again.”

After speaking, he left the platform. After all, this wasn’t a battle that was supposed to be fought by him alone but was a battle belonging to the major powers of the immortal realms, fighting against the greater demons of the Desolate Mountains. He might be invincible among the initial-stage immortal king, but if he slaughtered all the demons alone, he would be simply courting death.

Since these demons dared to say that they would invade the immortal realms, one could very well imagine how terrifying they are. The people of the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect kept trying to psyche him out, wanting him to come out to fight. Clearly, they wanted him to die in a battle against the demons. This way, even if he didn’t die eventually, by killing too many demons, he would definitely offend all these greater demons. If he really fought alone while others of the immortal realms didn’t act, the target in the minds of these demons would surely be him alone. This would have been in line with the plans of those from Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect. There would be no difference from courting death.

Qin Wentian completely believed that if all these demons wanted his life, not only would this group of people stand aside, they might even stab him in the back. Only fighting these greater demons together would be the correct path.

“Given Brother Qin’s strength, why don’t you fight a few more battles and show how imposing our side is by slaughtering these demons, gaining glory for us?” As expected, as Qin Wentian stepped down from the platform, an immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire spoke out.

“Yeah, could it be that brother Qin isn’t willing to put in effort for our immortal realms?” An expert from the Paragon Sword Sect joined in.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over and coldly stared at the person who spoke. “Earlier, you were the ones who instigated me to battle. Now that I’ve won one, you guys are still saying such things? You want me alone to fight against all the demons of the Desolate Mountains? If this is the case, what’s the use of you two existing in the immortal realms? Why doesn’t the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect announce their disintegration and join my Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect instead?”

“Forget it if you don’t wish to continue fighting. Brother Qin, why must your words be so ugly?” Someone sarcastically spoke.

“This doesn’t seem to be his matter alone, right?” There were some who could no longer bear to hear this. The person who spoke was the holy maiden of the Jadestage Immortal Palace. She glanced at the direction of the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect, “The demons are right before our eyes but you guys still cannot forget your own grudges temporarily? Has the powers in the east fallen to such an extent?”

“The characters of the people from the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect are truly disappointing.” Another person mocked, looking down on the behaviors of these people. Qin Wentian could be considered to have helped them vent their frustrations yet these two powers still wanted to cause an internal conflict, wanting Qin Wentian to die in combat.

“Enough.” An immortal emperor from the Hundred Refinements Sect stated. “Stop making fools out of yourselves in front of the demons from the Desolate Mountains. We already agreed earlier that each major power would send out experts to fight in the challenge battle. Since Qin Wentian has already fought, let’s start from the eastern regions. Who else is going up to battle next?”

The eyes of many turned towards those from the Paragon Sword Sect and the Skymist Immortal Empire. The expressions of these two powers froze. Someone snorted coldly but at this moment, a figure walked out from the Paragon Sword Sect.

The cultivation base of this man was terrifying, at the peak-phase of the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. He was clad in simple robes and his brows were angled like swords. One’s cultivation would cause one’s demeanor to change. His entire bearing was like an unsheathed and unbreakable sword. As he stepped out, boundless sword qi radiated from him, as well as a fearsome sense of sharpness.

The gazes of many from the Paragon Sword Sect were all filled with reverence as they stared at this man. Clearly, this was an extraordinary figure.

“This time around, the experts of all major powers in the immortal realms are gathered here, and now that we are facing against the demons of the Desolate Mountains, some of those truly supreme geniuses at the pinnacle would step out, showing themselves before everyone.” Nanfeng Mingyue spoke in a low voice. Qin Wentian had already returned, and he nodded his head when he heard her words.

Only immortal emperors would have a level of fame that made their names known throughout the immortal realms. It was very rare for an immortal king to be so famous. After all, the immortal realms were just too vast and this time around, some of these extraordinary individuals from the major powers might be showing their faces here.

“This man is a supreme character among the immortal kings of the Paragon Sword Sect. His name is Shangguang Jianyi and he is also a student of the sacred academy.” Nanfeng Mingyue stated. Qin Wentian nodded. Back then, maybe Nanfeng Mingyue also cultivated in the scared academy and learned of the names of some of those supreme immortal kings who were also cultivating within there.

Shangguang Jianyi of the Paragon Sword Sect walked up the platform. He then closed his eyes, basking in the silence of the instant. This scene made everyone feel how terrifying he truly was.

The eyes of all the demons flashed. This time, the immortal realms were the one who first sent up a participant. If the demons wanted to observe the strength of this person, they would have to choose carefully who to send up.

This Shangguang Jianyi made them feel a threat.

“BOOM!” A Taotie eventually stepped out, incomparably baleful and radiating a terrifying aura. This was a very famous ancient beast. Although he was now in human form, the position of his eyes were very low. If he was in his demon form, his eyes would be located beneath his armpits.

The Taotie let out a low-sounding roar as a look of greed flickered within his eyes. However, Shangguang Jianyi still had his eyes closed. It was like just by standing there, he was the only one in the entire world.

“RUMBLE!” The Taotie stomped the ground. He could sense the threat and decided to revert back to his true form. A moment later, an incomparably gigantic and hideous beast appeared before the crowd, horrifying to the extreme.

“BANG!” Another loud sound echoed as the Taotie entered the platform. He rushed forward and from the visions of everyone, it seemed that Shangguang Jiangyi would die immediately. However, at that very moment, boundless amounts of sword qi abruptly enveloped the entire space. His sword intent was ethereal and formless, existing everywhere in this space.

Shangguang Jianyi wasn’t his real name. It was only later on did people give this name to him. Jianyi, Jianyi. He could slay people with just a single sword strike.

“Chi, chi, chi…” The sword intent flooded the area. A dim corona of light surrounded Shanguang Jianyi. The Taotie howled loudly, sensing a feeling of impending doom. His attack grew more violent as he lunged forth towards Shangguang Jianyi.

“ROAR!” A sharp sound pierced through the ears of everyone, trembling the inner organs of those who heard it. However, Shangguan Jianyi didn’t seemed affected. He stood there as always, and was still calm despite the trembling of his body caused by the Taotie’s shrill screams.

“Yiiii~” An even shriller scream rang out. Right now, the sword intent in the area abruptly transformed into countless soft and flexible swords, circling around the Taotie with great speed. The swords didn’t attack but countless swords started forming and the sword might in the area increased drastically. A world of swords then formed, wanting to engulf the Taotie completely.

The Taotie howled in rage, but the sword intent was completely ethereal, there was no way for him to disintegrate the sword might. The sword might in the area moved together with him, growing stronger and stronger. And when it finally reached the ultimate peak, the swords became a prison, completely engulfing the gigantic Taotie.

“ROAR!” The Taotie let out an earth-shattering roar within the sword prison. He didn’t continue to advance towards Shangguang Jianyi but chose to turn and flee instead. However at this moment, Shangguang Jianyi finally moved. A resplendent beam of sword light shot out from his body and as he slashed out, the millions of swords exploded, forming into countless sharp fragments that buried themselves in the Taotie’s body. In an instant, fresh blood splashed through the sky. Very swiftly, the gigantic body of the Taotie was sliced off part by part until he completely disappeared. The sword intent in the area only slowly dissipated a long time after that.

The eyes of the immortal cultivators all flashed. What a strong combat prowess. Seems like the major powers of the immortal realms decided to act for real, and allowed their strongest elites to step out.

The expressions of many greater demons were all extremely ugly to behold. They were actually suppressed by humanity. Right now, there were two wins and two losses. They held no advantage at all.

“Who else wants to step up for battle?” The Baize calmly spoke. Only to see that at this moment, a figure from the Evil God Race walked out. He was a supreme expert of his race, he stepped up the platform and waited for his opponents to send themselves to death.

This time, one of the Skymist Immortal Empire’s immortal kings with the same level of cultivation stepped up. Demons of the Evil God Race practiced the evilest type of energy – destruction, poison, corrosion, bewilderment, confusion, and control. Although the immortal king from Skymist was strong, he eventually still died a terrible death under the Evil God Race’s demon, swallowed up directly at the end.

From the human side, the elites of the major powers respectively stepped out, matching against the terrifying greater demons of the Desolate Mountains. There were wins and losses on both sides but the demons from the Desolate Mountains were truly terrifying. Each of those who stepped out to fight, all possessed terrifying innate abilities and talents. After all, they were of the royal factions of the Desolate Mountains.

However, there were also some exceptional characters from the humans. Shangguang Jianyi alone was incomparably powerful. There was also an extremely strong immortal king in the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire who could take a life with every arrow he fired. Another supreme expert was from the Senluo Immortal Empire. His domain was the hell asura domain, containing boundless might.

But even so, the greater demons still possessed the advantage at the end. But despite that, it wasn’t going to be an easy thing for them to obtain a clear and complete victory.

After some time…

“Enough. You guys lost more than what you won. Shouldn’t it be about time for you all to give us Skybreak City?” The female demon Baize coldly spoke while the immortal emperors from the northern regions replied, “The battle has yet to end. Before this, for those elite geniuses of our immortal realms, they can still continue to battle.”

“Could it be that you all believe they can stand against the strongest characters among our demonic races?” A supreme expert from the Phoeroc Race icily spoke.

“How would we know if we don’t try?” The immortal emperor replied. He felt that since these demons wanted to drive humans out from Skybreak City so urgently, something major is surely going to happen.

At this moment, Qin Wentian tensed. He once again felt the signal by Little Rascal. Almost at the same instant, the Baize’s expression changed. She then spoke, “If you still refuse, we can only launch our attack.”

As the sound of her voice faded, the demons behind her all let out roars and screeches, causing this entire space to tremble.

And at this moment, in a certain region within the Desolate Mountains, the sky there suddenly changed color as craters appeared on the ground. A supremely powerful surge of demonic qi towered up into the air, permeating a vast area. In this space, there seemed to be even more demons compared to those outside, including the number of demonic races. In fact, the races here were even stronger compared to the ones outside that are fighting the immortal cultivators. If the immortal cultivators were to see this, they would definitely be extremely shocked

Chapter 1413: Demongod Mountain

In a certain location within the Desolate Mountains, the space here seemed to split apart as a primordial aura permeated the area, so powerful that it was inconceivable.

The gazes of countless demons gleamed with sharpness as they turned over while their bodies trembled. Countless lower-level demons were shaking as they prostrated themselves. A deep reverence could be seen in their eyes as well as hints of fear. It was like the thing that would be happening next will definitely be an extremely terrifying one.

In that location, cracks began to appear in the sky as the earth split apart, forming long lines of fissures that continuously extended outwards. In the depths of the cracks in space, a light from the primordial times could be seen and this light grew increasingly resplendent as the rumbling in the area grew more severe.

At this moment, countless ancient greater demons gathered together, all of them reverting back to their true forms. One among them was a greater demon that had nine heads, coupled with pairs of terrifyingly baleful eyes while exuding a tyrannical aura. Right now, his body was gleaming with golden light and his aura grew increasingly fearsome that no other demons in his surroundings dared to match his gaze. Strangely enough, on the shoulder of this nine-headed greater demon, a snow-white figure of a little demon could be seen. The eyes of this little demon gleamed with curiosity as it contemplated everything that was happening while simultaneously sending out signals telepathically to someone.

Beside this little fellow, there actually was another vermillion bird that was red in color. Because the size of the nine-headed greater demon was too large, akin to a mountain, making it so that the little fellow and the vermillion bird seemed extremely small and inconsequential, to the point where they were almost disregarded by others. Such a combination was truly very strange to behold.

“Senior, does the Demongod Mountain really exist?” The childish-sounding voice of Little Rascal rang out, he was speaking to that gargantuan nine-headed greater demon.

“Naturally. Baizes are capable of prophecies as well. They are able to pry through the veil of heavenly fate briefly and the Baize among us has already predicted that there would be an upheaval in our Desolate Mountains as well as the fact that the Demongod Mountain would reappear. Many kinds of terrifying supreme greater demons would appear, causing the strength of our Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range to rise up to another level.” That greater demon spoke.

Little Rascal blinked his eyes, “So this is the true Demongod Mountain? How shocking, are there any treasures within? What happens if the humans can get them too?”

“What humans? This Demongod Mountain is the sacred place of our Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range and only appears once every countless number of years passed. Once it appeared, huge changes would appear in the world and there would be a commotion affecting the entire Desolate Mountains. What’s the use for humans to come here? They would only act to spoil the prestige of our sacred mountain. Hence, I really hope those fellows out there can expel humanity from Skybreak City."

"Those humans are very cunning and there are many powerful experts among them. It isn't going to be easy to make them depart." The eyes of Little Rascal flickered.

"Mhm, you are right. Humans are cunning and greedy by nature and they would definitely covet the sacred Demongod Mountain if they learned of it. It's not so easy to expel them but we have to try. So what even if they tried to attack us? If they really dare to enter the Desolate Mountains, we will make this place their burial grounds, they can only come and cannot leave. In the future, we will sweep through the immortal realms, replacing humans as the kings of this world and make everywhere become an extension of our Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range." The words of this greater demon were extremely tyrannical. But naturally, he had the strength to back it up.

"Is that so? What if some humans have extremely powerful demonic bloodlines? Will it be useful for them if they ascend the Demongod Mountain?" Little Rascal murmured. He didn't give a damn how strong the demon races of the Desolate Mountains would be. What does that have to do with him? Right now, he wanted to see what sort of benefits he and Qin Wentian would be able to get. However, there should be no mistakes in following this senior.

After all, both him and this senior nine-headed demon belonged to the same race, and their race was about to be extinct soon in the immortal realms. There was no help regarding that, all the ancient demonic races are extremely rare and are all dying out.

"Little fellow, what are you thinking about? There's no need for you to care about the things with regards to humanity. This time, you should just think of how you can benefit yourselves. It's rare for the Demongod Mountain to appear and everytime it does, powerful demongod-level characters would definitely be born. This is a chance for our Desolate Mountains to rise up. You have a supreme-graded bloodline at the very pinnacle and in the future, if you become a demongod, you will definitely head to the other realms and seek out more of our kind, reinstating our past glory." The greater demon's voice sounded extremely old and ancient. From this, one could tell how long this nine-headed greater demon had lived for.

"Oh." Little Rascal replied. However, he still seemed to be somewhat distracted. Up ahead, the light grew more and more intense. In the cracking void up ahead, the shape of a mountain inside the void started to appear.

"Is that the legendary mountain?" Little Rascal mumbled.

"Mhm, the prophecy made by the Baize was right. With the appearance of god mountain, the sacred land of our Desolate Mountains appeared. From now on, an era of demons will unfold and we will be the hegemons of this entire realm."

“ROAR!” Roars of the countless demonic beasts echoed out loud as they stared at the incoming Demongod Mountain. They prostrated themselves before the sight of it. This was a legend of their Desolate Mountains, the coming of the sacred land which only appears once every countless years.

However, the Demongod Mountain had not formed completely, it was still somewhat illusory and in the midst of transforming, radiating an ancient and mysterious aura. From the crack in the void, one could see that this god mountain seemed to extend unendingly into the distance, appearing boundlessly vast. Although it appeared within reach, it was very far away. Everyone understood how mysterious this Demongod Mountain was.

When the commotion here began, the entire Desolate Mountain Range started trembling as mountain peaks crumbled apart. On the other hand, the filaments of light from the crack in void began to extend outwards, like a spiderweb, covering the entire mountain range.

At the connecting point between the external boundary of the Desolate Mountains and the immortal realms, outside Skybreak City, the demons and humans in combat here were all shocked. They could sense the commotion happening in the depths of the Desolate Mountain and although their vision was blocked, they could still tell that something terrifying was happening within.

The expressions of many human experts changed, especially for those immortal emperors. Their countenances were all extremely heavy while as for those demons, they actually had a look of impatience on their faces, they wanted to be there to see the descent of the Demongod Mountain too. They were cursing silently at their own members within the mountains. In truth, the demons here weren’t the core experts of their respective races. Their true cores were all within the mountains, waiting for the appearance of the Demongod Mountain. These demons were just elites sent here to accomplish their mission.

Right now, the commotion shook the entire area. These demons no longer had any patience to stay here and their hearts were already back in the depths of the Desolate Mountains.

“What is going on exactly within the Desolate Mountains?” An immortal emperor spoke sharply, he finally realized that whatever was happening, was a thing greater than what they had previously imagined. The eyes of these demons here were all flickering, they no longer seemed to be in the mood for combat.

The immortal emperors could all faintly sense that these demons were merely sent here to delay them. It would be for the best if these demons can make them retreat but it was fine if they couldn’t.

“What concern is it to you guys of the immortal realms? Humans have no right to interfere with the happenings of our Desolate Mountains. Combat has yet to be concluded. If you guys still refuse to retreat from Skybreak City, my demonic races will definitely send troops and invade the human world.” The Baize, who was a demon empress, coldly spoke. She was the only character that could remain calm. The other demons were already extremely agitated, each wanting to head back to the depths of the Desolate Mountains.

A legend coming true, the appearance of the Demongod Mountain would herald a new era for the demons. Who knows, the demons might be the ones uniting the entire immortal realms under them, becoming the hegemon of this world.

“BOOM!” A few rays of light shot out. They actually ignored the demons and directly rushed into the depths of the Desolate Mountains. These rays of light were immortal emperors speeding through the air, their speed was inconceivably quick and were emperors that had been hiding in the shadows. When they sensed the level of commotion, they could no longer remain calm and had to see what was happening with their own eyes.

Qin Wentian’s eyes turned sharp, flickering with the light of truth as he stared at the demons. He could sense that they no longer had the will to fight and only wanted to leave.

In addition to the continuous signals Little Rascal was sending him, he naturally understood that a thing of immense importance had definitely happened in the depths of the Desolate Mountains.

“A huge change will soon occur in the Desolate Mountains, what’s the point of you guys remaining here to block us? The truly powerful human emperors have already rushed into your Desolate Mountains. It’s fine with us if you don’t want to block them. But if you demons miss this chance, you would no longer have any chance to rise up and would be trampled to death by the other races.”

Qin Wentian could understand the inner feelings of these demons. Hence, he opened his mouth and tried to agitate them. Although the demons also understood Qin Wentian’s intent, their hearts truly weren’t able to remain calm.

“Are you all really willing to be sent here as an obstacle to block us? For those demons who sent you all here, they are now all waiting to reap the benefits.” Qin Wentian continued to probe. And as expected, the faces of these demons all changed, filled with reluctance. How proud were these greater demons? Although they could return after they accomplished their mission, it was a fact that these humans are tough to deal with. They could wait no longer and wanted to return to see the legendary sacred land appearing within their Desolate Mountains.

The Baize empress glanced at the demons in her surrounding as she sighed in her heart. She then gave the command, “Retreat.”

As the sound of her voice faded, all the greater demons frenziedly retreated, moving at the speed of lightning as though they were fleeing for their lives. All of them vanished in an instant.

“Why are these demons in such a hurry? What is happening exactly?” Some humans exclaimed in shock.

“Let’s go and take a look.” The human experts all sped forward, entering the Desolate Mountains as well. As they proceeded on, they saw that in an extremely faraway place, a majestic mountain seemed to be descending from cracks in the air. The divine light from this mountain seemed to cover the entire region, radiating a saint-like holy aura.

“Those demons who kept blocking us, was it because of the descent of this mountain?” The hearts of the humans trembled as they stared at this scene. Great waves rocked their hearts as they continued speeding ahead.

“Demongod Mountain? Is that the number one legend of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range?” Someone exclaimed. “My heavens, seems like a brand new era is about to unfold for the demons. Our immortal realms might be in for it soon.”

Chapter 1414: Shocking Change to the Desolate Mountains

The ordinary people of the immortal realms might not really understand the Demongod Mountain, but the immortal emperors, especially for immortal emperors in the north, they still knew something regarding this legend.

There are ancient records which stated that in the long history of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realm, the humans and demons had clashed many times before. There had been cases where a powerful demon dominated everything, where humans were nothing but playthings, living miserable lives, but there were also cases of humans being the overlord of the entire realm, including the Desolate Mountains.

Ultimately, the Desolate Mountains were split from the immortal realms, considered a separate space from the other regions. This bit of history was even earlier than the forming of the Myriad Devil Islands.

From the records, one could see the myths and legends of the Desolate Mountains recorded within. The legend of the Demongod Mountain was the most famous legend of all.

It’s said that every time the Demongod Mountain appeared, a brand new era would unfold for the demons of the Desolate Mountains. They would all enjoy an intrinsic evolution and there’s a slight possibility that a demon god would be born, capable of uniting the Desolate Mountains. At that time, that would surely be a disaster for the immortal realms.

Once a demon god is born, there’s no need to doubt that the territories of humans would all be seized away or destroyed in the ravages of war.

“The sacred academy has only recently appeared and now, even the Demongod Mountain of the Desolate Mountains is appearing? It seems that a commotion will truly rock the immortal realms soon. I wonder if it’s a blessing in disguise or not.” An immortal emperor sighed.

“That’s right, with a new era approaching, the immortal realms is destined to not know peace.”

“Let’s go and take a look at what the Demongod Mountain is all about. Those demons are now frenziedly rushing there, no one will block us anymore. Before this, they must have known that the mountain will be appearing and they are afraid that us from the immortal realms would spoil things for them.”

“Mhm, the greater demons of the Desolate Mountains all treat the coming of the Demongod Mountain as the appearance of divinity, their hearts are filled with nothing but a pious devotion. If we really rushed in earlier, a war would definitely break out.”

“No wonder only a few emperors were among the demons who appeared earlier. Seems like the majority of them are waiting for the Demongod Mountain to reappear once again.”

Many voices rang out. After that, some of these experts started flying into the depths of the Desolate Mountains.

"Brother Qin, let us go in as well. The Demongod Mountain is the legend of the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, a divine mountain for the myriad of demons in the world." Nanfeng Mingyue spoke in a low voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian nodded. No wonder Little Rascal sent him a signal telling him to come here. That little fellow was extremely astute and was nurtured by Qin Wentian's blood since he was young. Little Rascal naturally understood that Qin Wentian's bloodline contained the traces of a supremely powerful greater demon. This must be the reason why Little Rascal wanted him to come here, wanting him to share in the benefits that could be obtained.

The boundless demons at the mountains in here had all vanished. With the appearance of the Demongod Mountain, they must have gone to pay respect to it. Demons who had intelligence naturally understood how important the Demongod Mountain is. Although they were only demons with low-graded bloodlines, the Demongod Mountain was able to cause them to transform. This was an extremely rare opportunity. And although the chance was minuscule, they ultimately still had some hope to overturn reality and evolve.

The light grew more and more resplendent, sprinkling across the skies. A divine mountain appeared within the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, how holy and sacred was it? Countless demons followed the golden light as they advanced towards the depths of the Desolate Mountains with a pious heart.

The god mountain was as expected of a legend. It actually was a separate dimension within the Desolate Mountains and there are many ancient paths leading to it.

Many humans sped over, flying into the Desolate Mountains. The immortal emperors were in the lead and when they saw the gleaming golden light far off in the distance as well as the countless droves of demonic beasts speeding ahead, they instantly sped forth as well.

"Humans daring to covet our god mountain? You all will die if you enter." A demon emperor coldly glanced over but did nothing to stop them.

The human immortal emperors hesitated. This Demongod Mountain might be the legend of the Desolate Mountains, but it was true that it's a sacred land for demons. They didn't know what they might encounter in there if they entered.

"Did the ancient records mention anything about humans entering the Demongod Mountain?" Someone glanced towards an immortal emperor of the northern regions.

That immortal emperor stood in the air as his long robes fluttered in the wind. "Yes, but there are only a few records. From those records, we can tell that if one is fated with the mountain, humans would also be able to obtain good fortune in there. But of course, the good fortune they obtain cannot be compared to the good fortune acquired by the demonic beasts."

“No wonder they are trying to stop us.” Some immortal emperors commented.

“However, since we have already arrived, we have to enter to see the secrets of this mysterious mountain.” Someone spoke. These people have all reached the immortal emperor realm and wanting to take another step forward was as tough as trying to ascend the heavens. They would usually spend their time in some secret realms of the immortal realms, trying to achieve a breakthrough. Now that the legendary Demongod Mountain appeared in front of their eyes, how could they bear to miss this opportunity?

“Haha, alright let’s enter the depths of the Desolate Mountains first then and see if there are any ways for us to enter the Demongod Mountain.” Only to see the immortal emperors entering one by one, not having any hesitation.

Qin Wentian and the others also arrived here. Many of those who came here were extremely strong immortal kings of the various major powers. Right now, their eyes gleamed as they stared at the mysterious mountain far off in the distance.

“The connection between me and Little Rascal suddenly vanished. He should have entered the Demongod Mountain.” Qin Wentian mused. After that, the figures entered the god mountain respectively. These were all elite immortal kings, extremely powerful in their own rights. And the more powerful someone is, they would naturally hope to have a broader horizon. Naturally, there were also the greater demons from the western regions of the immortal realms, the Sky Rocs and the White Tigers. They were filled with anticipation with regards to this legendary Demongod Mountain.

“Let’s enter.” Qin Wentian spoke. He, Evergreen Longhao and the others of the Battle Saint Tribe stepped forth at the same time, entering the Desolate Mountain Range.

Staring at their backs, the experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire, Paragon Sword Sect and other major powers all had cold gleams in their eyes. Someone transmitted a silent message, “If there’s a chance, destroy Qin Wentian.”

“Mhm, if there’s a chance let’s all do so. Also, try to kill Evergreen Longhao to diminish the strength of the Evergreen Immortal Empire too.” These people silently conversed, all of them had killing intentions on their minds.

When the news of the descent of the Demongod Mountain spread to Skybreak City, it soon traveled on fast wings, and circulated to the various regions of the immortal realms. Even more experts began to use the teleportation arrays to arrive here, especially for the demon races of the Western Regions. They were filled with endless yearning and anticipation.

Qin Wentian and his group finally entered the Desolate Mountain Range. Their immortal senses were immediately restricted and he discovered that in this place, he could only see things with his vision. There was no way to extend his immortal sense out at all.

"This place is a different dimension and it restricts immortal sense. Now, there's not much differences in people with different cultivation base, they can only see things through their vision alone." Evergreen Longhao also discovered this point.

"The Demongod Mountain is before our eyes and its peak connects with the heavens, as though it is from another world. In truth, this is just a different dimension that's temporarily established here. Since it is not from the immortal realms, where is it from exactly?" If it was in the past, Qin Wentian wouldn't be so sensitive. But after he knew about the history of his father, he would frequently think of the other 32 heavens – the other layers of the immortal realms.

"It's truly very vast. We can't see the end of it with a single glance." They spoke as they continued forth, flying through the air. Demonic beasts could also be seen everywhere.

Right now before their eyes, a demon swooped down from the sky. It was a firebird. They rushed down and gulped a red-colored plant growing on the mountain and let out a long screech after that. Its body began to ignite as it bathed in the terrifying flames. The aura of these flames far surpassed its own and was extremely scorching.

An agitated expression could be seen on the firebird's face. It soared up into the sky but the flames grew even stronger. Its aura started fluctuating uncontrollably and finally, its body finally emitted its own flames but it was soon burned into cinders, turning into ashes.

"What a fearsome plant, it actually could ignite the evolution process in the fire bird. Sadly, the fire bird wasn't able to endure the power of that plant, which far surpassed the scope of the bird's strength and eventually got burned into ashes." The face of Nanfeng Mingyue changed. Just a single plant here contained such marvelous and heaven-defying might.

And at this moment, sounds of misery rang out in the air. Qin Wentian and the others saw many demonic beasts that were proficient in fire-attribute energy suddenly started burning up, plunging into an abyss of fire. They had tried to eat the same kind of plant as well.

"Terrifying indeed." Qin Wentian and the rest continued on their way. Below them, a powerful demonic qi suddenly towered up. It was from a powerful demon king that had eaten a demonic tree growing on the mountain. After that, its body started to swell up and became extremely enormous. A pair of fearsome wings appeared on his back, blotting out the sun. The demon roared in anger and rose with the wind, flying towards the distance as an expression of excitement appeared on his face.

"Look over there." A holy maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan pointed at that demon. It was a demonic python that was flying in circles in the air. A moment later, the snake started to shed its skin furiously and the scales on the snake grew brighter and tougher as its aura strengthened. Horns began growing from the snake's head, and so did long and powerful claws.

"That must be a draconic python that's in the midst of transforming into a true dragon." That holy maiden exclaimed in shock. This was too unbelievable, the demonic beasts could all eat the plants growing on the mountain.

As long as they could endure the power of the plant, they would actually be able to transform and grow multiple times stronger. Wouldn’t this place cause the power levels of the demons from the Desolate Mountain to skyrocket, ushering in an era of demons?

Chapter 1415: Phoenix Bone Relic

Qin Wentian was similarly shocked. The cultivation of humans was different and it was impossible for them to reach great heights in a single step. In this point, the demonic beasts had an advantage over humans. The potential of demons were set largely at the moment of their birth, determining the heights they would reach in the future. Hence, when demons receive good fortune, their improvements were usually much more compared to humans.

The Demongod Mountain was the number one legend of the Desolate Mountains and it is indeed worthy of its reputation. Over here, there are many heavenly ingredients and earthly treasures that could cause demons to evolve. Although their cultivation bases weren't able to directly leap up, it would give them a chance to evolve intrinsically, changing their innate heaven-given abilities. For example, the snake earlier had to cultivate to a certain extent on its own before it could transform into a dragon. But just by eating a treasure here, it was able to trigger the evolution. This wasn't just a simple increase in strength, but an intrinsic transformation of its innate nature.

Such an effect was similar to the Sacred Luminance but was more tyrannical in comparison. The Demongod Mountain was truly a terrifying place. No wonder the demons all treated this as a sacred land of divinity.

Naturally with such heaven-defying treasures, the risks involved are also huge. Many demonic beasts died in the process of evolution, eliminating the weak. Those who remained were demons who successfully endured the pain and completed the transformation. Undoubtedly, their strength had definitely skyrocketed when compared to the past.

"That snake earlier was just an ordinary demonic creature. If a member of one of the royal demon factions also manages to complete the evolution, how terrifying would they be?" Nanfeng Mingyue mused in a low voice, feeling somewhat worried.

"The demons of the royal factions all have high-graded bloodlines, the requirements for them to evolve are much tougher as well. Ordinary treasures would be of no use to them." Evergreen Longhao replied. Everyone nodded in agreement with regards to this point. For ordinary treasures, their effects would weaken to the point of being negligible if used by a demon beast that has a powerful bloodline, in contrast to a demonic beast with a weaker bloodline using it.

"This god mountain is truly unfathomable. We have just entered the Desolate Mountain Range and there are already such treasures forming. There are bound to have more startling secrets deep within." Qin Wentian spoke. "Let's continue in."

Everyone nodded. Countless demonic beasts were also entering but none of them bothered with these humans. There was no need to. The humans who entered found themselves very free as well, not having to tangle with the demonic beasts. They were also wondering what would happen if they ate the special plants that grew here. Would there be any effect for them?

The immortal senses of Qin Wentian and the others were restricted. They flew with great speed through the air and continued to advance. They didn't try to fight for these plants with the demonic beasts below. If they did so, they would surely trigger a joint attack by these demons. In addition, such treasures weren't able to stir their hearts at all.

Their target was the Demongod Mountain that is located in the very depths within the Desolate Mountain Range. They wanted to probe all the secrets.

What made Qin Wentian and the others shocked was that even now, the god mountain was still transforming, creating new landscapes and different peaks at every moment, continuously spreading outwards. At times, Qin Wentian and his group would suddenly find themselves in a ravine, and some moments later, they would be at the top of an ancient peak.

"I can feel a very strong aura that resembles my own aura." Nanfeng Mingyue suddenly spoke, her words causing Qin Wentian's gaze to stiffen. The members of the Southern Phoenix Clan all possessed the phoenix bloodline. If Nanfeng Mingyue could sense an aura resembling hers, it meant that it's very possible for a demonic creature that also possesses the phoenix bloodline to appear here.

"Which direction?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Over there." Nanfeng Mingyue pointed to a random place and headed there after that. The immortal senses of everyone were restricted and they could only rely on their vision. After traveling for some time, they froze as they saw a bone relic far away from them.

This bone relic was extremely gigantic, the skull was inclined upwards, as though the creature was proud even when in moments of its death, unwilling to bow its head.

The blood had already been drained and the flesh all corroded, leaving behind a mere skeleton. But even so, the aura of the skeleton was extremely powerful and there was even runic light gleaming from the bone. It was a rune bone relic.

"It must be a true phoenix when it was alive." The hearts of the members from the Southern Phoenix Clan trembled. In this secret realm, there actually was a bone relic from a phoenix of true blood. This god mountain was truly extraordinary. Where was this place exactly?

In front, there were also several experts, some from the Desolate Mountains and some from the immortal realms, standing with their weapons drawn, staring at the phoenix bone relic up ahead, wanting to seize it.

Qin Wentian could see blood-colored runes carved on the bone and feel the strength radiating from it. This bone relic was priceless and can be called a supreme treasure. It wasn't something the treasure plants the demonic beasts consumed earlier, could be compared to.

“When this phoenix was alive, it should have been at the demon emperor realm, a supreme demon of the heavens. She has long comprehended the dao of laws, causing her bones to be engraved with the law runes. From this bone relic, if one has affinity with it, they might be able to comprehend the insights and techniques of this phoenix.” Nanfeng Mingyue’s eyes blazed with passion. Her Southern Phoenix Clan’s totem was that of a phoenix and they all cultivate phoenix-type cultivation arts and techniques, possessing a phoenix bloodline. However, the purity of their blood naturally wouldn’t be able to compare to that of a real phoenix. Unless one reaches the level of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, they wouldn’t be able to comprehend the phoenix arts deeper to achieve further breakthroughs based on the limitation of insights and the purity level of their bloodline.

At this moment, a greater demon growled, “Scram. This isn’t a place you humans should be.”

The eyes of the greater demon were incomparably lofty. Although he was in human form, blood-colored wings could be seen behind him.

“Phoeroc Race.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed.

“Get lost, stop making trouble.” A sharp voice echoed out, speaking to Qin Wentian and his group. The person who spoke was actually a human. Before this, Qin Wentian had seen this man before. He was none other than Shangguang Jianyi of the Paragon Sword Sect. He was extremely powerful and had slain a Taotie. He also can be considered a peak-level genius within the sacred academy and his current cultivation base was at the peak-phase of the mid-stage immortal king realm.

The auras of everyone here surged forth. The humans and demons here seemed to have already fought before and was now standing in opposition, glaring at each other.

“What a joke. Why can you all stay here and we can’t?” Qin Wentian’s eyes turned cold.

“The Paragon Sword Sect, wow so impressive.” Nanfeng Mingyue icily spoke. Her Southern Phoenix Clan had a foundation deeper than them, could it be that she didn’t have the qualifications to interfere in this? Shangguang Jianyi even dared to tell her to get lost.

“Another bunch of insufferable humans.” The expert from the Phoeroc Race arrogantly spoke.

“Truly insufferable.” A golden crow sneered as his body burst into flames, illuminating its surroundings, causing the temperature here to soar up.

“Your Southern Phoenix Clan wants this bone relic? You are not qualified enough yet.” An expert from the Ying Clan icily spoke. They were also part of the three great ancient clans in the southern regions, they naturally didn’t want this bone relic to be obtained by the Southern Phoenix Clan.

“One has to depend on their own capabilities to contend for treasures.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

“What a joke.” Shangguang Jianyi frowned, his gaze like a sharp sword, staring right at Qin Wentian.

This bone relic might not be of much use to the Ying Clan, but they might still be able to use it to forge a supreme divine weapon in the future. Given the size of this bone relic, it must be priceless and can be comparable to emperor-ranked weapons.

“Although your combat prowess isn’t bad and your cultivation speed is fast, you are too arrogant. Just with you, Evergreen Longhao and Nanfeng Mingyue? Why don’t you ask them if they can be compared to me when we three were in the sacred academy? You are merely an initial-stage immortal king and there is no one protecting you now. I can kill you with a single sword attack.”

The eyes of Shangguang Jianyi gleamed with sharpness, flashing with killing intent. The various major powers here fighting for a bone relic were already a headache. Now, Qin Wentian’s group wanted to stir things up further.

“He is someone treated as a valued guest by the Southern Phoenix Clan and is naturally arrogant. However, given how vast the immortal realms are, you are sorely mistaken if you feel all the major powers are like the weakling Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. Nanfeng Mingyue, your clan is protecting him because you believed that he would grow to be extremely strong in the future? How pitiful.” An expert of the Ying Clan coldly laughed. “If you all still refuse to scram, we will deal with you first.”

They were temporarily allied with the Paragon Sword Sect. Qin Wentian’s group wanted to be the fisherman that reaps the benefits in troubled waters when they fought against the demons? There was no way they would let this succeed.

Upon seeing the internal conflict of the humans, the expert from the Phoeroc Race and the golden crow soared up into the sky, staring at them in disdain.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, these fellows didn’t want to deal with the demons but wanted to act against them first? His eyes flickered with coldness as he spoke, “Back then, I was acquainted with a Ying Teng of the Ying Clan and a member of the Paragon Sword Sect. How arrogant and lofty were they? Acting just like you guys now but at the very end, weren’t they humiliated and killed by me? Even if they didn’t die, they would be left far behind in the dust by my progress. I truly have no idea what qualifications you all have to brag here? Do you all even know shame?”

“Trash.” The immortal king of the Ying Clan revealed an expression of rage. He stared in contempt at Qin Wentian as the sound of a dragon roaring could be heard within his body. Stepping out tyrannically, he stared at Qin Wentian, “Although there are many major powers supporting you, if my Ying Clan wants to kill you, you wouldn’t be able to survive till the next day. My cultivation base is equivalent to you and I will give you a fair chance to fight against me. If not, the others might say that my Ying Clan is bullying you.”

This man was just like a dragon, a ferocious desolate beast that exuded an incomparably tyrannical aura. He was a heaven chosen from the ancient Ying Clan and had unparalleled combat prowess. As part of the three ancient great clans in the south, no matter how impressive Qin Wentian's background was, he would definitely dare to kill him.

"If you want to kill me, I won't survive till tomorrow?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke as he stepped out as well. He glanced at the surrounding experts from the Paragon Sword Sect and from their expressions, he knew that many humans who entered here, all wanted a chance to take his life.

"In that case, I really want to see how you can take my life." When Qin Wentian stepped out, he also released his law domain. In an instant, a destructive devil might engulfed this entire space.

"Help me to block the interference of others. I want him to die." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The other experts from the Battle Saint Tribe nodded and took a step forward, preparing to act at any moment.

Chapter 1416: Gathering Storm

“You want me to die?” That expert from the Ying Clan laughed loudly. Dragon roars filled the sky as an incomparably gigantic manifestation of a true dragon actually appeared in the air, radiating an immense demonic qi and blotting out the sun. The dragon then transformed into his law domain, engulfing everything. In this space, everything seemed to bow in submission to his law domain.

“KILL!” The expert from the Ying Clan roared. The dragon swooped down, lunging towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian’s law domain erupted forth, augmented by the power of God’s Hand. His law domain contained the capabilities to transform countless times. With but a will of intent, he willed a gigantic palm imprint to appear in the air. This palm imprint flowed with boundless runic light, capable of unleashing a million types of techniques as it slammed out towards the incoming dragon. As it blasted out, a devil saber materialized from it, wanting to slash the dragon apart.

This supreme saber contained enough might to tear the world asunder. It slammed into the dragon as the sound of slashing echoed out. The dragon was severed into two.

The face of the Ying Clan’s expert changed. However, as an immortal king of one of the three great ancient clans, how could he merely depend on the power of his law domain? He gave a loud roar as a tyrannical aura gushed forth. He resembled a fiendgod and when he punched out, a total of nine dragons appeared, wrenching their maws open as they flew towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stepped out, similarly exuding an aura of tyranny. His palm imprint manifested another devil saber once more. The devil saber sliced through the void, moving with an indomitable force, crushing the maws of the dragons.

The saber continued forward, slashing towards that Ying Clan’s immortal king. That expert’s countenance paled. He hurriedly activated his bloodline power as his aura strengthened. His entire person turned golden, possessing an indestructible body as a golden giant dragon appeared behind him. As the saber light arced down, it failed to break his defense. As an expert from one of the three great ancient clans, how could he be weak? His attack and defense were both extremely powerful.

“HOW CAN YOU KILL ME?” That immortal king howled. He was like an absolute hegemon, his eyes flared with resplendent light, sparkling with arrogance. Although Qin Wentian’s saber techniques were strong, he had cultivated in a golden indestructible body technique that was further reinforced by his powerful bloodline, allowing him to borrow the strength of true dragons. No matter how extraordinary Qin Wentian’s combat prowess is, Qin Wentian would still have to die when facing him.

“I was merely playing around with you.” Qin Wentian smiled with contempt when he saw this, causing the other party to feel another rush of humiliation. Qin Wentian said he was just playing around earlier?

“Shameless and insufferable.” The immortal king of the Ying Clan sneered. However, he soon noticed the runic light radiating from Qin Wentian growing brighter and brighter, infusing Qin Wentian’s law domain. Qin Wentian stood there with his hands behind his back, he was one with the giant palm imprint in the air, which circulated with countless flows of runic light. Gradually, numerous devil sabers materialized around the palm imprint, each possessing the power of destruction and suppression, capable of exterminating everything.

Qin Wentian stepped out again as his devil qi surged forth, powerful to an inconceivable extent. The numerous devil sabers all slashed down, each possessing an overwhelming might. This was especially so for the devil saber right in the center. It seemed to contain the essences of all these devil sabers.

“Die.” Qin Wentian spoke a single word, as the devil sabers descended through the air amidst the howls of anger from the Ying Clan’s expert. The devil saber in the center suddenly disappeared as a light slicing sound rang out. The Ying Clan’s expert died even before he could act.

“HOW DARE YOU?!” Icy roars rang out as the experts of the Ying Clan all rushed Qin Wentian. However, the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe released their terrifying auras, blocking the Ying Clan, protecting Qin Wentian.

“I’ve already killed him, what do you mean dare or not dare? Do you think I’m the same as you all? Only knowing how to engage in a war of words?” Qin Wentian glanced at the experts from the Ying Clan. “That person earlier from the Ying Clan was at the same level as me, yet he couldn’t even withstand a single strike. The same goes for the Paragon Sword Sect as well. I wonder what qualifications do you all have? Daring to bark so loudly before me. This phoenix bone relic belongs to the strong. If you all want to start a war for it, I will gladly oblige.”

Now, Qin Wentian was also an immortal king expert, he naturally had the bearing of one. He had enemies all around the world, especially so in the eastern regions, the number of people who wanted his life was basically countless. He didn’t mind making a few more. Since these people wanted to humiliate and insult him, he will use the most direct method to repay them, killing if he could kill, slaying if he could slay them. If he couldn’t, he would wait until he grows stronger in the future before repaying all these debts.

On the path of the strong, retreating would only cause his opponents to be more and more overbearing. Sometimes, only by acting in a sufficiently dominating manner, would he cause others to fear and respect him.

“Peak-stage immortal king.” The experts of the Ying Clan and Paragon Sword Sect sensed the might radiating from the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe. The auras of numerous peak-stage immortal kings flooded the area, terrifying to the exxtreme.

“Your law domain seemed to be established from practicing a kind of innate technique. What is that?” At this moment, the expert from the Phoeroc Race calmly asked, staring at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian glanced at him but didn’t reply.

When the Phoeroc expert saw Qin Wentian ignoring him, he coldly laughed, “If I’m not mistaken, that should be the lost secret art of Ancient Emperor Yi, God’s Hand, right?”

“To think that a demon in the Desolate Mountains would actually be so knowledgeable, recognizing this secret art.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“How can humans of the immortal realms know of our abilities? Just a mere secret art, let alone knowing about it, the demon gods of our Desolate Mountains aren’t any weaker than your so-called ancient emperors of the immortal realms in the past eras.” The Phoeroc arrogantly spoke, ignoring the human experts around him.

“These humans want to fight with us in our territory?” The Pheoroc glanced at the Golden Crow as he laughed disdainfully.

“Maybe they have no idea about our strength levels.” The golden crow sneered, his voice filled with an absolute arrogance.

“They believe that we fear them? Don’t they know that we are merely discussing which of our race this phoenix bone relic should belong to?” The Pheoroc continued, the two demons conversed naturally, ignoring Qin Wentian and the other human experts.

“Stop wasting time. Whoever kills the most, shall acquire the rights to obtain the phoenix bone relic. How about it?” The golden crow spoke out.

“Sure.” The Phoeroc nodded. After that, his body transformed. His transformation contained the unique aspects of both the rocs and phoenix race. Spreading out his gigantic wings, it blotted out the sun. His blood-red claws sparkled with runic light, incomparably sharp.

On the other side, that golden crow was bathing in sun flames. His sharp talons clutched a golden sun spear, capable of refining everything in the world.

“Saint Lord, be careful. These two demonic races are extremely strong.” The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe stood before Qin Wentian, reminding him as they sensed the threat from these two demons. Both of these demons were peak-stage immortal kings and from their conversation, they seemed to be extraordinary characters within their races and might be part of the royal factions.

“Bzz!” Abruptly, a raging wind gusted by. Even before anyone could react, the blood-colored phoeroc had already vanished from his original location. He transformed into a streak of red lightning, speeding forth with incredible agility. Now that immortal senses were blocked, there was no way for one to track his movements via their vision. This, was the speed of sky roc, extraordinarily fast.

“BOOM!” A loud sound rang out and a powerful immortal king from the Ying Clan was struck, transforming into a blood man as his entire body shattered, dying in an instant.

“Before this, we didn’t encounter this phoeroc at the outside. Clearly, his status is extremely high in his race.” Evergreen Longhao’s expression turned heavy when he saw this. He could feel an intense sense of crisis.

On the other side, the golden crow acted too. The golden sun spear shot out, manifesting mini balls of sunflames as it pierced through an immortal king expert. That immortal king was roasted as he screamed in agony.

“RUMBLE!” Powerful auras gushed forth, the other experts from the Phoeroc and Golden Crow races all acted at this moment, unleashing their powerful auras, wanting to slay the humans.

For initial-stage immortal kings, they were basically cannon fodder in a battle as intense as this.

A streak of blood-colored light shot towards Qin Wentian. However, the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe were standing before him. They roared in unison as battle saint might gushed forth, manifesting palm imprints that swept forth with an indomitable might.

“BANG!” Thunderous explosions rocked the air. The powerful Phoeroc from before soared high up as he glanced down with contempt at the humans. “The strength level of you guys isn’t bad, but sadly, you all are not good enough.”

As he spoke, his blood-colored body started to burn with the terrifying phoenix flames, wanting to scorch everything. He once again transformed into a streak of red lightning, there was basically no one who could track his movements.

“Saint Lord, his speed is too quick. Retreating is our best option.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. A peak expert from the Phoeroc Race actually possessed such terrifying combat prowess?

“Right.” Qin Wentian instantly gave the command to retreat. Their group of people stepped back and many among them weren’t able to withstand the attacks of these demons. They could only choose to give up on this bone relic.

Not only for Qin Wentian’s group, but the experts from the Paragon Sword Sect and Ying Clan also chose to retreat as well. Those two demonic fellows were simply too powerful. They could be said to be invincible below the emperor realm.

The demons didn't pursue too far. With the appearance of the Demongod Mountain, countless bouts of good fortune were waiting for them. They didn't have the time nor the mood to chase these puny human cultivators.

"What a pity. The runes engraved on the bone relic might contain some powerful innate techniques and even have the possibility of an inheritance secret art." Nanfeng Mingyue sighed.

"That demonic beast has the abilities of both the sky rocs and the phoenix race. That golden crow is extremely powerful as well. If they manage to comprehend some inheritance secret arts, they would definitely become extremely terrifying existences. No wonder they didn't give a damn about us humans entering the Desolate Mountains. This place is their territory and even if there's good fortune, we won't be able to seize it from them." Evergreen Longhao's status was extraordinary, but he couldn't help but admit the strength of their demonic opponents.

"Right now, the immortal realms most probably already received this news. Before this, each power only sent a limited number of experts here but after this piece of news circulated around, the majority of the experts of each major power would definitely come here, including those strongest individuals standing at the peak. At that time, the demons of the Desolate Mountains might not possess the advantage any longer." Nanfeng Mingyue spoke.

"Mhm, regardless of what, a violent storm is gathering here at this Demongod Mountain. Even the sacred academy wasn't so lively." Qin Wentian stared toward the horizons, his eyes filled with a trace of anticipation. He naturally understood Little Rascal's intent for sending him a signal to come over. He possessed the bloodline of an incomparably powerful primordial supreme demon. Maybe, there would also be good fortune that belonged to him in this Demongod Mountain!

Chapter 1417: Transforming into a Roc to enter the Demongod Mountain

The god mountain was incomparably vast, it was so large that one couldn’t possibly imagine it. The droves of demonic beasts all rushed into it, as well as experts from the immortal realms arriving one after another. But even so, before the countless demons, the humans of the immortal realms all seemed so little in comparison.

Qin Wentian continued on his way, moving towards the ancient peak that was radiating all the golden light, wanting to see if there were any secrets here. On the journey there, their group witnessed many shocking things. The evolutions of demonic creatures took a single day to complete. Naturally, compared to the number of demons who successfully evolved, the number who died were simply astronomical. The grounds within the Demongod Mountain were layered with corpses.

Qin Wentian and his group naturally also slew many demonic beasts who went to find trouble for them.

“Our speed is too slow.” After several months, Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice as he stared in the distance. Everywhere they passed by had already been swept clean by the demons. There were simply too many demons here. And when they were at Skybreak City, the demons of the Desolate Mountains had already been prepared for this and there were even demon emperors leading them. Naturally, all rare treasures to be found, have already been obtained by them.

“The demons of the Desolate Mountains are countless in number, and there are many from the royal factions that are extremely powerful. We just have to see how fast the speed of the Phoeroc race is and we would understand how terrifying they are. We will definitely lose if we compete with them in speed.” Evergreen Longhao shook his head. “Also, we didn’t anticipate the god mountain to be this vast. We won’t be able to reach the end of it.”

“There seems to be some buildings up ahead.” At this moment, a peak-stage immortal king from the Battle Saint Tribe spoke. The eyes of Qin Wentian’s group flickered, staring toward the distance. They increased their speed while their hearts pounded. Those ahead weren’t buildings but were demon cities built within the mountains which extended endlessly. These demon cities were built around the foot of the Demongod Mountain.

“Demon city, there’s actually a city here filled with countless demons.” Qin Wentian’s group walk towards the gate and stared ahead. This city was extremely old, radiating an ancient feeling. Demonic qi could be felt within and the demonic qi should be left behind by the demons of the Desolate Mountains who came through here earlier.

“We are getting closer and closer to the secret of the god mountain. Those powerful demon emperors and immortal emperors most probably have already started to ascend the mountain.” Nanfeng Mingyue spoke.

“Our immortal senses are restricted, it’s impossible for us to sense things from afar. We can only use our vision and try to spot the mysteries here.”

“However, it also saved us from some trouble.” Qin Wentian spoke. If immortal senses weren’t restricted, many people would definitely lock on to their position and try to kill them. Without immortal senses, it was not so easy to encounter another group in this boundlessly vast mountain range.

“Let’s go.” Upon entering the demon city, they discovered that this city was occupied by powerful immortal kings who could be seen everywhere. These characters were equivalent to immortal kings of the immortal realms.

Demon kings were the same as immortal kings, it’s very hard to reach that level. However, given how vast the Desolate Mountains are, and with the appearance of the Demongod Mountain, the number of demons here was naturally extremely shocking. Just at the king realm, it was unknown how many demons were there.

After entering the city, they continued heading towards the depths. Their goals didn’t change, the god mountain was the greatest source of attraction for them.

“What’s going on?” At this moment, several immortal kings froze as they stared at a location. Over there, a majestic demon palace could be seen. Terrifying gusts of demonic qi could be felt radiating from there. At the next moment, they only saw an army made of demons exiting the palace.

“This…” Qin Wentian’s group felt their hearts shuddering. An army of demon kings, with several hundreds among them. They were truly impressive as the demonic qi from them swept over everything in the area.

At this instant, the disadvantages of their immortal senses being restricted appeared. Only when the demon army was so close to them could they manage to sense it and feel the danger.

“They are all death troops?” Nanfeng Mingyue suddenly spoke. Qin Wentian and his group then discovered that although the aura of this army was very terrifying, they didn’t seem to truly be demons. They were like death spirits borrowing the body of demons but their strength was the real deal.

Could there be a unique location within the Desolate Mountains which caused these to be born? That seemed to be the only explanation.

“Everyone, let’s move.” Qin Wentian spoke. His group instantly sped to the sides as the army began to move towards them, clearly discovering their existences as well. The army didn’t care about the nearby demons, their target seemed to be Qin Wentian’s group.

“Their purpose seems to be tracking human cultivators. Why don’t we try splitting up?” Qin Wentian spoke. The three teams within his group nodded. Qin Wentian and the people from the Battle Saint Tribe sped towards a direction, while Evergreen Longhao and his group, as well as the members of the Southern Phoenix Clan, went off in two other directions.

However, the army split into three as well, pursuing all of them, confirming Qin Wentian's conjecture. These death spirits were targeting only humans.

"Continue to split. Qi Yu, follow me." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all split further. At this instant, those demon kings of the army hesitated before they too, broke up into smaller teams that continued pursuing but the number of them chasing Qi Yu and Qin Wentian was much lesser compared to before.

After fleeing for some time, Qin Wentian paused. He spoke to Qi Yu, "Are you able to handle them?"

"Not a problem." Qi Yu nodded. He turned and stepped out, giving a loud roar that shook the sky. A manifestation of a divine ape appeared and with another roar, the ape punched out, causing fist shadows to cover the area, creating many fearsome explosions. Those death spirits died one after another, and Qi Yu continued to rampage, killing the demonic beasts in the surroundings for good measure.

"Saint Lord, it's best to be more careful." Qi Yu reminded. They weren't able to refer to Qin Wentian as Saint Lord out in the public but because in this mysterious area where immortal senses are restricted, it was more convenient for them to call Qin Wentian as Saint Lord directly.

"Mhm, to think that this demon city actually has so many demon king death spirits." Qin Wentian was a little shocked. The two of them changed direction and continued towards the Demongod Mountain. On the way there, they saw many demon palaces. This demon city seemed to be the territory of different powerful greater demons, and the lord of these palaces were all demon kings.

"What's that?" Qi Yu pointed toward a random direction. Two powerful desolate wolf kings could be seen gathering there. They were currently staring at a blood-colored statue that radiated a mysterious energy. A moment later, the bodies of the wolf kings also radiated a red glow, as though they were in the midst of awakening.

"Could it be that this particular demon palace has an inheritance left behind by the progenitor of their race? It should be able to ignite their potential." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. After that, one of the wolf kings let out a long screech and under the shocked gazes of Qin Wentian and Qi Yu, the body of the wolf king that howled, began to turn large. A pair of blood-colored wings appeared behind its back as its four legs grew more muscular and its claws also sharpened. Mysterious blood-colored runes could be seen circulating around it as well.

"Seems like Saint Lord is right. These wolves cannot be considered to have a high-graded bloodline but there would occasionally be wolf kings among them. However, because of the limitations of their bloodline, they weren't able to evolve further and had to depend on other methods." Qi Yu spoke. Qin Wentian nodded in agreement.

"There seems to be many demon kings fighting for something over there." Qi Yu pointed in another direction.

"Also, there are actually so many bone relics there. Each of the bone relics gleamed with brilliant light, projecting the shadow of the demonic beast before it died." There were many projections of greater demons formed from the power of the rune bone relics. Many demon kings were gathered there as they sensed the mysterious energy.

“Good fortune is everywhere. The demons of the Desolate Mountains are truly going to evolve now.” Qin Wentian sighed. Ever since they entered here, they saw demons all around them transforming and evolving.

“Saint Lord, you also cultivate demonic energy, right? Do you want to take a look at the demon palaces and see if they can be of any help to you?” Qi Yu suggested. However, Qin Wentian chose to continue forward, having no intentions to stop.

“You’ve also seen it for yourself. Ever since we entered the Desolate Mountains and move closer to the Demongod Mountain, the bouts of good fortune can be found everywhere. The deeper we enter, the greater the fortune bestowed is. What can be found if we proceeded all the way to the very end?” Qin Wentian stared at the horizons, his eyes gleaming with anticipation.

“However, the deeper we enter, the more powerful the demons are, resulting in a higher level of danger. Actually, many of these demons are very intelligent, being happy enough just to obtain an inheritance.” Qi Yu was somewhat worried. Qin Wentian wanted to pry the secret of the Demongod Mountain and although he understood the ambition in Qin Wentian’s heart, he could sense that the danger level was wildly escalating the deeper they advanced.

In addition, the Saint Lord was a human…

“Qi Yu, I understand your intents. You should try and find an inheritance that suit you as well, there’s no need for you to follow me around.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Saint Lord.” Qi Yu’s expression changed. But before he could say anything else, Qin Wentian suddenly radiated overwhelming amounts of demonic qi as he transformed into a gigantic roc that blotted out the sky. He seemed to be a real demon, and completely not a human.

“Didn’t you realize that these demons don’t seem to have any internal conflict? They wouldn’t act against their own kind. They are the same as humans, and are all here because they want to grow stronger. As long as the benefits of both parties don’t clash, they are more than willing to see all demonkind here evolve.” Qin Wentian spoke. “Don’t worry about me, in the form of a demon, I will be absolutely safe from attacks by demonkind. I’ve already decided, you can go and search for opportunities for yourself.”

As he spoke, he spread his wings and soared up into the sky, directly speeding towards the direction of the Demongod Mountain. Qi Yu glanced at Qin Wentian’s silhouette as his eyes flickered with light. Although the Saint Lord told him to seek out opportunities for himself and asked him to not follow after, Qi Yu couldn’t do so. At the very least, he would follow behind Qin Wentian in case there was any danger.

After all, although Saint Lord’s combat prowess could fight against mid-stage immortal kings, his strength was still insufficient to be invincible here.

Qin Wentian who was in the form of a giant roc was flying through the sky. On his way over, many greater demons below glanced up at him. But since he didn’t show any intentions of contending against these demons for treasures, nobody obstructed him and he was able to travel very quickly.

As he was flying forth, he couldn’t help but feel shock when he saw how vast this demon city was. There seemed to be inheritances left behind by ancient demons who stayed here during the primordial era everywhere.

However, this also seemed to be a checkpoint, and appeared to be guarding the Demongod Mountain.

If that’s the case, what was inside the Demongod Mountain?

As he continued advancing, Qin Wentian finally got closer and closer to the god mountain. He came to the end of the demon city and although he was flying in the air, he still had to incline his head up to stare at the god mountain. The peak of this mountain bordered on the dome of the heavens, it seemed endlessly vast. There was no other way to climb it other than starting from the bottom.

Chapter 1418: Journeying up the Demongod Mountain

Above the god mountain, bright lights flashed dazzlingly.

There's only a single path leading to the peak of the god mountain. This path was very wide, Qin Wentian was in the form of a giant roc as he moved along the ancient path. Other than him, there were also many experts, some humans, some demons, walking on it. Many of them were peak-stage immortal or demon kings, with the mid-stage being fewer.

As for initial-stage demon kings, only a limited few could be seen here. Several powerful demons turned their gazes towards the great roc which Qin Wentian had transformed into, their eyes flashing with disdain. An initial-stage demon king also dared to head to the god mountain to seek good fortune? It's fine if he just wanted to watch, but if this initial-stage demon king dares to covet and fight them for any treasures, he would only be courting his own death.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't be bothered about what the others thought. He transformed into the form of a great roc to enter the Demongod Mountain was simply because of convenience. As long as the demons don't stop him, he wouldn't mind their gazes of contempt. Qin Wentian himself also knew that a cultivation base at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm was far from sufficient. If he wanted to pry the secrets of the Demongod Mountain, he had to be low-profile.

If not, there would be no way for him to walk to the peak of this Demongod Mountain.

"What a brilliant light. That must be an ancient sun tree." A sound of exclamation rang out. Up ahead, an incomparably dazzling light, brighter than the sun, blazed brilliantly. Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with the light of truth, he continued forward while ignoring the source of that light. Now, at the side of the ancient path, he could see an ancient sun tree.

Each leaf of this ancient tree was in the shape of a sphere, similar to the sun. It also radiated blinding light and a scorching aura.

Around the tree, numerous golden sun crows could be seen circling it. These strange variation-types of golden crows seemed to be comprehending the mysteries hidden among each leaf. Other than them, there was also a group of humans who originated from a peak power in the immortal realms known as the Sacred Sun Sect. They cultivated in the extremely fierce sun-type energy.

At this moment, a screech sounded out. A gigantic golden sun crow plucked a leaf from the tree and placed it in his mouth, slow chewing it. An instant later, the entire body of the crow began to shine like the sun as blazing runes appeared on his body, mysterious to the extreme. A moment later, with a flap of his wings, he summoned an unfathomable technique that gleamed with dazzling light, capable of exterminating everything.

In the next moment, he plucked another leaf and chewed it while an expression of enjoyment could be seen on his face, as though he was enjoying the most delicious delicacy in the world.

The people from the Sacred Sun Sect all had cold expressions on their faces. These golden sun crows were a variation-type of golden crows, they had the innate talent of golden crows and inherited the power of the sun. Their bloodline and bones had sun runes within but they, as humans, were much weaker in comparison and could only depend on comprehending. These demonic beasts were truly loved by the heavens, being granted such abilities that inspired jealousy in others.

Qin Wentian glanced at them for a moment before he continued on his way, not stopping at all. Not too long after, he saw a silver-colored beautiful tree. This ancient tree actually formed the countenance of a human and with just a single glance at it, one would feel themselves being drawn in and bombarded by the powerful of absolute charm.

The great roc continued soaring through the air. On the way to the peak, Qin Wentian saw all sorts of wondrous scenes, widening his perspective as he could only sigh in admiration at how marvelous this god mountain seemed to be.

If one were to say that the plants at the external boundary of this sacred land were able to cause ordinary demonic beasts to evolve, there’s no doubt that the treasures here are able to allow powerful demon kings to transform or even evolve to the next level.

Qin Wentian continued on. Finally, he stopped when he came to a certain point on the ancient path. At the side of the path, a destructive aura filled the air. The light of destruction interweaved with the radiance of the god mountain. There was an ancient vine king towering up into the sky, with many newly-grown and tender leaves sprouting out from it, closing and opening, resembling eyes that could cause people to fall in a state of hypnosis.

Below this towering vine, many terrifying experts, including powerful demons and extraordinary human experts, could be seen there.

“This is the totem tree of the Evil God Race. What are you looking at?” A Phoeroc passed by, glancing at Qin Wentian as he icily spoke.

The wilderness in the surroundings was incomparably vast. The Phoeroc race had always disdained the roc and phoenix races, hence, this passing Phoeroc looked down on Qin Wentian.

“I’m just looking around.” Qin Wentian’s voice was low as demonic qi gushed from him.

“Hmph.” That Phoeroc turned into a beam of light and disappeared into the distance. Qin Wentian actually chose to remain here beneath this ancient vine. There were indeed many demons of the Evil God Race here. They have all unleashed their auras, radiating an overwhelming demonic might, capable of destroying everything.

Among them, there were some evil gods whose eyes had already turned bloodshot, as the destructive energy within their bodies ignited, causing them to be extremely terrifying to behold.

“Awakening?” Some of the other experts from the Evil God Race had looks of agitation when they saw this. This was the awakening of their Evil God Race.

There were many supreme demon races that possessed extraordinary bloodlines which bolstered their potential. The true power of these bloodlines might not be awakened right from birth, but would slowly unlock themselves as the demons grew stronger. Not only for demons, but there were also many humans with bloodline powers who were the same as well. An example was the Battle Saint Tribe.

Also, this kind of awakening can also be segregated into different degrees of awakening. Given the history of the Battle Saint Tribe, their sacred inheritance bone was seized by someone else, resulting in the remainder of their race suffering a huge drop of potential when they awakened.

For the Evil God Race, they were born with evil eyes but they still needed to awaken it further. This can be considered an inheritance power of their race.

For those who have truly awakened their evil eyes, only then can they be considered among the royal faction within their race, becoming a supreme and lofty existence, surpassing the ordinary members. This towering ancient vine king was actually able to aid them in the awakening process.

Other than the Evil God Race, the Scorpion King Race, Spirit Ao Race, and other powerful demon races were here as well. There are also quite a few human cultivators, experts from the Sky-Nibbling Sacred Sect, as well as some nobles from the Senluo Immortal Empire. All of them cultivated the law-attribute of destruction.

Qin Wentian’s appearance seemed somewhat out of place here. Although there were also variations to the great roc race, the vast majority of rocs were all only proficient in wind-attribute energy. No one has heard of a roc being skilled in the destruction-attribute before, unless one was a mutated great roc.

Nobody disturbed Qin Wentian, he quietly floated at the side of the vine king. The opening and closing leaves were simply like blinking eyes, producing a fearsome vortex that wanted to absorb Qin Wentian’s consciousness. Qin Wentian’s entire being was soon covered by the destructive aura produced from the vine king.

His body began to flow with runic light. Treasures found on the ancient pathway leading to the peak of the Demongod Mountain were many times more powerful and tyrannical when compared to those found in the external boundaries. If one didn’t have enough strength, they would definitely die if they tried to absorb the energy. For those who weren’t at the immortal-king realm, they might simply die just from glancing at the tree.

Qin Wentian, who was in the form of the great roc, was now surrounded by terrifying vortexes of destruction. His body actually radiated his own destruction attribute laws and was counter absorbing the destructive might from the vine king, causing the blood in his body to start to churn.

In the center of Qin Wentian's brow, a third eye appeared, gleaming with demonic light.

"This evil vine king can actually cause the power of one of my bloodlines to stir up, igniting my potential." Qin Wentian silently mused. The great roc continued to move forward, moving closer to the vine king. After that, he began to copy what those from the Evil God Race were doing and started to proactively absorb the destructive energy from the evil vine king.

"Is this great roc courting death?" Some experts of the Evil God Race glanced at Qin Wentian. This roc actually dared to proactively absorb the destructive energy from the vine king. Before the power of this vine, even for initial-stage immortal kings who cultivates the destructive-law energy attribute, they would find it hard to bear the backlash.

After Qin Wentian absorbed the energy, the destructive might began to circulate around his body, infusing his bloodline. After that, his bloodline power seemed to gain the attribute of destruction, terrifying to the extreme.

What made Qin Wentian even more shocked was that the power of his bloodline seemed to be transforming. It was as though there was a mysterious force that was currently evolving within his bloodline.

"The totem tree of the Evil God Race can activate the inheritance power in the bloodlines of the evil gods, causing them to awaken their evil eye. As for me, I possess the supreme bloodline of an extremely powerful demon and also cultivate the law of destruction. To think that I can borrow this force to awaken as well. Could it be that the blood running through my veins is of an equal grade compared to the evil gods or even stronger?" Qin Wentian silently mused. He knew how extraordinary his bloodline was. If he could also use the eye techniques of the Evil God Race, this meant that his bloodline was powerful enough to replicate or replace the properties of the Evil God Race completely.

The great roc breathed in and out, surrounded by the lights of destruction but he still continued absorbing. At the same time, his third eye peered forward. He wanted to see if he could use the evil eye techniques of the Evil God Race. Even if this mysterious force wasn't able to aid him to awaken completely, it would already be extremely good if he could comprehend the essence behind it.

Qin Wentian stopped right before the towering vine king. Although he wanted to reach the peak of the Demongod Mountain, his purpose in coming here was to increase his strength. If he received validation that he could cultivate the techniques of demonkind and the inheritances and treasures here were also suitable for him, he might be able to comprehend the true inheritance supreme techniques of the other greater demons other than just that of a mere Evil God Race.

More and more experts embarked on this ancient path. No one bothered the great roc who was at the initial-stage of the demon king realm. There were simply too many sacred beasts here, all of them greater demons of the Desolate Mountains. Unless it was the royal faction of the Sky Rocs, the golden-winged great roc being present here, all other rocs wouldn't attract too much attention.

Time slowly passed by, the power of Qin Wentian's third eye grew more and more terrifying. As he opened and closed his third eye, a faint but fearsome vortex of destruction could be seen, actually resembling the inheritance power of the Evil God Race.

"Has this roc mutated? He seems to have transformed." Someone at the side commented. And at this moment, Qin Wentian stopped his cultivation. His eyes glanced at the side and that expert only felt a terrifying destructive-attribute evil eye looking at him, trapping him within the evil eye domain. However, in the next instant, this feeling vanished completely.

Chapter 1419: The Kind-hearted Roc King

Qin Wentian in roc form continued on the ancient path. On his way, he saw many royal demonic beasts awakening their potentials as his heart was filled with shock. However, the determination in his eyes was as resolute as ever.

The appearance of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, as well as the appearance of the Demongod Mountain of the Desolate Mountain Range, both of these indicate a change in the current era. A demon god and ancient emperor might be born. And since in such a situation where he couldn't prevent others from growing stronger, he could only try to grow in strength faster himself.

Even though his cultivation base was on the weaker side when compared to these greater demons here, he still had to take a look at the peak of the Demongod Mountain.

Just like this, Qin Wentian finally arrived at a very high location of the Demongod Mountain. He was so high up that he could no longer see the foot of the mountain. Ahead of him, the divine glow of the god mountain cascaded down on the ancient path, creating an extraordinary road. Over there, there were many powerful experts who halted, not daring to proceed further.

Qin Wentian walked over there, he saw many humans from peak powers as well as extraordinary greater demons here. For those more powerful ones, they reached here first. The higher one's talent is, the more intense they would thirst to reach the peak of the Demongod Mountain. After all, they did have the capability to crave for more strength.

But despite so, right now, all of them showed hints of hesitation in continue to advance. At this moment, on the vast ancient path, Qin Wentian saw a group of experts attempting to head forward. However, their movement speed was extremely slow, the difficulty of taking each step seemed exceedingly arduous as boundless pressure pressed upon their bodies. There were none among the humans or demons who could fly up in the air, all of them could only walk on the path, advancing forward step by step. In addition, Qin Wentian also discovered that the movements of that group was very restricted, and they would occasionally be bombarded by energy attacks which appeared out of nowhere from the void.

"This space seems to be able to differentiate one's cultivation base." Someone spoke in a low voice.

"Mhm, didn't you all see that earlier, a demon emperor was restricted as well. The power of the surprise attacks also matched the level of his cultivation base. If one wanted to resist, they can only depend on the toughness of their flesh as well as their unique abilities. If they aren't strong enough, there's only a path of death for those who attempt to continue forward."

"Wanting to ascend to the peak? How would ordinary individuals have any chance at all? Only the kings of the royal factions among demons would have the ability to resist the pressure. This place is the Demongod Mountain of our Desolate Regions, the sacred land, the place of legend. Humans trying to ascend are merely courting death."

A cold and tyrannical voice rang out. After that, a giant demon ape stepped onto the ancient path. He immediately felt a terrifying pressure boring down on him but he still continued to resist it, advancing forcefully. Although his movement speed was slow, his eyes were filled with an incomparable determination.

“Chi…” A fearsome golden spear shot out from the void, aiming for the demon ape. This entire space seemed to manifest an extremely powerful formation.

“ROAR!” That demon ape let out a howl of anger as a demonic glow circulated wildly around his body. The spear shuttled through the air and pierced into his skin, yet it failed to break the demon ape’s defenses.

Qin Wentian quietly floated there. His gaze was sharp as he peered in the distance. It didn’t seem to be so easy to ascend the peak. One had to endure more dangers.

“BANG!” A figure whose surroundings were covered by lightning stepped forth, feeling the pressure before he began moving forward.

“An expert from the Thunder God Hall.” The eyes of everyone flashed. Not too long after, a shadowy figure shot out from the void, rushing towards him.

“RUMBLE!” Lightning blasted down from the sky, destroying the shadowy projection. A resplendent astral soul appeared and the space around that expert transformed into a domain of lightning and thunder, crushing the attack from the void.

Many of the experts here all stepped out one after another. When Qin Wentian saw them stepping on the pathway, he decided to join them as well. Just an instant after he stepped on it, he felt a supreme pressure pressing against him, wanting to make him kneel. His talons gripped the surface of the path as his legs pushed back against the weight. This pressure contained the same level of might as his current cultivation base’s aura, attempting to suppress him.

“This space isn’t for ordinary individuals to have fun in. What’s an ordinary roc like you doing here? You still have time to exit now and search for other opportunities to evolve yourself.” Right now, not far away from Qin Wentian, a lofty golden-winged great roc from the royal faction barked at him. The body of the roc was completely golden and radiated a golden radiance. When the surprise attacks from the void blasted towards him, they were all unable to break his defense. Clearly, in this space, demons with their tougher bodies, enjoyed an advantage when compared to humans.

“I wish to try it.” Qin Wentian’s voice was hoarse. Since he transformed into a roc, he naturally wanted others to assume that his true identity was nothing but a roc. He didn’t mind being held in contempt, this was the effect he wanted. Only by being looked upon in contempt, would those demon kings feel that he wasn’t qualified to contend against treasures with them, resulting in a sliver of opportunity for him.

“Truly ignorant.” A gigantic torch dragon passed by him, exuding an imposingness.

“Even an ordinary roc like him dares to try to climb to the peak of the god mountain. He is simply an ant trying to shake a tree, not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. However, he can be considered courageous compared to all of us who are hesitating here. What are we waiting for?” After that, the greater demons all stepped on the ancient path. They initially still wanted to observe things but their hearts were all stirred up by Qin Wentian. This actually caused Qin Wentian to be speechless.

“Courage? You mean ignorance and stupidity?” From another direction, a human cultivator laughed. He was someone from the Senluo Immortal Empire.

Qin Wentian didn’t bother to reply. The experts of demonkind and humanity continued to advance and there were a few extraordinary greater demons, who viewed themselves as someone with high statuses, even walked to the front and led the pack, exuding arrogance.

“Stand behind me.” At this moment, an old roc king walked to the side of Qin Wentian as he spoke. Qin Wentian’s huge eyes blinked. This…?

The cultivation base of the old roc king was extremely strong, at the peak-phase of the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. However, the pressure he had to endure was greater as well. When he saw that Qin Wentian was of the same race as him, he had the intent to help shield Qin Wentian.

“BOOM!” Golden meteors abruptly fell from the sky, emitting a whistling noise, smashing towards the crowd with a supreme destructive might, powered by a heavy gravity. This wasn’t just a single meteor but was an area of effect attack.

Given the movement speed of everyone here being restricted, there was simply no way for them to dodge this. They could only retaliate head-on.

An expert from the Gold Sun Race directly caused golden spears to materialize, as they shot outwards, piercing into some of the falling meteors.

The experts of the Heavenhold Race were even more tyrannical, directly lifting their arms and batting away the falling meteors.

As for the experts of the Paragon Sword Sect, they used their paragon sword qi to destroy the rocks. For experts of the Thunder God Hall, they used the power of thunder to blast apart the rocks. And for those of the Jiang Clan, their bodies shone with buddic light, transforming into arhat forms, granting them temporarily indestructible diamond bodies.

The experts from the Askheart Temple employed similar methods to the Jiang Clan. Buddhic light shot up into the sky as they too, utilized a form of an indestructible body technique.

For the various demons, they each displayed their abilities, protecting themselves.

The old roc before Qin Wentian caused a raging wind to form, ripping apart the falling boulders. He even split part of his energy to help Qin Wentian shatter the rocks falling onto him, causing Qin Wentian who had made his own preparations, to stand there, extremely startled.

The talent of this old roc king wasn't that high, but because he had cultivated for a long time, he was very proficient in the laws of wind. Although it took some effort, he was able to block the meteors for himself and even aid Qin Wentian.

"Many thanks" Qin Wentian's voice was low and hoarse-sounding.

"Be more careful later on. We are not from the same race as the royal faction golden-winged rocs. Our talent is inferior in comparison. This god mountain is too unfathomable, and countless attacks might be launched at any time. We are both the same race, I will help you if I can but you have to try and be more cautious as well." The old roc spoke in a low voice. Qin Wentian felt somewhat moved. Demons are usually brutal and cruel, often even to members of their own race.

The experts continued advancing. After that, different attacks manifested from the void and were aimed at them. The old roc actually blocked and negated several blows for Qin Wentian. He kept walking before Qin Wentian and Qin Wentian felt extremely embarrassed, even to the point of telling the old roc that he could manage it himself. However, the old roc refused to let Qin Wentian suffer the full brunt of the attacks. The old roc merely calmly spoke, "I've cultivated for far too long and am already extremely aged. This time, me coming here can be considered my last gamble and I don't really hold too much hope in it. I might die here despite the fact that my cultivation is higher than yours. You are still young, you have to seize all opportunities to grow. Try and save some of your strength and who knows, you might have a chance to finish walking this ancient path."

Qin Wentian was speechless when he heard that. As they continued to proceed forward, the attacks grew more and more violent but the experts here were still able to fend off the attacks. However, Qin Wentian did see an expert from the Nibblesky Sacred Sect dying. As a human, the strength of his body was already weaker when compared to the demonic beasts. He finally fell to the pressure of the attacks and died here.

Attacks after attacks, there seemed to be no end to it. The ancient pathway also seemed endlessly long, and the old roc king was already somewhat fatigued.

"Senior, there's really no need for you to shield me any more. I can handle it myself." Qin Wentian sincerely spoke.

"The path ahead is still long. Just save your strength." The old roc king spoke.

“Do you really expect an ordinary roc to be able to persevere all the way to the end? Old fellow, you still surviving until now, is already an extremely unexpected outcome.” A demon from the Evil God Race mockingly stated. Even he himself felt that it was extremely strenuous. To think that this old roc king was still surviving.

“This old undying thing is very interesting.” A spirit Ao laughed. He felt that these two rocs before him were extremely interesting and his manner was like watching a drama as he stared at them.

“If you guys are from my race, we might take pity on you and help you. Sadly, not all the roc races have submitted to us.” A powerful phoeroc spoke with unexcelled arrogance.

“This initial-stage demon king is still alive while we are all struggling assiduously to advance forward. He truly has it easy, hiding behind the back of a dying old bird.” A human sneered. This human was someone from the Sacred Sun Sect. He felt that it was extremely tough to continue forward as the mounting pressure grew more and more intense. To think that the old roc was still alive while the young roc bastard had also survived all the way due to the old roc’s protection. This made him extremely unhappy.

“Old senior’s determination and strength are both extraordinary. Why must all of you vilify him?” Qin Wentian could see that the old roc king was already very tired. He still had to endure the insults by these demons and humans.

At this moment, an intense sense of danger appeared. Numerous projections of demonic white tigers appeared from the void, letting out heaven-shaking roars as they rushed the group of experts. The expression of the old roc turned incomparably heavy as he spoke to Qin Wentian, “Be careful!”

“I will. Senior, please take care of yourself.” Qin Wentian nodded and replied.

“Hmph. You should have depended on yourself right from the start. Go to hell!” When the old roc king fought against the projections of the white tigers, that human from the Sacred Sun Sect actually blasted out a ball of sun flames towards the old roc. Distracted, the old roc was hit by both the sun flames as well as attacks from the white tigers. A moment later, the sun flames intensified and enveloped the old roc completely, burning him amidst the old roc’s screams of agony.

“Senior!” Qin Wentian’s expression changed. He wanted to move but soon discovered a tyrannical burst of pressure pressing down on him. He couldn’t move at all. Under his angry gaze, the old roc king was burned to death before his eyes!

Chapter 1420: Path of Ascension

Qin Wentian who was in roc form, radiated an intensely cold and terrifying demonic qi. He ignored the attacks from the projections of the white tigers, standing there like an immovable mountain. With a roar of rage, sharp swords actually manifested, piercing through the heads of those white tigers.

His eyes were like ice as he stared at that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect.

“Why? Are you unhappy?” The expert from the Sacred Sun Sect coldly spoke with disdain when he saw Qin Wentian’s gaze. “That old roc should have died long ago, I’m merely sending him earlier to his destination. You hid behind him and managed to last this long. This is just an insult to the rest of us. However, upon seeing this attack of yours, you should have some strength and a powerful fleshly body. Demons are demons after all, even if you aren’t from the royal faction of the roc clan, your body is still extremely tough. However, it isn’t so easy to fend off these surprise attacks, right?”

Qin Wentian didn’t bother to reply and continued coldly staring at that human expert. That expert had a look of contempt on his face. “If you want to take revenge, I can kill you any time, letting you accompany that old roc in a sea of flames. Do you believe it?”

“I do.” Qin Wentian spoke in a hoarse voice as he stared at the human expert. After that, he turned his glance away and no longer looked at him.

“Hmph.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect snorted disdainfully and continued on his way. In fact, he couldn’t even be bothered to kill Qin Wentian. For a mere initial-stage demon king, without the protection of the old roc, it would definitely die here. He couldn’t be bothered to act.

“If you can still survive, continue on the path. You might receive some good fortune and enjoy an evolution. At that point of time, you might have a chance to seek revenge. If not, they will simply crush you here, no difference from crushing an ant.” The expert of the Phoeroc race calmly spoke. The demon race had always looked up to the strong. If Qin Wentian could evolve, he would have a chance for revenge. If he didn’t have the capabilities to, he can just die now.

“That old roc should have died long ago. He couldn’t even endure much longer, yet he still kept shielding the young roc. He was simply courting death.” A greater demon from the Evil Eye Race coldly spoke. All of them had to put in so much effort to survive until this point, yet that young roc managed to reach here so easily due to the protection from the old roc king. This made them extremely unhappy, all of them treated it as an insult.

Qin Wentian didn’t bother with the voices of others, as though he didn’t hear their words of mockery and disdain. This place was the gathering point for the elite greater demons and humans of the immortal realms. Ordinary characters would never be able to reach this point. The reason why he was in roc form was that he wanted to keep a low profile. If he was here in his original form, he might not have been able to reach this point. Also, the stronger everyone was, the more brutal the future clashes would be. At this moment, everything was still relatively peaceful but once the clashes began, no one would show any mercy.

His eyes gleamed with a cold light as killing intent surfaced in his heart. However, he knew what he needed to do now, hence when he moved forward, his steps were as resolute as before.

The surprise attacks from the void continued as the experts continued resisting and defending. Qin Wentian discovered that those demons with superior bloodlines were extremely tyrannical. Although it was tough for them to advance forward, they could depend on their innate gifts to ignore the attacks as they continued forward. As for the humans, their talent was superb and had powerful innate techniques and law domains to aid them as they continued on.

Qin Wentian was as low-profile as ever, extremely inconspicuous. Everytime an attack appeared, he made it seem that he had to struggle very hard to resist it. When all the other experts saw that, their eyes flashed with cold disdain as their lips all curled up in sneers.

On this ancient path, Qin Wentian had personally seen the fall of many experts. Their movements here were all restricted and they could only depend on the toughness of their bodies as well as their innate talents to proceed on. Even for the greater demons of the royal factions, plenty of them died as well. The appearance of the Path of Ascension to the peak of the Demongod Mountain made it so that many demons were fated to evolve and even more would die here as well.

To the Desolate Mountains, this was a cruel evolution.

And to the humans of the immortal realms, those who could reach this point were all extraordinary characters but their achievements would still be limited. After all, this place, was a god mountain for demonkind.

Finally Qin Wentian, who was in roc-form, reached the end of this path. This path was traversed with much effort and when he finally exited, many gazes turned to him, including those greater demons and human cultivators who had traveled with him earlier. Their eyes were all filled with bewilderment.

“You actually survived and managed to exit the path?” The expert from the Sacred Sun Sect who killed the old roc king had an expression of interest in his eyes.

Even the phoeroc who spoke earlier felt extremely puzzled. Although a great roc can also be considered an extraordinary demon, Qin Wentian’s form was that of an ordinary roc and not the golden-winged great roc who are the royal faction of the roc race. How can he pass the trial so easily?

“Seems like the luck of this roc isn’t too bad. The death of the old roc king did manage to aid him after all.” An expert of the Evil God Race calmly spoke as many nodded in agreement. Seems like the death of the old roc wasn’t in vain. But even so, Qin Wentian was still on a path of death.

His cultivation base was after all merely at the initial-stage, he simply wasn't qualified to continue advancing.

Qin Wentian glanced before him, there were many experts gathered here, including some demon and immortal emperors. They stood at the furthest point, glancing at another path which led up to the peak of the Demongod Mountain.

Over there, several powerful greater demons stood guard. These greater demons weren't from the Desolate Mountain Range but were the protectors of this place. They didn't seem to have any lifeforce but each of them radiated a fearsome aura. They seemed to be puppet demons produced by this place, guarding this checkpoint, blocking those who sought to ascend.

Earlier, there were some powerful demonic beasts who tried but they were all knocked back, narrowly losing their lives.

“There are so many emperor-ranked characters.” Qin Wentian felt shocked in his heart. The speed of immortal emperors was extremely fast, they had all arrived here before even the immortal kings set foot in this place. He noticed that the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, as well as some extraordinary peak-stage immortal emperors, were here as well. One among them radiated a sense of holiness and was extremely dazzling just by standing there, beautiful to the extreme. Such beauty actually wasn't inferior to the number one beauty of the northern regions, Beiming Youhuang.

Behind that maiden, Qin Wentian saw some familiar figures. They were none other than Nanfeng Guhong and the other holy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan.

“Is she the Southern Phoenix Matriarch?” Qin Wentian mused. Even the matriarch of the Southern Phoenix Clan had personally arrived here. The Southern Phoenix Clan naturally possessed the bloodline of a phoenix and had a connection with the demon race. It was understandable why she would come here. Right now, the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range were on the verge of rising up due to this phenomenon, granting them a chance at evolution. The sacred academy has appeared in the immortal realms as well. Each major power could sense the changes coming and knew that the situation in the immortal realms would soon fall into chaos. They had to strengthen themselves and prepare for the worst.

Not only has the Southern Phoenix Matriarch arrived, but even Beiming Youhuang was here as well. She was standing behind a middle-aged man. This middle-aged man radiated an imperious feeling, incomparably majestic. He was none other than the Darknorth Immortal Emperor whom Qin Wentian had met before.

Also, Pei Qing who had a grudge with Qin Wentian was present too. He stood behind an old man. The aura of the old man was ethereal but extremely tyrannical. He should be the master of Pei Qing, a peak-stage immortal emperor. Although he held no claims over any territories, he had several disciples and great influence, able to stand on equal grounds with the Darknorth Immortal Emperor.

Other than these, there were also other immortal emperors here. Naturally, the number of demon emperors were greater and their auras felt more powerful, each akin to a desolate beast god, with might that could shake the skies.

“Everyone, when can the Path of Ascension be opened? We have already been waiting here for many hours.” Someone asked.

“There are still some who have yet to arrive. When everyone is here, the path will naturally be opened. There’s no need to ask to much now.” An ethereal voice drifted over in reply. Everyone here was a supreme expert and naturally wouldn’t lack patience. It was just that they were filled with too much anticipation with regards to reaching the peak of the Demongod Mountain.

There were also people speculating where did that voice originate from. Could it be that the Demongod Mountain was sentient? However, towards this mysterious mountain, no matter what happened, they wouldn’t feel too surprised about it.

In this place, even a supreme peak-stage immortal king would be inconspicuous let alone a mere initial-stage roc.

Qin Wentian stood at the back, glancing at these supreme characters as a faint sharpness shone in his eyes. All of a sudden, he glanced towards the direction of an extremely powerful nine-headed demon emperor. Each of the nine heads was like a demon god that had the ability to devour the skies. On the shoulders of this demon emperor, there actually was a snowy-white little puppy, appearing somewhat comical as though the puppy shouldn’t have appeared here.

“Brahma Heavenly Emperor?” Qin Wentian glanced at that greater demon. This demon actually resembled the statue of the Brahma Heavenly Emperor which he encountered in the city of ancient emperors. Could it be that Little Rascal’s race had a connection with the Brahma Heavenly Emperor. To think that the fearsome Brahma Heavenly Emperor which once dominated the entire immortal realms was actually a demon emperor.

Purgatory was on the other shoulder. In addition, both her and Little Rascal were actually already at the demon king realm.

“Seems like this supremely strong demon emperor granted them a bout of extremely good fortune. In addition to the lucky chances they encountered on the Demongod Mountain, they both have clearly evolved.” Qin Wentian silently mused. This god mountain was the number one legend in the Desolate Mountain Range. With such a powerful demon emperor protecting them, how could Little Rascal and Purgatory not evolve?

Little Rascal sneakily cast a glance at Qin Wentian, winking at him. Qin Wentian nodded slightly, but nobody noticed his micro movements.

After that, there were still experts who came out of the previous pathway. The Path of Ascension ahead was still locked. It seemed that the path they took earlier was just a trial for them to qualify for ascending the mountain. Hence, the spirit of the Demongod Mountain purposely made everyone wait until everyone was here.

Qin Wentian quietly walked to a side and laid down, closing his eyes in cultivation. Nobody would be bothered about the existence of an ordinary roc here.

This period of cultivation lasted quite a while and finally, a radiant light shone from the peak of the god mountain as the final Path of Ascension opened up, radiating a boundless and mystical aura.

Powerful auras gushed forth from the emperors as they stepped out with no hesitation, entering the Path of Ascension. To the demon emperors, this was a rare opportunity for them to improve. As for the humans, even if they couldn’t achieve any benefits, they still wanted to take a look for themselves at this legendary place of the Desolate Mountains.

The experts all entered one by one. Qin Wentian, who was in the form of a roc, also stood up and followed behind the others silently. At the instant he entered, he saw that the many experts before him had all been teleported to a sealed battlefield space. Countless demon spirits could be seen around, and winning against them was undoubtedly the test to continue advancing.

At the next moment, Qin Wentian only felt a terrifying energy enveloping him as he too, was brought into a separate space. In here, there was no way for him to gather any law energy. He could only depend on the current amount of astral energy within his body, as well as the strength of his physique.

It isn’t going to be so easy to advance up to the peak of the Demongod Mountain!

Chapter 1421: The Ordinary Roc that Kills Roc Kings

Qin Wentian could clearly see the other experts on this path. Many different spaces have opened up for each of the experts who attempted this and they were transported into battlefields that existed in different dimensions, no aftershocks would affect the others. He was precisely in one of the battlefields.

Each of the battlefields had a demon spirit in it that matched the cultivation base of the challenger. In fact, even some of the immortal and demon emperors had heavy expressions on their faces. Even they weren't confident of being able to pass this trial.

If they wanted to ascend upwards, their cultivation bases couldn't determine anything.

Before Qin Wentian, a gigantic roc appeared, staring at him with lofty eyes. The demon spirit was also at the peak-phase of the initial-stage of the demon king realm and had a fearsome aura.

"Bzzz~" The enemy roc instantly rushed over, his speed was like a bolt of lightning as he swiped out with sharp talons. In an instant, space itself seemed to be ripped apart. The power of the attack was incomparably strong.

The energy of heaven and earth couldn't be used in this battlefield, the combatant couldn't draw on astral energy as well. They could only depend on the current energy within them as well as the strength of their bodies. Undoubtedly, the advantages of the demons were greater while the conditions were clearly more unfavourable for humans.

Qin Wentian was in the form of a roc and maybe it was because of this, the opponent which appeared before him was a great roc as well.

His body radiated a terrifying law energy. Qin Wentian soared up the sky, choosing to clash head-on with his opponent, slashing out with his talons as well.

"BOOM!" Two powerful forces collided together as the enemy roc was forced back. Qin Wentian continued rushing forth like a streak of lightning. His talons were imbued with sword qi as he swiped it towards the demon roc spirit.

A same-level opponent just wasn't a match for Qin Wentian.

The battlefield vanished and Qin Wentian was able to continue forward. He could see the battles of the other experts. For demons, they would face an opponent of the same race as them. As for the human experts, they would face against powerful royal-faction demons.

On the two sides of the ancient path, the demonic qi was terrifying with many powerful demon puppets waiting there, protecting this place. More and more experts obtained victory and came out of the battlefield. There were some who glanced at the huge roc which was Qin Wentian, but they weren't bothered by his existence. An ordinary initial-stage demon king being able to survive up till now could already be considered a miracle. Seems like this roc must have evolved in this place earlier.

"Bzz~" A burst of spatial energy bore down. Qin Wentian didn't advance too much and was teleported to another battle space once again. This time around, a roc king covered in boundless lightning appeared before him. Its dark body crackled with purple lightning, terrifying to the extreme. This was one of the variant-races of the great rocs, a demon spirit of the Thunder Roc Race.

"RUMBLE!" He unleashed his powerful devil law energy. Qin Wentian was like a devil roc. A loftiness could be seen in his eyes as he rushed his opponent.

"It's actually a rarely seen devil roc. No wonder he can survive up till now." An expert from the Phoeroc race glanced at Qin Wentian. They then saw Qin Wentian fighting against the Thunder Roc. The powerful and tyrannical thunder attacks clashed against the equally fearsome devil attacks, and their battle space trembled violently from the impacts. However, at the very end, the Thunder Roc was vanquished, crushed by Qin Wentian.

Demonic beasts were usually born with great strength. They were also able to absorb astral energy innately to temper their bones and inner organs. As long as their comprehension levels reached the level, they could directly call upon the power of the constellation without needing to condense an astral soul from it. This indicated that for those greater demons with terrifying talent, they had a fearsome inborn advantage. An example was the Thunder Roc. That roc was able to use thunder-attribute laws and absorbed it right from its birth. How could it not be tyrannical?

Hence, for those demons with high talents, the greater their advantage would be. In addition to their fearsome bodies, the power of their attacks was naturally stronger when compared to humans.

However, Qin Wentian was actually able to crush the thunder roc head-on in a clash of strength. This was because the strength of his fleshly body was already sufficiently terrifying. Ever since he condensed his first astral soul from the 5th Heavenly layer, he had been absorbing astral energy from the higher-layered heavens to temper his body. In addition, the strength of his attacks was also boosted due to the superior quality of astral energy.

That, in addition to Qin Wentian's other techniques like God's Hand which could explosively increase his strength, as well as undergoing the baptism by the Sacred Luminance, all these factors made it so that the toughness of Qin Wentian's body didn't lose out and might even surpass the bodies of greater demons.

Qin Wentian continued on the path, slaying many demon spirits. The further he proceeded, the stronger the enemies became. One's cultivation base was useless here as every trial taker was treated fairly. For example, even if the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was here, could he gain any advantage when facing an emperor-ranked greater demon?

Also, the advantages demons held over humans were gradually growing clearer and clearer. The number of humans was steadily decreasing as the trial continued.

“This great roc is actually still alive?” A puzzled voice rang out. Those who could survive until now were undoubtedly experts who have fought with many powerful demon spirits and the great roc, which Qin Wentian transformed to, only had a cultivation base merely at the initial-stage of the demon king realm.

“This roc must be extraordinary.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect also stepped out. He could feel how overwhelming the pressure was now at this stage. Qin Wentian truly made him feel extremely surprised.

The expert from the Phoeroc race also glanced at Qin Wentian as a strange light flashed in its lofty eyes. However, at this moment, he didn’t really care about Qin Wentian. The end of the ancient path was within sights. Right now, the demon spirits fighting them already possessed the power of the royal factions. It was the final checkpoint and the strength of their opponents would definitely be extremely terrifying.

Before Qin Wentian, a golden-winged roc appeared. He was once again teleported to a separate battle space. This golden-winged great roc gleamed with a resplendent light, the look in its eyes was sharp enough to tear the wills of people apart.

“Fighting against a royal member of the roc race?” Qin Wentian silently mused. Back in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he once challenged the wills of the various greater demon statues. But now, a true supreme royal greater demon was before his eyes. It was no longer a battle of their wills.

The light of his law energy radiated from Qin Wentian, circulating around him. He didn’t dare to be the slightest bit careless when facing against such a powerful opponent.

“Swish~” That golden-winged roc radiated a terrifying might and in just an instant, with a flap of its wings, a gust of astral wind enveloped Qin Wentian completely, infused with an incomparable sharpness. The blades of wind sought to rip Qin Wentian into pieces, ignoring the distance between them. This was none other than one of the secret techniques which golden-winged rocs would learn after they awakened their hereditary memories.

Activating God’s Hand, Qin Wentian’s body shimmered with a brilliant light as the power of his demonic bloodline was unleashed as well. Around him, numerous shadows in the form of rocs appeared, protecting him. But even so, the wind blades easily tore apart his defenses, and they were even imbued with spatial energy, directly slamming into Qin Wentian, causing his body to tremble violently. “As expected of the king among rocs.” Qin Wentian’s gaze was sharp. The countless wind blades were very tough to deal with, he could only resist them head-on. If he was just an ordinary roc, he would be ripped into pieces within seconds. How could an ordinary roc defend against the golden-winged great rocs – the royalty among rocs? Although this place had good fortune everywhere, it was assured that only those supreme greater demons with unparalleled talent and potential would be able to reach the peak of the Demongod Mountain.

“Art of Truth – Body Protection.” Qin Wentian’s body suddenly gleamed with buddhic light as more roc shadows enveloped him protectively. He shot straight up into the air, choosing to move through the windstorm, shattering the storm with pure strength. The eyes of the golden-winged roc gleamed with coldness. It vanished from its spot in an instant and after that, only the sound of an explosion could be heard as Qin Wentian's body was flung through the air with great speed.

"Is that another secret technique?" Qin Wentian's body trembled. The speed of the golden-winged roc was too fast, instantly moving through space, he simply had no way to react at all.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian only saw the golden-winged roc appearing before him once again, slashing out with its talons, wanting to tear his head away. He shifted his position, managing to dodge the critical strike but his body was flung through the air once more from the impact.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" A streak of golden lightning flashed about. Qin Wentian only felt the defenses of his tyrannical body breaking down layer by layer. The speed of the golden-winged roc was so fast that it seemed it could teleport through space. There was simply no way for him to evade. If it wasn't for the fact that the astral souls he condensed were all from extremely high-layer constellations, he would already have perished underneath such overwhelming attacks.

The devil might from Qin Wentian churned wildly. With another boom, the golden-winged roc once again tore through space, its talons slicing down like a sword, wanting to tear Qin Wentian asunder.

Qin Wentian grabbed out with his own talons, while activating God's Hand. A third-eye appeared in the center of his brows as well and the light from it pierced out towards the golden-winged roc, causing it to feel as though something was stabbing its soul. At the same time, a terrifying vortex of destruction blasted out into the golden-winged roc at such a close distance.

Qin Wentian's other talon then shot out, grabbing hold of the golden-winged roc by its neck.

The golden-winged roc struggled violently and instantly shifted away, teleporting to another space. However, Qin Wentian had the golden-winged roc tightly in his grasp. He continued to intensify the pressure he applied while the golden-winged roc kept twisting and struggling, wanting to shake Qin Wentian off. However, there was no way Qin Wentian would give up such an opportunity. He was madly launching attacks whenever he could.

Qin Wentian's defence was simply startling. The surrounding experts all stared in shock when they witnessed an ordinary roc dominating a king roc from the royal-faction among rocs. Were evolved demonic beasts so terrifying? What was this world coming to? An ordinary roc could actually suppress a king from its race?

Finally, a screech of misery rang out. Qin Wentian's attacks grew increasingly violent, his strength now was even sufficient to slay initial-phase mid-stage immortal kings. Although this golden-winged roc was very powerful, it eventually could no longer hold on under the violent attacks from Qin Wentian and was slowly dying.

At this instant, all the experts here started to pay more attention to this seemingly ordinary roc. A mutated variant-type roc was actually capable of killing a roc from the royal-faction!

Chapter 1422: Demongod Palace

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply as he proceeded forward. Up ahead was another space. He had already reached the end of this particular ancient path and was getting closer and closer to the peak of the Demongod Mountain.

Other than Qin Wentian, there were some supremely powerful demons of the royal-factions who had already entered the space ahead. For example, an expert among the royal-faction of the Phoeroc race, a powerful golden sun roc, and quite a number of human cultivators. For humans who could survive until this point, there was no need to doubt their strength.

Among them, most were at the immortal king realm, and only a minority were at the immortal-emperor realm. These people were all peak existences of the various peak powers, but Qin Wentian wasn't acquainted with the vast majority of them. After all, he could only be considered a junior when compared to these people and he was a rising star who rose recently. With regards to these immortal kings, he wasn't familiar at all. Most probably, only those who entered the immortal-king level sacred academy would know of them. This group of immortal kings might be existences similar to him and Huang Shatian, people who could summon the wind and rain in the sacred academy.

However, there were also some familiar silhouettes that Qin Wentian recognized. For example, Beiming Youhuang and Pei Qing. These two were record-holders for the title of being the youngest immortal emperor in history, both possessing supreme talent. Pei Qing might be extremely arrogant, but there was no need to doubt his potential. Before this, Qin Wentian did spare a few glances at Pei Qing when he was fighting against the demon spirits. Pei Qing was really very strong. And as for Beiming Youhuang, she was the current record holder of the youngest immortal emperor in history, she was naturally extraordinary.

Other than this, there were also the maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan and a few immortal emperors among them that had reached this step as well. Not all the immortal emperors who came here manage to succeed. For those who reached this step, they are undoubtedly immortal emperors with the highest combat prowess as well as talent. After all, their opponents were fearsome emperor-ranked demon spirits of the royal-factions, they could only be here if they managed to defeat their opponents.

“Little Rascal.” Qin Wentian glanced over. Little Rascal had also managed to pass the trial. Beside him, that powerful demon-emperor wasn't there. Although the nine-headed emperor was powerful, he couldn't defeat an emperor of his race that was of the royal-faction.

Purgatory was still in combat. She was fighting against an immensely strong vermillion bird, madly clashing with all her might. Purgatory could be considered a variation-type vermillion bird beast. She was birthed from soul-form and had been existing within Qin Wentian's bloodstream being nurtured for a period of time. This battle was very difficult for her.

“Ignition? Is that her innate ability?” Qin Wentian glanced at the battlefield. Purgatory’s body was combusted in flames, as her surroundings burned. Her combat prowess grew stronger and stronger and the battle situation started to become more advantageous for her. Finally, she obtained victory and defeated her opponent.

Qin Wentian was a little puzzled. When did Purgatory awaken her innate ability? Also, why does her ability seemed to resemble his bloodline power? However, this wasn’t the moment to ask such questions. He continued walking forward, and when he encountered the expert from the Sacred Sun Sect, he sneered. This expert actually failed to pass the trial. His aura was weak and he was clearly injured, narrowly avoided dying when he fought the demon spirits earlier.

His eyes flashed and when he saw Qin Wentian who was in the form of a roc walking over, his eyes gleamed with coldness.

“Trash.” Qin Wentian’s eyes turned sharp, flaring with disdain and mockery.

“How dare you.” The expert from the Sacred Sun Sect didn’t expect that this ordinary roc, who was insulted by him earlier, actually daring to call him trash now and view him with disdain.

“Do you think you have the qualifications to speak with me in this manner? If there’s an opportunity to do so, I will kill you for sure.” Qin Wentian’s voice was low and hoarse, filled with killing intent. Although he had no real relationship with the old roc king who died, it was a fact that the old roc had treated him kindly and it was a person from the Sacred Sun Sect who actually sneak attacked, killing the old roc king at the end. Qin Wentian had to avenge this no matter what.

“Kill him for me.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect spoke to one of his fellow members who passed the trial. The eyes of that person flashed with fire, revealing killing intent. Qin Wentian hurriedly stepped back, retreating with the speed of lightning.

“King, save me!” Qin Wentian’s body flashed as he hid behind a golden-winged great roc. This was an extremely powerful golden-winged roc who had passed the trial. The golden-winged roc coldly glanced at that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect, causing the human expert to have a heavy expression on his face. That human expert coldly spoke to Qin Wentian, “Daring to insult one of my comrades yet you only know how to hide behind someone?”

“My cultivation base is temporarily weaker than yours or I would have snuffed your lives out with a flick of my wrist. With a king of my roc race here, do you dare to fight?” Qin Wentian hid behind the golden-winged roc and spoke. Although his performance in the trial was extraordinary, he understood how to be low-profile when it was needed. After all, he was still too weak. Many human experts and demons here could easily kill him.

“Hmph.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect had a cold look on his face. The golden-winged roc icily stared at Qin Wentian, “Your performance in the trial earlier wasn’t bad. But although you are a mutated roc, you are still far from my match. You are nothing but an insignificant being.”

“Understood.” Qin Wentian nodded humbly, showing respect. That golden-winged roc arrogantly nodded, like he was very satisfied with Qin Wentian’s attitude.

“Although this roc became a variant-type, he is after all, just an ordinary great roc, he doesn’t have the bearing of a king.” Many greater demons calmly spoke as they glanced at Qin Wentian.

Little Rascal watched everything with interest, with a twinkle in his eyes. This fellow was just too shameless. These humans and demons looked down on him, but they would surely soon pay a price for their actions.

“Let’s go.” That golden-winged roc spoke. Leading the way, many experts followed after. They have already reached the end of the ancient path and the way to the peak appeared before their eyes.

Would they soon arrive at the peak of the Demongod Mountain?

At this moment, many greater demons had expressions of excitement on their faces while a look of pondering could be seen on the faces of the humans. This was the legendary ground of the Desolate Mountain Range, littered with bouts of good fortune everywhere. Ever since they entered, treasures that could evolve demons could be found all around. Most probably, there should be a mystical treasure which could awaken the powerful greater demons of the royal-factions at the peak of the mountain.

And now, they would soon arrive at the very peak. What would be there exactly?

Naturally, for some of the humans proficient in demonic arts and techniques, they too hoped that they would be able to gain some benefits here. To them, this could be considered a tempering exercise.

And as time passed by, they finally saw an incomparably imposing palace before their eyes. This palace was so tall that it’s top touched the clouds and it seemed to be a place where divinities resided. Could a demon god really exist here?

At this instant, reverence sprang up in the hearts of many demons. This was the endpoint of the number one legendary place of their Desolate Mountain Range, the Demongod Palace that exists at the peak of the god mountain.

The majestic Demongod Palace had vivid and lifelike murals of greater demons from various races engraved on it. There actually seemed to be life within them. A moment later, the drawings within the murals actually came to life as they walked out, causing every expert here to freeze.

“This…”

Their hearts pounded with shock. After that, a bright light shone, cascaded down from the sky. The law energy here no longer existed, and not only that, all the experts felt their strength being suppressed as the light descended onto them.

“My cultivation?” At this moment, the eyes of a demon emperor narrowed as he exclaimed.

“What’s going on?” An immortal emperor’s eyes flashed as his cultivation base was restricted.

The immortal king realm. Their strength was actually restricted to the immortal king level, stuck at the initial-stage.

The light contained a cultivation restrictive properties, and wherever it landed, the cultivation bases of all were suppressed with no exceptions. Now, all the greater demons and humans here, only had the strength of an initial-stage demon or immortal king.

The murals engraved on the palace continued to produce fearsome demons. Their auras were also restricted to the initial-stage of the demon king realm but their numbers were terrifying. These monsters walked towards them, and among them, there were several royal-blooded demons from the various races.

This time around, the opponents they faced were no longer a singular entity, but rather, a group of demons.

The door of the palace was open but nobody dared to move recklessly. With so many royal greater demons here at the same level as them, they might be killed if they tried anything.

“God mountain, seems like it’s a trial to select the most elite out of all the greater demons.” A greater demon of the Desolate Mountain Range sighed. Undoubtedly, the one who passed this test would definitely become the pinnacle existence in the Desolate Mountain Range and inherit the mantle of the demon god, becoming a demon god that only existed in the legends.

“They are coming.” Trepidation could be seen in the eyes of everyone. The monsters launched their attacks and these monsters that were produced from the murals, were all at a level equivalent to a saint beast, with many of royal blood among them.

“King, lead us to kill these monsters!” Qin Wentian stood behind the golden-winged roc and a powerful phoeroc as he spoke. The suppression of cultivation base was actually a good thing for him. However, at such a moment, it would be the best to remain low-profile and endure further until he finds an opportunity to enter the Demongod Palace.

The Phoeroc race’s experts and the golden-winged roc stepped out, leading the way. The eyes of the golden-winged roc gleamed with sharpness, manifesting a windstorm that gusted forward, aiming for the monsters.

A royal phoeroc screeched, unleashing a terrifying attack which caused fearsome golden flames which blasted forth, capable of incinerating all existences.

As for the golden sun crows, they produced rays of sunlight that interweaved together, as they too, began slaughtering the monsters.

The human experts all unleashed inconceivably powerful techniques. Although their cultivation bases were suppressed, everyone who could reach here was most definitely an extraordinary existence. Experts from the Sacred Sun Sect called upon the power of the sun, experts from the Beast God Sect used submission techniques to subdue some of the monsters, and experts from the Hundred Refinements Sect instantly refined some of the enemies.

As for the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, although her cultivation base was suppressed, she was still incredibly magnificent. A dazzling light shone from her and the projection of a phoenix burning with flames appeared behind her. She was like an unexcelled empress of the world.

Beiming Youhuang was exceptionally beautiful, radiating an icy qi which caused those around her to feel extremely cold. The monsters before her all froze into ice statues directly.

Qin Wentian stood at the back, watching everything as his eyes gleamed with a terrifying light.

Chapter 1423: Breaking Out of the Siege

The experts continued forward, fighting against the monsters, instantly causing a scene of annihilation. The demons and humans, who had survived up till now, were all extremely powerful individuals. Even though the monsters from the murals were saint beasts, they weren't able to cause any obstruction. This group proceeded smoothly, becoming something like an undefeatable existence.

The golden-winged roc and powerful phoeroc before Qin Wentian, cleared the path, killing everything. None of the monsters could stop them.

However, at this moment, a few powerful supreme greater demon monsters appeared. A blood-colored golden-winged roc, an ancient golden beast, a silver gigantic ape all stepped forth at the same moment, unleashing their ancestral techniques as a great battle occurred.

"How terrifying, these monsters are so powerful, this baobao is frightened." A juvenile voice rang out. A snowy-white puppy hid behind the group of experts and fled about the battlefield, causing many to roll their eyes. Which shameful demon was this? They already killed their way to this place and now, this puppy-form demon said that this baobao was frightened?

Although Qin Wentian himself was already shameless enough, when he heard the shameless voice of Little Rascal, he almost fainted. This rascal is truly something else. Earlier when Little Rascal fought against the demon spirits in the trial, Qin Wentian could see that the nine-headed demon emperor had nurtured Little Rascal well, teaching him many supreme abilities. The Little Rascal today was no longer the Little Rascal of the past. Clearly, sending Little Rascal to the Desolate Mountain Range was the correct idea. He managed to find a supreme demon of the same race as him.

"Little roc bird, seems like we are weaker people who share the same fate. Let's work together and kill these monsters!" Little Rascal ran over and jumped onto Qin Wentian's back.

Little roc bird?

Qin Wentian almost stretched his hand out to give Little Rascal a slap. However, he controlled himself and replied, "Okay. Don't worry, with the kings of my race here, no matter how powerful the monsters are, they wouldn't be able to threaten us. Since our strength is weak, it's better that we stay back and watch."

The experts fighting in front almost coughed out blood. Everyone here were peak characters of their respective powers, yet now there were actually two demons who were this shameless among them.

More and more monsters appeared. A cold light flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes but Little Rascal unceremoniously flopped himself on Qin Wentian's back and laid there, completely having no intent to fight. He then spoke, "Little roc bird, I'll leave this to you."

Qin Wentian swiped out and unleashed demonic techniques, causing numerous roc projections to manifest as they tore through the monsters. This caused everyone to understand that although this ordinary roc was shameless, and although he wasn't a pinnacle existence, since he could arrive here, he must have won against a king of his race. There was no need to doubt his combat prowess. Although luck might be a factor in his earlier victories, he was still very powerful.

Their group continued slaughtering the monsters as they moved towards the Demongod Palace. These monsters seemed endless, many experts felt somewhat helpless as they fought on. There were a few extraordinary saint beast monsters that were extremely tough to handle.

"Why does there seem to be more and more enemies? What should we do?" Little Rascal was still on Qin Wentian's back as he lazily spoke.

"Not a problem, we shall stick close to my king." Qin Wentian spoke with pride and hurried towards the phoeroc and golden-winged roc. These two powerful demons opened up a path through slaughter and were really immensely powerful. However, at this moment, the golden-winged roc suddenly turned into a streak of golden light, shooting through space as he vanished.

"BOOM!" A terrifying destructive whirlpool suddenly appeared, wanting to swallow the golden-winged roc. The golden-winged roc reacted quickly, explosively retreating as he summoned a spatial wall to block the absorption effect.

A greater demon from the Heavenhold Race started tossing giant rocks with incredible speed, smashing the monsters, helping to open a pathway.

"ROAR!" A fearsome howl rang out as a towering blood ape appeared, swinging out with a cudgel that destroyed the giant rocks.

The entire scene turned into chaos as fights broke out. Everyone was in disarray, fighting smaller-scale battles.

At this moment, Purgatory arrived at Qin Wentian's side. The three of them shamelessly scurried to and fro, avoiding the battles. The monsters that targeted them were fewer in comparison to the others, and those who attacked weren't as powerful as compared to the enemies that attacked the golden-winged roc.

There was a supreme greater demon which slaughtered his way to the very front, possessing immense talent and fearsome techniques. However, numerous monsters were produced and trapped him in a siege, bombarding him with countless attacks. Very swiftly, the supreme greater demon was actually killed. This caused the hearts of all the experts here to tremble. They silently warned themselves that unless they had absolute confidence, it was best to not attempt to charge in front solo or they would be besieged and die in the same way.

Despite the growing number of monsters, the group of experts continued gaining ground, moving closer to the Demongod Palace. There were simply too many powerful greater demons and humans among this group.

Qin Wentian continued evading, he and his two comrades were at the very back and hence, the strength of the monsters targeting them weren’t that great.

Right now in front of them, although Beiming Youhuang’s cultivation base was suppressed, darknorth qi still radiated out with full power as her astral soul was unleashed. The monsters were all frozen solid directly as they neared, swiftly losing their lives. Qin Wentian’s heart trembled slightly. This woman was already so powerful despite her cultivation base being restricted. How terrifying would she be if the cultivation base restriction wasn’t here.

Pei Qing was also very powerful. He was able to produce clones which had a substantial part of his strength. Right now, three Pei Qings were fighting valiantly, all of their combat prowess was extraordinary. Clearly, he must have cultivated a special technique.

As for Jiang Zihua of the Jiang Clan, he is the elder brother of Jiang Ziyu, and he possessed mysterious buddha-attributed arts and techniques. An example was their diamond vajra bodies which boosted their defenses immensely. They were even able to disregard space to kill their opponents, stealing the lives of the monsters away with a single finger strike. Jiang Zihua’s palm also seemed capable of turning the monsters he struck into solid gold before a fearsome heat melted them as they died, their forms turning into liquid.

That human expert from the Sacred Sun Sect that wanted to kill Qin Wentian was also very powerful. Rays of the sun radiated from him, the scorching temperature capable of burning everything. The ordinary saint beasts which neared him would directly combust. Only royal-blooded saint beasts could withstand the power of his attacks.

“These monsters are produced by the Demongod Palace and a batch of them would rush out after a certain period of time. Our speed of killing cannot rival the speed of their production. We have to summon our strength and break through their lines to reach the palace as soon as possible or eventually, all of us would be overwhelmed and none will succeed.” A voice rang out. Everyone also had noticed this pattern.

Everyone inclined their heads, the killing grew more and more violent as they frenziedly advanced. Each of the experts released their own light, making this space incomparably resplendent. The greater demons unleashed their innate abilities while the humans unleashed their secret arts and astral souls, felling many monsters.

“Should we share in the burden?” Little Rascal asked in a juvenile voice.

“Mhm, but since our strength is lower, we should observe the weaker monsters and pitch in our help later to deal with them.” Qin Wentian nodded as he spoke. He also felt that they should do something to help clear the monsters or if not, at the very end, they might not have the chance to charge into the Demongod Palace. At this moment, there was only a single reason for him to keep a low-profile. He was waiting for an opportunity but if the monsters kept piling up, there would be no meaning for him to continue acting weak any longer.

After this, the three of them started to attack the monsters. Qin Wentian used God’s Hand and unleashed several roc techniques. Ordinary monsters had no way to resist and died by the dozens. They continued advancing forward and if it wasn’t for the presence of some extremely powerful monsters, they would have already broken out from the siege and entered the palace.

The Demongod Palace got nearer and nearer and the experts all started to be more cautious. At this moment, they understood that only a portion of them would be able to break out from the monster siege and once that portion of them succeeded, those remaining would have to face even more monster attacks, their hopes completely destroyed.

“From now to the next batch of monsters appearing, there’s still a little time left. Our chance is here.” Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Little Rascal and Purgatory. Not only them, the other experts all knew that the opportunity would soon arrive. Right now, all of them had their own plots and schemes and they started to hold back in their attacks.

“A few vile demons blocking our way here. Scram.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect was actually the Saint Child of his sect. When he saw that Qin Wentian and his group started to advance to the front, his eyes gleamed with coldness as sun flames radiated from him, blasting towards Qin Wentian’s group in an extremely terrifying manner.

Qin Wentian’s eyes were like ice. Was this human expert trying to sabotage them from breaking out of this siege? If that’s the case, that human expert can just die.

“Kill him.” Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Little Rascal and Purgatory. Purgatory flashed, moving ahead, blocking the sun flames while Qin Wentian and Little Rascal shot out with the speed of lightning.

“Perish!” A third eye appeared in the center of Qin Wentian’s brow, manifesting a vortex of destruction which surrounded the human expert of the Sacred Sun Sect. Balls of fire sprung up and circulated around him, but Qin Wentian instantly unleashed several powerful demon techniques that were powered up by God’s Hand, extinguishing the balls of fire. That human expert howled in anger as rings of sun flames blasted out from him, wanting to incinerate Qin Wentian.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal turned golden, his entire body turning gigantic. With a loud roar, a supreme power of devouring radiated forth, engulfing the rings of sun flames with ease.

In an instant, the attacks by Purgatory and Qin Wentian arrived. The countenance of that Saint Child from the Sacred Sun Sect drastically changed, painted by terror. He stared at the terrifying eyes of Qin Wentian, there was no trace of cowardice, fear nor shamelessness at this moment. He finally understood that this roc had been acting weak from the start just to find an opportunity.

“BOOM!” A powerful energy directly destroyed him as his eyes flashed with an intense reluctance.

“LET’S BREAK OUT!” Qin Wentian roared. Him, Little Rascal and Purgatory then sped towards a direction with no hesitation. This time around, these three shameless individuals didn’t hide behind anyone. They were speeding towards the entrance of the Demongod Palace with their fastest speeds!

Chapter 1424: Peak of the Demongod Mountain

The three silhouettes were fast to an extreme. Qin Wentian was in the center, Little Rascal on the left and Purgatory was on the right.

At this moment, the earlier three cowardly demonic beasts suddenly became so courageous, rushing ahead in tacit understanding, exhibiting perfect coordination, causing many experts to suddenly stiffen.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch glanced at Little Rascal and Purgatory before turning back to the great roc in the middle as a faint smile flickered in her eyes. So, this was what was going on.

For people present here now, they were either greater demons from the Desolate Mountains or peak geniuses from the major powers of the immortal realms. The weakest among them were immortal kings and there were also many immortal emperors present. Qin Wentian wasn't on the same level as them and even if they had heard of Qin Wentian's name before, they absolutely had no understanding with regards to the two demonic beasts that always followed by Qin Wentian's side. But of course, if the people here now were those who entered the sacred academy back then, they might be able to guess at some things.

Up ahead, many monsters surged over, blocking them. Their eyes were cold and there were even quite a few extremely powerful royal saint beasts within.

“Ignite.” Qin Wentian's demonic bloodline activated. At this moment, the demonic energy within him seemed to have ignited as a supremely powerful demonic qi gushed forth from him. He resembled an unexcelled roc king and not only him, Little Rascal who turned golden, as well as Purgatory, also started to ignite the power of their bloodlines, very similar to Qin Wentian.

This scene caused everyone to be stunned. These three demonic beasts seemed a little strange. Why were their innate abilities so similar to each other? These three demonic beasts were all of different races.

Naturally, the people here didn't have time to think too deeply about this. All of them started to break out from the monster siege at the same moment. Time was almost up and another batch of monsters would soon be produced. They had to seize this opportunity to enter the Demongod Palace so that they could find a chance to survive.

For a moment, violent auras engulfed the area as thunderous roars could be heard.

“KILL!” Qin Wentian led the way, roaring with anger, swiping out with his talons wanting to lacerate everything. His body was brimming with a towering devil might as the manifestations of eight greater demons shot out, transforming into a fearsome vortex of destruction capable of swallowing everything. The monsters tried to retreat but they were all engulfed within. Purgatory blazed with fire as she blasted out purgatory flames, sending them into the vortex.

“ROAR~” The little puppy with the juvenile voice earlier had completely transformed into a king among demons, gleaming golden and unexcelled in this world. With a single roar, he seemed capable of devouring the heavens, making all the demons prostrate themselves before him. As his golden claws grabbed out, the entire space in that direction seemed to be locked down as everything within it started flying towards him as they got devoured. The monsters there were all trembling unceasingly.

“Heaven Devouring Beast?” There were some greater demons whose eyes glowed with a terrifying sharpness. Heaven Devouring Beasts are supreme-graded saint beasts, exceedingly rare in numbers. Even in the Desolate Mountain Range, only a rare few could be found. And because of their limited numbers, they had no way to become a truly strong power among the greater demons of the Desolate Mountains. Before this, that powerful nine-headed demon emperor was the one nurturing and guiding that little puppy. Nobody had ever thought that that snow-white puppy would actually be a heaven devouring beast and a variant-type at that? Why did this puppy only have a single head? This was the reason why they didn’t recognize it from the start.

However, from the feeling of the aura as well as the shocking scene before their eyes, it was clear to all that this was an innate ability that only heaven devouring beasts would have. They were able to swallow everything, even the sky itself. Those monsters were all forcibly transformed into smaller sizes as they flew into Little Rascal’s mouth due to the devouring effect.

Legends had it that a fully grown heaven devouring beast would smoothly enter the demon emperor realm with no fear of bottlenecks. At that time, they would even possess the ability to swallow the moon and stars. The legend also states that their appetite had no limits, even able to swallow the sky. These were one of the most supreme-graded saint beasts among the greater demon races.

The three previously inconspicuous demons suddenly launched their attacks, instantly sweeping past the monsters. When the experts saw this scene, how would they miss out on this chance? They also frenziedly rushed forward, preparing to break out of the siege.

Other than Qin Wentian and his group, there were also a few other extremely powerful greater demons near them, easily breaking past the line of monsters.

“Bzz~” A terrifying attack landed on all the experts, including Qin Wentian and his group. In that instant, Qin Wentian and the others felt their bodies turning stiff. A moment later, a voluptuous female monster appeared, guarding the entrance of the Demongod Palace. Her beautiful eyes were incredibly demonic, capable of petrifying all things with just a single glance.

“Medusa’s gaze.” The hearts of all the experts trembled. Over here, there was actually a legendary demon, the Medusa. Her innate ability could petrify everything her gaze landed on.

However, how powerful were these experts here? Given the situation that their cultivation bases were the same, even if they were hit by the petrifying effect, they would still be able to struggle out. Explosions kept echoing out and those monsters started to surround them again. The path they opened up earlier was once again closed up as attacks from the saint beast monsters were launched their way.

“SCRAM!” Qin Wentian howled as devil might towered up into the sky, wanting to make these demons submit. His terrifying will was like the king of all living things. At this instant, how would he resemble an ordinary roc? He was more like a king without a crown. He was the true king among rocs or to better put it, a king of this world. Everyone had to submit to him and even the Medusa was shuddering.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal instantly manifested a terrifying vortex that sought to devour the Medusa. The Medusa once again turned her eyes over, wanting to petrify Little Rascal’s maw. The two of them were in a deadlock, using their terrifying innate abilities.

“There’s not much time left.” Qin Wentian silently cursed. This Medusa was too tough to deal with. The Demongod Palace was right before their eyes yet it was so difficult to enter it. Everyone who reached this point would have their cultivation bases restricted, starting from an equal point. The difficulty was simply sky high.

If they wanted to break out of the siege, they first had to destroy the Medusa.

“Night.” Only to see that at this moment, a torch dragon rushed over, causing the sky to change color. The hearts of everyone shuddered as the sky dimmed. The effect of the Medusa’s eye was negated completely.

“AWOOO~” How would Little Rascal miss this chance? The strength of the devouring effect intensified. When the torch dragon turned night back into day, the Medusa was already devoured by him.

“RUSH IN!”

All the experts had this notion in their minds. There was no more time left. The monsters of the murals on the walls of the Demongod Palace were starting to shimmer. Another batch of monsters would appear soon.

“Go!” Qin Wentian’s body was like a true roc, arcing through the sky beautifully as he unleashed the treasured techniques of the greater demons, slaughtering the monsters in front of him. Little Rascal and Purgatory both sped ahead beside him. These three demons were cresting on the waves of invincibility. Even the royal saint beasts had no way to obstruct them.

Thunderous rumbling sounds echoed out, the three demons broke apart the line of monsters and directly rushed into the Demongod Palace.

The experts behind all unleashed their prowess with no reserve, activating their bloodline powers and secret arts, killing their way forward. Everyone knew that they had no time left. Another batch of monsters would appear very soon.

“BANG, BANG!” A resplendent light appeared. Jiang Zihua’s body was covered in the brilliant glow. He stomped the ground and leapt through the distance, ignoring all attacks as he directly rushed into the entrance.

A phoeroc and golden-winged roc also grabbed this chance, utilizing their greatest speed as they managed to rush in as well.

A gigantic golden dragon roared. His gigantic scales shimmered brightly, blocking the damage as he shot forth as well.

All the experts unleashed their strongest abilities, attempting to enter. In just an instant, many experts entered. Since the people before them had already opened a path up, how could they miss this excellent opportunity?

In the blink of an eye, many of those who entered were extremely powerful characters at the peak of demonkind and humankind. A few moments later, the murals started producing the next batch of monsters, blocking the remaining experts. For a period of time, chaos erupted as the sky changed color. The experts were all forced back as the monsters blocked the pathway.

Opportunities are always fleeting. It seems that the remaining experts had already missed the chance.

Many greater demons stared at the blocked path ahead. To think that an ordinary roc was actually the leader, leading the two other cowardly demons to open up a path, instantly unleashing a supremely strong combat prowess, and manage to seize the opportunity to enter the Demongod Pall. This was simply inconceivable.

“Was that not the innate techniques of humankind? I can sense different law attribute energies used by that ordinary roc earlier, even if he is a variant-type roc demon, there’s no way for him to have so many kinds of law-attributes, right?” Pei Qing spoke. He was blocked at the last instant and stuck outside, missing out by just a single step. Although he didn’t really care about this sacred land of demons, he still wanted to prove himself. But earlier at that key instant, Beiming Youhuang had entered while he failed to, and was stuck outside.

“I also feel that he isn’t a demon.” A greater demon spoke.

“How did an initial-stage immortal king survive up till now? He must have been keeping a low-profile right from the start. Earlier, if he revealed that he was a human, there is no possible way for him to reach this step.” Pei Qing coldly spoke. What a sinister fellow.

All the experts nodded. Indeed, only at the very end were all their cultivation bases restricted. If that ordinary roc didn’t keep a low profile right from the start, it wouldn’t even have any chance at all.

“Who is he?” Many of the experts mused silently, but they soon stopped thinking about it as they stared before them.

Upon seeing the monsters, they all knew that they no longer had any opportunities because the numbers of their groups had dwindled. Some of the peak elites had broken through the siege and entered the palace. But now, given their weaker combat strength, it would be as tough as ascending the heavens if they wanted to enter.

Qin Wentian, Little Rascal and Purgatory were the first to enter the Demongod Palace. They glanced about, there are no doubts, they were currently already at the very peak of the mountain.

Within the palace, ancient divine stone walls could be seen with millions of murals engraved upon them. There were marks of all sorts of saint beasts and greater demons and they were also incredibly life-like. In fact, Qin Wentian even noticed that some of the drawings were moving. This caused his heart to pound rapidly but he soon regained his calm after a moment. This place wasn't the same as the outside, these monsters wouldn't come out of the murals.

"Is this place the nest for all royal saint beasts in the demon world?" Qin Wentian silently mused. After that, the experts who managed to enter all respectively appeared here one after another, all of them captivated by the millions of murals on the stone walls!

Chapter 1425: Bloodline Ability: Burning Rebellion

Qin Wentian stepped forward, walking towards the depths of the palace. There was a statue there, projecting the figure of a supreme primordial demon god. The peak of the Demongod Mountain seemed to be an incarnation of the demon god's real body. With just a glance, he could sense how majestic this place was.

"Demon god? What race of demons is it from?" Qin Wentian silently speculated as he advanced.

"Hold it right there." Behind him, a cold voice rang out. Qin Wentian halted his steps only to feel a powerful aura enveloping him. He turned back to see a powerful phoeroc glaring at him. The phoeroc coldly spoke, "You are a human, not a demon. You are not qualified to enter the place of the demon god."

Qin Wentian right now was still in the form of a roc. He saw many of those experts entering staring at him, including the human experts. The people here were all extraordinary, all of them could already tell that he was a human and not a demon.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch also entered. The hint of a smile could be seen in her eyes. This fellow shocked everyone. No wonder the Evergreen Immortal Emperor would regard him so highly. Even Evergreen himself failed to enter, yet this brat has actually succeeded.

Naturally, this also had something to do with the techniques and arts he cultivated. This was a test designed for demons, and the advantage of demons or those who had a stronger physique was naturally greater as well.

"It's you." Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian. Before this, she already guessed who Qin Wentian was. Little Rascal's actions were too obvious and when the two of them joined forces, Beiming Youhuang was reminded of what happened in the city of ancient emperors back then. This was none other than the demonic beast who seized away her inheritance.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. After that, his figure transformed back to a human.

"The demon god mountain is a sacred land. Since we are already here, this means that we all have the qualifications to obtain everything that could be obtained from here." His eyes stared at the phoeroc as he spoke. After that, he turned to Beiming Youhuang and spoke, "Youhuang, to think that we met each other again so soon. Our fate is truly destined by the heavens."

"You…" A cold intent radiated from Beiming Youhuang. This rascal was actually teasing her? How dare he!

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch had an expression of interest on her face as she smiled, "This young little fellow actually has such great guts, even daring to tease Princess Youhuang, the beloved daughter of the Darknorth Immortal Emperor."

Beiming Youhuang felt somewhat awkward when she heard the Southern Phoenix Matriarch's words. However, because the status of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was extraordinary, she didn't say anything. Qin Wentian then bowed to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, "Qin Wentian pays my respects to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch."

"There's no need to be so polite." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch laughed. "Evergreen and Thousand Transformations regard you so highly, and you are indeed extraordinary. My clan's little lass Yunxi cannot forget you and you even dare to tease Princess Youhuang.

"Phoenix Matriarch, me and Princess Youhuang were already acquainted with each other and can be said to be exceptionally fated, linked by an undeniable connection." Qin Wentian shamelessly continued, causing the chill radiating from Beiming Youhuang to be even colder.

"Stop speaking so glibly." Beiming Youhuang icily spoke.

"Youhuang, I can understand why you misunderstand me. Back then, I was forced because of the circumstances…"

"Stop talking!" Beiming Youhuang interjected when she saw Qin Wentian about to reveal what happened in her palace back then.

"Alright, I won't say anything. But I just want to tell you that there's no need for you to view me with hatred." Qin Wentian shrugged.

"You still have the mood to banter?" A powerful demon emperor laughed. His gaze flashed with coldness. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch was acquainted with Qin Wentian, this meant that it wouldn't be realistic for him to deal with that human. However, this place was the peak of the demon god mountain, a sacred land of inheritances for demonkind. These humans were already fated not to obtain anything.

On the walls of the palace, inheritances of the different demon races could be seen.

With a flash of their silhouettes, several supreme demons moved towards that statue. Resplendent light continuously flowed from it, radiating a mysterious air. They wanted to see what it was exactly.

"Little fellow, you guys should go there as well." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke to Qin Wentian.

"Many thanks, Matriarch." Qin Wentian bowed to her. Luckily, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch came in here as well. If not, those greater demons would definitely not let this go so easily. They had no wish to see humans entering the sacred land of the demons.

“Off this baobao goes then.” Little Rascal sped towards the statue. In an instant, the divine glow from the statue cascaded down and enveloped Little Rascal, exuding boundless light from the great dao, entering Little Rascal’s body. Very swiftly, Little Rascal closed his eyes, as though in enjoyment.

Not only him, the other demons who moved towards there, also felt the light entering their bodies. Their demonic blood churned wildly in their body as demonic qi gushed forth from them ferociously.

“Purgatory, go on as well.”

“Mhm.” Purgatory nodded. With a screech, she flew forward. Qin Wentian smiled as he too, stepped forward, moving towards the radiance of the demon god statue.

The divine light of the statue contained a mysterious energy that could form a resonance with their bloodline powers. Qin Wentian’s body began emitting surging sounds as his blood churned wildly. He closed his eyes, quietly feeling the sensation. The him at this moment could clearly feel the power of his bloodline.

The surging sounds grew more and more intense, like the ocean waves stacking together, slamming into the shore. The waves of his blood rushed against his bones as the demon god radiance infused into Qin Wentian’s body. Qin Wentian felt that his bloodline power was slowly evolving.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch also stepped forward. She stood there and observed quietly, bathing in the divine glow. Her supreme figure stood there solidly, as the Matriarch of the Southern Phoenix Clan, there was nothing significant enough to move her heart. Hence, even in this situation, she was still incomparably calm, slowly feeling the effects of the divine glow of the statue.

She continued advancing forward. Stretching her hand out, she touched the statue as a smile appeared on her face as she glanced upwards. This solemn face of hers had a mature beauty that could stir the souls of all men. In this world, only a rare few would be able to see such an expression on the Southern Phoenix Matriarch’s face, being lucky enough to witness her beauty.

“This is the traces of gods.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch mumbled. When she came here, she didn’t harbor too high a hope for this sacred land of inheritances for demons. Although she possessed the phoenix bloodline, she was, after all, a human cultivator. She merely wanted to see what sort of place the legendary Demongod Mountain was, and was there truly a mystical existence on it.

And right now, she had received verification.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch closed her eyes and stood there quietly, silently savoring the feeling. She didn’t bother with the evolution of the other greater demons, which would likely result in their bloodlines awakening as they became more powerful. Everything in her heart now, was the divine glow from the statue, the traces of gods.

Time slowly passed by, the humans here were all either feeling this mysterious source of energy, or was observing the demonic inheritances engraved on the walls. Occasionally, a greater demon would evolve, their demonic qi growing more intense as their bloodline grew more vibrant. They knew that greater demons who reached here and received the blessing of the statue, would receive an ultimate transformation, awakening the potential in their bloodline.

Purgatory was transforming, her purgatory flames grew more powerful and her body turned crystalline. Compared to before, she felt much stronger. Little Rascal was transforming too. The purest golden light emitted from him, exhibiting the aura of royal kings.

Not only them, Qin Wentian was also in the midst of a transformation. His bloodline started burning and resplendent light flowed around him. The faint projection of a demon king from the primordial era formed behind him, resembling his face. This projection was burning, giving off intense heat, yet was also akin to a divinity protector whose sole purpose was to protect him. He eventually gradually formed a resonance with this previously uncontrollable entity, as his aura frenziedly surged upwards.

However, there was no way for his bloodline to evolve at all. It was as though this mysterious divine energy was insufficient to evolve his bloodline. It could only serve as a catalyst to fully activate and unlock his bloodline's potential.

"So, all the bloodline powers I thought I had control over before, was nothing more than me fumbling about in the dark." Qin Wentian mused. He opened his eyes as a vibrant redness shot out.

He stood there unmoving, but his aura changed, becoming even more extraordinary, like a natural king of this world.

"Bloodline ability: Burning Rebellion." Qin Wentian mused silently. This wasn't a name he came up with himself, but something his bloodline told him.

Several greater demons all had their own innate bloodline abilities that were able to be strengthened and awakened, further evolving.

Right now, Qin Wentian discovered that the bloodline of a supreme-graded primordial greater demon flows in his veins, he also possessed an innate bloodline ability.

Burning Rebellion, this innate ability could ignite all the energy within his bloodline, causing his body to increase in strength and toughness, further reinforcing his attacks, giving him the strength to defy the heavens. The weakest effect would at least be an increase of two times. But given Qin Wentian's talent, he could sense that if he activates that, the increase wouldn't merely be by a factor of two times.

Other than that, his defenses would naturally be strengthened and the avatar formed by the bloodline protection would resemble him as well as having the ability of demonic transformation, capable of becoming any type of demon. If he unleashed demonic arts and techniques, the power would explosively surge, becoming even more terrifying.

Upon having a deeper understanding of his own bloodline powers, Qin Wentian understood that his prior activations were nothing but an embryonic form of his bloodline abilities, something that had yet to fully take form!

Chapter 1426: Even More Shameless

Qin Wentian's bloodline ability was unlocked but he wasn't in a hurry to leave. He glanced at the surrounding experts. The transformations to human experts weren't that obvious but the greater demons had clearly evolved and became more terrifying. By basking in the divine glow of the statue, demons were able to unlock the potential of their bloodline and become extremely strong.

In the future, for greater demons who walked out of here, they would become eligible to fight for the throne of the Desolate Mountain Range. In the legends, this was an era where a demon god would appear. This was somewhat similar to the legend of the sacred academy, saying that an ancient emperor would appear in this era. Be it the immortal realms or the Desolate Mountain Range, a brand new era would soon unfold.

Purgatory and Little Rascal were still in the process of transforming. Staring at them, Qin Wentian smiled. The changes to Little Rascal was more obvious. That snowy-white puppy was now a gleaming golden and his aura was that of royalty. His body might not be as large as other greater demons but it gave off a sense of perfection. A fearsome devouring will could also be felt from him.

Qin Wentian saw that there was also an extremely beautiful figure not far away, basking in the divine glow. That female figure was incomparably holy, like a maiden from the nine heavens, who mustn't be blasphemed. That was none other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. Even the powerful her was benefiting from the divine glow. At her level, what she sought after and was pursuing, was none other than the elusive traces of gods, a level higher than immortal emperors. After all, she was already standing at the pinnacle of the immortal realms.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes and continued feeling the mysterious energy that was triggering the potential in his bloodline. Sadly, this energy wasn't able to trigger the potential of his other bloodline. That second bloodline power of his that was symbolized by the white candle flames of healing, causing him to be impervious to all poisons, was still as mysterious as before.

After he fully came in control of his demonic bloodline, the mysterious energy from the divine glow of the statue started to temper his body and bones, infusing them with power. The toughness of his body grew stronger and stronger and the comprehension of his law attribute energies also deepened.

Right now at this place, the law energy fluctuations were no longer suppressed. Qin Wentian was able to contemplate and comprehend them. Many other experts were doing the same as well, all of them in a state of complete focus.

In the blink of an eye, more than a year had passed. During this year, more human experts and demons arrived at the demongod mountain. But even so, those who could reach the demongod palace at the very endpoint were only a rare few. Clearly, it was a thing of immense difficulty to achieve.

A great earthquake rocked the Desolate Mountain Range and the immortal realms. Everyone was worried, what sorts of evolution would the countless greater demons within the Desolate Mountain Range go through? How terrifying would they be? If they really invaded the immortal realms, it would truly be a calamity.

With regards to the Desolate Mountains in the past, the people of the immortal realms didn’t have too much of an impression of this. They only knew that the mountain range was located at an extreme northern area and that that place, was a paradise for demonic beasts. However, during this year, rumors and legends of the Desolate Mountain Range were swiftly circulated around the immortal realms.

For those supremely powerful greater demons, how strong would they be after the evolution? Many people started to say that the strength level of the Desolate Mountain Range would surpass the immortal realms.

After several months passed by, Qin Wentian’s third eye abruptly opened, shooting out a beam of terrifying light. In an instant, a terrifying destructive law domain formed. Within this domain, streaks of destructive light flowed about. Each beam was as sharp as swords.

The third eye closed, as the law domain vanished. Qin Wentian then opened his eyes, which gleamed with a bright light.

“I could really cultivate the innate ability of the Evil God Race, borrowing the power of my bloodline to form a second domain. My first domain shall be powered by God’s Hand while my second domain will be powered by the Evil Eye.” Qin Wentian mused. He could still continue to perfect this second domain and make it into an extraordinary attack technique.

“The blood of a greater demon flows through your veins?” A cold voice rang out. Qin Wentian turned over and saw a beautiful face appearing before him. He smiled, “Yup, if not why would I enter this place? Youhuang, why did you come here?”

“Although the demongod mountain is a sacred land for demonic beasts, there definitely are still other sources of good fortune for us. Look at the inheritances left on the walls. Even for humans, we can gain much comprehension from them.” Beiming Youhuang calmly spoke. From her perspective, she didn’t seem to have too much beef with Qin Wentian any longer. Maybe she slowly got used to his teasing.

“Mhm, even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch is quietly comprehending them. From this, we can tell that this place is extraordinary. Although our cultivation base is far from the Phoenix Matriarch, we should treasure this rare opportunity.” Qin Wentian nodded. “Youhuang, let’s just forget about the misunderstandings between us. Although you can be considered my senior, the fate we share in the Darknorth Immortal Mountains actually made me feel that our connection grew closer. There’s no need to care about propriety about juniors or seniors, you can just call me Wentian.”

“Shameless.” Beiming Youhuang coldly stared at Qin Wentian.

“Youhuang, given your beauty, if you smile I’m sure the entire world would be dazzled. Why must you keep that cold expression on your face.” Qin Wentian sighed again. Beiming Youhuang was utterly defeated by the shamelessness of this fellow. Only to see that right now, Little Rascal had also awakened. He blinked his eyes and glanced at Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang. Was there something going on between the two?

“Are you in love with this beauty?” Little Rascal walked over in a free and unconstrained manner.

“Eh…” Qin Wentian glared at Little Rascal. “What nonsense are you talking about. The relationship between me and Youhuang is very deep. How can it be something understandable by you?”

Little Rascal blinked, clearly, he didn’t believe so.

Beiming Youhuang glanced at Little Rascal as her eyes flashed with a strange light.

“What are you looking at? Although you are beautiful, I won’t be seduced by you. I know you want the portion of inheritance I have. But if you want me to give it to you, you have to promise me a condition.” Little Rascal spoke. He knew that Beiming Youhuang knew that he had a portion of the Brahma Heavenly Emperor’s inheritance.

“What is the condition?” Beiming Youhuang asked.

“Our Wentian is someone with extraordinary talent and has cultivated with this king ever since we were both young. In the future, he would unite the immortal realms and assume an incomparably majestic position. You marry Wentian as a concubine and I will pass the portion of inheritance to you. How about it?” Little Rascal spoke.

“RUMBLE!” A wave of coldness suddenly enveloped this space, causing Qin Wentian to shiver as he silently cursed at Little Rascal. Where did he find the guts to say such a thing? It wasn’t for the cold relationship between him and Beiming Youhuang to finally thaw slightly. This time, he would surely be in for it.

Beiming Youhuang’s gaze was incomparably icy as she stared at Little Rascal. As the daughter of the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, as a princess of the Darknorth Empire and the record holder for being the youngest immortal emperor in history, how glorious were her achievements? Leaving aside her beauty, this little puppy actually wanted her to marry Qin Wentian as a concubine?

Little Rascal trembled a little and hid behind Qin Wentian before speaking in a low voice. “So cold… Beauty, you have to promise not to be angry okay. Isn’t this baobao currently discussing matters with you?”

“Oh? Are you not referring to yourself as ‘this king’?” Beiming Youhuang’s voice was extremely glacial.

“It’s just a joke, right Wentian?” Little Rascal transformed back to his puppy form, stretching his head slightly out adorably, making others to not bear to act against him.

“Yeah, Little Rascal is more mischievous. Youhuang, you don’t have to lower yourself to his level.” Qin Wentian nodded. This little fellow was getting more and more out of hand, even daring to make such a joke. He only vaguely teased Beiming Youhuang but this rascal actually made such a claim saying that he wanted Beiming Youhuang to be married to him as a concubine. If this was heard by the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, Qin Wentian would most likely be chopped into pieces.

“That’s right. Beauty, I’m going to pass the inheritance to you now and you don’t need to promise me any conditions. You just have to remember how well this baobao treats you. As for the matter between you and Wentian, be it becoming a wife or a concubine, this baobao will not bother with it any longer.” Little Rascal’s juvenile voice sounded out again, causing Beiming Youhuang’s beautiful eyes to flash. “Are you for real? Can you endure the damage if I take your inheritance away?”

“You are underestimating this baobao.” Little Rascal leapt out, right onto Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang caught hold of him, only to see that the little puppy was nuzzling his head into her chest area before lazily lying there, with a look of total enjoyment. He even winked to Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to be speechless and dumbfounded. What a bastard…

“Only now did this baobao know that the Brahma Heavenly Emperor is of the same race with me. Not only that, I’m from the royal-faction of this race. The inheritance of the Brahma Heavenly Emperor is the same as what I’ve awakened. Why would I still need the portion of his inheritance? Also, I can transfer it to you out of my own will and it wouldn’t injure me.” Little Rascal spoke with pride. “Elder sister, you are really so beautiful. What is your name?”

Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines. He discovered that right now, things had nothing to do with him, he had become a bystander.

Lifting his foot, Qin Wentian walked towards the walls of the palace. Behind him, a voice that suddenly became sweet and gentle rang out, “Beiming Youhuang.”

“Sister Youhuang!” Little Rascal’s juvenile voice sounded out again. Qin Wentian’s steps were unsteady. This rascal…he was even more shameless than before. Seems like Little Rascal has really grown up.

“A heaven devouring beast is one of the rarest types of demons, even in this boundlessly vast Desolate Mountain Range. To think that the Brahma Heavenly Emperor was actually a heaven devouring beast. In fact, the ancient records have almost no trace of royal-blooded heaven devouring beasts. You can be considered exceptionally lucky that this little puppy is from the royal-faction of the heaven devouring beasts. It’s just that I didn’t expect the royal-blooded heaven devouring beasts to be so adorable, completely unlike the ordinary nine-headed members of his race.” The voice of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch rang out.

Qin Wentian glanced over, “Senior Phoenix Matriarch. Little Rascal has been mischievous since young and loves to speak nonsense. Nobody would have expected that he has a royal bloodline.”

“It should be true, for demons with high-graded bloodlines, the longer they cultivate for, the more terrifying they would be. However, their growth process might be slow and only when their cultivation bases reached a certain level would they unlock the potential of their bloodline as well as their innate abilities. This little fellow awakened so late, his bloodline must be of a supreme grade. In the future, he might be able to live up to the legends and devour the stars and moon.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke, while Qin Wentian had a look of incredulous disbelief on his face. He then glanced towards Little Rascal who was nestling in the bosom of Beiming Youhuang.

This adorable and shameless Little Rascal, he didn’t look like a terrifying supreme greater demon of the legends from any aspects!

Chapter 1427: Improving by Leaps and Bounds

Naturally, if Little Rascal really was from the royal-faction of the heaven devouring beasts, Qin Wentian would be happy for him. After this awakening, Little Rascal would definitely be more terrifying and powerful than before.

"Senior Phoenix Matriarch, I will go and take a look at the murals and engravings on the walls." Qin Wentian spoke. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch smiled, exuding an extraordinary aura. However, there was no way for Qin Wentian to be so casual to Beiming Youhuang.

"Go on, the potential of your bloodline should have already awakened too. You will naturally gain plenty of benefits here." The Phoenix Matriarch smiled and nodded. Qin Wentian nodded back and headed towards the walls as he stared at the murals of the saint beasts.

There were several greater demons being depicted: Phoenix, Vermillion Bird, Dragon, Xuanwu Turtle, Kirin, White Tiger, Taotie, Hundun and many others. There were even some extremely rarely-seen saint beasts. Qin Wentian walked towards the mural of a golden-winged roc and stared at it. After that, a strand of his will gradually entered as a shocking scene appeared in his mind.

In his mind, a golden-winged roc appeared, shuttling through the air with a flap of its great wings, traveling an inconceivable amount of distance. The feathers were as sharp as the sharpest swords in the world, able to slice apart all existences. Everywhere it passed by, the void would split apart. The force of its wings was unparalleled, carrying with them an indomitable and devastating might.

Before the roc, a single flap of its wings produced a terrifying spatial storm that could lacerate everything.

The roc possessed several extremely powerful techniques and abilities, and Qin Wentian could sense that he might be able to comprehend everything. Right now, he quietly cultivated. Given that his bloodline was already at the initial-phase of awakening, and that he was able to cultivate the innate ability of the Evil God Race, this also indicated that he had a chance to comprehend the true techniques of the other greater demons, including their ultimate innate abilities.

However, he discovered that he wasn't able to comprehend the innate ability of the golden-winged roc. But since he had always been using a roc-type movement technique, he could comprehend deeper insights with regards to the speed of the golden-winged roc. Although he couldn't directly teleport through space, it wasn't a problem for him to instantly move about within a short distance. Having a good movement technique would always prove to be invaluable. He wasn't willing to miss this opportunity.

Qin Wentian was immersed in comprehending these as well. After a long time, his strand of will retracted as he glanced at the other saint beasts, trying to find something which he could comprehend from.

“Is that a demonic elephant?” Qin Wentian saw a terrifying looking saint beast. It resembled a demonic elephant as well as a divine elephant. Its size was gigantic, like a primordial giant mountain made of metal. Qin Wentian sank his will within the mural.

The divine elephant let out a trumpeting roar, causing the sky to shake. The four legs stomped down, giving Qin Wentian a feeling that he was enveloped by a supreme suppression domain. Boundless might descend from the heavens, incomparably heavy. After that, as the divine elephant stepped forward, the sky and earth started to crumble. Everything was being suppressed and destroyed, turning into dust.

“What a powerful innate technique, capable of suppressing an entire world. Also, there’s an incomparably heavy gravity. If my opponent is truly suppressed to such a state, I can easily crush him.” Qin Wentian silently mused. He was proficient in the law attributes of force and suppression, as well as the tyrannical devil-attribute law. For his attacks, he had the law attributes of sword and destruction. If he could use the innate ability of the divine elephant to form a law domain, it would definitely possess a fearsome strength. Even if he couldn’t completely crush his opponent, that domain in addition to the Evil Eye and God’s Hand Domain, how terrifying would his combat prowess be?

As he thought till here, Qin Wentian started to cultivate seriously, in a state of complete focus. For this cultivation, another long period of time passed. At the immortal king level, wanting to use his bloodline potential to ‘copy’ the innate ability of a supreme saint beast to form a law domain, how could it be accomplished so easily?

Also, as he probed further, he gained deeper insights with regards of the establishing of a law domains.

After a long time. Qin Wentian’s third law domain was finally formed with the support of his bloodline power. It was able to unleash his might to the extreme state. He named this domain as the Divine Elephant Domain.

Right now, Qin Wentian comprehended a total of three domains. The God’s Hand Domain, the Evil Eye Domain and the Divine Elephant Domain. Each of the law domains constituted different combinations of law energies within. On the path of immortal king, his steps were more and more stable.

He continued on to comprehend the innate abilities of other supreme greater demons. Not only him, many of the other human experts were trying to gain comprehension from the murals as well and all of them did receive some benefits.

Qin Wentian also saw the innate abilities of some extremely rare supreme greater demons. For example, he saw a greater demon he had never seen before. This demon was a dream tapir and was able to swallow the dreams of people, or create a dream to trap his opponent within. Such an innate ability was extremely unique and although it wasn’t a supreme attacking technique, there were many ways for it to complement other attacks. However, Qin Wentian might have cultivated the dream law attribute, but such a powerful innate ability was still beyond his reach, it was something he couldn’t cultivate.

He could only seek out the innate abilities of other greater demons to see if he was able to gain any comprehensions from them. Time passed very quickly and unknowingly, three years have already gone by. Qin

Wentian and the others were still in the Demongod Mountain and have yet to exit. At this moment, Qin Wentian was sitting before the divine statue basking in its glow, quietly comprehending the insights he gained during this period of time.

With the Myriad Law Records, as well as the experience he gained when he cultivated before a mirror in the sacred academy back then, he sat there and started to perfect the innate abilities he learned.

In Qin Wentian's consciousness, he was practicing a sword art before a floating mirror in the air. His figure wielded a sword and a marvelous energy gushed forth from it, seemingly dream-like, yet containing a tyranny that belongs to the devil path.

When Qin Wentian moved, his movements were like a great roc, as quick as lightning. Slashing out with a single sword, his attack resembled a dream, a sword of phantasm, a sword of nightmares, causing people to feel that it was illusory. However, when the sword light landed, a terrifying sonic boom sounded out, akin to the sharp talons of a golden-winged roc raking through the world, exhibiting an incomparable tyranny.

In addition, the sword attacks continued. Even before the effect of the first sword strike ended, the second sword had already slashed out. The style of this sword changed precipitously, turning into a stab. It still possessed that dream-like quality, causing everyone to be filled with confusion. However, what was unchanging was the speed and tyranny of the attack, as well as that explosive sonic boom, filled with the boundless might of a divine elephant.

The sword attacks continued. For the third sword, it swept forward with an indomitable momentum, akin to the birth of a divine dragon, capable of destroying everything in heaven and earth.

After three sword strikes, Qin Wentian paused.

"The three sword strikes are connected, able to transform at any time, or could be fully integrated together. It's really not easy but if I can master this sword art, the power it unleashed would definitely be extremely terrifying. If I unleash it using God's Hand, how tyrannical would it be?" Qin Wentian silently mused. This sword art was something he created based on the insights he garnered during this period of time. Tyrannical prowess and each of the sword strikes resembled the innate ability of a greater demon, terrifying to the extreme. Also, the spirit of this sword art was something he created based on studying the dream tapir's ability. Whenever he attacks, his opponent would be besieged by a nightmare and enter an illusory state, losing their sense of reality. For opponents who didn't have a strong will or powerful law attributes, just a single strike from this sword art would be sufficient to kill them.

He named this sword art as the Nightmare Sword Art, but it still wasn't perfect yet. He continued cultivating, wanting to integrate all the innate abilities of greater demons he had comprehensions of into it before perfecting the entire set, becoming a set of moves where he could unleash at will while complementing his powerful movement techniques.

The comprehension and perception of humans were innately higher than demonic beasts. He naturally wanted to make good use of this advantage. During the midst of perfecting this sword art, Qin Wentian also attempted to perfect his saber and halberd arts, comparing each to the other as he improved further.

He would occasionally visit the murals on the walls to ascertain his insights, repeating it day after day. His cultivation continuously improved as his strength grew stronger and stronger bit by bit. His usage of law energy grew much more proficient as well as his body of laws becoming more and more flawless.

Naturally, all of this happened silently. Nobody knew how much he improved by, or what he comprehended. Not only him, the other greater demons and humans here had all improved tremendously due to this lucky chance.

Right now, seven years have already passed. The shock the immortal realms felt had not reverted back to a tranquil calmness. Although the hearts of people were still filled with trepidation, they knew that it wouldn’t be so soon for the greater demons to exit the Demongod Mountains. How would the process of wanting to finish their evolution and transform into something more powerful only takes a short while?

During these years, Little Rascal had transferred the portion of inheritance from the Brahma Heavenly Emperor he received to Beiming Youhuang. His relationship with Beiming Youhuang became better and better, and he would often snuggle in her bosom. This simply made Qin Wentian speechless as he was filled with a faint sense of worship with regards to the shamelessness of Little Rascal.

There were some demons who were naturally gifted at charming the ladies. Even for those maidens with empire-toppling features, they wouldn’t be able to escape the paws of such a demon.

What made Qin Wentian even angrier and depressed was that when Little Rascal was flirting around, his cultivation speed wasn’t inferior to his at all, also enjoying a tremendous improvement. The innate talent of Little Rascal truly evoked jealousy in the hearts of people.

Naturally, Qin Wentian’s own improvements were extremely great too. Today, he was sitting below the divine elephant statue and basking in the glow of the Demongod Mountain, a brilliant light suddenly flashed through the sky, cascading downwards and landing on Qin Wentian. After that, an overwhelming law energy fluctuation radiated from him. This caused Beiming Youhuang’s eyes to flash as she glanced at Qin Wentian. After that, she only saw a radiant smile on Qin Wentian’s face. Under the divine glow of the Demongod Mountain, his smile seemed to contain a demonic charm that was extremely attractive.

However, Beiming Youhuang wasn’t attracted by that. Instead, she could sense that Qin Wentian had broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm.

“This cultivation speed…” Beiming Youhuang felt her heart shaking. Earlier, this fellow just entered the immortal king realm in the Darknorth Immortal Mountains. Only how many years has it been? He actually broke through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm so quickly? Although this was because of the Demongod Mountain as well as the initial awakening of his bloodline, his speed of cultivation was still fast enough to make Beiming Youhuang feel shocked. In the past, didn’t Qin Wentian say before that his cultivation timing hasn’t even exceeded two hundred years?

If he continues on with such momentum, would he break through and become an immortal emperor before the age of 300?

Chapter 1428: He was that roc?

Qin Wentian’s cultivation base broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. However, he was at the initial-phase of it.

In these seven years, he had experienced the initial awakening of his bloodline potential and he had gained some control over his bloodline power, created new innate techniques, established new law domains. All these improvements were considered extremely vast, he definitely had improved faster here in comparison to if he chose to cultivate alone elsewhere.

He used a mere short seven years to enter the mid-stage of the immortal king realm and this could be considered a miracle of sorts. Even he himself hadn’t expected that he would be able to do so.

He continued to cultivate and comprehend the insights, quietly solidifying his foundation.

For those who came in the Demongod Palace, not a single one left. They all knew that this was an extremely rare opportunity. Unless the palace vanished, it was impossible for the experts within to leave here. Even the powerful Southern Phoenix Matriarch wanted to stay within, let alone immortal-king level experts.

In addition, all of them cultivated on their own, trying their best to grow stronger. In fact, none of them found trouble with the others. All of them were seizing opportunities to strengthen themselves. After all, there wouldn’t be a second opening of the Demongod Mountain.

Outside the palace, on the ancient path leading up to here, countless experts were still there, exploring the boundlessly vast area, hoping to find more good fortune. The demonic beasts of the Desolate Mountain Range naturally wouldn’t leave. More and more people came by, even the humans came here in droves, all of them powerful characters in the immortal realms.

At the ten year mark, today, an earthquake rocked the Demongod Mountain. A phenomenon could be seen in the sky as countless people inclined their heads, staring upwards. After that, they saw the sky slowly changing color, causing the light to gradually dim.

In an instant, a chain reaction occurred. The glow from the divine statue started to dim as well, the darkening effect spread throughout the Demongod Palace and mountain, as everyone stared about in shock. After that, the statue shimmered in and out of existence, as the divine luster left it, turning it back to an ordinary statue.

Sometime later, the murals all lost their life-like qualities too, becoming just ordinary drawings. There was nothing more unique about this place.

“The Demongod Mountain…” The hearts of the greater demons all trembled. Their sacred land, was it going to vanish just like that?

The light vanished, the god mountain transformed back into an ordinary one. Although it was still towering and majestic, it was no longer the mountain of miracles. Outside the palace, no more monsters would be produced from the murals. The remaining monsters were all petrified, turning into stone statues, causing the combatants to stiffen. There was nothing more mystical about this place.

After that, this boundlessly vast mountain was slowly corroded away by the darkness. Everything here gradually disappeared, including the treasured plants which could cause ordinary demons to evolve.

Ten years, the Demongod Mountain finally disappeared, transformed back into an ordinary mountain range.

Countless demonic beasts inclined their heads and stared at the sky, their hearts filled with disappointment and frustration as they saw their sacred land disappearing. In fact, there were even many demonic beasts who prostrated themselves and howled in misery to vent their emotions.

This was their Demongod Mountain, the legend of the Desolate Mountain Range. Was it going to vanish just like that.

“The Demongod Mountain is finally disappearing.” Many human experts heaved a sigh of relief. During these ten years, demons could be seen evolving everywhere. They had to watch but couldn’t do anything to stop it nor could they evolve. Every day, the strength of demonkind was increasing, causing an intense sense of crisis to fill their hearts.

Luckily, today was finally here. With the disappearance of the Demongod Mountain, things would return to their normal calm. Let’s hope the demons of the Desolate Mountain Range return to where they came from and wouldn’t invade the immortal realms. Naturally, this was merely what the humans were hoping.

Even if the greater demons had no intentions to invade the immortal realms, there were so many powerful demons who had evolved. How would they return just like that? They would definitely stir up a storm regardless.

Currently, in the Demongod Palace, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch calmly watched as everything happened. She was as magnificent as ever, her flawless countenance made it seem as though she was a maiden from the nine heavens. She stood there but a sigh could be heard from her. The traces of gods had disappeared.

“Ai, what a pity. This baobao hasn’t cultivated enough yet.” Little Rascal spoke in a depressed manner.

Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. This rascal had evolved further during the time when the Demongod Mountain was disappearing and had broken through to the mid-stage of the demon king realm as well. His cultivation speed and benefits were much greater than him, yet he still said that he has not cultivated enough? What’s even more nonsensical was that Little Rascal had never worked hard in cultivation at all. He simply laid there lazily in the soft bosom of Beiming Youhuang most of the time, allowing the divine glow from the demon god statue to activate the potential of his bloodline as he continued to evolve.

However, Qin Wentian could still understand how Little Rascal improved so much. After all, the potential of Little Rascal's bloodline had been fully unlocked, causing him to evolve and become a real heaven devouring beast. He who was of the royal-faction, naturally received benefits that far surpassed the humans. Although Qin Wentian also had the bloodline of a supreme-graded demon, his base was after all, still human. The benefits he gained was merely control over the power of his bloodline. He didn't undergo an evolution as the power of the Demongod Mountain was insufficient to evolve his bloodline.

Even now, Qin Wentian still had no idea what race his bloodline was from. With the innate ability of Burning Rebellion, it must definitely be extraordinary, allowing him to mimic the innate abilities of other demons.

"Big brother Qin." Only to see Purgatory walking over. She was in her human form, her fiery figure was dressed in a charming red and her aura more extraordinary than before. Her entire being also exuded a demonic charm far greater than the past.

"Purgatory, your cultivation base should have already been stabilized at the late-phase of the initial-stage. Not bad." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

"I'm not as fast as big brother Qin." Purgatory smiled charmingly. Most probably, she didn't know how great her charm was.

"Little Purgatory, there's still some distance between us." Little Rascal inclined his head and spoke.

Qin Wentian directly smacked Little Rascal on his head. "Scram."

"Hmph, what's the big deal? I will scram then." Little Rascal spoke in his juvenile voice and directly leapt into the bosom of Beiming Youhuang, lying on the soft twin peaks, and he kept using a gaze of superiority to stare at Qin Wentian.

"What's the point of showing off to your own demonic beast companions?" Beiming Youhuang coldly glanced at Qin Wentian as she rubbed the fur of Little Rascal.

"Eh…" Qin Wentian was completely speechless. He then saw Little Rascal gesturing to him victoriously with his paws.

"Let us exit this place." A voice as warm as the spring wind rang out. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch walked over and nodded slightly to them.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian replied as he prepared to leave. Everyone sighed but all of them knew it was pointless to remain here any longer and respectively headed towards the exit.

After walking out from the palace, there were several people outside. Right now, their immortal senses were no longer restricted and could clearly see the situation within the palace. They too, also felt the transformation of the Demongod Mountain and had looks of disappointment on their faces. On the ancient path, there were still other experts attempting to ascend. However, even they knew that it was useless even if they ascended to the peak now.

“Youhuang.” The Darknorth Immortal Emperor walked over.

“Matriarch.” The experts of the Southern Phoenix Clan arrived as well.

“Wentian.” The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Bai Wuya appeared too.

There were also other experts who came by. Many of these were the elders of those supreme geniuses who manage to enter the Demongod Palace. They were all filled with admiration.

“Lord.” Qi Yu and the others from the Battle Saint Tribe called out.

“Qin Wentian.” A cold voice rang out. Experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect came over. When they saw Qin Wentian exiting the Demongod Palace, their expressions were incomparably unsightly. Among these people, the supreme genius of the Paragon Sword Sect, Shangguang Jianyi, was here as well. His expression ashen. For something he failed to accomplish, Qin Wentian actually succeeded in doing so?

“How did you enter?” Pei Qing had an icy look on his face as he stared at Qin Wentian. How could this be? He had never left this area and kept trying to break out of the siege. He had no recollection of seeing Qin Wentian here at all.

“He was that roc earlier.” A voice from the crowd rang out, momentarily causing several gazes to turn to Qin Wentian. So this fellow was that ordinary-looking roc?

“What roc? Isn’t he Qin Wentian from the eastern regions? The son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.”

“This fellow back then was merely an initial-stage immortal king. He transformed into a roc and joined forces with two other demonic beasts, barging into the Demongod Palace. What a despicable and shameless behavior.”

Qin Wentian smiled as he stared at everyone, he didn’t bother about what others were saying about him at all. So what even if they knew? He had already entered the Demongod Palace and had a huge improvement, breaking through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm and established two powerful law domains. His purpose for transforming into a roc had already been achieved. Why would he care about what these people said about him?

Strength, was the only thing he pursued.

“You are that vile beast?” A mid-stage immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect had an ashen expression. Sun flames radiated from him. Qin Wentian fooled the whole lot of them and even mocked them saying that they were trash.

“He must have pretended to be an initial-stage immortal king by suppressing his cultivation to kill your people.” A greater demon coldly spoke.

The sun flames from the expert of the Sacred Sun Sect burned angrily. “You killed my senior brother?”

“The saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect was killed? Can you guys endure this?” An expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire added fuel to fire.

“Qin Wentian!” Several voices thundered out as numerous white tigers appeared, glaring at him. “You are the one who feasted on the flesh of white tigers in the sacred academy?”

Chapter 1429: Voice of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch

Qin Wentian glanced at the surrounding experts. He didn’t think that there would be so many people who wanted to find trouble with him the moment the Demongod Mountain vanished.

Experts from the Sacred Sun Sect, the White Tiger Race, and the troublesome Skymist Immortal Empire as well as the Paragon Sword Sect.

“Scram.” Qin Wentian coldly shot a glance at the White Tiger Race. The white tigers howled in rage as their baleful qi filled the sky. However, at this moment, many experts appeared around Qin Wentian. Bai Wuya’s aura gushed forth while the Evergreen Immortal Emperor quietly stood near him. Given the strength of these two emperors, who here would dare to make a move recklessly?

Qin Wentian then turned and looked at an expert from the Sacred Sun Sect. The killing intent in his eyes burned fiercely. It was none other than this person who killed the old roc king back then.

“A trash like you dares to act impudently before me?” Qin Wentian radiated coldness as he stared at that person.

“Haotian was killed by him?” A powerful elder from the Sacred Sun Sect appeared, radiating emperor might. The sun flames from him were so powerful that they seemed capable of incinerating the entire world.

The expert from the Sacred Sun Sect that died earlier was none other than the saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect, an individual with extremely high talent.

“Mhm.” That person who killed the old roc king nodded.

“You dare to kill the saint child of my sect?” That immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect stepped forth. With a flex of his hand, a miniature blazing sun appeared in his hand, before it floated towards Qin Wentian.

“You are courting death?” The Evergreen Immortal Emperor stepped out as a formless energy gushed forth, smothering the blazing sun. Emperor might radiated from the Evergreen Immortal Emperor as he stood there imposingly.

“Evergreen?” That immortal emperor stared at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. “He killed the saint child of my sect. You wish to protect him?”

“What an impressive Sacred Sun Sect.” Qin Wentian’s gaze was cold. “Your saint child wished to kill me but was killed by me instead. As an immortal emperor, you even have the face to act against me for this matter, and even spoke in such a domineering tone. What are you farting here about? Nothing but a trash sect.”

“With just you? If you didn’t make use of despicable methods, how would you be able to kill the saint child of my sect?” The immortal emperor stared at Qin Wentian. He was immensely confident with regards to the battle prowess of the saint child who had died.

“Haha!” Qin Wentian suddenly started laughing. “That expert earlier was as tyrannical and domineering as you, killing my friend before my eyes, acting like he was unrivalled in the world. The people from the Paragon Sword Sect and the Skymist Immortal Empire were like this as well, each of them incomparably arrogant, detestable to the extreme. Simply ridiculous, since you guys are so confident in yourselves. Come and fight me one on one for those at the same cultivation level. I’ll accept all challengers. Whoever wants to kill me, just bring it on. For those who don’t dare to, shut up and scram.”

“You are courting death.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect who killed the old roc king sneered. “Just entered the mid-stage? You actually dare to speak in such a manner. Fine, let me finish you off. The others won’t interfere, right?”

“Even if you are at the late-phase of the mid-stage, I can kill a trash like you with no effort at all.” Qin Wentian spoke. With a flash of his silhouette, he soared up into the air and coldly swept his glance over to the Paragon Sword Sect and the Skymist Immortal Empire. “You guys should stop adding fuel to the fire. If you have the guts, just step out and fight. If not, just slink off to the shadows like the rats you are. Stop courting humiliation here.”

“Are you still not coming out for our battle?” Qin Wentian then coldly spoke to the expert from the Sacred Sun Sect. That expert laughed wildly as he soared up into the air. “This is the first time I met someone so insufferably arrogant, not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. To think that you are someone famous in the eastern regions. Simply ridiculous. Let me be the one to take your cheap life away.”

As he spoke, the flames gushed forth from his body as miniature suns appeared behind him. Right now, the restriction law of the Demongod Mountain was no longer in effect. His late-phase mid-stage cultivation base exuded an extremely terrifying aura. The light from the suns enveloped this entire space, capable of burning everything into cinders, forming a powerful domain with Qin Wentian in the center. The energy from the law domain was so powerful that it felt as though it could refine everything in the world. The blazingly hot energy then gushed forth towards Qin Wentian.

A fearsome scene appeared in the air. The temperature in the surroundings soared up like crazy as the experts spectating all released their own auras to block the blistering heat.

Upon seeing such a terrifying sight as well as sensing the destructive might, ordinary late-phase mid-stage immortal kings would most probably die within a few seconds. How was Qin Wentian so brave? He was merely someone who had just entered the initial-phase of the mid-stage. How could his strength be able to compare to an expert who has been at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm for many years?

“Rumble!” Law energy radiated from Qin Wentian as the manifestation of a fearsome Xuanwu Turtle appeared, projecting terrifying amounts of demonic qi. Runic light flashed, enveloping him completely. When the sun flames got near, they were blocked by a barrier, but the flames seemed powerful enough to melt the Xuanwu’s protective shield.

Qin Wentian activated God’s Hand, manifesting countless runes which rose up into the sky, integrating and melding with the Xuanwu’s protective barrier. In an instant, the defense of that barrier was strengthened. The corrosive sun flames had no way to continue burning and were smothered down. Even for immortal kings at the peak-phase of the mid-stage, they would be dreaming if they thought they could kill Qin Wentian with just the power of their law domains. It was simply impossible.

“Is this your true strength? Seems like you have improved a lot within the Demongod Palace.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect coldly laughed. He still felt very confident as his cultivation base was higher compared to Qin Wentian.

“Die!” Grabbing out with his palm, the sun domain produced countless flames that congregated together, forming a sun sword that could penetrate through everything. The sun sword slashed towards the Xuanwu’s protective barrier and at the same time, he stepped out and lunged towards Qin Wentian.

“Puchi…” The sword slashed down, tearing apart space and ripping the barrier into two. He attacked in the most tyrannical manner possible, wanting to take Qin Wentian’s life away.

“What a powerful sword. This must be a divine weapon formed from a secret art of the Sacred Sun Sect as well as the sunforce they cultivate. It’s able to perfectly complement their techniques and the grade of this sword would be equal to the level of the cultivation base of the user. This cannot be considered as depending on an external source of strength.” Many of the spectating experts felt that Qin Wentian could no longer fight back.

However, at this moment, the sound of a sword humming filled the sky. The demon sword appeared, causing the roars of dragons and screeches of phoenixes and rocs to echo out. At the instant the sun sword slashed down, Qin Wentian pierced out with this sword. The demon sword was incomparably tyrannical, exuding fearsome demonic qi, causing an overwhelming demonic might to tower up into the sky. It was able to suppress everything. At that very moment of collision, even the heavens and earth trembled as cracks appeared visibly on the sun sword.

“BOOM!” A third eye appeared in the center of Qin Wentian’s brow. In an instant, a terrifying beam of destructive light formed a vortex that engulfed his opponent within. The expression of his opponent grew heavy and slashed out continuously with the sun sword, breaking through the vortex. However, at the same moment, Qin Wentian stepped forth as an incomparably heavy suppressive might bore down on everything in his surroundings. With every step he took, the suppressive might grew more and more intense.

“Kill!” Qin Wentian roared. After that, within the suppressive law domain, the manifestation of a giant divine elephant appeared, stomping down on the earth. In addition to that, countless destructive devil sabers rained down from the sky, falling upon that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect.

“What a powerful domain.” The hearts of the spectators shook. Under the pressure of this domain, that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect was actually trapped in the center. His body radiated fearsome sun rays, but Qin Wentian paid no heed, stabbing directly outwards with his sword.

Upon seeing that sword strike, that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect felt a sense of misconception. The world around him seemed to change as he sank into a dream of his own. However, he clearly knew that he was in the middle of combat in reality.

With a loud roar, he managed to extricate himself from the dream. He reacted by instinct and slashed out with his sword, clashing against the demon sword of Qin Wentian.

“BANG!” Qin Wentian’s sword pierced out with impervious force as dragon roars filled the air. The expert from the Sacred Sun Sect howled as he spat out sun flames while Qin Wentian radiated a fearsome devil might that protected his body. Boundless law energy circulated around him as his evil eye activated, trapping his opponent in an illusion. The demon sword continued to pierce forward, drilling into the body of his opponent.

That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect let out screams of misery. The sun flames from him grew more and more intense, but this was nothing but a struggle at death’s door.

“Trash.” An icy voice mockingly echoed out as the power of the evil eye grew more fearsome. The sword qi from the demon sword transformed into a pinpoint of light that directly tunneled through the body of his opponent, ripping him to shreds.

“BOOM!” An explosive sound rang out. The sun flames burned brilliantly for an instant, before transforming into countless embers cascading down harmlessly onto the earth. Everyone inclined their heads and stared at Qin Wentian, their hearts filled with immense shock.

He had just entered the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, how was it possible for his attacks to be so powerful to this extent? Such strength was simply too shocking, even the power of his law domains was inconceivably powerful.

The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect stared up in the air, radiating a terrifying killing intent.

Defeat. An expert from the Sacred Sun Sect who was at the peak-phase of the mid-stage was actually defeated and had even died, killed by Qin Wentian. This was simply smacking the face of his Sacred Sun Sect.

“This… Is this still considered a despicable method?” Qin Wentian stared at the immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect as he impolitely spoke. “Who is the insufferably arrogant one? Even an immortal emperor has the judgement of trash, believing the juniors of his sect to be invincible. How utterly ridiculous.”

“You…” The sun flames from the immortal emperor gushed forth but a cold voice suddenly interjected. “Have you not lost enough face yet?”

“Southern Phoenix Matriarch.” The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect turned to the person who spoke. A flawlessly beautiful figure appeared there. It was none other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch.

“Qin Wentian has already said that he would fight all battles as long as the opponents are at the same level as him. If the challenger lacks strength and is killed by him instead, it wouldn’t matter if you all ignore face and make a move against him. Just know that if you all choose to do so, I will repay each of you in your own coin.” The voice of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was incomparably calm, but her tone was like thunder from a clear sky, ringing out loud with imperious force in the ears of those immortal emperors who wanted to act to kill Qin Wentian.

Her words clearly expressed the attitude of the entire Southern Phoenix Clan!

Chapter 1430: You guys can come at me together

The voice of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch made this entire space fall to silence. Even the experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect felt their hearts shaking as their expressions grew unsightly.

The voice of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch clearly expressed her attitude. What status did she have? She was the leader of one of the three great ancient clans in the south. Before this in the war against the Evergreen Immortal Empire, although the Southern Phoenix Clan had aided the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the person who acted was merely Nanfeng Guhong, a protector for the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. Although she was an immortal emperor, Nanfeng Guhong's will couldn't be said to represent the entire Southern Phoenix Clan.

This was the same as back then, when the white tigers sent an immortal emperor to the eastern region to capture and kill Qin Wentian. Nanfeng Guhong had stood out to help Qin Wentian then but that was just her will and it couldn't represent the entire Southern Phoenix Clan.

However, now that the Southern Phoenix Matriarch made things clear, things were different. She alone truly had the authority to represent the entire Southern Phoenix Clan.

The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect was angrier than ever. Now that, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch interfered, it was impossible for him to act directly and finish Qin Wentian off. As the leader of the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was a peak-stage immortal emperor and her fame had already rocked the immortal realms for so many years. It was unknown how powerful she was. Seeing that she said it out in the open so directly, how would he dare to kill Qin Wentian?

Two heaven chosen of the Sacred Sun Sect were slaughtered by Qin Wentian and one of them was even a Saint Child character. This debt would definitely be repaid. How could he be willing to spare Qin Wentian?

"Fine, since the Phoenix Matriarch has spoken, my Sacred Sun Sect will give some face to her. However, since he said that he would accept all challenges from same-level opponents, he better make sure he keeps to his words." The eyes of the immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect flashed, his eyes staring at the major powers of the immortal realms gathered here.

The White Tiger Race, the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect. All of them wanted to kill Qin Wentian. Right now, an expert from his Sacred Sun Sect had already died to Qin Wentian. Could it be that these powers don't even dare to express their stance and step out? If that was the case, wouldn't they have lost all face?

"Let me kill him then." A low sounding roar rang out as a white tiger with a cultivation base at the peak-phase of the mid-stage walked out. He was in human form, but the baleful aura couldn't be mistaken. His skin also gleamed with golden light, giving off a strong sense of threat.

“Let me be the one to kill him instead.” Another sharp-sounding voice rang out. The gazes of the crowd turned about, landing on the person who spoke. This was none other than Shangguang Jianyi, an expert of the Paragon Sword Sect, his cultivation base was similarly at the peak-phase of the mid-stage, possessing incredible combat prowess and unrivalled sword techniques. Earlier, he saw Qin Wentian actually using a sword art to kill the expert from the Sacred Sun Sect. He wanted to see if it was his sword or Qin Wentian’s sword that was more powerful.

“You insulted my Skymist Immortal Empire. Since this is the case, I will grant you your wish.” A supremely strong immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire stepped out, radiating a feeling of suppression, terrifying to the extreme.

“Shatian, he was the one who defeated you? Causing your sharpness to be diminished to such an extent?” Among the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, an immortal emperor asked Huang Shatian.

Huang Shatian glanced at his old opponent as he sighed with sorrow in his heart. He worked very hard in his cultivation and wanted nothing more than to challenge Qin Wentian once again, defeating him. Yet, he didn’t expect Qin Wentian would be so quick, moving further and further from him. He, Huang Shatian, was already considered a talent with extremely outstanding potential. How many years has it been? The reason why he broke through to the immortal king realm so fast was because he wanted to obtain victory against Qin Wentian.

But right now, after the Demongod Mountain vanished, Qin Wentian had already reached the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. Such speed truly caused one to despair.

“I’m inferior to him.” Huang Shatian closed his eyes as he sighed. He was unparalleled all his life, nobody in the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire could stand equally with him. In fact, there are many of those in the senior generations who couldn’t compare to him too. When the sacred academy opened, he believed that his era had finally come. He was truly invincible, but all that was before he met Qin Wentian.

It seemed that it was destined that he would have a very powerful opponent in his life. He fought with his best capabilities but his opponent was more dazzling than him, surpassing him despite him being in the lead at the start. After that, the distance between them grew further and further, causing despair to appear in his heart.

“Shatian, you are one of the most outstanding talents in our empire. How can you look down on yourself. Right now, your martial heart is already damaged and this man will become your heart devil. He cannot be allowed to survive.” An immortal emperor spoke to Huang Shatian. There was a flicker of killing intent in his eyes when he glanced towards Qin Wentian.

It was none other than this junior from the eastern regions that crushed their most outstanding genius within the sacred academy. A total of three experts from the royal clan of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire died, and Huang Shatian’s martial heart was damaged, he was no longer as sharp as before. Regardless of taking revenge or helping Huang Shatian to recover, Qin Wentian must die.

“Let me kill him for you.” A mid-stage immortal king at the side spoke. He had a middle-aged appearance, but his aura was majestic and vast, filled with imposingness. After that, he stepped out and his killing intent projected outwards, to the area where Qin Wentian was at.

The White Tiger Race, the Paragon Sword Sect, the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire…immortal kings from these powers started to move in Qin Wentian’s direction, as though wanting to compete with each other to see who could kill Qin Wentian. This scene caused the attention of countless people to be focused there as all of them stared at Qin Wentian. A single person actually attracted the killing intent of so many immortal kings from the various peak powers in the immortal realms.

Many of the demons were staring at this scene with interest. To think that they could see a clash between mid-stage immortal kings of the immortal realms. If this was in ordinary circumstances, it would definitely be an extremely grand sight with both demons of the desolate mountains as well as immortal cultivators of the immortal realms.

Pei Qing calmly stared at the scene, it felt as though he wanted to see how Qin Wentian would die. He had experienced Qin Wentian’s arrogance first hand. Right now, Qin Wentian had offended so many major powers. There were so many people who wanted him to die.

However, Qin Wentian didn’t seem to have any fear at all. He glanced at the major powers as he coldly spoke. “So who will it be?”

As the sound of his voice rang out, the crowd all mumbled. Even now, Qin Wentian was still so brazen.

“Leave him to me.” The expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire spoke. He radiated a sense of tyranny as he stepped out.

“His life is mine.” Shangguang Jianyi from the Paragon Sword Sect coldly spoke as a burst of sword qi gushed from him.

“Back then he feasted on the flesh of my comrades. He will definitely pay the price today and become food in my stomach.” A demon king of the White Tiger Race stepped out too, not willing to back down. He wanted to claim Qin Wentian’s life personally.

“Hahaha…” Qin Wentian actually laughed as he saw the four of them. He stood arrogantly in the air as his aura gushed forth. A divine glow enveloped his body, staring down at them as though they were ants crawling on the earth. He then arrogantly spoke, “Why don’t you all just come at me together? It would be too troublesome otherwise.”

“What did you say?!” The immortal king of the Skymist Immortal Empire roared. Qin Wentian’s words were clearly an insult to him.

“Courting death.” The demon king of the white tiger race had fire in his eyes. The four experts advanced together simultaneously.

“I say, why don’t you four pieces of trash come at me together and save me the trouble.” Qin Wentian repeated. The four of them couldn’t bear it and almost acted directly. However, because of their pride, they refrained from doing so. If they did so, that would truly be a humiliation for them to gang up on a similarly-leveled opponent.

“You don’t want to fight, you don’t want to scram. What the hell do you all want?” Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, upon seeing that the four of them held themselves back.

“Swish~” An overwhelming sword qi from Shangguang Jianyi flooded the area as his sword sliced through the space beside Qin Wentian, domineering to the extreme.

“You can find three more experts to aid you and we will kill you all.” Shangguang Jianyi coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian stood there, not moving in the slightest at all. He stared at Shangguang Jianyi as he laughed. “Are you even worthy?”

“Yiyiyaya…” Right now, a juvenile voice suddenly echoed out. Little Rascal who was standing behind Qin Wentian, lazily strolled forward. His appearance was extremely comical in such a tense situation.

“Wentian, how can you look down on people like this. They are, after all, the heaven chosen of the various peak powers and really do seem pretty powerful. You want to fight one against four, how can they agree just like that?” Little Rascal leisurely paced about, causing the four experts to snort coldly.

“Although they are truly useless, wouldn’t they seem even more like trash if they fought against you but still ended up in defeat? Where do you want them to put their faces? They are illustrious immortal kings from the major powers, they would probably shame themselves to death.”

Everyone froze, there were several who couldn’t help but to laugh out loud. This little puppy truly had a way with words.

“Where is this tiny vile beast from. Do you believe that I won’t devour you with a single gulp?” A demon king of the white tiger race roared.

“This baobao is almost frightened to death. Wentian, want to group up together? We will fight two against four. At the very least, they would still look better when they lose.” Little Rascal spoke. In such a situation, his juvenile voice sounded extremely cute and comical. Qin Wentian laughed and nodded, “Sure.”

“Let’s do it then. You go up first. I will guard your back.” Little Rascal waved his little paw.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. After that, a terrifying force erupted from him as his blood churned wildly, as though at the point of ignition. In an instant, an overwhelming aura of kings radiated out, wanting to make all lives on earth grovel.

Bloodline ability: Burning Rebellion.

At this instant, a terrifying screen of light covered Qin Wentian. His aura explosively surged up.

Little Rascal grinned, baring his white teeth. However, his little snowy white body seemed a little comical in this scenario.

“Since they wish to court death, let’s grant it to them.” Shangguang Jianyi spoke.

“Mhm, since he wants death so badly, nobody can say that we are bullying him. Let’s act together.” The others coldly stated.

Only to see Shangguang Jianyi slashing out towards him with extreme speed. This sword strike was able to tear the world asunder, arcing through the air towards Qin Wentian.

“RUMBLE!” The sword strike landed, slamming against the protective screen of blood-colored light from Qin Wentian’s bloodline ability. That blood-colored light transformed into the silhouette of a Xuanwu Turtle, and Shangguang Jianyi’s sword actually failed to break through the defense.

“This…”

The hearts of everyone shuddered. Although that was just a casual strike, it was something unleashed by a peak genius of the Paragon Sword Sect, Shangguang Jianyi. It actually failed to even make Qin Wentian react. How terrifying was Qin Wentian’s defense?

“Wow, you are so strong.” Qin Wentian laughed. The protective light started changing. Demonic qi towered up, as Qin Wentian’s bloodline protection transformed from the Xuanwu to a divine elephant.

“BOOM!” Qin Wentian stepped out as the entire space shuddered. Releasing his Divine Elephant Domain, a supreme and overwhelming suppressive pressure bore down on everything here, incomparably heavy to the extreme.

Chapter 1431: Tyrannical

The four experts frowned, feeling the immense pressure boring down on them, restricting their movements.

“BOOM!” Qin Wentian stepped out as the divine elephant manifestation mirrored the movement, causing the entire space to tremble. Beams of light fell from the sky, shooting towards the four experts.

“Let’s act!” The four felt an immense sense of danger as one of them spoke out. As the sound of his voice faded, Shangguang Jianyi’s law domain appeared, flooding this area with his sword might. His sword-type astral sword appeared behind him. Pointing his finger at Qin Wentian, a paragon sword beam instantly shot out, emitting a terrifying whistling sound.

Behind the immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire, a terrifying divine elephant appeared, roaring at the sky. A fearsome phenomenon appeared as ten thousand elephants galloped forth, tramping on the earth, rushing towards Qin Wentian.

The white tiger and the late-phase mid-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire all launched fearsome attacks. At this moment, a violent and devastating energy filled the air, wanting to crush the guardian divine elephant of Qin Wentian’s law domain.

Within Qin Wentian’s body, after activating his bloodline ability, his blood energy infused with the divine elephant as he activated God’s Hand to reinforce it. That gigantic guardian elephant shone with resplendent runic light, seemingly indestructible.

The heavy sword of the Paragon Sword Sect, the ten thousand elephant horde of the Skymist Immortal Empire, the baleful aura of the white tiger demon king and the nine-colored killing light beam from the immortal king of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. All of these attacks slammed into the body of the elephant guardian as thunderous explosive sounds rang out unceasingly. The entire space trembled violently, bloody wounds could be seen appearing on the surface of the divine elephant guardian.

But even so, such a scene caused all the spectators to be speechless. The attacks from four great experts actually only caused mere cracks to appear? After Qin Wentian unleashed his bloodline power, how terrifying was his defense?

“What a powerful bloodline ability. Is it an ultimate bloodline technique? The same as those of the supreme greater demons?” The hearts of everyone trembled with shock. At this moment, Qin Wentian continued and took a step forward.

“BOOM!” A boundlessly vast source of power trembled the entire space, as the four immortal kings felt the pressure intensifying. Gigantic swords and ancient halberds could be seen flying about in the sky, radiating a violent devil might as well as imbued with destructive and suppressive energy.

Qin Wentian didn’t stop, he continued to advance forward as devil might towered up into the sky, engulfing this entire area with a heavy suppression.

“How can you all kill me?” Qin Wentian asked. He was like a descendant of a demon god, lording over everything in the world. Hastening his speed, he arrived directly before the immortal king from the Skymist Empire. Punching out, his blood avatar mirrored his movements and unleashed an attack too. His avatar was like a true divine elephant that attacked with crushing might.

An immortal king howled loudly, blasting out with his palm, manifesting many points of light which each transformed into an elephant, as he fought head-on with force.

“ROAR!” The white tiger roared and unleashing an attack towards the guardian elephant of Qin Wentian. Beside Qin Wentian, a tiny figure rushed out with a speed as quick as lightning. It directly rushed towards Qin Wentian’s divine elephant and transformed into a golden-colored heaven devouring beast. An aura of incomparable dominance radiated forth. Widening its maw, the essence of this entire world seemed to be devoured, easily eating the attack of the white tiger.

“This…” Many of those here, who didn’t know Little Rascal’s true form was a heaven devouring beast, all stared at this scene with shock. He was able to devour everything within the world. Wasn’t the innate ability of this little puppy a little too tyrannical?

After devouring the attack of the white tiger, Little Rascal instantly turned about and unleashed a devouring attack towards that immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. For a moment, chaos erupted within this space. The attacks targeting the elephant guardian of Qin Wentian, were all completely devoured by Little Rascal.

“Royal-blooded heaven devouring beast? The vortex of devouring is golden in color.” The spectators stared at the battlefield. At the moment Little Rascal opened his mouth, a golden rune would manifest, transforming into a golden vortex that spanned across his target, frenziedly absorbing and devouring everything. He could even digest such powerful attacks?

Were the bloodline abilities of true supreme-graded greater demons really that fearsome?

“Ai, are you all scratching an itch for this baobao? Such a weak attack. Hey little tiger, can you put in more effort? How will this baobao feel full if you attack so weakly?” Little Rascal’s lazy voice rang out, instantly causing the white tiger to turn ashen. His White Tiger Race was also considered a powerful saint beast, yet he was actually humiliated so badly here and the person humiliating him was also a demonic beast. What nonsense was this?

“ROAR!!!” The white tiger let out three roars of frustration as he unleashed an even more powerful greater demon white tiger technique. However, Little Rascal lazily manifested that vortex once more, filling the air with golden light as he devoured everything.

On the other side, the immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire as well as Shangguang Jianyi were both attacking Qin Wentian. More cracks appeared on the divine elephant avatar. Shangguang Jianyi's sword was extremely powerful, imbued with the strength of his sword astral soul. With a wave of his hand, filaments of light formed astral swords, directly slashing down on the blood avatar.

These attacks weren't without a deeper purpose. They actually formed a terrifying diagram, attacking from each direction. Shangguang Jianyi wanted to break Qin Wentian's defense when Qin Wentian was concentrating on fighting against that immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire.

"This sword technique…he is actually forming a sword formation." The hearts of the crowd trembled. Shangguang Jianyi was truly a terrifying individual. As expected of a supreme sword genius from the Paragon Sword Sect. However, this Qin Wentian was even more fearsome. After activating his bloodline power, his defense was actually so insanely strong? Experts with cultivation bases higher than him actually needed to do their utmost to break his defense.

The golden diagram spun about, radiating with a blinding resplendent light. At the center of the diagram, an intense beam of sword light shot out, smashing against the elephant guardian.

"Break!" Shangguang Jianyi coldly yelled. In an instant, the cracks on that elephant guardian widened as it slowly crumbled apart. The sword formation also vanished after that. Qin Wentian's figure finally appeared before them, they could now directly launch attacks at him.

Shangguang Jianyi stepped out, slashing with his sword. Sneering coldly, "After losing that protection, how can you defend against us?"

Qin Wentian suddenly laughed, causing Shangguang Jianyi to furrow his brows. He stared at Qin Wentian. "What are you laughing about?"

"I'm laughing at how ignorant you are." Qin Wentian sarcastically replied. "Taking so long to break through my defense and you are all still so self-satisfied? I really feel ashamed for the Paragon Sword Sect. Such a person like you can actually become a supreme character in the sect? Today shall be the date of your death. Earlier, I was merely testing how strong my defense can be. Next, I will make you guys taste my attacks."

As he spoke, Qin Wentian's aura gushed forth, enveloping this entire space. A God's Hand Domain appeared, alongside with the Divine Elephant domain. His bloodline protection avatar manifested as well, sometimes in the form of a divine elephant and sometimes in the form of a Xuanwu Turtle.

"Do you think that my defense barrier is only a one-time thing? Let me tell you a fact. I can constantly unleash such a defensive barrier at any time, yet you all took so long to break through a single layer?" Qin Wentian laughed uproariously, arrogant to the extreme. At this instant, the faces of Shangguang Jianyi and that expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire stiffened. They felt a chill running down their spines when they stared at the bloodline avatar.

The spectators were all frozen in shock. This…

For supreme mid-stage immortal kings like them, they actually couldn't even break his defense?

Qin Wentian's bloodline protection avatar could be manifested anytime. Everyone was clear of what this indicated. This meant that unless your attacking prowess could be strong enough to destroy his defense with a single attack, he could constantly 'regenerate' his protective barrier. How would one be able to win against him?

"Earlier, I was just playing around with you all. Next, it's time for me to attack." Qin Wentian stretched his arms out, causing boundless devil might to flood the area. God's Hand was imbued with terrifying destructive power as Qin Wentian's bloodline protection ability transformed into a great roc resembling a golden-winged roc.

"Bzz!" Qin Wentian directly vanished. The form his bloodline avatar took now was truly like a golden-winged roc, arcing through space. Unleashing roc techniques, the sound of roaring thunder filled the air as the avatar swooped towards the immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire.

That immortal king hurriedly stepped back while blasting out with his palms, causing manifestations of elephants to rush out. However, the great roc tore apart everything, shooting straight towards his body. Qin Wentian directly ignored the attacks, because of how strong his defense is, he could afford to act so arrogantly.

"Scram!" The Skymist Immortal King howled, but the great roc directly dashed right in front of him as it suddenly transformed into a divine elephant. Qin Wentian directly stepped out, causing a terrifying sound to echo. The suppression might from the avatar made it so that the Skymist Immortal King couldn't even move at all.

"The bloodline protector can transform at any moment, or even attack on the behalf of Qin Wentian. How fearsome."

The hearts of the crowd mused. Shangguang Jianyi who was watching from behind, felt great waves of fear rising in his heart. After that, he only saw the divine elephant lifting up its feet before stomping down on that Skymist Immortal King. When that immortal king was busy defending, Qin Wentian caused a gigantic devil saber to manifest as he slashed down towards his opponent.

At this instant, the devil saber slashed through the air. Qin Wentian could actually unleash two completely different attribute attacks at the same moment. It was like two terrifying experts ganging up on that poor Skymist Immortal King. In addition, his coordination with his blood avatar was perfect.

As that immortal king from Skymist was defending, a devil saber arced through the air like a streak of black lightning, directly cleaving him into twain.

A peak-phase mid-stage immortal king died just like that.

Qin Wentian was tyrannical and domineering to the extreme!

Chapter 1432: I will destroy it with a slash of my saber

The expression of the experts from Skymist were all extremely heavy and ugly to behold. A peak-phase mid-stage immortal king of theirs dying here was a great loss to them. In addition, the expert who died was even of the royal clan.

They provoked Qin Wentian and fought him together, yet one of them was actually killed like that. How ridiculous was this?

“This brat must die. He cannot be allowed to survive.”

The stronger Qin Wentian was, the stronger their killing intent towards him would be. Given the depth of their mutual hatred, if Qin Wentian continued to grow stronger at such a speed, what heights would he reach? In the past before the adjudication battle, he was merely an insignificant character. But now, he could already kill peak-phase mid-stage immortal kings.

Also, as he matured, the powers supporting him would become more and more. Even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch had expressed her stance personally now. If they allowed Qin Wentian to grow, he would be even more difficult to kill in the future, completely out of their control.

On the other side, Little Rascal was still devouring the attacks from the white tiger and the immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. The two powerful immortal kings joined forces, wanting to quickly kill the heaven devouring beast yet they couldn’t do so. On the other side, Qin Wentian finished off his opponent from the Skymist Immortal Empire as he turned and dashed towards Shangguang Jianyi.

At this moment, the sword might radiating from Shangguang Jianyi was still as strong as ever. He was protected by a screen of swords, like a supreme sword paragon. Every bit of sword energy in that area contained an extremely powerful sword intent.

However, Shangguang Jianyi’s expression was now heavy. He stared at Qin Wentian, his sharp eyes were now filled with a faint hint of fear, no longer having the disdain and arrogance of earlier.

Both his hands folded incantation techniques as his bloodline power was activated. Swirls of sword qi enveloped this entire space, as the sword might grew increasingly powerful, forming a heavy pressure. With a stab of his finger, the sky suddenly changed color.

“DIE!” Shangguang Jianyi roared. Everything in his domain became swords for him to use, shooting towards Qin Wentian.

As a supreme genius of the Paragon Sword Sect, even if he felt a huge sense of threat from Qin Wentian, he had to fight head-on. He mustn't cower.

"A sword formation of the Paragon Sword Sect?" The hearts of many experts trembled. The divine elephant guardian formed by Qin Wentian's blood avatar was still there, shining with fearsome runic light. Thunderous rumbling sounds echoed throughout, the sword attacks slammed into the barrier, emitting fearsome sounds while countless swords surrounded Qin Wentian, attacking with wild abandon. Just by spectating, the crowd could feel chills in their hearts.

"Bzz!" The divine elephant transformed into a roc once more. Spreading out its wings, it shot through the sky like a golden bolt of lightning. The feathers on each wing were sharper than swords, easily slicing apart Shangguang Jianyi's manifested swords.

When Shangguang Jianyi saw the roc advancing, he folded more ancient incantation gestures as he stepped towards Qin Wentian. The boundless sword qi in the area transformed into a towering screen of swords. The light from the diagram grew resplendent to its limits and cast its shadows on Qin Wentian.

At this instant, Qin Wentian felt like he was trapped in a sword prison. He could sense an impending crisis. Seems like Shangguang Jianyi was preparing to unleash his strongest ultimate attack.

"As expected of Jianyi, the Paragon Sword Formation, summoning a true paragon sword, locking Qin Wentian within the prison where the might of a million swords gathered. I don't believe he can survive this." An expert from the Paragon Sword Sect heaved a sigh of relief, feeling pride that Shangguang Jianyi was a part of his sect.

With the formation formed, even the gods and demons would cry.

Now that Qin Wentian was trapped, it would be tough for him to escape from this calamity.

Seeing that Qin Wentian was unceasingly trying to destroy the screen of swords to reach him, a decisive glint of light flashed in Shangguang Jianyi's eyes. He looked up in the air and roared, "The appearance of the Paragon Sword shall destroy the myriad of things in the world. As the sword formation forms, gods and demons shall all be vanquished!"

As the sound of his voice faded, that terrifying sword formation caused a supremely sharp sword to appear from the void. Or more accurately, it was just a shadow that directly appeared in the space above Qin Wentian. As the sword shadow was cast on Qin Wentian, it locked his position and if this sword slashed down, it would definitely hit him accurately. There was no suspense.

This sword will definitely be enough to finish Qin Wentian.

“SHUT!” Qin Wentian coldly roared. After that, his God’s Hand domain formed two gigantic palms that were spread apart. The two palms then slammed shut together, targeting the sword.

“KILL!” Shangguang Jianyi howled, his killing intent engulfing everything. The boundless swords formed by the formation radiated a blinding light, infusing their power into the paragon sword shadow. At that instant as the gigantic palms closed in, a thunderous boom rang out as the paragon sword actually broke out from it.

“The second strike!” Shangguang Jianyi continued. The light from the sword diagram still flared brilliantly. Qin Wentian inclined his head, his eyes flashing with tyranny as he punched out. The bloodline avatar transformed into a sky roc and activated a greater demon technique, manifesting numerous rocs that threw themselves at the paragon sword, trying to slow down its momentum.

“Third strike!” Shangguang Jianyi roared loudly, stepping out. The sword might grew even stronger, seemingly boundless and unending. This was the only method Shangguang Jianyi had that was powerful enough to kill Qin Wentian. Only through unleashing a torrent of attacks would he be able to disregard Qin Wentian’s defense.

Qin Wentian attacked frenziedly as he defended against the swords shooting at him. However, he knew that if the sword formation wasn’t broken, there would be no way out of this predicament.

“I want to see how you can block it.” Shangguang Jianyi icily spoke. The spectators below all felt their hearts shaking. Such an intense fight between two powerful combatants was truly exceptionally rare.

Shangguang Jianyi’s strength was undoubtedly terrifying, more than a level more powerful compared to the peak-phase mid-stage immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire.

When Qin Wentian heard that, his eyes flashed with arrogance. Activating his bloodline, his strength had explosively surged up. In addition to all the ultimate arts he cultivated, even if Shangguang Jianyi’s cultivation was higher than his, it was of no concern to him at all. So what even if the sword formation was powerful? He would press forth with indomitable might, using pure strength to destroy the formation. Since so many people wanted to kill him, only by killing these people in a sufficiently domineering manner would shock the rest of the crowd.

“Who says that I want to block it?” Qin Wentian replied. Devil might churned wildly in his surroundings as the projection of an ancient devil appeared. A devil saber materialized in Qin Wentian’s hand. His eyes flashed with resolution, lifting the saber and cleaving down with it with all his might. A black streak of lightning then arced through the skies, slamming into the sword might released by the paragon sword as both exploded upon impact.

“No matter how strong your attack is, I will destroy it with a slash of my saber.” The devil intent in the area become extremely tyrannical, disregarding all existence. With the devil saber in his hand, the sword intent in the area suddenly weakened, as though wanting to submit under the tyrannical devil might.

“Rise!” Qin Wentian slashed upwards with his saber, brimming with an unparalleled saber might, slashing apart another wave of Shangguang Jianyi’s sword might. Stomping on the earth, he advanced forth, moving closer and closer to his opponent.

Shangguang Jianyi’s expression grew incredibly ugly to behold. Even using his ultimate attack, it was insufficient to kill Qin Wentian?

“I don’t believe it!” Shangguang Jianyi threw his head back and roared. A rumbling sound rang out as his astral soul materialized into an actual sword, radiating an aura of pure destruction, before slashing downwards.

The devil saber in Qin Wentian’s hand flared with the strongest devil light, with God’s Hand reinforcing the attacking strength. He stared up in the air and blasted out, causing eight manifestations of supreme greater demons to attack together with his saber light.

“BOOM!” A terrifying collision occurred. Qin Wentian had no expression. He stared at Shangguang Jianyi and spoke, “Since you want to kill me, you should have no regrets being killed by me.”

As he spoke, his saber slashed forth. Shangguang Jianyi turned pale, he folded ancient incantation gestures, producing an immense amount of sword qi to block Qin Wentian’s attack. But at the same time, a formless saber intent had already penetrated through everything, piercing through Shangguang Jianyi’s head. At this moment, Shangguang Jianyi only felt his soul shuddering. His body trembled as the sword might in the area was reduced drastically.

With another slash, Shangguang Jianyi’s body was almost split apart, turning into nothingness under that dominating saber energy.

“Jianyi!” The experts from the Paragon Sword Sect all roared when they saw this ending.

….

On the other side of the battlefield, the combat was also exceptionally intense. A heaven devouring beast fighting against two powerful experts. After devouring many of their attacks, Little Rascal actually smiled at the white tiger. After that, he opened his mouth and howled thunderously, blasting out boundless power that transformed into a storm, completely engulfing the white tiger in an instant.

The terrifying power that shot out from his mouth, was actually the power of the white tiger combined with the power of the expert of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

It was as though all the attacks he swallowed, could be fused together and spat out to deal with his opponents.

“This is then the innate ability of the royal-faction of my race. Only royal-blooded heaven devouring beasts would have this.” Not far away, an aged figure sighed emotionally. Even for attacks stronger compared to the heaven devouring beast’s current level, the heaven devouring beast was still able to devour them and store them in his body, refining it. When needed, the heaven devouring beast could still blast it out, transforming it into his own attack.

Not only was Qin Wentian powerful. A mere demonic beast was also terrifying to this extent, causing great shock to everyone.

“Not good.” The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire roared. They saw Qin Wentian and Little Rascal flying towards the remaining immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, preparing to slaughter him.

“CEASEFIRE!” An immortal emperor from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire shouted, wanting to stop the battle.

“Impudent.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch coldly snorted. A projection of a phoenix directly appeared, blocking the immortal emperor. She wouldn’t allow anyone to interfere.

“AH…” A moment later, a scream of agony rang out. The immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire had died. All four of the great experts were actually killed despite their superiority in terms of numbers. Qin Wentian and the heaven devouring beast stood arrogantly in the air, unexcelled in the world.

Qin Wentian’s silhouette then flashed, moving onto the back of the heaven devouring beast. Purgatory who was behind also sped over, sitting obediently behind Qin Wentian.

“Is there anyone else? I will play with you all to the very end, killing whoever who wants to step out. If nobody dares to, just get the hell out of my sight.” Qin Wentian roared. Little Rascal, the heaven devouring beast slowly strolled forward, his eyes filled with contempt, disregarding everything, as he prepared to leave the area.

Chapter 1433: Old Devil Duotian

On the ancient pathway leading up to the Demongod Mountain, experts here were as many as the clouds, with plenty of immortal and demon emperors. However, the man of the moment was none other than Qin Wentian.

He had just broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm and actually challenged four peak-phase mid-stage immortal king elites from the major powers. He and his demonic beast companion fought two against four, killing all their opponents. The battle earlier left a very deep impression on the spectators. Regardless of his bloodline power, his law domains, or his innate techniques, all of them were extremely domineering, exuding boundless strength. Such a combat prowess was absolutely invincible.

There was also that royal-blooded heaven devouring beast. He was too terrifying, what a fearsome power. His potential has no limits and if he matured in the future, it was unknown how tyrannical would he be? When he reached the demon emperor realm, even the current leaders of the Desolate Mountain Range would most probably have no way to resist him.

Luckily heaven devouring beasts are only a rare few in terms of numbers. There's currently only a single heaven devouring beast demon emperor protecting this royal-blooded one. But even so, that old demon emperor is extremely terrifying. With a gigantic body and nine heads, just a single glance would strike fear in the depths of one's heart.

"Interesting." Some of the experts who had ascended to the mountain peak with Qin Wentian smiled. As expected of someone qualified enough to enter the Demongod Palace. His combat prowess is truly extraordinary, easily sweeping aside people at the same cultivation realm.

"Ziyu, your judgement of this person is really accurate. He is truly powerful and has now surpassed you by a large margin." At the area where the Jiang Clan gathered, Jiang Zihua spoke to Jiang Ziyu.

"Mhm." Jiang Ziyu nodded. His talent was extraordinary but the distance between him and Qin Wentian was gradually pulling apart. However, he wasn't discouraged. He believed in himself and as long as he steadily continued on his path, there would definitely be a place for him in the immortal realms in the future.

In the direction of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, all the experts were infuriated. Huang Shatian stood within the crowd, feeling speechless as he stared at his extraordinary opponent. Leaving aside Qin Wentian, even that demonic beast companion of Qin Wentian had already surpassed him. This truly made him feel a great psychological shock. If he wanted to surpass Qin Wentian again, it was most probably impossible for him to do so.

The immortal emperor beside glanced at Huang Shatian with an unsightly expression on his face. Earlier, when he saw how dispirited Huang Shatian was, he sent out an immortal king to kill Qin Wentian, hoping to restore Huang Shatian's confidence, righting his state of heart so he can begin climbing to the peak once more.

However, things always turned out contrary to the way one wishes. Not only did the immortal king he sent out fail to kill Qin Wentian, that immortal king became the stepping stone for Qin Wentian, allowing Qin Wentian to shine with the glorious light of victory, suppressing the geniuses from all other major powers.

Qin Wentian and Little Rascal continued on their way. With the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Evergreen Immortal Emperor here, no other immortal emperors would dare to act recklessly to kill Qin Wentian. If not, if they angered the Phoenix Matriarch and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, they could also slay the juniors of their power with impunity. At that time, the flames of war would fly high and each side would end up in a very pathetic manner. In addition, they were still deep in the demons' territory.

The Demongod Mountain had appeared for ten years. It was unknown how many demons had evolved, and were they strong enough now to be a threat to the immortal realms? If they truly invaded, a great war would definitely occur.

Staring at Qin Wentian's departing group. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Evergreen Immortal Emperor brought their experts and left as well. Many of the major powers from the immortal realms prepared to return. Now that the Demongod Mountain had vanished, it was time for them to return to the immortal realms. The eyes of the greater demons from the Desolate Mountain Range flashed with sharpness as they stared at the immortal cultivators. Excitement could be seen in their eyes. It has been a very long time that they wanted to see the prosperity of the immortal realms for themselves. Now after the Demongod Mountain had appeared, countless demonic beasts had evolved. Nobody would be able to block them anymore.

At this very moment, Qin Wentian who was on the back of Little Rascal, suddenly felt an impending sense of doom. He inclined his head and stared at the air. At the next instant, a stifling pressure blasted out from the void as a stream of fist light burst forth, aiming right at him.

That fist attack exuded devastating might, wanting to shatter the sky. The experts here all felt their bodies trembling as many of them retreated. Qin Wentian had an unsightly expression on his face. Who was the one acting against him?

This punch locked onto his body, piercing out from the void. It was very tough for him to defend against this as the power behind the punch was backed by emperor might.

There was an immortal emperor making a move on Qin Wentian, wanting to kill him.

"Impudent!" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor coldly snorted. He stretched out his palm as an evergreen ancient vine shot out, breaking apart the streams of fist light. The streams of fist light did dissipate, but they also shattered the vine. This attack was still ultimately negated by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

"Eastern Sage." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, more attacks burst out from the void, filling the sky with fist shadows. Many immortal emperors all instantly unleash their powerful auras, protecting their juniors from the aftershock.

The nine-headed demon emperor walked out, his eyes glinting with demonic light. With a roar of anger, the maws of his nine heads all wrenched open as he faced the sky, wanting to devour everything. At this very moment, a terrifying black-colored vortex appeared, swallowing the destructive fist attacks completely, terrifying to the extreme.

"Eastern Sage?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. The killing intent of Eastern Sage towards him was indeed strong. However, why did the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor dare to act? Could it be that he was confident enough to kill him before the eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch?

In addition, this attack was imbued with a strong spatial law energy. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor wasn't proficient in spatial laws at all. There was only a single possibility. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor used a powerful emperor-ranked weapon when he attacked.

At this moment, streams of fist light filled the air, illuminating the area. The boundless destructive might rained down from the sky. Both the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the nine-headed demon emperor stepped out, blocking this attack.

"RUMBLE!" At this very instant, a violet light shot through the sky, shattering everything.

"Violet Emperor!"

Qin Wentian's expression grew unsightly. The figure of the Violet Emperor appeared in the air. His long robes fluttered as he launched a earth-shattering attack. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stepped forth in her boundless glory. Her dainty palm pushed out as a scarlet palm imprint in the form of a phoenix manifested, slamming against that gigantic violet palm print. Two intense beams of light collided with each other, dissipating into an aftershock that spread through the entire area, causing the earth here to be riddled with craters and fissures.

The Violet Emperor attacked once more. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch snorted coldly and blocked it. But at this moment, another beam of light shot over, directly slamming into Qin Wentian. In that instant, Qin Wentian was isolated from the surrounding space by a mysterious force.

"It's the Heaven Seizing Bowl, the treasure of the Duotian Great Emperor." Someone exclaimed. Qin Wentian's body was actually sucked into the light, as he was brought away by it.

"REMAIN HERE!" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor roared with anger, unleashing terrifying attacks. However, the Heaven Seizing Bowl had already activated and the spatial path had been formed. Chaos was everywhere, a powerful spatial light traversed the space as the sky changed color.

"Lord!" The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all turned pale with fright.

Little Rascal howled, Purgatory's countenance paled. That attack locked onto Qin Wentian and brought him away directly. They had no way to do anything.

The expression of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch turned cold. Her robes actually started to ignite in flames as a divine glow covered her body. In an instant, the boundlessly vast mountain area here also started burning, transformed into a world of fire. Her eyes stared at that spatial pathway. In an instant, that path started burning as the projection of a fiery phoenix appeared above it.

"What a fearsome power." Countless people inclined their heads, staring at the sky. The immortal emperors were actually involved in this battle too. In fact, the Duotian Great Emperor was hiding in the shadows and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch unleashed her absolute might.

The Heaven Seizing spatial path had already been formed but the law energy in it was disrupted by the fearsome phoenix flames. Another dazzling beam shot out. The expression of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was colder than ever. She folded ancient mudras, as phoenix wings appeared on her back, spreading out to block the sun.

"If we can't capture him alive, just kill him directly." A cold voice rang out from the void. After that, the beam of light enveloping Qin Wentian started to disintegrate as the law energy in the area turned chaotic. Qin Wentian let out a scream of agony, the tearing sensation could be felt at every inch of his body. Fresh blood splashed through the air, he was now in a very pathetic state. He hurriedly took out his treasured cauldron and entered it for protection.

"Let chaos reign supreme." The cold voice echoed out. The heaven seizing light twisted, wanting to force the treasured cauldron onto another spatial pathway.

However, at this moment, a phoenix feather appeared in the hands of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. With a wave of the feather, the treasured cauldron seemed to have grown a pair of phoenix wings. The spatial energy was disrupted again and the cauldron directly vanished into the void, transported to an unknown and random location.

"The Southern Phoenix Matriarch is borrowing the power of spatial law to send Qin Wentian away. In addition, she directly broke apart the spatial path established by Duotian. In this case, the other side would have no way to predict where Qin Wentian would be sent to as well." An immortal emperor mumbled as he observed. Not only was the Southern Phoenix Matriarch powerful, but she was also extremely decisive as well.

"Southern Phoenix Matriarch, you do live up to your reputation." A voice rang out from the void.

"Duotian Great Emperor. What status do you have? You actually acted against a junior?" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch coldly spoke.

"Haha, who in the immortal realms doesn't know my character? Why would I be bound by silly things like rules and customs? Nothing can stop what I want to do, I will accomplish my objectives even if I have the seize the heavens.” That voice was incomparably tyrannical. “Since Eastern Sage wants a favor from me, I will naturally aid him.”

“Eastern Sage. To kill Qin Wentian, you would even betray yourself?” The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke. The character of the Duotian Great Emperor was well-known by everyone in the immortal realms. He was an extremely lawless individual, doing whatever he wants to. Some called him the Duotian Great Emperor, while others call him the Old Devil Duotian.

Since Eastern Sage made a request of him, he would definitely have paid an extremely astronomical price.

“Stop talking nonsense. Eastern Sage has already joined my sect.” Duotian Great Emperor calmly spoke, his words causing the hearts of countless people to tremble. Has the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor gone crazy? A respectable immortal emperor who once ruled over a region actually submitted to the Old Devil Duotian?!

Chapter 1434: Falling From the Sky

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Evergreen Immortal Emperor were both faintly worried. Eastern Sage was too ruthless. He was a mid-stage immortal emperor, the hegemon of an area. Although he was defeated by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, his cultivation base was still high enough to be a character at the peak level no matter where he went to in the immortal realms.

Clearly, there was only hatred in Eastern Sage's eyes. His purpose now was to kill Qin Wentian, Bai Wuya, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord as well as those who were involved in the war that caused his defeat, as well as the deaths of his sons.

Behind Qin Wentian, there were the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Emperor Yu. In addition to the fact that Qin Wentian was also an extremely cautious individual, not giving him any opportunities at all. Qin Wentian would stay in safely as he slowly grew stronger and stronger. Hence, Eastern Sage chose to submit to Old Devil Duotian, not hesitating no matter how high a price he has to pay.

"This time, he should die, right?" Eastern Sage's voice was transmitted through the spatial-type emperor-ranked weapon, the Heaven Seizing Bowl. How powerful was the Old Devil Duotian? Even if Qin Wentian was sent away by the Southern Phoenix Matriarch due to her disrupting the spatial path, the remnant energies of Duotian should be enough to kill Qin Wentian by right.

"Old Devil Duotian, what price did Eastern Sage pay? You would treat me as an enemy just for the sake of helping him?" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch coldly spoke.

"Southern Phoenix, your beauty is exceptional and you are immensely powerful. You are one of the rare few this seat has his eyes on. Why don't you marry me? We can join forces and roam supreme in the immortal realms. After our union, who else in the immortal realms will be able to stand against us both combined?" Old Devil Duotian laughed. A coldness flashed through the eyes of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. "Old Devil, I will remember the things here today."

"Haha, you are welcome to look for me anytime. When have I, Duotian, ever feared anyone before? If you, Southern Phoenix, wants to come and find me, my heart will be filled with anticipation." The Old Devil Duotian laughed loudly. After that, a bright flash of light inundated the area as the Duotian Great Emperor and Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor both vanished completely.

Silence descended on this entire space. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke in a low voice, "To think that Eastern Sage actually submitted to that old devil. That old devil is greed incarnate, he would ignore everything to do what he wants to. Nobody can stop him. Eastern Sage has truly gone mad, actually seeking help from him. The price he paid must definitely be astronomical as well."

“Mhm, seems like the ending of the war back then has driven Eastern Sage mad. Right now, I also have no idea where Qin Wentian was sent to. We can only pray for his good fortune.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch sighed.

A trace of worry could be seen in the Evergreen Immortal Emperor’s eyes. If Qing`er knew about this, she would definitely feel extremely anxious. Seems like it would be for the best to temporarily keep this from Qing`er.

“ROAR!” A low roar sounded out. Little Rascal stared into the air, his eyes turned a gleaming golden, terrifying to the extreme.

“Little puppy, you should follow the elder of your race.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke in a low voice as she glanced at Little Rascal. That heaven devouring beast, the nine-headed demon emperor, nodded. He naturally would take good care of Little Rascal.

“Let’s go.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke in a light voice as she departed down the ancient path. The experts here all had different thoughts in their hearts. The people from Skymist and the Paragon Sword Sect were naturally extremely happy. Qin Wentian’s victory caused them to lose all face. But Eastern Sage was truly ruthless enough, willing to submit to Old Devil Duotian, seeking his help. Even if they failed to kill Qin Wentian, he would surely end up in an extremely miserable state.

Huang Shatian’s eyes flashed with a strange light. Would Qin Wentian die so easily?

After all the experts left, the place where the Demongod Mountain was at, transformed back into an ordinary mountain range, no longer mystical. However, throughout these ten years, countless greater demons had evolved. Right now, all of them were moving out together in unison, causing tremors to shake the earth. This scene was truly shocking.

The experts of the immortal realms soared through the air. When they saw the countless number of greater demons, worry surfaced in their hearts. Seems like the immortal realms would soon be in for a great commotion.

…

In the boundlessly vast immortal realms, the number of major powers was the most in the central regions.

The Snowdrift Sage Hall was one of the major powers within the central regions, and all their members were female.

As a major power, the Snowdrift Sage Hall naturally controlled a huge amount of authority and influence.

Within the Coldnether Immortal Lake, there was a cultivation ground owned by the Snowdrift Sage Hall. Within the lake, the air around was filled with a frigid qi, this was extremely suitable for the cultivation of the disciples from the Snowdrift Sage Hall. In fact, the city in which the lake was located in, was also an extremely famous one named the Coldnether Immortal City.

This place solely belonged to the Snowdrift Sage Hall, used for the cultivation of their disciples. There were naturally many protectors around guarding the area. Entry was forbidden to all outsiders.

At this moment, the frigid qi permeated the entire area around the lake. The immortal lake was located on a mountain, within the city, seemingly blessed by nature.

The guards around the lake were all females and disciples from the Snowdrift Sage Hall would often come here to immerse themselves within the lake. Nobody was allowed to barge in to disturb them and there never has been a case of someone bold enough to do so.

Right now, several female disciples were within the Coldnether Immortal Lake. Their clothes were all wet, stuck to their bodies, revealing their graceful curves. In fact, there were some who were even more sexy, only wearing a few pieces of clothing. They were all cultivating within the lake. By wearing less clothing, their bodies would be able to better come in contact with the frigid qi, making the qi easier to absorb.

Since outsiders were forbidden entry, they naturally had no need to worry.

“Qingyi, I heard that your cultivation has improved. Why are you cultivating so assiduously? Did you suffer some psychological impact?” At this moment, a sexy beauty stared at a woman beside her. That woman had her eyes closed, her skin was as fair as jade and her frame was perfect. Her countenance was one of beauty as well.

“What does this have to do with you?” The woman named Chu Qingyi coldly spoke.

“I’m after all still your senior apprentice sister, why can’t I ask a few question? Qingyi, why must you be so distant?” That sexy beauty laughed. Chu Qingyi continued closing her eyes, acting like she heard nothing.

“Kacha…” Just as they were speaking, the defensive barrier of light was suddenly shattered. A whistling sound rang out, and as the maidens in the lake inclined their heads and stared in the air, a beam of light could be seen shooting towards them.

Their eyes flashed with coldness. “Who is it?” They instantly took out robes to cover themselves as their expressions turned unsightly. There actually was someone who dared to barge into here? Is that person courting death?

More and more experts appeared, but that beam of light was too quick, like lightning from the heavens. When they peered closely, they could see a human-shaped silhouette within the beam of light.

“Impudent!” Mo Xiaoxiao shouted. Waving her hand, a blast of coldnether energy directly shot towards that figure. After that, the figure who was initially falling down towards the lake, was knocked away by the attack, and slammed into a nearby mountain instead.

Blasts of coldnether energy gushed forth. The maidens put on their robes, radiating a terrifying killing intent. Mo Xiaoxiao didn’t bother to argue with Chu Qingyi any longer, and walked towards that figure. This person was truly audacious, actually daring to come here to peep at them. He was simply courting death.

Chu Qingyi still had her eyes closed. Her clothing was flimsy but managed to cover all her sensitive areas. She had no worries that people would peek at her. As for that intruder, Mo Xiaoxiao naturally would deal with him.

That figure that fell from the sky was naturally none other than Qin Wentian. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor even felt that the remnant energies were sufficient to take Qin Wentian’s life. From this, one could imagine how terrifying the attack that Qin Wentian had to endure was. At this moment, he felt as though his body was about to break apart. After dashing into his treasured cauldron, and as he was transported away to this new area, the remaining strand of his consciousness kept the treasured cauldron away. He was worried that such a supreme treasure might cause others to kill him outright because of greed.

At this moment, as he was about to fall into the water. The attack from Mo Xiaoxiao slammed into him. His body trembled violently, on the verge of breaking down as his consciousness grew even more blurry.

Although his eyes were open, he could only see blurry figures. He faintly saw a group of maidens with racy figures, all of them extremely beautiful. Naturally, he could also feel the cold intents radiating from them.

At the next instant, his eyes closed as he fainted directly. However, Qin Wentian wasn’t worried that he would die because of the injuries. In the past when he condensed his seventh astral soul, there was still an attribute law energy that would prevent him from dying due to his injuries. He was only worried about others attacking him when he was unconscious.

Mo Xiaoxiao walked over. When she saw the young and handsome-looking Qin Wentian, her eyes flashed with coldness, “Being able to endure one of my attacks without dying, this lecher must be an immortal-foundation character. Kill him.”

“Mhm.” Someone walked out. But on the other side, Chu Qingyi’s immortal sense gushed forth, seeing clearly who the man was. After that, her body shuddered violently as she shouted out loudly, “Stop!”

Her body dashed out from the water, ignoring the fact that her figure was soaking wet, her curves fully seen by others. Mo Xiaoxiao and the others turned back and stared at her. “Qingyi, what are you doing?”

Only to see that Chu Qingyi didn’t seem to have heard her words. She directly dashed to the side of Qin Wentian. Staring at the unconscious figure, her heart trembled violently. She didn’t know why this was so. When she saw that face which she was initially supposed to hate, the waves in her heart were actually so intense.

“Nobody is allowed to touch him.” Walking over, Chu Qingyi carried up Qin Wentian, causing Mo Xiaoxiao to freeze. Although the frail clothing over Chu Qingyi covered the most sensitive areas, she was still exceptionally sexy at this moment. Also, she actually didn’t mind being in such close proximity with a guy? This was really unusual.

“Qingyi, what are you planning to do? This man’s lust knows no bounds, yet you still want to protect him?” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly laughed.

“He came here to find me.” Chu Qingyi glanced at Mo Xiaoxiao and walked past her directly. A single sentence was enough to make Mo Xiaoxiao shut up.

As expected, Mo Xiaoxiao’s eyes flashed with a strange light before she suddenly started laughing as an expression of interest appeared in her eyes.

Was here to find her?

Could it be that Chu Qingyi long had someone in her eyes and that person was this man? However, why was the man of her dreams so weak, unable to even withstand a single strike? This was truly somewhat disappointing.

Chapter 1435: Grand Recovery Pill

Chu Qingyi carried Qin Wentian as she continued on, walking out of the Coldnether Lake. After that, she entered a palace and placed Qin Wentian down as she put on a robe. Staring at that unconscious figure, she couldn't help but furrow her brows. Qin Wentian's injuries were extremely serious. It's highly probable that his injuries were caused by a fight before he appeared here, bursting out from the void. It's absolutely impossible for Mo Xiaoxiao to injure him.

Back then when in the sacred academy, Qin Wentian was already strong enough to fight with Huang Shatian. How could a single strike by Mo Xiaoxiao injure him? That was nothing but a wrong assumption on Mo Xiaoxiao's part.

Although she had no idea what Qin Wentian had encountered earlier, the improvement to his strength is undoubtedly much faster than hers. Who exactly was the one who injured him? Also, from how deep his injuries were, that person attacking must be an extremely ruthless individual.

"Should I save you?" Chu Qingyi stared at Qin Wentian. Her heart was in chaos, unable to calm down. Back then in the sacred academy, she hated Qin Wentian immensely. It was because of him that she was injured, which eventually led to her suffering that humiliation. Although she was saved by him at the end, he still kidnapped her and constantly tormented her with his words.

But now, she couldn't find it in herself to hate him. In fact, her heart was telling her to save him.

After struggling for some time, Chu Qingyi carried up Qin Wentian again. Her figure flashed as she departed the area. Qin Wentian was heavily injured and she had no idea if there was any danger to his life. She alone had no way to cure Qin Wentian, if she wanted to help him, she could only temporarily send him to the city lord manor.

The city lord of Coldnether Immortal City was a peak-stage immortal king, and was a subordinate power to the Snowdrift Sage Hall. The city lord should be able to help Qin Wentian. It was just that she didn't like going there. But now, for the sake of him, she could only grit her teeth and bring him over.

Within the city lord manor of Coldnether Immortal City, that place was extremely majestic. When Chu Qingyi brought Qin Wentian over, nobody dared to block her. All of them knew of her identity.

Chu Qingyi entered the depths of the manor, and walked towards one of the residences there. A group of experts came to welcome her and the person in the lead was actually a beautiful maiden. Her countenance was exquisite, her aura extraordinary. She was one of the daughters of the city lord's clan and was someone that had a pretty good relationship with Chu Qingyi.

"Qingyi, who is this?" That maiden couldn't help but ask when she saw Chu Qingyi actually carrying a man over.

“He is a friend of mine. Lu Yao, his injuries are very serious. Can you help me?” Chu Qingyi’s beautiful eyes turned to Lu Yao.

“Qingyi, I will naturally help you. I have a pill here, this is something my father gave me, a seventh-grade grand recovery pill and it should be sufficient to protect his life.” Lu Yao took out a sparkling immortal-grade pill as the fragrance permeated the air. This made Chu Qingyi exceptionally moved. She then spoke, “Lu Yao, consider this as me owing you a favor.”

“Don’t worry, my dad is an alchemist. You should know that I have no lack of immortal medicine and pills.” Lu Yao laughed and passed the grand recovery pill to Chu Qingyi. After that, Chu Qingyi placed the pill in Qin Wentian’s mouth and smoothed it down his throat. Lu Yao felt somewhat bewildered when she saw this scene. She was acquainted with Chu Qingyi since a very long time ago and it was very rare for Chu Qingyi to be so worried towards someone. A seventh-grade immortal pill was something sufficient to save an immortal king expert. Yet she gave it to this friend of hers with no hesitation.

When the pill took effect, Qin Wentian’s body suddenly emitted a fragrance as his blood started flowing more smoothly within his veins. His body also started to shine slightly with a luster, no longer as pale as before.

“Seems like it’s taking effect. Don’t worry, stellar martial cultivators all have very strong recovery abilities. That in addition to the pill’s effects, he will definitely be saved.” Lu Yao lightly spoke, as Chu Qingyi nodded.

“If you are still worried, I can go and brew some other medicine for him to consume, allowing him to wake up earlier.” Lu Yao smiled and walked out. Chu Qingyi was in a daze as she stared at the features of Qin Wentian, it was unknown what she was thinking in her heart. Right now, she felt very complicated. She only came out of the daze after Lu Yao returned. She took the bowl of brewed medicine and started feeding it to Qin Wentian.

After that, the color of Qin Wentian’s face also started to come back. Evidently, the medicine was effective.

“He should awaken soon.” Lu Yao spoke.

“I’ll go out for a walk.” Chu Qingyi replied and started walking out from the residence.

“Qingyi.” Lu Yao started as she called out.

“Help me to take care of him.” Chu Qingyi’s voice rang out. Lu Yao couldn’t understand what was going on. She stood beside Qin Wentian and stared at his features while thinking that Chu Qingyi’s judgement was pretty high. After all, Chu Qingyi was a holy maiden character of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, the person who could make her have an interest, would definitely be extraordinary as well.

At this moment, the energy within Qin Wentian’s body started to circulate automatically. Not long after, he soon regained consciousness. He opened his eyes as a beautiful face appeared in his vision.

After using his senses to scan his body internally, he felt the source of medical strength aiding him in his recovery. He knew he had suffered heavy injuries and if he depended on his own recovery abilities, there would be no way for him to wake up so quickly. Clearly, the medical effect had helped a lot, allowing him to gain consciousness again in such a short time.

“Where am I?” Qin Wentian asked.

“This place is the city lord manor. You should take a good rest and try to recover, the effect of the grand recovery pill should still be circulating within your body. Don’t waste it, try to absorb as much as possible. It will definitely be beneficial to you.” Lu Yao smiled sweetly. Qin Wentian lightly nodded as he started to actively absorb the pill’s medical effects, merging it into his bloodstream and circulated it to all parts of his body.

In the blink of an eye, seven days passed. Qin Wentian had recovered plenty during these seven days and all external wounds had disappeared. He could already stand up himself and walked about easily. Also, although his internal injuries are more serious, they are gradually recovering as well.

At this moment, as he was walking around in the courtyard of the residence, Lu Yao came by. She smiled at him, “Why are you up so early?”

“Nothing, just feel like walking around.” Qin Wentian smiled back. “Lu Yao, I have to thank you for your care during these days.”

“I’m merely helping my friend out, there’s no need to thank me.” Lu Yao had an innocent smile on her face.

“Helping your friend?” Qin Wentian curiously asked.

“Yes, Holy Maiden Qingyi was the one who asked me to take care of you. She just tossed you here to me and went about her own carefree ways.” Lu Yao smiled wryly as she shook her head. Qin Wentian was stunned as he mumbled, “Holy Maiden Qingyi?”

“Don’t you know about this?” Lu Yao stared at Qin Wentian with a look of puzzlement on her face. “The holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, Chu Qingyi. She was the one who brought you here when you were seriously injured, beseeching me to take good care of you.”

“Chu Qingyi!” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed as he gradually recalled. A figure appeared in his mind’s eye as a strange look appeared on his face. Back then, didn’t Chu Qingyi hate him immensely when they were in the sacred academy? He had even kidnapped her but she actually saved him now and asked Lu Yao to take good care of him?

“Chu Qingyi asked you to help and you just agreed to like that” At this moment, a cold voice drifted over. Lu Yao inclined her head only to see a group of figures directly entering her residence, flying through the air.

“Holy Maiden Mo.” Lu Yao’s expression changed when she saw Mo Xiaoxiao here.

“You gave him the Grand Recovery Pill to consume?” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian then remembered that this maiden was the blurry figure he saw before he fainted. She was the one who attacked him.

“Yes.” Lu Yao nodded.

“How dare you!” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly snorted. “The Grand Recovery Pills concocted by the city lord manor are given in very little quantity to my Snowdrift Sage Hall as a tribute. It’s fine that your father gave them for your own usage, but you actually took one out for this lecher to consume? Since this is the case, why don’t you just directly give it to my sect as tribute?”

“Holy maiden, that grand recovery pill is my personal item. I should have the authority to decide who I want to give it to? Am I wrong?” Lu Yao lifted her head and stared at Mo Xiaoxiao.

“Lu Yao, why are you speaking to the holy maiden this way. Quickly apologize.” Beside Mo Xiaoxiao, an arrogant-looking young man stood there as he icily spoke.

“If I’m not in the wrong, why must I apologize?” Lu Yao stubbornly continued.

“You are getting more and more unruly, even me, your elder brother, is unable to persuade you now? Hurry up and apologize to Holy Maiden Mo.” That young man coldly spoke, causing Lu Yao to grit her teeth with reluctance.

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows when he saw this scene. Just as he wanted to speak, a misty voice rang out as Chu Qingyi appeared beside him. She coldly spoke, “Mo Xiaoxiao, Lu Feng. What do you two mean by bullying Lu Yao?”

“What do we mean? Chu Qingyi, it’s fine if you want to fool around with a man. However, you even brought your lover into the Lu Clan and exploited the relationship between you and Lu Yao to cheat a grand recovery pill from her. Could it be that you don’t know our Snowdrift Sage Hall lacks grand recovery pills urgently? You are actually willing to waste one on an unimportant person.”

When Qin Wentian saw that it was really Chu Qingyi that appeared, he was truly extremely startled. He didn’t expect that it would actually be her. Chu Qingyi had actually helped him.

“Holy Maiden Qingyi, Mo Xiaoxiao is right. As a holy maiden of our sect, Lu Yao naturally wouldn’t reject your request. However, a grand recovery pill is still something extremely valuable. Because your lover got injured, you used it on him instead of gifting it to our sect. This cannot be justified.” That young man sneered.

“You all really want to make things ugly for me?” Chu Qingyi’s expression turned cold. Mo Xiaoxiao had always been against her. Right now, she was actually deliberately blowing things up, wanting to go against her.

“I’ve already said that this grand recovery pill will be treated as a personal favor which I owe to Lu Yao. It has nothing to do with you two.” Chu Qingyi icily spoke.

“Isn’t this grand recovery pill consumed by me?” At this moment, Qin Wentian stepped out and spoke, causing Chu Qingyi and Lu Yao to glanced at him. Chu Qingyi had a complicated look in her eyes. When coming face to face with Qin Wentian, she actually didn’t know how to react.

“Since I was the one who consumed it, I will naturally pay it back to Miss Lu Yao myself. There’s no need for anyone else to shoulder this debt for me.” Qin Wentian spoke. Chu Qingyi’s beautiful eyes flashed as she lowered her head, actually feeling a little disappointed. Did Qin Wentian still loathe her and was unwilling to accept her kindness?

“You pay it back?” Mo Xiaoxiao laughed. “Do you know how valuable a seventh-grade grand recovery pill is? Just with you alone? How can you pay it back?”

That young man also laughed, staring mockingly at Qin Wentian.

“Did I consume a pill that belonged to the two of you?” Qin Wentian stared at Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Feng as he asked.

“Although you did not, this matter has something to do with us.” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly replied.

“Since I did not, why are the two of you barking so much?” Qin Wentian coldly stated.

Chapter 1436: Chu Qingyi's Attitude

Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Feng were both stunned when they heard Qin Wentian's words. After that, they started laughing. The immortal sense of the two of them rudely swept over and surveyed Qin Wentian.

"Qingyi, I thought that you set your sights very high, even Lei Ba from the Thundergod Hall couldn't enter your eyes. However, reality is so disappointing." Mo Xiaoxiao giggled. "Such a weak aura yet daring to speak to me in this manner. This man truly doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth."

"Although I don't know what your actual cultivation base is, the you now can be smacked to death by me with a single palm. You even consumed a grand recovery pill of my Lu Clan and you still dare to speak so arrogantly?" Lu Feng had a cold smile of disdain on his face.

Chu Qingyi's expression changed. She was very clear on what sort of person Qin Wentian was. Back then in the academy, he was the stuff of legends, fighting against all the geniuses there and despite so, could still be so arrogant and dazzling before all of them. He led a group of experts to clash against his enemies, warring till the sky changed color and even feasted on white tiger flesh.

Right now, although he was injured. But, given his pride, how could he allow Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Feng to insult him like this?

Stepping out, Chu Qingyi came to the side of Qin Wentian. She stared at Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Feng, "Mo Xiaoxiao, you guys should stop acting so insolent. His words aren't wrong, he didn't consume a grand recovering pill belonging to either of you. What qualifications do the two of you have to keep talking here?"

"Fine, since you still want to argue, we will ask Lu Yao's father to come out. The grand recovery pills the Lu Clan concocted should have a connection with the City Lord Manor." Mo Xiaoxiao coldly snorted.

"I've already asked someone to invite him out." Lu Feng spoke. Chu Qingyi's expression was very unsightly. Seems like Mo Xiaoxiao was really determined to blow things up and use it to damage her reputation. After all, the two of them were holy maidens of the Snowdrift Sage Hall and are fellow apprentice sisters. The competition between them will naturally be extremely intense. This Mo Xiaoxiao had never gotten along well with her before.

In addition, the City Lord Manor was a very complicated place. Although it was a subordinate power belonging to the Snowdrift Sage Hall, through the generations, the City Lord Manor has sent many people to join the sect and there were even some who had a very high status within. Hence, the City Lord Manor cannot be treated the same as an ordinary subordinate power.

Right now, there was a disciple with a very high status from the City Lord Manor. She was an elder from Mo Xiaoxiao's faction and the two of them had a very good relationship. As for Lu Yao's aunt, she was also in the Snowdrift Sage Hall but was an elder from Chu Qingyi's faction. However, the status of Lu Yao's aunt wasn't that high. Hence, the City Lord Manor favored Mo Xiaoxiao more.

This was why Chu Qingyi wasn't that willing to bring Qin Wentian to the City Lord Manor in the first place. She had no choice in the end due to the seriousness of his injuries.

An expected, not too long after, a group of experts came by. Their group formation was very impressive and there were even several elders within. Even Lu Yao's father was here, with a cultivation base at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm. After he arrived, he instantly understood that Lu Yao had created trouble. Seems like his daughter must have offended Mo Xiaoxiao. To think that his daughter would be swept up within the storm between Mo Xiaoxiao and Chu Qingyi. This was something he wasn't willing to see.

"Uncle." Chu Qingyi greeted Lu Yao's father.

"Holy Maiden Qingyi, Holy Maiden Xiaoxiao." Lu Yao's father, Lu Zhan, greeted back.

"Lu Zhan." Mo Xiaoxiao coldly spoke, not giving him face at all. "The grand recovery pills are something concocted by the Lu Clan and cannot be credited to you alone, right?"

"Naturally." Lu Zhan nodded. How could he concoct a powerful pill like a seventh-grade grand recovery pill on his own?

"The Lu Clan will give a number of grand recovery pills to the Snowdrift Sage Hall every year. However, because the Snowdrift Sage Hall is merciful, we wouldn't take every single pill produced and would leave some behind for people of the Lu Clan. There's nothing wrong with you giving one to your daughter Lu Yao, but she should have left it for her own use. Instead of doing so, she actually gave it to a lecher to consume. This man lusts after beauty and barged into the Coldnether Lake while we were cultivating there. He was injured by me yet Lu Yao actually used a grand recovery pill to save him? How can you say that I have no connection to this matter? Lu Zhan, give me an explanation now."

"Lu Yao is ignorant, and I beseech holy maiden to forgive her. However, since the great recovery pill has already been consumed, it's useless even if you want him to repay it. I still have a grand recovery pill with me and I'm willing to gift it with respect to holy maiden Xiaoxiao." Lu Zhan spoke.

"Father, why are you doing this?" Lu Yao spoke with unwillingness.

"Quiet." Lu Zhan berated her, causing an expression of being wronged to appear on her face.

"And?" Mo Xiaoxiao coldly laughed.

“Lu Yao committed a mistake due to her ignorance. I will naturally punish her well.” Lu Zhan continued.

“Uncle, this matter has nothing to do with Lu Yao. I was the one who requested the grand recovery pill from her. There’s no need for you to punish her. Mo Xiaoxiao, if you have anything against me, you can just come straight at me. There’s no need for you to exert dominance here.” Chu Qingyi’s eyes flickered with coldness, staring at Mo Xiaoxiao.

“Qingyi, you are my junior apprentice sister and I naturally won’t punish you. However, since you are also a holy maiden of our sect, how can I let you continue on this path of mistakes? You are now ensnared by the world of emotions and you actually gave a grand recovery pill to such a lecher?” Mo Xiaoxiao spoke. She then smiled in a mocking manner, “I will report this matter upwards to the sect. If you make a decision here now, you may still be in time to avoid trouble.”

“What do you want me to do?” Chu Qingyi frowned. Mo Xiaoxiao’s smile then widened.

“Kill him and make your Dao Heart return to normal. Only by doing so would our sect not punish you. If not, even if your talent is outstanding, the sect would definitely be extremely disappointed towards you.” At this moment, a voice rang out. The person who spoke was a young man in white. He was handsome and exuded an extraordinary aura as well as a sense of noble elegance.

The cultivation of this person was at the peak of immortal-foundation. His name was Lu Zhanfei, and has a very good relationship with Mo Xiaoxiao. He can be considered from the direct line of descent. He has outstanding talent and the nephew of Mo Xiaoxiao’s elder in the sect. He is heavily favored by the Lu Clan and had once pursued Chu Qingyi but was rejected by her with no hesitation. He had always been angered by that and wanted to find ways to make Chu Qingyi his.

Qin Wentian’s eyes glanced over, flickering with killing intent. This man wanted Chu Qingyi to kill to correct her Dao heart?

Although he was very weak and still heavily injured now, with his cultivation base unrestored yet, how dare a mere immortal-foundation character say such a thing.

“Are you sure of the words you just said?” Qin Wentian coldly glanced at Lu Zhanfei. When Lu Zhanfei saw Qin Wentian’s eyes, he actually felt a sense of threat. This actually made him angry. He couldn’t help but to feel provoked as he icily replied, “You are not qualified to speak to me.”

“Qin Wentian, the experts in the Lu Clan are as numerous as the clouds. Mo Xiaoxiao is in control here, just bear with it and don’t act impulsively or they might really act to kill you and I won’t be able to stop it.” Chu Qingyi transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. “Just endure it for now, I will definitely protect your safety.”

Qin Wentian was somewhat taken aback when he heard this. He asked, “Why are you doing this?”

A faint smile appeared on Chu Qingyi’s face but she didn’t reply. She stared at Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Zhanfei before she coldly spoke, “The great recovery pill was requested by me, I will naturally pay one back to Lu Yao. This matter has nothing to do with Uncle Lu, I will bear this debt alone. You can report up to the sect if you want to. I will wait for the Snowdrift Sage Hall to give the command. However, for those who dare to make a move on my friend before my eyes, that will be considered as forming a death grudge with me, Chu Qingyi. I won’t rest until either of us dies.”

As the sound of her voice faded, she shot a cold and threatening glance at the crowd, especially at the other elders of the Lu Clan. Although Mo Xiaoxiao has more influence here, Chu Qingyi was after all, still a holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall. If these people wanted to make a move on Qin Wentian, they had to consider carefully if they wanted to offend her.

The people of the Lu Clan all had strange gleams in their eyes when they saw how determined Chu Qingyi was. Mo Xiaoxiao suddenly laughed. She was watching the scene with interest. Chu Qingyi wanted to protect this man? How interesting. Since this is the case, she wanted to see how Chu Qingyi would be able to protect this man.

“The birthday celebration for the City Lord should be happening soon, right?” Mo Xiaoxiao spoke.

“Yes.” An old man replied.

“Mhm, at the time during the celebration, my senior apprentice aunt will definitely come back to wish the City Lord well. At that time, let’s wait for her to return before we settle this matter in the face of senior City Lord.” Mo Xiaoxiao stated, her words causing Chu Qingyi’s expression to change.

“During these days, everyone should pay close attention to the lover of my junior apprentice sister Qingyi. Don’t let him escape.” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly commanded.

“Yes.” Someone nodded to acknowledge. After that, Mo Xiaoxiao’s group departed the area, flying through the air. Lu Zhanfei still remained behind. He stared at Chu Qingyi before glancing at Qin Wentian. “Qingyi, if you agree to my marriage proposal, my aunt definitely won’t pursue this matter.”

“Scram.” Chu Qingyi icily spoke. He wanted to use this matter to threaten her?

When Lu Zhanfei heard that, his countenance turned extremely ugly. He shot a glacial look at Qin Wentian, “You would rather be in love with this trash compared to marrying me? I, Lu Zhanfei, am almost able to break through to the immortal king realm. How am I not worthy of you? Chu Qingyi, you will definitely regret this.”

After that, he coldly snorted and left with a flick of his sleeve. The only people remaining were Lu Yao and her father, Lu Zhan.

Lu Zhan glanced at Chu Qingyi before turning to Lu Yao. After that, he could only sigh helplessly.

“Uncle, this matter was started because of me, it originally had nothing to do with Mo Xiaoxiao. I didn’t expect that she would intentionally want to blow this matter up and implicate Lu Yao. I’m really very sorry about this and will try my best to salvage things. In this period of time, can I trouble Uncle to help me take care of my friend?” Chu Qingyi beseeched. She still had something she had to do. Hopefully, it would be able to resolve this crisis.

“Mhm, since things have come to this extent, just go and do what you have to. Since holy maiden Mo Xiaoxiao said that she would wait until the date of the birthday celebration, I don’t think she would try anything funny now.” Lu Zhan spoke. Chu Qingyi nodded and turned to Qin Wentian. “Recuperate well here and wait for my return.”

Qin Wentian glanced at Chu Qingyi, knowing that she was really helping him from the bottom of her heart. He could only sigh and say, “Chu Qingyi, we might both have a grudge back then in the past but I have already forgotten that. You don’t owe me anything and you don’t have to trouble yourself to help me.”

“But…I’m unable to forget.” Chu Qingyi smiled in a somewhat poignant manner. After that, she turned and left the area.

She knew that with Qin Wentian’s character, he had already been disgusted with her right from the start. Right now, he probably wouldn’t feel any goodwill towards her. She wouldn’t request for anything in return, she only wanted to follow her heart and protect Qin Wentian from being in danger here!

Chapter 1437: Lu Yanxue

Chu Qingyi left. Lu Zhan stared at Qin Wentian and sighed before he left as well. He was very unwilling to be swept up in this storm but there was no way for him to evade it.

Qin Wentian calmly watched the happenings. Although there were waves in his heart, the waves weren't too great.

A holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, Mo Xiaoxiao, was in opposition with Chu Qingyi but she was actually going to use him as the excuse? This was really a laughable matter. Since she wanted it to be so, she was destined to be disappointed.

"What relationship do you have with Qingyi exactly?" Lu Yao curiously stared at Qin Wentian. From the conversation between Chu Qingyi and Qin Wentian, the two of them didn't seem like good friends or lovers. On the contrary, they even seemed to have some grudge between them. But if this was the case, why would Chu Qingyi spare no expense, asking her to help save him?

"We don't have any relationship at all." Qin Wentian calmly replied. Lu Yao started, she then smiled and shook her head, "It's fine if you don't wish to tell me. In any case, there's still a period of time before the birthday celebration. You should recuperate well. Qingyi will think of a solution and I'll do my best to protect your safety."

"Many thanks." Qin Wentian nodded lightly to Lu Yao. This maiden was able to promise to take good care of him under such a situation. She was really a very good friend.

As for his safety, no one else here was qualified enough yet to protect him.

The only characters he had to be wary of, were immortal emperors. He couldn't care less about a mere City Lord. The truly troublesome matter was that the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor sought help from an extremely powerful source. Unless there's another equally powerful character willing to protect him, he mustn't appear in the Eastern Sage's vision, or let him know any clue regarding his whereabouts.

For this period of time, Lu Yao really did take good care of Qin Wentian. She would often brew some medicine for Qin Wentian to consume. Actually, Qin Wentian didn't really need the medicine. However, upon seeing how insistent Lu Yao was as well as to thank her for her kind gesture, he finished up the contents of the brewed medicine every single time. Also, his injuries were gradually recovering and his energy and spirit were slowly restored.

"Have you gone mad? You are actually still giving him medicine. Don't you know what the current situation is?"

“Lu Yanxue’s cultivation has already reached the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. What a fast cultivation speed is this? Her talent is outstanding and she is heavily recognized by the Snowdrift Sage Hall. When she comes back for the birthday celebration, a huge commotion will definitely happen. You are actually still taking care of this man? Are you really intending to make an enemy out of Lu Yanxue’s faction? She’s the senior apprentice aunt of Mo Xiaoxiao’s faction in the sect too.”

“That’s right, we should capture him now and hand him over to Mo Xiaoxiao. Let’s forget about Chu Qingyi.”

The voices outside quarrelled. Although there was some distance between them, Qin Wentian could still hear these words clearly. Qin Wentian’s immortal sense extended outwards and after that, he saw a group of young people from the Lu Clan surrounding Lu Yao. All of these people had cold looks on their faces and were berating Lu Yao rudely.

“When Qingyi was here, why did none of you step out to say anything? Now that Qingyi has left him in my care, you guys suddenly became so gutsy and stood out?” Lu Yao glanced at the people around her, all of them in the same generation as her. She was so enraged that her body was trembling.

“Chu Qingyi is, after all, a holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall. We cannot clash head-on directly with her. Now that she’s left, maybe she doesn’t intend to bother with this matter any longer. However, you are so stupid and still actually helping her? In addition, if we hand over this man to Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Zhanfei, even when Chu Qingyi returns and learns of it, she wouldn’t dare to say anything.” A female icily spoke.

“That’s right, we can express goodwill to Mo Xiaoxiao. After all, in our Lu Clan, Mo Xiaoxiao’s authority is greater than Chu Qingyi.” The other people here all nodded.

“Don’t forget what Qingyi said when she left. There’s nothing wrong if you all want to please Mo Xiaoxiao. However, if there’s someone who really dares to capture him to hand him over to Mo Xiaoxiao, Qingyi will definitely not spare any of you. You all best consider the price you have to pay.” Lu Yao’s voice turned domineering and cold, causing these people to hesitate.

After that, a young man cursed out loud with an ugly expression on his face. “For a mere trash, you want to protect him? Lu Yao, you may cause our entire faction to be punished. You should know how to weigh the benefits and costs.”

“Lu Yao, if something happens to our faction, you will really be a sinner.” The group of people flicked their sleeves and left. Lu Yao was so angered that she was panting. Staring at the departing people, her heart was filled with anger and unhappiness.

“Nothing but a bunch of snobs.” Lu Yao angrily spoke.

“Since you know their character, why are you still angered by them?” A voice drifted over. Lu Yao turned, only to see Qin Wentian walking here. She couldn’t help but ask, “Sir Qin, you’ve heard it?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded lightly. “Don’t worry, these matters won’t be able to affect me.”

“That’s good. Sir Qin, you are still injured, you must not be angered or your internal injuries might flare up once more. Qingyi asked me to take care of you, even if I cannot allow you to make a full recovery, I mustn’t further aggravate your injuries.” Lu Yao smiled. Qin Wentian walked to her side, “Lu Yao, do you have any wish you want to fulfill?”

“Why are you asking this question?” Lu Yao had a look of curiosity on her face.

“You gave me a grand recovery pill to consume, I said that I would repay you for that before and I’ll naturally do so. However, I have no idea what you want, and hence, I’m asking if you have any wishes. Maybe, I might be able to fulfill them for you.” Qin Wentian laughed. Although he would be fine even without the grand recovery pill, he was someone who could clearly differentiate between hatred and kindness. The two of them weren’t acquainted at all, Qin Wentian naturally wanted to repay Lu Yao for her kindness.

Lu Yao giggled, exuding an innocent and sunshine-like feel.

“What are you laughing about?” Qin Wentian started.

“I’m laughing at how silly you are. You might be in deep trouble but you are still concerned about my wish? Could it be that you will help me to fulfill it?” Lu Yao rolled her eyes. Although she didn’t believe him, his words did give her a feeling of comfort.

“I’m silly?” Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. There were very few people who would say that of him.

“Am I not correct?” Lu Yao laughed mischievously when she saw the awkward expression on Qin Wentian’s face, she was really quiet adorable.

“My wish is very simple, I only hope that my faction in the clan would be more heavily recognized instead of being pushed to the side. However, my talent cannot be considered high among my clan. Hence, I say that this wish of mine is very hard to fulfill. For those powerful innate techniques and secret arts, alchemic skills and all various divine weapons, all of them would never flow to me. In the future, even my marriage might not be able to be decided by me. Only if the Clan Lord attached a heavy importance to me, I might still be able to have the authority of choice.”

Lu Yao stared in the horizons as she sighed. However, she soon recovered and glanced at Qin Wentian, “Haha, I have no idea why I’m telling you this. These are all just empty fantasies of mine. You cannot laugh at me okay?”

“I won’t.” Qin Wentian shook his head. “Maybe I might really be able to accomplish some of these wishes for you.”

“Forget it, I will already be very satisfied if one of those many wishes could be fulfilled.” Lu Yao shook her head. “In any case, let’s forget about this, we have to survive this calamity first. This time, during Grandpa’s birthday celebration, you might be in great trouble. I wonder if Qingyi will be able to think of a solution.”

“Nothing will happen to me.” Qin Wentian spoke lightly.

“Let’s hope so. Sir Qin, you should hurry up and recuperate. If things are bad, I’ll try and sneak you away.” Lu Yao spoke. Qin Wentian didn’t say anything in response. He returned to his own room to continued and recuperate, circulating his energy unceasingly.

As time flowed by, the date of the celebration banquet for the City Lord was arriving.

This birthday celebration for the City Lord, was held once every hundred years. Today, the entire Coldnether Immortal City was in a commotion as experts from several powers arrived here to offer their congratulations. There were also many powers who left after they brought their gifts. These minor powers didn’t even have the qualifications to enter the banquet. Those who could do so were definitely people with extraordinary statuses.

Today, the atmosphere in the City Lord Manor was extremely lively as everyone was busy in preparation. Only in the residence where Qin Wentian and Lu Yao was in, was relatively quiet. Nobody showed any interest in them. Clearly, the recent matter has affected Lu Yao’s faction’s standing within the clan. Lu Yao was sighing in her heart, seems like her wish would never be fulfilled as the distance grew further and further.

At this moment, Qin Wentian appeared and walked towards the exit.

“Stop right there.” Somebody blocked Qin Wentian as that person coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian frowned, “Even my freedom is restricted?”

“It’s too late even if you want to flee now.”

“Flee?” Qin Wentian stared at the guard blocking him. “I don’t have any grudge with the Lu Clan. Does your Lu Clan really plan to kill me?”

“That would have to depend on the City Lord’s will. In any case, before the matter about the grand recovery pill comes to a conclusion, you are not allowed to take a single step out from here.” The guard spoke in a glacial tone. Qin Wentian coldly laughed, “Very well. But who knows, maybe at the time when I have no wish to leave, you guys might be begging me to leave.”

As he spoke, he directly turned and returned. He then saw Lu Yao’s silhouette flashing, walking towards him with an expression of worry on her face.

“Are you okay?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Lu Yanxue has arrived and she also brought many experts of the Snowdrift Sage Hall with her, as well as several people of her generation. The old man City Lord, personally went out to welcome her.” Lu Yao spoke. She then glanced to the guards around here as she coldly spoke. “Scram, are you guys monitoring me?”

“Miss Lu Yao, please don’t be angered. We are merely following orders.” A guard coldly laughed, a glint of amusement could be seen in his eyes when he stared at Qin Wentian and Lu Yao.

“There’s no need to make things difficult for them.” Qin Wentian calmly replied. Lu Yao’s expression was painted with worry. At this moment, a voice drifted over from afar, Chu Qingyi had arrived. Lu Yao glanced at her with anticipation, only to see Chu Qingyi had a frown on her face as she spoke to Qin Wentian. “No matter what happens, I’ll protect your safety, disregarding everything,”

When Lu Yao heard this, her heart couldn’t help but to sink.

Qin Wentian saw the determination in Chu Qingyi’s eyes. He then smiled at her, “Thank you, let us go to the banquet then.”

Chu Qingyi was stunned when she saw Qin Wentian’s smile. She then nodded her head solemnly, “Okay.”

This time, after she returned to her sect, her elders told her not to interfere in this matter because Lu Yanxue’s status in the sect was getting increasingly higher.

At this moment, many experts have already gathered at the location of the banquet. Their eyes were all turned in one direction. The City Lord Lu was personally welcoming this particular entourage. Several female figures flew over, all of them exuding an extraordinary aura, flying towards here.

“Yanxue, you’ve returned.” City Lord Lu happily stated.

“I naturally have to come back to wish father well on your birthday.” Lu Yanxue looked about thirty years of age and was very beautiful, with an extraordinary aura. She was an immortal king and when she descended, she clasped her hands, “Yanxue congratulates father on his upcoming birthday.”

“We congratulate City Lord Lu respectfully.” Many disciples of the Snowdrift Sage Hall bowed in unison and gifted grand presents. City Lord Lu had a face full of smiles. He then spoke, “Yanxue, dispense with the formalities. Just take your seat.”

“Right.” Lu Yanxue nodded lightly.

“Senior apprentice aunt!” Mo Xiaoxiao stood up and greeted.

“Aunt!” Lu Zhanfei also called out.

Lu Yanxue glanced over, nodding her head to signal her intent. She basked in her glory and directly sat on one of the master seats, like the moon surrounded by stars. After that, all the experts respectively stood up and clasped their hands to offer respectful greetings for her.

Chapter 1438: Persuasion

More and more guests showed up, but the most dazzling group was undoubtedly the people from the Snowdrift Sage Hall. After all, the Snowdrift Sage Hall was the controller of this entire city. The disciples from the hall would naturally have extraordinary statuses here.

This time around, there actually were several disciples of the Snowdrift Sage Hall coming by to offer their congratulations to the City Lord for his birthday. In the entire city, only the clan of the city lord would be able to cause this to happen. They might be a subordinate power but after generations of sending their clan members to join the Snowdrift Sage Hall, they had already fully integrated into it.

City Lord Lu exuded an imposing air and sat in the center. Beside him was his daughter, Lu Yanxue. Beside her, Lu Zhanfei's father could be seen and below them, Lu Zhanfei and Mo Xiaoxiao were there too. As for the City Lord's other descendants, they sat more to the side instead.

This group of people could be considered the most influential faction in the Lu Clan, possessing immense authority.

Although Lu Yao was also of the direct line of descent, and she might refer to Clan Lord Lu as grandfather, the Clan Lord was actually the elder uncle of her father, Lu Zhan. From a certain perspective, Lu Yanxue can also be considered Lu Yao's aunt, it was just that she wasn't directly related to her. Compared to Lu Yanxue's direct nephew Lu Zhanfei, Lu Zhanfei will naturally be closer. In addition, Lu Zhanfei's talent was also very good and the fact that Lu Yao's direct aunt was also in the Snowdrift Sage Hall, both Lu Yao and Lu Zhanfei, as well as her direct aunt and Lu Yanxue, would often be compared together due to the competitive nature within the sect and clan.

At the end, Lu Yanxue gradually surpassed Lu Yao's aunt and her status now was extremely high within the sect.

"The Wu Clan offers congratulations to City Lord Lu." At this moment, a thunderous voice rang out as a group of experts with muscular bodies appeared.

The man in the lead was none other than the clan leader of the Wu Clan, Wu Bufan.

"Haha old fellow, you actually came by personally. Quick, please be seated." City Lord Lu stood up and laughed.

"The clan leader of the Wu Clan actually came by personally to offer his congratulations. As expected of City Lord Lu. Even powerful clans had to give him some face."

“Yeah, the Wu Clan’s clan leader’s cultivation base should have already reached the peak-phase of the mid-stage immortal king. In this city, other than City Lord Lu, the Wu Clan is the strongest.” Someone sighed with admiration. In addition, there’s a junior in the Wu Clan that’s very dazzling and was even accepted as a personal disciple by an immortal emperor.

“Oh, is that him?” Many people turned their sights to a young man standing beside Clan Leader Wu Bufan. The young man was extremely handsome, and his eyes had an intense spirit within them. His name was Wu Tianjiao, meaning a heaven chosen of the Wu Clan. Everyone in his clan had high hopes of him and he can be said to have lived up to his name.

“Immortal King Yanxue has arrived too. I’ve long heard of Immortal King Yanxue’s great name and I’m really fortunate to be able to meet you today.” Wu Bufan clasped his hands towards Lu Yanxue. Even though he’s the Wu Clan’s clan leader, he was still very polite to Lu Yanxue. After all, given Lu Yanxue’s status, she was much higher in comparison to the Wu Clan. If Lu Yanxue wasn’t the daughter of City Lord Lu, even the City Lord’s status would be lower than Lu Yanxue. Wu Bufan was naturally very clear about this point.

“Mhm.” Lu Yanxue nodded lightly. She glanced at Wu Tianjiao who stood beside Wu Bufan as a strange light gleamed in her eyes, as though her interest in Wu Tianjiao was more compared to her interest in Wu Bufan.

“Wu Tianjiao entered the immortal king realm?” Lu Yanxue asked.

“Senior’s judgement is truly exceptional. Tianjiao’s talent is lacking and has only recently managed to break through to the immortal-king realm.” Wu Tianjiao politely bowed.

“Not too bad, as expected of a personal disciple of an immortal emperor. Your future is boundless.” Lu Yanxue praised. City Lord Lu also laughed, “Noble nephew Tianjiao is naturally extraordinary. Brother Wu, please take your seat.”

Wu Bufan nodded, he wasn’t polite at all as he walked towards the main seats, together with Wu Tianjiao. Today, he had a purpose for bringing Wu Tianjiao here. He hoped that his son would be able to form some sorts of connection with the Snowdrift Sage Hall, and the best method would naturally be having a marriage agreement with someone in the sect.

The birthday celebration of City Lord Lu was a very good opportunity.

“Everyone, please feel free to be seated, there’s no need to stand on ceremony.” City Lord Lu waved his hand to the crowd. The banquet was then served up as the experts presented their gifts. Since they were already here, they naturally wanted to perform a little and form a better relationship with the City Lord.

The atmosphere was very lively. At this moment, both Lu Yao and Qin Wentian also arrived. They could sense the lively atmosphere but they didn’t seem to be able to become a part of the liveliness.

“Father.” Lu Yao glanced at Lu Zhan and the rest of her faction who were sitting below and walked over.

“Take your seat.” Lu Zhan spoke in a low voice. However, there were many young people from this faction who coldly sweep their glances over to Lu Yao and Qin Wentian, their eyes clearly showing that they didn’t welcome them. Lu Yao’s actions would cause them to be at odds with Lu Yanxue’s faction. They couldn’t afford to directly offend Chu Qingyi and could only vent their anger on Lu Yao and Qin Wentian.

Chu Qingyi, who was beside Qin Wentian, glanced in Lu Yanxue’s direction. Only to see that at this moment, Lu Yanxue was also glancing over. However, she shifted her glance away after an instant, exuding an air of disdain. This made Chu Qingyi’s expression turn unsightly, hence she didn’t go over to offer her greetings. However, how could Mo Xiaoxiao let this go? She laughed and spoke, “Why? Junior sister Qingyi, do you not know how to greet your senior apprentice aunt?”

Chu Qingyi’s eyes flashed. She then bowed to Lu Yanxue, “Chu Qingyi greets senior apprentice aunt.”

Lu Yanxue no longer glanced over, directly disregarding Chu Qingyi, causing her to be in an ugly situation. Mo Xiaoxiao’s laughter then rang out condescendingly.

Wu Bufan and Wu Tianjiao of the Wu Clan, stared at this scene with interest. Seems like the competition within the Snowdrift Sage Hall must be extremely intense. Wu Tianjiao seemed a little dazed by Chu Qingyi’s beauty. Although Mo Xiaoxiao was also considered beautiful, in this entire crowd after Chu Qingyi appeared, she was definitely the prettiest of all the maidens here.

“Let’s sit.” Chu Qingyi saw that Lu Yanxue had no intentions of acknowledging her, as she spoke lightly to Qin Wentian who was standing beside her.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded lightly. He sat down, only to hear a cold voice ringing out with unhappiness, “Hmph, who allowed you to sit?”

Qin Wentian’s expression stiffened, he saw a middle-aged character icily looking at him from the side. “You came to our Lu Clan and consumed a grand recovery pill, and was waited on comfortably by Lu Yao. Right now, at the banquet, you even want to participate in it? Seems like your arrogance knows no bounds and assumes that your status is high enough to sit here with the others.”

“Uncle.” Lu Yao’s expression drastically changed as she stared at the person who spoke.

“What? Lu Yao, are my words wrong? Given how valuable the grand recovery pill is, you actually gifted it away to a random person just like that? Even if the Clan Lord doesn’t punish you for this, we will still punish you.” That middle-aged man icily spoke out loud, wanting to intentionally show his stance with regards about this matter to the City Lord and Lu Yanxue.

“I’ve already said that the grand recovery pill is something I requested from Lu Yao. I will also repay this favor.” Chu Qingyi coldly stared at the middle-aged man.

“Holy Maiden Qingyi, there’s no need for you to heap this debt on yourself.” That person hurriedly replied, not daring to push Chu Qingyi too far. However, he was truly caught between two difficult positions. He still needed to give a response to Mo Xiaoxiao, who was someone on Lu Yanxue’s side.

Qin Wentian stood there, calmly watching everything. He then spoke, “After consuming the grand recovery pill, I can’t even walk out of these premises. Right now, I’m not even allowed to have a seat at this banquet? What do you guys take I, Qin, for?”

“Hmph, don’t you know the value of a grand recovery pill?” That middle-aged man sneered coldly.

“So what? Do you all really intend to use my life as payment for that?” Qin Wentian counter-asked.

“How can your cheap life be compared to the value of a grand recovery pill? We will await the orders of our Clan Lord to see how he would deal with you.” The middle-aged man clasped his hands to City Lord Lu, expressing his attitude. Regardless of what the Clan Lord decided, he would comply and ignore the fact that Lu Yao was from his own faction within the clan.

“Chu Qingyi is, after all, a holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall. Yanxue, what do you think?” City Lord Lu glanced at Lu Yanxue as he asked.

Lu Yanxue’s beautiful eyes slowly turned over, finally fixed on Chu Qingyi, Lu Yao and Qin Wentian. Her expression was calm, nobody could tell what her emotions were. A moment later, her calm voice rang out, “I heard from Xiaoxiao that there’s a man who actually dared to barge into the Coldnether Lake during a cultivation session of our sect’s members. She had injured that person and was already prepared to kill him, but you acted to save that man and even brought him to my clan, asking Lu Yao for a grand recovery pill to save him?”

“Reporting to senior apprentice aunt, he had no intentions to barge into the Coldnether Lake and neither was he injured by Mo Xiaoxiao. He was already heavily injured before this.” Chu Qingyi spoke in a tone that was neither servile nor overbearing.

“In that case, what I heard from Xiaoxiao, should be right. Chu Qingyi, as a holy maiden of our sect, do you know that the reputation of holy maidens can never be besmirched? Regardless if he had to intentions to barge in or not, he had already done so. And after that, not only did you not kill him, you stopped Xiaoxiao and even acted to save him, requesting a grand recovery pill from my clan. Tell me, do you know your mistakes?” Lu Yanxue’s voice was as calm as ever.

“I’m not in the wrong.” Chu Qingyi stubbornly spoke. “He is a friend of mine. I would naturally save him.”

“Friend?” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly laughed. “He’s your lover, isn’t he? When he barged into the Coldnether Lake, instead of killing him, you actually saved him? Friend?”

“Mo Xiaoxiao.” Chu Qingyi coldly stared at her senior apprentice sister.

“Are you being angered from the embarrassment because I’m right? Do you dare to say that you are not in love with him?” Mo Xiaoxiao coldly replied.

“So what even if I’m fond of him? When I return to our sect, I’ll bear the weight of this manner. The grand recovery pill was requested by me, I will naturally return the debt. This has nothing to do with our sect and has nothing to do with him.” Chu Qingyi’s voice was extremely domineering, wanting to protect Qin Wentian.

“As expected.” Mo Xiaoxiao started laughing. This time around, she wanted to destroy Chu Qingyi’s reputation completely, and make her offend Lu Yanxue, thereby destroying her own future.

“Qingyi, I once confessed to you before. To think that for the sake of a trash lecher, you actually rejected me, committing the gravest mistake in your life.” Lu Zhanfei stared at Chu Qingyi as he continued, “But even so, I still don’t mind. If you are willing to start over and accept me, I will beg for mercy for you from my aunt. I believe that the Snowdrift Sage Hall wouldn’t give out any punishment to you as well.”

Chu Qingyi glanced at Lu Zhanfei as an expression of loathing appeared on her face. “Disgusting fellow.”

“How dare you.” Lu Yanxue spoke, her eyes akin to ice.

“Holy Maiden Qingyi’s beauty is unrivalled. Why must you destroy your own future for a trash? Is it worth it?” At this moment, Wu Tianjiao from the Wu Clan also spoke, sighing with regret. He was observing from the side and was already clear on what was happening. He felt that it was a pity for Chu Qingyi. Given her beauty, it would really be a waste if she got together with that trash.

Wu Bufan’s eyes flashed, glancing at his son before he laughed, “That’s right. Holy Maiden Qingyi, you better think thrice before deciding.”

Chapter 1439: Beg Me to Leave

Chu Qingyi glanced at the Wu Clan's father and son. She then coldly spoke, "What does this have to do with either of you?"

"I, Wu, have always admired the fairies from the Snowdrift Sage Hall. Today, being able to see how beautiful Fairy Chu is, I'm truly moved. I'm not willing to see you taking a wrong step and destroying your future." Wu Tianjiao spoke in a dignified and pompous manner. He spoke with the status of a genius immortal king, exuding his elegance as well as praising the Snowdrift Sage Hall, while also admiring his admiration of Chu Qingyi.

This made Lu Yanxue glance at him, she instantly understood Wu Tianjiao's intentions. Seems like the Wu Clan coming here was really to express goodwill and they also wanted a marriage alliance with the Snowdrift Sage Hall.

However, if Chu Qingyi was married into the Wu Clan, things wouldn't be too bad.

Chu Qingyi's talent was really outstanding. After exiting the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, her cultivation speed was god-like and is on the verge of breaking through to the immortal king realm, presenting Lu Yanxue's faction with a heavy threat. If it wasn't for Lu Yanxue, who entered the immortal-king level sacred academy and broke through to the mid-stage there, Chu Qingyi's radiance would definitely be even greater.

This time, Mo Xiaoxiao wanted to borrow this opportunity to suppress Chu Qingyi. This idea wasn't bad, it would be best if they could damage Chu Qingyi's dao heart.

"Qingyi, Wu Tianjiao is a personal disciple of an immortal emperor. His talent is outstanding and has already broken through to the immortal king realm." Lu Yanxue calmly spoke. She then turned to Wu Tianjiao, "Since noble nephew Tianjiao admires Qingyi, I can be the link and introduce her to you."

"Since this is the case, I will have to thanks senior." Wu Tianjiao smiled, causing the eyes of everyone to flash. Seems like the Wu Clan truly had another motive, wanting a marriage alliance with the Snowdrift Sage Hall. As for Wu Tianjiao, he had his sights on Chu Qingyi. Chu Qingyi was really not bad, among these females, she was the most beautiful. There was also no need to say anything about her talent.

"Qingyi, you have also heard it. I will give you a chance. Zhanfei and Wu Tianjiao both are interested in you. As long as you are willing to, I will speak to your master about this. To prove your determination, I want you to kill this lecher to cleanse your reputation. As for the matter with the grand recovery pill, we will forget about it." Lu Yanxue continued.

"Stop dreaming." Chu Qingyi coldly replied. "You might be my senior apprentice aunt but I've not committed any major mistakes. It's just the matter of a grand recovery pill and you want me to kill my friend for that?"

“Recalcitrant fool.” Lu Yanxue snorted coldly. Her gaze turned over, no longer looking at Chu Qingyi, as though she has already given her a chance to redeem herself.

Qin Wentian had been quietly listening. He was somewhat taken aback. Lu Yanxue and Chu Qingyi were both disciples of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, although they were from different factions, their relationship shouldn’t be this bad. Seems like the competition within their sect must be extremely intense. Lu Yanxue wanted to use this chance to suppress Chu Qingyi.

As for himself, he became an opportunity for Lu Yanxue to do so.

“Are you guys treating me like thin air?” At this moment, Qin Wentian spoke, staring at all the experts here.

“Mhm?” The eyes of everyone turned over, landing on Qin Wentian. This man actually also dared to speak here?

Lu Yanxue only cast a single glance at Qin Wentian before looking away, not bothering to spare another glance at him. Lu Zhanfei was coldly laughing as he stared at Qin Wentian with a mocking manner. As for Mo Xiaoxiao, she giggled as she watched this scene with interest.

“You find this funny?” Qin Wentian glanced at Mo Xiaoxiao. These people were discussing about his death, wanting Chu Qingyi to kill him to prove her innocence. It was like he was nothing but an insignificant existence, being able to be killed at anytime, disregarding him completely.

“A lecher who barged into the Coldnether Lake and was narrowly killed by me. You only survived due to consuming a grand recovery pill yet you dare to speak so loudly here? Isn’t this a funny matter?” Mo Xiaoxiao had a sarcastic smile on her face. “I still thought that you would continue hiding behind my junior apprentice sister, not daring to speak. To think that you are so courageous now.”

“You guys are discussing about my death but you didn’t expect me to speak up?” Qin Wentian spoke, while silently musing at how cheap human lives are. If the person here wasn’t him but was some other person, they would directly be slaughtered without another word. To them, who treated themselves as lofty existences, all treated the lives of ordinary people like weeds.

“Sir Qin, you don’t have to interfere in this matter.” Lu Yao tugged on Qin Wentian’s sleeve in a nervous manner. By acting this way, Qin Wentian would cause the matter to become even more chaotic. At that time even when Chu Qingyi did her best, she might not be able to protect him.

“Lu Yao, impudent!” The elder of Lu Yao berated. “You have already helped him so much despite our reluctance. After fortunately surviving, he is still speaking so arrogantly, he must be tired of living.”

“Is that so?” Qin Wentian suddenly laughed. Although his injuries have yet to fully recover, it wouldn’t affect his combat prowess. The experts of a mere City Lord Manor actually dares to slight his existence?

“Since you all feel that I’m tired of living, which of you guys will come and claim my life?” Qin Wentian laughed.

“Qin Wentian.” Chu Qingyi froze. She transmitted her voice over, “Lu Yanxue’s cultivation base is very high, at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. City Lord Lu is even more powerful. You have to lay low at this moment, leave things here for me to handle.”

A look of worry could be seen on her face. Qin Wentian’s personality was truly still the same as back then when he was in the sacred academy. Tyrannical and brazen. Nobody would be able to force him to take a step back. The people of the Lu Clan had utterly infuriated him.

“Qingyi, you wanted to protect him so badly but he wants to seek death instead. He can’t even appreciate your kindness, yet you are still treating him so well despite the trash he is. Could it be that you have really gone blind?” Lu Zhanfei transmitted his voice to persuade her while shaking his head when he saw how worried Chu Qingyi and Lu Yao was for the sake of Qin Wentian.

He himself was a talented genius of the Lu Clan and is interested in Chu Qingyi. However, Chu Qingyi had always disregarded him. This trash that appeared actually could cause Chu Qingyi to feel so much worry. This truly made Lu Zhanfei extremely unhappy as he felt that he had lost face.

“Chu Qingyi.”

At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke. His expression was calm but solemn. Chu Qingyi suddenly felt as though Qin Wentian had completely become a brand new person, no longer as amicable as before. His entire being exuded sharpness, and an unexcelled loftiness. He was Qin Wentian, the Qin Wentian who reigned supreme in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Inclining her head slightly, Chu Qingyi stared at Qin Wentian whose demeanor completely changed, as a sense of awe appeared in her heart. It seemed like Qin Wentian was the only one in this entire world.

“I’ve already said that I wouldn’t bother with what happened between us in the past. This time around, I fell into the Coldnether Lake due to my heavy injuries, you were the one who protected me and sent me here for recovery. Although I would still be fine without consuming a grand recovery pill, I’m still filled with gratitude for the things you’ve done for me.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. “However, a true man can differentiate between grudges and kindness. You are you, but today, given how the Snowdrift Sage Hall has insulted me, I will not pardon them. I wouldn’t show mercy because of you. I hope you can understand.”

Chu Qingyi felt her body trembling when she heard Qin Wentian’s words. She could feel the aura of a hegemon from him, exuding a magnificence that spanned across the generations.

Chu Qingyi was somewhat in a daze as well, she had no idea where Qin Wentian's confidence came from but she could truly feel his confidence.

He was Qin Wentian, the genius who fought Huang Shatian of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire when he was merely at the seventh-level of immortal-foundation. He feasted on white tiger flesh and no matter where he is, he would always exude a blinding brilliance. Nobody can make him take a step back, for those who insulted and humiliated him earlier, they would all feel regret sooner or later.

Lu Yao was also shocked by Qin Wentian's aura. She suddenly thought of the words Qin Wentian spoken to her. He asked her what are the wishes she had, and he might be able to fulfill them.

Did Qin Wentian really have such strength?

That person who had been heavily injured and was slowly nursed back to health by her. Right now, Qin Wentian seemed like a completely different person from the person she thought she knew.

"Has this fellow gone mad?" Mo Xiaoxiao suddenly spoke after she recovered from a daze. She glanced at Qin Wentian and could also sense faintly at how extraordinary he was. However, he actually dared to say such words in public, not planning to pardon the people of the Snowdrift Sage Hall?

Not only Mo Xiaoxiao, all the guests here were all staring at Qin Wentian, like they were looking at a fool.

Has this man gone crazy from the provocations?

Earlier, he even asked who would come to claim his life. Now, he still said that he wouldn't pardon the experts of the Snowdrift Sage Hall.

"I was heavily injured and was sent here from traveling through the void. Although I consumed a grand recovery pill, I have no grudges with any of you. Yet, you guys are actually discussing about my death here? How ridiculous is this." Qin Wentian stepped out, staring at Lu Zhanfei and Mo Xiaoxiao. "Even people like you dares to insult and humiliate me? Since this is the case, the trash you two are talking about is right in front of your eyes. Which of you want to come over and take my life?"

"Courting death." Lu Zhanfei stood up, his aura gushing forth. He stared at Qin Wentian before glancing at Chu Qingyi, "Since his injuries have already recovered, Chu Qingyi, I want to prove to you how bad your judgement is."

Law energy fluctuation flooded the area, Lu Zhanfei flew out with a sword in his hand, as quick as lightning. The frost law energy covered the area, enveloping Qin Wentian. His sword pierced forth with overwhelming might, wanting to tear through Qin Wentian's body.

“What a fast sword, Lu Zhanfei is truly a genius of the Lu Clan.” Many mused silently.

The shrill keening of the sword was very ear-piercing. It transformed into sonic booms, exuding a fearsome might.

“Careful!” Both Chu Qingyi and Lu Yao shouted. However, Qin Wentian didn’t seem to have any intentions of dodging it. He quietly stood there, allowing the terrifying sword with the destructive attributes of the coldnether qi to pierce towards his heart.

Chu Qingyi and Lu Yao’s expressions drastically changed. However, at this moment, space seemed to be frozen solid. Lu Zhanfei’s sword pressed into Qin Wentian’s body but it had no way to pierce through. That powerful torrent of sword qi had no way to injure Qin Wentian.

“Are you wearing divine armor?” Lu Zhanfei’s expression stiffened.

Qin Wentian stared at him with an expression of pity. Stretching his hand out, he grabbed Lu Zhanfei’s sword and with a squeeze, the sword actually shattered into pieces.

Staring at those cold eyes of Qin Wentian, Lu Zhanfei felt his heart pounding madly with fear.

“Retreat!” Lu Yanxue called out, but it was already too late. Qin Wentian’s hand shot out, directly grabbing onto Lu Zhanfei’s throat. His cold eyes stared at everyone as he spoke with a voice filled with pity, “Is it Chu Qingyi that’s blind, or you are the one that’s blind?”

“Release him!”

“Zhanfei!” Many experts of the Lu Clan stood up.

Lu Yanxue stood up and icily spoke. “If you abduct Lu Zhanfei because you think you have a chance to flee here, I’m afraid that’s impossible. Release him and I will give you a quick death.”

“Even now, you still want to play games with me, trying to negotiate?” Qin Wentian laughed. This Lu Yanxue most probably thought that he wanted to use Lu Zhanfei’s life to negotiate a path of survival for himself. Hence, she took the initiative to speak first, intending on giving him pressure.

“But then again, given someone like you who believes yourself to be infallible, it’s not hard to see why you would say that.” Qin Wentian laughed. “You completely have no idea who am I, and what my identity is. If I wanted to leave, do you really think I need to resort to use his life and threaten you all?”

A cold smile could be seen on Qin Wentian's face. He stretched his other hand out, an immense amount of sword might congregated there and an instant later, Lu Zhanfei suddenly let out a scream filled with extreme terror. He could feel the sword might rippling through him, lacerating every part of his body. A few moments later, he was turned into dust amidst his howls of agony.

"RUMBLE!" Numerous violent auras and killing intent gushed forth, enveloping Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian stood there arrogantly, calmly staring at everyone.

"Earlier, when I wanted to leave, you guys obstructed me. Now, I want to see how you much you all would beg for me to leave."

Chapter 1440: Terrifying Existence

Qin Wentian spoke. Numerous powerful auras flared, boring down on him. The him right now was like an unexcelled character, exuding magnificence through the generations, calmly staring at everyone here.

Before this, the guards of the City Lord Manor obstructed him from leaving. Now, he wanted the people here to beg him to leave.

How brazen and arrogant was this? However, Qin Wentian spoke it in a manner-of-fact tone, his voice so resolute that it could sever iron. He, who was suffering from heavy injuries, was being sent here to the City Lord Manor and had consumed a grand recovery pill. By rights, this wasn't any major matter but since the competitive nature within the Snowdrift Sage Hall was so prevalent to the extent where Lu Yanxue wanted to use him as an excuse to suppress Chu Qingyi, he had to do something. They treated him like dirt, something to be killed whenever they want to kill.

How arrogant were they? How much contempt did they have for him?

Since this was the case, he will show them what a terrifying existence he can be.

At this moment, there was still no one from the City Lord Manor who understood what sort of existence Qin Wentian was. They were only bothered about Qin Wentian's killing of Lu Zhanfei. All of the experts from the City Lord Manor stood up, their hearts boiling in anger.

"Zhanfei!" A middle-aged man screamed miserably. Lu Zhanfei was his son but was actually killed like that. Lu Zhanfei's talent was extraordinary and would sooner or later enter the immortal king realm. However, he died today just like that. Not long ago, his son was still so imposing but now, he had turned into nothing but a corpse. How could he not be enraged? His killing intent now towered up into the sky.

"Immortal king realm." Lu Yanxue's voice was cold. Although Qin Wentian didn't release his aura completely, she had already sensed that this was an aura only immortal kings would possess. The person Chu Qingyi was fond of was also an immortal king, and a young one at that.

Mo Xiaoxiao who was at the side had completely frozen. She had always believed that Qin Wentian was prying on them and was injured by her. Hence, she had never looked up to Qin Wentian before. Only at that moment when Qin Wentian killed Lu Zhanfei did she realize that her earlier conjectures about him might have been wrong.

"Capture him." City Lord Lu icily spoke. He slammed his palm on the table, shattering it. His imposing eyes flashed with killing intent.

“Yes.” Many figures stepped out, exuding terrifying auras. Those guests who were here to offer their congratulations all still had a look of shock on their faces. They didn’t think that at the birthday celebration banquet of City Lord Lu, there would actually be someone who dared to kill a grandson of his like that. Truly audacious.

Just a few moments ago, they still thought that Qin Wentian wanted to use Lu Zhanfei’s life to bargain for his own. However, in the next moment, Lu Zhanfei was already killed by him. How decisive was this?

“Die.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke when he saw the numerous figures rushing him. In just an instant, a destructive sword might swept through the air, causing sounds of piercing to ring out as the experts rushing him were all slain. Qin Wentian continued standing there, not moving an inch from his original spot. He started a massacre at this birthday celebration.

“BANG!” City Lord Lu stomped the ground, causing fissures to appear. His anger surged forth like tidal waves. To think that there’s actually someone so brazen, disregarding everything and started a massacre at his territory, and on his birthday celebration too.

“This is an opportunity.” Wu Bufan transmitted his voice to his son, Wu Tianjiao. Wu Tianjiao’s eyes flashed and nodded slightly. This was indeed an opportunity for them to form good relations with the Snowdrift Sage Hall. With a roar, his killing intent erupted as his law domain appeared. He arrived before Qin Wentian, his law domain energy had already formed a terrifying storm, forcing many of the other experts back.

The storm completely surrounded Qin Wentian and at this moment, numerous golden spears materialized within the storm, shooting out rays of killing light, all of them aiming to pierce through Qin Wentian. With just a command, he would be able kill Qin Wentian.

“Wu Tianjiao, an immortal king expert.”

“When an immortal king acts, things are truly different.” The spectators sighed. Too powerful, Wu Tianjiao concentrated all his energy at the small area Qin Wentian was standing in, immensely increasing the explosive effect. Even the slightest bit of aftershock would be sufficient to kill immortal-foundation characters, the aura was so intense that cracks appeared on the ground around Qin Wentian.

Wu Tianjiao took another step forward, standing in the air, resembling an unexcelled divinity. He then calmly spoke, “Everyone, please retreat further back.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts continued to retreat, creating a battlefield for him and Qin Wentian. A fight on the level of immortal kings would produce shockwaves strong enough to extend to a very vast distance. At this moment, the manifestation of a golden divine spear in the form of an astral soul could be seen behind Wu Tianjiao. He was like the sovereign of every spear in this world.

“Wu Tianjiao is truly a peak-level genius, as expected of a personal disciple of an immortal emperor. Truly unparalleled.” Someone sighed with admiration.

"Seems like the Wu Clan's hope of forming a marriage alliance with the Snowdrift Sage Hall might become a reality soon. He wants to use this chance to establish his dominance, indicating his goodwill towards the Snowdrift Sage Hall." Someone mused.

"KILL!" As the sound of Wu Tianjiao's voice rang out, the golden spears in his domain started streaking towards Qin Wentian, slamming into him. That terrifying speed made it as though Qin Wentian couldn't even dodge it in time. Everyone was sure that Qin Wentian's body would be drilled through.

"No!" Chu Qingyi's eyes turned red. That destructive might was too terrifying. After all, this was an attack by an immortal king. Ever since the time after that stint at the sacred academy concluded, it had only been a few short years. Even if Qin Wentian managed to enter the immortal king realm depending on his outstanding talent, it was impossible for someone to block those exploding spears with the toughness of their body alone. The target of that violent attack would be dead for sure.

Lu Yao clenched her fists, her perspiration had already drenched her dress. She drew in a deep breath as she stared with worry at the scene in the battlefield.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" Deafening sounds rang out unceasingly. The golden spears radiated a blinding light, causing the spectators to be unable to open their eyes fully. All of them pierced towards Qin Wentian and exploded at the point of contact. However, under the stunned gazes of the crowd, Qin Wentian calmly stood there with his hands behind his back, unmovable, observing Wu Tianjiao with a sneer on his face.

"How is this possible?" Great waves rose in the hearts of everyone. Qin Wentian didn't even blink at the ferocity of Wu Tianjiao's attack. He merely stood there quietly as his body circulated with a gleaming light, allowing the attacks to freely land on him.

Wu Tianjiao's expression was incredibly unsightly to behold. He had no way to believe what he just saw.

"Seems like you all still don't understand." Qin Wentian's calm voice rang out. He stared at Wu Tianjiao who was in the air, his eyes flickered with disdain as he spoke, "You want a marriage alliance with the Snowdrift Sage Hall. It's not wrong wanting to express goodwill and seize this good opportunity. However, your mistake was choosing me to use as a stepping stone. Wanting to use my life to please others? This is the most foolish choice you have ever made in your entire life."

As the sound of his voice faded, he slammed out with a palm, manifesting a fearsome gigantic imprint. Wu Tianjiao howled as the golden spears shot out once more. However, these spears were easily shattered by the palm imprint. With a thunderous boom, the palm slammed into Wu Tianjiao and in just an instant, Wu Tianjiao, the unrivalled genius in everyone's eyes, died directly from the overwhelming impact.

"Tianjiao!" Wu Bufan roared with anger and sorrow. He soared up in the air and wanted to act, but at the next moment, the giant palm imprint had already slammed down. He didn't even have the time to protect his son's corpse. Wu Tianjiao's corpse had already completely disintegrated from impact of the second palm strike.

At this moment, Qin Wentian soared up into the air, radiating the powerful aura of a mid-stage immortal king that enveloped the entire City Lord Manor. Everyone stared up in shock at the young man in the air. This young man was actually so powerful.

Not long ago, the unrivalled genius in the eyes of everyone, Wu Tianjiao, was smacked to death with a single palm strike.

“Mid-stage immortal king.” Lu Yanxue glanced up in the air. Her robes fluttered with the wind as her own powerful aura gushed forth. Qin Wentian was actually also a mid-stage immortal king.

Mo Xiaoxiao who was at the side, had already gone completely pale. Mid-stage immortal king? The trash she had been referring to, the one she thought she injured, was actually a mid-stage immortal king. How ironic and face-smacking was this? She could feel a burning sensation on her cheeks.

No wonder Chu Qingyi had rejected so many suitors, only reacting differently towards this young man. So it turned out that this young man was actually so outstanding and extraordinary.

She had no idea that Chu Qingyi herself was also in shock now. Although she knew that Qin Wentian’s talent was outstanding and knew that he would definitely have grand achievements in the future for sure, she didn’t expect his cultivation to be so fast. He actually used such a short period of time and had broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm.

Lu Yao also felt as though she was in a dream. Also, for Lu Zhan, as well as their entire faction, all of them were in a stunned state. Never in their wildest dreams did they expect that the person they mocked earlier was actually a mid-stage immortal king. If they knew this, let alone one grand recovery pill. Even if Qin Wentian ate two or three grand recovery pills, they wouldn’t have dared to say anything. Being able to save a mid-stage immortal king would definitely make the immortal king indebted to them. How could the debt of gratitude be compared to some mere medical pills? But now, sadly, there no longer was any gratitude. There was only hatred.

“For the sake of a single medical pill, I was actually treated like an insignificant insect by you people. You feel that you can kill me whenever you want. The life of I, Qin, am actually not even worth the price of a medical pill?” Qin Wentian coldly laughed, surveying the crowd. Only to see Lu Yanxue’s body slowly soaring up the air. Coldness radiated from her, terrifying to the extreme.

Wu Bufan similarly soared up into the air. A barrier of golden light surrounded him as his eyes flashed with an intense killing intent.

“Do you know who the person you just killed is?” Wu Bufan coldly spoke. “He was a personal disciple of the Martial Emperor.”

“Even if you are a mid-stage immortal king, even if you are from a major power, you will die here today for starting a massacre here and insulting my Snowdrift Sage Hall.” Lu Yanxue coldly spoke, directly bringing the name of her sect out. Because, she had already sensed that Qin Wentian should be an extraordinary individual from one of the peak powers in the immortal realms. Since she was the one who had insulted him first, she wanted to bring the name of her sect out and twist the story, saying it was Qin Wentian who insulted them first, to make things easier to handle.

However, how could Qin Wentian not understand her thinking? She still didn't understand that Qin Wentian didn't give a damn about her being a member of the Snowdrift Sage Hall.

Naturally, he also wouldn't mind killing a disciple of an immortal emperor. For those that wanted his life, he would never show mercy to them.

"How regretful. Even at this moment, you guys still don't understand." Qin Wentian quietly spoke. As his voice faded, a whistling sound rang out. His figure was like a great roc, possessing unrivalled extreme speed. Wu Bufan's expression drastically changed, he wanted to retreat but he couldn't react in time. Qin Wentian's palm slammed out, reinforced by God's Hand, directly shattering the golden barrier of light around Wu Bufan. After that, a thunderous sound echoed out as a powerful giant palm grabbed hold of Wu Bufan's body.

"A disciple of an immortal emperor? I can't even remember how many of those I've killed. Even if Wu Tianjiao is the son of an immortal emperor, so what of it?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. "Since you all still cannot understand, let me help you all to fully comprehend who I am exactly."

As the sound of his voice faded, he mercilessly laughed. Wu Bufan's body was directly crushed into meat paste by that giant palm imprint. A powerful immortal king like Wu Bufan now had an expression of despair on his face. His eyes were filled with terror.

A son of an immortal emperor? So what of it?

What sort of existence was this person exactly?

At this moment, only now did the people here fully understand how terrifying an existence the young man standing in the air was!

Chapter 1441: Just A Single Sword

Wu Bufan, died.

Wu Bufan and Wu Tianjiao, this father and son duo, who wanted to use Qin Wentian as their stepping stone, made the most foolish decision in their lives, paying their lives as the price.

Wanting to use Qin Wentian's life to please the people from the Snowdrift Sage Hall? But how many lives here could be of equivalent value to Qin Wentian? The Skymist Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the White Tiger Race, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Violet Emperor. There are so many terrifying characters who wanted Qin Wentian's life. To kill him, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor paid an astronomical price, even submitting to Old Devil Duotian. Who were these minor characters in comparison?

What's ridiculous is that the father and son duo actually thought to use Qin Wentian's life just to please the Snowdrift Sage Hall.

"A single strike."

The hearts of everyone started to pound wildly, causing great waves of shock to arise as they stared at the magnificent figure floating in the air. At this moment, everyone understood that the Snowdrift Sage Hall and the City Lord Manor had antagonized an extraordinary person. How foolish was that.

"The City Lord Manor is going to become a huge joke. The holy maiden Mo Xiaoxiao of the Snowdrift Sage Hall is the same as well."

Everyone silently mused. Mo Xiaoxiao said this man was a lecher, heavily injured by her and only survived due to consuming the grand recovery pill. She and Lu Yanxue wanted to use this opportunity to suppress Chu Qingyi, determining Qin Wentian's death with their words. To them, Qin Wentian was just an insignificant being unworthy of a mention, they could do anything they want to him. Nobody would care about his thoughts or opinions, he wouldn't even have the rights to speak.

Hence, Qin Wentian decided to show them clearly, making them understand who he was. That shocking scene appeared, the most insignificant figure in everyone's eyes insta-killed an immortal king who was a personal disciple of an immortal emperor. He even said that he had forgotten the number of disciples of immortal emperors that had died in his hands. So what even if the people he killed were the descendants of the emperors themselves? Also, when facing Lu Yanxue of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, he didn't seem to have any fear at all. It was like he couldn't care less about the Snowdrift Sage Hall behind Lu Yanxue.

Chu Qingyi was so shocked that she couldn't say anything. Her beautiful figure trembled slightly, not daring to believe her eyes. That figure standing arrogantly in the air did bear similarities to the figure she saw before in the sacred academy, similarly exuding magnificence that would span generations, as imposing as ever. However, the him right now was even more domineering, and even more tyrannical. Naturally, his strength had also become even more terrifying than ever.

“Qingyi, Sir Qin he…” Lu Yao’s voice was quavering. She also didn’t dare to believe what she just saw. That magnificent figure in the air… he had been so gentle and humble when he was in her residence, casually chatting with her about her wishes. Was it really the same person?

Everything seemed to be like a dream.

“His name is Qin Wentian, a disciple from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect located in the eastern regions. It’s said that he’s the personal disciple of the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. He is also the son-in-law of the daughter doted upon most by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. He and I, we entered the sacred academy together. In there, he defeated Lei Ba, experts of the Sky Paragon Sect, powerful greater demons, feasted on white tiger flesh, and even fought against the strongest genius at the peak of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire Huang Shatian to a draw when his cultivation base was merely at the seventh-level of immortal-foundation. There is no doubt that his strength is unrivalled in the entire sacred academy at the immortal-foundation level.”

Chu Qingyi’s voice was filled with solemness. She slowly continued, “He isn’t lying. For disciples of immortal emperors, back then in the sacred academy, the number of them he killed was so much that it was countless.”

Chu Qingyi knew that since this matter has blown up, the Snowdrift Sage Hall would definitely investigate Qin Wentian’s identity. Hence, it wasn’t a great deal for her to reveal it. By doing so, the Snowdrift Sage Hall might have some reservations and hesitate to deal with Qin Wentian.

When everyone heard her words, they felt their hearts shuddering. What a glorious battle achievement record, tinted with unparalleled arrogance and strength. Such a character was actually treated in this manner when he was in the Lu Clan.

Had everyone in the Lu Clan gone blind?

For a mere grand recovery pill, they wanted to blow up this matter and use the chance to take his life? How ridiculous? Could it be that the value of such a man wasn’t even equal to a single grand recovery pill?

The people from Lu Yao’s faction had an indescribable feeling. Not too long ago, they were all still mocking Qin Wentian.

“How many years has it been since you left the sacred academy? You entered there the same time as him, within such a short period of time, how can he enter the mid-stage immortal king realm? Chu Qingyi, are you joking around?” Mo Xiaoxiao felt her heart shaking when she heard Chu Qingyi’s words. However, she still chose to not believe it. This cannot be real. Qin Wentian was someone who entered the sacred academy with Chu Qingyi, how can a person have such a quick cultivation speed, entering the mid-stage of the immortal king realm so quickly? It was impossible.

Chu Qingyi’s eyes flashed, staring at Mo Xiaoxiao. She coldly spoke. “There are some people in this world who are extraordinary right from their birth. They would always cause ordinary people to sigh with envy and admiration, looking up at them. They would always surpass their peers, always at the front of their pack. These people would all become legends of our world, doing things nobody could do. There are also many of these legends whom we call ancient emperors.”

“BOOM!” Mo Xiaoxiao’s heart pounded violently, she stared in shock at Qin Wentian as she mumbled, “This can’t be true, I don’t believe it.”

The opening of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a sign that the era of ancient emperors was coming. Chu Qingyi’s words were undoubtedly hinting that Qin Wentian might be the person of destiny. This was why she was so shocked, shaking in disbelief.

The spectators here all felt their hearts pounding violently. To think that Chu Qingyi’s rating of this man would be so high. She believed that this man might be a future ancient emperor, as spoken of in the legends.

“You attacking me when I fell into the Coldnether Lake could be understood as a mistake. I can choose to not pursue that. But after that, you insulted me numerous times, and in order to suppress Chu Qingyi, you implicated me, even wanting my life to wound Chu Qingyi’s dao heart. Although you are a holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Sect, your actions have completely ruined your sect’s reputation. Tell me, do you think you deserve death?!” Qin Wentian shouted at Mo Xiaoxiao. Mo Xiaoxiao trembled violently, she was actually forced back several steps from the intensity of that shout.

Before this, she was so proud before Qin Wentian. But now, she understood that in Qin Wentian’s eyes, she was nothing but a speck of dust. She was an immortal-foundation character, but he was a mid-stage immortal king. She was an ordinary holy maiden, but Qin Wentian’s talent was so outstanding that even Chu Qingyi’s talent paled in comparison. What did she have that could compete with him?

Regardless of strength, status, identity, she was all inferior to Qin Wentian. However, she still intentionally insulted and provoked him numerous times, wanting to kill him. Now, Qin Wentian asked her if she deserved death?

Lu Yanxue’s countenance was also extremely unsightly. Right now, she understood that even with her status, she was still inferior to Qin Wentian. Behind him, there were two supreme major powers supporting him. Also, his status in the eyes of the two powers, far exceeded her status in the Snowdrift Sage Hall.

But now, Lu Yanxue was on the back of a mounted tiger, it wasn’t so easy to get down. She stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, “To think that you have an extraordinary status. Mhm, how about we sit down and calmly discuss this matter?”

“Are you joking with me?” Qin Wentian turned his eyes to Lu Yanxue. He then coldly spoke, “What is there to talk about?”

“Even if you are an extraordinary individual, this place is after all, the territory of my Snowdrift Sage Hall. You won’t be able to obtain any benefits and might even suffer if you continue to act so domineeringly.” Lu Yanxue stared at Qin Wentian. An extremely cold aura gushed forth from her, wanting to intimidate Qin Wentian.

“Chu Qingyi, I originally wanted to give some face to the Snowdrift Sage Hall for your sake. However, these people still have such an attitude even at this moment. In that case, you can report back to your sect that the lives of these two will be taken by me today. If your sect wants revenge, I, Qin Wentian, will not shrink back. But if your sect cannot be bothered with this matter, I can take it that the things that happened today, never happened before.”

As the sound of Qin Wentian’s voice faded, a third eye in the center of his brows opened. In an instant, the Evil Eye Law Domain descended, directly enveloping Lu Yanxue and Mo Xiaoxiao. The coldnether energy from Lu Yanxue froze everything, staving off the effects of the domain. However, Mo Xiaoxiao wasn’t so lucky, instantly coughing out several mouthfuls of blood as she became heavily injured. When the law domain appeared, everything in that space crumbled. She was just a mere immortal-foundation character. How could she resist this?

“How dare you!” Lu Yanxue took a step forward, moving to the front of Mo Xiaoxiao.

“Can you obstruct me if I want to kill her?” Qin Wentian’s voice rang out. Powerful destructive might swept through the terrifying Evil Eye Domain. Mo Xiaoxiao screamed in agony as her body was engulfed by a vortex of destruction.

“RUMBLE!” At this moment, City Lord Lu stepped out, exuding a fearsome aura at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm.

“Do you want me to slaughter your entire manor?” Qin Wentian swept his gaze over, coldly staring at City Lord Lu. He took another step forward as the Divine Elephant Law Domain manifested. A suffocating and overwhelming suppressive might bore down on everything.

At this moment, City Lord Lu actually hesitated. He, who was a peak-stage immortal king, actually felt fear when facing Qin Wentian, a mid-stage immortal king opponent.

Qin Wentian was too terrifying. His aura, his gaze, they held an unquestionable imperious authority. It was like as long as he wanted something, nobody would be able to block him. If he really acted, every life in this manor here today would be buried together with Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Yanxue.

“BANG!”

Lu Yanxue screamed, the power of her coldnether energy engulfed everything, turning her surroundings into ice. The crowd shivered from the coldness. Her long hair fluttered in the wind and with a roar of anger, she shook free of the law domain's effects as she rushed Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze to her. Activating God's Hand, the law energy transformed into the shape of a sword. As Lu Yanxue rushed over, his silhouette flashed, moving with the speed of a great roc, rushing to meet her.

"KILL!" Lu Yanxue stabbed out with a finger attack. The concentration of the coldnether energy reached a critical point as she stabbed towards Qin Wentian, wanting to freeze him solid.

But at this moment, that blurry figure that was Qin Wentian, slashed out with a single sword strike.

The Nightmare Sword Art, with the first sword strike, Lu Yanxue felt her consciousness entered a daze-like state. She had no way to sense or see the attack. From her perspective, her coldnether energy froze this entire world solid and she was the hegemon of this ice world.

But at this moment, the ice world she was the hegemon of, was slashed apart by that sword.

"No!" Lu Yanxue screamed in terror. That sword strike actually brought her into a world of nightmares.

The sword continued forward with preternatural speed, slashing into her body.

The arrogant and unexcelled Lu Yanxue died in a single strike.

Even now, the City Lord was still hesitating, staring at everything in shock. His expression was like dead ashes. Closing his eyes, he felt his heart trembling violently.

There was actually such an unrivalled genius in this world. With him here, how would there be space for other geniuses? He was the ruler of this world, able to decide everything and was staring with disdain at everyone beneath him.

At this moment, the City Lord seemed to age visibly. That hesitation caused his dao heart to suffer damage. From now onwards, it would be hard for him to progress any further in his cultivation!

Chapter 1442: Wishes

With just a sword strike, Lu Yanxue was slain.

Lu Yanxue, how magnificent was her status as a heavily-favored elder in the Snowdrift Sage Hall? With her here, the major powers of the Coldnether Immortal City all came by to pay their respects. Other than congratulating the City Lord, their other purpose was naturally to see Lu Yanxue.

Lu Yanxue's status was extraordinarily high. Other than her father who was the City Lord, there was no one else in her eyes. She could summon the wind and rain in this immortal city with a single word, deciding the life and death of people. In fact, she even wanted to decide Chu Qingyi's marriage, telling Chu Qingyi to choose between Lu Zhanfei and Wu Tianjiao.

Lu Yanxue still wanted Chu Qingyi to personally kill Qin Wentian to prove her 'innocence.'

But now, Wu Tianjiao and Wu Bufan have both fallen, Mo Xiaoxiao also died.

Lu Yanxue also was dead by a single sword strike. The powerful peak-stage immortal king City Lord, actually hesitated due to a sentence and a stare from Qin Wentian, suffering injuries to his dao heart. Right now, the countenance of the City Lord was pale white, as he visibly aged.

Today, it was initially supposed to be a day of celebration where countless experts came by to offer their well wishes for his birthday.

But now, a joyous occasion turned into a sorrowful one.

The City Lord watched as his daughter Lu Yanxue was killed, yet he didn't act. He was very clear of Lu Yanxue's strength. But despite so, his daughter was killed by a single sword strike from this young man. Although this young man was only at the mid-stage of the immortal-king realm, regardless of his aura or combat prowess, both were at an extremely frightening level.

Just like what Chu Qingyi had said, there were some people who were born extraordinary, destined to be different from others. They would surpass and trample their peers, easily crushing through all obstacles as they ascend to the peak. These people could even jump levels and win.

At this moment, everyone in the City Lord Manor was completely shocked.

The people of Lu Clan stared at the floating figure in the air. When they felt his radiance, all of them bowed and felt ashamed of their own inferiority. Not long ago, they were actually still deciding how they should kill him. How ridiculous was this?

“City Lord Lu, when I was unconscious and brought here, Lu Yao fed a grand recovery pill to me. Although I didn’t request for that, I will naturally repay the gratitude for that pill. However, I didn’t do anything at all in your manor but Lu Yanxue and the rest wanted my death. Do you have any objections with regards to my slaughter of them?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with sharpness, staring at the City Lord, his words causing the hearts of everyone to tremble once more. Even when facing a peak-stage immortal king, Qin Wentian was as domineering as ever.

Do you have any objections with regards to my slaughter of them?

The expression of the City Lord turned ashen as he sighed with sorrow in his heart. Their Lu Clan was truly blind, offending such a powerful character. He thought back to Qin Wentian’s earlier words, saying that they had no idea who he is. That was already a warning to them, yet they still persisted on offending him. Now that he thought back to it, he couldn’t help feeling extremely ironic.

How could such a grand character stand for their insults? How could he let things slide after they showed the intent to kill him?

Right now, the City Lord understood that even if he personally fought, he also didn’t have the confidence to win against Qin Wentian. Even if he won, he would not be able to kill him. As for Qin Wentian, he would still be able to easily slaughter the people of the Lu Clan. After all, the Lu Clan had offended Qin Wentian first.

“My Lu Clan is blind, I have no objections.” The City Lord gritted his teeth, wanting nothing more than to tear Qin Wentian into a thousand pieces in his heart. However, he had to endure this.

“Before this, I wanted to leave but was obstructed by you guys, imprisoning me in that residence. Now, can I leave?” Qin Wentian coldly asked.

“Naturally.” The City Lord spoke, his heart feeling exceptionally heavy. Everyone glanced at Qin Wentian while sighing in their hearts. Truly, earlier the Lu Clan didn’t allow him to leave. Now, they had to beg him to leave. If Qin Wentian didn’t leave, that would be a calamity for their Lu Clan.

“Lu Yao.” Qin Wentian turned his gaze over, staring at her. Lu Yao started, she glanced at the figure in the air as an indescribable emotion appeared in her heart. To think that the gentle and handsome young man whom she nursed back to health would be so extraordinary. Wu Tianjiao when compared to him, was nothing more than a crow being compared to a phoenix.

A smile appeared in Qin Wentian’s eyes. At this moment, all the sharpness flickering in his eyes disappeared. With a wave of his hand, he sent an interspatial ring floating through the air to her. He then spoke, “Lu Yao, you once told me your wishes. In this interspatial ring, there are many powerful cultivation arts, innate techniques and divine weapons that I specially chose for you. To me, these wouldn’t aid me much, but I’m sure they would be of a great help to your cultivation. There’s no need for you to decline this.”

Lu Yao’s body trembled slightly. Indeed, given Qin Wentian’s cultivation base and combat prowess, even for items he had no use for, would definitely be of immense benefit to her and many others. One man’s trash is another man’s treasure.

“I’m being hunted by immortal emperors, I can’t stay here or do too many things for you. Thank you for your care of me during these days, you are really kind-hearted and I treat you as a younger sister in my heart. When you took care of me, none of your kin stood by your side, they even mocked and ridiculed you. There’s no need to share anything in the interspatial ring with them, but you can share them with those who treat you truly from the bottom of their hearts.”

Qin Wentian slowly spoke. After that, he glanced at everyone, “Heed my words, Lu Yao is like a younger sister to me. If, in the future, my younger sister is bullied or tormented in the Lu Clan, I will seek you all out for an answer. If there’s anyone who dares to covet her items and act against her, I will wash the Lu Clan clean with all your blood.”

The hearts of everyone in the Lu Clan trembled. They knew that Lu Yao, the person whom they mocked before, would be embarking on a different path from now on. She had become the most fortunate person in the entire Lu Clan.

From now on, who would dare to do anything to her in their Lu Clan?

Lu Yao felt currents of warmth in her heart. She accepted Qin Wentian’s kind intentions. Her eyes were now red with tears. Before this, when her clan members mocked her, she truly felt very sad. For benefits, to bootlick Mo Xiaoxiao and Lu Yanxue, no one stood by her side. All sorts of ridicule were tossed her way.

But now, Qin Wentian did truly accomplish her wishes. She understood that Qin Wentian did all this because of her earlier conversation with him. And now, her wishes have turned into reality.

“Chu Qingyi.” Qin Wentian spoke again, his eyes turned over, landing on Chu Qingyi.

Chu Qingyi inclined her head and stared at Qin Wentian. Back then in the past, she still had the qualifications to stand equal to Qin Wentian. But now, she discovered that from now onwards, she could only incline her head and stare at him as the distance between them pulled apart.

The hope in her heart would never become a reality. Since their birth, they were already destined to be people of different worlds. In addition, the disparity between them would only grow greater and greater.

Such a character, she didn’t manage to enter his heart when they both stood on equal grounds. Right now, when he already stood at a peak so high up, it was no longer possible to get close to him. Chu Qingyi knew that it was impossible for them to be together. She could only fantasize in her heart. For some reason, since that abduction, she had unknowingly already fell for him.

“You are a holy maiden of the Snowdrift Sage Hall. I have no idea what do you lack. Do you have anything that you require my help for?” Qin Wentian asked.

Chu Qingyi stared at him as she replied, “You should know that when I helped you, I’ve never expected anything in return.”

“I understand.” Qin Wentian nodded, feeling complicated in his heart. Once, he wanted nothing more than to kill this woman before him. He had even abducted her and humiliated her. The two of them shared a grudge in the sacred academy, and he would never have expected that right now, Chu Qingyi actually fell for him. However, Qin Wentian knew that despite the help she gave, it was not possible for him to reciprocate her feelings.

For matters such as emotions of the heart, it was impossible to force them.

“Why don’t we start afresh? We can become very good friends.” Qin Wentian asked. He then continued, “In any case, Chu Qingyi, thank you.”

Chu Qingyi’s beautiful eyes flashed with a warm and gentle smile, moving to the extreme. Before this, everyone thought that Chu Qingyi was blind, actually falling in love with a trash. However, they finally understood what sort of character she was in love with. They also understood that this was destined to be a one-sided relationship for Chu Qingyi. But none of them felt that there was anything wrong, it felt very normal to them. The figure in the air was just too dazzling, even Lu Yanxue died in a single strike. Even for Holy Maiden Chu Qingyi, she was not of the same level as Qin Wentian.

“Thank you. I myself hated the me back then when I was in the sacred academy. If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t be the Chu Qingyi that I am now.” Chu Qingyi gently smiled, staring at Qin Wentian. She then continued, “At that time, my personality should be similar to Mo Xiaoxiao. Always thinking too highly of myself.”

“I have to leave here now.” Qin Wentian spoke. With such a huge battle here, news would definitely leak out. Although the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor might be very far away, it was still better for him to depart as soon as possible for the sake of safety.

“Mhm.” Chu Qingyi’s smile become more and more radiant.

Qin Wentian nodded to her. After that, he glanced at Lu Yao. “Lu Yao, farewell.”

“You say that you treat me as a younger sister. In that case, can I call you big brother?” Lu Yao smiled at Qin Wentian.

“Naturally.” Qin Wentian nodded with a smile.

“Big Brother Qin. In the future when you pass by the Lu Clan, you have to pay me a visit.” Lu Yao sweetly smiled.

“I will.” Qin Wentian nodded. After that, he turned and departed the area.

Chu Qingyi stared at his back and quietly mumbled, “Although the two of us are not fated, I will still stand on the ground and watch you ascend the peak. I’ll wait for the day when everyone in this world knows your name.”

Qin Wentian’s back gradually vanished. Lu Yao glanced at Chu Qingyi as she asked, “Can Big Brother Qin really stand at the pinnacle of the immortal realms?”

“Lu Yao, have you ever heard of someone breaking through to the mid-stage immortal king realm from the immortal-foundation realm in a few short tens of years?” Chu Qingyi smiled. Lu Yao’s heart trembled lightly as she shook her head. That’s right, there never has been someone with such fast cultivation speed before. If Qin Wentian can’t stand at the peak, who could?

Big Brother Qin said that there are immortal emperors wanting to kill him. From this, one could see that even immortal emperors felt an intense sense of threat from him.

The hearts of the people from the Lu Clan have already numbed. There were also some from the Snowdrift Sage Hall who were speechless. Nobody knew what they were feeling now.

For the birthday celebration of the City Lord, the City Lord should have been the main character. However, today, the main character was actually that person whom all of them mocked and wanted to kill!

Chapter 1443: Blackmetal Emperor Sect

Qin Wentian flew through the air, standing on a flying sword, leaving the Coldnether Immortal City. Since he had revealed himself, he shouldn't stay too long at this place. Also, he couldn't predict the Snowdrift Sage Hall's reaction as, after all, he did kill two of their holy maidens. The Snowdrift Sage Hall was also a peak major power. It was not impossible for them to decide to hunt him down.

Right now, Qin Wentian was a mid-stage immortal king. His combat prowess surpassed his cultivation level. The demon sword was like a true roc, shuttling through the air with lightning speed.

After several months, Qin Wentian had traversed through many immortal cities. He obtained a detailed jade map from one of the cities which clearly detailed and indicated the major locations in the Central Regions. In fact, the emperor-ranked powers of the Central Regions were also indicated on the map, and other than those peak major powers, there was also information on powers established by initial-stage immortal emperors. The price of the map was extraordinary high, but Qin Wentian considered it money well spent.

The Central Regions were much vaster compared to the other regions in the immortal realms. The experts here were as numerous as clouds, with the most number of major powers. It was also the most prosperous regions in the immortal realms.

Qin Wentian could open the spatial pathway to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and use that to depart this area. However, he didn't choose to do so. After all, he wanted to temper himself. After that sneak attack by Eastern Sage back when on the Demongod Mountain, Qin Wentian could feel an intense sense of crisis boring down on him. He had to grow stronger as quickly as possible in order to handle such a situation. If not, even if he had immortal emperors protecting him, they might not be able to protect his life every time.

For this trip, Qin Wentian's objective was the City of Ancient Emperors. As for the journey there, he would treat it as a chance to temper himself.

During these days, Qin Wentian also learned of many things in the Central Regions, and saw much slaughter.

One day, in an ancient tribe outside one of the cities, a scream of misery broke the silence in the air. Over there, a powerful cultivator that cultivated evil techniques was absorbing the essence and life force of everyone in the tribe. All the energy condensed into black qi which then flowed into his body.

The situation in the tribe was like a scene of the apocalypse. Right now, an old man was bringing a very young girl along as he fled in a frenzy, running on the ground. They didn't dare to fly in the air for fear of being discovered.

But at this moment, black swirls of the absorbing qi gushed over to them. That young girl called out with fear, "Grandpa, the aura of the evil monster is here!"

“You leave first.” The old man suddenly turned about and dashed towards the black qi. That young girl screamed and cried, “Grandpa!”

“LEAVE NOW!” The old man shouted. The black qi materialized into an evil face. The mouth of the face opened as it flew towards the old man, wanting to devour him.

The aura of that old man surged up. However, he knew that he couldn’t defend against this. His face was painted with despair.

But at this moment, a sword flew over, filling the air with a humming sound. With lightning speed, that sword pierced into the face of evil formed by the black qi, directly causing it to explode. The expression of that old man froze. He inclined his head and stared at the distance, only to see a young man flying through the air, like an immortal exuding magnificence through the generations.

“Grandpa!” The young girl ran over. She then stared up in the air and shouted, “Senior, please save us!”

“You want to interfere in this?” From afar, within the tribe, that evil cultivator glanced over, staring at Qin Wentian coldly. His cultivation base was extremely powerful, at the immortal king realm.

“Your cultivation methods are too cruel, you shouldn’t exist in this world.” As Qin Wentian’s voice rang out, the demon sword erupted forth, bypassing space, instantly arriving before that evil cultivator. That evil cultivator radiated black qi that surged forth, forming into a black dragon which let out roars of anger. However, the demon sword easily slashed through it, cleaving it into two.

As the demon sword arced through the sky, a resplendent beam of sword light formed. An instant later, the evil cultivator was pierced by the demon sword. He stared with fear at Qin Wentian before his body exploded from the destructive might, directly slain.

The sword then returned, back to its original location below Qin Wentian’s feet.

“Many thanks to senior for saving our lives.” That old man knelt down. That young girl stared at Qin Wentian as an expression of awe and gratitude could be seen on her face. The remaining survivors in the tribe knelt down as well.

“Don’t mention it.” Qin Wentian shook his head, flying away on his sword, not wanting to accept the worship of the tribe members.

The immortal realms were too vast. There will definitely be many incidents like the one he just witnessed earlier. There was no way he could devote his entire life to hunt down evil-doers. He could only try his best to help if he ever encountered such situations.

After some more days, Qin Wentian came to a demonic beast empire. This empire was the world of demons, established by a demon emperor. That emperor controlled the surroundings and gathered many greater demons in his territory.

At this moment, outside the boundary of this demon empire, a group of young ascendants were here to train themselves. There were males and females in this group, all of them from small clans. They were all from a certain power and were sent here for training and cultivation.

On their journey here, they had slain plenty of demonic beasts, and collected the corpses. After all, the materials that could be acquired from the corpses were all considered treasures that could sell for a high price.

“This should be enough. Things will be extremely dangerous if we continue to head in deeper.” Someone spoke.

“No worries, we can hunt more demonic beasts. In any case, we came here to temper ourselves. What’s there to be afraid of?” Another person suggested. Although there were some people who were unwilling, the group eventually decided to venture deeper in. As they continued, they found a nest belonging to golden demon apes. They initially wanted to retreat but they discovered that a golden demon ape was on the verge of giving birth. They naturally became emboldened and decided to slaughter their way over, killing the demon ape successfully and was preparing to divide the spoils.

But right at this moment, a howl of anger drifted over from afar. A terrifying gigantic golden ape rushed over, wanting to kill them all. The person who instigated the group to enter fled the fastest. Other than him, there was also a female who fled together, but the female was injured. As for the rest of the group, everyone had died within there.

The man frowned, feeling that she was a burden. He actually started to have evil thoughts as he stared at the graceful figure of the woman. With an evil laugh, he actually turned and walked towards her.

“What are you trying to do?” That woman’s movement was limited due to her injuries. She saw the gaze of the man as she felt her body turning cold.

“Yan`er, it would be inconvenient to travel with you. Rather than dying from a demonic beast, why don’t you grant me my desire?” That man laughed. But as the sound of his voice faded, a beam of sword light slashed past, directly killing him.

The woman froze. She inclined her head and saw an extraordinary figure standing in the air, “Many thanks for senior’s kindness in saving my life.” That woman spoke with gratitude.

The young man then started to fly away, only to hear the woman calling out, “Senior, do you mind giving me a lift?”

“You should endure the consequences of your own choices. If it wasn’t for this man being too despicable, I wouldn’t have bothered to act.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke before he continued on his way. He knew of everything that happened here and he felt no sympathy at all for the humans who died.

Qin Wentian advanced forward into the demon empire. But at this moment, he suddenly stopped as he spoke, “Come on out.”

As the sound of his voice faded, a golden crow appeared instantly before him, illuminating the area with golden light.

“You consumed that golden demonic ape from earlier?” Qin Wentian stared at the golden crow as he asked. The humans killed the female ape. The male ape took revenge, killing the humans but after that, the male ape died to the hands of an even more powerful demonic beast. This was law of the jungle, mirroring the cruel way of life in the immortal realms. It was just that this law was clearer in here.

“Screech!” A shrill noise rang out from the golden crow. In an instant, beams of golden light shot towards Qin Wentian, transforming into golden swords, filling the area with a lacerating energy.

“BOOM!” Qin Wentian’s body radiated a divine glow. The golden swords slammed into him unceasingly but couldn’t force him back at all. The golden crow then sped out, deciding to attack personally as it flew towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian pressed his palm forward, manifesting numerous swords that clashed against the golden swords. The golden crow’s body radiated an even more intense golden glow, but the golden swords all soon shattered apart. The crow’s body was pierced through by the sword qi as well. It turned around, wanting to flee, but Qin Wentian manifested a giant palm imprint that directly grabbed hold of it.

“Swish, swish.” At this moment, a group of figures flew over. They were actually a group of immortal kings. A young man in the group clasped his hand to Qin Wentian, “I’m a disciple of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. We have been tracking this golden crow for a very long time but because its speed was too fast, we have no way to capture it. To think that you sir, managed to do so. Can I request to have a transaction between us? We won’t let sir suffer a disadvantage in terms of value.”

“Blackmetal Emperor Sect.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. In one of the immortal cities he passed by, there indeed was a Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Originally, he had wanted to pay them a visit.

“Are you using it to refine divine weapons?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Seems like you have heard about our Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Truth to be told, this golden crow is really a high-grade material.” The young man nodded.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and glanced at the depths of this forested area. “You guys hunt demonic beasts to refine divine weapons. From what I know, this place is under the control of a demon emperor. Are you all not worried that the demon emperor would take revenge on humans?”

As his cultivation grew stronger, his heart felt more and more complicated when he remembered the evolution of the greater demons when the Demongod Mountain descended back then.

In truth, there were no differences between humans and demons. Demons might be cruel but humans are greedy and merciless too.

“Humans and demons have always been in opposition. This is something that has never changed. Even if we don’t hunt these demonic beasts, the demonic beasts would still come out to hunt humans for food. It’s just that both parties were unwilling to tread on each other’s bottom line. Now, there are rumors saying that numerous greater demons have already come out from the Desolate Mountain Range in the northern regions, and they have started to invade human territories, causing terror everywhere, resulting in the humans living there to all be in terrible situations. There are two sides to a coin, humanity and demonkind would always be on opposite sides.” That young man spoke.

Qin Wentian nodded, agreeing with the person’s words.

“Has the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range already started to move?” Qin Wentian stared into the horizons as he mumbled to himself.

“There is no problem for me to give the demonic beast to you. I don’t need anything in return. I just want you to recommend a weaponsmith from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to me as I want a few divine weapons to be completed. Are you all willing to do so?” Qin Wentian asked.

“There’s naturally no problems. I will recommend the most elite weaponsmith I know to you. Sir, since you have this intention, why don’t you travel back with us to the Blackmetal Emperor Sect?” That young man smiled, issuing an invitation. Since Qin Wentian was able to capture this golden crow, his strength must definitely be extraordinary. After all, they did their best and tried many times but have always failed in capturing this golden crow.

“Sure.” Qin Wentian nodded.

Chapter 1444: Holy Maiden of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect

The Eastern Tomb Immortal City was a grand city in the Central Regions. Although this place had no peak powers, it still had several emperor-ranked powers within.

Also, the Eastern Tomb Immortal City wasn't under the control of any power in the Central Regions. They need not answer to any of the peak powers, the emperor-ranked powers here were the kings.

From the jade map, Qin Wentian could see that the Eastern Tomb Immortal City was heavily marked out, with a lot of information written on the map. From ancient times, the entirety of the Eastern Tomb Immortal City can be considered an extremely strong power among the peak powers of the Central Regions. There were once supremely strong experts who left traces of their Dao in the city. The power those supreme experts formed was known as the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple. It ruled over several other areas and was extremely mighty.

However, as time passed by, the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple slowly disintegrated. This caused the overall power level of the Eastern Tomb Immortal City to weaken a lot. Ever since then, the city was no longer considered among the peak powers but because of its long and glorious history, this immortal city was still considered one of the grand cities of the Central Regions.

In the eastern area of the Eastern Tomb Immortal City, the ruins of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple still existed. It was rumored that there are many wondrous things within, and there's a possibility that the ruins might be opened to the public.

There were also rumors saying that the current emperor-ranked powers of the city were all created by the descendants of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple of the past. They still stationed themselves here, waiting for the ruins to open up, so as to regain their glory of the past era.

The Blackmetal Emperor Sect is located within the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple, and was one of the emperor-ranked powers here. They were famed for weapon creation and have a very long history. In fact, there were many peak powers of the central regions who wanted to take the Blackmetal Emperor Sect under their control, making the Blackmetal Emperor Sect the sole supplier of their divine weapons, but none had ever succeeded. Despite so, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect still maintained good relationships with the peak powers, and if there were disciples from the peak powers coming to them to request the creation of divine weapons, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect would definitely agree to the order. By maintaining this unique relationship of balance and serving all peak powers equally, they managed to survive and didn't end up being swallowed as a part of a singular peak power of the central regions.

At this moment, outside the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, Qin Wentian and the young man he met in the forest regions of the demon emperor's empire earlier, have finally arrived here. Staring at this ancient and majestic sect that seemed akin to a small city by itself, Qin Wentian felt some awe in his heart.

“The Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Just the gate to the sect itself is made up of extraordinary weapon forging materials. Truly impressive to the extreme.” Qin Wentian praised in a low voice.

“Brother Qin is praising us too much. Powerful formations of divine inscriptions can be found everywhere within, strengthening the sect. Many of the buildings by themselves, can also be considered divine weapons. If enemies were to attack us, the buildings can directly unleash attacks.” The young man smiled. His name was Feng Zhu and was also a weaponsmith. However, he placed more effort in his cultivation and his attainments in the field of weaponsmithing wasn’t that high.

Qin Wentian nodded lightly. The group of them then entered the sect. In the immortal realms, the vast majority of people here pursued personal strength. There were only a few that were willing to devote the time and effort needed in order to achieve proficiency in weaponsmithing. Hence, major powers that focused on weapon creation were very little in comparison.

“There seems to be plenty of visitors from the other sects as well.” Behind them, a young immortal king spoke in a light voice. Feng Zhu turned his stare about as his immortal sense extended outwards. Truly, there were visitors from quite a few major powers here today. He couldn’t help but to feel slightly bewildered at the influx of visitors.

“I’ll go look for Qianxue.” Feng Zhu spoke. After that, he walked in a certain direction and not too long after, he came to the outside of a palace in pristine white. Over here, there are many powerful characters guarding the entrance, including quite a few experts at the immortal-king level.

“Is the holy maiden in today?” Feng Zhu landed and asked a female immortal king.

“She’s in, let me go and report your arrival.” That female immortal king nodded. This caused Qin Wentian to be somewhat curious of Feng Zhu’s status.

“My younger sister, Feng Qianxue, is a holy maiden of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, her status is much higher compared to mine.” Feng Zhu gave a self-mocking laugh. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed before he smiled too. So this was the case.

“In the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, my influence is far weaker compared to my sister’s. I’ll ask her for help to refer a grandmaster weaponsmith to Brother Qin.”

“Since this is the case, many thanks.” Qin Wentian spoke.

A few moments later, a lithe figure clad in white walked out. This maiden exuded an extraordinary aura and an elegant demeanor tinged with a feeling of pureness. Her looks were extremely beautiful. She glanced at Feng Zhu and asked, “Big brother, why are you here?’

“Qianxue, let me introduce you to a friend of mine. This is brother Qin. Earlier, a group of us tried to hunt the golden crow but we weren’t able to do so. However, Brother Qin easily captured it and gave the golden crow to us. Brother Qin also wishes to create a few divine weapons and I agreed to introduce a grandmaster weaponsmith to him.” Feng Zhu stated.

Feng Qianxue glanced at Qin Wentian as she nodded her head lightly, “Since Big Brother has obtained the golden crow, let me help you forge a defensive armor. As for Brother Qin, what grade of divine weapons do you want to forge?”

“My cultivation base is at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. It’s fine as long as the weapons match my cultivation level.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“This is simple, I’m skilled in weapon forging. How about this, I’ll create the weapons for you. What type of weapons do you want and are there any additional requests?” Feng Qianxue asked.

“I wish to create quite a few divine equipments. For the first one, it will be a mask. The second one shall be a set of robes. Both of these have to have the ability to conceal and change my aura, blocking the probing of immortal senses. Next, I require a sword and a saber. If holy maiden is willing to help, I will naturally provide the remuneration required for the forging.”

“I understand. The first two items are for concealing your identity and the last two are for combat. I have no problems creating those. As for the remuneration, since you have helped my brother, I will just need you to provide the cost-price of the materials needed.” Feng Qianxue nodded as she spoke. Feng Zhu glanced at Qin Wentian with puzzlement. The first two items were to conceal his identity. Seems like Qin Wentian must have a very powerful enemy.

“Since this is the case, many thanks to the holy maiden.”

“Oh yeah, Qianxue, why are there so many experts from the other powers here at our sect. Did something happen?” Feng Zhu asked.

“Most probably, it should be because of the Desolate Mountain Range that’s located in the northern regions. If the greater demons continue to advance, they would come into our central regions sooner or laters. In addition, there are some experts who wish to head over to the northern regions to temper themselves by fighting against the demons. Be it to prepare themselves for the invasion or because they want to temper themselves by fighting demons. Hence, many people have come to our sect to request for the forging of divine weapons.” Feng Qianxue spoke.

Qin Wentian then asked, “Is the situation now very serious?”

“It’s a fact that the Demongod Mountain appeared and countless demonic beasts have evolved. They want to encroach upon human territory and the humans would naturally resist, causing a war to break out. In fact, the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range even said that their Desolate Mountains also want a territory in the immortal realms to call their own, establishing their presence in the world of humans.” Feng Qianxue spoke. She then continued, “You might not know this but despite the alliance of several peak powers in the northern regions, they were still unable to force the greater demons back.”

“Seems like the immortal realms are soon going to undergo a period of chaos.” Feng Zhu mumbled. In the past, the demarcation was very clear between the immortal realms and the Desolate Mountain Range. Each side would send their people to the other’s territory to temper themselves, but none would infringe on the sovereignty of the other. There might be demonic major powers in the immortal realms but those are only a rare few like the Sky Roc Race and the White Tiger Race, located in the western regions.

But now, the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range wanted to encroach on the lands of humans. A huge commotion would surely shake the entire immortal realms.

Qin Wentian frowned. Right now, the situation of the eastern regions was already in a mess. In addition, the entire immortal realms seemed to be descending into a state of chaos. If this was the case, he had to raise his strength as fast as possible in order to handle whatever life might throw at him.

“Let’s ignore this first. Brother Qin, my younger sister’s smithing abilities are the top-tier. Since she agreed to create the divine equipments for you, she will definitely be able to meet your request.” Feng Zhu smiled. Actually, Qin Wentian could already roughly guess how high Feng Qianxue’s status was when he saw the immortal kings guarding this place.

“Holy Maiden Qianxue, I, Qin, might have a presumptuous request. If you find it inappropriate, you can just reject it directly. I won’t mind.” Qin Wentian stated.

“Brother Qin, please speak.”

“Can I watch when you create the weapons?” Qin Wentian asked. He was skilled in divine inscriptions and had always believed that all things stemmed from the same source, connected to the Great Dao. By observing weapon creation, it might prove to be of help to his cultivation, allowing him to gain further insights.”

“Your request is too overbearing.” A female immortal king guard coldly spoke. Qin Wentian was just someone they met once yet he actually made such a request. Every weaponsmith would have their own weapon creation technique. How could they easily allow others to watch them?

Feng Zhu also felt somewhat awkward. Qin Wentian then replied, “I have overstepped my bounds, I apologize.”

“No worries, since Brother Qin is keen to watch, you can come along with me.” Feng Qianxue didn’t seem to mind it.

“Holy Maiden.” An immortal king at the side hurriedly spoke. After all, this is considered a great taboo. What if Qin Wentian was a spy sent here by the other major powers?

Feng Qianxue waved her hand, causing that guard to fall into silence. This caused a strange light flash in Qin Wentian’s eyes. Feng Qianxue does indeed have an extraordinary charisma.

Just as they were conversing, a group of experts flew towards them, landing close to their location. These people all had extraordinary auras but seemed to be of two different sects. Their eyes all gleamed with sharpness as they looked over.

“Qianxue.” Only to see that right now, one of the old men standing at the front of the group called out. Qianxue lifted her head and asked, “Uncle-Master, is there anything I can do for you?”

“Here are two weapon order listings, you can take a look first.” The old man waved his hand as two lists floated towards Feng Qianxue. She glanced at them and frowned, “Uncle-master, you want me to create the weapons on these lists?”

“Mhm, our sect has already accepted the orders. The two major powers also hoped that the weapons would be created by the most outstanding holy maiden in our sect. Qianxue, you are the most suitable person to create the weapons.” That old man nodded.

“Sure, but I need roughly six months worth of time.” Feng Qianxue replied.

“Six months is too long. Why don’t you set aside all your current matters and focus on this, finishing the first order list within a month?” One of the experts in the group spoke. The experts in this group all radiated a sun-like aura, they must be from a sect that cultivates sun-type techniques.

“For our order list, we also need the weapons to be finished within a month’s time. We can’t afford to wait any longer, we would have to trouble holy maiden for your help.” The other group of experts then spoke. Although the tone was more polite, the intent behind the words was just as domineering.

Feng Qianxue furrowed her brows, “I’ve already promised a friend to create weapons for him. I will need some time to do so. For the two groups, your order listings will have to be delayed. I won’t be able to complete the orders even if I didn’t sleep or rest for the entire time for the one month period.”

“Why don’t you create the weapons for your friend after you finish our orders? Or you can request some other disciple to help your friend create his weapons.” The leader of the first group of experts continued.

“This isn’t good, is it?” Feng Qianxue’s voice turned slightly cold. These people actually wanted to push the priority of Qin Wentian’s weapons back. They were just too overbearing.

“Holy Maiden, there’s no need to feel that you are in a difficult position. It’s fine as long as your friend agrees, am I right?” The leader of the first group turned to Qin Wentian as he continued, “Sir, we are from the Sacred Sun Sect, we need the weapons urgently as we have to head towards the northern regions to combat the greater demons. Can you delay your request?”

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at this group of people. No wonder he felt a few hints of familiarity. So, this first group of experts was actually from the Sacred Sun Sect.

Chapter 1445: Malicious Intentions

Qin Wentian then glanced at the other group. To think that one of the groups would be people from the Sacred Sun Sect. The second group also demanded for preferential treatment, wanting their weapon order list to be completed within a month. They should be from a peak power as well.

According to the map inscribed on the jade slip, the nearest two peak powers to the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, were the Sacred Sun Sect and Thunder God Hall. From sensing the fluctuations of the auras of these people, they should be experts from the Thunder God Hall.

“I’ve already come to an agreement with holy maiden. Even if I’m willing to delay my orders, are you not making things difficult for the holy maiden? Expecting her to complete the two weapon order listings in a single month that usually requires half a year to complete?” Qin Wentian calmly asked.

“This has nothing to do with you. You just need to agree to delay your order, the holy maiden will know what to do.” That expert from the Sacred Sun Sect spoke very domineeringly.

Qin Wentian glanced at him, an air of arrogance radiated forth as he coldly spoke, “Since you guys have no idea what the word ‘respect’ means, why must I delay my weapon order for you? Forgive me for not being able to agree.”

The other party frowned, feeling somewhat taken aback. Qin Wentian actually directly rejected them?

They had already clearly said that they were from the Sacred Sun Sect.

“Respect?” One of the experts laughed. “Seems like the brain of this man is somewhat addled.”

“Mhm, he is actually speaking about respect before those of us from the Sacred Sun Sect?” Another expert laughed, staring mockingly at Qin Wentian.

“Sir, we are from the Thunder God Hall. It’s for the best if you delay your weapon order.” An expert from the other group spoke. They came here to request the holy maiden to forge weapons for them and it wasn’t suitable for them to force her. They could only pressure Qin Wentian, wanting him to back off. They simply didn’t have the time nor patience to wait six months.

Qin Wentian glanced at the experts from these two groups as a cold light flickered in his eyes. He then spoke, “Scram.”

As the sound of his voice rang out, it was like a thunderbolt from the clear sky. The expressions of the experts from the two groups drastically changed. Even the master-uncle of Feng Qianxue furrowed his brows, staring with bewilderment at Qin Wentian. Did he want the experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall to scram?

In addition, the people here were all at the immortal-king realm.

“Brother Qin.” Feng Zhu transmitted his voice, feeling very shocked by his words. Feng Qianxue also stared at Qin Wentian with surprised. They all thought that Qin Wentian would definitely agree. After all, these were experts from two peak powers that were making the request.

“Don’t say that I’m not giving the Blackmetal Emperor Sect face.” At this moment, an expert coldly spoke. He walked out, illuminating the area with sunlight that shot towards Qin Wentian. A fiery and scorching air gathered in his palm, transforming into a fearsome solar storm that churned wildly. In an instant, the space around him turned into a furnace powered by sun flames, incomparably hot.

“BOOM!” He punched out, the sun immortal fist swept through the air, shooting towards Qin Wentian, wanting to engulf him in the solar storm.

Qin Wentian’s palm also blasted forth directly. With a thunderous boom, just when everyone thought that he would be engulfed by that terrifying attack, nothing actually happened to him! The sun flames burned intensely, but Qin Wentian’s body was circulating with a divine glow, seemingly undamaged despite the intensity of the burning flames.

With an intention, a giant palm imprint appeared in the air. This palm was covered with runic inscriptions, akin to the hand of God. It smash through everything, directly appearing before that expert from the Sacred Sun Sect.

The expression of that person instantly changed. Numerous balls of sun flames appeared around him while his fellow sect members unleashed their energy to help him fend off the attack. Another resounding bang rang out as the fiery atmosphere dissipated, causing a burst of brilliant light to shoot straight up into the air, illuminating the entire area. This caused many people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to glance over in surprise.

“What’s going on?” Many of the people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect were shocked. Such a powerful aura, were there people fighting in their sect?

In the battlefield, that expert who attacked Qin Wentian, was forced back many paces away due to the impact. He coughed out a mouthful of blood as a hint of fear could be seen in his eyes. In the air, many of his fellow disciples had sacred sun light around their bodies, protecting them from the aftershock. Their eyes gleamed with light as they stared at Qin Wentian.

The power of this man was so tyrannical. Even those who were not on the battlefield, also felt the pressure from the waves of the aftershock rippling through them. The expert fighting against Qin Wentian was forced back a huge distance but Qin Wentian was as immovable like a rock, still standing at his original location.

“Don’t act so arrogant and despotic just based on the fact that you are from the Sacred Sun Sect. If not, I wouldn’t mind teaching you manners.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his words domineering to the extreme, causing his opponent to instantly turn ashen.

“You dare to talk to me like this?” The aura of that person gushed forth, he had no way to suppress his anger and wanted another round of combat with Qin Wentian.

“Do you have mental problems? Stop antagonizing me. If not, do you believe that I will kill you first and join the Sacred Sun Sect too?” Qin Wentian stared at that expert as he threatened, his words causing the countenance of his opponent to change. His opponent then coldly snorted, “Do you think the Sacred Sun Sect is so easy to join?”

“I can kill you with a single strike. Even a trash like you can join but I can’t? If the Sacred Sun Sect doesn’t want me, it is not the only peak power in the central regions. Do you want to try me?” Qin Wentian stepped out, his mid-stage immortal king aura gushed forth, sweeping over everything. Even those who were not in combat couldn’t help but take a step back when they felt the intensity of his aura.

“Everyone, enough. Let me ask if Qianxue has a better idea.” At this moment, an expert from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke out. Clearly, he didn’t want to blow up this matter. This friend of Feng Qianxue was an extraordinary individual, tyrannical and having the strength to back it up. If he really killed the people from the Sacred Sun Sect here, things would be disastrous for the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

“Qianxue, can you do your best to hurry up and forge these divine weapons? The Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall requires them urgently.” That old man continued, casting a glance filled with meaning to Feng Qianxue.

“Even if I prioritize the two weapon order lists, it will still be impossible to finish them within a single month. How about this, there’s no need to argue now, just give me two months of time and I’ll finish the weapons for both sides?” Feng Qianxue spoke. These people from the peak powers were the toughest to handle. She could only promise them first to pacify them.

“Everyone, Qianxue is right. After all, it’s not possible for us to create some inferior-quality weapons just to meet with the deadline. We have to ensure quality above all else.” That old man glanced at the two groups as he spoke.

“Since this is the case, I will give you some face. Make it two months then.” One of the experts spoke. He seemed to be the leader of those from the Sacred Sun Sect. He also cast a glance at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

“You better remember this.” That expert who fought with Qin Wentian coldly spoke, glancing at him with killing intent.

The experts from the Thunder God Hall also cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before they left the area.

Feng Zhu let out a sigh of relief. “Brother Qin, you truly gave me a fright. These people are from the Sacred Sun Sect but you still dared to act against them.”

“My strength is not weaker than them, why would I not dare to? These people are after all, still immortal kings. It’s already very embarrassing for them as they are not able to defeat me. Surely, they wouldn’t mobilize all the powerful experts in their sect just to handle me alone. Can they even afford to lose so much face?” Qin Wentian casually laughed.

“That’s true. Brother Qin’s words do have logic.” Feng Zhu laughed. Qin Wentian was able to kill that person but he chose not to. If those experts went back to their sect to request for reinforcements to deal with him, it would really be a very shameful thing.

“Haha, enough about these losers.” Qin Wentian laughed. “However, isn’t the time limit of two months too short as well? If you need to, holy maiden please feel free to finish their orders first.”

“Don’t worry, I will still help Brother Qin to forge your equipments first. Brother Qin, there’s no need to constantly refer to me as ‘holy maiden.’ You can just call me Qianxue.” Feng Qianxue smiled.

“Mhm, Qianxue, I will have to thank you then.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Let’s go, I’ll bring you to our forging area to take a look. Big brother, come with me too.” Feng Qianxue stated. Feng Zhu nodded in response as the others departed. Feng Qianxue then led the way. She headed first for an ancient hall. The ancient hall they were heading over, were like a treasure vault for weaponsmiths, containing many valuable materials within.

After gathering the materials, she brought them into a forging room that had a powerful fire formation in it. When Feng Qianxue activated the fire-attribute energy within her, the formation would boost the intensity of the flames according to her will. The flames would blaze brilliantly, the temperature was high enough to burn immortal kings into ashes.

“What a fearsome temperature.” Qin wentian spoke. At the center of the formation, a runic network of divine inscriptions could be seen, transforming into a dazzling diagram. The materials placed there were instantly smelted.

Before this, Qin Wentian had also dabbled in weapon smithing. However, after that, he placed the majority of his time and efforts in his own cultivation. He had no direct experience in forging an immortal-king grade weapon.

“As the smithing process continues, the intensity of the flames would need to be greater than before. The formation here will enable Qianxue to control the flames to her will.” Feng Zhu spoke.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded, quietly observing as Feng Qianxue was forging the items. A brilliant flare of runic light burst from Feng Qianxue, condensed into the form of a sword by her immortal sense as she started to inscribe the runes. At this moment, Qin Wentian could feel a fearsome sword intent from her, aiding her in the forging process.

“Is this an attribute granted to her by her astral soul?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Qianxue’s astral soul can indeed boost her forging capabilities. Right now, she could create minor formations within her own body anytime she wants to, resulting in that she could forge swords even though she doesn’t have sword-law attribute energy. But as for the level of the sword-intent, she would have to depend on smelting other materials to heighten the sword-intent as she infuses it into the sword she forged.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed when he heard that. He thought of the Law Refinement Method, the Heavenly Talisman Treasured Tome and God’s Hand. There were really many similarities between all of these.

There were truly many wondrous things in the world. Feng Qianxue actually would have such extraordinary capabilities.

…

As Qin Wentian was observing Feng Qianxue, the experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall had gathered together. They sealed the courtyard they were in and all of them had unsightly expressions on their faces.

“That person is truly arrogant to the extreme. Why don’t we join forces to kill him?” That immortal king who fought against Qin Wentian earlier spoke. He still could not suppress the anger from then.

“Don’t forget the real reason why we are here.” The leader coldly berated. He then continued, “After the Blackmetal Emperor Sect submits to us, you can do whatever you want to that holy maiden. At that time, it would be a piece of cake to kill that man.”

“When would our allies act?” That immortal king from earlier coldly asked.

“Any time now. When they act, we have to cooperate with them and put up a great show. If the Blackmetal Emperor Sect still refuses to submit to us, we can only do things by force then.”

“Mhm, with the invasion by the Desolate Mountain Range’s greater demons, we, as the peak powers, naturally have to concentrate the strength of each and every area. Only by doing so would we be strong enough to withstand this incoming storm, growing stronger than before.”

Chapter 1446: Remnant Powers of Eastern Tomb

After several days, inside an elegant-looking courtyard, there was a sword, a saber, a robe and a mask before Qin Wentian. He placed the mask on his face, and as his astral energy seeped into it, the mask gradually melded together perfectly with Qin Wentian's features.

Before Qin Wentian, Feng Zhu and Feng Qianxue were there as well. They stared at Qin Wentian and when the mask finishing melding with his features, there seemed to a be a mysterious and blurry sensation when they looked at him.

"Awesome! Sister, how did you manage to create such a mask? I have no way to recognize brother Qin. Clearly, he doesn't seem to be wearing a mask at all, yet there's a blurry sensation when I stare at him." Feng Zhu exclaimed.

"I used the rune bone of the Sky Phantom Beast as the main material, as well as the skin of some powerful illusion-type creatures. This mask contains no attacking properties but there's nothing more suitable if one requires concealment." Feng Qianxue smiled.

"I see. No wonder it feels so mysterious. To think that there are so many illusion-type materials being used."

"This set of divine robes can also conceal your identity. Other than that, it also provides a boost to your defense and can meld with your skin, capable of changing its form according to your desires." Feng Qianxue pointed at the set of robes.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian could sense the fluctuations of illusory energy from the robes as well. However, he wasn't in a hurry to put them on. He first took the sword and saber in his hands as he infused his energy within. A moment later, a fearsome sharpness erupted from both the sword and saber.

"I've not determined the attribute energy for the weapons yet. After all, the attribute laws we are proficient in are different. But even so, I've inscribed many minor formations into their cores that would interact with all the different kinds of law attribute energy. There are enchantments that would increase attack, heighten the sword speed, etc. Do you think they are alright?" Feng Qianxue asked Qin Wentian.

"They are very excellent. Qianxue, I have to really thank you." Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude. The mask and robes could conceal his identity while the sword and saber were for his attacks. He cannot use weapons he used before or others would be easily able to guess his identity and this might cause his whereabouts to leak to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

"Oh, by the way, Feng Zhu and Qianxue. I still need to trouble you two to keep this a secret for me." Qin Wentian spoke to the two of them.

“Understood.” Feng Zhu nodded. They knew that Qin Wentian might have powerful enemies. Feng Qianxue also nodded in agreement.

“However, those people from before have seen the true face of Brother Qin. Will they be a problem?” Feng Zhu asked.

“That’s simple.” Qin Wentian smiled. With an intention, his masked features melted away as the mask fell off, causing his real face to appear. “I’ll use my original features for now and after I leave, I will put on the mask then. No one would be any wiser.”

“That’s true.” Feng Zhu laughed.

“Who?” At this moment, as Qin Wentian kept the weapons, he suddenly frowned and turned to a direction. Clearly, someone was using immortal sense to spy on them. This was an extremely rude behaviour.

Feng Qianxue was also frowning. After that, a cold voice drifted over. “The holy maiden of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect? Truly excellent, you said that the time limit we gave you is too short but you are still free to flirt around here now under the moonlight?”

“I will definitely finish the things I’ve promised. I will create the divine weapons you guys require. But now, don’t you feel you are being too overbearing, using your immortal sense to spy on us?” The beautiful face of Feng Qianxue had an expression of frost. This place was the holy maiden manor and there usually wouldn’t be any barriers to isolate immortal sense because simply, no one would dare to be so rude to spy on the holy maidens. However, these people from the Sacred Sun Sect were simply too impolite.

“Just a warning, the enemies of your sect are already here.” That voice coldly snorted. Feng Qianxue frowned, she sent out her immortal sense only to discover many experts from her sect currently flying to a direction. There’s a group of immortal kings that just entered their sect.

Qin Wentian also sent out his immortal sense. He could tell that the aura of these people were all extremely terrifying. It was considered very rarely seen for an ordinary emperor-ranked power to send out so many immortal kings.

“They are the Sky Bell Cult, Divine Inscription Palace and Vajra Sect.” Feng Zhu frowned as a look of worry appeared in his eyes.

“The other three emperor-ranked powers of the Eastern Tomb Immortal City?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. In the Eastern Tomb Immortal City, there were a total of four emperor-ranked powers, namely the Sky Bell Cult, Divine Inscription Palace, Vajra Sect and the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. These four were all remnants of the previously extremely powerful Eastern Tomb Holy Temple of the past. Right now, the three other major powers arrived at the same time. This was very unusual. No wonder there are so many immortal kings, so they are actually from three different emperor-ranked powers.

“Mhm, the people of my sect are currently rushing there. Let us go and take a look too.” Feng Zhu spoke. The three of them then flew through the air. Feng Qianxue was frowning, there was a rumor in the city before and now, it seems like that particular rumor was true. The other three emperor-ranked powers might be preparing to betray the Eastern Tomb.

Not long after, Qin Wentian and the other two had already arrived. There was a total of a few hundred immortal kings that came here. The experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall arrived too. They all had a look of interest, as though they were going to watch a drama.

“Holy Maiden Qianxue has arrived.” In the direction of the Sky Bell Cult, a young immortal king stared at Feng Qianxue, his eyes gleaming with a bright light. His heart was moved by her beauty. This Feng Qianxue was very famous in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City. Many immortal kings all wanted to pursue her.

“What do you all mean by this?” An old man from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke, staring at the immortal kings from the other three powers.

“Let’s seal this place first.” An expert spoke. After that, one of the experts flew up into the air and tossed out a treasure. In an instant, a terrifying beam of light shot up into the sky, sparkling with runic light. The treasure turned into an incomparably gigantic bell that hovered in the sky, casting down a huge area of light that sealed this space.

The expressions of the experts from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect turned sharp, staring at these people.

“Today, we came here to propose a marriage. We invite the saint childs and holy maidens of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to become a part of us, marrying into our sects.” An expert from the Divine Inscriptions Palace spoke, his words causing the people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to all have ugly expressions.

The Blackmetal Emperor Sect didn’t have many saint childs and holy maidens, all of them were their elites and their numbers were truly very little. These three powers actually wanted to absorb all their elites away?

“Impossible.” That old man from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect instantly objected. “Although there’s competition between us, the four remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple, our relationship could still be considered harmonious. By doing this, are you guys planning to steal away the inheritance of our Blackmetal Emperor Sect?”

“Listen to me.” That expert from the Divine Inscriptions Palace spoke. “The four remnant powers have chances to receive inheritances from the Holy Book through the generations. Although this is a secret to the external world, all of us are very clear that for those who could receive the inheritance, they were all geniuses with extremely high attainments in weaponsmithing through the generations. So what if you all send the saint children and holy maidens of this generation into our sect? For the next and ones after that, you all will still have many saint children and holy maidens.”

“Holy Book?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. To think that the rumor of the Eastern Tomb was true. The once glorious Eastern Tomb Holy Temple still had ancient inheritances remaining. In addition, all four of the remnant powers in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City knew of this secret.

“You guys can also bask in the holy radiance and peruse the Holy Book. Why do you all want the elites of my Blackmetal Emperor Sect?” That old elder angrily spoke. The other experts of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect all had cold looks in their eyes as they stared at the other three powers.

“Only the Blackmetal Emperor Sect is proficient in weaponsmithing.” That expert from the Divine Inscriptions Sect replied.

“What if I disagree?” The old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke.

“If you disagree, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect can never come into contact with the inheritance of the Eastern Tomb ever again.” An expert from the Vajra Sect coldly spoke. His skin was bronze in color and an extremely steel-like aura could be felt from him. His entire body was like a divine weapon, tyrannical to the extreme.

“You all are going too far.” The old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect had a cold expression on his face as anger radiated from him.

“Everyone, why must you all be so angry? For the remnants of the Eastern Tomb, the four emperor-ranked powers of the city, it would be a tremendous loss for Eastern Tomb if any of you lost your portion of inheritance. Why don’t all of you join forces, reuniting as one and return the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple to its former glory?” At this moment, that leader from the Sacred Sun Sect spoke, causing all the experts here to turn to him.

“How can it be so easy to reunite? Each of the four emperor-ranked powers already has their own deeply rooted foundations. If we were to unite, who would be the leader and which of the other three have to submit?” That old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect asked.

“I have a suggestion. Why don’t the four remnants powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple reunite? Each power will have equal status while my sect, the Sacred Sun Sect, as well as the Thunder God Hall, will serve as the linkage and aid you guys to develop and grow stronger. How about it?” That leader from the Sacred Sun Sect continued.

“Mhm, this suggestion isn’t bad. I agree to it.” The leader from the Thunder God Hall nodded. However, the expressions of everyone from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect all froze. So it turns out that the weapon orders from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall were false. This was their true purpose in coming here.

In addition, there is no doubt that these two peak powers have formed an alliance. If the four remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb falls under their control, all of them would be swallowed up and assimilated without a doubt in the future.

“If this is the case, my Sky Bell Cult has no objections.”

“The Divine Inscriptions Palace agrees too.”

“The Vajra Sect agrees.” The three powers all expressed their attitude, causing the expressions of the people of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to all turn ashen. So it turned out that they are the only one remaining that has not submitted yet. The other three remnants of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple had already betrayed what they stood for and chose to submit.

What did the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall do exactly, causing these three powers to submit? One must know that there’s a reason why the Eastern Tomb Immortal City wasn’t under the control of any peak powers for such a long time. If these four remnant powers worked together, they could even borrow the power of the ancient ruins that were the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple.

But now, three of the remnant powers actually submitted. There didn’t seem to be any more path of survival remaining for the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

“The Blackmetal Emperor Sect is finished.” Qin Wentian silently mused. There was no way to reverse such a situation. Seems like the peak powers have started to expand their scope of control, gaining more strength so as to handle the intense commotion that would rock the immortal realms in the very near future!

Chapter 1447: Making A Move

The Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall's intentions were too clear, wanting to swallow the entire Eastern Tomb for themselves. Three out of the four remnant powers have already submitted.

The Blackmetal Emperor Sect, was the only sect out of the four that focused primarily on weaponsmithing, they are also the power that held the most attraction for the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall. After all, as peak powers, they wouldn't lack experts but they were indeed inferior when it comes to weapon forging. If they could gain control of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, it would only be of tremendous benefits to them.

The experts of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect all fell into silence. Given such a situation, how could they disagree?

"What? We don't need your Blackmetal Emperor Sect to submit, we just want to unite the four remnant powers and head to a better future where all of us would still have equal standing. Are you not willing?" The voice of the leader of the Sacred Sun Sect turned cold, adding to the pressure.

"This matter is a major one, we cannot make a decision. Our sect leader is still out roaming the world, and if he doesn't return, no one else would have the authority to make this decision." That old man spoke, his words causing the experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall to frown. The sect leader of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect was truly very troublesome. He is rarely within the sect because he wanted to act as a deterrence against the peak powers swallowing them up. As long as he is out there somewhere, he would present a threat that everyone has to take note of.

"Then, just summon him back to make a decision." The person from the Sky Bell Cult coldly spoke.

"Our sect leader is like the divine dragon, appearing whenever he wants to. How can we find him so easily?" That old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect replied. Everyone here was an extraordinary character, how would they be willing to bow down.

This space turned silent as the atmosphere grew somewhat tense.

"Since this is the case, just treat it like I've never said anything before. You guys can continue." The leader from the Sacred Sun Sect grimly spoke, his eyes flashing with a terrifying sun-like light. After that, he retracted his gaze and stepped back. A moment later, the three other remnant powers all had cold smiles on their faces. An expert from the Sky Bell Cult stated, "Since this is the case, we can only bring away the saint children and holy maidens from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect first. When the Blackmetal Emperor returns and makes a decision, we will discuss about the other stuff then."

“The saint childs and holy maidens are the hope of my sect, how can we let you bring them away?” That old elder snorted, causing the tension to build up as both sides were prepared to draw their swords, in a state of mutual hostility.

“BOOM!” The sound of a bell chime rang out as an expert stepped forth. His body was like a bell-type divine weapon and runes could be seen circulating around the surface of his flesh. The bell chimes continued, like the melody of the Great Dao, emitting from his body. The sound waves transformed into a heavy pressure which bore down on the experts here.

“Zhongxu.” The eyes of everyone flashed. This man was Saint Child Zhongxu, from the Sky Bell Cult. He was very powerful and has entered the holy temple ruins and received a baptism before.

“Since this is the case, I can only invite the saint children and holy maidens out to give me some guidance.” After Zhongxu spoke, two other experts from the Divine Inscriptions Palace and Vajra Sect stepped out as well. Divine inscriptions and runes circulated around that expert from the Divine Inscriptions Palace, forming a formation that produced boundless might. For that expert from the Vajra Sect, his gaze was like a titan. Terrifying golden light radiated from him, his body also produced the ringing sound of steel, causing the eardrums of everyone to vibrate from the force.

“Xiao Yu of the Divine Inscriptions Palace and Reverend Fa Nu of the Vajra Sect.” The expressions of the people from the Blackmetal Emperor Palace all turned unsightly. These three challengers were all extremely powerful, among the strongest geniuses at the peak of the remnant powers. They were all saint children characters of their respective sects.

“Since the Blackmetal Emperor Sect thinks so highly of themselves and views with contempt about reuniting with us, we can only request for a battle.” Xiao Yu icily spoke, and as his voice rang out, the light from the runes around him transformed into a giant cauldron that could suppress everything.

The three remnant powers came together, they naturally had the advantage in terms of numbers. However, they only sent out three experts. Clearly, they were giving the Blackmetal Emperor Sect a chance. If they fought a large-scale battle, there would be no hope for the Blackmetal Emperor Sect at all.

But these three experts they sent out were the most elite immortal kings among them. If they wanted to win, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect naturally could only send out their own saint children and holy maidens. If they didn’t send out an immortal king on the same level as their opponents, they wouldn’t have any hope at all.

“The combat prowess of these three are all immensely strong and their paths of cultivation are similar to me, using their understanding of law-attribute runes and divine inscriptions as the base to enter the immortal king realm. In addition, their attainments in this field are all extremely deep.” Qin Wentian glanced at the experts from these three remnant powers. He could sense their terrifying combat prowess, there was no way ordinary immortal kings will be able to defeat them.

At this moment, a saint child from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect stepped forth in response. Law runes circulated around him, his entire being was like a sharp sword, radiating killing intent.

“Since this is the case, let me finish you first.” Zhongxu laughed as he flew into the sky. The saint child from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect followed after. Their auras clashed in the air, producing dazzling light.

Bell chimes resounded through the sky, Zhongxu manifested many ancient bells that produced sound waves, engulfing the entire space, capable of destroying everything in this world.

“The people from our Blackmetal Emperor Sect are naturally weaker in terms of combat due to us spending the majority of our time on weaponsmithing. By sending out three elite saint children for this combat, are you guys not going too far?” The old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect coldly spoke.

“We are all remnant powers of Eastern Tomb. Since you guys admit that you are inferior, you all should be eliminated and submit to the peak powers like us.” The saint child of the Divine Inscriptions Palace domineeringly spoke, causing the expressions of people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to turn unsightly. Another saint child then stepped out, flying up into the air.

“Hmph.” Xiao Yu of the Divine Inscriptions Palace coldly laughed, shooting up into the sky as well, rushing towards his opponent.

Reverend Fa Nu still stood in the air, no one seemed to be willing to fight against him. Fa Nu was a mid-stage immortal king with extremely terrifying combat prowess. He was someone exceptionally famous in the entire Eastern Tomb Immortal City.

“Let me deal with him.” Feng Qianxue moved out, her beautiful figure flying into the air. Fa Nu glanced at her as the golden light from his body radiated forth. “Fighting against Holy Maiden Qianxue? I will naturally show mercy.”

As he spoke, he flew up and slammed out with a fist directly. This fist transformed into a diamond buddhic vajra that could suppress everything. It then slammed a giant palm that could blot out the sky towards Feng Qianxue.

Qin Wentian glanced at the three battles. The three enemies all unleashed their law domains, causing the entire space to be filled with a stifling pressure. Out of the three battles, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect most probably didn’t have any advantage at all. Each of the three remnant powers sent out their peak elites for this combat. They would naturally be superior.

For the three enemies, Fa Nu from the Vajra Sect was the most fearsome. A dharmic idol appeared behind him as his law domain expanded. With a breath, dao runes manifested in his domain, capable of killing everything.

Although Feng Qianxue's strength was also very powerful, she was in a difficult situation when faced with Fa Nu's attacks. She wasn't strong enough to win against him.

Finally, a runic glow appeared around Fa Nu's feet. He sped through the air and slammed out with a palm brimming with titanic might. Feng Qianxue put in all her effort to defend but she was ruthlessly knocked back as she fell from the air while coughing out blood.

"Qianxue!" Feng Zhu roared, soaring up into the air.

"Stop there!" Another person from the Vajra Sect coldly snorted. A golden palm appeared in the sky, blocking Feng Zhu from advancing.

"BANG!" With a loud boom, that giant palm shattered. At this moment, a figure with movements akin to a great roc shot through the air, catching Feng Qianxue with one hand while blasting out a gigantic palm imprint with the other, clashing head-on with Fa Nu's giant palm. A thunderous echo rumbled, Qin Wentian borrowed the force to retreat in the direction of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. He then glanced at Feng Qianxue and asked, "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Feng Qianxue's face was pale, there were traces of blood at the corners of her lips as her aura fluctuated.

"It's this man again." That immortal king who was defeated by Qin Wentian before, had killing intent in his eyes. "Isn't he an outsider, this is an intimate matter between the remnant powers but why is he forcibly interfering? Blackmetal Emperor Sect, how would you all deal with him?"

The people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect stared at Qin Wentian in bewilderment. They didn't expect Qin Wentian's speed to actually be so fast. His movements were like a true great roc, capable of moving with lightning speed.

"There's actually an outsider interfering with the internal matters of the remnants powers of Eastern Tomb Holy Temple. Should we kill him?" That immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect spoke again, his tone extremely glacial.

"The internal matters of the remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple? If this is the case, are you all not outsiders as well? Why is the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall here? According to your words, shouldn't you guys be killed? Why are you still barking so loudly, hand over your lives now." Qin Wentian sneered.

"Impudent!" The leader of the Sacred Sun Sect stepped out, causing the earth near him to crack from the fury of his flames.

Everyone naturally understood Qin Wentian's words, including the people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. However, although they understood, none of them dared to say it out loud in the face of the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall. By saying this, Qin Wentian was simply smacking their faces. Wasn't he courting death?

"This man has insulted my Sacred Sun Sect. Is he someone from your Blackmetal Emperor Sect?" That leader of the Sacred Sun Sect no longer looked at Qin Wentian. He turned his gaze to the old elder of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

The old elder glanced at Qin Wentian, he didn't know what to reply.

"An outsider interfering in our internal matters. Your Blackmetal Emperor Sect better handle this appropriately and give us a good reply." An expert from the Sky Bell Cult coldly spoke, threatening the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, wanting them to deal with Qin Wentian.

"He isn't an outsider." At this moment, Feng Qianxue spoke, causing everyone to turn to her.

Only to see Feng Qianxue hugging Qin Wentian's arm while leaning against him. "He is the man I'm in love with. When he saw that I was injured, he naturally would be infuriated."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed when he heard that but he didn't say anything. The Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall were too domineering, directing the three other remnant powers, wanting to capture the saint children and holy maidens of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Right now, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect was really treading on thin ice, they were in extremely desperate straits.

As the voice of Feng Qianxue faded, many gazes with killing intent turned to Qin Wentian. There were many experts among the three remnant powers who were fond of Feng Qianxue. But now, Feng Qianxue was actually throwing herself into his embrace, no longer as pure or as holy as before. These people couldn't help but feel jealousy and hatred for Qin Wentian.

"Everyone, how about giving our sect a month worth of time. We have to report this to our sect leader." That old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke.

"A month is too long. Seven days. I want an answer within seven days." The leader from the Sacred Sun Sect icily spoke.

"Fine, seven days then." That old elder was helpless, he could only nod in agreement.

"Great. Since this is the case, we will remain here for the next seven days. Everyone, let's return first." The leader from the Sacred Sun Sect spoke to the experts from the three other remnant powers. Fa Nu, and many other experts all shot a cold glance at Qin Wentian, radiating their killing intent. Fa Nu transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian, "I'll take your dog life after seven days."

As he spoke, he turned and departed. The other experts from the three remnant powers all left as well!

Chapter 1448: Blackmetal Sword Emperor

After the three remnant powers left, the majority of the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall still remained behind, not showing any inclinations of leaving. The leader of the Sacred Sun Sect continued, “You guys best quickly inform your sect leader. There are only seven days worth of time.”

After that, they turned around and departed but they didn’t leave the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, returning to the residence the Blackmetal Emperor Sect had prepared for them earlier when they came by under the pretext of ordering the divine weapons, continuing to monitor the movements of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

“Let’s return to the great hall to discuss this.” The old elder from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke. It was inconvenient to discuss anything else out in the open. After that, their people all respectively left the area as well.

The Blackmetal Great Hall was the place of discussion for members of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Ordinary characters wouldn’t be able to enter this place.

At this moment, Qin Wentian also followed the upper echelons of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect to the great hall for a discussion. The expressions of everyone were heavy and solemn. Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu stood beside Qin Wentian only to hear Feng Qianxue transmitting her voice to him, “Brother Qin, this matter has nothing to do with you. You should leave while you can. Earlier, I apologize for making use of you.”

“Don’t worry about it, I understand that it was a plan of convenience. In addition, they had long wanted to deal with me. By saying that we are together, it’s to make it so that they have no reason to act against me.” Qin Wentian didn’t mind it as he casually replied. Feng Qianxue’s beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian but she didn’t say anything else.

“Qianxue, is this man really your dao companion? Why do I have no idea.” The old elder was actually the grand elder of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. He glanced at Feng Qianxue and asked.

“Grand Elder, Brother Qin is merely passing by, seeking my help to forge some weapons. Earlier, I was forced to say those words, please don’t take offense.” Feng Qianxue replied.

“Ah, I see.” The Grand Elder nodded. He then turned to Qin Wentian, “In any case, this is a matter of our Blackmetal Emperor Sect and has nothing to do with you. However, you are already implicated within it now. If you want to leave, you have to be extra careful, the people from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall wouldn’t allow you to go so easily. I have to apologize on behalf of our sect to you.”

“Don’t worry, this is my own choice. There’s no need for senior to be so polite.” Qin Wentian shook his head.

“It’s best that you be more careful in the future. The killing intent the people from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall have for you is truly extremely strong.” That old elder reminded. After that, he turned his gaze to everyone else, “This time, we didn’t expect that the other three remnant powers would actually have already submitted. Seems like it’s impossible for us to escape this calamity. Even if we report this to the sect leader, we would be helpless to reverse the situation as well.”

“Us, who are the remnants of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple have survived up till now as independent existences, how can we submit to the other powers? If we do so, most probably the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple would be disintegrated by them and assimilated. In the future, the legacy of the temple would be forgotten and no longer have anything to do with us. We will become nothing but a tool for them to use.” An immortal king spoke while the others nodded, understanding the situation.

“I’m unwilling to submit.” Another immortal king sighed. The old elder surveyed the crowd, the vast majority of the immortal kings were unwilling to submit. As immortal kings, everyone has their own pride.

“Just express your stances, I will convey all of your attitudes to the sect leader and allow him and the supreme elder to make a decision.” The grand elder also sighed.

After everyone has spoken, the great elder waved his hand, “Alright, you guys can return. I will inform you all once I have news.”

“Noted.”

Everyone else left with a sinking feeling in their hearts. The Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Sect were trampling on their hearts, causing them to unable to breathe.

Qin Wentian, Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu all left together. On their way back, Qin Wentian asked, “Is there some secret about the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple?”

“Since you are already implicated, there’s no harm in telling you this. The Eastern Tomb Holy Temple was a supreme power of the ancient era but due to the passage of time, it slowly weakened and deteriorated, gradually forgotten by history. However, there always has been inheritances of the Holy Temple in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City granted to the four remnant powers. And in the past, although there had been conflicts between the four powers, we would always unite and fend off external foes, protecting the legacy of the Holy Temple, blocking others from obtaining it. If the four remnant powers really joined forces, even the peak powers of the central regions would find it difficult to stand against us. They definitely would have to pay an astronomical price if they try to do things by force. Hence, this is the reason why the four remnant powers could survive independently up till now.”

Feng Qianxue slowly explained. “Sadly, the day we feared, seemed to have finally come.”

“After so many years, haven’t any of the remnant powers of the holy temple produced a peak-stage expert? Qin Wentian asked.

“How can it be so easy to produce a peak-stage immortal emperor. I’ve heard before that there were quite a few extremely talented geniuses in the past, but all of them seemed to have been assassinated. Those peak powers are unwilling to see the Eastern Tomb’s remnant powers to grow so strong, reaching a point where they had no way to control us.” Feng Qianxue bitterly smiled. “Actually, everyone knows that it is already very difficult to maintain this fragile line of balance for so many years, the line of balance would be broken sooner or later. They want to control our Blackmetal Emperor Sect as well as obtain the secrets of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple. Also, the chaos brought by the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range became an excuse that reinforced their determination to act.”

“What is there exactly in the Eastern Tomb Ruins?” Qin Wentian curiously asked.

“A Holy Book, Holy Will and a Holy Weapon. I’m not very sure what else is there.” Feng Qianxue’s voice turned solemn. Her beautiful eyes turned into the distance, staring in the direction of the Eastern Tomb Ruins, as a look of yearning and reverence could be seen within.

“It’s rumored that during ancient times, there were many sages in the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple, transcending the mortal world, and receiving confirmation of their Dao. The inheritances they left behind were sufficient for the hundreds of generations that came after them.” Feng Qianxue mumbled.

“What cultivation realm are the Sages at?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Their cultivation realm should be equivalent to the ancient emperors, and in any case, their strength has already exceeded peak-stage immortal emperors. We can’t fathom how strong they really are though.” Feng Qianxue replied.

“There are external rumors saying that the mountain, where the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple is located on, is now just an ordinary mountain range, the stories of the past were simply a legend. However, hasn’t the inheritances continued through the generations, why does no one know about it?” Qin Wentian asked.

“The holy ruins where the temple is, only opens when the occasion demands for it. How would ordinary characters have the chance to see it? Unless, of course, there’s someone who barged in forcefully. However, our Blackmetal Emperor Sect tells us that the holy temple is already extremely unstable. If someone forcefully tries to enter, the entire temple might just collapse and disappear forever.” Feng Qianxue continued. This incident caused her to have a strong unease in her heart.

Qin Wentian didn’t continue asking, and as they returned to the residence, he reminded her once more, “Recuperate well.”

“Mhm.” Feng Qianxue nodded. Although her injuries were serious, her recovery rate was very fast given her cultivation realm.

In the blink of an eye, the seven days passed and the deadline was reached.

Today, the other three remnant emperor-ranked powers came by imposingly, exuding their aura to pressure, in a very tyrannical manner.

The experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall also came. This time around, they directly surrounded the great hall of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, not planning to give any chance to them.

The great elder of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect stood on the stone stairs leading up to the great hall. He stared at the incoming experts and spoke, “The sect leader has given me a reply, he wants all of us to head to the Eastern Tomb. He will appear there and give you all an answer.”

“Head to the Eastern Tomb?” The experts from the other three powers froze. During these seven days, they used their immortal sense to observe the movements made by the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. Not only just for the sect, their immortal sense covered the entire Eastern Tomb Immortal City, but none of them had seen the sect leader of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect appearing at all. They’ve only seen the great elder and the supreme elder moving about.

The experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall furrowed their brows. They spoke in a rude manner, “What does your Blackmetal Emperor Sect mean by this?”

“This is what my sect leader wants, I can’t help it either.” The great elder replied.

“Since this is the case, let’s head to the Eastern Tomb then.” The leader from the Sacred Sun Sect coldly snorted.

“Move out.” The experts from the Thunder God Hall flew forward, leading the way as everyone started to move towards the direction of the Eastern Tomb.

The Eastern Tomb naturally was located in the eastern area of the city. The mountain it was located on, appeared extremely desolate. It’s really difficult to imagine that such an ordinary mountain range was once known as the holy mountain.

All the experts gradually arrived. Qin Wentian came as well. He stared at the Eastern Tomb, the simple and unadorned sacred grounds of the immortal city were actually…extremely normal looking?

Several killing intents locked on to him. Qin Wentian knew these people wanted his life, his expression similarly turned as cold as them as he stared back.

“Where is the Blackmetal Emperor?” The leader from the Sacred Sun Sect impatiently spoke. The sect leader of the Blackmetal Emperor of this generation had the title of the Blackmetal Emperor.

“The sect leader is already here.” The great elder of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect spoke.

“Are you playing me?” The aura of the leader from the Sacred Sun Sect violently erupted outwards.

The great elder shook his head. Abruptly, the ruins suddenly flared with a brilliant light, illuminating the area as a terrifying sword qi permeated the atmosphere.

“RUMBLE!” Waves of extremely powerful sword might gushed forth, causing cracks to appear around the ground. The holy light expanded, covering everything and was so blinding that no one could open their eyes. This holy light was simply too dazzling, and right at the source of the light, a tomb could be seen. It was none other than the Eastern Tomb of the legends.

Qin Wentian shielded his eyes with his palm as he stared in the direction of the holy light. That should be the true Eastern Tomb Holy Temple? The Eastern Tomb has already appeared, exuding a boundless might that shot up the sky?

“Blackmetal Emperor.” The eyes of everyone turned to a figure that suddenly appeared there. This figure was a middle-aged man who stood there proudly, like the king of this world.

“You actually broke the rule of balance of the Eastern Tomb…?” An expert from the Sky Bell Cult angrily spoke.

“Blackmetal Emperor, how is it possible for you to come out from there? Have you been hiding there since the last time the tomb was opened? Have you gone mad?”

“Are you planning to seize everything for yourself?” An expert from the Vajra Sect howled with anger.

“Shut up.” That figure waved his hand as a burst of supreme sword intent slashed out. In just an instant, an immortal king was directly slashed into twain. The sight of this caused everyone else to shiver, no one else dared to say anything more.

“We pay our respects to Sect Leader.” The experts from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect bowed. To think that their sect leader has always been inside the Eastern Tomb.

“During the previous time when the Eastern Tomb was opened, I already had a premonition that the inheritance would soon come to an end. I sealed myself inside the tomb and perused the Holy Book, attempting to see through heavenly fate. I wouldn’t come out unless something drastic happened, and I naturally wouldn’t spoil the rule of balance between the four remnant powers casually.”

The Blackmetal Emperor slowly spoke. “It’s just that I didn’t expect that the three other remnant powers have decided to betray the holy will of the holy temple. Since this is the case, I broke out from the tomb in this forceful manner, breaking the root of all future inheritance. Let this tomb opening be the last opening for all eternity.”

As he spoke, the light radiating from him grew even more intense as his sword intent enveloped the entire Eastern Tomb Immortal City.

“The Eastern Tomb has opened, the Holy Book is available for all to peruse. For those who are keen, all of you are welcome to enter the Eastern Tomb.” His voice thunderously rang out, echoing through the entire immortal city!

“Eastern Tomb? Holy Book? Is the legendary ruins opening?” At this moment, countless people inclined their heads, their hearts trembling when they heard the words.

“Let’s head to the Eastern Tomb.” Countless figures soared into the air, flying towards the Eastern Tomb’s location.

In the Sky Bell Cult, Divine Inscriptions Palace and Vajra Sect, many experts glanced up in the air as their eyes gleamed with sharpness. To think that the Blackmetal Emperor was so ruthless. He disappeared for so many years but he was actually hiding in the Eastern Tomb to comprehend the Holy Book.

Stomping on the ground, experts from the three remnant powers rushed there as well. Seems like the Blackmetal Emperor Sect has no intentions to submit. The carefully laid plans of the Sacred Sun Sect and Thunder God Mountain, are destined to fail.

“Will there be no future inheritances to be gained from the Holy Temple?” They sighed in their hearts. By forcefully breaking out from the tomb, the Blackmetal Emperor has made it so this would be the last time the Eastern Tomb would open.

Chapter 1449: Domineering Blackmetal Sword Emperor

“Blackmetal Sword Emperor, your actions actually caused the future inheritances of the Eastern Tomb to cease. You will be a sinner condemned by history.” A voice of anger rang out. The sounds of bell chimes rang out unceasingly through the air, reverberating in the ears of everyone.

“When you guys betrayed the will of the Eastern Tomb, the remnants of the holy temple no longer existed. If I’m a sinner, what are you all?” The Blackmetal Emperor calmly spoke, his sword intent filling the entire space.

“Blackmetal Emperor, do you want the entire Blackmetal Emperor Sect to be destroyed?” An expert from the Thunder God Hall coldly spoke. Lightning crackled wildly around him, the reason they came here was firstly, to control the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, and secondly, to obtain the Eastern Tomb. In addition, the second reason was more important than the first.

But now, the Blackmetal Sword Emperor actually destroyed everything.

The Blackmetal Emperor swept a glance at the person who spoke. His eyes shot out rays of sword light, directly ripping through that poor immortal king. That immortal king screamed in agony as both his eyes were blinded.

“From now on, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect will be dissolved. Everyone, leave the sect immediately.” The voice of the Blackmetal Emperor thundered through the air, resonating throughout the immortal city. At this moment, all the experts from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect felt their hearts shuddering. There were many of them who inclined their heads and stared at the Blackmetal Sword Emperor. The sect leader actually wanted to dissolve the sect?

The expressions of the experts from the Sacred Sun Sect, the Thunder God Hall and the three remnant powers finally changed, becoming extremely unsightly. They didn’t expect the Blackmetal Sword Emperor to be so decisive, choosing to destroy everything, causing this time to be the last time for the inheritance, as well as dissolving the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. If this was the case, they wouldn’t be able to gain anything. Not only would they not be able to gain the future inheritances from the Eastern Tomb, they would even lose a weaponsmithing power like the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

“The net breaks and fish dies.” Many people silently mused.

Feng Qianxue stood there, staring at the Blackmetal Sword Emperor as she sighed silently. Qin Wentian stood beside her, also staring at the figure of the Sword Emperor. This was his determination and how could an emperor-ranked character be so simple? Easily submitting, allowing others to control him just like that? He would rather abandon everything instead of allowing the other party to get what they want.

“The Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall are both peak powers, I hope you guys wouldn’t implicate members of the sect which I have already dissolved. If you guys really do something despicable, the reputation of both your sects would be torn to shreds. Not only that, I will start to target the weaker ones from both your sects, killing whenever I see one.” The Blackmetal Sword Emperor coldly threatened. At this moment, three other waves of sword intent appeared above the airspace of where the people of the Sky Bell Cult, Divine Inscriptions Palace and Vajra Sect were at, enveloping them. As long as the Sword Emperor wanted to, he could destroy them all with a single thought.

“Blackmetal Sword Emperor, why are you doing this?” The sect leader of the Sky Bell Cult arrived. It was an old man, although he seemed very aged, his steps were incomparably steady, capable of causing the earth to tremble with every step he took. The sound of bell chimes filled the air. Around the Blackmetal Sword Emperor, manifestations of giant bells appeared one after another as a fearsome vibration might gushed forth from them. However, the Sword Emperor stood there unmoving, his sword intent destroying all of the ancient bells.

“Why am I doing this?” The Blackmetal Sword Emperor waved his hand, causing the sword might in the area to intensify. He then spoke, “You guys should understand in your heart that as long as you submit, you will no longer be part of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple. The remnants would divided further, disappearing forever more into history. Since this is the case, what’s the use of me not dissolving my sect and breaking the line of inheritances from the Eastern Tomb? The three of you are the true sinners of the holy temple.”

“Since this is the case, we have no choice but to kill you.” The Sky Bell Cult’s sect leader howled in anger. Boundless runic light flashed, shooting towards the Eastern Tomb, instantly manifesting runes which formed themselves into a giant bell that enveloped himself.

The palace lord of the Divine Inscriptions Palace folded ancient hand seals, creating countless inscriptions that lined themselves up, congregating into the form of a chessboard, hovering above him

As for the sect leader of the Vajra Sect, he roared in anger as golden light flashed. A giant dharma idol formed behind him, shrouding him within, endowing him with boundless might.

“Is this the strength of the remnant powers?” Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling when he saw this scene. He could actually feel the energy from the Eastern Tomb. In addition, regardless of the ancient giant bell, chessboard or dharma idol, all of them exuded boundless power, they were terrifying emperor-ranked weapons.

“Where’s your sword?” The sect leader of the Sky Bell Cult coldly snorted at the Blackmetal Sword Emperor.

“I am my sword.” The Blackmetal Sword Emperor calmly replied. Boundless runic light radiated from him as his body turned sparkling and translucent. A supreme sword could be seen shimmering within his body. From the sky, a constellation flared, producing extreme radiance, where numerous silhouettes of that same sword could be seen, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble.

“Resonance with one’s constellation. Immortal emperors and immortal kings might be classified as the same cultivation realm but their strength was still incomparable, not on the same level.” Qin Wentian silently mused when he saw this. Such an intense sword intent was already sufficient to kill immortal kings effortlessly if the Sword Emperor willed it.

“BOOM!” At this moment, the sky changed color. Streaks of violent lightning formed dragons that soared through the sky. The entire space turned into a scene from the apocalypse. An immortal emperor from the Thunder God Hall had arrived.

In another direction, numerous huge balls of sunflames appeared, causing the atmosphere to become scorchingly hot. The heat was high enough to burn those nearby into cinders. An immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect had also arrived.

These two peak powers wanted to devour the remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple themselves, how could they not send out immortal emperors in this undertaking? It was just that their immortal emperors had been in the shadows and didn’t show themselves. As immortal emperors from peak powers, their statuses were naturally extraordinary high. It was already enough to let their immortal kings speak to the Blackmetal Sword Emperor. However, the Blackmetal Sword Emperor would actually be so ruthless and decisive, out of their expectations.

“Too terrifying,” The countless people gathered before the Eastern Tomb Mountain all felt great waves of fear in their hearts. If these emperors went for broke and started to war right here and now, this entire area would be devastated, becoming ruins.

Even in the perspective of immortal kings, this moment was also a very shocking scene.

“Sacred Sun Sect and Thunder God Hall. Right now, your two powers cannot even obtain anything. Do you really want to continue wasting time?” The Blackmetal Sword Emperor calmly asked, his voice as sharp as swords.

“Blackmetal Sword Emperor, by making this decision, do you really still expect to live?” The immortal emperor from the Thunder God Hall coldly spoke.

“In that case, I have to see how strong the two of you are.” The Blackmetal Sword Emperor was facing against several immortal emperors but he was still as arrogant as ever. He glanced down at the crowd and spoke, “Today, I broke the future path of inheritances granted by the Eastern Tomb but there’s still a final chance for everyone in the immortal city to enter and peruse the Holy Book. Everyone, including the people from the Thunder God Hall and the Sacred Sun Sect can enter but in return, you guys cannot interfere in this matter any longer. How about it?”

“If that’s the case, we have to see how strong your strength is then.” The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect icily shot back. If they could kill the Blackmetal Sword Emperor directly, why would they still need his permission for people to enter the Eastern Tomb?

The Blackmetal Sword Emperor didn’t say anything more. In the air, boundless sword light flowed down like rivers, targeting the five other emperors. In an instant, the aura of pure destruction filled the air. The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect snorted coldly as his sunflames burned through everything, protecting his body from the tidal surges of sword qi.

But at this moment, the Blackmetal Sword Emperor stabbed out with his finger. A torrential amount of sword qi congregated together, focusing into a thin point that pierced through the balls of sunflames, drilling into the body of the immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect. That immortal emperor turned pale with fright, hurriedly retreating as the flames around him grew more intense in a bid to protect him.

"Puchi…" A light sound rang out. He howled in rage as one of his arms was slashed off as his blood splashed through the air.

The other immortal emperors felt their hearts shaking. The Blackmetal Sword Emperor was stronger than what they imagined. During these years, he sealed himself inside the Eastern Tomb and must have comprehended many insights, growing stronger and stronger.

"Let me ask again. Everyone in the immortal city can enter, except us emperors. If you all have any objections, I will start my slaughter spree. No one from either of your sects will be able to enter." The Blackmetal Sword Emperor coldly spoke. "Do you all agree to my terms?"

The expressions of the immortal emperors all turned ugly. They had so many emperors on their side but all of them were threatened by a single Blackmetal Sword Emperor.

However, that attack by the Blackmetal Sword Emperor earlier was truly more powerful than what they expected. Even if they ganged up, they would still need time to kill him. But during this period of time, he could easily kill a number of them.

"Fine." The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect nodded.

"We agree." The other immortal emperors also chose to compromise. As long as their members could enter the Eastern Tomb, it was sufficient for now.

"You guys, feel free to enter." The Blackmetal Sword Emperor spoke to the people that gathered below. Many of the city have heard of this legendary place before but they have never seen it with their eyes. Right now, since the Eastern Tomb has already opened up, how could they miss this opportunity to enter?

Numerous figures flashed, heading towards there. Feng Qianxue was still staring at the Blackmetal Sword Emperor with a look of worry on her face.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Feng Qianxue's worry was useless, there was no way she could do anything to help given her current cultivation level.

"Mhm." Stepping out, Feng Qianxue, Qin Wentian and their group also moved towards the Eastern Tomb.

The Eastern Tomb radiated a holy white light, illuminating the area around it. One could also feel a mysterious energy in the atmosphere when they moved closer to it.

“There’s someone following us.” Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Not only for them, after many immortal kings from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect entered the Eastern Tomb, there were also many from the other powers following them in secret. Among these people from the other powers, several were staring in the direction of Qin Wentian and Feng Qianxue.

Quite a few immortal kings from the Sacred Sun Sect, including the immortal king who lost to Qin Wentian before, as well as Reverend Fa Nu of the Vajra Sect, were all staring at Qin Wentian while radiating unmasked killing intent.

“Let’s leave.” Qin Wentian increased his speed, grabbing Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu, fleeing away like lightning. The projection of a great roc appeared as he unleashed his movement technique, heavily boosting his speed.

“Can you escape even if you want to?” An immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect laughed as he sped forward as well.

“What’s the point of the Blackmetal Sword Emperor allowing you all to enter? After entering the Eastern Tomb, the whole lot of you would become nothing but vengeful spirits that will die by our hands. Let me send you on your way then.” Reverend Fa Nu of the Vajra Sect exuded an imposing might as he too, chased after Qin Wentian’s group.

Chapter 1450: Complete Annihilation

In the vast Eastern Tomb, Qin Wentian increased his speed, speeding into the depths.

From many directions, various experts started to increase their speeds too.

“The three of you hunt them down.” The leader among immortal kings from the Sacred Sun Sect commanded, selecting three experts to hunt down Qin Wentian’s group.

“Reverend Fa Nu, let’s go together.” An expert pointed to Fa Nu. Given Fa Nu’s strength as well as three other powerful mid-stage immortal kings, they should be more than sufficient to kill Qin Wentian’s group.

“Right.” Fa Nu nodded. His eyes gleamed with a sharp golden light, staring at the backs of their fleeing target. He cast a deep glance at Feng Qianxue as lust flashed in his eyes.

Feng Qianxue, a holy maiden of the Blackmetal Emperor Sect. She was someone with both beauty and talent.

As for he, Fa Nu, he was a Diamond Saint Child of the Vajra Sect. He had tremendous strength but he always felt as though he was lacking something. If he could obtain Feng Qianxue and make her into his sex slave, serving him forever, he would feel that his life would be more perfect.

In addition, the Vajra Sect had a secret art. If he could manage to capture Qin Wentian, Feng Zhu and Feng Qianxue, he would use them for an experiment.

“Brother Qin, your speed is severely affected because you are bringing the two of us along with you. Why don’t we split up? We don’t want to implicate you in this.” Feng Zhu’s strength was among the weaker ones among them, inferior to both Qin Wentian and his sister Feng Qianxue. Clearly, now that there were people hunting them, he would definitely become a burden to the group.

“Don’t worry about it.” Qin Wentian spoke, continuing to drag them as he flew. Huge roc wings could be seen behind him, easily traversing an immense amount of distance with a few flaps, moving through the air with incredible speed as they headed further into the depths.

“This Eastern Tomb is unfathomable.” Qin Wentian silently mused.

“Vile creatures, I said that I would send you guys on your way to hell but you still want to flee?” Fa Nu roared in anger, his voice sounding out like thunder, reverberating in the eardrums of Qin Wentian’s group. Fa Nu’s strength was really extremely fearsome.

“Holy Maiden Qianxue, our battle has yet to be concluded. Why don’t I bring you back to the Vajra Sect and we can war with our bodies to our heart’s content. Hahahaha!” Fa Nu laughed maniacally, as though he wanted to infuriate Feng Qianxue intentionally.

“Despicable monk.” Feng Qianxue’s expression turned unsightly. The Vajra Sect cultivates the buddhist-path arts and can be considered buddhist monks. However, when experts from the Vajra Sect did things, they always proceeded in a tyrannical manner, ignoring benevolence and righteousness. They were simply false buddha-practitioners, only focusing on training their strength and not their state of hearts nor their compassion and virtue.

“Haha, seems like Holy Maiden Qianxue is itching to get on with it.” Fa Nu laughed in an unbridled manner. At this moment, the roc phantom in front suddenly curved in a beautiful arc, landing on the ground. Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu stood beside Qin Wentian, with a look of bewilderment on their faces. Why did Qin Wentian suddenly decide to stop fleeing in the face of four powerful immortal kings?

This is especially true for Reverend Fa Nu, a saint child of the Vajra Sect, he was incomparably powerful. Among the three of them, Qin Wentian and Feng Qianxue were mid-stage immortal kings while Feng Zhu was merely at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm. His strength was simply insufficient. There was no way for their group to be able to win against such powerful opponents.

Fa Nu and the three others all had strange looks on their faces. Qin Wentian actually stopped fleeing. Things are getting interesting, was he courting death voluntarily?

“Seems like Holy Maiden Qianxue wants to duo-cultivate with this seat. This seat naturally has to fulfil her wish and let her have some fun times with me.” Fa Nu stopped, a golden light gleamed from his body, transforming into a golden armor that enveloped him.

“Why are you guys not fleeing? Come on, run away for our amusement.” The immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect that one lost to Qin Wentian was also part of this group. He was here with two other immortal kings that were stronger than him, all three except Fa Nu, were from the Sacred Sun Sect.

“Flee?” Qin Wentian glanced at them. His calm eyes reflected a disdain for them, he didn’t even have these people in his eyes. Such a gaze caused that immortal king who had once lost to him to feel extremely humiliated as his countenance grew unsightly.

“This seat wants Feng Qianxue alive. There would be no meaning if she’s dead.” Fa Nu spoke, his words causing the experts from the Sacred Sun Sect to have cold smiles on their faces. “Since Reverend Fa Nu has already requested, we will naturally capture Feng Qianxue alive and hand her to you.”

“Shameless!” Feng Qianxue coldly spoke.

“Reverend Fa Nu, let’s finish this up quickly. There are still many secrets in the Eastern Tomb waiting for us to uncover.” An expert from the Sacred Sun Sect stated.

“Qianxue, help me to stall Fa Nu for some moments. I will finish the three from the Sacred Sun Sect.” Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Feng Qianxue, his words causing her expression to freeze. Qin Wentian actually wanted to one versus three? Fighting alone against three powerful immortal kings of the peak power, the Sacred Sun Sect?

Although she knew that Qin Wentian’s combat prowess was very strong. Such self-confidence truly caused her to be stunned.

“Mhm.” However, she still agreed. Although she couldn’t win against Fa Nu, there were no problems for someone of her strength to delay him for some time. If they were really fated to be defeated here, that could only be destiny then.

“Holy Maiden Qianxue, this seat is coming.” Fa Nu laughed. Lifting his palm, golden light filled the sky. A giant palm imprint materialized, slamming towards Qin Wentian and Feng Qianxue. At the same instant, the three other immortal kings split up and surrounded Qin Wentian’s group, preventing them from fleeing again. Their bodies shone with the destructive light from sunflames, as they rushed towards Qin Wentian.

Feng Qianxue stepped to the side, engaging Fa Nu while Qin Wentian stomped the ground, causing a burst of unprecedented suppressive heaviness to bore down on everything in a certain area around him.

Under this heavy pressure, Qin Wentian unleashed his roc movement technique and rushed straight for that immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect whom he once defeated.

“Insufferable trash.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His third eye appeared, unleashing the Evil Eye Domain, blasting a wave of might at his opponent. A terrifying destructive devil sword shot through everything, piercing through that poor immortal king. That immortal king froze as his countenance drastically changed.

“Die!” Qin Wentian roared. Devil might churn wildly as a devil saber appeared in his hand. Cleaving down with his other hand, the saber descended through the air like a bolt of thunder. That immortal king wanted to flee but he was weighed down by the heavy pressure. A bright saber light flashed as he was directly split into twain, instantly dying, unable to withstand even a single attack.

“RUMBLE!” From behind, a gigantic sun palm imprint slammed over, about to smash into Qin Wentian. However, resplendent runic glows sprang out, enveloping him protectively as a phantom of a great roc appeared, meeting that palm attack on his behalf as both shattered into pieces. Qin Wentian was uninjured by that palm strike.

“Refine!” The two immortal kings of the Sacred Sun Sect roared when they saw their comrade dying. In an instant, balls of sunflames surrounded Qin Wentian as they exploded, manifesting fearsome flame dragons that lunged towards Qin Wentian. Not only that, powerful sharp sun swords also slashed towards Qin Wentian, exuding boundless might.

“BOOM!” Qin Wentian’s aura erupted forth as his bloodline protection avatar appeared, transforming into a protective divine Xuanwu Turtle, producing a protective barrier that blocked the flames and sun swords.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced at the two immortal kings. He icily spoke, “Flee? Just based on your strengths, aren’t you guys overestimating yourselves?”

As the sound of his voice faded, his demon sword appeared, brimming with an overwhelming demonic qi. The aura of an absolute king gushed forth from him.

A raging wind kicked up, the bloodline avatar then transformed into a primordial great roc and slashed out with his wings, manifesting smaller versions of great rocs that shot out towards the two immortal kings from the Sacred Sun Sect.

“Swish~” One of the immortal kings folded ancient hand seals, causing the sun light around him to turn even brighter, materializing a sun shield that blocked the rocs rushing him. As for the other, he blasted out numerous palm attacks, forming a sun wheel that launched fireballs, destroying the rocs.

Qin Wentian arrived before the first immortal king. With a slash of the demon sword, that immortal king fell into an illusion, trapped within a nightmare.

As the sword slashed down, the sun shield was split apart, directly killing that immortal king.

For the remaining immortal king of the Sacred Sun Sect, he felt his heart trembling from Qin Wentian’s strength. He then retreated with explosive speed, wanting to flee.

“BOOM!” Qin Wentian took a step forward, unleashing his Divine Elephant Domain, suppressing this entire space. That immortal king couldn’t maintain his speed. When the Evil Eye Domain’s area of effect reached him, Qin Wentian’s demon sword shot out from his hand, piercing through his opponent’s head.

Feng Zhu stood there dumbfounded, staring at this shocking sight. He didn’t expect Qin Wentian to be so tyrannically strong, killing three powerful mid-stage immortal kings in the blink of an eye. Also, all of these immortal kings were from the peak power, the Sacred Sun Sect. How heaven-defying was Qin Wentian’s strength?

Qin Wentian’s silhouette flashed as he rushed towards the other battlefield where Fa Nu and Feng Qianxue were in combat. Fa Nu’s expression changed, and with a loud boom, he forced Feng Qianxue back while he also retreated, staring at the incoming Qin Wentian.

“Who are you exactly?” Fa Nu stared at Qin Wentian as he asked. It was impossible for ordinary characters to have such combat prowess.

“Why does someone who is dying need so many answers?” The demon sword broke apart the space, transforming into a huge roc that lunged towards Fa Nu. Fa Nu howled in rage, his dharma idol appeared behind him, exuding a solemn and dignified air. His entire body shone with a dazzling runic light as gigantic palm imprints appeared, smashing against the demon sword, producing a sharp grinding noise.

Fa Nu turned pale. The might of this sword was beyond his expectations. Qin Wentian’s attack was extremely tyrannical.

Qin Wentian advanced forward, suppressing everything around him. Countless palm imprints powered by God’s Hand covered the sky, converging together into one as he ferociously pressed forward. A supremely divine hand of god smashed down, slamming against the diamond vajra palm blasted forth by Fa Nu. With a resounding bang, Fa Nu’s golden protective barrier directly shattered.

Qin Wentian stabbed out with his finger, the demon sword responded to his movements and pierced towards Fa Nu. Fa Nu roared in anger, forming countless runes to block the demon sword from piercing him.

“DIE!” Qin Wentian stomped the ground. Fa Nu took out a chain of arhat beads as he broke them and tossed the beads towards Qin Wentian. In an instant, the beads exploded, forming a powerful blast that pushed the sword away as he borrowed the force to retreat backwards.

Qin Wentian punched out, disintegrating the forcefield. He continued moving forward, each of his steps were like they were trampling on Fa Nu’s heart, causing Fa Nu to groan in misery as he coughed out blood.

“Goodbye.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke as he closed in. The demon sword hummed in anger, directly shooting straight through the throat of Fa Nu, finishing him off.

Chapter 1451: Holy Sage's Will

Qin Wentian glanced at the dead Fa Nu as his eyes flashed. Seems like the experts from the Vajra Sect were more powerful compared to ordinary experts from the Sacred Sun Sect. This must mean that the inheritances granted by the Eastern Tomb are most definitely extraordinary.

Naturally, Fa Nu was a Saint Child of the Vajra Sect. If an ordinary member of the Vajra Sect were to be used in comparison, they would still be slightly inferior to the ordinary members from the peak powers.

Qin Wentian's expression was still the same, but Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu were both absolutely stunned. Fighting one on three against mid-stage immortal kings from peak powers and even killing Fa Nu after that. Qin Wentian's combat prowess was extremely terrifying to behold.

"What's wrong?" Turning about, Qin Wentian glanced at the two of them.

"Brother Qin, don't you feel that you are a little too heaven-defying?" Feng Zhu sighed.

"Am I?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"However, Brother Qin you might be in for some trouble. Leaving aside the Vajra Sect, the Sacred Sun Sect is a peak power. By killing three of their mid-stage immortal kings, you would definitely incur their wrath and there might be even stronger characters sent out to deal with you." Feng Zhu reminded. He then continued, "Brother Qin, you can use the mask and robe to conceal your identity if need be."

"There's no hurry, let's settle this issue of the Eastern Tomb first. As for incurring their hatred and wrath, there's no problem if we kill more of their people. In fact, I've even killed a saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect before. Since I've already made myself into a target, we might as well go for broke." Qin Wentian casually replied, causing Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu to both be speechless.

He killed a saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect before?

Also, Qin Wentian spoke in such a relaxed manner, completely causing everyone else to be speechless. He simply didn't have the Sacred Sun Sect in his eyes at all.

"Brother Qin is truly an extraordinary character. I'm really curious about what sort of enemies that are powerful enough to make Brother Qin want to conceal your identity." Feng Zhu asked.

"There are many immortal emperors who want to kill me. There's no choice, I'm still considered weak now and can only conceal my identity as I roam the immortal realms. You guys have to be more cautious as well. I'm afraid that they would investigate my deeds and learn about you two. Although the possibility isn’t high, it’s for the best that you two leave the Eastern Tomb Immortal City as soon as possible.” Qin Wentian spoke. The two of them nodded their heads, before this they could already sense that the characters who wished to kill Qin Wentian, would all definitely be extraordinary individuals but even so, they didn’t expect that there would be immortal emperors among those who wanted to kill him.

“Mhm, the Blackmetal Emperor Sect was forced to dissolve, I wonder if sect leader can handle the attacks if more emperors banded up together. This time around, he has offended the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall. There’s no way he can remain here in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City in the future.” Feng Qianxue spoke. “Let’s leave this place. I’ve entered the Eastern Tomb before, let me bring you all to the place of legacy where the real ‘tombs’ lies.”

“Right.” Qin Wentian nodded. The Eastern Tomb was left behind by the sages and would naturally be extraordinary. There’s actually a connection between the cultivation arts of the four remnant powers as well as his path of cultivation. If there’s a chance to, he wanted to use this opportunity to try and comprehend some insights.

Feng Qianxue entered the Eastern Tomb many years ago and had read the Holy Book before. She naturally was familiar with the way in here.

“Before this, the Eastern Tomb opened due to a series of fated events. This time, things are different, the Eastern Tomb was forcefully opened by the sect leader, and it’s very possible that there would no longer be any future inheritances given how fragile the tomb already is. The four remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple might no longer exist…” Feng Qianxue sighed.

Her body sped by, moving along a path. On their way there, they saw many other experts. These were all people from the immortal city who entered after the Blackmetal Sword Emperor made the announcement allowing everyone to enter. There naturally was no way for these people to miss out on such an opportunity. Hence, all of them came here in droves.

“RUMBLE~”

At this moment, the path shuddered as the interior of the Eastern Tomb shook violently. Black-colored cracks could be seen expanding from the void. A moment later, everyone on the path increased their speed. How could they not understand what was going on when they saw this?

“The Eastern Tomb is unstable, it might collapse soon. We have to make good use of our time.” Feng Qingxue spoke. Although she knew that forcefully breaking the eastern tomb open would lead to a loss of its structural stability, she didn’t expect that there would be signs of collapse so soon.

“Hold on to me.” Qin Wentian spoke, grabbing both Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu as he sped forth with a speed akin to lightning, with Feng Qianxue telling him where to go.

As time flowed by, the black cracks increased in numbers as the tremors grew more and more violent.

Finally, Qin Wentian's group saw the true 'Tombs' before their eyes, as well as several experts gathering before it. Over there, several tombs could be seen and behind each tomb, a mysterious stone tablet would stand erect there, containing profound mysterious within them. The experts were all trying to comprehend the secrets.

"Seems like the three remnant powers must have led them here." Feng Qianxue spoke. Experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Thunder God Hall were all present. Other than them, many of the experts from the immortal city were here too.

"You are actually still alive?" At this moment, a cold voice rang out. An expert from the Sacred Sun Sect glanced in Qin Wentian's direction, his eyes gleaming with sharpness. These three were still alive. Where were the three mid-stage immortal kings from the Sacred Sun Sect which they sent out?

"Where is Fa Nu?" An expert from the Vajra Sect also turned and stared in Qin Wentian's group direction.

"They were people who wanted to kill us. Tell me, where do you think they are?" Qin Wentian calmly replied, causing the eyes of these experts to flash with killing intent. Qin Wentian's aura gushed forth as he pulled out his demon sword, preparing to do battle.

"Stop!" The leader of the Sacred Sun Sect roared. He turned and coldly glanced at Qin Wentian before he looked at his comrades. "Do you all want to hasten the collapse of the Eastern Tomb? There's not much time left, let's come to an agreement that we will join forces and kill anyone who dares to start a battle in here."

As the sound of his voice faded, those people from the Sacred Sun Sect and the Vajra Sect retracted their auras. But even so, their eyes were incomparably cold as they stared at Qin Wentian's group. "We will let you live a few moments longer then."

Clearly, if it wasn't for the Eastern Tomb being unstable, they would definitely already act. When this matter is over, they will kill Qin Wentian and the two others for sure.

"The Holy Book is before our eyes, instead of comprehending insights, you guys are really good at wasting time." Qin Wentian mocked.

"The Heavenly Book is incomparably profound. These stone tablets are passages left behind from ancient times, infused with the holy will of the sages. Given how mysterious they are, how can ordinary people comprehend them? It's a waste of time for ordinary people to come here." Feng Qianxue added, causing the expressions of many people to turn heavy as they stared at her. Was she mocking them for not being able to comprehend the secrets here?

“No matter how much you guys comprehend, you all are fated to die in here. Hence, there’s no need to waste time trying to gain any insights.” One of the experts replied with unmasked killing intent. No matter what, Qin Wentian and his group had to die.

However, Qin Wentian acted like he didn’t hear the words. He walked towards the tombs and stared at one of the stone tablets.

“Legends have it that these stone tablets contained the holy will of the sages. The remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple would all have different levels of insights as they comprehend the Holy Book, some deep and some shallow but there has been no one who has ever understood the mysteries of the holy will before. Even for sect leader characters, they could only see through this a little.” Feng Qianxue transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. Although she mocked those people from the Sacred Sun Sect earlier, she understood that in reality, it was an extremely difficult thing to comprehend any insights.

Other than the suppression from other peak powers, the reason why the remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb had never rise up and become a peak power was that there was almost no one who could truly comprehend the secrets recorded here.

Qin Wentian nodded silently, understanding the difficulty. He glanced at a stone tablet before his eyes. On the stone tablet, there was a small pagoda the size of a thumb. But when Qin Wentian sent his strand of consciousness into it, he only felt a splitting headache. Groaning in misery, he took a few steps back as a grand scene unfolded in his mind.

The small pagoda was still the same size but it radiated a heaven-suppressing mysterious might. When Qin Wentian felt that blast of energy, he coughed out blood as his strand of consciousness was pull back, jolted by the force. He finally understood why these people didn’t have the time to find trouble with him. So it turned out that these people didn’t even have the qualifications to feel that shocking heaven-suppressive might.

“Brother Qin!” Feng Zhu froze when he saw this. Even for such an outstanding talent like Qin Wentian, was he unable to endure it?

“Brother Qin, you felt the holy will?” Feng Qianxue had a look of surprise on her face instead as she turned to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian glanced at her, “Within the small pagoda, a profound might capable of suppressing the heavens exists. I have no way to defend against it.”

“Hu…” Feng Qianxue drew in a deep breath. “Brother Qin, you can sense a hint of the holy will, putting you on the same level as the sect leaders. It’s extremely rare for someone being able to sense the holy will the first time they come here. You should take a look at the other stone tablets.”

"Alright." Qin Wentian nodded. He turned his gaze onto another stone tablet. This time, there was a small golden bell. When Qin Wentian glanced at it, he could feel a huge vibration within his mind, like the sound of thunder from the great dao. He roared and unleashed his strength to defend against that blast of power, causing several people to turn their gazes over as they coldly stared at Qin Wentian.

"He's able to sense it!" Feng Qianxue's beautiful eyes flashed with a bright light. "Take a look at another stone tablet."

Qin Wentian glanced at another tablet, there was only a single word engraved there. That word was an ancient character for the word 'Vajra' and Qin Wentian could see the path of the buddha from it. The impact shook his entire body, threatening to break it apart.

Qin Wentian didn't stop, he glanced at the next tablet where a thin branch-like object could be seen there. After sending in his consciousness, that thin branch was like a supremely sharp sword. Just casually slashing out would cause the world to be torn asunder. Qin Wentian also unleashed his own sword intent, but that was truly inconsequential and tiny in comparison. He could only resist for a short moment before being forced out once again. His entire body was covered in cold sweat. In his mind's eye, he was already slashed into two by that sword.

"What a powerful holy will." Qin Wentian's heart trembled. Feng Qianxue who was beside him, trembled more violently than him. Qin Wentian could actually so easily perceive the holy will from the stone tablets.

Perceiving was the first step, comprehension the second. If you cannot even perceive anything, why is there still a need to talk about comprehending?!

Chapter 1452: Comprehending Holy Will

In the air, the black cracks grew more and more in number. The trembling of the Eastern Tomb also became more intense, as though it was about to collapse at any moment.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and glanced up, feeling anxiousness in his heart. The holy will within the stone tablets contained a supreme and terrifying energy. He wanted to comprehend them properly but time doesn’t permit him to do so. If the Eastern Tomb collapsed, even wanting to see a single stone tablet in the future would be an impossible task, let alone comprehending the holy will from all these tablets.

His eyes turned to Feng Qianxue. Feng Qianxue looked back at him and spoke, “Quickly look at the Holy Book. Through the generations, many of my sect have entered this place, perceiving the holy will and studying the Holy Book before gaining some conclusions. The logic of the Great Dao is hidden within the book while the holy will were the remnant of will energy left behind by the sages. The Holy Book can facilitate your understanding of the stone tablets.”

“Brother Qin, quickly. There’s not much time left.” Feng Zhu glanced at the black cracks as he spoke. He hoped that Qin Wentian would be able to comprehend some insights here and grow stronger and stronger.

“Right.” Qin Wentian instantly nodded, turning his eyes to the Holy Book ahead. Stepping out, he moved to the place where several experts gathered, as he bathed in the radiance emitted by the Holy Book, listening to the music of the Great Dao as he attempted to comprehend the profound mysteries within.

When Qin Wentian’s immortal sense entered the book, a booming noise instantly erupted inside his mind. After that, boundless information flooded in as countless scenes appeared, showing the beginning of heaven and earth and the birth of the myriad of creatures. These scenes appeared one by one, all of them contained the unfathomable mysteries and logic of the Great Dao.

Qin Wentian immersed himself within, feeling the dao of the sages. The insights he gained here did have similarities to the Heavenly Talisman Treasured Tome, focused on runes that were the manifestation of law attribute energy from the Dao.

One produced two, two produced three, three produced the myriad of living things. When all living things converged back into one, the essence of the Great Dao can be found.

Qin Wentian meticulously contemplated the energy in the Holy Book and was bathed in the holy radiance. Boundless runic light radiated from him, illuminating the area with a dazzling light. His body was like a treasure itself.

“As expected.” Feng Qianxue stared at Qin Wentian. She was already very surprised before this. Why could Qin Wentian perceive the holy will so easily? In addition, he had requested before to observe as she was forging weapons. So it turned out that he himself had cultivated a similar-type law attribute energy that was of the same cultivation path as their Eastern Tomb Holy Temple.

Naturally, the law attributes all stemmed from the same origin source. The paths that the stellar martial cultivators took had no differences when it boils down to the ‘essence.’

Qin Wentian immersed himself within and comprehended for a very long time. After that, he turned his gaze back to the stone tablets, staring at the small pagoda once more. His body trembled from the impact as the runes within his body began circulating unceasingly, gradually merging together, forming into the shape of that pagoda.

However, after a few short moments, Qin Wentian’s consciousness was forcefully sent out once more. He groaned in agony, and took a few steps back. His bloodline energy was churning wildly as he endured the impact as he continued the process of sending his consciousness in again.

“What is he doing?” Many people turned towards Qin Wentian. A majority of the people here couldn’t even perceive anything, hence they wouldn’t feel the impact. Qin Wentian’s body was radiating a dazzling and resplendent runic light as rumbling sounds echoed from within him, causing a huge commotion that attracted plenty of attention.

“No idea, it’s like he can comprehend the stone tablets.” Someone spoke.

“Acting mysterious? He thinks he can comprehend the holy will given his qualifications?” A mocking voice rang out from an expert of the Sky Bell Cult. He knew very clearly how difficult it was to comprehend the holy will within the stone tablets. Although many experts have now entered the Eastern Tomb, only a rare few would be able to obtain an inheritance.

As for those who could comprehend the holy will left behind by the sages, they were even rarer compared to those who could receive inheritances. From the past generations to now, the number of people who could comprehend insights from the holy will can be counted on a single hand.

“You are unable to comprehend it but what qualifications do you have to say that others won’t be able to?” Feng Zhu coldly replied. Earlier he had attempted but he failed to perceive the holy will. However, Qin Wentian’s talent was truly outstanding. Feng Zhu was very impressed by this friend of his and now that he had seen that his friend could perceive the holy will, he naturally didn’t like it when the other experts wanted to insult Qin Wentian.

It’s fine that he couldn’t do so, but he felt that they should know how to admire those who could.

“You are someone from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect, right? You should understand what these stone tablets are. How can the holy will within be so easily comprehended by people?” That expert from the Sky Bell Cult sarcastically spoke. “I already told you to tell him not to continue wasting time. Why is he still pretending there? He will only draw the ridicule of the crowd.”

“The people from the Blackmetal Emperor Sect are actually so ignorant. How laughable.” An expert from the Divine Inscriptions Sect joined in. These people were unable to perceive the holy will and were feeling extremely unhappy in their hearts. When they saw so many people turning their attention to Qin Wentian, they were naturally very dissatisfied. After all, Qin Wentian was their enemy. This was why they threw in the insults too.

And since they couldn’t perceive the holy will, they would, of course, assume that Qin Wentian would be the same as them.

They didn’t believe that Qin Wentian’s talent would be higher than them.

“You guys…” Feng Zhu was so angered that he was speechless. He stared at these experts who each projected arrogance. In fact, these people were those who were unable to perceive the holy will but were intentionally using their arrogance to mask their inability and even use the chance to insult others.

“Big brother, why must you lower yourself to their level? They are mere ants crawling on the ground, how can they understand the majesty of the roc soaring through the sky?” Feng Qianxue calmly replied. As the sound of her voice faded, an expert stepped out, unleashing a powerful aura. Feng Qianxue’s expression turned cold as her aura gushed forth too. “If you guys want to hasten the collapse of the Eastern Tomb, let’s start a fight then. However, since you trash are unable to perceive anything from here, you most probably want the Eastern Tomb to collapse as fast as possible.”

“Feng Qianxue, we will allow you to be arrogant for a little while more.” Those experts laughed coldly, while staring at Feng Qianxue’s beautiful features. An evil light gleamed in their eyes, they would definitely make her regret this.

“Qianxue, the Eastern Tomb is going to collapse soon. Time is short, there’s no need to argue with them, you should quickly try to comprehend the Holy Book.” Feng Zhu stated. His talent was the weakest among them and he was willing to act as the protector for both Qin Wentian and Feng Qianxue, to prevent others from disturbing them.

Feng Qianxue nodded. She glanced back at Qin Wentian before turning her attention to the Holy Book as her immortal sense extended out.

“BOOM!” Chaos reigned supreme in this area as a streak of black lightning slammed into the ground, causing the trembling of the Eastern Tomb to intensify. It seemed on the verge of crumbling apart.

Many experts all focused, not wanting to waste any more time. The remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb were all staring at the Holy Book seriously, trying to pry through the veil of the mysteries. Even if they could only manage to gain the slightest insight, none of them were willing to waste this final chance.

At this moment, the light radiating from Qin Wentian grew even more terrifying. The commotion within his body was too great, causing thunderous rumbling sounds. The small pagoda in his body had already formed but it was still unable to produce that heaven-suppressing might.

For the holy will, it actually contained energy that sprang from high attainments in the dao of divine inscriptions. Divine inscriptions transformed into runes of law-attribute energy, constituting the great dao. The congregation of the energy would then transform into will and after entering the small pagoda, it would become the holy will, containing boundless might that could infuse everything.

After a long time, Qin Wentian gained even more comprehensions. He coughed out a few mouthfuls of blood as he retracted his consciousness. Staring at the speed of collapse of the Eastern Tomb, he now focused on the ancient 'Vajra' character. This holy will from the ancient word bore some similarity to the small pagoda, they were actually two similar paths that led to the same destination.

As his comprehension deepened, the light from him grew more brilliant. There seemed to be countless "Vajra" words circulating around him, tempering his body into a diamond-like substance. It seemed like he was on the verge of mastering the dharma idol of the Vajra Sect's arts. This caused the experts around here to all have strange looks in their eyes as they stared at Qin Wentian.

"BOOM!" A powerful palm attack slammed out aiming for Qin Wentian, but Feng Zhu was there to defend against it. However, the loud sound still jolted Qin Wentian awake from his comprehensions. He was forced a few steps back from the impact as he coughed out a mouthful of blood. When he inclined his head and stared at the person who launched the attack, an intense killing intent could be seen flickering in his eyes.

This person actually forcefully interrupted his comprehensions.

"You actually managed to perceive a small trace of the holy will. However, let me persuade you not to waste any more time. Even if you really can comprehend it in its entirety, you would still have to die today." That person coldly spoke, he was an expert from the Vajra Sect. When he felt that trace of Vajra Sect's energy from Qin Wentian earlier, he decided to rudely interrupt Qin Wentian to prevent him from gaining any deeper insights.

"What? You are not happy and want to fight now?" That expert coldly snorted. "I will naturally comply if you want to, but this is not the time to do so. When the time for battle comes, you will be nothing but a dead man."

Qin Wentian stared at this person as he coldly spoke, "Fa Nu has been killed by me. If you dare to continue antagonizing me, even if the Eastern Tomb's collapse will be hastened, I will definitely kill you. Since you refuse to consider the consequences of your actions, I similarly will not give a damn about it any more."

His threatening voice rang out thunderously, causing the expression of that expert from the Vajra Sect to turn ugly.

Qin Wentian ignored him and turned his attention to the branch, wanting to comprehend the holy will in it. The holy will inside was akin to sword intent, containing boundless might that could tear the world asunder.

Immersing his consciousness within, Qin Wentian once again focused himself, not wanting to waste any time.

Countless runes manifested within his body, congregating together to form a thin branch-like sword as sword intent started to gush forth from him.

As time flowed by, the sword intent he produced grew stronger and stronger, forming a river of sword qi that produced unceasing torrents. However, Qin wentian still wasn't satisfied. This wasn't a qualitative evolution, the sword intent he was producing was no different from the one he radiated before.

This time, Qin Wentian spent an even longer amount of time. The black cracks increased in number and the possibility of the Eastern Tomb collapsing grew even greater.

"Ai." An expert from the Sky Bell Cult decided to give up. He couldn't perceive anything and since the Eastern Tomb was collapsing, it meant that there was no more meaning for him to waste his time.

At this very moment, churning sounds echoed out. Numerous gazes turned to Qin Wentian's direction, only to feel a stifling sword might radiating from him. That expert from the Sky Bell Cult coldly mocked, "Still overestimating yourself? Even at this moment, why are you still wasting time persevering? It's simply useless."

"He seems to be under great pressure, why don't we directly kill him off now to save ourselves from trouble." An expert from the Divine Inscriptions Palace added.

"Swish~" At this instant, all the sword might suddenly disappeared, completely retracted back into Qin Wentian's body. A small sword was now circulating within his body, as thin as a willow branch.

"You finally gave up? How foolish. Attempting for so long before you gave up, what a waste of time."

"The holy will is too difficult to comprehend, how can someone like you be able to accomplish it?" The experts from the three remnant powers all spoke when they saw Qin Wentian finally giving up.

"How noisy." Qin Wentian's eyes opened, his gaze was like the sharpest sword in the world, directly piercing through the eyes of one of the experts who spoke earlier. That person screamed in misery, and after that, a burst of sword intent flashed by, and that expert collapsed onto the ground a moment later.

Chapter 1453: Might of the Holy Will

"This…" Those experts who spoke earlier were all stunned as they stared at the immortal king lying on the ground. There was a wound in the center of his forehead, pierced through by a sharp sword as he died instantly by that single strike.

However, how can this be possible? How did Qin Wentian do this? Earlier in that instant, they all only felt a terrifying sword intent flashing by. That was all to it.

Inclining their heads, all of them stared at Qin Wentian. They could sense the gathering sword might around him, forming into rivers of sword qi. The sword qi river consisted of all types of attribute-energy and what was more terrifying was that there was a tiny sword weaving through the river, incomparably soft and flexible, like a willow branch.

This sword was simply too small, inconspicuous amidst the churning sword qi river. However, all the energy of the sword intent and sword might in the area was concentrated in this sword, terrifying to the extreme.

"Chi, chi…" The tiny sword emitted a shrill noise, flowing smoothly around Qin Wentian. His gaze was extremely fearsome, akin to a sharp sword. As though able to pierce through everything.

"Sage's sword intent?"

At the side, Feng Qianxue's eyes were wide open, flickering with a bright light.

The holy will where the majority of the experts from the remnant powers are unable to comprehend was actually so easily comprehended by Qin Wentian. Even sect leaders of the four remnant powers would find it difficult to do so, yet Qin Wentian managed to comprehend a trace of the holy will within such a short period of time.

Her eyes gleamed, staring at the tiny sword circulating around Qin Wentian. This sword was as thin as a willow branch but she understood how tough it is to condense this sword. One had to have extremely high attainments in divine inscriptions and runes, and had to fuse boundless sword intent together with one's attainments in order to condense such a sword. This was precisely none other than the holy will belonging to the Blackmetal Emperor Sect.

Even though Qin Wentian had only comprehended a trace of it, the power was still extremely shocking, capable of explosively boosting his attack.

"You guys are unable to perceive anything yet you all are still acting so arrogantly, insulting and disturbing me. Simply shameless." Qin Wentian stared at the other immortal kings. Just casually standing there, his entire being felt like an incomparably sharp sword. He glanced at that expert from the Divine Inscriptions Palace as he spoke, “Aren’t you the one who wanted to kill me when I was cultivating to avoid trouble?”

That immortal king froze. He was a mid-stage immortal king but he had no confidence that he could defend against Qin Wentian’s attack. Especially so after he witnessed how that other expert died earlier. Qin Wentian made him feel a huge sense of threat.

Before this, because he saw that Qin Wentian had comprehended a trace of the holy will, he felt jealous and wanted to make use of the opportunity to finish Qin Wentian off. But now, Qin Wentian wanted to find him for revenge.

“What? You want to battle?” That immortal king from the Divine Inscriptions Palace was still as arrogant as ever. He was, after all, an immortal king character. Although he felt fear, he could still manage to pretend and act calm.

“We have so many experts, it would be a breeze for us to kill you. If it wasn’t for us worrying that the Eastern Tomb would collapse, you would already be a dead man. If you want to start a fight right now, we will act together and snuff out your life in an instant.” The immortal king coldly laughed, showing his stance and telling Qin Wentian that he had many allies.

“Why would fighting against you cause any shockwaves that would collapse the Eastern Tomb? You are overestimating yourself too much. To me, killing you is an effortless thing. But naturally, if your allies don’t care about causing the Eastern Tomb to collapse faster and want to join forces and deal with me, the ball would no longer be in my court.” Qin Wentian stepped out. In an instant, the sword qi river surged forth towards that immortal king from the Divine Inscriptions Palace. The next moment, the sword qi enveloped him completely. The sword qi was extremely precise, controlled perfectly to prevent any aftershocks,

That immortal king howled in rage, unleashing his aura and manifesting a giant cauldron around him to protect himself. Terrifying explosions rang out as the sword river slammed into the cauldron unceasingly.

“DIE!” Qin Wentian waved his hand. That tiny sword weaving about in the sword river directly slashed out. In just an instant, that cauldron shattered, cleaved into two. In the next moment, the body of that immortal king was directly slashed into two, dying right then and there.

The sword intent still persisted, as the sword qi river flowed around Qin Wentian. The short battle ended abruptly and not a hint of the aftershocks had escaped. The other experts all had fear on their faces when they saw this. As expected of the holy will, it was so terrifying and tyrannical.

However, Qin Wentian didn’t stop. He turned his gaze towards another expert from the Vajra Sect. Earlier, this expert had threatened him, telling him not to waste time and even if he did comprehend a trace of the holy will, he would still have to die today.

“Earlier, you intentionally disrupted my cultivation forcefully. You even said that when the time to battle comes, I will be a dead man?” Qin Wentian glanced at that immortal king from the Vajra Sect, his words causing that immortal king to frown as worry surfaced in his heart.

“Regardless what my ending would be, be it comprehending a trace of holy will or dying here today, you won’t be able to see it.” As Qin Wentian’s voice rang out, his figure moved with the speed of lightning, akin to a great roc.

“DIE!” The trace of that sword-type holy will directly slashed out. The immortal king from the Vajra Sect howled, but he had no time left. The sword intent cleaved him into two.

Qin Wentian’s palm snaked out, he wasn’t polite at all as he retrieved the interspatial ring of his opponent.

“IMPUDENT!” Several experts from the Vajra Sect roared in anger when they saw this scene. Killing one of their sect members and looting his interspatial ring before their faces? This behavior was simply too insolent.

“Impudent? So what?” Qin Wentian glanced at them as the tiny sword hummed loudly, revolving around him. “I’ve already comprehended a trace of holy will. I said it before, I wouldn’t cause any damage that would affect the Eastern Tomb even if I acted. But if you guys want to disregard the collapse, I couldn’t care less.”

“Do you know that by doing this, you will definitely form a death grudge with our Vajra Sect?” An immortal king coldly spoke, his eyes burning with anger as his voice boomed like thunder.

“What a joke, how many times did people from the Vajra Sect attempt to kill me? Now, you are telling me about a death grudge? When you guys tried to kill me, why have you not thought about this?” Qin Wentian sneered. He then arrogantly spoke, “Let me warn you guys, if I hear anyone commenting or suggesting ways to act against me when we are in here, don’t blame me for starting a massacre. I don’t give a damn if the aftershocks bring this entire place down on our heads.”

After speaking, Qin Wentian returned to his original location, no longer looking at them. These experts all had ashen expressions, they didn’t expect that Qin Wentian would actually be so brazen, completely disregarding them.

Before the Holy Book and stone tablets, several peak-stage immortal kings frowned when they heard Qin Wentian’s words. However, they didn’t do anything and continued their own comprehensions. Even if they might only be able to comprehend a trace, they didn’t want to miss out on this opportunity. They would temporarily ignore Qin Wentian for now. As long as Qin Wentian didn’t leave their sights, he would be a dead man sooner or later.

The rumbling of the Eastern Tomb grew more and more intense as more black cracks appeared. The stone tablets started shuddering, and everyone knew that the time they had left was extremely short now. Hence, all the experts wanted to make good use of their remaining time.

“BOOM!” A crack directly appeared on a tomb, and the stone tablet behind it almost shattered.

Qin Wentian was contemplating the Holy Book while occasionally glancing at the stone tablets. That trace of holy sword will continued to circulate around him, presenting a strong threat to everyone. The immortal kings here were all shocked by his decisiveness and ruthlessness when he killed those people earlier. None of them dared to antagonize Qin Wentian any further.

Another explosion rang out. A bolt of black-lightning actually shot out from a black crack in the air, blasting into a stone tablet, causing it to shatter into smithereens. Since the stone tablet was already shattered, the holy will in it dissipated. Those who were currently contemplating that stone tablet could only sigh helplessly in response.

Qin Wentian silently contemplated. There were a total of seven astral souls within his Yuanfu, circulating unceasingly around his human-shaped perfect saint-grade immortal foundation. Right now, his immortal-foundation was more sparkling than before. If he unleashed it, it would definitely shock everyone.

At this moment, the law energy within started to congregate together, transforming into sword intent that became the glue to weave the countless divine inscriptions together. A moment later, a fearsome sword intent gushed forth, gathering into a single point as another tiny sword formed, flowing around Qin Wentian’s body.

The two tiny swords revolved protectively around Qin Wentian, causing everyone who saw this to feel their hearts shaking. Has the second strand of holy will been comprehended? Qin Wentian was truly too terrifying.

Feng Zhu drew in a deep breath, incomparably shocked.

The immortal kings from the other remnant powers were shocked as well. All of them had incredibly unsightly expressions.

It was very hard to comprehend the holy will. By being able to comprehend a trace of it, one would already be extraordinary. This Qin Wentian actually managed to deepen his comprehension and form two tiny swords from his understanding of the holy will. Right now, his attack grew even stronger as his strength increased explosively.

With an intention, the two swords transformed into boundless light and tempered his body, causing boundless sword qi to circulate around him. He gave up on this stone tablet as he rushed towards the stone tablet with the tiny pagoda.

The trembling of the Eastern Tomb intensified once more. One of the stone tablets were already destroyed. He had already comprehended the root of the sword-type holy will and he only needed time to further his comprehension in it. However, he still had to depend on the other stone tablets to gain insights about the other holy wills from the sages. If not, things would be tougher by a million times if he depended solely on himself.

This tiny pagoda possessed a suppressive might which has similarities to one of his law-attributes. He hoped that he would also be able to gain some insights about the holy will in this stone tablet.

Chapter 1454: Collapse of the Eastern Tomb

Qin Wentian had no distractions in his heart, he did his best and focused, making the best use of his time.

But as the chaotic rumbling intensified, the patience of all the experts ran out. One of those powerful immortal kings who didn't manage to perceive anything suddenly spoke, "Since this place is crumbling, why don't we take away the Holy Book and shift the stone tablets away? I will move this stone tablet away first."

As the sound of his voice faded, he moved towards a stone tablet that he was looking at. But at this moment, that stone tablet suddenly released a terrifying holy will as a bright light flashed. That person screamed but his head was directly pierced through by a beam, as he died instantly.

The people from the remnant powers coldly laughed. If things were so simple, everything inside here would have already been moved away. What a foolish person, not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth.

As time flowed by, more and more people were unable to remain calm. Under the chaotic rumblings, the sound of explosions grew more and more intense as the Eastern Tomb shook violently. The people remaining here were all unable to calm their hearts down to comprehend.

Qin Wentian continued to focus, the light around him grew more radiant and the shape of a small pagoda could be seen shimmering in and out of existence. The Great Dao had no form, laws could be of any shape. This was Qin Wentian's comprehension. His body circulated suppressive might and a very tiny pagoda finally appeared behind him. Although it was small, it contained a fearsome suppressive holy will that made it so that no one was able to get near him.

Feng Qingxue drew in a deep breath when she saw the change in Qin Wentian's aura. At this moment, a thunderous boom rang out as the holy will in the tiny pagoda released an extremely suppressive pressure, forming a resonance with the holy will of that stone tablet.

"Earlier, the four emperors from the Eastern Tomb's Remnants all borrowed the power of the Eastern Tomb to summon their divine weapons. Are they doing what I just did?" Qin Wentian glanced at Feng Qianxue as he asked.

Feng Qianxue's face was filled with shock. She stared at Qin Wentian, she didn't expect that this thing, which only sect leaders were able to do, would also be accomplished by him.

But now, she was growing numb, getting used to the fact that Qin Wentian himself was just like a miracle that would constantly topple her understanding. Regardless of combat prowess or talent, he is extraordinarily high, far above the rest.

“It’s said that weapons like this are known as sage weapons, but they have to depend on a huge amount of holy will. Without sufficient holy will as support, they are unable to unleash their power. If the Eastern Tomb really collapses, the power of the sage weapons would definitely be diminished by a great deal.” Feng Qianxue sighed. If the Eastern Tomb continued existing, given Qin Wentian’s talent, he might have the potential to open up another branch of the Eastern Tomb Holy Temple in the immortal realms in the future.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. The rumbling sounds in the surroundings continued. He glanced at the stone tablets as he sighed. What a pity, there were truly many wondrous things in the vast immortal realms. After all, through the passage of countless years, the immortal realms had given birth to too many powerful experts. It would naturally contain many profound mysteries and secrets. The Eastern Tomb was precisely such a place.

There were also other ancient ruins but usually, only those fated ones would be able to find these ruins. A very good example was this, if the Blackmetal Sword Emperor didn’t choose to break out from the Eastern Tomb forcefully, Qin Wentian would have never even entered this place.

“The Eastern Tomb will collapse soon. Brother Qin, many people here want to kill you, including some of those peak-stage immortal kings. They will definitely not spare us, we should leave now.” Feng Qianxue transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. The Blackmetal Sword Emperor already announced the disbanding of the sect. Given that their enemies were people from the Sacred Sun Sect, Thunder God Hall, as well as the other three remnant powers, it should be impossible for them to fight head-on.

“You are right, but now, the majority of their attention is fixed on me. You guys should silently leave this place, I will serve as a bait to lure them away.” Qin Wentian replied, causing Feng Qianxue’s beautiful eyes to flash with a strange light. She then continued, “No, how can you face them alone? Wouldn’t you d…?”

“By remaining behind, you guys won’t be of any help to me. It’s better for you two to leave so I can fight without worries. Although I might not be able to defeat them all alone, I will still be able to flee. Qianxue, don’t hesitate anymore, leave this place with haste.” Qin Wentian seriously spoke.

Feng Qianxue was speechless. Truly, if a fight really broke out, she and her brother Feng Zhu wouldn’t to be able to provide any help and might even become a burden, affecting Qin Wentian.

Before this, it was Qin Wentian who carried them through the battles, winning the one versus three and finishing Fa Nu off.

“Since this is the case, we will bid our farewell then. Brother Qin, please take care.” Feng Qianxue was also a decisive individual. She knew that what Qin Wentian said was the truth. She immediately prepared to leave.

Feng Zhu also transmitted his voice over, “Brother Qin, I hope I would still be able to witness your magnificence in the future.”

“Let’s meet again if fate decrees.” The three of them nodded to each other as Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu silently left while the crowd was paying attention to the crumbling place.

“Huh?” However, there were still people who noticed this. An expert from the Sky Bell Cult wanted to say something but Qin Wentian simply turned and glanced at him, sending shivers down his spine as he didn’t dare to speak out. Qin Wentian’s slaughtering actions earlier were still fresh in his mind, he had no wish to antagonize Qin Wentian as that might cause Qin Wentian to make a move against him.

So what if Feng Qianxue and Feng Zhu escaped? They are of no importance. The main point was that Qin Wentian must die. It was fine as long as he remains here.

After the siblings left, Qin Wentian continued to cultivate and comprehend the Holy Book as well as the holy will from the Vajra stone tablet.

He chose this stone tablet because the holy will inside had the capability to temper one’s body. The toughness of one’s physique and physical body was naturally extremely important with regards to cultivation. The stronger the body was, the more energy it would be able to contain. Hence, Qin Wentian placed a very high importance in tempering the toughness one’s body.

The black cracks grew more and more, but Qin Wentian had no distractions in his heart as he continued to focus.

As he continued to comprehend, the golden light of the buddha began to cascade down on him as the boundless runes gathered and formed a vajra dharma idol.

As his comprehension deepened, numerous ancient buddhic characters floated in the air, gleaming with a golden light. Each of the characters contained a fearsome buddhic energy, and all of them began to blast into him, creating a thunderous sound. This was such a terrifying attack, if one’s physique wasn’t already at a certain level, their body would definitely crumble apart. However, Qin Wentian was using the pressure of this force to further temper his body.

“BOOM!” At this moment, a huge hole appeared in the air. Within the hole, a terrifying destructive might could be felt. It actually rained down right on the Holy Book and an instant later, the radiance from the Holy Book began to dim into nothingness.

“The Holy Book has disappeared.” Everyone only felt a sense of loss when they saw that. They would no longer be able to comprehend the holy will without the Holy Book as reference. This meant that the inheritances from the Eastern Tomb had disappeared completely from now onwards.

Under the fearsome destructive might, the destruction of the Eastern Tomb was imminent.

“The Holy Book is gone, the inheritances have ended forever more. Blackmetal Sword Emperor, you are a sinner!” An expert sighed with regret.

“Look over there!” At this moment, someone exclaimed in shock. Everyone turned their gazes towards Qin Wentian, only to see that he was still cultivating. He actually was still able to comprehend the holy will and was immersed in golden light, resembling a buddha.

“Does it seem like he is still comprehending the holy will?” An expert from one of the remnant powers felt shock in his heart.

“Who says that without the Holy Book, one wouldn’t be able to comprehend the holy will in the stone tablets?” An immortal king spoke, mocking that expert from the remnant powers who spoke earlier.

“Seems like one still needs talent.” Another person spoke in a low voice.

“BOOM!” That expert from the remnant powers stepped out. A sky bell descended from the air, capable of shattering the souls of everyone. With a wave of his hand, that bell shot towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian sensed the incoming danger. His eyes abruptly opened but he made no other movements. The sky bell slammed into his dharmic idol, and erupted forth with a blinding radiance. After that, a golden ripple was manifested from the impact, diffusing the shockwaves. Qin Wentian was not injured at all.

That expert from the Sky Bell Cult frowned. He grabbed out with his hand as another gigantic ancient bell manifested. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, “I want to see if the defense of your dharmic idol is true or illusory.”

As the sound of his voice faded, he continued to attack. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with a terrifying killing intent. With a wave of his hand, sword qi gushed forth as a tiny sword slashed out, capable of cleaving the world into two. With a piercing sound, even before the bell slammed into him, that immortal king who attacked had already died due to a hole in his head.

Qin Wentian was expressionless, coldly staring at everyone. He glanced at the crumbling tombs, he knew that this place would soon collapse. With a flash of his silhouette, he soared up into the air and flew away into the distance, showing no hints of reluctance to leave at all.

Qin Wentian knew that there were many here who wanted to kill him. When it’s time to leave, he didn’t hesitate, directly departing the area.

And as expected, the moment Qin Wentian rose up into the air, numerous gazes turned to him. An expert from the Sacred Sun Sect shouted, “You think you can flee after killing someone from my Sacred Sun Sect?”

After speaking, more experts soared up into the air, chasing after Qin Wentian.

“Mhm.” Experts from the Vajra Sect coldly laughed as they joined the chase as well. Reverend Fa Nu, a saint child of their sect, was killed by Qin Wentian. How could they spare him?

Numerous figures soared up and chased after Qin Wentian, causing the remaining crowd to be stunned in shock. Who was that person exactly? Why were so many powerful characters chasing after him to hunt him down?

However, that attack he used to kill the Sky Bell Cult’s immortal king earlier was truly terrifying to the extreme. The strength of that person must definitely be extraordinary.

Chapter 1455: Chaotic Stone Forest

In the air, a roc radiating boundless runic light could be seen. Each burst of runic light was akin to the phantom of a great roc being manifested, causing Qin Wentian's speed to increase further.

What was extremely shocking was that the pair of illusory wings on Qin Wentian's back, seemed incredibly real. Numerous experts formed a line of over tens of immortal kings from different powers, all chasing after Qin Wentian. Their cultivation bases were extremely powerful and they were even standing on their divine weapons as they soared through the air. All of them were frowning. Qin Wentian's speed was simply too quick, he must have cultivated a roc-type movement technique before, allowing him to shuttle through space effortlessly, even surpassing their movement speeds when they rode on divine weapons.

"He is using a supreme movement technique to maintain his speed. However, the consumption rate of energy is definitely extremely high for such a high-graded technique. We should continue to pursue him until he runs out of energy. At that time, he will die without a doubt." An expert from the Sacred Sun Sect coldly spoke. A huge ball of sunflames appeared behind him as he rode his divine weapon, emitting sounds of sonic booms as he soared through the air.

There would occasionally be other experts in the air. When they saw so many people shooting through the skies, all of them felt fear in their heart and instantly opened up a path. Even for immortal kings, they didn't dare to obstruct these powerful experts. All of them stood to the side as great waves rose up in their hearts. These people are all so powerful, there are several among them who are at the peak-stage of the immortal-king realm while the others were at the mid-stage at the very least. All of them seemed to be pursuing a single target.

This hunt persisted for a long time, traversing through vast amounts of distance. Qin Wentian's speed was too fast, although his enemies could not close in on the distance, those peak-stage immortal kings who were riding on speed-type divine weapons were still able to maintain the distance, there was no way for him to shake them off. All of their immortal senses were lock onto Qin Wentian, not giving him any chance to escape.

In addition, for those immortal kings who could not maintain such speeds, they would hop onto the speed-type divine weapons of those who were faster, as they continued shooting through the air. It seemed like they wouldn't rest until Qin Wentian dies.

Up ahead in the distance, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with coldness as he continued maintaining his speed. He didn't think that these fellows would be so stubborn, chasing him all the way and showing no signs of giving up.

The map of the central regions flashed in his mind, after ascertaining his location, he abruptly changed direction and shot off towards a certain area. The experts behind him all changed direction as they followed after.

"Can we attack through space to block him?" An expert asked. After chasing for such a long time, the distance between them didn't decrease at all. This made some of them extremely impatient.

“His defense is extremely strong. Given how far the distance between us is, attacks launched using law-attribute energy would be extremely limited, completely useless before his defense. We won’t be able to delay him.” A peak-stage immortal king spoke in a low voice. Earlier, he had already tried that, but there was no effect.

“The fleeing abilities of this fellow are really excellent. No wonder he dares to be so brazen.”

“No matter how brazen he is, he has to die today.” A peak-stage immortal king’s eyes flashed with killing intent.

The group of them continued shooting through space, passing through several immortal cities, but Qin Wentian was still far out of their reach. This caused all of their expressions to turn extremely unsightly.

“Which city is up ahead?” An immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect asked.

“It’s a mountain range, I think we will reach the Chaotic Stone Forest soon.”

“Chaotic Stone Forest?”

“It’s a territory governed by an immortal emperor whose title is the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor. The stones in the forest are actually ever-changing formations, akin to a gigantic maze.”

Some of the experts furrowed their brows. The territory of an immortal emperor?

At this moment, the mountain range had already appeared in their vision due to their scan using immortal sense. Gigantic rocks were everywhere, the atmosphere was clouded by mist and immortal senses seemed to be restricted in there. As for Qin Wentian, he actually shot straight towards the stone forest.

“That fellow is planning to enter the Chaotic Stone Forest!”

“Maybe he is just careless and has no idea about this place? Once entered, it’s very difficult for people to leave there”

They continued conversing, Qin Wentian actually entered the stone forest. In an instant, his silhouette disappeared from their immortal sense.

The experts hunting Qin Wentian all stopped at the boundary of the chaotic stone forest. Staring at the gigantic stones and rocks before them, they all had a look of helplessness on their faces.

“He barged into this place mistakenly. What should we do?” Someone asked.

"Is this stone forest very terrifying?"

"If we enter, we would most probably be trapped there. There are some rumors saying that if you wish to exit after you enter, you have to beg the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor to release you. In exchange, you have to agree to a single condition from him or you would be trapped there forever."

"Saint Child of the Sacred Sun Sect pays my respects to the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor." A peak-stage immortal king from the Sacred Sun Sect called out as he bowed in the direction of the stone forest. He wanted to use his identity as leverage to meet with the immortal emperor.

"The temper of the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor is extremely bizarre, he most probably wouldn't give face even if we are from peak powers." Someone transmitted his voice over. That Saint Child had an ugly expression as coldness flashed in his eyes. He had already said his status out loud, would the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor really dare to do anything to them if they entered?

"Let's go in and hunt that person down." As he spoke, he stepped out, entering the stone forest. The experts behind him all frowned. After that, an immortal king from the Thunder God Hall spoke out, "We are from the Thunder God Hall and pay our respects to senior immortal emperor. Please forgive us for our transgressions."

After that, the experts from the two peak powers rushed in. Even an immortal emperor would hesitate to do anything to them after they reported their identities, right?

After Qin Wentian entered the stone forest, he rushed straight into the depths. Around him, numerous towering stone pillars could be seen, each of them shining with a dazzling light. These stone pillars were of different heights, each engraved with countless runes. They were able to borrow the force of the heavens and even immortal emperors might be trapped in the maze.

His immortal sense was restricted by the stones and rocks all around as well.

"This formation is really something." Qin Wentian mused silently to himself. Stepping out, he dashed straight past the stone forest and after sometime, he came to a halt and decided to rest on a huge rock in front of him. He sat down cross-legged and quietly cultivated. It felt like he wasn't here to take refuge but was here for cultivation instead.

The people hunting him also entered the stone forest. After that, they discovered that they had already lost their way. Their immortal senses were restricted and this forest was simply too vast, so vast that they had no way to exit it, let alone find Qin Wentian.

As Qin Wentian continued to cultivate, a burst of runic light erupted from him as sword qi flowed endlessly, akin to the waters of a raging river. His seven astral souls shone brightly within his Yuanfu, converging into one temporarily as the form of a tiny sword materialized. Boundless sword might gushed forth as the form of the sword turned solid, swimming around the sword qi river around him.

Right now, the third-degree of comprehension with regards to the sword-type holy will has appeared.

However, Qin Wentian didn't rest. He continued to cultivate and soon after that, the fourth-degree, fifth-degree…all the way until nine tiny swords formed of pure holy sword intent were formed. They hummed noisily, revolving around him. Right now, the energy within his body was completely exhausted. His astral souls lost their luster and his Yuanfu was dried up. But even so, there was a look of intense excitement in his eyes.

He finally stood up and began to walk around this chaotic stone forest while extending his immortal sense outwards. Despite the fact that immortal sense was restricted, he still chose to extend it.

At this moment, Qin Wentian finally encountered someone. That person erupted forth with killing intent, manifesting an ancient bell that shot towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness, he then slammed out his palm and unleash the nine tiny swords. In that instant, beams of boundless radiance shot forth, completely shattering the bell and piercing through the body of his opponent. That immortal king died with his eyes wide open, staring at Qin Wentian in disbelief.

Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered with his opponent's death. He directly took away his interspatial ring and continued on his way through the chaotic stone forest. Finally, he came to a certain location before he stopped. Sensing the fluctuations in the area, he sat down cross-legged and spoke to the empty space, "Senior, junior will be borrowing the pre-created formation here for my own usage."

After that, countless runes manifested from his body, entering the ground below him. The law-attribute energies flooded forth, actually connecting the numerous stones that were placed randomly in the area. After that, from above the sky, the astral light from constellations cascaded down, raining on Qin Wentian.

A majestic sword might as well as the radiance from the countless runes, all revolved around Qin Wentian. The diagram of a supreme sword appeared in the air. The domineering sword might that was produced, instantly towered up into the sky.

As the same time, that boundless sword qi river circulated around him, with the tiny swords swimming within it, akin to fishes in the ocean.

The light here was simply too brilliant, it caused all the experts within the stone forest to glance over. After that, their eyes flashed with a cold light and step out, moving towards the source of the light.

The one who discovered Qin Wentian first was actually a peak-stage immortal king, someone from the Sacred Sun Sect. His body glowed with terrifying sun rays as he stared at Qin Wentian who was sitting down cross-legged on the ground. He coldly spoke, "Not fleeing anymore?"

"Why must I flee?" Qin Wentian stared at him and replied.

“Your combat prowess is extraordinary, but if you believe that you can win against peak-stage immortal kings, you would really be sorely mistaken. The disparity in cultivation level isn’t so easily mitigated.” The voice of this peak-stage immortal king was incomparably arrogant. Balls of sunflames appeared above him, ready to blast forth at any moment. Qin Wentian coldly laughed, the towering sword river churned and in just an instant, that sword qi river engulfed everything in the area. The tiny swords that were swimming in the river instantly shot towards his opponent.

“BOOM!” The radiance of the sun rays transformed into an armor of sacred light, blocking the attacks. That immortal king stepped out, intent on incinerating everything. He had a cold smile on his face as he said, “Let me show you what is the price you have to pay for killing someone from my Sacred Sun Sect.”

“Your words are so arrogant even though you are already going to die.” Qin Wentian stabbed out with his finger. The tiny swords directly bore a hole through the sunlight armor, causing the expression of the immortal king to drastically changed. An instant later, the sword qi river rampaged forth, drowning him within the vastness of it.

That immortal king wanted to defend but there was nothing he could do. After being engulfed by the sword qi river, he died directly just a moment later.

Chapter 1456: Undying Body

Qin Wentian infused his sword intent into the stone formation, transforming into a sword formation to kill a peak-stage immortal king. His expression had no change and was still as calm as ever. Those thin swords swam around in the sword qi river and returned to Qin Wentian side. The stones and rocks around him all glowed with runic light as law energy was fed into Qin Wentian's sword formation unceasingly.

Not long after, another expert arrived. His eyes instantly erupted with killing intent when he saw Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian wasn't polite at all, stabbing out with his finger, the tiny swords that were swimming like fish, directly shot towards his opponent, exploding forth with a startling sword intent, simply unblockable. The mid-stage immortal king couldn't even withstand a single strike and died instantly.

As more and more experts arrived, the people Qin Wentian killed gradually got more and more. The ground was soon littered with corpses.

Mo Lanshan was one of the experts hunting Qin Wentian. When he arrived here, his expression was incomparably ugly. He saw that several disciples of the Sacred Sun Sect had all died here, being killed by this man.

"You are actually proficient in formations too." Mo Lanshan's eyes flashed with a strong killing intent. His eyes were like the sun, radiating flames. His law energy enveloped the area around him, wanting to turn everything into ashes.

Qin Wentian was proficient in formations. He borrowed the energy within the chaotic stone forest to kill his fellow disciples in the Sacred Sun Sect and the experts from the remnant powers of the Eastern Tomb.

Behind Mo Lanshan, another expert came by. This immortal king who just arrived was someone from the Vajra Sect. He was similarly shocked when he saw this scene and his expression turned ashen.

"Given your talent, there's no way you are a nameless individual. Who are you exactly?" Mo Lanshan asked. "Even if you don't say anything, it wouldn't be a difficult thing if my Sacred Sun Sect wants to investigate. Even if you die here, I will know who you are eventually."

"Eastern Regions, Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian."

Qin Wentian spoke. "In the Desolate Mountain Range, atop the Demongod Mountain, the people from your Sacred Sun Sect had already antagonized me. I killed them all, including a saint child from your sect. To think that right now, there are even more members of the Sacred Sun Sect dying to my hands in this stone forest. Tell me, do you think that this is laughable?"

“So it turns out that you are him. The person who’s highly regarded by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, and the person who was the trigger for the adjudication battle.” Mo Lanshan was familiar with his name. Although he was in the very far away central regions, he had to still know the great events that were happening around the immortal realms due to his status as a saint child. In addition, he had to know all the famous characters and names of the major powers too. Qin Wentian was someone that was extremely infamous recently in the eastern regions, he would naturally have heard of this name before.

“I’m Mo Lanshan, a saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect.” Mo Lanshan slowly spoke. “Although you have the backing of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, considering how many people from my sect you killed, I would still have to kill you.”

“Yet another saint child? Why is each and every one of you so filled with confidence only to die in the end?” Qin Wentian sarcastically replied.

“You will soon see how wrong you are.” Mo Lanshan didn’t say anything more. His eyes erupted with fiery might and in an instant, a solar storm manifested. Many sun vortexes appeared in the air, wanting to incinerate everything. All of them then blasted towards the direction of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at the incoming attacks while feeling somewhat taken aback in his heart. As expected of a peak-stage immortal king saint child character. This expert truly did have some capabilities, possessing incredibly strong innate techniques.

“Go!” Qin Wentian waved his hand. The sword qi river surged forth, engulfing towards that solar storm. The flames were smothered, as the thin swords erupted with overwhelming might, ripping through everything as they flew towards Mo Lanshan.

“You’ve comprehended the holy will?” Mo Lanshan coldly laughed. His eyes gleamed with a terrifying light. He folded ancient hand seals as a dazzling sacred sun sword appeared in his hand. The sun sword instantly manifested a screen of sunlight that enveloped him protectively. The tiny swords were actually unable to break through it.

“Explode!”

Mo Lanshan coldly shouted. The solar storm that was being engulfed by the sword qi actually directly exploded. The destructive energy permeated the atmosphere as the battlefield turned into a scene from an apocalypse. Qin Wentian’s body was actually right in the center of this explosion.

Qin Wentian’s body shimmered with a flawless immortal light. His palm pressed forward in the air as the nine strands of sword holy will intensified, forming a screen of swords that revolved around him, tearing apart everything that got close to him.

“Break!” Mo Lanshan roared again, the sunlight from him expanded in scope, burning through everything. He rushed forward, entering Qin Wentian’s sword formation. A fearsome whistling sound echoed through the air as fissures appeared on the ground. He was incomparably domineering, directly walking towards Qin Wentian. As a peak-stage immortal king saint child character of the Sacred Sun Sect, his combat prowess would naturally be tyrannical. Even though Qin Wentian borrowed energy from the formations here in the chaotic stone forest, he was still confident that he could kill Qin Wentian.

Staring at his opponent approaching him, Qin Wentian’s expression was extremely cold. When the sacred sun sword slashed over, he took out a tiny pagoda. The holy will of the pagoda instantly blasted out as a heaven-suppressing might bore down on everything in the area.

Qin Wentian stood up, walking forward with no fear at all. The boundless sword river flowed endlessly around him, the sword intent congregated into the form of a sword as it slashed towards Mo Lanfeng.

Mo Lanfeng’s eyes gleamed with a terrifying light. Numerous sun vortexes blasted out, protecting him. Although he was suppressed by the tiny pagoda’s effect, he continued to move forward. The two of them moved towards each other, wanting to kill the other.

“I want to see what your source of confidence is exactly, daring to fight with me like this.” Mo Lanshan roared. For immortal kings, the closer you got to them, the stronger the effect of their law domain would be. Their bodies were bodies of laws, the root of their law energy. The intensity of the energy output would naturally be the greatest in their immediate surroundings.

“My confidence stems from my ability to kill you.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. There was no fear on his face, only an unbreakable resolution. It was like he would be victorious for sure.

“You overestimate your sword formation.” Mo Lanshan spoke as he continued advancing. This entire space was too terrifying, as though kissed by the sun. Qin Wentian’s body was scorching red, looking like it was on the verge of cracking from the heat.

Qin Wentian didn’t say anything as he moved towards his opponent as well. The suppressive might from the tiny pagoda gushed forth, affecting the movement of his opponent.

An expert from the Vajra Sect also arrived at the area. When he stared at them, he felt his heart trembling when he saw their combat. If he was in the place of Mo Lanshan, he would have already died to Qin Wentian. He didn’t even have the qualifications to participate in a battle of this level.

When they chased after Qin Wentian, none of them expected Qin Wentian to be so powerful. If Mo Lanshan really dies in Qin Wentian’s hands, there would be no one else powerful enough to stop Qin Wentian.

Finally, the two of them were at a close enough distance. The light screen around Qin Wentian seemed to be cracked, baked by that intense heat. He was in the inner area where the solar storms were the fiercest. Mo Lanshan howled with anger, “GO TO HELL!”

As the sound of his voice faded, the sun vortexes all erupted completely, their destructive might engulfing everything.

A light of intense coldness flickered in Qin Wentian’s eyes. The nine strands of sword holy will slashed out, converging into one at this moment. A piercing sound echoed out as a hole appeared in Mo Lanshan’s head. A moment later, his head directly exploded. He didn’t even have the time to scream and was directly killed just like that.

Naturally, Qin Wentian was in dire straits as well. The destructive energy tunneled into his body, the heat was so intense that the color of his skin had turned completely red, looking like he was about to burst into flames.

“Both of them perished?” That Vajra Sect’s expert stood far behind as he spoke in a low voice. Such an ending was truly shocking.

However, at this moment, he noticed Qin Wentian’s eyes turning over to him. That gaze shone with a fearsome light, coldly surveying him. His heart pounded fiercely. After that, he only saw the injuries on Qin Wentian’s body gradually recovering, akin to the true body of a fiendgod.

“Impossible!” That Vajra Sect’s expert exclaimed in shock and disbelief. Qin Wentian’s gaze was so bone-chillingly cold, radiating an intense killing intent.

That expert shouted loudly, “An undying body? How can this be?” After that, he immediately turned around and fled.

The leading character this time around from the Sacred Sun Sect, the Saint Child Mo Lanshan, really died a pointless death. Qin Wentian was actually still alive.

Staring at the fleeing figure, Qin Wentian’s aura gradually retracted, as a look of weariness was visible on his face. His silhouette flashed as he continued on his way, preparing to leave this chaotic stone forest.

“Your actions would undoubtedly cause a great deal of trouble for me. Are you leaving just like that?” A voice suddenly rang out in Qin Wentian’s mind. His spirit trembled for a moment, after that, he replied, “Senior, junior was helpless, I had no choice but to do so. I hope that senior can forgive me.”

“How did you gain such high attainments in the dao of formations?” That voice asked.

“The dao of formations is the same as the dao of cultivation. Everything springs from the same origin source. Since I have insights in the dao of cultivation, I would naturally have insights in the dao of formations as both of them are connected.” Qin Wentian replied.

“Great answer. You can leave now.” That voice was ethereal, and after that, a pathway actually appeared within the chaotic stone forest.

“Many thanks, senior.” Qin Wentian clasped his hands and bowed. After that, his silhouette flashed as he followed the pathway out.

After he left, an old man appeared from the depths of the stone forest. This person was none other than the Chaotic Stone Immortal Emperor. He stared at the departing figure of Qin Wentian as a slight smile could be seen on his face.

“The experts from the Sacred Sun Sect and the other powers were killed by someone in my chaotic stone forest. But what does this have to do with me?” He laughed aloud and a moment later, the formation changed and the atmosphere turned tranquil once more. Very quickly, those who were still alive, were all pale with fright when they saw the corpses in the area.

How imposing their group was when they soared through the air, intent on hunting down Qin Wentian? To think that so many of them would actually fall to him?

“Even Mo Lanshan was killed.” There was someone staring at a headless corpse has he spoke. Mo Lanshan was a saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect, a peak-stage immortal king with extraordinary strength and status. Yet, he actually died in here. Sword intent could still be felt from his corpse. Very clearly, he was killed by someone using a sword.

“What should we do?” Someone asked.

“Let’s bring his corpse back and report the truth to the higher-ups.”

Everyone sighed in their hearts. They stared into the distance with their thoughts in a whirl!

Chapter 1457: Tyranny of the Demonic Beasts

The incident of the Eastern Tomb caused a great deal of commotion in this area. The Eastern Tomb was forced open by the Blackmetal Sword Emperor, the inheritances collapsed, the Holy Book and holy will vanished.

The Blackmetal Sword Emperor fought against several immortal emperors but he was still alive and fled with injuries. In fact, he even injured three other immortal emperors, causing many to be shocked. A raging wind kicked up in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City. The Blackmetal Sword Emperor had sealed himself within the Eastern Tomb and his strength had improved tremendously.

Other than this, this incident caused the deaths of many experts. Among them, a peak-stage immortal king saint child character had also died. This wasn’t a minor matter, and caused a huge commotion within the Sacred Sun Sect. They started to investigate this matter and eventually realized that the killer was none other than Qin Wentian from the eastern regions.

They instantly gave the order to arrest Qin Wentian and even spread this news to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, causing Eastern Sage to bristle with anger. Back then on the Demongod Mountain, Qin Wentian actually survived after that strike and was now living carefreely, running all the way to the central regions.

As for the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, they all heaved a sigh of relief when they heard this news while silently musing how tough Qin Wentian’s fate was. Ever since his disappearance at the Demongod Mountain, no one knew his whereabouts. To think that after killing a saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect at the Demongod Mountain, he now killed even more of their disciples and yet another saint child. He was truly like the plague to his enemies, bringing storms of blood everywhere he went.

However, just as many people were searching for Qin Wentian’s traces, Qin Wentian once again disappeared completely. The central regions were just too vast, even for immortal emperors, it would be like looking for a needle inside a haystack if they wanted to specifically search for someone, let alone trying to search for someone like Qin Wentian who had already concealed his identity.

Naturally, although this news caused plenty of commotion, it was still a minor matter in the perspective of the entire immortal realms. Right now, the attention of most experts were still on the demonic beasts from the Desolate Mountain Range. They started to permeate the human world, starting from the northern regions as they continued expanding, creating sects in human territory. They wanted to make the entire immortal realms the territory of the Desolate Mountain Range, and wanted greater authority than the humans.

There were some powers in the immortal realms who stood up to resist, but they were soon suppressed by the terrifying advance of the royal greater demons from the Desolate Mountains. These powers who resisted were all wiped up and disintegrated. Those royal demons were simply too powerful and frightening. Also, this was merely the strength they showed on the surface. With their base back in the Desolate Mountain Range, nobody knew how strong they were exactly.

The peak powers of the immortal realms, all remained silent, as though silently agreeing to the invasion by the demons. Hence, in the immortal realms from the north to the south, numerous demon-based powers sprang up.

These royal greater demons were simply too terrifying, especially after they were baptized by the Demongod Mountain. Their strength had explosively increased due to the upgrade in their bloodline abilities, which granted them increased combat prowess. They even dared to stand against those strongest peak geniuses in the immortal realms, and the number of peak-level demons was far more than peak-level humans.

The Desolate Mountain Range that was silent and low-profile for a long time, suddenly erupted forth within a single day, their influence seeking to reach the entire immortal realms.

However, with regards to all of this, Qin Wentian had no idea at all.

Back then when he killed the saint child of the Sacred Sun Sect, he already understood that the Sacred Sun Sect would definitely investigate his identity. With his features being exposed, how hard would it be to find out who he is? The news that he was still alive would soon circulate out and Eastern Sage, as well as his other enemies, would definitely come to hunt him down. But even so, upon learning of his news, his kin and friends would be able to heave a sigh of relief that he was still living.

Now, he had entered a vast mountain range and was cultivating in seclusion.

When he was in the Eastern Tomb, he perused the Holy Book and gained comprehension of the holy will, receiving many insights. Although he managed to form nine-strands of holy sword intent, it was still far from sufficient as he was still unable to digest the remaining of his comprehensions. As a result, he decided to spend a total of five years in closed-door seclusion, in quiet focus as he left the mortal world behind.

During these five years, Qin Wentian’s strength improved a lot as his comprehensions gradually deepened. The toughness of his body grew stronger and his cultivation level at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm also became more stable, smoothly entering the late-phase of the mid-stage. If he encountered Mo Lanshan once again, Qin Wentian believed that he would be able to defeat his opponent without being so heavily injured like in the past.

Similarly, during these five years, the change to the immortal realms were also exceedingly great.

Qin Wentian finally stood up after five years. After he donned the mask Feng Qianxue manufactured for him, he wore the robes and carried the saber and sword she made on his back. After he made his way out of the mountains, he realized that the central regions of the immortal realms had undergone a huge transformation. In a short five years, the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range had extended their forces to all regions in the immortal realms.

Simply too quick. A mere five years was a short period of time that could pass in the blink of an eye in one bout of closed-door seclusion. The external world had turned topsy-turvy, and when Qin Wentian casually passed by a city, he could see many different types of demonic beasts within, acting extremely arrogantly.

In the eastern oceans, there was a city named Gazing Emperor City. It was extremely prosperous with as many experts as the clouds. Countless geniuses were gathered there, and it wasn't under the jurisdiction of any of the peak power yet it contains many immortal emperors. In this city, many extraordinary figures could often be seen. One can say that in the entire central regions, the Gazing Emperor City was the city with the most number of immortal kings and emperors.

There was no other reason, other than the fact that this city was located on the shore of the eastern seas, and one has to pass by here if they wanted to soar through the air of the eastern oceans to reach the City of Ancient Emperors.

This was also how the name, 'Gazing Emperor City,' came about.

Today, within Gazing Emperor City, a mysterious young man with a sword and a saber strapped behind his back could be seen walking on the streets. His clothes were of the simple style, and there was no aura radiating from him at all, as though he was one with the heavens. Within his deep eyes, a bright gleam could be seen occasionally, stirring the hearts of people.

This man was extremely handsome, yet he gave off a deep and obscure feeling to people, radiating a special illusory mysteriousness.

This man, was naturally none other than Qin Wentian.

"I've finally arrived." Qin Wentian glanced at the people within Gazing Emperor City as he murmured in a low voice. His target was the City of Ancient Emperors and on his journey to this point, his strength has risen a lot. He had never tarried before with regards to practicing cultivation. With so many experts targeting him, Qin Wentian constantly felt a strong sense of crisis which forced him to upgrade his strength as soon as possible. "RUMBLE!" The earth trembled violently. Qin Wentian turned his eyes over only to see that in a certain direction, quite a few greater demons were walking tyrannically down a street. These were all Kui Oxen, their bodies were extremely gigantic and they radiated a sense of malevolence. When they walked, they left behind large cracks on the ground. Nobody dared to obstruct their path.

"Scram." A Kui Ox roared, the volume causing the eardrums of some of the weaker humans to bleed. For those more frail ones, they were actually directly flung through the air from the impact of that roar, suffering heavy injuries. These Kui Oxen had no one in their eyes, behaving extremely tyrannically.

Qin Wentian frowned. When the Kui Oxen walked past, they caused an uproar from the surroundings.

“Kui Oxen are also a type of saint beast. They have entered the City of Ancient Emperors too? Are the skies changing here?” Someone spoke.

“The greater demons from the Desolate Mountain Range are paying close attention to a few critical places. One of these places is none other than the city of ancient emperors.”

“That’s right, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy appeared in the immortal realms, while the Demongod Mountain appeared in the Desolate Mountains. Everyone is claiming that a new era is coming, and most probably, numerous extraordinary geniuses would appear. Right now, there are many who want to compete for the position of number one, becoming the most dazzling character that could defeat all others in the world. Only then, would that character have a chance to become the king of the new era.”

The City of Ancient Emperors has always been a place where geniuses competed with each other. Countless experts would head there, and now, they are joined by the many types of saint beasts and greater demons.

“The demonic beasts are so tyrannical, completely looking down on humans. Why does everyone have no reactions, and are even talking about this approaching new era.” A young man coldly interjected, breaking the discussion of the crowd. The crowd turned their gazes to the young man. This young man was dressed in white and looked very young. There was also a very young girl about 15 to 16 of age next to him, she had bright eyes and perfect teeth, exuding a pure and innocent aura yet a hint of sadness could be seen in her eyes.

“Brother, things are different now. Right now, the demonic beasts reign supreme in the immortal realms. The peak powers all remain silent, how would there be anyone else who dares to speak up?” Somebody sighed.

“It’s not that we are cold-blooded. But for those saint-beast greater demons, their strengths are truly extraordinary. Even the emperor-ranked powers don’t dare to voice out their unhappiness, what else can we do…?”

“You are wrong, humans still can compete with the demons. Don’t forget that there are countless humans in the city that will head to the Ancient Emperor Palace and use the Emperor’s Eye to gauge their talent, determining who is the strongest.” Someone added.

“Ancient Emperor Palace.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed when he heard this location. In his map, he had seen an indication about the Ancient Emperor Palace in the Gazing Emperor City. It was rumored that that was a location where ancient emperors once resided. It was the central core of the ancient emperor’s empire and that place was used to test for the talents of geniuses around the immortal realms.

Many historical remains and items within the palace have long been plundered clean by people, only leaving behind the majestic palace itself. However, there was another object that still remained. This was something no one could bring away, a treasure named the ‘Emperor’s Eye.’

There were many rumors regarding the Emperor’s Eye. Some said that it was made from the eye of a true ancient emperor. Some said that this item was formed from their powerful will. Even more people felt that it was something forged and refined by the ancient emperors themselves and contained the power of boundless transformations.

Currently, the Emperor’s Eye was the tool used to gauge a person’s talent. Many geniuses, before they entered the City of Ancient Emperors, would first pay a visit to the Ancient Emperor Palace to test their talent.

“Seems like you guys have grown numb to it. How sad, the demonic beasts are trampling over humanity, and the number of innocent deaths are climbing every day. However, the cultivators of my generation don’t even dare to resist or say anything against the demons. This is truly a humiliation.” That white-robed young man spoke in rage.

“You would dare to resist them?” Someone mocked.

“Little brother, let me persuade you not to talk nonsense. The immortal realms at present isn’t the same as the immortal realms in the past.” Another person spoke in a sinister tone.

“Has humanity fallen so low? How lamentable, having to bow down to the demons.” That young man sighed with sorrow. The young girl beside him also had grief on her face, their family members died precisely in the hands of demonic beasts. They naturally had great hatred towards these demons from the Desolate Mountain Range.

“Pu!” At this moment, terrifying claws drilled into the chest of that young man, digging out his heart. That person who spoke earlier lunged over as his form changed back into a demonic beast. It was actually a demonic beast in human form!

Everyone retreated. As expected, these demons were testing them. If one spoke nonsense, they would die undoubtedly.

“Elder brother!” That young girl screamed in misery, turning incomparably pale.

Qin Wentian who was not far away, trembled with rage as his eyes flashed with a cold killing intent when he saw that. He had heard much news on his journey here and knew that right now, demonic beasts of the Desolate Mountains have already extended their reach to the immortal realms, seizing the territory of humans and opening up their own sects and factions. They are arrogant and despotic, but he didn’t expect that they would be so tyrannical to this extent.

Chapter 1458: Encountering Old Friends in the Ancient Emperor Palace

That was a demonic bear. His claws wrenched the heart of the human out, as the heart pulsated in his hands, dripping with fresh blood. After that, he transformed back into a human and brought the heart to his lips, licking it slightly. His demonic eyes gleamed as he stared at the young girl, “How do you want to die?”

“Elder brother!” That young girl hugged the corpse of her brother as tears streamed down her face. The humans in the surroundings all stepped back, moving far away, silently watching everything while shaking their heads and sighing.

“BOOM!” The palm of that demonic bear reverted to claws as it swiped towards the young girl. But at this moment, a beam of sword light suddenly descended from the air. A light slashing sound rang out as a scream of pain followed after. The paw of that bear was directly severed, as blood splattered onto the ground. His body trembled, and as he turned his gaze over, he saw Qin Wentian walking towards him.

“You severed my paw?” That demonic bear howled, reverting to his true form, becoming extremely large. Qin Wentian directly slashed out once more as a dazzling beam of sword light cleaved down from the skies. In just an instant, the gigantic bear demon was slain. From the beginning until the end, Qin Wentian didn’t even say a single word.

“ROAR!” A thunderous howling shook the air.

Rumbling explosions rang out as many gazes shot over to Qin Wentian. These eyes were all extremely demonic and in an instant, a raging storm of demon qi gushed forth, causing the humans to feel chills down their spine.

“Are you courting death?” A cold voice drifted over. From the crowd, several demonic beasts actually walked out. They were all in human-form, mingling with the humans in the crowd.

“Seems like the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range have completely permeated the world of humans in the immortal realms.” Qin Wentian silently mused. He glanced at the humans in the surroundings as he spoke, “Even these vile creatures are more united than all of you.”

The expressions of everyone immediately turned unsightly. Wasn’t this saying that they were worse than these vile beasts?

“BOOM!” A demonic beast slammed a palm out towards Qin Wentian. This demon was a greater demon at the immortal king realm. His aura gushed forth, causing the sky to change color.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, calmly regarding everything. He directly brandished the ancient sword strapped behind him, causing a sword shadow to fill the sky as the palm imprint was slashed apart. After that, he directly moved to kill that demon king who attacked him, in an incomparably domineering manner.

“An immortal king expert. This man is actually a powerful immortal king.” The gazes of the crowd stiffened as they stared at Qin Wentian, feeling shock in their hearts.

“Since you demons have decided to enter the human world, you should all follow the rules here. If you dare to kill wantonly, humans will definitely repay the favor.” Qin Wentian dominantly spoke as he stepped out, shocking all the demonic beasts. None of the demonic beasts dared to move forward, but they didn’t leave as well. They were all coldly staring at Qin Wentian as a wild light flickered in their eyes.

“The royal factions of the greater demons are here in the Gazing Emperor City, yet there’s actually a human daring to act against us here? Shouldn’t we kill him?” From the air, a demonic voice rang out. The crowd inclined their heads only to see a group of figures soaring over. These people all had extraordinary auras and the person in the lead was robed in white, his eyes sparkling with a jade-like luster, as well as a sinister coldness.

“He killed a human, so I killed him. What’s the problem?” Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at those figures.

That young man in white laughed, “There’s no problem. However, you should die as well.”

“Oh?” Qin Wentian stepped forward.

“If you acknowledge your mistake and are willing to kneel and beg for mercy, becoming my slave, I can forget everything and spare your life.” A sinister expression could be seen on the young man’s face. Under his gaze, Qin Wentian actually felt his consciousness slipping slightly as he felt a little dizzy.

“RUMBLE!” Qin Wentian soared up into the air, flying to a height higher than the figures in the air, as he peered down with disdain at them. He then coldly spoke, “A group of vile beasts wants to take humans as slaves? If I agree to it, would you even dare to accept me?”

As Qin Wentian’s voice faded a fearsome destructive wind rose up. Streaks of black-colored sword intent shot through space, arriving before the demons. The expressions of the demons all changed, they blasted out with their palms, wanting to block, but Qin Wentian directly slashed out, amplifying the sharpness. A loud piercing sound rang out as a demon king was killed directly.

“How dare you…” That young man in the lead could sense that Qin Wentian was an extraordinary individual. His expression changed, “I’m from the royal-faction of the Heavenhold Demon Race. There are also others of my race in the city, do you dare to act against us?”

“DIE!” Qin Wentian roared, his sword intent stormed down as the entire space was engulfed with a terrifying sword qi river. That person in the lead was directly slashed apart by the sword intent. His eyes widened in disbelief as he died just like that.

Qin Wentian icily stared at the other greater demons with unmasked killing intent.

“The experts of the Heavenhold Race as well as several other royal-faction greater demons are in the Ancient Emperor Palace of the Gazing Emperor City. Killing our comrades like this, are you not afraid of being hunted down?” A demon roared loudly when he sensed Qin Wentian’s killing intent. However, Qin Wentian didn’t care about that at all. A bright light flashed as his sword intent flooded the area. Very swiftly, that group of demons were all slain.

The crowd all felt their hearts trembling as they stared at Qin Wentian. They didn’t know which powerful character had entered Gazing Emperor City, and was actually so domineering despite facing off against the demons. He directly slew the greater demons and even one from the royal-faction, showing no mercy at all.

“All the demons within the crowd now, you guys better scram for me.” Qin Wentian roared in the air, causing the eyes of all the demons to flash with coldness. But none of them dared to step forth, all choosing to flee instead.

Qin Wentian then turned to the young girl sitting on the ground, she was hugging the corpse of her brother as she cried. At this moment, she lifted her head and stared at him, “Thank you senior for helping me…”

Qin Wentian sighed. After that, a strand of immortal sense from him landed onto the young girl. “This strand of immortal sense isn’t a protective one and would disappear automatically in the future. But even so, it should be sufficient to guard you for some days. After you finish burying your brother, you should leave this place.”

“Junior has no way to repay senior’s great kindness.” The young girl bowed her head. Qin Wentian sent out a stream of energy that helped her up. After that, he vanished from the area with a single step. He wasn’t any holy saint, and his help could only reach this extent.

The Ancient Emperor Palace in Gazing Emperor City was extremely majestic, with as many experts as clouds. It was unknown how many experts would come here daily.

At the area before one enters the Ancient Emperor Palace, there was an ancient battle platform in the form of a public square. It exuded a solemn air, and there were many puppets clad in armor around it. However, these puppets seemed to have been sealed and it has been a long time since any of them were used.

The central palace floated in the air, shining with a resplendent light. There were also eight floating majestic thrones around the palace, and those who sat in the thrones could directly see everything happening on the ancient battle platform.

When Qin Wentian came here, there were already many experts in the surroundings but all of them stood on the ground, staring up at the figures sitting on the thrones of the floating palace. These people were the true supreme characters who stood at the peak of the Desolate Mountains and immortal realms. All of them possessed great authority and power.

“This ancient palace is truly extraordinary. This central palace and the thrones seem to be propped up by a formation, causing it to float in the air. Not only so, those people on the thrones also seem to be enjoying themselves tremendously, enjoying an immortal banquet. In fact, there were even some characters with many beauties around them to accompany them, serving them as they feasted.

What’s more strange was that right at the center of the floating central palace, a dazzling light originated from there which shone onto the ancient battle platform below. Above there, a pair of fearsome eyes like the eyes of the heavens could be seen, it felt incomparably mystical and this pair of eyes was also known as the Emperor’s Eye, rumored to be created by the ancient emperors.

“Sir, what is the purpose of the platform?” Qin Wentian asked a person beside him.

“Don’t you know? The greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range and the humans from the peak powers would all come to this place before they headed to the City of Ancient Emperors. They would gauge their strengths respectively to see if it was either the demonkind or humanity that currently reigned supreme in the immortal realms. There would occasionally be supreme geniuses from both races that would choose to fight on the platform, seeing who is the superior one. As for the crowd, they can place their bets and enjoy the show. This has already been going on for several days.” The person replied.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the eight thrones in the floating palace. Among them, four were occupied by demons, while the other four were occupied by humans.

His gaze then turned cold because he saw that the human females by the side of those greater demons were all extremely beautiful and also had extraordinary cultivation bases. Clearly, these human females were forced by the royal-faction greater demons to serve them.

“Shengge.” At this moment, Qin Wentian’s eyes flickered with sharpness. He actually saw a familiar silhouette by the side of a greater demon in the form of a young man. Nanfeng Shengge of the Southern Phoenix Clan was captured and forced to act as an attendant, serving tea to the demons.

Nanfeng Shengge’s limpid eyes were filled with sorrow, she was helpless to resist. If she resisted, the consequences would definitely be extremely terrifying. These demons were capable of doing anything.

“How about fighting one more round?” A powerful royal greater demon spoke, staring at a human from a peak power.

“Sure.” That expert agreed. From the area where the two thrones are, there were people preparing to step out for battle. But at this moment, a swishing sound rang out in the air as the heat in the area suddenly soared. A fairy-like silhouette appeared, there was actually a look of anger on her face. This woman had long hair, and despite her anger, there was no denying her beauty at all, causing many to sigh in admiration. She had a phoenix crown on her head and exuded a sense of elegance.

“Release her.” This fairy stared in the direction of Nanfeng Shengge as she coldly spoke.

She was none other than this generation’s holy successor, Nanfeng Yunxi of the Southern Phoenix Clan. Not long ago, she had entered the immortal king realm. Her achievements were extraordinary, shocking her entire clan. The ancestral phoenix also gave her some energy to baptize her body.

Right now, the demonic beasts from the Desolate Mountain Range have already extended their reach everywhere. Nanfeng Yunxi and a group of maidens came out to temper themselves, wanting to head to the city of ancient emperors. However, on their way there, they actually encountered an ambush by demonic beasts and Nanfeng Shengge was captured.

The demonic young man beside Nanfeng Shengge slowly sipped his wine, not bothered about Nanfeng Yunxi’s anger at all. His demonic eyes gleamed as he stared at Nanfeng Yunxi as an evil smile appeared on his face. “If it wasn’t for the fact that you are the holy successor of the Southern Phoenix Clan, I would have captured you too back in that ambush and use you as my slave. To think that you still don’t know what’s good for you and came here searching for me. Do you really think that I don’t dare to do anything to you?”

The hearts of all the experts in the surroundings trembled. How domineering was that? That demon actually ambushed the Southern Phoenix Clan’s experts, even capturing a holy maiden as their slave? How brazen are they exactly?!

Chapter 1459: Competing

Nanfeng Yunxi's expression was ice cold. She then coldly spoke, "Your demonic races might have entered the immortal realms but by acting so arrogantly, are you not afraid of the anger by the peak powers here?"

"Anger by the peak powers?" That demonic young man mockingly laughed. "We can act so domineering because we have the strength to back it up. Or do you think that the immortal realms is a kind and benevolent place? You humans have your own rules, while us demons have our rules too. In the Desolate Mountains, strength is king. Everyone has to bow down to you if their strength is inferior. Being able to attend to me is her honor."

"Naturally, if the holy successor of the Southern Phoenix Clan can become my serving girl, things would be extremely wonderful."

"Haha, I heard that the Southern Phoenix Clan's maidens all have the bloodline of a phoenix. If you use them to warm your bed, your descendants might turn out to be a super-variation greater demon beast. Why don't you try it out." Another greater demon sitting on a throne laughed loudly.

"The Southern Phoenix Clan is a peak power of the Southern Regions, do you all dare to do so?" A voice rang out. Everyone turned to the person who spoke. It was actually a human and was an immortal king expert from the Ying Clan of the Southern Regions. However, his tone sounded as though he intentionally wanted to spur the demons on.

"This fellow is intentionally trying to create trouble." Someone mumbled in a low voice.

"At this time, he even wants to stir the pot. The Ying Clan has never been on close terms with the Southern Phoenix Clan despite them both being located in the Southern Regions." Another voice in the crowd murmured.

"I don't dare to?" That demonic young man laughed. He turned to Nanfeng Yunxi, "Nanfeng Yunxi, I'll give you one more chance. I'll send an expert from my side and enter the trial of the Emperor's Eye together with you. If the amount of time you can endure is longer, I'll return your subordinate. But if the amount of time you can endure is shorter, you will become my serving girl too. How about it?"

"Don't do it." Nanfeng Shengge stared at Nanfeng Yunxi as she shook her head. These demons here were all royal greater demons and were extremely powerful with outstanding talents. Each and every one of them was exceptionally terrifying. She was worried that Nanfeng Yunxi might slip up.

"Naturally, if you don't dare to, you can send someone out for the trial As long as both parties are of the same cultivation level, that would do. Don't you humans love to talk about fairness?"

"I'll do it myself." Nanfeng Yunxi coldly spoke.

“Let me do it on your behalf.” At this moment, another voice rang out. From the crowd, a handsome-looking young man could be seen walking over. He looked very young and was radiating the aura of an immortal king, as well as an extraordinary bearing.

Nanfeng Yunxi froze when she saw this young man. She exclaimed in a startled manner, “Jun Mengchen.”

She then gazed in the direction behind Jun Mengchen, as though expecting ‘that person’ to appear too. After all, ‘that person’ and Jun Mengchen were from the same sect and are both extremely close. However, she didn’t see that person whom she was expecting.

“Nanfeng Yunxi, let me do this on your behalf. I’ll kill one of these vile creatures to help you vent your emotions.” Jun Mengchen stopped when he reached the side of Nanfeng Yunxi. His cultivation base was at the initial-stage of the immortal king realm but his aura was vast and imposing. He should be at the late-phase of the initial-stage.

“Courting death.” Some of the royal greater demons spoke with cold disdain.

Nanfeng Yunxi glanced at Jun Mengchen as she nodded, “Okay.”

She believed in Jun Mengchen’s strength and talent. Back then in the past, Jun Mengchen was already extremely dazzling. It was only because of Qin Wentian that Jun Mengchen’s radiance got masked. But Nanfeng Yunxi had fought side by side with Jun Mengchen before and would naturally know of how extraordinary he is.

Stepping out, Jun Mengchen ascended the battle platform. He stared at the demons and spoke, “Scram the fuck out.”

Several demons roared in anger, wanting to rush forth. The demonic young man then glanced at one of the demons as he spoke, “Let an expert from the Kui Ox Race step out.”

“Alright.” The demonic beasts nodded. After that, a powerfully-built demon stepped onto the platform as he drew his head back with a thunderous roar. Each of his steps caused the air to rumble, extremely heavy and forceful, as his aura gushed out and enveloped Jun Mengchen.

This was a demon ox from the Kui Ox Race, it’s a saint beast and a type of greater demon. The strength they had was terrifying to the extreme.

“In the past, my senior apprentice brother barbequed white tiger flesh and feasted on it. Today, I want to see if I have a chance to barbeque the flesh of a Kui Ox.” Jun Mengchen stepped out, entering the area that was illuminated by the Emperor’s Eye. Instantly, the Emperor’s Eye began to glow with a boundless radiance, as terrifying beams of light blasted into Jun Mengchen.

The light that was materialized from countless runes, formed an extremely destructive attack, slamming right into Jun Mengchen. The radiance from the Emperor’s Eye washed over him, but he stood there unmoving under the heavy pressure, like he was the king of everything in the world.

The Kui Ox roared as he stepped out as well. Fearsome currents of lightning crackled protectively around him, he then reverted into his true form and became even more terrifying.

A moment later, the radiance from the Emperor’s Eye intensified, the sky above it changed color, becoming a world of stars. From the heavens, gigantic meteors started raining down with imperious force, capable of crushing anything.

The Kui Ox blasted the meteors apart with brute strength, reinforced by the power of lightning and thunder. Behind Jun Mengchen, a world diagram appeared and streams of silver spears shot out, shattering the meteors that fell in his surroundings.

“The radiance from the Emperor’s Eye will keep evolving, transforming into a stronger area of effect attack every time.” The crowd mused.

Qin Wentian felt some shock in his heart when he saw Nanfeng Yunxi and Jun Mengchen. In addition, both of them had already entered the immortal king realm. This little brat Jun Mengchen, his strength had evidently increased by a huge margin. He must have worked hard during these years.

“BOOM!” The Kui Ox stepped out, issuing a roar at Jun Mengchen. The volume of the roar shook the heavens and caused thunder bolts to form. The already chaotic area became even more chaotic as thunder fell from the sky, blasting into Jun Mengchen mercilessly.

“The abilities of some of these greater demons were truly powerful. The might of a single roar actually can be so tyrannical.” The spectators mused silently.

Jun Mengchen similarly let out a thunderous roar. In an instant, countless silver spears erupted from the diagram, blotting out the sky, shattering the lightning domain into pieces. The diagram then flew out, hovering in the air as it transformed into a law domain that engulfed everything. The crowd felt like they were under an illusion, and the Kui Ox seemed to have been brought into a world where Jun Mengchen was the absolute king.

Many of the powerful immortal kings here all froze when they saw this. Wasn’t this the strength of that legendary physique…?

“KILL!” Jun Mengchen howled. From the diagram, the silver spears continued shooting out towards the Kui Ox. The Kui Ox roared, summoning bolts of thunder to blast the spears, but the spears were simply too many in number. They launched forth in endless streams, containing indomitable force. The Kui Ox struggled and used all sorts of methods to attack, wanting to leave this domain. However, the entire platform was already covered, there was simply no way for him to flee. The sounds of piercing then rang out continuously as his body was pierced through by the endless spears, until he finally died.

“I’ll keep the corpse of this ox. In the future, when there’s a chance to, I’ll barbeque it and eat it, this should be highly nutritious.” Jun Mengchen coldly smiled. The diagram disappeared and the body of the ox vanished with it.

The eyes of many experts gleamed with sharpness. As expected of the coming of a new era, even a person with such a shocking physique appeared.

“Impudent!” That demonic young man sitting on the floating throne icily spat.

“You are the impudent one. What? You can’t afford to lose? Are you not going to release Shengge?” Jun Mengcheng coldly spoke.

“Haha, you demons are simply too weak. The trial of the Emperor’s Eye just began yet the person you sent out was so easily killed off.” An immortal king from a peak power laughed.

“You guys better obediently hand Nanfeng Shengge over. The Southern Phoenix Clan isn’t a power you demons can afford to antagonize.” An expert from the Ying Clan laughed.

“Oh?” That demonic young man grinned evilly. He grabbed Nanfeng Shengge and sneered, “Since we’ve lost, I will naturally honor my promise.”

As he spoke, he tossed Nanfeng Shengge out and instantly stabbed a finger forth, slamming into her back. Nanfeng Shengge slumped forward, coughing out fresh blood from the impact as her aura weakened severely.

“Shengge!” Nanfeng Yunxi called out, her expression changed drastically as she flew forward, catching Nanfeng Shengge. She then took out a medical pill and fed it into her mouth before sending in streams of energy to protect Nanfeng Shengge’s heart.

“Try to circulate your immortal energy.”

Nanfeng Shengge nodded, the two of them were immersed in phoenix flames, resembling a phoenix undergoing rebirth through nirvana. The other experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan coldly stared at that demonic young man as well as that expert from the Ying Clan who spoke. That Ying Clan’s expert was clearly trying to provoke the demons, he was simply extremely despicable.

“Shameless.” Jun Mengchen was brimming with anger.

“I only agreed to release her and I’ve kept my promise.” That demonic young man icily spoke. “Do you dare to continue?”

“Why wouldn’t I dare?” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke.

“Fine then.” The eyes of the demonic young man flashed with coldness. As for those other humans in the crowd, they all had the feeling like they were watching a drama unfolding. An expert from the Ying Clan then spoke out, “Wow, a supreme genius from humanity, he will definitely be able to slay all demons and do us proud.”

“Mhm, this person’s talent isn’t bad, he can be the representative of us humans and continue to slay the demons.” A peak-stage immortal king from the Senluo Immortal Empire added fuel to fire.

“Not wanting a cease-fire after your loss and planning to continue? Since you guys want to play, we will play with you.” A voice rang out. After that, several experts appeared. Qin Wentian glanced at the person in the lead and he realized that he actually knew this man. This person was none other than Tuoba Saintsky, an extremely powerful immortal king with extraordinary strength who led one of the armies of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect against the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect during the war in the past.

Jun Mengchen actually came here with a group of experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

“Count me in.” Qin Wentian stepped out.

Tuoba Saintsky, Jun Mengchen and the others all glanced at Qin Wentian as their eyes flashed. They could sense that he was also a disciple from the Heavenly Talisman Realm but they had never met Qin Wentian before. Naturally, given how vast the Heavenly Talisman Realm is, it’s very normal that they wouldn’t have met everyone before. It was already enough knowing that they are from the same sect.

Tuoba Saintsky glanced at Qin Wentian as he nodded. “Sure, how do we address you?”

“Saber-Sword Immortal King.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. There was a sword and a saber strapped behind his back. This title was pretty appropriate.

“Not bad, everyone is a genius of our immortal realms. We might as well use this chance to diminish the arrogance of the demonic races.” On one of the thrones, an expert from the Ying Clan laughed, speaking as though he was a lofty individual that was directing everything.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, staring at the people of the Ying Clan. He then coldly spoke, “Get lost from there, you guys have no qualifications to sit there.”

Chapter 1460: Slashes of Saber and Sword

Qin Wentian's voice was like thunder, ringing out loud in the ears of everyone. In an instant, the gazes of all experts turned to Qin Wentian. This immortal king was actually so audacious, telling the Ying Clan to get lost the moment he stepped out.

The experts from the Ying Clan narrowed their eyes. The peak-stage immortal king who sat on the center of the gigantic throne stared at Qin Wentian as an immortal glow radiated from him. He then calmly asked, "Do you know who you are speaking to?"

"The demons of the Desolate Mountain Range are contending against humans of the immortal realms? Yet what did you guys do? Trying to sow discord, causing them to commit a ruthless act towards a maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan. Do you treat everyone as idiots?" Qin Wentian stared at the expert in the air as he spoke, "If your Ying Clan has a grudge with the Southern Phoenix Clan, you should push it all the way to the back. Using such a method during this time truly causes all humans to be shamed on your behalf."

"Well said!" Jun Mengchen spoke, walking out of the Emperor's Eye area. He inclined his head and stared at the experts from the Ying Clan. "Given how despicable you bastards are, what qualifications do you all have to sit up there on the throne, acting like you guys are the representatives of humans. Truly, this is disgusting to the extreme. The Saber-Sword Immortal King is right. You guys should get lost, scram the fuck down. You all have no qualifications to be up there."

The expressions of the experts from the Ying Clan all turned extremely ugly to behold. They didn't expect that there would actually be humans opposing them. Before this, they could sit on one of the thrones because the experts from their clan who came here, was extremely powerful. There was even a royal Ying Clan member who's combat prowess was heaven-shaking by the name of Ying Zhantian who came.

He was a peak-stage immortal king from the Ancient Ying Clan, and he was now sitting precisely at the center of the gigantic floating throne. His eyes gleamed with spirit, radiating the forcefield of a king. Although he was insulted by Qin Wentian an Jun Mengchen, he still appeared very calm. He gazed at them with contempt and quietly spoke, "It's easy if you want us to get down from the throne, just show us your strength."

"Let's make it a total of three rounds; initial-stage, mid-stage and peak-stage immortal kings can fight. The rules will be the same as before. If you guys lose, scram the fuck down from the throne." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"That's right, before we deal with these vile beasts, let us get rid of these scums of humanity. If you guys still have some pride as one of the peak powers, accept our challenge." Jun Mengchen arrogantly spoke. Instantly, the auras of the immortal kings from the Ying Clan all gushed forth, rumbling the area around them, causing some of those with weaker cultivations to feel a stifling pressure.

"If you guys don't even have the courage to fight, it would truly be extremely shameful to continue sitting there." An immortal king from the Southern Phoenix Clan coldly spoke.

Nobody expected that the humans would have internal strife right now. This time, it became the turn for the demons to watch a drama. All of them had cold smiles on their faces.

By coming here, it was clear that both sides wanted to see what the level of combat prowess for each side was. The humans and demons wanted to see the strength of the respective side's geniuses. Right now, some extraordinary human experts actually wanted to challenge the Ancient Ying Clan, driving them away from one of the eight thrones in the air.

"Fine." Ying Zhantian spoke. His name was Ying Zhantian, which meant warring against the heavens. From this, one could see how high the expectations the Ying Clan had of him. How would he not dare to accept this challenge?

"I'll fight for the first round. Who among you guys will step out?" Jun Mengchen pointed toward the air as he spoke. After that, an extraordinary figure from the Ying Clan descended, and when he did so, the roars of a dragon could actually be heard, shaking the skies with the intensity.

Jun Mengchen's silhouette flashed, entering the Emperor's Eye platform. The Ying Clan's expert stepped out as well, with each step he took, his aura grew increasingly stronger as the dragon roars also grew louder. His body was like that of a divine dragon, incomparably powerful. The moment he entered the Emperor's Eye platform, he instantly grabbed out towards Jun Mengchen. His hand was like the talons of a heavenly dragon, incomparably large, capable of crushing everything under the sky.

"Just a minor dao, you better just give up instead of embarrassing yourself up here." Jun Mengchen directly punched out, exuding a fearsome might that rumbled his surroundings. An instant later, after the sound of an intense explosion, that heavenly dragon's talon directly shattered.

The expert from the Ying Clan folded ancient seals as runic light sprang up, protecting his body. Around him, several manifestations of terrifying true dragons appeared as they lunged towards Jun Mengchen.

"So weak?" Jun Mengchen roared. His body was like a divine emperor, glowing with a brilliant light, seemingly indestructible as he allowed the dragons to lunge at him. His defense was simply terrifying.

"What physique is this?" Someone exclaimed in shock. The expressions of the experts from the Ying Clan all turned unsightly, but Ying Zhantian was still calm. Given Jun Mengchen's physique, it was only normal for them to lose the first round. It was fine as long as they won the second round. As for the third round, he would fight himself. If he personally acted, who would be able to stop him?

And as expected, the victory went to Jun Mengchen who domineeringly defeated his opponent. If that Ying Clan's expert hadn't borrowed the power of a divine weapon to flee, he would have died right there. Right now, that expert had an extremely ugly expression on his face.

“Trash, you can’t even withstand a single attack. What qualifications do you all have to sit on that throne?” Jun Mengchen exited the battle platform as he inclined his head and spoke.

Ying Zhantian’s face turned cold. This new era was truly different, giving birth to so many geniuses. Seems like the indication of an ancient emperor being born in this era was true. Although this might be a period of chaos, it was also a golden era, with powerful experts from all races appearing.

“The battle has yet to be concluded. I want to see how much more can you be arrogant when you lose the next two battles.” From the throne, an immortal king of the Ying Clan spoke. This person was a mid-stage immortal king. He stood up and prepared for the second round.

“Who will you all send out for the second round?” That expert stood high up in the air, looking down with disdain, exuding an unexcelled aura.

“Me.” Qin Wentian inclined his head, there seemed to be bolts of lightning shooting out from his eyes.

“Since you dare to challenge my Ying Clan, I shall kill you in this battle for your arrogance.” That mid-stage immortal king has lived for a very long time. His aura was incomparably stable and imposing.

“If you kneel down and beg for forgiveness now, I can spare you from dying.” That expert continued, acting like he wanted to give Qin Wentian a chance.

“Retard.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, he walked up to the battle platform and entered the Emperor’s Eye radiance. In an instant, the beams of light slammed into him. Under the heavy pressure, Qin Wentian seemed to be completely unaffected. He calmly stood there, his body glowing with a resplendent light, incomparably magnificent.

That mid-stage immortal king was completely infuriated when he heard the word ‘retard.’ His aura gushed forth as he domineeringly stepped onto the platform.

“Since you wish to court death, I shall grant it to you.” As he spoke, he directly rushed towards Qin Wentian. The sounds of dragon roars shook the area, terrifying to the extreme.

“Swish!” The saber and sword on the back of Qin Wentian appeared in his hands. His left hand wielded the saber and right hand wielded the sword. At this moment, everyone felt that the title of this man was truly fitting – the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

His left hand chopped out, without any intricacies, using pure tyrannical force. With this saber strike, the sky changed color as devil might churned wildly around him.

“Break!” That mid-stage immortal king from the Ying Clan roared as eight dragons lunged out, exuding enough might to shake the sky. He had been stuck at this level for many years, and his combat prowess had already reached the peak. If not, it would be impossible for the Ying Clan to send him up for this second round.

The saber attack clashed against the dragons, causing chaotic streams of energy to flood the entire area. Qin Wentian continued stepping out, slashing forth with his right hand, opening up a pathway with his monstrous sword intent.

“Puchi…” A light sound rang out. A moment later, the crowd only saw blood splattering through the air. That mid-stage immortal king from the Ying Clan froze, feeling his body being slashed into two. A moment later, that immortal king fell down from the air, dead.

This battle was even cleaner than the one before. This mysterious Saber-Sword Immortal King merely attacked twice, slashing once with his saber and once with his sword. The peak-phase mid-stage immortal king of the Ying Clan was directly killed like that, without fanfare. He simply didn’t have enough strength to block these two lightning-quick attacks.

The experts from the Ying Clan all stood up, their auras engulfing the area, violent to the extreme. For the other spectators, no one else made a noise, they were all speechless from what they saw.

The Ying Clan actually lost this round, and they lost in such a miserable manner.

“There’s no longer a need for the third battle.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He then stared at the Ying Clan’s experts in the air, “Isn’t it about time for you guys to get lost?”

Ying Zhantian gazed at Qin Wentian. For that first round battle, he could still gauge Jun Mengchen’s strength after knowing that he had a legendary physique. But for this battle with Qin Wentian, he actually could not estimate the level of Qin Wentian’s strength. Such a person shouldn’t be an unknown character.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King… But, he has never heard of this character before.

“Interesting, I don’t really understand the rules of humans but if I were you guys, there’s no way I would be able to endure this.” A greater demon spoke, intentionally wanting to provoke the anger of the Ying Clan as they continued to watch the show.

“I heard that the Ying Clan is one of the three ancient clans in the South. But despite so, a mid-stage immortal king from the Ying Clan was directly killed and the others were even told to scram. How shameful.” The demons were as though they wanted to watch everything in the world burn.

“The strength of the two of them are truly extremely strong. There’s nothing shameful that my Ying Clan lost.” Ying Zhantian was an extraordinary character. He calmly replied, elevating the image of Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen because only by doing this would they not lose too much face.

“However, the two victories count for nothing. This is especially true in the face of my Ancient Ying Clan. Let me ask you guys again, are you all sure you all want to sit upon this throne that belongs to us?” Ying Zhantian stated, staring at Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen.

“What? You refuse to admit defeat?” Jun Mengchen coldly asked.

“All of you should be planning to head to the City of Ancient Emperors too, right? I’m merely giving you all a chance. This throne isn’t so easily sat upon.” Ying Zhantian continued.

“You truly love to speak nonsense.” Jun Mengchen replied in rage. “Are you scramming or not?”

“Very well. Let’s meet again then in the City of Ancient Emperors.” Ying Zhantian stood up. “Let’s go.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts of the Ying Clan brought along the corpse of their comrade as they left. They no longer had any face to remain here.

The Ying Clan was actually ousted from one of the eight thrones by a group of random immortal kings. How shocking was this?

At this moment, Jun Mengchen smiled at Qin Wentian, “Brother Saber-Sword, your strength is truly extraordinary.”

He was thinking in his heart that the Heavenly Talisman Realm truly had many extremely powerful characters. This apprentice brother whom no one had met before was actually so powerful.

“Although the Ying Clan has left, how can their throne be taken by you guys from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect? You guys are still far from qualified.” From one of the floating thrones, an expert coldly spoke, as though finally recognizing the fact that Tuoba Saintsky, Jun Mengchen and their group were from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

Chapter 1461: Moving Out

Qin Wentian, Jun Mengche and the others glanced over. The person who spoke was actually a son of the Violet Emperor, Zi Daolong.

Other than him, on that gigantic throne, there were also many other characters from peak powers of the Eastern Regions: the Paragon Sword Sect, the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, etc. It felt like these people were in an alliance.

In that adjudication battle of the past, many powers of the eastern regions had formed an alliance. Right now, they were actually still grouped together and were preparing to enter the City of Ancient Emperors together.

They had also observed the war between Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. This was how they recognized Tuoba Saintsky and knew that these people were from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

“If we don’t have the qualifications, do you want to step up on the battle platform and have a try against me?” Tuoba Saintsky stared at Zi Daolong, directly announcing his will to battle. This caused Zi Daolong’s gaze to flash. He was actually a little fearful of Tuoba Saintsky. Back then in the war, Tuoba Saintsky was one of those with the most dazzling performances in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. He was also a peak-stage immortal king, and Zi Daolong didn’t dare to look at him with disdain.

“Sitting on the throne doesn’t simply depend on the combat prowess of a single individual. The overall strength of your sect isn’t sufficient for you to sit upon this throne.” A peak-stage immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty coldly spoke.

Tuoba Saintsky directly soared up, sitting on the throne the Ying Clan vacated. His calm gaze then swept over to the immortal king who spoke. After that, Jun Mengchen and the other disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realm all soared through the air. Jun Mengchen even said, “Brother Saber-Sword, fairy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan, come on up together.”

Qin Wentian and Nanfeng Yunxi’s group also soared into the air and sat upon the throne, smacking the face of Zi Daolong.

“I really have no idea how the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect has such confidence.” An expert from the Paragon Sword Sect icily spoke.

“So much nonsense. If you guys want to challenge us, just bring it on. If you want to compare the foundation of peak powers, will the Southern Phoenix Clan lose to any of your sects? Stop being so shameless.” Jun Mengchen angrily berated. The experts on the other throne all released their auras, staring at Jun Mengchen with malicious intentions flickering in their eyes.

“If you want a fight, step up on the battle platform. We will make it a life-and-death duel.” Jun Mengchen stepped out and pointed to the area on the platform covered by the radiance of the Emperor’s Eye.

“Forget it, there’s no need to bring ourselves down to their level or everyone might feel that we are bullying them with our superiority in numbers.” An immortal king coldly spoke. He then stared at them and continued, “Let’s take a look at each other’s talent. If you all want to prove yourselves, we can head to the Emperor’s Eye platform and see who can endure effect the longest.”

“We will definitely last longer than any of you.” Jun Mengchen impolitely shot back.

Qin Wentian moved to the side of Nanfeng Yunxi, he glanced at Nanfeng Shengge who was beside her and asked, “Is Holy Maiden Shengge fine?”

“I’m alright, thank you Senior Saber-Sword for your concern.” Nanfeng Shengge smiled gently.

“As human cultivators of the immortal realms, there’s no way we will stand for demonic beasts bullying our comrades. It’s just that right now, many supreme characters are gathered here in this Gazing Emperor City. Fairy maidens, all of you have to be more cautious. The Southern Phoenix Clan only sent out such a small group this time around and things might get dangerous as there are many vile beasts in this city as well. They are all devoid of humanity, capable of doing all sorts of despicable things.” Qin Wentian reminded, conveniently insulting the greater demons at the same time.

“RUMBLE!” As the sound of his voice faded, violent demonic qi gushed forth. It was released from none other than the demonic young man who injured Nanfeng Shengge.

“I understand, my group of maidens initially only wanted to temper ourselves in the City of Ancient Emperors but we didn’t expect the demonic beasts would already be so tyrannical and overbearing to this extent. I’ve already informed my clan and they would soon send out other elders to join us.” Nanfeng Yunxi felt a little guilty. After breaking through to the immortal king realm, she only focused on raising her strength and she wasn’t too clear about the situation regarding the demonic beasts of the Desolate Mountain Range. She directly brought a small group of maidens here when she heard that there would be many other geniuses gathering in this city.”

“Insulting us demons, you have to die!” A roar rang out. A demonic expert directly stepped out as demonic qi flooded the area. It was a torch dragon. With the blink of his eyes, light and darkness alternated, the sky changing color.

Stretching out with his talon, he directly slashed towards the direction of Qin Wentian’s group. The draconic claws were a brilliant red and extremely gigantic. There seemed to be lava on the claws, and the manifestation of the claw attack directly arrived at where Qin Wentian and the others were.

An immortal king from the Heavenly Talisman Realm stepped out, his entire body covered by a runic glow. Slashing out with his sword, a beam of light shot out as quick as lightning slashing against that lava-covered claw, yet he failed to shatter that manifestation.

The expression of that immortal king was still as calm as ever. He followed up with several other attacks, slashing out with his sword technique, the Thousand Flows Sword Art, causing countless streams of his sword intent to drill into the claw. An explosive sound rang out as the lava splashed everywhere. A moment later, that manifestation of claw attack directly exploded from the force.

“Freeze!” The torch dragon coldly roared, the entire atmosphere was suddenly filled with frost and snow. At the same time, a phantom of a dragon loomed over the throne where Qin Wentian’s group was at and a barrage of attacks were instantly launched, wanting to kill everyone there.

Qin Wentian slashed out with his saber as an all-suppressive devil might flooded the area, destroying all the ice and frost present. The saber light broke the air, directly slashing towards the torch dragon but that attack was negated with a claw swipe.

“You want to start a war?” Tuoba Saintsky stepped out, exuding a tyrannical and imposing aura.

“War?” On one of the thrones, a supreme greater demon coldly laughed, “You guys are not qualified yet.”

“Retreat.” That demon spoke, as that torch dragon stepped back, returning back to his original location. Qin Wentian glanced at these demonic experts, each of their auras were vast and majestic. Although they had a number of experts at their side, there was no way for them to clash directly against these greater demons. If they really fought, their side would lose for sure.

“My mood is already spoiled. During these few days, under the radiance of the Emperor’s Eye, we have already seen the level of talent for many geniuses of the immortal realms. However, they are merely so-so in our eyes. But now, quite a few interesting humans have appeared. Let’s hope that you guys would have more powerful individuals or things would be truly boring when we meet again in the City of Ancient Emperors.” That demonic young man stood up and left after speaking. It was like he couldn’t be bothered with the humans here any longer.

“Let’s leave. I want to see how amazing this legendary City of Ancient Emperors that is so highly regarded by the humans is.” Another greater demon coldly laughed. After that, the demonic beasts all departed the area, filled with disdain for the human experts here.

Very swiftly, only humans remained in this area around the battle platform.

“How arrogant, these demonic beasts don’t have us in their eyes at all.” An immortal king from the Senluo Immortal Empire spoke in cold arrogance.

“Underestimating humans? They will surely pay the price for it.” Another immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire who was sitting on the throne also spoke arrogantly. The king aura radiating from him was shocking to the extreme.

“Demonic beasts of the Desolate Mountains?” An immortal king from the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire had a cold smile on his face. His eyes were like arrows, capable of shooting down the sun.

“With so many geniuses gathered, the City of Ancient Emperors would definitely be extremely lively this time around.” All the human experts stood up and prepared to leave for the City of Ancient Emperors as well.

“Leaving just like that? How boring. I initially still wanted to see how you ‘lofty figures’ would fare under the radiance of the Emperor’s Eye. Seems like you all have trepidation in your hearts and are afraid that you might incur ridicule if you compete with us.” Jun Mengchen coldly smiled.

“I want to see if you can still smile after we enter the City of Ancient Emperors.” Zi Daolong flicked his sleeve and led the other powers from the eastern regions away.

“I intentionally came here but gained no information. Seems like I can only wait after we enter the City of Ancient Emperors to witness the strength of the humans and demons.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, he continued, “However, why did so many supreme experts gather here?”

“This has a connection to the movements of the Desolate Mountain Range. The greater demons there have entered the immortal realms, and the City of Ancient Emperors is one of the places they wish to go the most. After this news circulated out, supreme experts from all the major powers in the immortal realms wanted to compete with these greater demons, showing these demons their brilliance and strength. After all, if one wanted to become an unparalleled expert, defeating all other geniuses in the world is a path that’s inevitable.”

“Mhm, earlier, some of those peak characters didn’t act at all but I can sense how extraordinary they are. They are definitely people who stand at the pinnacle of their respective cultivation levels.” Tuoba Saintsky added.

“I see.” Qin Wentian nodded. After that, they departed the area, leaving this throne for the others remaining here.

After returning to the inn, they set up a barrier to isolate immortal sense. Tuoba Saintsky, Jun Mengchen and Nanfeng Yunxi were all present. Qin Wentian then proceeded to reveal his identity, causing all of them to be shocked as their eyes gleamed with a bright glow. Nanfeng Yunxi smiled at him, “You are getting more and more powerful, able to easily suppress even mid-stage immortal kings. Your peers like me, are truly filled with despair.”

“Haha, I’ve already wondered which senior apprentice brother of my sect would be so extraordinary. Senior brother Qin, you have really managed to fool me this time around.” Jun Mengchen laughed uproariously. “In the past, we already fought side by side in the City of Ancient Emperors when we were at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm. To think that now, we are all here together again. We will definitely flip the City of Ancient Emperors upside down.”

“Mengchen, I decided to proceed alone this time around. I don’t want to rouse the suspicions of others, they might be able to guess my identity if we go as a group.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“That’s true. That old scum Eastern Sage has now already submitted and joined the Old Devil Duotian’s sect. He even ignored the rules of the immortal realms and directly acted against you back then. Those people from the eastern regions also want your death, it’s best to be more careful.” Jun Mengchen nodded. “However, it’s already sufficient that we know that you are fine. When we enter the City of Ancient Emperors, we will still be able to see each other.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. He then turned to Nanfeng Yunxi and asked, “Yunxi, how’s Shengge?”

“She’s doing fine. If that lass knew that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was you, she would definitely be very happy and would want to come over to see you.” Nanfeng Yunxi glanced at Qin Wentian with a look of bitterness, as though reproaching him for hiding his identity earlier. Qin Wentian gulped a little, that look, in the eyes of a beautiful woman like Nanfeng Yunxi, was truly extremely mesmerizing.

“Haha Yunxi, leaving Shengge aside, don’t you yourself miss my senior brother too?” Jun Mengchen laughed uproariously. A moment later, Nanfeng Yunxi’s eyes flickered as she evaded his gaze. “Nonsense.”

“Holy Successor Yunxi would actually blush too. Hehe, senior brother, you are really too awesome.” Jun Mengchen spoke in an impressed manner. Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines as he spoke, “Beat it.”

“Ai, are you chasing me and senior brother Tuoba away?” Jun Mengchen sighed. Qin Wentian speechless, but he knew that this junior apprentice brother of his was only joking with him.

Being able to gather together with them, Qin Wentian was naturally very happy in his heart. After some days, more experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan arrived. Their group then prepared to move out, preparing to enter the City of Ancient Emperors!

Chapter 1462: A Storm in the City of Ancient Emperors

The Eastern Sea was boundlessly vast and was a place one must pass by before they arrived at the City of Ancient Emperors.

At this moment, at the shore of the Eastern Sea, Qin Wentian's group appeared here. Other than them, there were also many demon kings who were traversing the sea.

"It's rumored that only people with cultivation bases at the king or emperor realm could traverse this sea freely and enter the City of Ancient Emperors. In the past, we were sent here. This time around, we came here by ourselves. I have no idea what we would encounter." Jun Mengchen spoke in a low voice. After that, he stepped out and started to cross the boundless sea.

Qin Wentian and the others followed. Nanfeng Yunxi and the other maidens also moved out, flying through the air above the eastern sea.

"It's said that the City of Ancient Emperors is a separate and independent dimension within the eastern sea. If we travel high up in the air, we wouldn't be able to see the city. Senior apprentice sister, you came here before. Is this true?" An expert from the Southern Phoenix Clan asked a peak-stage immortal king who stood at her side.

"The eastern sea is sentient and there's a demon emperor guarding this place. For immortal kings and emperors, there would be a standalone passageway for them to enter." The immortal king replied. After Nanfeng Yunxi made a report back to the Southern Phoenix Clan, the clan sent another batch of holy maidens here to aid her, allowing them all to enter the City of Ancient Emperors together, witnessing the birth of legends if there were any.

As they spoke, they shuttled through the air. After entering the depths of the eastern sea, the ocean waves grew more and more violent, reaching tsunami sizes, terrifying to the extreme.

"There's someone there, they should be greater demons of the Desolate Mountains." At this moment, they glanced towards a direction. There was a group of expert sitting on a sun chariot that shone resplendently, made from pure gold. The sun flames evaporated the ocean waves, speeding forth with tyrannical speed.

At this moment, everyone discovered it. All of them turned their gazes over and stared in that direction. When Qin Wentian and the others stared at it, they felt that they were staring at the eye of the sun itself, terrifying to the extreme.

"They are experts from the Sun Gold Race, a super-variation bloodline formed from sun crows and the golden beast race." Qin Wentian's eyes saw through the illusion and discerned the identities of the experts mounted on the sun chariot.

“Very powerful,” A holy maiden immortal king of the Southern Phoenix Clan spoke. These demons were overbearing and tyrannical but they did have the strength to back it up. The strength level for some of the royal-faction greater demons, were equivalent to the peak powers of the immortal realms.

The sun chariot then increased in speed, shooting through the air with shocking speed, vanishing after a few moments.

“I’m filled with anticipation. I wonder how many supreme geniuses from the peak powers and Desolate Mountain Range would be in the City of Ancient Emperors.” There actually was a spring in Jun Mengchen’s step.

“It’s best to be careful after we enter the City of Ancient Emperors. Regardless of which power they are from, the geniuses there aren’t good to antagonize. Given that this was a chaotic era, slaughters would be even more direct, there are almost no rules in there.” A holy maiden reminded.

“Mhm, I understand. In the third-level of the City of Ancient Emperors, my strength should be considered one of the weaker ones. I will pay more attention to my safety when I’m fighting or competing with others.” Jun Mengchen understood her kind intentions as he nodded.

Their group continued and finally came to that stretch of destruction which they passed by before in the past. In this area, darkness enveloped everywhere. Black-colored streaks of destruction were swirling all over, and there were powerful bolts of lightning and thunder from the dark clouds in the air, capable of collapsing everything. Everyone released their law energy to form a barrier for protection.

“We will arrive soon.” Jun Mengchen’s eyes flashed. Back then, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Emperor sent him, Qin Wentian and Zi Qingxuan to this place. After that, the gigantic black dragon appeared and brought them into the City of Ancient Emperors, to the level meant for Celestial Phenomenon Ascendants.

“RUMBLE!”

A terrifying bolt of thunder bore down on everyone, imbued with the might of calamity, causing their bodies to jolt so much that they trembled. As expected, if one wasn’t at the immortal king level at the very least, they would definitely die here in this region of destruction. For juniors who wished to come to the City of Ancient Emperors, they would definitely need an immortal king or emperor to escort them. Hence, for the first level of the City of Ancient Emperors, the people there were all at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm and they all had extraordinary statuses.

Qin Wentian was staring at the ancient mountain peak which extended from the depths of the eastern sea all the way to the sky. Back then, Qin Wentian had once seen someone cultivating on the top of this ancient peak, borrowing the destructive energy to temper his body. Such a cultivation method was violent to the extreme, they had to endure the destructive blasts which damaged their body, in order to refine the energy for their body to grow stronger.

The rumbling sounds continued endlessly, as a windstorm that had the power to lacerate everything appeared. Nanfeng Yunxi's cultivation base was slightly weaker. She couldn't stand straight in these gusts of wind, and a peak-stage immortal king beside her was aiding her. Qin Wentian could also feel how terrifying the energy of this destructive storm was. Ordinary immortal kings would definitely find it hard to reach the end of this region.

"Senior holy maiden, back then it was the black dragon emperor that brought us into the city. How do immortal kings and immortal emperors enter?" Jun Mengchen asked.

"After you exit this area, an ancient path formed from laws leading to the City of Ancient Emperors would appear." That holy maiden who came here before, replied.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he spoke, "You guys go on ahead, I will cultivate here for a period of them before I enter."

Nanfeng Yunxi stared at Qin Wentian with concern, "This place is very dangerous, although your cultivation level is high, the destructive energy here isn't weak at all. It would pose a great danger to you."

It was clear she was worried for Qin Wentian. The trace of concern in her eyes caused the other holy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan to be somewhat taken aback.

"Don't worry, the energy here won't be able to do anything to me. Take care of yourselves, fairy maidens, all of you must be more cautious after you all enter the City of Ancient Emperors." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, he walked towards the black-colored gigantic peak. Nanfeng Yunxi started for a moment but she knew she had no way to persuade Qin Wentian. This fellow actually wanted to cultivate here.

"Senior brother, you be careful here too, we will make a move first." Jun Mengchen silently transmitted to Qin Wentian. Only him and a few others were aware of Qin Wentian's identity.

"You too." Qin Wentian replied. Jun Mengchen and the others continued, disappearing swiftly within this stretch of destruction. Qin Wentian came to the top of the black peak as he sat down cross-legged. He actually gradually released the defensive force field generated by his law energy.

"BOOM!" A thunderous explosion rang out as the destructive energy instantly blasted into him. Qin Wentian groaned as his body trembled. He closed his eyes as a strand of holy will appeared. In an instant, a golden runic light sprang up and covered his body. The golden runic light was formed from the Vajra holy will. This strand of buddhic energy then circulated around his body.

The fearsome winds wanted to slice Qin Wentian apart. After each successive blast of attack, the holy will baptized and refined Qin Wentian's body further, causing his body to glow with a faint golden light.

When he was in the Eastern Tomb, Qin Wentian had comprehended three types of holy will. The thin willow branch-like sword intent, the heavenly-suppression pagoda holy will, as well as the Vajra holy will.

The first two types were attack-based holy wills and Qin Wentian comprehended them quicker. As for the Vajra holy will, it took longer for him to gain any insights. This was a purely defensive-based holy will. Back then in the past, he killed many immortal kings from the Vajra Sect and took away their interspatial rings. From the items within, he learned of some information. This Vajra holy will was able to aid one in refining an undying body.

In this space that was colored grey by the powerful wind storms, the currents of destruction unceasingly blasted into Qin Wentian. He didn’t depend on a law energy barrier to protect him, but he chose to endure them with the help of the Vajra holy will to temper his body, wanting to refine it to an undying one. At this moment, a black bolt of lightning slammed into his head, tunnelling through his body. Qin Wentian groaned in agony as he spat out a mouthful of fresh blood but he didn’t move from his original spot. He still continued sitting there, the runic light around him grew even brighter, as did that faint golden color.

After several days, Qin Wentian was slowly getting used to the endless attacks. The runic golden light was like a web around him, and his body was much tougher than before. A strand of the Vajra holy will circulated protectively around him and gradually, Qin Wentian’s body was like a treasure, gleamingly golden, resembling the body of a golden buddha.

Such a body refinement method was truly brutal to the extreme. A few months later, the golden glow from him could already illuminate the sky. There was even a faint manifestation of a dharmic idol behind him that guarded him, increasing his defense so he could continue to endure it. The Vajra holy will seemed to have been refined to become a part of his body.

Qin Wentian then opened his eyes, a golden light could be seen gleaming within. Upon standing up, his body was like a golden ancient buddha, with runes flowing around him.

“My fleshly body is becoming more perfect. Right now, just with the defense of my body alone, I can endure extremely powerful attacks. My body will naturally also boost the strength of my own attacks.” Qin Wentian mumbled. After that, his silhouette flashed as he left the black mountain peak. At this moment, he no longer depended on law energy, but the defense of his body instead, allowing the currents of destruction to slam into him. They had no more effect on him.

Qin Wentian continued to advance and finally saw a bright light in the distance. An ancient path formed from the power of laws appeared. This pathway was able to traverse the different spaces, leading to the City of Ancient Emperors.

Back then when Qin Wentian was in the City of Ancient Emperors, he already learned that there were three levels here. Different cultivation realms would be sent to different levels. The dimensions they were in were naturally different as well.

With no hesitation, Qin Wentian directly stepped onto the ancient path as he continued ahead. The spatial fluctuations could be felt as Qin Wentian continued. He could feel himself being transported through space and finally, at the very end, he stepped out and exited the ancient pathway.

The next instant, Qin Wentian was floating in the air. That step had landed him into the City of Ancient Emperors.

“BOOM!” A fearsome law energy blasted into him, forcing Qin Wentian back. His eyes flashed and stared ahead in the distance as his expression froze.

Far ahead, the silhouettes of two supremely strong and gigantic characters could be seen. One was a human, the other a demon. The demonic beast had reverted into his true form, it was a silver demon ape whose body sparkled with a silvery glow. His roar shook the sky and his attacks caused his surroundings to crumble. The person fighting with him was a human in giant form, resembling a king of hell. His body flared with inextinguishable hell flames as his law domain covered the area, forming a miniature asura hell where everything in it would be destroyed.

“This man should be an expert from the Senluo Immortal Empire, a peak power of the central regions.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed.

He then stared in another direction only to see that there were other battles on-going, all the combatants were at the immortal king level.

A golden-colored great roc swiped out with its wing with a speed as fast as lightning. He was fighting against an immortal king with a divine bow in his hands. The immortal king glowed with a dazzling light, he let loose an arrow that broke through the void, capable of piercing everything. It actually ignored the distance and bored into the body of the golden roc. Despite the speed of the roc, that divine arrow was able to lock on to him. The golden roc could only use brute force to destroy the arrow.

“Golden-winged roc of the roc race, versus a supreme expert from the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire.”

Qin Wentian stared at that battle. There were many others spectating too. With a flash of his silhouette, he landed on the ground and came to the side of a female immortal king. He then asked, “What is going on here?”

“You should have just entered the city via the path of laws, right?” The female immortal king glanced at Qin Wentian as she smiled. “Right now in the city, such combat would occur many times throughout the day. With the geniuses here being as many as the clouds, all of them are keen to find out if they could stand at the pinnacle of their respective cultivation levels. If they could do so, they would undoubtedly become one of the candidates that might be an ancient emperor in the future. All ordinary immortal kings could only be mere spectators.”

Chapter 1463: The Era Has Changed

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. The competition in the City of Ancient Emperors was actually so intense?

He naturally understood, although this was the City of Ancient Emperors, this was no longer the level he was in before. This might be the third level, only immortal kings can enter here.

At this moment, Qin Wentian discovered a phenomenon. The immortal kings here all had faint glows of emperor-luster behind their backs. The four supreme experts fighting in the air had an even thicker aura of emperor-luster, sparkling in with a rainbow-like light, dazzling to the extreme.

"Emperor's Fate." The female immortal king had a look of anticipation on her face. "From the past till now, there were so many who entered the City of Ancient Emperors. Why did they come here?"

"Emperor's Fate, this is something like a stroke of fortune that can only be found in the third level of the City of Ancient Emperors. The stronger the Emperor's Fate is for someone, the more the destiny of an emperor would gather on that person. As the amount of Emperor's Fate turns corporeal, they would act as a key and open up some of the ancient secret realms within the third level. There's a rumor saying that some of the extraordinary innate techniques and secret arts currently circulating in the immortal realms, all originated from the City of Ancient Emperors. Right now, after the appearance of the sacred academy and Demongod Mountain, there's no doubt that a new era is coming. Most probably, rarely seen ultimate arts and techniques would reveal themselves here one after another, waiting for us to obtain them."

The eyes of the female immortal king gleamed brightly, "Enjoy this well. This era definitely won't disappoint you. In this era, ordinary immortal kings would be akin to nothing but ants. This would also be the era where the truly, supremely strong, rise to the nine heavens."

"Right now, does the entire immortal realms believe that this is the coming of the new era?" Qin Wentian mused in a low voice.

"Naturally, compared to countless years ago where the ancient emperors fought each other, the level of strength of our immortal realms has sunk to an unprecedented low. The appearance of the heavenly dao sacred academy is already a very good sign. That, followed by the appearance of the Demongod Mountain as well as some incredible transformations within the City of Ancient Emperors, there's no need to doubt that the new era is coming. There's even a rumor saying that these transformations in the city are purely because the birth of a new ancient emperor would come about in the near future. Maybe, the radiance of the former era would appear once more."

"There are even transformations and changes in the City of Ancient Emperors?" Qin Wentian felt his heart shaking. Seems like the coming of the new era had truly engulfed the entire immortal realms.

“Many thanks for the information.” Qin Wentian clasped his hands and thanked the female immortal king.

“No need to be so polite. Even if I didn’t tell you this, you would learn of it sooner or later. It’s just a minor effort to me, but naturally, if we were to fight against each other, I wouldn’t be so courteous.” The female immortal king smiled. Qin Wentian nodded, “Naturally.”

At this moment, one of the battles in the air ended. The immortal king from the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire continuously shot out divine arrows with boundless might, shooting down the golden roc, heavily injuring his opponent. Qin Wentian then saw that the Emperor’s Fate behind him grew brighter while the defeated party’s grew weaker.

“I’ll go and retrieve the authority scepter and control the divine residence first.” Qin Wentian silently mused. After that, he bid farewell to the female immortal king. In the past before he left the City of Ancient Emperors, he left behind a strand of his will, connecting him to the ancient scepter. The black dragon told him to come back again after his cultivation grew stronger, he would pass Qin Wentian the authority scepter then. This time around, the main reason he came back here was to acquire the authority scepter, which countless had failed to obtain before him.

Qin Wentian had no distractions in his heart, he sped towards a certain direction. On his journey there, he saw countless geniuses contending against each other. With battles of that level, the sky changed color as chaotic currents of energy filled the air. There were some supreme experts with an extremely high amount of Emperor’s Fate on them, glowing exceptionally resplendently. These were all undoubtedly supremely powerful characters.

He even saw some secret realms. On a certain towering stone pillar, an expert with brilliant amounts of Emperor’s Fate sat there, as though he had received a secret inheritance of some sorts and was basking in its mysterious energy. For a hundred mile radius around him, nobody was able to get near. Powerful law energy fluctuations flooded the area around the stone pillar, preventing the entry of others.

Different kinds of marvelous scenes appeared before his vision. Qin Wentian could tell that this level of the City of Ancient Emperors was truly extraordinary.

Finally, after many days later, he came to a stretch of desolation where a floating city in the sky could be seen. In the surroundings, there were many human experts and greater demons, but none could step on the ancient path of stars that led upwards.

“It’s closed off? Why is this pathway sealed?” Someone spoke with reluctance. This was a powerful expert with a monstrous amount of Emperor’s Fate. His eyes gleamed brightly as he stared with dissatisfaction at the pathway.

After sighing, his silhouette flashed as he left with disappointment. Even so, there were still many other powerful experts here waiting. They were all filled with unwillingness. Back then in the past when they came, this pathway was still open and they had the opportunity to take the trial. But now, it was actually sealed off.

“Senior black dragon promised to seal the path for me, he did not lie to me indeed.” Qin Wentian mused. He then continued forward, heading towards the ancient path.

“There’s no need to continue on, the path ahead is sealed. Nobody can enter.” An expert called out.

Qin Wentian acted like he didn’t hear it and continued forward. A cold smile appeared on that expert’s face but he didn’t say anything more. After that, As Qin Wentian stepped onto that ancient path, a radiant light flashed as the pathway opened up. Qin Wentian continued smoothly with no obstructions. The eyes of the other experts all gleamed with bright light as they all stared towards Qin Wentian.

“How can this be? Why can he enter?” Someone asked, as that person rushed towards the ancient path. However, the moment that person neared, the ancient pathway closed again, not allowing entry from the others.

“Who the hell is he?” Numerous sharp gazes stared at Qin Wentian, only to see him directly walking towards the entrance before he disappeared from their sights.

Nobody knew that Qin Wentian had directly reached the divine residence. Upon coming before that statue once more, he stared at the authority scepter in its hand as his eyes blazed with heat.

“You’ve come.” A voice rang out. A bright light flashed as the black dragon materialized behind him.

“Senior. Right now, I should have enough strength to take the scepter, right?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Just as what I’ve said, I did seal the pathway here. I’ve been waiting for you for a long time.” The black dragon calmly replied.

“Don’t need to thank me yet. I’m waiting here for you because of a reason. The thing I promised you back then, there’s actually still something I have to make clear to you. You temporarily cannot take away this scepter.” The black dragon spoke.

“Why?” Qin Wentian bewilderedly asked. “Right now, I’m already an immortal king. Am I still not qualified?”

“That’s not the case. If we go according to our past agreement, the you now is already qualified enough. However…” The black dragon slowly spoke as a bright light gleamed in his eyes. The divine statue grew brighter as the authority scepter glowed with a fearsome radiance. A moment later, Qin Wentian felt the strand of his will linking him to the scepter being forcibly removed. This caused his expression to change, becoming extremely unsightly.

“Senior, what do you mean by this? Why are things different now?” Qin Wentian furrowed his brows as he asked.

“You should know that right now in the external world, the winds and clouds are changing. The era is already different and hence, the rules have changed. Everything will start once again from the beginning. If you wish to take away the scepter, you have to prove your worth once again.” The black dragon calmly replied.

“You mean I should barge in from the path of stars and gain victory over the monsters in there once more?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Not really. You should contend against the geniuses here in the City of Ancient Emperors. When you gain the qualifications to return here, you will naturally understand everything.” The black dragon replied.

“Junior still doesn’t understand. In the past, I’ve already accomplished it. Senior has also promised it to me. Why did you change the rules so suddenly?” Qin Wentian frowned, feeling like he was played, extremely unhappy.

“You still don’t understand despite being outside of the City of Ancient Emperors for such a long time? Right now, the skies are changing, hence the rules are changing. For the three levels in here, there are many who failed the trial of the ancient path of stars. However, because of your lower cultivation base, you actually gained an advantage and succeeded. Things are different now, there are many supreme greater demons visiting the City of Ancient Emperors. If things were to be restarted, you have to contend against them to prove yourself.”

The black dragon slowly continued, “Naturally, given your extraordinary bloodline as well as the fact that you did break through to the immortal king realm within such a short period of time, there’s no need to doubt your outstanding talent. I just want you to contend again once more to gain the qualifications.”

“I pushed past the obstacles and encountered numerous dangers in the past, finally to reach the end-point and gained the inheritance here. Yet, senior wants to brush off my past efforts and tell me to restart just like this? Shouldn’t the inheritance belong to me since I’ve already gained the rights to it back then in the past? I still don’t understand. What is this scepter exactly?” Qin Wentian’s voice turned cold. Back then when he fought his way through the path of stars, things were truly not easy.

Wanting someone who passed through all that to restart once again? This meant that the black dragon was directly removing the qualifications which he earned before. How could anyone not be angered?

“Hmph, why must you be so stubborn?” The black dragon’s voice was filled with unhappiness. “The era is already different, many supreme characters have appeared. If you are confident, you should contend against all of them and prove that you are at the very peak.”

“I understand now. Senior believes that although my talent is good, there will definitely be other supreme geniuses appearing in this new era, There might be some among them who can surpass me, and this is the reason why you removed my qualifications, asking me to start again from the starting point. Isn’t this so?” Qin Wentian directly spoke.

“That’s right.” The black dragon replied bluntly.

“Can junior ask what is the scepter exactly? Actually causing senior to act in this manner. Back then, the ancient emperors all came here to this city, was it truly only for the sake of gaining control of this divine residence?” Qin Wentian asked again.

“This scepter is a dao element. It isn’t an inheritance belonging to this world. This is the reason why I have to be so strict in my selection. As for the rumors about an ancient emperor being born in this era, you can choose to believe in that or not. You will know the truth sooner or later. You can leave now.” The black dragon issued a guest-expulsion order.

“Fine. Junior bids my farewell. Senior, you can send me out.” At this moment, Qin Wentian actually became calm instead.

The black dragon breathed out and in an instant, Qin Wentian felt the law energy enveloping him. At the next moment, he was sent out from the divine residence and appeared outside the ancient pathway.

“He came out.” Many people turned towards Qin Wentian, feeling extremely puzzled. What happened exactly.

“The ancient path has opened once again.” At this moment, sounds of exclamation rang out.

However, Qin Wentian no longer bothered, he didn’t plan to step upon the ancient path of stars again. Turning his back to this, he departed the area, not sparing it another glance.

Divine residence, authority scepter… Are these dao elements of another world?

They are not inheritances from this world, this means that the City of Ancient Emperors might hold the key as well as secrets of the other immortal realms. These inheritances must have broken through from the endless void, arriving here to select their inheritors.

No wonder ancient emperors would come here in the past and fight for these treasures. There must be a grand secret hidden here in the City of Ancient Emperors.

However, even if this was true, so what about it?

The inheritance might be from another world, but does this really give the black dragon the right to remove his qualifications? Wanting him to restart again, contending with the others?

Since this is the case, he didn’t want it any longer.

Qin Wentian raised his head and stared at the City of Ancient Emperors that contained countless secrets. He came here for the scepter but he didn’t expect that this would be the ending.

Just because…the era was different? Could it be that he couldn’t be able to ascend all the way to the peak just because this was a different era?!

Chapter 1464: Massacre

Qin Wentian left with great strides, not turning his head back.

“Sir, please stay.” At this moment, a voice rang out from behind him. An expert appeared behind him. With a step, he stepped before Qin Wentian and blocked his path.

“What’s the matter?” Qin Wentian frowned, his expression cold. His mood wasn’t very good now, and this person was actually so rude, directly blocking him.

“Sir, I wish to ask you why could you enter the floating city. What is inside there? Did you receive any inheritance?” This expert asked, filled with curiosity with regards to Qin Wentian. Not only him, but there were also several experts who sped over after that, all of them waiting for Qin Wentian to reply.

“No comment. Please get out of my way.” Qin Wentian continued forward, wanting to walk past that immortal king.

However, that person shifted his body, and continued blocking Qin Wentian. “You better explain everything clearly.”

“That’s right, we are all very curious.” Behind him, more and more experts arrived. They all wanted to know if Qin Wentian obtained anything from within.

It was rumored that the floating city was a place of inheritances. In fact, there had been many immortal emperors who wanted to enter. And right now, Qin Wentian actually succeeded, entering and exiting there easily. They naturally wanted some clear answers.

“My apologies. I won’t be able to satisfy your curiosity.” Qin Wentian continued moving forward. The person blocking him released a vast and powerful aura, he was a mid-stage immortal king and he was now staring at Qin Wentian like how a desolate beast would stare at prey.

Upon seeing this scene, Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with coldness. A resplendent runic light began to circulate around him, gleaming golden, akin to the body of a vajra. Stepping out tyrannically, he ignored the immortal king and directly continued.

“Choosing the forfeit instead of drinking the offered toast.” That person coldly snorted. With a thunderous shout, a beast imprint was blasted out, smashing towards Qin Wentian.

“RUMBLE!” The terrifying attack blasted into Qin Wentian yet it failed to injure him in the slightest. After that, Qin Wentian drew his sword and slashed out with it, tearing the heavens and earth asunder. With a swishing sound, that person was directly sliced into two. Qin Wentian didn’t stop moving, directly stepping past the corpse. The experts behind him all froze when they saw this. Fear could now be seen in their eyes as raging waves of emotions rocked their hearts.

Behind Qin Wentian, a strand of emperor’s fate was birthed. Although it was still weak, it was still resplendent. Clearly, Qin Wentian was an extraordinary individual.

There was no change to his expression as he continued on his way, preparing to head to the central region of the City of Ancient Emperors.

He didn’t know how many secrets there were here exactly or what the ancient emperors of the past eras wanted to obtain. He also had no interest knowing what existences these so-called dao elements from the other immortal realms are.

However, since the black dragon told him to start again, breaking his promise. Qin Wentian decided that he would open up a path that belonged solely to him in this City of Ancient Emperors. Now, the inheritance had forsaken him. In the future when he reached the peak, even when the inheritance delivered itself to him, he would also choose to forsake it.

Soaring into the air, Qin Wentian’s steps were incomparably resolute. There were still other battles occurring, and occasionally, there would be bright beams of light shooting down from the sky, as though there were treasures that came here from other realms.

At this moment, Qin Wentian paused his steps. He inclined his head and stared in the air. Over there, there was a supreme immortal king fighting against quite a few royal greater demons of the desolate mountain range, incomparably extraordinary. In the vast surroundings, there were many immortal kings spectating the battle.

“The crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty is extraordinary indeed. Look at how vast his emperor’s fate is. The radiance from it can illuminate the skies.”

“Hua Yunsheng’s cultivation base is at the initial-phase of the peak-stage immortal king realm. He is a natural king, with an extremely rare physique that only appears once every ten thousand years. Look at the amount of emperor’s fate behind him. Even the three greater demons joining forces are suppressed by him. He is simply too strong.”

“He’s really powerful. Given his talent, he might have the potential to contend for a chance of becoming an ancient emperor.” Someone spoke.

As they were speaking, the emperor’s fate behind Hua Yunsheng grew more and more resplendent, flourishing at every moment. Qin Wentian glanced over as his eyes gleamed with a bright light.

The four combatants were still locked in battle. Hua Yunsheng has not gained victory yet but the mere act of gaining the worship and respect of others was able to cause one's emperor's fate to intensify?

Very swiftly, an ancient ultimate killing imprint blasted out, piercing through one of the bodies of the greater demons. In that instant, the emperor's fate behind Hua Yunsheng expanded once again, giving validation to Qin Wentian's conjectures.

Combat can greatly increase one's amount of emperor's fate. Those who were admired by others, receiving their adoration and reverence, could also increase their emperor's fate. This was too mystical.

"Crown prince Yunsheng was born extraordinary with outstanding talent. He can create ancient imprints and use them in his attacks, transforming them into heavy tidal waves that can crush anything. Although those three demons are powerful, they are far from being an opponent for the crown prince. They will be killed for sure." An expert from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty spoke with arrogance, helping Hua Yunsheng to garner more admiration.

"BOOM!"

At this moment in the air, a giant sun blasted down. In just an instant, the entire battlefield was enveloped by sun laws, capable of incinerating everything. Hua Yunsheng's eyes flickered. He gave up the fight with the three other demons and glanced up in the air. He then coldly asked, "Which vile beast is it now?"

As the sound of his voice faded, a sun chariot appeared. Within it, a young man clad in sun armor could be seen. His eyes gleamed with fire as he calmly commanded, "The three of you retreat."

As the sound of his voice faded, the three greater demons fighting against Hua Yunsheng actually obediently retreated to one side. An imprint was manifested by Hua Yunsheng, containing a majestic might as he blasted it towards the young man in the chariot.

However, at the exact same instant, numerous sun spears erupted forth from the void, directly shattering the imprint.

The chariot continued speeding forward as the young man within it stood up. Upon stepping out, a gigantic sun could be seen behind him, powering his attacks as he stabbed out with his spear. Streams of chaotic energy ran rampant, his spear was capable of penetrating everything.

Hua Yunsheng howled in rage, blasting out with thousands of imprints, each of them exuding boundless might. However, the burning energy from the spear incinerated everything and shot right through Hua Yunsheng's head, directly killing him in an incomparably domineering manner. There was no hesitation at all, despite the fact that the target was the crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

“This…” The hearts of the spectators pounded wildly. After that, they only saw the demonic young man turning and moving back to his chariot, coldly regarding everything beneath. The emperor’s fate behind him grew as radiant as the sun. After that, the chariot galloped through the distance as he departed the area. Even when he had left, the emperor’s fate behind him only grew brighter and brighter.

“It’s him, he must be one of those who stands at the absolute peak of the immortal king realm.” The hearts of everyone pounded rapidly.

Among immortal kings, there were some unrivalled and extremely dazzling characters. They might have only been here for a short while but their names have already shaken the City of Ancient Emperors. The emperor’s fate they collected was incomparable to others. Earlier, that demonic young man from the Gold Sun Race was precisely one of these people.

These people were too ruthless and tyrannical. Naturally, they were also extremely powerful.

Qin Wentian glanced at the departing chariot. Before he arrived in the City of Ancient Emperors, he had personally seen that there was a number of experts on this particular sun chariot. However, right now, there was only a single person on it. Clearly, after entering the City of Ancient Emperors, the demons of the gold sun race had split up and proceeded independently, sweeping everything underneath their feet.

Only to see that right now at this moment, many experts were flying over to here, with the huge majority being experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. Their expressions were all ashen, incomparably ugly to behold. The crown prince was killed.

Other than this, there were also some of their allied friends, experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire, and Paragon Sword Sect came by too.

“To think that the crown prince was killed. He was simply too unlucky, everyone, condolences.” An expert from the Skymist Immortal Empire spoke.

“That greater demon is too powerful, launching a sneak attack to divert his attention from the other fight. It wasn’t because the crown prince was weak, but his opponent was too despicable. In any case, there are many other experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, including other crown prince characters. If there’s a chance to, you guys must definitely seek the Gold Sun Race out for revenge.”

“The demons of the desolate mountains are too tyrannical. My Paragon Sword Sect won’t stand on the fence and watch neutrally. This time around, many peak-stage immortal kings of our sect have entered here, there are even supreme geniuses among them. I will send out the information and in the future, if they encounter that earlier greater demon, they will engage him in combat and might have a chance to avenge Crown Prince Yunsheng.”

“There’s also Crown Prince Wushuang of my Skymist Immortal Empire. Don’t worry, there’s definitely a chance for revenge.”

Everyone consoled the experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, while not forgetting to boast about some of their experts.

“Let’s go, there are already many immortal kings gathering at Zi Daolong’s side, watching him fighting against some devil cultivators. After finishing them off, he might fight some of the greater demons from the desolate mountains.”

Qin Wentian, who was on the ground, couldn’t help but to sneer when he heard these arrogant words by these initial-stage and mid-stage immortal kings. He couldn’t be bothered with them and continued on his way.

“Huh?” The senses of immortal kings were all extremely astute. They heard the sneer and turned their heads over, staring at Qin Wentian as killing intent flickered in their eyes. “Stop there.”

More people turned to Qin Wentian. After that, they recognized him as the Saber-Sword Immortal King whom they encountered before in the Gazing Emperor City. This person was extremely domineering back then, completely having no regards for them.

Qin Wentian couldn’t be bothered and continued walking away. However, at this moment, a sharp sword intent slashed before him. Qin Wentian lifted his palm and crushed that strand of sword intent as he turned about, his eyes flickering with an extremely cold light.

“Before this in the Gazing Emperor City, your words were too arrogant. Now that we encountered you here, there’s no need for you to leave any more.” An expert walked towards Qin Wentian, exuding killing intent.

“Finish him!” The immortal kings from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty all had anger in their eyes, they wanted to vent their frustrations by killing Qin Wentian.

They had so many immortal kings here, killing Qin Wentian was naturally easily done.

The immortal king that was moving towards Qin Wentian was from the Paragon Sword Sect. Flicking his fingers outwards, the sky dimmed as a sword might gushed forward.

“You guys don’t dare to pursue that greater demon in the sun chariot but are now all boasting about the geniuses from your sects and clans? Right now, you all even want to kill me to vent your emotions?” Qin Wentian icily asked. Stepping through the air, he similarly slashed out with his sword. A supreme beam of sword light slashed down from the sky, breaking apart the defenses of the Paragon Sword Sect’s expert like a hot knife through butter, splitting him into twain mercilessly.

He then continued. His movements were akin to a great roc, quick to the extreme. Another sword slashed out as his sword intent flooded the area. Another swishing sound could be heard as an immortal king from the Skymist Immortal Empire was beheaded by a horizontal slash.

“Since you guys believe that all of you are extraordinary and lofty individuals, I will give you all a chance to prove yourselves.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke, his killing intent rising into the sky. The spectators in the surroundings all felt their hearts and minds shuddering when they heard that!

Chapter 1465: Tyrannical Sword Might

The anger in Qin Wentian’s heart was going to be vented upon these people. The people from the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect long had a death grudge with him and now, they still wanted to antagonize him. Since this was so, he would give them a massacre.

Since the black dragon said that the era has changed and there were countless geniuses in the City of Ancient Emperors. He had to start all over again to prove his qualifications, and he would use his identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King to war against the others until the heavens shook.

“Kill him.” The experts from the Paragon Sword Sect and the Skymist Immortal Empire instantly surrounded Qin Wentian. The auras they unleashed were extremely fearsome and different law domains engulfed the area. In an instant, the sky changed color with streams of chaotic and destructive energy all around him. Qin Wentian was akin to being at a location that seemed like a scene out of the apocalypse.

Boundless runic light sprang up around Qin Wentian, the vajra holy will had refined his body. Slashing out with his sword and saber, he opened up an entire world as his devil might transformed into a demonic dragon, shaking the skies. The attacks from the experts blasted relentlessly into him yet they couldn’t break the defense of his body.

“What physique does he have? Why is his defense so strong?” Everyone spoke with shock. Those immortal kings that were launching the attacks felt their hearts shuddering.

Slashing out with his saber, the void split apart. The attack was like a thunderbolt, cleaving towards an immortal king. That immortal king screamed as a sword formation instantly sprang up around him. However, Qin Wentian grabbed out with his palms as a suppressive might crushed all resistance, shattering the sword formation.

“SLASH!” The saber cleaved down, transforming into a vermillion bird that finished off his opponent. The sword in his right hand arced through the sky as his boundless and supreme sword intent formed a sword qi river, slashing another immortal king into two.

“This…”

The short combat caused all the immortal kings in the surroundings to have great waves of fear in their hearts. Such combat prowess was simply too terrifying right? The emperor’s fate behind him continued growing strong, brighter and brighter.

Wielding both a sword and a saber, his magnificence knew no bounds. Standing amidst so many immortal kings, his body was like an indestructible one, there were no attacks that could break through his defenses. Every time he slashed out with his weapons, an immortal king would die. In the blink of an eye, the immortal kings surrounding him all stepped back as they turned ashen. Their hearts were all trembling and one of them spoke. “Let’s leave!”

As the sound of his voice faded, these surviving immortal kings actually no longer dared to battle and were preparing to flee.

Qin Wentian glanced at the first person who turned and flee, he immediately slashed out with his sword as a beam of sword light formed from his sword intent pierced right through the opponent, killing him.

“Have you gone mad, you actually dare to kill those of us from the peak powers?” An immortal king roared in rage.

Qin Wentian’s expression was incomparably calm, he continued slashing out with a sword. That person who spoke now had a split in the center of his forehead. He then fell down to the ground, dead.

These people were truly ridiculous, they wanted to kill him before this and now they were asking him how dare he kill them who were from the peak powers?

“You will definitely die without a burial place.” The lone surviving immortal king cursed venomously. His gaze that was staring at Qin Wentian, felt like he was staring at a devil. This person was simply a god of slaughter. There was only massacre in his eyes.

“Puchi!”

A light sound rang out, the remaining immortal king was mercilessly slain.

Those experts who moved against him from the Paragon Sword Sect, Skymist Immortal Empire and Taihua Immortal Dynasty were all killed ruthlessly, no mercy was shown at all. This was simply a shocking sight.

“Mad man.” Everyone stared at that magnificent figure wielding a sword and a saber. They didn’t expect that this man would actually be so audacious and crazy. Although the other immortal kings wanted to kill him first, his response was actually so ruthless, killing them all and disregarding all consequences.

Before this, in the City of Ancient Emperors, everyone would show mercy when they fought. After all, the people who could come in here were all experts from major powers. No one would dare to be too overbearing.

But now, an expert from the Gold Sun Race directly killed a crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. Not only that, this Saber-Sword Immortal King even slaughtered so many experts from the peak powers. Wasn’t the situation here a little too crazy?

The lives of immortal kings seemed as worthless as weeds, their corpses littered the ground.

Behind Qin Wentian, his emperor’s fate glowed with a blinding light. Still wielding his sword and saber, he turned his gaze to his surroundings. None of the immortal kings who were spectating earlier dared to match his gaze. His silhouette flashed and he started to clean up the battlefield. After killing so many immortal kings, they would definitely have many treasures on their bodies. It was best not to waste them.

“How ruthless. This time around, the Paragon Sword Sect and the others will definitely cough out blood from the losses.” Many people silently mused.

“Why are there no peak-stage immortal kings?” Qin Wentian glanced at the crowd as he asked.

“Also, they said Zi Daolong was fighting some devil cultivators? What’s going on with that?” Qin Wentian continued asking.

“There’s a large battle today, concerning many powers of the immortal realms against a female devil lord and her forces from the Myriad Devil Islands.” Someone replied.

“Give me a rundown.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Things should be started by the female devil cultivator. Although her cultivation base isn’t high, her status seems to be extremely high and it’s said that she is female priestess from a supreme power within the devil islands, the Judiciary Devil Hall if I’m not mistaken. After entering the City of Ancient Emperors, she started to lead her forces to hunt down Zi Daolong and his allies. Both sides had numerous clashes and at the end, Zi Daolong led the eastern alliance, wanting to vanquish this female devil.” That person explained. “As for the reason why this was ignited, Qin Wentian of the eastern regions is the main cause. But as to why he is the cause, I’m not too clear about it.”

“RUMBLE!” Qin Wentian’s aura grew incomparably cold, gushing forth in waves.

“Bai Qing…” Qin Wentian silently mused. At this moment, how could he still not understand that that little lass Bai Qing had come to the City of Ancient Emperors. The reason for her acting against Zi Daolong, was clearly to take revenge for him.

Back then on the Demongod Mountain, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor launched an attack from the void. The Violet Emperor was present as well and this wasn’t any great secret. Many major powers knew about this and there were plenty of people who thought that Qin Wentian was already dead. When Bai Qing learned of this, she was completely infuriated. She wanted to hunt down Zi Daolong for his sake.

“Where are they fighting at?” Qin Wentian asked.

“That direction.” That immortal king pointed to the distance. Qin Wentian turned and directly stepped out, speeding there. His immortal sense also extended outwards as he flew away.

From a certain direction, a burst of killing intent shot over. Boundless sword might gushed forth, causing the sky to change color. The spectators all had fear on their faces, what a powerful aura. Was a peak-stage immortal king coming here?

“How terrifying.” The sword intent was too powerful, engulfing this area. The sky dimmed, turning into night, as sparking astral energy manifested star swords, blotting out the sky. Over there, a peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect could be seen. Although he was only at the initial-phase of the peak-stage, he is undoubtedly a supreme genius with fearsome combat prowess. His gaze was like swords, radiating sharpness as he stared at Qin Wentian.

“How swift. This Saber-Sword Immortal King is in for it, he will die for sure.” Many people mused.

The combat prowess of this Saber-Sword Immortal King was unparalleled but he is only a mid-stage immortal king. The person who came was actually a peak-stage immortal king. If this newcomer was an ordinary immortal king, there might still be a chance for the Saber-Sword Immortal King to fight against him. However, this man was a peak-stage immortal king from one of the peak powers. Star swords floated in the air, each of them had power equivalent to paragon swords.

“Daring to kill experts from my Paragon Sword Sect? For those who have a connection with you, I shall exterminate all of them.” That peak-stage immortal king coldly spoke. Pointing his finger at Qin Wentian, the star swords started increasing in speed as they shot over, surrounding his target. Qin Wentian was at the center where the sword might was the most intense.

The surrounding spectators all retreated, wanting to avoid that fearsome sword intent. All of them couldn’t help but to pity Qin Wentian, feeling that he was really unfortunate to meet with such a powerful opponent.

The star swords buried the area Qin Wentian was in. In that instant, runic light sprang up around Qin Wentian as his body gleamed golden. Not only so, his own sword intent started to circulate around him, forming a protective screen of swords. His eyes peered at his opponent as he clutched his sword and saber tightly, radiating a fearsome aura.

“Bzz!”

The thousand of star swords attacked, wanting to destroy everything. The spectators could only sigh. Under such overwhelming might, there was no way for Qin Wentian to reverse the situation. There was no way for him to block this attack, it was simply too violent.

“BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!” The star swords slashed down. That peak-stage immortal king stood arrogantly in the air as he stared at everyone. “Anyone knows who this person is or which power he is from?”

Qin Wentian actually dared to kill people from his Paragon Sword Sect. Since this is the case, he shall return the favor and wipe out everyone from Qin Wentian’s sect.

Everyone didn’t know what to reply. But at this moment, at the center of the field of destruction, a surge of sword intent that didn’t belong to this peak-stage immortal king gushed forth. The spectators turned their gazes over only to see a mighty sword intent rampaging through everything, ripping apart the enemy’s energy.

Qin Wentian’s figure appeared once more. He was protected by the screen of swords he conjured and stood there unmoving while staring arrogantly at everything.

“This…” The immortal kings around all couldn’t believe their eyes. How can this person be so powerful? Even the peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect couldn’t do anything to him? Not being able to break through his defenses?

What sort of existence was this Saber-Sword Immortal King exactly?

“Mhm?” That peak-stage immortal king frowned as a look of puzzlement appeared on his face. How can this be, his all-out attack actually failed to kill this man? Did Qin Wentian have some sort of supreme defensive treasure?

“Your sword. Is it even worthy to call it a paragon sword?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, he raised his hand and slashed out with his sword.

At the instant this sword strike appeared, a sword qi river manifested, destroying the star swords completely.

The expression of the peak-stage immortal king drastically changed. He instantly used his sword intent to protect himself. When the sword qi river gushed forth, the towering sword intent within completely erupted, blasting a hole through his body. Under such a supreme sword might, there was no way for him to defend at all. His body was ripped apart to nothingness.

That sword river dissipated, but the peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect had already disappeared, dead beyond a doubt by a single strike.

The emperor’s fate behind Qin Wentian grew even more dazzling. The spectators nearby were all dumbfounded as they panted in disbelief.

A peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect actually died by a single strike?

The man who killed him, was the Saber-Sword Immortal King!

Chapter 1466: Intent to Kill

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King. Why have I never heard of him?"

"Such a magnificent character, he shouldn't be nameless. His fame should be enough to shake an entire region."

"Being able to kill a peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect. This man's combat prowess might be among the most outstanding of those who stand at the peak. If his cultivation base was higher, he would definitely be able to truly compete with those elites."

Many thoughts flashed through the minds of the crowd, all of them shocked by Qin Wentian. The emperor's fate behind Qin Wentian grew even more dazzling. Clearly, the immortal kings here now all respected him, he had absorbed their faith and belief in him, causing his emperor's fate to intensify. In addition to his awesome battle achievements, his emperor's fate had already exceeded many people in the City of Ancient Emperors. Even that peak-stage immortal king earlier didn't have emperor's fate that was brighter than Qin Wentian.

At this moment, Qin Wentian directly departed, soaring into the distance as he vanished completely after a few short moments.

Right now, exclamations rang out loud in this space where he was in.

"Everyone, did any of you hear the name of the Saber-Sword Immortal King before?" Someone curiously asked.

"Nope."

"No, I wonder which region he is from."

Everyone started discussing, feeling very surprised. To think that there was actually no one who has heard of him before.

"Seems like the rumor circulating around the world is true. The era has changed, we can be sure of this point just seeing the circumstances in the City of Ancient Emperors. Now, with the gathering of so many geniuses here, the ones standing at the end would definitely be extraordinary figures. I wonder how many of these characters would appear, able to reign supreme through the City of Ancient Emperors." Someone mumbled in a low voice.

"Yeah. That crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty was killed so easy. That peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect also died by a single sword strike. So many immortal kings ganged up on the Saber-Sword Immortal King yet they all died and he wasn't even injured. The situation in the City of Ancient Emperors now is completely different from the past, things are really too crazy. All of us might be immortal kings, even rulers of some areas in the immortal realms. But now, our strength is truly insufficient compared to them." Another expert silently mused. Although they were immortal kings, they couldn't help feeling insignificant in comparison.

"That's right. Seems like for this journey to the City of Ancient Emperors, the vast majority of us can only be spectators, watching to see the rise of those true supreme experts."

All of them had different emotions. During these days in the City of Ancient Emperors, all of them could feel that the era has changed. The immortal realms will welcome a new era.

Qin Wentian didn't know what the others thought of him. Right now, he was rushing ahead, flying with lightning speed. His movements were like a great roc as he arced through the sky, the only thought in his mind was the safety of Bai Qing.

Bai Qing came from the Myriad Devil Islands, after arriving here, she started to hunt Zi Daolong. All this was done for his sake. That little lass's personality has never changed, always giving her all for him behind his back.

The son of the Violet Emperor, Zi Daolong, was not an ordinary character. In addition, many powers in the east have long formed an alliance. Upon thinking of so many powers facing off against Bai Qing, how could Qin Wentian not be worried?

Finally, Qin Wentian saw that ahead of him, numerous palaces existed. The experts here were as many as the clouds, each standing in different locations. In the center, there was a gigantic battlefield where multiple immortal kings were fighting. Devil might churned wildly inside there, and violet qi ran rampant, with sword qi also permeating the area.

"Little Qing." Qin Wentian stared at the battlefield as his eyes landed on a group of devil cultivators. Up ahead, at the front of those people, a figure exuding magnificence with a blood-red crown on her head could be seen. A veil masked her features but Qin Wentian could tell that this was none other than Bai Qing. Indeed, she has arrived.

"Even the damnable monk has come." Qin Wentian glanced over at another direction and saw Bujie. Right now, Bujie had long flowing black hair and there were many experts around him, protecting his safety. "Seems like this fellow is doing very well for himself in the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall." Qin Wentian silently mused. At the next moment, he noticed a gaze trained on him, it was actually none other than Bujie. As someone who practiced the buddhist-path, Bujie's senses were extraordinarily sharp, he could sense that Qin Wentian had glanced at him, and hence, he looked back. His eyes shone with a faint golden luster, wanting to see through the void, prying through the mysterious person staring at him.

However, Qin Wentian's robes and mask were too powerful. Their concealment abilities were too strong for Bujie to unravel at his current cultivation level. Bujie only had a look of bewilderment on his face before he finally shifted his eyes away, continuing to pay attention to the battlefield.

Qin Wentian then glanced towards those figures fighting against Bai Qing. As expected, it was none other than Zi Daolong and his allies. There were experts from the Paragon Sword Sect, Skymist Immortal Empire and others from their alliance.

In the past, inside the City of Ancient Emperors, Mo Xie slew Zi Daoyang. The Violet Emperor couldn't manage to get ahold of Mo Xie and decided to transfer his anger onto Qin Wentian, commanding Zi Daolong to head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Southern Phoenix Clan to capture him. After that, this debt wasn't cleared yet and the hatred between both sides only grew deeper and deeper.

"Bujie, as someone from the Askheart Temple, not only did you return to the secular world, you actually became a devil cultivator instead, giving up on yourself. As one of the three most outstanding monks of the Askheart Temple in this generation, you chose to embrace the devil. What place does the Askheart Temple have in your heart?" An expert glanced at Bujie and coldly spoke. It was none other than an immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, a power that is situated in the central regions, the same as the Askheart Temple.

Bujie's strength was extraordinary. Only the three most outstanding monks from the Askheart Temple could wander the immortal realms every generation. One can say that he is someone heavily nurtured by the Askheart Temple. Yet now, he actually became a devil cultivator and was protected by them. Wasn't this simply disgraceful?

"In the temple, my master and senior brothers guided me by telling me to experience all joys and sorrows in life. I have to travel ten thousand miles, comprehending the obscure thing that is human nature. By joining the devils, it's also considered a type of life experience. I'm merely following the instructions by my master and senior brothers. By seeing through the difference between buddha and the devil, only then can I see past all illusions, focusing the devotion of my heart towards buddha entirely."

What sort of character was Bujie? He was an extremely shameless one! Wanting to talk about logic with him? How could anyone win a war of words against him? Let alone, his shamelessness was something feared even by Qin Wentian.

"By falling so low and joining the devil-path, you still can speak with so much self-righteousness. You are simply the shame of the buddhist-path." That expert from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire coldly replied.

"Once, I've also considered whether my actions would go against the buddhist-path. However, after many days of comprehension, I finally understood the essence of the buddhist-path. As the adage has it, if I don't enter hell, who will? By entering the devil-path, I can fully understand it. If I can convert the entire Myriad Devil Islands, wouldn't that be a meritorious deed to the whole world? This is then the major path all buddhist practitioners should take. For this, I wouldn't mind sacrificing my reputation." Bujie's voice was solemn as he spoke with a straight face. His shamelessness has completely reached another level. Even the ancestors of the buddhist-path would bow down in gratitude to him when they heard his words.

"What a glib tongue. Someone like you joining the buddhist-path is truly the greatest joke under the heavens." The immortal king rudely replied.

“I heard that you meditate often in closed-door seclusion, sitting on a prayer mat and worked assiduously for many years before having the achievements you have today. Right now, even the mat you were sitting on in close-door seclusion already has a weird smell to it.” Bujie calmly spoke, suddenly changing the topic to something seemingly irrelevant. This caused the immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire to start. “What do you mean?”

Buije placed his palms together, as he calmly spoke with the bearing of a sage, “You sitting on the prayer mat, naturally has nothing to do with me.”

That expert froze, he still didn’t understand. But at this moment, the sound of a laughter quickly suppressed could be heard. Someone in the crowd understood.

“Nothing much.” That person closed his mouth, not daring to say anything more. But at this moment, another voice rang out, “You meditating on the praying mat and a weird smell is born? That’s naturally something to do with your farting problems. Hahaha, what a great joke.”

All the experts froze, there were some who were even peppered with faces full of black lines. They stared at Bujie. This monk…even when he is cursing at someone, his words were so filled with philosophical theory.

The face of that immortal king alternated between shades of green and white. He stared at Bujie. Bujie’s meaning was clear. About his joining the devil-path, even the Askheart Temple didn’t care about it. What the hell has this got to do with him, a random person from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

When they were conversing, the experts on both sides retreated to their own camps, neither could do anything to the other. There were a few people injured but their auras were still as violent as ever as they stared daggers at their opponents.

“I’ve never offended any powers in the Myriad Devil Islands. As the judiciary priestess, you actually want to deal with me for the sake of Qin Wentian. If the Judiciary Devil Hall learns of this, they probably wouldn’t allow you to act so rashly. Seems like the words from the mouths of people of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were right. Qin Wentian must be your secret lover. What a joke, the priestess of the esteemed Judiciary Devil Hall has a lover that’s an immortal cultivator? Such a ridiculous thing can actually happen. The Judiciary Devil Hall is truly an interesting place.”

Zi Daolong coldly spoke, mocking Bai Qing.

Before this, Bai Qing brought her forces to hunt him and he had no idea why she was doing so. After that, when he met with the people from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, only then did he learn of the information that back then during the adjudication battle, the priestess of the Judiciary Devil Hall, Bai Qing, was actually an acquaintance of Qin Wentian. This matter was known to everyone who was on the devil mountain then.

Hence, Zi Daolong finally understood why these devil cultivators wanted to deal with him.

When Qin Wentian heard Zi Daolong insulting Bai Qing, an extremely cold light gleamed in his eyes. However, Bai Qing's expression didn't change. She was as cold as ever as she stared at Zi Daolong.

"Your father is a peak-stage immortal king yet he actually sneaked attacked a junior that's so much younger than you. Everyone in the world knows about this. No matter how interesting the Judiciary Devil Hall is, it would never be as shameless as your dear father." Bujie laughed loudly. Zi Daolong's eyes flickered with violet light, he stared at Bai Qing and Bujie as he spoke, "Qin Wentian is too rebellious and disrespectful of the elder generations, he has to die for sure. Right now, I wonder where he is hiding at, struggling like a maggot on death's door. If he dares to appear, I will definitely finish him off. As for you people who want to take the initiative to act for him, you all can fight with me one on one. I will accept all challenges."

"You are a peak-stage immortal king yet you want to fight one-on-one with us?" Bujie stared at Zi Daolong as he spoke. "As expected, the son is like the father, one more shameless than the other."

"As long as I'm alive, I will definitely kill you." An icy voice rang out, spoken by Bai Qing, her tone filled with an immense resolution. As long as she was alive, she would spare no expense to hunt down Zi Daolong, regardless of the methods she had to use.

Zi Daolong's eyes narrowed, gleaming with violet light. He glanced at the surrounding experts and spoke, "Everyone, these devil cultivators have always been ruthless, they can be even crueller than the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range. Our immortal realms have always been in opposition with them. Why don't we take this chance and slaughter them all?"

Translation Note:

* Bujie is making a pun. 关你屁事 can be translated to what has this got to do with you? Or more literally, it can be loosely translated to, 'your farting matters.'

Chapter 1467: Chaotic Battle Among Immortal Kings

Many experts turned silent when they heard Zi Daolong's words. These were all immortal kings, how would they be swayed so easily.

Although the immortal realms and Myriad Devil Islands have always been in opposition, this was clearly just a grudge between Zi Daolong himself and the Judiciary Devil Hall of the devil islands. They wouldn't be so foolish as to be implicated and interfere within.

"That's right. Everyone, we are all heroes from the immortal realms. This time, the people of the judiciary hall of the Myriad Devil Islands are acting so arrogantly in the City of Ancient Emperors and want to hunt down one of our fellow members. In order to remove all future sources of trouble, we should band together and kill them now to prevent another example of the Desolate Mountain Range where they might invade us in the future." The immortal kings from the Skymist Immortal Empire naturally were on the same side as Zi Daoyang.

"Trying to rally the powers of the immortal realms now? When the greater demons tyranny shook Gazing Emperor City, why didn't any of you stand out to resist? Such devotion to righteousness that inspires reverence, it's nothing but an act to cover your own sinister schemes. Ridiculous." A mocking voice rang out. Zi Daolong turned over, staring at the person who spoke. This person was none other than Saber-Sword Immortal King whom he met before in the Gazing Emperor City. His eyes then flickered with a cold killing intent.

"Shut up!" Zi Daolong coldly spoke. He didn't expect that Qin Wentian would stand out to speak for the devil cultivators. This was simply courting death.

"As an immortal cultivator, you are actually speaking on behalf of these devils. Such a traitor, how can we allow him to live? Someone go and kill him."

Zi Daolong's voice was cold. A moment later, a powerful immortal king directly moved towards Qin Wentian. Before this, Qin Wentian was together with those people from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and he had long wanted to kill this fellow. To think that this person would actually appear here alone and even dare to step out to talk nonsense. He was simply courting death.

The eyes of everyone flashed, staring at Zi Daolong. As expected of a son of the peak-stage Violet Emperor. This poor fellow merely spoke a single sentence and Zi Daolong wanted Qin Wentian's life just like that. Truly tyrannical enough.

The immortal king that stepped out was a personal disciple of the Violet Emperor. His cultivation base was very high. Law energy crackled around him as violet qi filled the area. He lifted his hand and punched out, materializing a violet dragon that lunged towards Qin Wentian, exuding a ferocious and domineering might.

Qin Wentian pulled out his sword, slashing forward as his sword qi flooded the area, directly slaying that dragon. That immortal king continued to advance and blasted out with his palms while roaring with anger. A swirl of violet qi formed into astral wind, intending to lacerate everything. The two violet palm imprints slammed forth with thunderous might, wanting to destroy Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed, rushing out with the speed of lightning. His movements were light and his speed was exceptionally quick, directly slashing out two sword strikes in an instant. A dazzling sword intent appeared, slashing the palm imprints into two. After that, he stared at his opponent and sliced down with his sword. In the next moment, a formless energy bore down. His opponent only felt his consciousness shaking as he entered a dream-like state.

"Damn!" His countenance drastically changed. When he struggled free, the beam of sword light had already reached him, directly blasting into his body. His eyes were wide open like saucers, he didn't expect that his opponent would be so ruthless, directly killing him.

"You are so…ruthless." A weak voice rang out. Those were the last words spoken by the disciple of the Violet Emperor. After that, his body fell from the air as he died.

Zi Daolong's eyes gleamed with a terrifying light. His aura gushed forth, alongside with the experts around him, towards Qin Wentian.

"You actually dared to kill him?" Their identities were all extraordinary, as disciples of the Violet Emperor. Even if they wanted Qin Wentian's life, according to their understanding and logic, the other party wouldn't have dared to kill someone belonging to their side.

"Bzz!" Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered, directly slashing out with another strike. A strand of sword qi shot towards the person who spoke earlier, he used the most tyrannical and direct action to respond to their words.

"You guys already gave the order to kill him yet you all still have the face to say such words? I'm really impressed." Bujie clasped his hands and spoke, causing Zi Daolong and the others to have unsightly expressions.

Although Bujie's words were logical, there was no doubt that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was too audacious. With a cultivation base at the mid-stage he actually directly stood in opposition to Zi Daolong and the rest. One must know that Zi Daolong and his allies had quite a number of peak-stage immortal kings among them. Such power was sufficient to easily crush the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"BOOM!" A peak-stage immortal king beside Zi Daolong acted, destroying the burst of Qin Wentian's sword intent. After that, several experts stepped out, their auras were all majestic and overwhelming, enveloping Qin Wentian.

"Go!" Bai Qing waved her hand. Several powerful devil cultivators around her stepped out, their devil might gushing forth. A red-colored bolt of judgement power cleaved towards those immortal kings moving towards Qin

Wentian, giving them a huge sense of pressure. They had no choice but to turn around and face off against these devil cultivators.

“Let’s act and kill the devil priestess today.” Zi Daolong commanded. Many experts from his alliance nodded and stepped out as they moved towards Bai Qing.

“War!” Bujie spoke. The immortal kings beside him also moved out. For a moment, this entire space was flooded with violent streaks of chaotic energy and destruction. The spectating immortal kings all retreated faraway. After all, the aftershocks from an immortal-king level large-scale battle were extremely terrifying. It would be better for them to retreat to avoid being hit by any of the shockwaves.

“Haha, this place is so lively.” A loud voice rang out through the air. After that, Jun Mengchen and several immortal kings appeared. They naturally long already sensed Qin Wentian’s arrival and hence, they were here to participate in this battle as well.

“What? The people from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect wish to interfere and betray the immortal realms? Helping the devils?” Zi Daolong coldly spoke. Right now, they possessed an advantage but if these immortal kings from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect joined in, all advantage would be lost and the final victor would be unknown. Even if they managed to win, it would be a pyrrhic victory.

“Wow, placing such a big hat on our heads.” Jun Mengchen laughed. “Don’t forget that when in the Gazing Emperor Palace, when we were fighting against the greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range, your attitude was completely different, even joining them to mock us. Right now when the situation changes, are you saying that we have to aid you? Do you guys represent the entire immortal realms? Zi Daolong, your father is already so old yet he is still trying to hunt down my senior apprentice brother. This is already an extremely shameless matter. You have really inherited the shamelessness of your father.”

“This fellow is truly gutsy, daring to insult the Violet Emperor like this.” Someone mused silently.

After all, the Violet Emperor was a peak-stage immortal king, a supreme expert that stood at the pinnacle of the immortal realms. Even if the Violet Emperor wasn’t present, it still took courage to insult him.

However, Jun Mengchen has always been like this, not fearing the heavens nor earth. The Violet Emperor always wanted to destroy the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and kill Qin Wentian. Why then, would he have any respect for such a person?

“Who will go and kill him?” Zi Daolong spoke.

“Let me do it.” A powerful immortal king replied as he walked towards Jun Mengchen.

“Courting death.” An extremely cold light flashed in Jun Mengchen’s eyes. Tuoba Saintsky, who was beside him, took a step forward. Jun Mengchen and the other members from the Heavenly Talisman Realm all released their law energy.

“This time, I will help my senior brother Qin to vent his emotions.” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. Regardless of the Violet Emperor or the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, he had long held them in disdain. As emperors, they didn’t have the bearing of one at all. Back then, if the Violet Emperor didn’t push the blame of Zi Daoyang’s death to Qin Wentian, there would be no conflicts between them.

The immortal kings rushing Qin Wentian were blocked by the devil cultivators Bai Qing sent out. But even so, there was an immortal king who wasn’t blocked by anyone and had arrived before Qin Wentian. He was the one responsible for taking Qin Wentian’s life.

“Sending a peak-stage immortal king to kill me. You guys truly regard me extremely highly.” Qin Wentian turned and sped through the air. That peak-stage immortal king snorted coldly and followed after him.

“Weren’t you very brazen earlier? Now, you actually know nothing but to flee?” That peak-stage immortal king grabbed his hand outwards, manifesting a terrifying heavenly prison, locking Qin Wentian within a sealed space. Terrifying gravity bore down on Qin Wentian, restricting his movements.

“What a powerful law domain, as expected of a peak-stage immortal king.” Qin Wentian silently mused. This prison was formed from a fusion of different types of laws, and was able to trap and affect the combat prowess of the immortal king’s target.

“How can you flee?” That immortal king mocked. After that, black-colored spears materialized within the prison, exuding a fearsome explosiveness as they launched themselves at Qin Wentian.

“BOOM!” A brilliant radiance sprang up around Qin Wentian but his body was still knocked backwards from the impact. Groaning in misery, it appeared as though he was heavily injured.

“Bang!” That immortal king moved closer, entering the prison as well while he stared at Qin Wentian with contempt. “Although you are a mid-stage immortal king, in front of this seat, you are no better than an ant. How dare you insult an emperor-ranked character. You truly have no idea regarding the immensity of the heavens and earth.”

As he spoke, another spear appeared in his hand. This spear wasn’t only sharp, it was also incredibly heavy. A moment later, he pierced the spear towards Qin Wentian, wanting to penetrate him.

He was immensely confident in his law domain. A mid-stage immortal king in his law domain would experience severe restrictions to their movements. Such an attack was enough to easily slaughter any mid-stage immortal king.

“RUMBLE!” Qin Wentian’s body became a golden vajra body. When that spear pierced out, it slammed right into it and actually penetrated through. But at this moment, Qin Wentian lifted his palms and manifested numerous pagodas. At the same instant, a heaven-suppressing might gushed forth, causing that peak-stage immortal king’s expression to freeze. After that, he saw Qin Wentian slashing out with a sword, he wanted to evade this but the suppression energy obstructed his movements completely. He used gravity to bind Qin Wentian yet he didn’t expect his own movements to be suppressed as well.

“Puchi!”

At that instant, that peak-stage immortal king only saw coldness in Qin Wentian’s eyes. Such coldness indicated that Qin Wentian had never placed him in his eyes at all. Earlier, that attempt to flee and that injury, were all lies to trick him into committing, giving Qin Wentian a chance to more easily kill him.

As a peak-stage immortal king, he was actually nothing but prey in the eyes of his opponent.

The sword arced downwards. The peak-stage immortal king roared as his body was slashed apart. The prison collapsed and when the spectators from afar turned their gazes over, all of them froze when they saw Qin Wentian exiting the prison.

“This is merely the beginning.” Qin Wentian’s eyes were like lightning, terrifying to the extreme!

Chapter 1468: Killing Five Powerful Immortal Kings

The violet light in Zi Daolong's eyes was extremely intense. He thought that there shouldn't be a problem for a peak-stage immortal king to kill Qin Wentian. However, never did he imagine that Qin Wentian would pretend to retreat in order to hunt down that peak-stage immortal king. Their battle only lasted for a short while and the peak-stage immortal king had already died. In addition, none of them was clear on how Qin Wentian did it.

A peak stage immortal-king, even to the peak powers, they were considered a part of the core strength. The death of one would definitely be a huge cost. Let alone the fact that his father, the Violet Emperor, wasn't like the Skymist Immortal Empire or the Evergreen Immortal Empire, governing a large amount of land. Each of his disciples was selected carefully to be nurtured. The death of that peak-stage immortal king truly caused Zi Daolong to feel pain in his heart.

At this moment, the combat in the area has completely erupted. Those immortal kings that killed their way towards Jun Mengchen, Tuoba Saintsky and the others from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, were all extremely tyrannical. For a period of time, law domains were all unleashed in this space. The members from the Heavenly Talisman Realm grouped around Tuoba Saintsky as they unleashed their own energy. In an instant, Tuoba Saintsky absorbed their energy and melded them together with his own laws. This was a unique point where only he could do. Back then in the war against the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect, he depended on this ability to reign supreme in the battlefield.

Staring at the attacks launched over by the enemy immortal kings, Tuoba Saintsky punched out, the law energies from everyone congregated and formed a solid fist, causing a roar to echo throughout the heavens as the sky changed color. Streaks of chaotic energy churned wildly as the fist imprinted tunnelled through the law domains of their opponents, slamming into an enemy peak-stage immortal king that was at the forefront.

That immortal king's expression changed drastically when he sensed the force of the blow. It felt like the entire world would be buried within the light emitted by the fist attack. He howled in anger and tightened his defenses. However, when the fist light blasted into him, his defenses completely shattered. With a thunderous boom, the law energy swept over everything, that immortal king was killed in body and soul by the impact from a single punch.

The immortal kings at the back all froze. A peak-stage immortal king then spoke, "He has a unique astral soul that can amplify and stack their power, even borrowing the law energies from others. We cannot fight head-on with that."

The enemy immortal kings all halted, not daring to act on impulse. They could sense the terrifying strength of Tuoba Saintsky. As long as there are allies near him, he would be able to boost his strength. And in addition, Tuoba Saintsky who is at the peak of the immortal king realm originally, the increase to his strength wouldn't be as simple as elementary addition but would be boosted by multiple times instead. And in that scenario, who would be capable enough to withstand his attacks? That immortal king who died was a very good example.

Zi Daolong waved his hand and more immortal kings prepared to reinforce the battlefield which Tuoba Saintsky was in. Who would have thought that so many disturbances would suddenly appear? Initially it was just Zi Daolong and his allies against the devil cultivators.

For the other battlefield, the devil kings from the Judiciary Devil Hall were all proficient in the power of judgement. Also, when they joined forces, their strength would form a resonance with each other, greatly boosting their attacks too. The devil kings from the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall led by Bujie, were also extremely fearsome. Although they fought separately, every one of them could borrow the will of ancient devils or even summon one. Things were simply violent to the extreme.

In the few short moments when combat erupted, this entire space was already in chaos. The sky changed color, astral light from the constellations illuminated this space, turning day into night. The spectating immortal kings all retreated far away, causing more and more people to learn of this commotion, knowing that a large-scale battle just erupted.

With so many immortal kings participating in the battle, even if this place was the City of Ancient Emperors, it was still an extremely rare sight.

Qin Wentian returned to the battlefield after killing that peak-stage immortal king. He cast a sharp glance at the battlefield. There was a sword and a saber in his hands and the emperor's fate behind him only grew brighter and brighter as his entire being exuded a king's imposingness.

"All the brothers of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire have fought with me before. This time, if we can fight side by side again, and if you guys can help me to kill these people I, Zi Daolong, will remember this debt of gratitude forever." Zi Daolong spoke to several immortal kings from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire who had not yet joined the battle. Although the number of immortal kings from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire here wasn't many in number, there were still five of them. In fact, there was even a peak-stage immortal king among them. This can also be considered a source of combat prowess and if they really participated, they would heavily influence the situation, raising the probability of Zi Daolong's side being the victor.

"The opponent is extraordinarily strong. If we offend him, things wouldn't be too good for us." The peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire laughed but he didn't directly reject Zi Daolong.

"That's simple. Brothers, you guys can help me to kill that man instead. He isn't from any of the peak powers in the immortal realms." Zi Daolong pointed to Qin Wentian.

"Him? His combat prowess is very high too and he just slew a peak-stage immortal king opponent." The peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire spoke, causing Zi Daolong to curse silently in his heart. Seems like if he didn't offer some benefits, these immortal kings from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire would not act. This peak-stage immortal king was simply an old and cunning fox.

"How about considering that I owe you guys a debt? In the future, if there's any need for my help I, Zi Daolong, will definitely repay the favor." Zi Daolong spoke. The immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire instantly laughed, "Brother Zi, there's no need to be so courteous. We will definitely help you to finish off that man. You can set your heart at ease and focus on the other opponents."

"Right." Zi Daolong nodded. He then turned to Bai Qing. The battlefield here was harder to control, he had to try to control the situation and find an opportunity to kill this female devil.

At this moment, as Qin Wentian was preparing to join the battlefield, he heard the words spoken by Zi Daolong and the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. After that, these five immortal kings revealed killing intent as they stared at him. Wielding both his sword and saber, his law energy gushed forth as he icily stared back at them. "If you guys dare to block me, I shall kill all and show no mercy."

"What an arrogant fellow. This seat has already been at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm for over a thousand years. Even if your combat prowess is high, you have no qualifications to be arrogant in front of me. Let alone the fact that I have no intentions to slowly exhaust my side by fighting one on one against you. We will directly band together and kill you." That peak-stage immortal king laughed coldly.

"Wanting to gang up on an opponent yet you are still speaking in such a righteous manner? Why must you be such a hypocrite? Has the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire consider carefully whether you all truly want to step into this pool of troubled water?" Bujie's voice drifted over, mocking the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

"Bujie, you have already fallen and joined the devil path. You better worry more about the Askheart Temple sending out forces to eradicate you." That peak-stage immortal king replied with contempt. After that, these five powerful immortal kings all radiated a dazzling nine-colored glow as they advanced forward, moving towards Qin Wentian.

"Go to hell!" The five immortal kings radiated a dazzling beam of immortal light that completely enveloped this space, with Qin Wentian within. Each streak of destructive might was akin to a golden spear, indestructible and overwhelmingly powerful as they pierced towards Qin Wentian. For ordinary mid-stage immortal kings, even if they were at the peak-phase of the mid-stage, they wouldn't be able to block this attack.

Qin Wentian stood in the air, one hand holding his sword, the other holding his saber. Golden runes circulated protectively around him, radiating a holy will that radiated toughness. There was actually no way for the attacks to break his defense.

"Is this his body of laws? Such toughness is truly terrifying." The spectators all exclaimed in shock when they saw how powerful Qin Wentian's defenses was.

However, the expressions of the immortal kings from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire didn't change. The immortal light from them grew even more intense as they all slammed out with their palms, manifesting different types of weapons in the enclosed area, that shot towards Qin Wentian.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian's body moved, he actually sped forwards with no hesitation towards the weapons, allowing the terrifying attacks to blast into him, completely disregarding them.

This caused the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire to frown. The strength of this physique...was simply out of their expectations.

"Go!" Qin Wentian's sword shot out, flying from his hand, piercing towards that peak-stage immortal king. The humming of the sword could be heard, the sword was circulating with destructive might powerful enough to destroy everything as it shot forth with blinding speed.

That peak-stage immortal king immediately retreated. However, the sharp sword seemingly locked onto his body, following him closely. Beams of immortal light shot out as he slammed forth with his palm, forming a protective lightscreen in front of him. A moment later, a thunderous boom rang out as the lightscreen actually shattered. That sword then continued forward after some of its momentum has been blunted. The peak-stage immortal king snorted coldly and sent out a palm strike, blasting the sword away.

But at this very moment, Qin Wentian had already arrived before the four other immortal kings. With a ruthless stomp, a heavenly-suppressive might bore down on everything in this enclosed space. There seemed to be an incomparably formless gigantic pagoda pressing down on all of them. The movements of the four immortal kings were no longer as agile, greatly restricted.

The saber in Qin Wentian's hand then slashed out in a simple and unadorned manner, powered by pure force and speed. When this saber slashed out, the four immortal kings felt their souls shuddering as their minds fell into a daze.

With a swishing sound, fresh blood splashed through the air. The four powerful immortal kings were all struck by the saber light at the same instant. A moment later, all of them actually died, stirring up a shocking sight.

"Impossible!" That peak-stage immortal king's eyes grew as round as saucers when he saw this. He roared loudly, the four immortal kings were all powerful experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire yet they were actually all slain by a single saber strike from Qin Wentian at the moment when he retreated?

"I've said it before. I'll kill those who block me." Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with coldness. He lifted his saber and cleaved down with it again. This peak-stage immortal king only felt a bolt of thunder going off in his mind as he suffered a soul attack.

Despite the pain, the peak-stage immortal king still had the time to react. A nine-colored glow covered his body, manifesting a king's armor, negating the force of the saber strike. Although he didn't die, the impact caused him to tremble violently as he coughed out blood. It was only now that he finally realized how intense a threat Qin Wentian is.

Qin Wentian lifted the saber again, his saber intent towering up into the sky. As he cleaved down, the void seemed to be torn asunder. That peak-stage immortal king only saw a saber light shooting through the air for an instant, slicing apart everything as his body was cleaved into two.

Yet another peak-stage immortal king died by Qin Wentian's hand.

This time around, the domineering Saber-Sword Immortal King had slain five powerful immortal kings in rapid succession!

Chapter 1469: Fighting Zi Daolong

“How crazy.” The spectators in the surroundings all felt their hearts trembling. Five powerful immortal kings from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, including a peak-stage one, all died.

A late-phase mid-stage immortal king killed five powerful experts in quick succession, and it seemed that he did so easily. There was simply no one on the same level that could contend against him.

“Where did this Saber-Sword Immortal King come from? How is he so powerful? Is he planning to contend against those peak figures in the City of Ancient Emperors, plundering emperor’s fate and become an unparalleled character?” Someone mused.

“However, given how brazen he is, killing five powerful immortal kings of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire like this, would the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire spare him? Don’t forget that there’s still a demon-level genius within the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. That man is extremely terrifying and if he learns of this, he would definitely come over to kill this Saber-Sword Immortal King.

“Too ruthless, I’m afraid he won’t be able to live for too long, offending the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire like this. In addition, there’s still Zi Daolong and the Skymist Immortal Empire. By having too many grudges and given the level of his cultivation base, it’s impossible for him to live too long.” Another person stated. They didn’t doubt Qin Wentian’s talent. It’s just that the City of Ancient Emperors now was simply too dangerous.

“This is the reason why you guys are fated never to become those dazzling existences.” A calm voice rang out. An immortal king among the crowd stood with his hands behind his back, his emperor’s fate shining brilliantly. He slowly continued, “From the past till now, which supreme characters haven’t gone through the exact same path he is treading now? Warring against the world, defeating all the geniuses under the heavens? For those ancient emperors, which among them didn’t rise to the top on a pile of bones of their enemies? If you don’t dare to take revenge when others already made it so clear that they want to kill you, what qualifications would you have to rise to the peak in this new era?

“Maybe…for such characters, we would have no way to understand their spirits. Even immortal emperors are far from sufficient. The ancient emperors…”

“I don’t really agree with your words. Even for supreme characters, they still have to learn how to lie low at certain times. If his enemies are all the peak powers who wanted to kill him and he has not matured enough to a certain strength level, he should lay low instead of being so high-handed now. Just as the saying goes, revenge is never too late. He should come out only after his cultivation base reached the emperor level. If he directly acted based on his emotions, even if he has the talent to become an ancient emperor, he might not have the time needed to grow and might fall on the path to there.” Another person spoke.

“Hahaha, how many geniuses have there been since ancient times till now and how many among the geniuses can really rise up and become ancient emperors? And how many geniuses have fallen on the path to becoming the strong? According to what you say, wouldn't the immortal realms be filled with cowards? Cowering behind safety until they grow 'stronger,' if they can really grow stronger by hiding." That person who spoke earlier laughed condescendingly. "How many have fallen simply because they took one step forward to push themselves through adversity? At the very least, these people dared to fight for their conviction. In any case, conversing with you is truly a humiliation. How sorrowful."

"You…" That person's expression turned cold as he radiated a coldness. However, when he saw how the other party continued standing arrogantly there looking at him, he actually didn't even dare to comment any more.

The others at the side all understood that it was because of the innate nature of these two individuals. That person who advocated safety, was indeed true to his nature, deciding to bide his time and endure, not erupting in anger.

After Qin Wentian killed the five immortal kings, the emperor's fate behind him grew more and more terrifying, almost solidifying. He returned once more to the chaotic battlefield and with a flash of his silhouette, he sped towards Bai Qing's direction.

The attacks of immortal kings were too ferocious. Even for group battles, the distance between each person was extremely vast. Even for distances up to over ten thousand miles, immortal kings might be able to breach them with a single step. Right now, Qin Wentian's gaze was fixed on an enemy immortal king as his eyes gleamed with coldness.

His movements were incredibly fast, akin to a great roc. That immortal king he targeted was now fighting against a devil cultivator. He suddenly sensed an intense feeling of crisis approaching him from the back. He immediately turned about and slammed out with a palm strike, causing a beam of light to shot forth like a shooting star, blasting towards Qin Wentian. If such an attack hit a mountain range, there was a possibility that the entire mountain range would be directly destroyed.

Qin Wentian directly cleaved out with his saber, slashing apart the beam of light. His movements didn't slow and instantly neared his opponent. After that, he slashed out with his sword, manifesting a vermillion bird that arced through the skies. When his target saw the sword strike, his palms blasted out in defense, materializing shooting stars that blazed brilliantly as he sought to block that strike. However, that sword strike of Qin Wentian was powered by the holy will, it was able to tear through everything, easily shattering the shooting stars before slicing into his target's body, destroying his target.

"There's basically no one at the mid-stage immortal king realm able to be his opponent. They can't even endure a single one of his sword attacks."

Before this, Qin Wentian used a single saber to destroy four powerful immortal kings. Everyone already understood that unless his opponent was an individual who stands at the peak, like the Saber-Sword Immortal King himself, there would be no one else who can stand equally against him. Against all others, the Saber-Sword Immortal King can effortlessly kill them, completely a case of the strong abusing the weak.

After killing his target, Qin Wentian continued soaring through the air and arrived before another mid-stage immortal king, slashing him apart.

“If we allow him to continue, these people will all be killed by him. Earlier, when Zi Daolong asked for the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire’s help to kill him, there was no way that he expected this Saber-Sword Immortal King to actually be so powerful.”

The hearts of everyone trembled. Although in this battlefield, there are still some experts more terrifying than Qin Wentian, e.g. Tuoba Saintsky who could fuse all law energy as one, there was no one else who could give the spectators as much shock as he could. The Saber-Sword Immortal King instantly became the focal point of everyone, attracting their attention.

There were some whose light would always shine brilliantly when they are on a battlefield.

In the blink of an eye, Qin Wentian killed another immortal king. The number of immortal kings dying to him continued increasing and they were all people from Zi Daolong’s side. To the Violet Sect, this was nothing but a nightmare. After all, the number of immortal kings under the Violet Emperor was originally already much fewer compared to those major powers that governed an empire.

However, there was no way that Qin Wentian would be merciful. Just like what Bujie and Jun Mengchen have said, the Violet Emperor could even disregard his status. Despite being a peak-stage immortal emperor, he actually conspired with Eastern Sage to kill him. Regardless of Eastern Sage or the Violet Emperor, Qin Wentian wouldn’t rest until either he or the two of them are dead. They are already in a situation where one side was water and the other was fire. Why would Qin Wentian still show any mercy to Violet Emperor’s subordinates?

“You guys hold the battlefield, I’ll personally move to kill him.” Zi Daolong spoke, his voice cold to the extreme. With a flash of his silhouette, he gave up on his current opponent and sped towards Qin Wentian’s direction. Today, he initially planned to kill the devil priestess and originally felt that it would be a relaxed and effortless battle. However, he didn’t expect the situation to escalate out of control and there were already so many immortal kings of their side that died.

This caused his gaze to turn extremely terrifying. His killing intent surged as he stared at Qin Wentian.

“BOOM!” A thunderous explosion rang out. Zi Daolong was like a dragon, letting out roars of anger. Violet light flooded the area around him, materializing into a giant purple dragon that stared coldly at Qin Wentian.

As a son of the Violet Emperor, Zi Daolong would naturally receive guidance and inheritances from the Violet Emperor. How would he be ordinary? His cultivation base was at the initial-phase of the peak-stage but his aura was extremely overwhelming. Ordinary late-phase peak-stage immortal kings wouldn’t be able to do anything to him. He was confident and arrogant, but he did have the strength to back him up.

“BOOM!” Zi Daolong blasted out a dragon imprint to Qin Wentian, exuding boundless might. The streams of violet qi rose from the east, incomparably ferocious with enough power to crush everything.

Qin Wentian was still far away but he could already sense the power of this attack. When the dragon imprint blasted over, violet light engulfed everything. The imprint manifested numerous dragons baring their fangs and claws as they lunged towards Qin Wentian, wanting to tear him apart.

Qin Wentian’s expression didn’t change. His eyes flashed with coldness as he slashed out with his sword. In the sword beam that shot out, numerous tiny swords could be seen swimming in it, radiating holy will, giving birth to a titanic sword might that shattered the dragons.

“Since you want to die so badly, I will grant it to you.” Zi Daolong moved closer, as violet light gleamed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian stared at him coldly, but his expression turned slightly heavy. The aura radiating from Zi Daolong actually made him feel a hint of pressure. In addition, he had no way to know how powerful Zi Daolong’s absolute strength level is. But, as a son of the Violet Emperor, he should have many trump cards for sure. Undoubtedly, Zi Daolong is going to become one of the strongest opponents he ever faced to date.

Thinking back to the past, the location was also in the City of Ancient Emperors. Back then, he was contending against Zi Daoyang, fighting for the position of the number one ranking on the Immortal Ascension Rankings.

Time flowed by and now, the one he was facing was none other than the elder brother of Zi Daoyang. Zi Daolong’s strength was undoubtedly countless times greater in comparison to Zi Daoyang.

Right now, Qin Wentian only felt that Zi Daolong’s eyes contained a terrifying violet vortex. This caused Qin Wentian to be somewhat taken aback. Zi Daolong was also actually skilled in eye-techniques.

“BOOM!” Suddenly, Qin Wentian felt his mind shaking. The violet vortex drew him into a violet world where numerous terrifying violet dragons surrounded him, brimming with absolute power.

“Illusion attack.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with buddhic light from the art of truth, seeing through all things illusory as he struggled to exit the violet world. But even so, the attacks from the violet dragons didn’t cease.

This was indeed an eye technique but there were illusory components mixed within the truth. It was extremely fearsome to face against. Such a mixture of truth and lies made this technique extremely tough to deal with.

However, Qin Wentian who cultivated the art of truth, wasn’t really afraid of illusionary-based techniques.

“Slay!” Qin Wentian’s sword exuded a majestic might, slashing everything apart. After all, the main component of eye-techniques was based in illusions and the amount of effect they had on him was minimal.

Zi Daolong had a shocked look on his face, “No wonder you are able to kill so many immortal kings, you do have some capabilities. If it wasn’t for you killing so many immortal kings from my side, I might have been able to spare you from death and recruit you as a subordinate.”

“How arrogant.” The spectators mused silently when they heard this.

Qin Wentian laughed coldly as he replied, “Zi Daolong, you are really good at bragging. It is still a question whether or not you would be able to live on after this.”

Chapter 1470: Determined to Kill

Zi Daolong stood in opposition with Qin Wentian. Both were still as arrogant as ever.

Zi Daolong said that if it wasn't for Qin Wentian killing too many immortal kings from his side, he might show mercy and accept Qin Wentian as a subordinate. How arrogant was this? Wanting to recruit such a powerful opponent to become his subordinate.

As for Qin Wentian, he directly threatened to kill Zi Daolong here today.

"Can it be that this Saber-Sword Immortal King is really preparing to fight against Zi Daolong?" Someone spoke in doubt. This wasn't doubting Qin Wentian's strength, it was just that Zi Daolong was just too extraordinary. He had a cultivation base at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, he was also the son of the Violet Emperor. No matter how outstanding the Saber-Sword Immortal King's combat prowess was, it was still extremely dangerous for him to fight Zi Daolong.

"After winning against some immortal kings, it seems like your ego has been inflated." Zi Daolong's eyes flickered coldly. He stretched his hands out and waved. A moment later, the entire space started to tremble, flooded with violet light, exuding a sense of horror to everyone.

"The secret technique of the Violet Emperor, the Ultimate Violet Sacred Immortal Art places a heavy emphasis on attack, it's incomparably tyrannical." Somebody spoke in a low voice. Qin Wentian had experienced the power of the Ultimate Violet Sacred Immortal Art long ago as well as the Thousand Autumns Emperor Art, also a secret technique of the Violet Emperor, when he fought against Zi Daoyang in the past. These two techniques were already extremely powerful when used by Zi Daoyang. Now, with Zi Daolong being the one using these techniques, the power level was naturally many times greater compared to the attacks launched by Zi Daoyang.

"BOOM!" Stepping out, the entire space trembled, Zi Daolong moved towards Qin Wentian, completely disregarding his sword attacks. Zi Daolong blasted out a violet palm imprint that blotted out the sky. In response, Qin Wentian's saber circulated with terrifying law energy. As he cleaved out, a scar appeared in the air, slashing upon that giant violet palm as a thunderous sound rang out from the impact.

"Violet Domain." Zi Daolong coldly spoke. The violet light in his eyes grew incomparably fearsome, transforming into a spatial-type domain that instantly engulfed Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with the light of truth, seeing past all things false and illusory. However this time around, he discovered that the Violet Domain wasn't just an illusion art but was a true law domain created by the eye-technique. He had no way to break through it with the art of truth alone.

In this space, Zi Daolong seemed to become God, peering down on everything. His body turned to a colossal size as he stared down at Qin Wentian. With a wave of his hand, violet spears filled the air, blotting out the sky. As Zi Daolong's finger stabbed out, the countless spears all shot towards Qin Wentian.

The spears were like dragons, emitting titanic roars. Each violet spear was like a violet demon dragon, desiring to destroy everything, exterminating all lives in the world. Qin Wentian's paths of retreat were completely sealed off, there was basically no way for him to escape.

"Violet Domain. Seems like this is the law domain comprehended by Zi Daolong. Using his eye-technique as a prison, he creates an independent space where he is the god of that dimension." The hearts of the spectators trembled. Can Qin Wentian endure an attack of this level?

Zi Daolong was as expected of a peak-stage immortal king and the son of the Violet Emperor. The Violet Emperor naturally would have guided him personally, so how could he not be extraordinary? Just this attack alone was sufficient to see how powerful he was. Ordinary peak-stage immortal kings would definitely lose if they were to fight against Zi Daolong.

However, although this Saber-Sword Immortal King is merely a mid-stage immortal king, he had slew peak-stage immortal kings in front of everyone's eyes, and defeated numerous opponents. There was no way to gauge his combat prowess, and he should still have some trump cards hidden. He wouldn't be killed so easily.

Boundless attacks shot through space, blasting into Qin Wentian. An instant later, a deafening blast could be heard as the violet qi erupted wildly. Everyone was staring at the location Qin Wentian was in. After that, they only saw a resplendent screen of swords revolving protectively around Qin Wentian. A river of sword qi circulated around him, gleaming with a faint golden color. That terrifying attack by Zi Daolong was actually negated by this screen of swords.

"This…"

"What a fearsome defense."

Zi Daolong's gaze stiffened. He acted once more, causing violet qi to gather, forming numerous dragon spears that erupted towards Qin Wentian.

"Bang!" The dragon spears blasted into the screen of swords, causing it to tremble. The spears actually managed to pierce into it, but they were soon torn to shreds by the holy sword will as they entered. This was a defensive screen of swords and there were even boundless runes and inscriptions augmenting it, it was terrifying to the extreme.

"BANG, BANG, BANG!" The dragon spears all failed to break through despite countless attempts. Zi Daolong peered down with disdain, only to hear Qin Wentian coldly speaking, "Zi Daolong, does your strength only amount to this? If this is so, you are far from sufficient to stand against me."

"I was merely playing around with you." Zi Daolong calmly replied. The thunderous sounds continued, as the violet might from him grew more violent. His body expanded in size, becoming a giant, resembling a divinity that was unexcelled in the world.

A divine spear appeared in Zi Daolong's hands, capable of altering its size at will. Right now, it expanded to over a thousand feet and was shimmering with potent power.

"How strong is your defense exactly?" Zi Daolong's voice boomed out like thunder. He then stepped out, stabbing forth with his spear, aiming to pierce through Qin Wentian. A purple dragon revolved around the tip of the spear, emitting rays of divine power.

This spear was able to tear through heaven and earth, shattering everything that came in contact with it.

The spectators all felt their hearts trembling. Such an attack was simply too tyrannical. Even Qin Wentian's defensive sword screen would have no way to block such a strike.

The revolving swords around Qin Wentian suddenly transformed, merging together as one, becoming a sword capable of slaying the heavens. This sword brimmed with holy will and directly slashed out towards the incoming divine spear.

Both weapons collided together, Qin Wentian actually had no intention of dodging or defending, he chose to clash head-on with Zi Daolong instead.

A dazzling beam of light flashed as the two weapons were knocked back. Zi Daolong's hand was actually trembling from the force of impact. He stared at the towering sword in Qin Wentian's hand. This was not a divine weapon forged by some master weaponsmith, but was an ultimate sword materialized using pure sword intent.

"His sword intent has already exceeded the might of divine weapons." The hearts of everyone shuddered. Cultivators would often be paired with divine weapons as appropriate weapons could raise their strength. However, this Saber-Sword Immortal King is definitely a monster, his sword intent is actually powerful to this extent, exceeding the might of his divine weapon.

At this instant, Zi Daolong's expression changed. He was actually knocked back by Qin Wentian. From his perspective, this attack was sufficient to take Qin Wentian's life. Even if the attack failed, it would still have heavily injured Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian was uninjured and his divine weapon was forced back.

"This sword intent…" Zi Daolong sensed the fluctuations from the towering sword. The sword intent was so thick that a sword qi river was already formed, flowing relentlessly around Qin Wentian.

Within Qin Wentian's body, the holy will radiated out, infusing the sword in his hand as well as the sword qi river. For this battle against Zi Daolong, he had to put in all his effort. His eyes glimmered with killing intent, he actually wanted to kill this son of the Violet Emperor.

Back then, he wasn't the one who killed Zi Daoyang but the Violet Emperor wanted to hunt him down just to vent his frustrations. Since this was the case, since he has already taken the blame for Zi Daoyang's death, he shall truly kill a son of the Violet Emperor with his own hands.

"Bzz~" His movements resembled a great roc as Qin Wentian soared up into the air with lightning speed. He then slashed out a sword towards Zi Daolong. The terrifying vermillion bird sword art was unleashed, capable of exterminating everything. Zi Daolong roared in anger, his spear was like a dragon, erupting forth with immense power. The manifestation of a demon dragon and a vermillion bird clashed in the air as both of them exploded from the impact. Zi Daolong returned to his normal size. If his body was gigantic, he would present an easier target for Qin Wentian.

"Swish, swish~" A beam of sword light blasted over. Zi Daolong only felt a blinding pain in his eyes. This sword technique contained dream-law energy, giving him a sense of surrealism. This was none other than the Nightmare Sword Art, a sword technique self-created by Qin Wentian. This attack was further reinforced by the sword-type holy will which he comprehended from the Eastern Tomb.

"BOOM!" A fearsome sword pierced out, it's bearing resembling a divine elephant, capable of suppressing everything. Zi Daolong's movements were instantly restricted by a terrifying pressure as that destructive sword strike shot through the air.

A loud tearing sound echoed, Zi Daolong might have avoided the fatal strike but he still lost an arm. Fresh blood flowed continuously amidst his howls of anger. His eyes flared with fury, as he unleashed the other secret technique of the Violet Emperor – the Thousand Autumns Emperor Art. This attack came too swiftly, his strength didn't even have the time to erupt and he had already lost his arm.

"ARGH! I will make you suffer a fate worse than death!" Zi Daolong howled. The violet light in his eyes flared intensely, wanting to restrict Qin Wentian as the divine spear in his hands flew through the air.

Qin Wentian slashed out once more. This time, his sword strike manifested a dragon. His sword continuously slashed out sword shadows but after activating the Thousand Autumns Emperor Art, there were actually runes manifested around Zi Daoyang, devouring the energy of Qin Wentian's attack before rebounding it back.

"Swish~" Only to see that at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes suddenly gleamed with a brilliant light that shot straight into Zi Daoyang's eye and rocked his mind.

"Soul attack!" Zi Daoyang felt his entire body growing cold. This man not only had overwhelmingly powerful attacks, but he was also proficient in such extremely rarely-seen soul-attack techniques. His Thousand Autumns Emperor Art might be strong, but it could only reflect material attacks. He was helpless against soul attacks.

At this instant, Zi Daolong truly sensed the threat of death approaching him. His entire body was shivering. This opponent was truly a powerful enemy, someone that had the ability to take his life!

Chapter 1471: Rage of the Violet Emperor

Qin Wentian's movements were extremely fast, circling around Zi Daolong. Occasionally, a startling sword intent would burst forth along with powerful soul energy which drilled into Zi Daolong's mind. Zi Daolong was too busy fending off this that he didn't have the time for anything else. Even the Ultimate Violet Sacred Immortal Art and Thousand Autumns Emperor Art were much less effective now since he wasn't able to focus.

However, his defense was still extremely strong. His body gleamed violet as the violet light manifested a purple giant behind him, blasting out palm attacks. The power contained within was powerful enough to shatter anything. He himself was still attacking with a spear, he retracted his previous arrogance and started to take Qin Wentian seriously, becoming much more cautious.

"Zi Daolong is trapped, he has already lost the conviction earlier that he would be the sure victor."

"He started to be more conservative in terms of the combat, while the attacks of this Saber-Sword Immortal King grows stronger and stronger. His sword art is marvelous and without flaw, giving birth to terrifying sword intent. Each of his sword strikes have the power equivalent to a sword attack powered by a formation."

"RUMBLE!" In a direction, one of Zi Daoyang's protectors rushed out. This man was a late-phase peak-stage immortal king. When he saw Zi Daolong losing an arm, he instantly wanted to aid him. Although victory and defeat were still uncertain, if Zi Daolong really lost and died here, they would have no way to answer to the Violet Emperor.

"Block him." Bai Qing coldly commanded. Numerous powerful devil cultivators unleashed their law domains, causing the sky to streak with beams of blood-colored light as the power of judgement bore down on that expert, trapping him and Zi Daolong's other protectors within.

Earlier, Bai Qing had already said that she would kill Zi Daolong. Now, since there was someone so powerful dealing with Zi Daolong, she naturally wouldn't allow any others to disrupt this.

"Do you all really want to establish a death grudge with the Violet Emperor?" A roar of anger thundered out as the protectors of Zi Daolong tried their best to struggle free.

"The young master of your Violet Mountain is fighting a fair duel with someone. If he dies, it only means that he is useless. Before this, wasn't he extremely arrogant? Now that victory is not certain, you guys are bringing up his background to scare us off?" Bujie calmly spoke. "In any case, why would those of us from the Myriad Devil Islands fear the Violet Mountain? Ridiculous!"

The battle was still as intense as ever and the longer Zi Daolong fought, the more the trembling of his soul. His confidence was being wiped away bit by bit and what's more terrifying was that he discovered Qin Wentian's attacks actually grew stronger. It felt like Qin Wentian had countless trump cards and he was still holding back some in reserve.

At this instant, an intense coldness flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. His silhouette flashed as a tiny pagoda appeared in his left hand.

"Domain." A cold voice thundered out, the law domain instantly engulfed the surrounding space, blocking the vision of others.

"What is he planning to do? Is he going to use his trump cards to kill Zi Daolong?" The spectators all stared in shock.

"Earlier, he hadn't released his law domain at all. Is he still holding some strength back in reserve? He doesn't want anyone to see his trump cards as he kills Zi Daolong?"

Zi Daolong roared, releasing his astral soul. The giant behind him wielded twin spears, erupting forth with a flurry of attacks, causing the entire space to shake. Qin Wentian moved closer. He sealed this space because he wanted to mask his identity. After all, if he unleashed some particular techniques, the spectators might manage to spot some clues and learn who he is.

Although Zi Daolong was someone he had to kill, the moment he did so, the Violet Emperor would definitely be infuriated. Using the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King to kill Zi Daolong would save him some trouble.

The tiny pagoda glowed even brighter. Qin Wentian took a large step forward as an overwhelming pressure gushed forth, suppressing everything. At the same time, the holy will within the pagoda surged out, causing numerous pagodas to materialize in the airspace above Zi Daolong, suppressing the violet giant behind him.

"Suppress!" Qin Wentian roared. After that, he cleaved out with his saber, wanting to cleave Zi Daolong's soul. Zi Daolong struggled with madness in his eyes but his movements were still bound. Given how high his cultivation was, he was actually restricted to such an extent.

Qin Wentian's expression was cold. He then pierced out with his sword, aiming to penetrate Zi Daolong's head.

"Scram!" Zi Daolong took out a powerful ancient mirror and in an instant, all the energy in this space was being devoured away. Qin Wentian only felt the sword in his hand being sucked into the mirror. With a howl of anger, Zi Daolong blasted out a palm strike which smashed into Qin Wentian, causing him to stagger back as he groaned in misery, coughing out fresh blood.

The light from the ancient mirror shot up into the sky, breaking apart everything.

"Aura of an emperor-ranked weapon? Zi Daolong, the peak-stage immortal king is borrowing the might of an emperor weapon?" The crowd spoke in shock. Was Zi Daolong forced to such an extent?

However, this place was the City of Ancient Emperors. Immortal kings have their own path, and immortal emperors have their own path.

From the air, a formless law energy pressure bore down on Zi Daolong, like the wrath of the heavens, locking down on him. This terrifying energy directly negated the might from the emperor weapon, dimming its radiance.

A cracking sound rang out, cracks began to appear on the surface of the mirror as the emperor-ranked weapon started to shatter.

This, was the rule in the City of Ancient Emperors. Emperor-ranked weapons can only be used against immortal emperors. They are not to be used against immortal kings.

"SCRAM!" Zi Daolong roared at the skies. Although Qin Wentian was injured, he wasted no time in unleashing another dazzling sword attack. This beam of sword light instantly shot into Zi Daolong's eyes, dragging him into a dreamscape.

"KILL!" Qin Wentian's killing intent towered up into the sky. This sword strike was capable of reaping lives.

Zi Daolong roared loudly, his protectors wanted to rush forward but they were all trapped, unable to do anything. As the sword strike landed, fresh blood splashed through the air. The destructive might of the sword attack slashed through Zi Daolong's chest but at this moment, a brilliant light erupted out as the projection of a powerful being manifested.

This was none other than the silhouette of the Violet Emperor. His anger soared up into the sky, violet qi circulated wildly around him as he stared at the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"Protective immortal sense of an emperor. You think you can interfere in this battle?" Qin Wentian stared at him and coldly laughed. So what if the Violet Emperor appeared? He was none other than a projection formed by immortal sense. At the immortal king level, especially the later-stages, protective immortal sense was already useless, they didn't have enough power.

Let alone the fact that this place was the City of Ancient Emperors. Even peak-stage immortal emperors had to obey the rules here.

As the law energy from the City of Ancient Emperors cascaded down on him, the violet light around the Violet Emperor's projection formed a light shield, as he spoke. "Spare him."

The Violet Emperor understood that his immortal sense wasn't able to do anything to Qin Wentian and hence, his tone wasn't too domineering. However, Qin Wentian merely coldly smiled and looked at him, "Scram."

As the sound of his voice faded, countless people were stunned. Crazy...this fellow was simply too crazy. He even dared to tell the Violet Emperor to scram? This was insulting an emperor, a peak-stage immortal emperor!

The expression of the Violet Emperor grew incomparably ugly. The law energy from the city kept blasting into the protective light shield, and seemed about to break through and could strike at his body anytime. His projection was about to fade away. But even so, the Violet Emperor fixed his eyes on Qin Wentian, glaring at him, wanting Qin Wentian to fear him. However, he had no idea that this Saber-Sword Immortal King long had a death grudge with him. How would he spare Zi Daolong?

"If you kill me, you will become the enemy of our entire Violet Mountain. No matter where you head to in the immortal realms, there would be no path of survival for you. Even your friends and family would be hunted down by us." Zi Daolong threatened.

"Hahaha! Zi Daolong, you are truly a pathetic figure. As a peak-stage immortal king, you actually have the face to utter such words. I really feel sad for you." Qin Wentian replied. His eyes shot out another soul-attack. His sword slashed out a sword qi river that gushed towards Zi Daolong, wanting to destroy everything.

Zi Daolong roared but the suppressive pressure was too great. He was helpless to resist.

He, Zi Daolong, the son of the Violet Emperor. When he came to the City of Ancient Emperors, how high were his aspirations? He wanted to subdue all geniuses under his feet, but who would have thought that he was about to be killed by a nameless immortal king here?

The sword qi gushed over, tearing apart his other arm. There was a heavy sense of reluctance flickering in Zi Daolong's eyes.

"Why are you doing this? Why are you willing to spare no expense to kill me?" Zi Daolong roared with unwillingness.

"Because, I am Qin Wentian." A voice thundered out in Zi Daolong's mind. Zi Daolong's eyes widened, the sword attack slashed down a split second after that, finishing him off.

Zi Daolong's eyes were wide open, he finally understood why this Saber-Sword Immortal King wanted to kill him. Before he died, he was still filled with shock by the fact that Qin Wentian was already strong enough to kill him.

Back then, this ant-like character was akin to a worm on the ground. He could stomp Qin Wentian to death at any moment. Now, it was already too late for regrets.

At the moment after Zi Daolong died, this entire space fell silent. The immortal kings from afar all stared at this scene with shock, speechless in their hearts. Zi Daolong's head was slashed off by Qin Wentian as he died.

The eyes of Zi Daolong were wide-opened, filled with reluctance. He, was a lofty genius, a peak-stage immortal king possessing unrivalled combat prowess. He was the son of the Violet Emperor and even had emperor-ranked weapons. But even so, he died here today.

Right at this moment, at a place extremely far away from the City of Ancient Emperors, there was a violet mountain located in the eastern regions.

On the violet mountain, an overwhelmingly oppressive aura gushed forth, engulfing everything, causing the sky to change color, turning into violet.

The experts on the violet mountain all had expressions of shock on their faces, they all stared at the Central Sky Palace as looks of bewilderment appeared on their faces.

The Violet Emperor was enraged? What was going on? Did something just happen?

With a loud boom, the Violet Emperor soared up into the air, staring down at everything in the world. He was a peak-stage immortal emperor, how many in the immortal realms could stand equal to him? However, two of his sons died one after another, Zi Daoyang and Zi Daolong.

He inclined his head as a pair of violet pupils appeared in the air, peering through the distance, causing the hearts and minds of disciples on the violet mountain to tremble. Everyone halted their cultivation, not daring to say anything.

Something major must be going on in order to make the Violet Emperor this angry. It has been a long time since they saw the Violet Emperor so infuriated.

"Immortal kings of the Violet Mountain all move out now. We will be going to the City of Ancient Emperors to hunt down this man." The Violet Emperor coldly commanded. In the air, violet light flashed, as the features of the Saber-Sword Immortal King appeared.

The anger of the Violet Emperor seemed to be caused by this person. Now, the Violet Emperor wanted to mobilize all the immortal kings of the violet mountain to hunt down this man? What exactly has this person done?

Wasn't Zi Daolong, the son of the Violet Emperor, currently in the City of Ancient Emperors? Could it be… When they thought of a certain possibility, all of their bodies trembled!

Chapter 1472: Xu Qingyao

In the City of Ancient Emperors, all the experts here were struck by shock as they watched Zi Daolong being killed.

This Saber-Sword Immortal King actually really did it. He humiliated the projection of the Violet Emperor, telling him to scram and beheaded Zi Daolong.

Before this, Zi Daolong insulted him, wanting to slaughter him but now, Zi Daolong was the one who died in such a miserable state.

Zi Daolong’s death caused the other battles to cease. After all, the most core character in this entire area was none other than Zi Daolong. He was the one who wanted to kill the female devil priestess, which led to such a large-scale combat. Now that Zi Daolong has died, everyone was in a daze.

The experts from the Violet Mountain all trembled one after another, staring at Zi Daolong’s corpse, not daring to believe that this sight was real.

In the immortal realms, the son of an immortal emperor was a character almost none would offend, they naturally wouldn’t die so easily. Let alone the fact that Zi Daolong was a peak-stage immortal king. Even if Zi Daolong offended a supreme character, that person would still have to consider Zi Daolong’s background and wouldn’t dare to kill him. After all, the revenge by a peak-stage immortal emperor was something nobody wanted to face.

However, Zi Daolong offended a madman. This Saber-Sword Immortal King directly slew Zi Daolong in front of everyone.

Leaving aside the people from the Violet Mountain, even many from the Heavenly Talisman Realm were taken aback. They didn’t expect that Qin Wentian would be so ruthless, killing Zi Daolong directly.

“You killed Zi Daolong, the Violet Emperor will never spare you. The immortal kings from the Violet Mountains will definitely come to the City of Ancient Emperors to hunt you down. Sir, you might need to leave this place earlier and hide away for a period of time.” Bujie transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, he glanced at Bujie and replied out loud, “Back then at the Gazing Emperor City, Zi Daolong has already insulted me, saying that I’m not qualified to be on equal standing with him and he had already wanted to kill me back then. However, reality has proven that Zi Daolong was merely so-so. With such weak strength, he actually wanted to kill this seat? How would this seat spare him? I’ll kill those who wish to kill me.”

Qin Wentian spoke in a domineering tone, further reinforcing his image as the Saber-Sword Immortal King in case others suspected that he had some other grudges with Zi Daolong.

He came to the City of Ancient Emperors using the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King, and through competing with others, he would definitely make enemies. By using two different identities was undoubtedly the better choice.

“You guys better be prepared to suffer the wrath of the Violet Emperor.” A peak-stage immortal king from the Violet Mountain coldly spoke. His body was trembling, as he was still feeling the chills from Zi Daolong’s death.

“I originally also planned to kill Zi Daolong. For this grudge, I shall be implicated no matter what. Since this is the case, let’s continue the slaughter. There’s no need to show mercy.” Bai Qing immediately commended decisively.

The person she hated was the Violet Emperor. As a peak-stage immortal emperor, he actually ignored his status and attacked Qin Wentian. Since the Violet Emperor already wanted to kill her Wentian gege, there was no need for any discussion then, she would not give a damn any longer and the reason she was originally here was to hunt down Zi Daolong.

“How dare you!” That peak-stage immortal king roared in rage. However, numerous devil cultivators already rushed forth. Qin Wentian’s eyes were incomparably cold. With a flash of his silhouette, he coordinated his attacks with the devil cultivators as they killed their way towards the experts of the Violet Mountain.

To him, things were simple. In the future, these people would all be enemies that want his life. He will kill as many as he can now.

“What should we do?” The experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect and their allies exchanged mutual glances as they transmitted their voices in conversation. After Zi Daolong died, the situation would no longer be so easy to control.

Tuoba Saintsky and Jun Mengchen’s group were transmitting their voices too. Jun Mengchen spoke, “Senior Tuoba, these experts from the other eastern powers are all hesitating, they most probably no longer intend to fight. How about us blocking them and allow senior brother Qin and the devil cultivators to be at ease as they deal with the experts from the Violet Mountain?”

“Mhm, good idea.” Tuoba Saintsky nodded. They all released their auras and moved towards the Skymist Immortal Empire and their allies. Just as Jun Mengchen expected, these people no longer had the heart to battle but it wouldn’t look too good if they abandoned the experts from the Violet Mountain and left just like that. Hence, when they fought against Jun Mengchen and the others, they intentionally shifted their battle further and didn’t put in all their effort.

The experts from the Violet Mountain were soon surrounded. Qin Wentian continued his massacre until a point where a peak-stage immortal king there roared, “Let’s retreat!”

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts of the Violet Mountain all dispersed in different directions. However, how could the devil cultivators and Qin Wentian allow them to flee? A prison made of judicial power as well as his suppressive law domain was instantly unleashed, restricting their movements as they continued the slaughter. At the very end, only a very few peak-stage immortal kings managed to escape. The others all died here.

As for the immortal kings from the Skymist Immortal Empire and their alliance, they actually already silently left the battlefield.

“Zi Daolong really died a wronged death. These people all understood that the Violet Emperor would be enraged after they saw Zi Daolong dying. They are hoping the Violet Emperor would send more forces here to kill these people for them. They wanted to save their strength.”

“The bonds of an alliance of different major powers naturally wouldn’t be so solid.”

The spectators discussed. Qin Wentian glanced at the battlefield, he then turned to Bujie, Bai Qing and the other devil cultivators as he spoke, “Everyone, we have to be more cautious in the future.”

“Saber-Sword Immortal King, you have to be more careful too.” Bujie reminded. After all, they had fought side by side. Even if they had no idea the Saber-Sword Immortal King was Qin Wentian, they still felt good will towards him. After this battle, they were already like friends.

“Farewell.”

Qin Wentian clasped his hands. After that, he cast a glance in Jun Mengchen’s direction before he departed the area. He wasn’t afraid that the experts from the Violet Mountain would find trouble for him. Earlier, his act of killing Zi Daolong was definitely enough to shock several supreme immortal kings. Zi Daolong might only be at the initial-phase of the peak-stage, but his combat prowess was undoubtedly equivalent to an immortal king at the late-phase. But even so, he still died to the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

This made it so that everyone who wanted to deal with him, had to first think through their actions carefully.

The immortal kings who were spectating all sighed as they left respectively. The news of Zi Daolong’s death soon circulated around the City of Ancient Emperors, creating quite a huge commotion. When the news got out, the immortal realms were shocked as well. After all, Zi Daolong was quite famous, a peak-stage immortal king as well as a son of the Violet Emperor, yet he was still killed. This caused many supreme immortal kings to feel curious about the mysterious Saber-Sword Immortal King.

After that, more news circulated out. Before this Saber-Sword Immortal King killed Zi Daolong, he had already slain several other immortal kings, including a peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect. In an instant, the name of the Saber-Sword Immortal King resounded throughout the entire City of Ancient Emperors as many immortal kings started to discuss about this madman. This crazy fellow didn’t have the peak powers of the immortal realms in his eyes at all.

After that, there were many immortal kings in the City of Ancient Emperors who wanted to challenge the Saber-Sword Immortal King and see how strong he was exactly to be able to kill Zi Daolong.

There were some saying that the son of the Violet Emperor, Zi Daolong, was simply someone that wasn’t worthy of his reputation. A peak-stage immortal king like him actually got killed by a mid-stage one? This was an inglorious battle, and even if Zi Daolong didn’t die, he wouldn’t be able to lose this amount of face too.

Naturally, there were also people who revered the Saber-Sword Immortal King’s courage. There were even some people who wanted to meet with this Saber-Sword Immortal King, seeing what sort of person he was exactly, able to kill Zi Daoyang in such a scene where there were so many experts of the Violet Mountain gathered. Even daring to tell the Violet Emperor to scram, and killing the immortal kings from the Paragon Sword Sect and Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

After several days, outside an ancient palace in the City of Ancient Emperors, countless experts were gathered there. They were all staring at the dilapidated-looking palace as their eyes gleamed with sharpness.

There were countless secrets hidden in the City of Ancient Emperors. The experts here were constantly searching, hoping to uncover them.

“Who is he?” Right now, there was a person sitting cross-legged outside the ancient palace, with his eyes closed in meditation.

“What a shocking amount of emperor’s fate.” Someone glanced at the emperor’s fate behind his back. Such a character was not good to antagonize. His emperor’s fate was too dazzling, and clearly indicated his fearsome battle achievements, collecting the fear and respect from many individuals. Only such a character would be able to amass so much emperor’s fate.

“Saber and sword.” Someone noticed that this figure had a saber and a sword strapped behind him. Momentarily, that person’s eyes flashed with excitement. Right now, the Saber-Sword Immortal King is extremely famous, his deeds circulating around the City of Ancient Emperors.

“You are the Saber-Sword Immortal King?” A voice rang out. A moment later, some of the immortal kings actually stepped to the side, opening up a pathway as several figures walked through them.

The person in the lead was actually a female immortal king. She was extremely beautiful and just a glance at her was sufficient to sense the aura of nobility. This woman was able to cause the beauty of the moon to pale. By standing there, she became the center of attention of everyone, attracting their gazes.

“Xu Qingyao.” The immortal kings stared at this female, instantly knowing her identity. She was a top-tier beauty in the central regions. Not only was she beautiful, her talent is shockingly high as well, causing many males to hold her in envy, and invoking jealousy in other females.

Qin Wentian still had his eyes closed, it was as though he hasn’t heard the words. During these days, many people came and caused a disturbance. Maybe it was because of the incident where he killed Zi Daolong, many people managed to guess his identity just glancing at the sword and saber on his back.

“I’m speaking to you. By ignoring me, are you not being a little too rude?” A light smile appeared on Xu Qingyao’s face, instantly causing the atmosphere to lite up. She curiously surveyed Qin Wentian, this man who was a mid-stage immortal king yet powerful enough to kill Zi Daolong.

Xu Qingyao was also a mid-stage immortal king and she was at the peak-phase of it. The man before her was also a mid-stage immortal king and he only used a single day for his name to resound throughout the entire City of Ancient Emperors.

“What do you want me to reply?” Qin Wentian opened his eyes and glanced at her. His eyes flickered with a bright light, as he was somewhat taken aback. This woman before him was undoubtedly one of the most beautiful ones he had ever seen. Her graceful figure was perfectly accentuated by her clothing, she also had a flawless countenance that could only be described as stunning.

“Saber-Sword Immortal King, I wish to discuss the dao with you. Am I not qualified enough for you to speak?” Xu Qingyao stared at the flickering light in Qin Wentian’s eyes as her smile grew even more radiant.

Qin Wentian silently mused at what a beauty this woman was. He stood up and laughed, “With a beauty like you, how boring would it be to discuss the dao? Why don’t we discuss romance, flirting around with each other and weave poetry about the wind, the flowers, the snow and the moon? Wouldn’t that be more excellent?”

The expressions of everyone instantly changed as they stared at the Saber-Sword Immortal King. This fellow was truly audacious, daring enough to kill Zi Daolong and even tease Fairy Xu with words. Could it be that he had no idea who Xu Qingyao was? Xu Qingyao wasn’t someone so easily teased with words. There was once a peak-stage immortal king who did so and ended up extremely miserably. There was in fact, no need even for Xu Qingyao to act personally

Chapter 1473: Taking Liberties

Xu Qingyao's gaze stiffened, staring somewhat strangely at Qin Wentian. She naturally knew of her own charm. Not many males would be able to resist it and for those who knew of her identity, even though they admired her in their hearts, they would still keep a respectful distance, not daring to show any disrespect to her. However, this Saber-Sword Immortal King actually wanted to talk about romance with her, flirt with her and even weave poetry about the wind, flowers, snow and moon?

The smile in her eyes was extremely beautiful. Xu Qingyao spoke to Qin Wentian, "Sure, why don't we have a spar? If you win against me, we will do what you want."

As an expert at the peak-phase of the mid-stage, Xu Qingyao was very curious with regards to the Saber-Sword Immortal King's combat prowess. Sparring was the most direct method to sate her curiosity.

"Fairy, don't lie to me okay. If I win against you, I want you to accompany for a total of seven days and seven nights as we flirt with each other." Qin Wentian smiled at Xu Qingyao. Wanting to see his strength level? The price to pay will not be little. If not, when the people of the City of Ancient Emperors wanted to spar with him, wouldn't he be very busy accepting all their challenges?

A strange light flashed in Xu Qingyao's eyes but she still had a smile on her face. "If that's the case, that would have to depend on the Saber-Sword Immortal King's strength."

"Since Fairy wants this, this seat will respectfully comply. Fairy, be careful." Runes suddenly appeared in Qin Wentian's surroundings as the vajra holy will flared, enveloping him. The aura of a peak-phase mid-stage immortal king radiated from Xu Qingyao. She smiled at Qin Wentian and pointed a jade-like finger at him. In an instant, a stretch of petals appeared, shrouding Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian was trapped within this sea of petals. In his vision, Xu Qingyao was like a celestial maiden, causing lotuses to bloom with every step she took. Her graceful figure danced about, as she moved closer to him with that beautiful smile on her face. Her beauty was truly enough to cause one's soul to be captivated, falling heads over heels in love with her.

Qin Wentian had a smile on his face, quietly admiring the beautiful scene before him. At the same time, he stretched out his palm and blasted out a golden vajra palm strike, capable of crushing everything.

"Pu…" The dainty, fair and jade-like finger blasted into the vajra palm. The runes crumbled as cracks appeared on the imprint. She actually managed to shatter the palm imprint.

"Such a beautiful illusion, allowing one to be immersed within. That dainty finger actually is capable of such power. Fairy, your technique is really excellent." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed golden, seeing past all illusions. The sea of petals vanished, Xu Qingyao wasn't dancing at all. Earlier in the combat, only the final finger strike was real, tyrannical to the extreme, containing boundless might. If he hadn't experienced it for himself, it was very hard to imagine that such a dainty and jade-like finger would contain such power. Ordinary immortal kings would definitely die to that.

So it turns out that the earlier scene was just an illusion cast by Xu Qingyao. She was a supreme beauty and was actually proficient in illusory techniques. Her charm and her beauty were part of the illusion-scape, causing people to fall into it easily.

"You are actually skilled in buddha-path techniques?" Xu Qingyao's eyes flashed. More illusions appeared, countless silhouettes of herself filled the area. Pressing out with her fingers, dazzling beams of light containing immense might shot out.

Xu Qingyao had an extraordinary background. Her parents were immortal emperors. Her illusory abilities were inherited from her mother and as for that heaven shattering finger, it was an ultimate technique created by her father. When that technique was cultivated to the limits, the user would be able to shatter the dome of the heavens.

Qin Wentian was still smiling. Xu Qingyao was at the same level as him, how could her illusory techniques fool him? He continued sitting there cross-legged, not moving from his position but the light from the runes around him increased in brilliance. His body itself was like a grand formation of runes, one with the heavens. The vajra holy will that coated his body made it so that he had an indestructible golden body.

More finger imprints blasted into Qin Wentian, causing thunderous sounds to ring out as the golden vajra body started to crack. Xu Qingyao's strength was extraordinary but since they were at the same level, Qin Wentian was confident that she wouldn't be his opponent.

Xu Qingyao saw that her attack actually failed to break Qin Wentian's defense. Her beautiful eyes gleamed with a bright light. This Saber-Sword Immortal King truly did live up to his reputation of being able to kill Zi Daolong. His strength is outstanding, and just the defensive strength he displayed was enough to shock everyone.

"The martial path brooks no mercy. Isn't it too boring to discuss the dao?" Qin Wentian smiled. His left hand stretched out as the holy will of the pagoda gushed forth and suppressed everything. In an instant, Xu Qingyao, who wanted to retreat, had her movements sealed by the heavy pressure. Her graceful figure writhed but she had no way to struggle free. It felt like there was an invisible giant pagoda pressing down on her.

"So, it's still better for fairy to flirt with me. Let us talk about love instead." Qin Wentian laughed. Stretching out with his right hand, a fearsome sword intent gushed out. In the next instant, Xu Qingyao only felt her entire body turning cold, as though the god of death was approaching. Only now did she realize that fighting in close-combat with this Saber-Sword Immortal King was simply asking to be abused.

"Can it be that you are really willing to ruthlessly attack a beautiful flower like me?" Xu Qingyao flashed a dazzling smile, capable of mesmerizing the entire world. Even Qin Wentian was somewhat dazed by her smile. Luckily, he cultivated the art of truth and had a powerful will. He was able to resist the temptation as he laughed, “I naturally wouldn’t bear to destroy such a beautiful flower. I only want to talk about love with fairy for seven days and seven nights, going without sleep or rest.”

As he spoke, he moved forward and stabbed out with his finger, blasting into Xu Qingyao. The violent energy churned destroyed her defenses, causing her to moan in pain. Blood trickled from her lips as her countenance turned as pale as paper.

“HOW DARE YOU!” Numerous immortal kings stepped out. When they saw that Xu Qingyao was injured, all their auras gushed forth. However, before they could do anything, they only saw Qin Wentian’s left arm shoot out, grabbing Xu Qingyao into a hug, causing her to lean against him. Her fragrance drifted over as his fingers gently stroked Xu Qingyao’s face. “Everyone, stop moving recklessly.”

As the sound of his voice faded, those immortal kings who unleashed their auras all paused, dumbstruck. After that, their eyes began to flicker with the burning embers of rage as they stared at Qin Wentian with hatred.

This bastard actually dared to do this to Fairy Qingyao. Xu Qingyao’s beauty was unrivalled and many immortal kings wanted to pursue her, claiming her to be the goddess of their hearts. However, right now, the Saber-Sword Immortal King actually pulled her into a hug? He was simply courting death!

Xu Qingyao’s expression finally changed. Before this, she had a smile on her face and agreed to everything because she felt that she had the situation under control. However, the Saber-Sword Immortal King was actually so tyrannical and even dared to take liberties with her. What sort of character was she, Xu Qingyao? She has never suffered such treatment before.

Xu Qingyao tried to struggle free but Qin Wentian used more force and pressed her closer to him. His fingers were still gently stroking her face as he smiled, “Fairy, you are as beautiful as a celestial from the nine heavens. Being able to talk about love with you, this must be the most wondrous thing in this world.”

“Saber-Sword Immortal King. I, AM, XU QINGYAO!” She shouted out her identity, wanting to cause Qin Wentian to feel fear.

“Fairy Qingyao, your name is as beautiful as your person.” However, Qin Wentian didn’t seem to have heard of her. His fingers were still gently stroking her face. Xu Qingyao radiated coldness and stated, “Saber-Sword Immortal King, have you gone crazy? You even dare to treat me like this?”

“Fairy Qingyao, what are you talking about? Before this, you already agreed that if I’m the victor, we would flirt and talk about love for seven days and nights. You mean you are planning to break the agreement?” Qin Wentian furrowed his brows. His fingers slowly traced down the contours of her face, and began stroking her neck. His fingers seemed about to dip even further below.

Xu Qingyao stiffened, she didn’t dare move. Her face was burning hot, a mixture of shame and anger. She was a supreme beauty with outstanding talent and an extraordinary background. Everywhere she went to, she would be respected by others. But today, there actually was someone daring to treat her like this, taking liberties with her in both a verbal and physical manner.

The experts in the surroundings were dumbstruck, staring at the Saber-Sword Immortal King taking liberties with Xu Qingyao out in the open. The holy and flawless Fairy Xu was actually going to be tainted by this man. Has he gone mad? He dared to kill Zi Daolong and even dared to do this to Fairy Qingyao.

“Fairy, you better honestly honor your promise to this seat. Are you planning to break the agreement?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with coldness as his fingers moved lower down her neck. Xu Qingyao was panting and her body actually trembled. She gulped and replied, “Fine, I will honor our agreement for seven days and nights.”

Qin Wentian suddenly smiled, the coldness he radiated earlier all disappeared. “However, Fairy doesn’t seems to be too willing to do so?”

Now, both his hands were near the area of her twin peaks. Xu Qingyao turned pale, but she forced a smile on her face. “How can that be?”

“Alright then.” Qin Wentian laughed and retracted his roaming hands. He hugged Xu Qingyao in an embrace and with a flash of his silhouette, he soared up into the skies. “Fairy Qingyao and I shall talk about love for the entirety of seven days and nights. You guys best don’t interrupt us. Farewell.”

As he spoke, Qin Wentian left while laughing uproariously. The immortal kings all began to soar up into the air to chase after him. Their faces were as pale as paper, as their anger towered up into the sky. This Saber-Sword Immortal King had sullied the goddess in their hearts.

“This Saber-Sword Immortal King is going to be in great trouble.” Some of those immortal kings who still remained behind all shook their heads.

“That’s right. He most probably still have no idea who Xu Qingyao is. Daring to take liberties with her is simply courting death.”

“Forget it, he has already created so much trouble. Killing Zi Daolong, slaying a peak-stage immortal king of the Paragon Sword Sect, and numerous experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. Which of his deeds wouldn’t bring him trouble? Right now, even Xu Qingyao is added into the mix. There’s basically nothing the Saber-Sword Immortal King wouldn’t dare to do. Those who want to find trouble with him best be prepared to pay the price. Males will end up like Zi Daolong and females will end up like Fairy Qingyao.”

“Yeah. Is he planning to challenge all existences here in the City of Ancient Emperors? There should be many admirers of Xu Qingyao here, and an exceptionally powerful character is among them. That guy probably won’t spare the Saber-Sword Immortal King.”

“Yeah. However, the Saber-Sword Immortal King’s talent is really exceptional. If he steps into the peak-stage of the immortal king realm in the future, he might be able to contend against all these people. However, right now, his cultivation is merely at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, he is nothing but an insignificant being to those people. This time around, his act of taking liberties with Xu Qingyao is a greater mistake compared to when he killed Zi Daolong.”

This news was soon circulated throughout the City of Ancient Emperors. The name of the Saber-Sword Immortal King once again made huge waves, as more and more people knew of him.

What sort of character was Xu Qingyao? She was so famous but she was actually being taken advantage of. What a major matter this is? In an instant, countless geniuses were all waiting to watch a good show.

At this moment, on the roof of a random ancient palace. An immortal king exuding magnificence laughed loudly. “This time, there’s actually someone taking liberties with the woman you are pursuing. Where can you put your face? Hahaha!”

Another supreme character was slowly wandering through the City of Ancient Emperors. He heard many people talking about the matter regarding Xu Qingyao as he mumbled in a low voice, “This time around, how would that supreme crown prince character deal with this Saber-Sword Immortal King? Things are getting interesting.”

Chapter 1474: Disbelief

The Saber-Sword Immortal King vanished and he brought Xu Qingyao along. Given how beautiful Xu Qingyao is, there were even people saying that she would definitely be 'tainted' by the arrogant Saber-Sword Immortal King. How could any man not take advantage of such a beautiful woman when he had power over her?

That Saber-Sword Immortal King even dared to directly abduct someone like her. What else would he still not dare to do?

However, this Saber-Sword Immortal King was definitely in for it. This time around, it was unknown how many people he offended by doing so. Was he really planning to antagonize each and every immortal king in the City of Ancient Emperors?

Very swiftly, a voice spread throughout the City of Ancient Emperors, telling the Saber-Sword Immortal King to send Fairy Qingyao back safely without touching a single hair on her head. If he dares to do anything to her, he shall be torn into a million pieces. If he is willing to repent, he has to send Fairy Qingyao back and beg for her forgiveness. By doing so, he would be able to escape death.

This, was the final chance for the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

The tone of this voice was extremely tyrannical. To a person like the Saber-Sword Immortal King, an ordinary voice wouldn't be able to shock him. Only using the most direct and tyrannical tone of voice and choice of words, would maybe be able to scare him a little.

However at this moment, Qin Wentian had already brought Xu Qingyao to a remote mountain range. The City of Ancient Emperors was simply too vast, especially so for this, the third level. It was like an entire world.

At the peak of the mountain, Xu Qingyao saw Qin Wentian moving step by step closer to her. Her face turned pale, she didn't expect Qin Wentian to actually bring her to such a remote place. Could it really be that he had some malicious plans? She had never once imagined that such a thing would happen to her, Xu Qingyao, before.

"If you release me, I can promise you any condition you want, just list out your terms. What do you want to exchange?" Xu Qingyao stared at Qin Wentian as she spoke.

"I only want Fairy to accompany me for seven days and nights as we flirt and talk about love." Qin Wentian smiled at her. Xu Qingyao trembled and took a step back, "If you do anything to me, there won't be any place for you to hide despite how vast the world is. Could it be that you have never heard of my name before? Both my parents are immortal emperors, if you really do 'that' thing to me, they will definitely spare no expense and use all methods to hunt you down."

"Fairy must be joking with me. I killed Zi Daolong, his father the Violet Emperor, is a peak-stage immortal emperor. I don't even fear him, why would I give a damn about your parents?" Qin Wentian's smile widened as he continued approaching her,

Xu Qingyao kept retreating. After she was brought here, Qin Wentian actually sealed off her cultivation.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, why must you lust for a few moments of joy and gain so many enemies? We are cultivators, cultivating the dao is our main priority. Beauty is merely like the floating clouds, unable to be of any benefit to you." Xu Qingyao's voice grew weak as she did her best to persuade him.

"Lusting for a few moments of joy? Beauty?" Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed as he laughed. "By living in this world, shouldn't we do things that would make us happy? We naturally cannot neglect cultivation of the dao, but why is there a need to forsake pleasure and enjoyment?"

He already arrived at Xu Qingyao's side and stretched out his hand, gently hugging her by her waist. With a smile on his face, "Fairy Qingyao, don't you think that what this seat has said is right?"

"That might be true to a certain extent. However, in the City of Ancient Emperors, I have many admirers who wish to pursue me and there are plenty of peak-stage immortal kings among them. There's a crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire that is truly an unrivalled character and he has many other supreme experts as his followers. He is one of those who has no opponents in the immortal king realm, one of the strongest elites that stands at the pinnacle here. Zi Daolong is like an ant before him, so you better reconsider your actions."

"Are you threatening me?" Qin Wentian pressed Xu Qingyao closer to him, staring at that beautiful face only a few inches away from him as a slightly demonic smile appeared on his face.

"Release me."

Xu Qingyao was completely flustered being taken advantage of like that. This Saber-Sword Immortal King's lust knew no bounds, and he simply had no fear at all. No matter what she said, he didn't seem to care. He was simply a madman. If she knew his character was like this, she would never have tried to antagonize him at all in the first place.

"Fairy, your beauty truly delights my heart." Qin Wentian's face inched closer as he smiled.

After speaking, he simply released Xu Qingyao and turned back to the edge of the mountain peak and sat there cross-legged. "Fairy, why don't you come over here for a chat?"

Xu Qingyao gritted her teeth, but she didn't dare to disobey for fear of infuriating this man. Qin Wentian might do something that she would regret. She could only obediently walk to his side.

"Fairy, don't stand on ceremony. Please be seated." Qin Wentian spoke. Xu Qingyao coldly glanced at him and finally sat down beside him.

"Fairy, did you realize that even though I'm in such a remote place, the emperor's fate behind me is still constantly growing stronger?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Emperor's fate can be considered as collectible amounts of destiny here in the City of Ancient Emperors. Since your name rocked the City of Ancient Emperors, causing more people to learn of you, your fame would increase and, in turn, destiny would accumulate on you. Even if you hide away, your name is still circulating out there, generating destiny." Xu Qingyao replied.

"I see. What is the use of the emperor's fate then?" Qin Wentian smiled. Xu Qingyao saw that Qin Wentian no longer took liberties with her, and hence, she was more than happy to answer him. She replied, "There are rumors long ago saying that a new era is coming. Immortal kings and emperors would appear in great numbers as the strongest among them people would fight for supremacy, for the right to lord over everyone in the world. This would validate the path of ancient emperors, and hence, the rules of the city also changed along with the change of the era.

"It's also said that when the strength of the emperor's fate reaches a certain level, that person will be able to see things others cannot see, and come into contact with secrets obscured from the senses of others in the City of Ancient Emperors."

"Fairy, you said that your parents are immortal emperors. They must know many secrets here, right? Is it okay for you to share some information with me?" Qin Wentian stared at Xu Qingyao. The smile in his eyes caused Xu Qingyao to feel somewhat nervous, scared that this fellow might be tempted by her beauty and might start to do something uncontrollable.

"There are some rumors saying that the City of Ancient Emperors doesn't originate from this place, containing inheritances of dao elements of the other immortal realms. Hence, from the past eras until now, the geniuses of our realm would all head to this place, wanting to seek out bouts of good fortune for them to grow stronger." Xu Qingyao explained. This caused Qin Wentian's eyes to flash. As expected, this was what the black dragon had told him. This City of Ancient Emperors had a connection to the other immortal realms.

"Fairy, do you know that there's a black dragon here that controls the law energy of this city. Do you know who is he?" Qin Wentian asked.

"From the conjectures of my parents, the City of Ancient Emperors is actually a divine weapon in the form of a city. It is situated in its independent space and the black dragon might be an envoy sent here to control it. There should also be other kinds of dao elements in here."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There were actually so many secrets about the City of Ancient Emperors.

After that, he closed his eyes and quietly cultivated. Xu Qingyao's eyes flashed, she silently retreated but Qin Wentian did nothing to stop her. Only then did she heave a sigh of relief.

After seven days, Xu Qingyao soared through the air with a hint of surrealism in her eyes.

She didn't expect that the Saber-Sword Immortal King really released her so easily, only making her accompany him for seven days and nights as according to the agreement. During this period of time, he didn't do anything to her, not even glancing at her. It was like her beautiful countenance was nothing to him at all.

Seems like everything the Saber-Sword Immortal King did earlier was just a prank, intentionally teasing her. Maybe, this was his punishment for her provoking him.

"This fellow, what sort of character is he exactly?" Xu Qingyao grew even more curious about Qin Wentian. She was very confident in her beauty, and it's true that she was comparable to a celestial maiden. Countless people admired her, and there were no males that wouldn't want her.

But this Saber-Sword Immortal King clearly didn't fear her and didn't care about offending her. If not, he wouldn't have taken liberties with her back then in public. However, when she thought that she would suffer the most terrifying humiliation in the perspective of a female, that fellow actually didn't touch her at all? This made Xu Qingyao feel a little strange. Although she rejoiced in this, she couldn't help but start to doubt her own charm.

"Hey, isn't that Fairy Qingyao?" Someone saw Xu Qingyao who just appeared in the city area.

"She has returned. After being trapped for seven days, she's clearly more haggard…" Numerous gazes landed on her as a strange light flashed in their eyes.

Seven days and nights, talking about romance and love. The Saber-Sword Immortal King abducted such a beautiful maiden, was it really just for a simple chat?

Xu Qingyao saw the strange light gleaming in the eyes of the crowd as coldness instantly covered her face. She could faintly guess what these people were thinking about, and this made her expression turn unsightly.

She continued walking, and more people encountered her. However, although adoration could still be seen in their eyes, there was also a hint of lust now. In the past, none of them would dare to look at her this way. This indicated that they believed the Saber-Sword Immortal King had done something to her...

"Fairy Qingyao, are you okay?" At this moment, a magnificent character walked over, staring at Xu Qingyao as he asked.

This was the son of an immortal emperor. He had extraordinary status and a strong cultivation base to match.

"I'm fine, the Saber-Sword Immortal King didn't make things difficult for me." Xu Qingyao spoke. The gaze of the young man flashed but this didn't escape Xu Qingyao's sight. She then frowned, "You don't believe me?"

"I do." That young man nodded.

"You are clearly still doubting me." Xu Qingyao's voice turned cold.

"Fairy Qingyao, why are you so agitated." The doubt in the young man's heart increased, staring at her. At this moment, Xu Qingyao's countenance was extremely unsightly. She then replied, "Scram, do I even need to explain anything to you?"

As she spoke, she directly departed. That young man still stood there, his fists were clenched as his expression turned ashen.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King. I will definitely kill you." A terrifying killing intent flickered in his eyes as the doubt in his heart grew stronger.

The reappearance of Xu Qingyao caused rumors to fly everywhere. Even for that crown prince existence, he also had some doubts in his heart. He was truly enraged and spread the news telling the Saber-Sword Immortal King to instantly come to see him. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King kowtowed and crippled his own cultivation base, he shall spare his wretched life.

Other than this, there were many peak-stage immortal kings and supreme experts saying that they would definitely kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King. During this period of time, the fame of the Saber-Sword Immortal King completely erupted. Qin Wentian discovered a strange phenomenon. Although many people hated him, the emperor's fate behind him still kept growing stronger.

As for Xu Qingyao, she was also cursing Qin Wentian silently in her heart. This damnable bastard...her own reputation was destroyed nonsensically like that!

Chapter 1475: Who wants to kill me?

After Qin Wentian released Xu Qingyao, he also left the area, wandering aimlessly around the City of Ancient Emperors as he searched for secret ruins.

This boundlessly vast City of Ancient Emperors is a separate dimension that had a possibility to be connected to the other immortal realms. There were also voices saying that the era was changing, resulting in the rules here being changed. There would definitely be many secret ruins hidden here.

Qin Wentian roamed about in all directions in the wilderness, and the Saber-Sword Immortal King naturally slowly vanished without a trace. Hence, there were people saying that the Saber-Sword Immortal King had hid himself away, not daring to show his face. There were even rumors saying that he had left the City of Ancient Emperors. He knew how major the mistake he committed was and wanted to avoid trouble.

Many experts were searching for him, wanting to finish him off. The people of the Violet Emperor also entered the city and joined in the search as well.

Right now, it was unknown how many in the City of Ancient Emperors wanted the Saber-Sword Immortal King's life.

Right now, Qin Wentian was at a broken down hall. The emperor's fate behind him was extremely terrifying, about to turn corporeal, enveloping him within. This caused his entire being to be blessed by destiny. His gaze was terrifying, his eyes shining resplendently. Upon staring at this hall, his eyes were seemingly able to see through all illusions. He could see what this ancient hall once looked like - majestic and imposing, with emperors carving traces on the walls, containing emperor's intent.

He took a step forward and entered. In his vision, this wasn't a dilapidated hall but was a complete one. There are also traces of combat here. The emperor's intent is extremely strong, rushing inside his mind as he quietly comprehended them.

"Xu Qingyao claimed that emperor's fate are collectible amounts of destiny here in the City of Ancient Emperors. Seems like that isn't false. If I didn't have such a huge amount of emperor's fate, I wouldn't be able to see the true appearance of this hall. The emperor's fate actually has such a unique use to it. How wondrous." Qin Wentian mumbled silently. Although he wasn't here long, each combat he fought was extremely earth-shattering. With his exemplary battle achievements, the amount of emperor's fate he collected was naturally plenty.

After spending a long time here, only then did Qin Wentian leave this place and continue forward. Occasionally, he would sense the existences of others that were also roaming the wilderness, in search for ancient ruins within the City of Ancient Emperors.

...…..

One day, Qin Wentian sat cross-legged on a vast empty plains as he quietly comprehended the energy here. In his mind, this wasn't an empty plain. There was a sword-shaped rock before his eyes and it was radiating an almighty sword intent.

One day, Qin Wentian came before a mountain. This mountain stood quietly before him, seemingly ordinary. However, when the light from Qin Wentian's emperor's fate projected over it, he could see that the mountain was actually shuddering. At the foot of the mountain, a desolate primordial beast laid there, sealed by the pressure of the mountain. The beast was roaring and struggling, causing the huge tremors. This couldn't be seen with the naked eye and could only be sensed with emperor's fate. If one merely stared at it, they would see that this place was nothing more than an ordinary mountain.

One day, Qin Wentian came before an ocean. This wasn't the eastern seas but was an ocean within the City of Ancient Emperors. Other than the city area located in the central regions, the other directions extended endlessly. This dimension where the City of Ancient Emperors was located, was incomparably vast. The more Qin Wentian explored, the more shock he felt. This didn't feel like a separate space at all. It was more like a boundlessly vast and gigantic world.

By borrowing the effect of the emperor's fate, Qin Wentian was able to sense the terrifying energy in the ocean. There also seemed to be an intense churning of water currents deep within.

However, given his amount of emperor's fate, he still felt that he was unable to discern things clearly. Maybe, he would only be able to see more only after his emperor's fate grew stronger.

During this period of time, Qin Wentian simply roamed around the wilderness regions and comprehended many insights. He gradually discovered that within this world, there truly was a great number of shocking secrets.

The black dragon said that the era has changed. Xu Qingyao said it too. The change of the rules here made Qin Wentian feel that there must be something major happening within here in the past which caused the appearance of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and the descent of the Devil God Mountain, which pulled the curtains of the new era apart.

Although he saw many wondrous things, Qin Wentian didn't forget to cultivate. Whenever he gained an insight, he would sit down and ponder over it quietly as he did his best to comprehend them.

To Qin Wentian now, he wanted nothing more than to increase his strength, gaining a deeper understanding of laws and learn how to better fuse the different attribute energies. He still had insights he gained from the Eastern Tomb and would need much more time to fully digest them as he slowly upgraded himself.

Unknowingly, Qin Wentian already spent two years in the City of Ancient Emperors.

Today, he sat on a mountain peak with his eyes closed. Law energy radiated from him, much stronger compared to two years ago. The light from laws could be seen circulating around him, growing more and more resplendent.

With a wave of his hand, a supreme suppressive might appeared in the area as a humming sound filled the void. A supreme pagoda appeared, augmenting the power of suppression. This transparent pagoda circulated with boundless runic light, akin to a formation as the holy will surged from within, further reinforcing the suppressive might. At this moment, the pagoda was spinning around in a spiral as beams of light from it engulfed the sky and earth, exuding boundless apocalyptic might. The beams of light blasted into the mountains ahead, instantly levelling them all, turning the area that was once filled with mountains back to flat ground.

He was using the pagoda-type holy will as the base to form a pagoda law domain that could be considered a qualitative evolution of his divine elephant suppression domain. He was able to fuse both together, allowing the suppression might to increase in intensity. This law domain was like a prison to his enemies, binding them and restricting their movements, much stronger compared to the divine elephant law domain in the past. Before this when he fought, he had to specifically manifest the tiny pagoda to be able to augment his suppression might. Now, he could intensify the suppression might with just an intention of his will.

Other than this, Qin Wentian still gained insights about other types of power. He experimented and tried to fuse them with some of the law-attribute energies he cultivated, merging them within his innate techniques, wanting them to increase in quality and achieve an evolution.

It would be for the best for him to comprehend as many types of energy as possible. By using different types of law attribute energy, he would be able to further conceal his identity as people might recognize who he is if he kept using the same ones.

At this moment, the law energies in the area vanished as everything returned to its normal calmness. Qin Wentian stood up, and with a flash of his silhouette, he left this place.

These two years, many changes occurred in the City of Ancient Emperors. There were even more experts from the immortal realms here, including an increase in the number of greater demons from the desolate mountains. Right now, even the external world knew that there were changes in the City of Ancient Emperors and there might be plenty of good fortune to be found. Things might be the same as the era of ancient emperors as the city would produce rarely-seen inheritances from the past. Hence, more and more experts entered here.

At this moment, many geniuses gathered at a certain location as they discussed the changes in the City of Ancient Emperors and exchanged pointers about the dao.

"Right now in the City of Ancient Emperors, for those experts in the immortal king realm that stand at the peak, their emperor's fate can transform into true dragons or ancient phoenixes, forming a corporeal body. Many ancient ruins opened up to them and they are allowed to cultivate in there. They would only grow stronger and stronger and would break through to the immortal-emperor realm sooner or later, gaining an opportunity to fight for the chance to become an ancient emperor."

"That's right, the rules of the City of Ancient Emperors changed as many ancient ruins and secret realms appeared. However, only those with powerful emperor's fate can enter. The stronger someone is, the further the distance between us would grow. Other than those standing at the peak, I wonder if there are any others that have the potential to become a supreme being."

"Fairy Qingyao, it's rumored that that crown prince admires you. Do you know how strong he is exactly?" There were some who turned to Xu Qingyao as they asked. Numerous gazes landed on her. Xu Qingyao's beauty was legendary and her talent outstanding. Many people liked to project their questions onto her.

"I'm not clear." Xu Qingyao replied, her expression a little cold.

"Speaking of this, I suddenly thought of something. That crown prince asked him to come out and kneel to apologize and is willing to spare him from death. However, that person hasn't appeared up till now, he must have already left the City of Ancient Emperors. Fairy Qingyao was abducted by that man back then, I wonder if you have an approximate gauge of the Saber-Sword Immortal King's strength?" A female immortal king in the surroundings smiled as she asked Xu Qingyao.

Instantly, the expressions of many people changed. Wasn't this purposely wanting to mock Xu Qingyao. That incident two years ago could be considered a taint on Xu Qingyao's reputation. Even now, many people believed that Fairy Qingyao's purity had already been taken away.

This female immortal king was none other than an admirer of that crown prince. Many people understood in their hearts that this female immortal king was doing this intentionally.

As expected, Xu Qingyao's countenance changed. She icily replied, "Very strong, strong enough to kill you with no effort."

"Oh is that so? Fairy Qingyao regards him so highly? Why did he sneak away then? Fleeing like a defeated dog. Right now, there are so many in the City of Ancient Emperors that want to kill him. Could it be that Fairy Qingyao has fallen in love with him?" That female immortal king was also pretty and her cultivation base was the same as Xu Qingyao. She had no qualms about keeping her volume down and this made Xu Qingyao's expression grow increasingly unsightly.

"The rumor that he fled might not be real. But if he doesn't want to be that defeated dog which fled away, I will definitely kill him if I encounter him in here." An young-looking admirer of Xu Qingyao spoke with a glacial tone. His cultivation base was at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm.

"I think so too. Many people love to distort the truth and exaggerate things. He is merely a coward, but if he hasn't fled from here and dares to appear in the City of Ancient Emperors again, he most probably wouldn't be able to stay alive for long." The female immortal king laughed. "In this place, there should be major powers that suffered losses from the Saber-Sword Immortal King before, right? What do you all think?"

"Sadly, before this old man came to the City of Ancient Emperors, he has already fled. If not, how else would he still be able to live?" An aged immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty spoke. His aura was vast and majestic, exuding a powerful might.

"What a pity he fled so fast." A peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect also coldly spoke.

Two years ago, Qin Wentian offended too many experts, and all of them were from peak powers of the immortal realms.

"Is that true? Are you guys so impressive?" At this moment, a voice drifted over from afar. The expressions of everyone here froze as their gazes turned over in the direction of the voice. After that, their bodies all stiffened.

Over there, in the air, an expert was slowly moving over towards them. On the back of this man, there's a sword and a saber. This was clearly the mark of the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Upon seeing this figure, Xu Qingyao's beautiful eyes froze. After that, she gritted her teeth. This bastard actually still dared to appear here? This must mean that he had never left the City of Ancient Emperors.

"Everyone here is basking in their glory, and your words so imposing. You guys really resembled those people who died two years ago, all of them so brazen and loved acting like lofty figures. However, where are those people now?" Qin Wentian had a demonic smile on his face. The eyes of everyone narrowed, what an arrogant fellow this man was. There was no doubt this man was the Saber-Sword Immortal King. He actually dared to appear and even challenge everyone here, provoking them.

"I'm standing right here. Who wants to kill me?" Qin Wentian swept his gaze over the crowd as he spoke, he had no regards for any of these immortal kings in his eyes at all!

Chapter 1476: Disregarding Everything

The geniuses here discussing the dao were all staring at Qin Wentian. Many radiated coldness, their killing intent intense.

Brazen! This Saber-Sword Immortal King was too arrogant and brazen. He actually appeared before everyone just like that and was mocking them, asking them who wanted to kill him.

Did he think that no one here could kill him?

Although his combat prowess was unparalleled and was even strong enough to finish Zi Doalong, this place, was after all, filled with many experts, including many supreme peak-stage immortal kings. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was merely a mid-stage one. He was simply too audacious by standing here and disregarding everything.

"You still dare to appear in the City of Ancient Emperors?" A cold voice rang out. After that, a very young-looking peak-stage immortal king stood up. His fists were clenched as his eyes stared straight at Qin Wentian.

"Who the hell are you? Are you even worthy to speak to me?" Qin Wentian domineeringly replied. The aura of that peak-stage immortal king towered up into the sky, he coldly smiled, "Fine. I shall avenge Fairy Qingyao today."

"His life, is mine." Another voice rang out. The person who spoke was none other than the aged immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. His aura was majestic and vast, terrifying to the extreme.

"It's the same no matter who kills him. Since he appeared here today, it's already fated that he would definitely die." The eyes of an immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect gleamed with terrifying sharpness as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Which of us is going to be the one to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" A supreme immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire coldly spoke. Back then, Qin Wentian killed five immortal kings from his empire. This matter was simply a humiliation to the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

Countless voices rang out, all of them wanting to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King. This caused the crowd to all have expressions of interest on their faces. For those who came to the City of Ancient Emperors later, they were more excited about this. This fellow actually incurred so much hatred. But when they heard him speak earlier, it did seemed that the Saber-Sword Immortal King intentionally wanted to stir the anger of the masses.

"Just these few? Earlier, didn't many of you say that I don't match up to my reputation and can easily kill me off? Right now, I'm standing right in front of everyone. Why are you people not talking now? Feel free to come at me." Qin Wentian swept his gaze over to the crowd, his gaze pausing momentarily on the immortal kings who said that they wanted to kill him earlier, including that female immortal king who was against Xu Qingyao.

"Killing a filthy character like you would only dirty my hands." That female immortal king arrogantly replied, she was an extremely prideful character, exuding a transcendent aura, beautiful and elegant.

"Filthy?" Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply.

"As an immortal king character, you have no shame and tainted Fairy Qingyao. Are you not filthy enough?" That immortal king had a cold look in her eyes. Even when disparaging Qin Wentian, she didn't forget to rub salt in Xu Qingyao's wounds.

"Hahaha! Back then Xu Qingyao wanted this seat to spar with her and agreed to accompany me for seven days and nights, chatting about love if she lost. Many people can bear witness to this. After that, according to the agreement, I brought her away for seven days and nights, what's so filthy about it? Only those with filthy minds while retaining an appearance of innocence are the truly filthy ones." Qin Wentian sarcastically spoke, clearly referring to the female immortal king.

"Insolent!" That female immortal king raged as she glared at Qin Wentian.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian's eyes suddenly turned incomparably sharp. In an instant, his sword intent surged forth in unending waves, his will capable enough to destroy everything. That female immortal king suddenly screamed as her eyes started to bleed. She covered her eyes with her hands as her body trembled in agony.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" The experts in the surroundings all hurriedly retreated as they stared with shock at this scene. This female immortal king was a mid-stage immortal king expert, yet she was actually blinded by a single gaze from the Saber-Sword Immortal King?

Wasn't this a little too terrifying? How strong is the Saber-Sword Immortal King exactly?

"His gaze is capable of killing. What eye technique is this?" The hearts of everyone trembled as they stared at Qin Wentian.

"I'm insolent?" Qin Wentian laughed loudly as he continued, "How many people here have grudges with me and wouldn't hesitate to kill me? Who the hell are you to even dare to sprout nonsense here, saying that I'm a defeated dog? For someone like you who loves to talk about others behind their backs, I blinded you just to teach you a lesson. You better reflect upon yourself after you return, or you might really be killed because of the nonsense you spoke. This is just a small price to pay."

How tyrannical were Qin Wentian's words? He simply had no one in his eyes. After blinding the female immortal king, he still told her to scram and reflect upon herself?

"ARGH!" That female immortal king let out a scream mixed with pain and misery. She cultivated to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, only she herself knows how tough her path was. However, because of a few sentences she spoke, this Saber-Sword Immortal King actually did this to her. Right now, she didn't dare to respond to him. Although she was blinded, her strength was still there. As long as she still had this level of power, there would still be possibilities. If she continued talking nonsense, that Saber-Sword Immortal King might just decide to finish her off.

"I curse you to die with the cuts of a million blades." That female immortal king cursed venomously in her heart. There were so many experts here who wanted to kill Qin Wentian. They must definitely not let him die so easily.

"Is this who the Saber-Sword Immortal King really is? Seems like back then when he killed Zi Daolong and offended a large number of peak powers, he really did so. He is someone that lives up to his reputation, a truly frightening individual." The hearts of the crowd silently mused, still extremely shocked. Just a gaze from him blinded a mid-stage immortal king. This was simply too terrifying.

Qin Wentian's sharp eyes swept over. Those who insulted Qin Wentian before all averted their gazes, not daring to match eyes with him. It was like they were all afraid of Qin Wentian taking revenge.

"Earlier, didn't many of you feel that I'm like a defeated dog, and had fled from the City of Ancient Emperors? Didn't you guys say that it would be effortless to kill me? Right now, why is no one standing out?" Qin Wentian arrogantly spoke, disregarding everything. His eyes glanced towards a young-looking immortal king. This immortal king appeared young but he had actually cultivated for many years, and his cultivation base was very terrifying, at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. This man was one of Xu Qingyao's admirers. Earlier, he was the one who said that Qin Wentian was a defeated dog and he would definitely kill him if he encountered Qin Wentian in the city.

That immortal king saw Qin Wentian glancing at him and knew that there was no way he would be able to avoid this battle. However, when he personally saw Qin Wentian displaying his power, as well as that unexcelled arrogance, he was already no longer as confident as before.

"Everyone, the Saber-Sword Immortal King simply doesn't put us in his eyes. Let's act and kill him together. For such a despicable scum, the heroes of the City of Ancient Emperors should all work together and kill him." That young-looking immortal king brought up the suggestion, wanting the other experts here to work together with him.

"HAHAHA, what a shameless fellow. Earlier, your words were filled with arrogance, as though I would die for sure in front of you. But now, you are actually persuading the immortal kings here to gang up on me? And you even spoke in such a righteous manner. Do you even know shame?" Qin Wentian laughed maniacally. He stepped out, his movements akin to lightning as he moved towards that peak-stage immortal king.

His eyes were like sharp swords, capable of piercing through everything. In the center of his brows, a third eye appeared. He smiled as he spoke, "I shall make you experience this seat's swordeye domain.

As the sound of his voice faded, his eyes gleamed with terrifying sword light. That peak-stage immortal king only felt a wave of sword intent shooting towards him. He explosively retreated, but in the next moment, his surroundings all turned into a swordeye law domain. Inside here, sword vortexes spun rapidly, terrifying to the extreme.

"BOOM!" That peak-stage immortal king unleashed his law domain. His body of laws was extremely powerful but there was fear in his heart. Qin Wentian could manifest his law domain with a single gaze, trapping him inside just like that. The terrifying attacks inside this domain also kept attacking him unceasingly.

"Can you block them all?" Qin Wentian coldly smiled. Within the swordeye law domain, the destructive sword might was sent forth in waves after waves. All of a sudden, Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a bright light and the sword-type holy will instantly drilled into his opponent's mind. That peak-stage immortal king only felt an unblockable invincible sword slashing over to him.

"Trash!" Qin Wentian roared. Within his law domain, that peak-stage immortal king was directly killed, his body riddled with a thousand holes as he died miserably.

"This…" Everyone stared in terror at that magnificent figure. Qin Wentian had his arms crossed in front of his chest. The saber and sword were still strapped to his back and weren't unsheathed. With just the strength of his law domain, he directly killed a peak-stage immortal king. He was like a god of war that descended to the earth.

At the immortal king level, all the characters that reached this would naturally have pride and arrogance in their hearts. They wouldn't easily think that they were inferior to others. Although rumors about the Saber-Sword Immortal King spread wildly, there were still many powerful immortal kings that weren't convinced. They felt that many of the rumors were too exaggerated.

But now, when the Saber-Sword Immortal King really appeared, they discovered to their shock that the rumors weren't exaggerated at all. In fact, the rumors didn't even clearly tell of the Saber-Sword Immortal King's strength and indicate how terrifying he really is. The Saber-Sword Immortal King that appeared before their eyes was much stronger compared to their imaginations.

No wonder he dared to show up alone and was incomparably arrogant despite facing so many immortal kings, having no one in his eyes.

Those who wanted to kill Qin Wentian earlier all had a heavy expression on their faces. Seems like the person they wanted to kill is much more terrifying than what the rumors claimed. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was absolutely unrestrained, directly engaging in slaughter. Was this because of the confidence he had in himself? Experts of the Paragon Sword Sect, Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and the other peak powers were all disregarded by him.

Xu Qingyao stared at Qin Wentian as waves arose in her heart. Although her background was extraordinary and she has encountered countless geniuses before, she had never met someone as brazen as the Saber-Sword Immortal

King. A mid-stage immortal king rushed into the crowd and directly killing peak-stage immortal kings. One had to know that there were over ten experts gathered here whom all wanted to kill him.

This man was simply lawless, having nothing in his eyes. No wonder he dared to abduct her back then.

Right now, those immortal kings who wanted to kill him didn't act immediately. They were silently conversing with each other on how they should kill Qin Wentian.

The strength of this Saber-Sword Immortal King was simply too terrifying. He was able to kill Zi Daolong and easily finish off initial-phase peak-stage immortal kings. His combat prowess should be equal to ordinary late-phase peak-stage immortal kings. If it was a one versus one fight, no immortal king was confident that they would be able to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"You guys are still not acting? Are you all discussing how best to kill me?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed when he saw those immortal kings remaining silent. "There's no need to care about face, just come at me together. Who doesn't know how shameless you guys can be? Why is there a need to discuss so long?"

"Everyone, since he wants to die so badly, let's act together to kill him. We shouldn't waste time and it wouldn't be worth it if he moves to kill one of us before we act." Right now, an immortal king finally suggested openly.

Chapter 1477: Unexcelled Majesticness

Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards the immortal king who spoke. His demonic eyes flashed with coldness as a powerful sharpness gushed forth into the eyes of the speaking immortal king. That immortal king screamed in pain as his eyes bled. His body trembled violently.

"There are no problems if you want to kill me. However, you best think things through before you act." Qin Wentian waved his hand as a wave of sword might slashed out, creating a terrifying beam of light that sliced through the body of that immortal king.

When the other experts wanted to save him, there was only a corpse there.

Qin Wentian's movements were too quick. With a gaze and a wave of his hand. He was like an invincible devil, there was no one who could stop him.

"You…" Those immortal kings stared at Qin Wentian with rage as their eyes turned bloodshot.

"What about me? I already told you guys to gang up on me, can it be that I'm not allowed to kill anyone and must wait for you all to kill me? Do you think that I'm a fool?" Qin Wentian coldly snorted and took a step forth. His swordeye domain intensified in might, engulfing this entire space.

"Why are you guys not attacking? If we all don't start acting, each of us will merely die one by one." An immortal king inside the law domain shouted.

The immortal kings mutually glanced at each other. Earlier, Qin Wentian told them to think carefully before they acted. Clearly, for those who wanted to kill him, he would kill them. For those who acted to kill him but failed, death was the only ending.

"Let's do it. KILL HIM!" The peak-stage immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect spoke. After that, numerous paragon swords manifested and floated in the air as a towering sword domain appeared, trapping Qin Wentian. Giant swords rained from the sky, wanting to blast into their target. The space around Qin Wentian transformed into a prison of swords, wanting to destroy him within.

Numerous swords filled with killing intent, shooting towards Qin Wentian. The Paragon Sword Sect long had a death grudge with the Saber-Sword Immortal King, they naturally wanted his death for sure. In any case, these people were all supreme experts and extremely decisive. After hearing the command, everyone immediately launched their attacks and joined in.

"Attack!" That old immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty also commanded as the experts under him attacked. Instantly, violent attacks blasted towards Qin Wentian as fearsome royal seals manifested in the air, each containing immense might.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, how would he face off against these enemies?" The spectators stared at the battlefield. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was now trapped inside a dangerous sword formation. Thousand of swords and royal seals blasted towards him, brimming with overwhelming might. No matter how strong the Saber-Sword Immortal King is, many of the spectators right now were worried for him

However, since he so arrogantly appeared here and even challenged the characters from the major powers, it was impossible that he came here to court death. He must have some trump cards which gave him the confidence to do so.

At this moment, in the eyes of the crowd, the body of the Saber-Sword Immortal King gleamed with blinding light as runes circulated wildly around him. His body expanded gradually as the power of God's Hand was activated within his body. Everyone who was looking at him felt that the Saber-Sword Immortal King's body of laws was as dazzling as an undying divine body.

"What a powerful body of laws. Is his physique strengthened to the max?"

"Even for experts who cultivate their body, it is impossible for one's physique to be strengthened to this extent. His body is like a grand formation, a divine body."

Qin Wentian's physique was naturally powerful. From young, he has already paid attention on refining his physique. After that, he had the Fiendgod Body Refinement Art, God's Hand and Vajra Holy Will to temper his body. Right now, it was unimaginable how tyrannical his body of laws was.

"Hu…" Many experts drew a deep breath, it was simply too shocking. When Qin Wentian's body expanded, the clearer it was for them to see how terrifying it was. How could this be the body of a human? It's more like a grand formation, an invincible divine weapon.

When the terrifying swords and royal seals slammed into him, a thunderous rumbling sound could be heard as they shattered upon impact. This body of laws was just too powerful, resembling or even surpassing the bodies of those greater demons from the Desolate Mountains.

"For those who have nothing to do with this, retreat now!" A loud voice echoed out from the peak-stage immortal king of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. All the immortal kings who were spectating had long retreated far away. Seems like this battle would soon erupt with intensity, the aftershocks engulfing a vast area of space.

As expected, the sword might intensified as the domain trapping Qin Wentian expanded, shining with a resplendent light.

The experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty all created royal seals, hurtling them towards Qin Wentian with the speed of a shooting star, wanting to suppress and destroy him.

"Hahaha! So many peak powers here, can it be that your strengths are only at this level? Are there not more powerful law domains?" Qin Wentian laughed maniacally. His body was now a thousand meters in size and the force of his laughter caused the space to tremble. Even the spectators faraway felt their bodies shuddering as shock filled their hearts.

This Saber-Sword Immortal King was simply too outrageous, mocking the experts from the peak powers to be trash.

"Before this, I didn't even need to unleash my law domain to kill the insects from your sects. Since you guys only have this much strength, let me give you all a chance to broaden your perspectives and see this seat's domain clearly." Qin Wentian arrogantly laughed. As the sound of his voice faded, his law domain engulfed everyone.

The pagoda law domain filled the entire space here with an unimaginable pressure, pressing down on everyone.

Those mid-stage immortal kings were forced to prostrate on the ground from the pressure, they couldn't even stand straight.

The pagoda law domain was covered with a brilliant runic light, akin to a shocking grand formation. This law domain of his consisted the ultimate art of Ancient Emperor Yi. The principles of God's Hand were used when he established this law domain. The holy will from the Eastern Tomb as well as a mix of other powerful law-attributes also infused it, augmenting its might. For those supreme characters of the peak powers, even if they were here, they might not be able to produce such a shocking domain.

"There's an ancient saying that if you sought the dao in the morning, you would die a happy man in the evening. Today, this seat will allow you guys to see why this is so and what an immortal king is truly like. You guys can go to hell now."

Qin Wentian's voice was like thunder from the sky. As he spoke, the pagoda law domain manifested a heavenly pagoda that radiated beams of light, shooting towards his enemies. One of the beams directly shot into the body of a mid-stage immortal king, piercing through him. That immortal king groaned in pain, coughing out blood as his internal organs crumbled from the heavy pressure as he died there and then.

The spectators were all shocked to the extreme, simply not daring to believe the scene they were seeing. This was too astonishing. All of them were immortal kings, but the Saber-Sword Immortal King, who was merely at the mid-stage, was actually powerful to this extent. He was simply invincible.

Behind him, his emperor's fate flared even brighter, unceasingly accumulating destiny in the City of Ancient Emperors.

In the pagoda law domain, many immortal kings started to feel despair. They didn't imagine that this law domain would be so powerful. When the destructive pagoda will bore down on them, terror filled their faces as all of them were crushed within. For those beneath the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, all of them died one after another, incapable of withstanding even a single strike. No one in the same level as Qin Wentian was able to defend against his law domain at all.

Even for initial-phase peak-stage immortal kings, they were enduring miserably and some of them were even coughing blood from the impact.

Qin Wentian coldly regarded the immortal kings in his law domain. Since these people wanted to kill him, there was no need for him to show any mercy at all. If people didn't want to antagonize him, he wouldn't take the initiative to cause trouble for them. But since everyone felt that he was good to bully, there was no need to be soft-hearted at all.

For an elite who reached the peak-phase of the mid-stage immortal king realm, how could one be a coward? One had to press ahead with courage, slaying all enemies who opposed them.

With a wave of his hand, a divine sword appeared as he slashed at an initial-phase peak-stage immortal king. That immortal king was still resisting the pagoda will. When the sword intent gushed forth, he simply had no way to block and was slain by a single strike. With a scream of misery, his eyes that were filled with despair stared at Qin Wentian with reluctance, he didn't want to die.

Qin Wentian's sharp sword changed direction as sword qi filled the atmosphere. Who here could block him?

Xu Qingyao's heart pounded even more rapidly, incomparably shocked. She knew that Qin Wentian was powerful but she didn't expect him to be so powerful. So powerful to the extent where his enemies can only feel despair. Leaving aside mid-stage immortal kings, even many peak-stage immortal kings felt despair. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King broke through to the peak-stage, was there anyone who still could stop him?

Would these people be able to block his magnificence?

This Saber-Sword Immortal King was a character that was qualified to vie against those supreme geniuses standing at the peak in the City of Ancient Emperors. He had the capabilities to rush to the top, becoming one of those dazzling few in this brand new era.

Naturally, the prerequisite was that he must still be alive by then. After offending so many experts, can he really still live on despite his shocking strength? Xu Qingyao was doubting so.

"I'm inferior to him. I won't be able to catch up in my entire life." A spectating immortal king sighed. Before this, he was also brazenly boasting here, and was the same as many, wanting to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King. But now, what an irony that was. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King wanted to kill him, it would be as easy as killing an ant.

Upon thinking of this, that immortal king cast a glance at Xu Qingyao before turning and departing the area. He was clearly worried that Qin Wentian would seek him out for revenge.

Quite a lot of people here had the same thought as that immortal king who left. Before this, all of them were extremely arrogant, saying that they would surely kill Qin Wentian. Right now when they saw the combat, Qin Wentian's strength caused all of them to feel a sense of helplessness. Wanting to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King? They weren't even qualified to wipe his shoes for him.

Hence, the vast majority of those who wanted to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King all shut up. In fact, there were many who silently left. Maybe they felt that they had no face to remain behind or maybe, they had the same thoughts as the immortal king who left earlier. They were scared that Qin Wentian might find them for revenge because of the words they had spoken.

As they departed, there was another batch of immortal kings who rushed here. These newcomers were staring at the battle with shock and disbelief in their eyes. The Saber-Sword Immortal was radiating an unexcelled majesticness.

Chapter 1478: Tyrannical Voice in the City of Ancient Emperors

"Who is this man?" There were some experts who newly arrived and had no idea who Qin Wentian was.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King." Someone replied.

"Two years ago, he killed Zi Daolong and even dared to abduct Fairy Qingyao? Is he that Saber-Sword Immortal King? Isn't he at the mid-stage? Why is he so terrifying? With so many immortal kings ganging up on him, they were actually all killed by him?" Someone exclaimed in shock.

"Yeah, he is just too powerful. Before this, I still thought that the rumors were exaggerated. But now, not only are the rumors not exaggerated, their content actually didn't do justice to the Saber-Sword Immortal King's prowess. He is simply a demon-level character with a divine body." A person who personally witnessed the battle could truly sense how terrifying Qin Wentian was.

That gigantic body crushed everything. With the pagoda law domain in effect, no one could stand up to him. Many of those immortal kings who said that they wanted to kill him earlier had all fled. And as for those who participated in this combat, they were directly crushed in such a short period of time. Only two of the strongest late-phase peak-stage immortal kings were still alive.

One of these two was the aged immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, and the other one was a supreme expert from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

"Royal dragon seal, KILL!" The old man roared. His beard fluttered in the wind as his body expanded to Qin Wentian's size. Standing before Qin Wentian, both of them were like gods. A startling heavenly royal pressure gushed off from him and as the seal attack blasted forth, destructive might permeated the atmosphere. That powerful royal seal had titanic might equivalent to true dragons. It expanded rapidly, wanting to devour everything in the world.

"Haha old fellow, you are dying soon but you still dare to fight against this seat?" Qin Wentian laughed arrogantly, further solidifying the impression of the Saber-Sword Immortal King in the hearts of everyone. In the future, when people mentioned about the Saber-Sword Immortal King, they would all think about a supreme character with excellent skills in sword and saber, coupled with a tyrannical law domain.

Qin Wentian slashed out a magnificent sword strike. His sword flowed like water, as roars of anger along with towering sword might rocked the area. The royal dragon seal trembled from the impact of the strike. Qin Wentian's sword attack manifested a demonic dragon, fighting against the seal as they clashed repeatedly against each other.

The sword light ferociously shot out, wanting to destroy everything. With a thunderous boom, the royal dragon seal finally shattered.

"RUMBLE!" From the back, a powerful punch creating a beam of light shot through the air, blasting towards Qin Wentian. This punch was blasted out by a human emperor phantom. The phantom was about to turn corporeal and was like the dharma idol of the peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

These two most powerful immortal king that remained, were both now the same size as Qin Wentian as they battled, launching attacks one after another, sparing no expenses to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King. If Qin Wentian didn't die, they would be the ones who died.

"You guys, don't both of you feel ashamed?" Qin Wentian coldly sneered. He blasted out palm attacks as a giant devil palm imprint blotted out the sky, shattering everything.

The pressure from the pagoda continued boring down on his enemies while shooting out beams of destruction at them. The two powerful peak-stage immortal kings had to use their maximum strength to resist. If their cultivation bases were slightly lower, they would be the same as the others, dying on the battlefield.

"Ten Thousand Seal Domain!" That old immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty roared. His law domain gleamed with an even more intense light, illuminating all directions, manifesting numerous seals as a tyrannical aura gushed forth.

"Old fellow, this is useless. Suck a weak domain in front of this seat is truly nothing at all." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The pagoda holy will shot towards the seals, crushing all of them. He took a huge step forward and arrogantly spoke, "I will not play with you any longer. Let this seat send you on your way."

As the sound of his voice faded, his eyes flashed with lightning as a terrifying burst of sword intent blasted towards the old man. The old man naturally had long set up his defenses, using his law energies to protect himself. When the sword intent slashed towards him, it actually failed to break through the defense of the old man.

A cold smile appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes. The sharp sword in his hand waved about, creating rivers of sword qi that shot forth with unyielding momentum. At this instant, that old man only felt himself sinking into an illusion as he entered a dreamscape.

"Damn!" But as expected of a peak-stage immortal king, the old man's will was immensely powerful and he discovered something was wrong in an instant, struggling free from the dreamscape. The sword qi rivers finally shattered the protection of his law energies. He roared thunderously and exuded a powerful pressure. But right now, he only saw the cold eyes of Qin Wentian shooting out beams of illusory light. A moment later, the old man's body tensed up as a fearsome scene appeared in his mind. There was a pitch-black ancient halberd in Qin Wentian's hand that was piercing towards his head.

"Soul attack?" The heart of the old man trembled violently. Was this Saber-Sword Immortal King still a human? Not only are his material attacks and physical defense cultivated to such a terrifying level, but he was also actually even proficient in soul attacks? The stronger one's cultivation is, the stronger their soul energy naturally would be, granting them a high soul defense. However, at this moment, this peak-stage immortal king felt his soul shaking. He could feel the god of death beckoning to him.

"GO TO HELL!" A roar reverberated within his soul. He stared dumbfoundedly as the ancient halberd of Qin Wentian piercing towards his soul. He reacted instinctively, using all his immortal energy to protect his soul. Just as he was doing so, Qin Wentian, in reality, had already slashed out with his sword, beheading this late-phase peak-stage immortal king.

All this happened within a very short span of time. During this span of time, the peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire naturally wouldn't miss the opportunity. He brandished a fearsome emperor sword, slashing towards Qin Wentian's indestructible body with the entirety of his strength. Qin Wentian's body gleamed with golden vajra light, resisting against the power of that slash. But even so, Qin Wentian was injured by the force of the blow. A scar could be seen on his body.

This was also the first time Qin Wentian was injured. However, this injury actually caused the spectators to draw in a breath of cold air instead as they stared at him with terror in their eyes. That was an all-out attack from a late-phase peak-stage immortal king, yet it only injured Qin Wentian slightly, failing completely to kill him? Was this really the defense a mid-stage immortal king possessed? Was the Saber-Sword Immortal King wearing a set of powerful divine armor?

Their guess wasn't wrong, Qin Wentian did wear a set of divine armor that fused with his body. This armor was created in the Eastern Tomb Immortal City. If it wasn't for this armor, his injuries would definitely be much heavier. After all, that was an all-out attack by a late-phase peak-stage immortal king. How could it not be powerful?

However, this defensive armor didn't really boost Qin Wentian's defense by much. His defense by itself was already extremely terrifying due to the vajra golden body he cultivated, furthered reinforce by the principles of God's Hand. With the vajra holy will infused within, how could his defense not be strong? Ordinary immortal kings basically didn't even need to think about breaking through his defense.

That peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was also stunned. He clearly didn't expect that his all-out strike would only cause Qin Wentian to be slightly injured. When Qin Wentian finished off the peak-stage immortal king from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, his heart pounded rapidly and he actually retreated. He could tell that there was no way for him to defeat this monster, despite the fact that his cultivation was one level higher.

"No good. He has already lost all intent to battle, how can he still stand against a character like the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" The crowd sighed. These two powerful late-phase peak-stage immortal kings were both useless, unable to win against Qin Wentian. In fact, this immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was actually preparing to flee. From this, one could very well imagine how terrifying the Saber-Sword Immortal King is.

As expected, just as all the spectators predicted, since that immortal king no longer had the intent to battle, how could he even win against Qin Wentian? In addition, he was even within Qin Wentian's law domain.

Not long after, that peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was heavily injured. Qin Wentian grabbed out with his hand, grabbing the head of his opponent as he laughed maniacally, "Wanting to kill me? Are you guys up to it?"

As he spoke, he forcefully crushed the head. As a explosive sound rang out, another peak-stage immortal king died.

Upon seeing this scene, the hearts of many involuntarily trembled. For those spectators who were watching faraway, including experts from the major powers whose people were killed, none of them dared to step out at this moment. If they really stepped out, death would be the only path for them. They could only seek out the strongest supreme experts of their sects and clans that's currently in the City of Ancient Emperors to kill this Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"Is there still anyone who wants to kill me?" After finishing his opponents, Qin Wentian glanced at the crowd. Nobody dared to reply.

The emperor's fate behind him grew more and more terrifying. This time around, Qin Wentian domineeringly appeared and crushed all resistance. The main purpose for doing so was to accumulate more emperor's fate. He wanted the awe and respect of everyone, making everyone in the City of Ancient Emperors fear him. Only so would his emperor's fate then continuously grow stronger. After all, emperor's fate was the key to opening up many secret realms and ancient ruins here.

"If there are still people who wish to kill me, just speak out now." Qin Wentian spoke with cold arrogance. His body reverted to his original size. After that, with a flash of his silhouette, he soared through the air and left this area.

"Hu…"

"He finally left. This Saber-Sword Immortal King is too terrifying."

"Yeah, for such a character, unless his opponent is one of those supreme demon-level geniuses that stands at the peak, no one else would be able to kill him. Some of those supreme elites most probably would make a move against him soon."

Xu Qingyao stared at the vanishing silhouette speechlessly.

Before he appeared, many people were doubting his ability and wanted to kill him for different reasons. Some wanted revenge, some envied him, some were for the sake of gaining emperor's fate. But now, who would still dare to harbor such thoughts?

The news of this battle soon circulated out. Those who boasted that they would kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King all fell silent, no longer daring to speak nonsense in case they were killed for it. The battle achievements of the Saber-Sword Immortal King were too dazzling after that fight. There was no one who wouldn't feel trepidation at the mention of his name.

At this moment, more news spread around the City of Ancient Emperors. That crown prince character sent out another message that if the Saber-Sword Immortal King still refused to seek him out, kneel before him and beg for mercy, he would personally act to hunt him down, crippling his cultivation base before gifting the Saber-Sword Immortal King to his enemies to torture to death.

When this news circulated around, many people exclaimed in admiration. As expected of a crown prince character, he was truly tyrannical enough. No matter how powerful the Saber-Sword Immortal King is, he still wouldn't have the capabilities to act arrogantly before this person!

Chapter 1479: Appearance of Inheritances from the Dao Elements

Qin Wentian vanished once more. This time, he came out to battle because he felt that his emperor’s fate wasn’t strong enough yet. Hence, he came to this location where many geniuses in the City of Ancient Emperors gathered, crushing all his enemies to ‘grow’ his emperor’s fate.

After this battle, he left directly, searching for bouts of good fortune in the boundlessly vast City of Ancient Emperors.

Emperor’s fate is collectible amounts of destiny. The stronger one’s destiny is, the more opportunities for good fortune they would be able to see. For this point, Qin Wentian had already verified it. This time, his emperor’s fate grew even more intense and the secrets he was able to see when he passed by some wondrous place, were naturally more in-depth.

As for the voice of that crown prince, although he heard it, he didn’t really bother with it. When one has cultivated to his level, the state of his heart would naturally be extraordinary. How would he be angered because of the words someone had spoken?

In addition, it was rumored that that crown prince was one of those supreme geniuses standing at the very peak in the City of Ancient Emperors, a demon-level genius. Even if he could defeat him, so what of it? Right now, the thing Qin Wentian had to do, was to raise his strength to the peak-stage. When he reached that point, he believed that he would be able to sweep through all immortal kings in the City of Ancient Emperors. At that time, the emperor’s fate here would be all his as more and more destiny accumulated on his body.

However, raising one’s strength wasn’t something that could be done in a single day, especially so when one was already at Qin Wentian’s cultivation realm. Some people were stuck here for thousands or ten thousand of years and were still unable to break through. Although the era was changing and many supreme characters have appeared, but without some opportunities, it was almost impossible for him to reach the peak-stage in a short amount of time.

For such opportunities, Qin Wentian naturally could only search for them in the City of Ancient Emperors.

Not only him, for those geniuses standing at the peak, they were also searching the wilderness for opportunities. Their names have already shook the entire city and all of them had copious amounts of emperor’s fate, almost to the point where their fate turned corporeal. Hence, because they were able to see more things in the City of Ancient Emperors, they naturally learned of more stuff.

This is why the Saber-Sword Immortal King vanished without a trace, but the other ordinary experts who wanted to hunt him down had no idea why this was so. Among them, there were also the immortal kings sent here by the Violet Emperor and a peak-stage crown prince character sent here by the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. The Saber-Sword Immortal King killed many experts from their Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, this debt of vengeance definitely had to be repaid.

There was also that crown prince who sent out the message wanting Qin Wentian to beg for mercy. His voice completely disregarded and the Saber-Sword Immortal King, making it as though his words were a fart. He was naturally extremely enraged and sent out a command to the experts under him to spare no expense and search for the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

However, how would anyone be able to find him? Right now, Qin Wentian came to a remote mountain. He was here before and back then, he already felt that this mountain was unique. His emperor's fate in the past was enough for him to sense how special this place was, but he wasn't able to completely see through the secrets here.

This time around, he came here once more after his emperor's fate increased. His eyes gleamed with a terrifying golden light and in an instant, the scene changed before him. An ancient immortal palace appeared on this desolate mountain. There were tall pavilions around it and even streams of flowing water and a waterfall cascading down at a mountain by the side.

To his shock, Qin Wentian discovered that there were actually two completely different scenes before him.

"Is this the by-product of some illusionary formation? But why are things so real?" Qin Wentian silently mused. He surveyed this space and slowly walked forward. A moment later, he heard the melodious tune of a zither and couldn't help but to walk in that direction. He came to a pavillion in front of a stream. There was a middle-aged figure with long black hair currently playing a zither.

At this moment, the middle-aged man lifted his gaze and stared at Qin Wentian. At this instant, Qin Wentian seemed to be completely seen through as he entered an illusory void. In this vast space, only he and that man existed.

"Who are you?" An ethereal voice drifted over. Qin Wentian wanted to break free from this illusion yet it was useless no matter how he tried to. This illusion was too tyrannical, dragging him into it with just a glance. He had completely no way to struggle free.

"I'm the Saber-Sword Immortal King." Qin Wentian spoke.

"That's not the whole truth, is it? You have a concealment mask on your face. Why are you hiding your identity?" That voice rang out once more. Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he didn't expect that he would be seen through by this person.

Qin Wentian removed his mask and revealed his original features. "My name is Qin Wentian. I have no choice but to conceal my identity because I have too many enemies. Senior, please don't take offense."

As the sound of his voice faded, the illusory void vanished with it. He once again stood before a middle-aged man who was playing the zither. The eyes of the middle-aged man were extremely terrifying, containing a natural imposingness within.

“Senior, given your cultivation base, why are you in the City of Ancient Emperors?” Qin Wentian was somewhat taken aback.

“You completely have no idea what sort of place the City of Ancient Emperors is, right?” That middle-aged man lifted his head as his black eyes stared at Qin Wentian.

“Junior only heard that the City of Ancient Emperors is in an independent space with dao elements from the other immortal realms in it. I have no idea if this is true or false, would senior please provide me with some guidance?” Qin Wentian clasped his hands and asked. This man was able to cause him to be trapped in an illusion with just a glance, he was most definitely an extremely powerful expert.

“There are a total of three dimensions in this independent space. But for the third-level, it’s known as an overlap dimension with emperors and kings being separated in the same space. In order to prevent emperors from seizing inheritances and good fortune that’s for immortal kings, this was the reason why the overlap dimension was created. You guys cannot see each other, only those at the same realm would be in your vision, but in fact, emperors and kings are both in the same dimension.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. There actually was such a thing?

“As for the dao elements of the other immortal realms, this is true but they wouldn’t be present in all eras. Only when the rules of the City of Ancient Emperors changed and the descent of a brand new supreme era is imminent, would these dao elements appear. Also, in such an era, the price for contending for the inheritances of these dao elements, are all exceedingly great.” That middle-aged man explained.

“What is the price?” Qin Wentian asked.

“When a type of dao element appears, there would definitely be many experts contending against each other. The situation is immensely cruel because the inheritance of each dao elements is only limited to a single person. Hence, the vast majority who fought for it would all end up dying. As long as you want to gain an inheritance, you would have to walk on the path of blood and slaughter, defeating everyone under the heavens.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flickered as he felt shock in his heart. In that case, the reason why the black dragon said the rules and era have changed and wanted him to start all over again, contending against the other supreme genius, was this?

“Why is senior so clear about these things?” Qin Wentian curiously asked. “Senior, who are you? Why are you here?”

“Haha, do you feel it’s strange? Because, I’m one of those who failed to gain an inheritance from the dao elements and is suppressed within the City of Ancient Emperors forever.” That expert sighed, causing Qin Wentian’s heart to pound rapidly. “Senior, you are someone from the ancient era?”

“That’s right. Not only me, for every era, but the number of corpses here are countless. But there are also many supreme characters who didn’t die. Their cultivations were sealed and they were suppressed within the city. Ordinary people would have no way to sense or see us but because you have enough emperor’s fate and also cultivate a similar kind of law attribute with me, you are able to sense this place and see me.

“What law attribute?” Qin Wentian asked.

“The law energy of dreams.”

“Is this place a dreamscape created by senior?” Qin Wentian’s gaze flickered. “In that case, that illusory void I was trapped in before, was a dream created by senior?”

“Your reaction is really fast. Whatever you see here, they are all dreams. When dream force fused with some other energy, the people trapped within would feel that there’s no difference from reality despite everything being illusory. Upon seeing the amount of emperor’s fate on your body, I can tell that the rules of the city have changed and the new era is arriving.” That middle-aged man sighed.

“How can junior help senior to break free from here?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Help me to break free? Hahaha!” That middle-aged man started laughing uproariously. “We are connected by fate that’s why I decided to meet you and tell you of the cruel truth. You best take care of yourself.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the scene before his eyes dissipated away. Qin Wentian was still standing before the mountain, but everything before his eyes now was just a stretch of desolation. That middle-aged man was as though he didn’t exist.

Qin Wentian sat cross-legged and directly cultivated right here on the spot. Overlapping dimensions, dreams like reality. Qin Wentian felt that he had gained an insight. He could sense the remnants of the dream force lingering in the area. Before this, he used the laws of dreams to create a nightmare sword art, but dream force should be able to be used for other things instead.

Each cultivation session allowed Qin Wentian’s comprehension of law energies to deepen as his cultivation base climbed up bit by bit.

After a long period of time, Qin Wentian departed. He continued roaming the wilderness and saw many wondrous sights and even entered some secret ruins to cultivate. He had his own opportunities and unknowingly, he had already spent many years in the City of Ancient Emperors.

During these years, the City of Ancient Emperors kept changing and many phenomenons appeared. For example, there was a giant towering tree whose peak touched the sky, it radiated a terrifying law energy that provided a boost to people cultivating underneath it. There were flowers being birthed on mountains, transforming it into a prairie, exuding power from the laws of wind and lightning that killed anyone who neared it.

These wondrous phenomenons were similar to the descent of the Demongod Moutnain. Many people said that they are a prior indication that many opportunities of vast good fortune would soon appear. A major storm would soon sweep across the City of Ancient Emperors.

Finally, the day everyone was talking about, was here.

In the airspace of the City of Ancient Emperors, a brilliant light cascaded down, illuminating everything. At this instant, that towering tree grew more vibrant, it’s branches curled together, as though it was paying respects to a divinity. The flower petals of the prairie swirled about agitatedly, brimming with vitality to welcome the change.

At this moment, the countless supreme characters of the City of Ancient Emperors lifted their heads and stared up at the sky. Over there, they could see boundless runic light transforming into ancient runes of the great dao, shocking each of their hearts.

“Inheritances that we can gain from the dao elements? Are these the stories mentioned in legends? There really are inheritances from the other immortal realms here in the City of Ancient Emperors!” Someone exclaimed in shock.

Chapter 1480: Surrounded by Powerful Enemies

A storm caused the entire City of Ancient Emperors to tremble. They could sense the heavenly opportunities in the air.

As expected, the change in the era caused the rules of the city to change. They had never seen nor heard anything like these phenomena before. They only faintly heard their elders mentioning slightly about the dao elements in the legends.

But to think they would personally witness it today.

At a certain stretch of desolation in the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the sky. Around him, the countless blades of grass turned sharp, radiating law energy that intensified as time passed by.

Far ahead, flower petals could be seen being birthed by rocks on the mountain range.

Despite the wondrous scenes, it was as though he didn't see any of them. A blinding beam of light cascaded down from the sky. Was this one of the dao elements spoken of by that expert in the dream he had earlier?

If one really wanted to contend for the inheritance of these dao elements, the vast majority of those who did so would all die. One had to defeat all geniuses contending for that inheritance to remain free or they would be bound by restrictions of the dao elements and would either die or be suppressed within the City of Ancient Emperors forever.

He soared into the air and gazed in the distance. He realized that the closer he got to the central area of the City of Ancient Emperors, the brighter the beams of light would be. It seemed that the energy from the dao element was clearer too. With a step, his silhouette flashed as he rushed towards there.

Not only for Qin Wentian, right now there were many experts who were also rushing towards the central areas, moving closer and closer to the beam of light. It felt like they were afraid that they might lose out on something if they arrived late.

In the air, numerous magnificent figures soared into the air, bathing in the light. They wanted to see what this dao element was about but none of them were able to see through it.

"This dao element is too mysterious. What law attributes do we need before we can comprehend it?"

"Yeah, with the appearance of dao elements, phenomena appeared in the skies of the City of Ancient Emperors. This is simply shocking, I felt the myriad of existences evolving, as well as some energy of the buddha-path. Such a feeling is extremely strange but I can't tell what's going on at all."

"Seems like we were too excited earlier. If we are unable to see through this, this dao element is completely useless to us. Ultimately, do these inheritances belong only to those supreme characters standing at the peak?"

Many people, after their initial excitement, all discovered that they couldn't comprehend anything and couldn't help but to let out regretful sighs.

"Look over there." An immortal king pointed into the distances. There were quite a few experts sitting cross-legged in the air in different locations as their bodies gleamed with light while they quietly tried to gain comprehensions.

There were also some supreme characters whose emperor's fate glowed with a brilliant light that matches the dao element as they contemplated.

"This is a buddha-path dao element." An expert had pressed his palms together, in the gesture of an ancient buddha as he spoke.

"It seems like emperor's fate is able to help us see through the secrets of the dao element." Someone was enlightened as he mumbled.

Emperor's fate was also destiny. For those who lacked it, they had no destiny accumulated on their beings. Even if dao elements appeared before them, they also wouldn't have any chance to obtain the inheritance. How cruel was this? Only those characters at the peak would have an opportunity to obtain this good fortune.

However, there were also some unusual stellar cultivators whose astral souls were of the buddha-path, gaining a resonance with the dao element, allowing them to see some parts of it clearly. They instantly calmed their state of hearts and had solemn expressions as they focused on gaining more insights.

In a certain direction, Bujie appeared. He had his palms pressed together and was revolving a buddha innate technique as his eyes gleamed with golden light. Buddhic runes circulated around him as he stared at the beam of light. He was successful to a certain extent as he could hear the voice of the great dao whispering to him.

"It's truly a buddha-path dao element." Bujie was sure of this. If this wasn't a buddha-path dao element, he most probably wouldn't be able to sense anything at all given his amount of emperor's fate.

"Buddha-path dao element. What a pity, it's useless to us greater demons from the Desolate Mountains." In the air, at a certain area, a group of demonic experts radiating imposingness stood there. The demon in the lead stared at the beam of light while radiating a royal and unexcelled aura.

"Yeah, us demons wouldn't be able to cultivate this in any case. Seems like those bald donkeys (monks) really have to thank their luck." Another greater demon spoke. They were sitting in a sun carriage that emitted an air of majesty. The experts here were as many as the clouds and all had extraordinary auras. The demon in the lead was none other than the same one who killed a crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty back then. He was one of the most elite greater demons present in the area.

Not only him, there were many peak characters of humanity and demon-kind that also appeared in the air. For those who were not here yet, they were most assuredly rushing over. All of them stopped their cultivation and wanted to pry through the secrets of the dao element.

Among these people, there was a group of beauties in a certain direction, radiating charisma and alluringness. With just a gaze at them, many people would feel their hearts being captivated. Even immortal kings wouldn't dare to casually glance over. These beauties were just too beautiful and it was especially so for the beauty in the lead. She was robed in white, exuding a transcendent aura, untainted by mortal dust. She seemed incomparably pure and flawless, and her skin was as fair as her robes, her figure further accentuated by her clothing. She was so perfect that there were no flaws at all. Her features were as exquisite as those of a sculpture, yet there was a hint of something celestial within, as though she didn't exist in the mortal world.

At the center of the woman's forehead, a faint lotus imprint could be seen, increasing her beauty by a few points. The pure and holy her stood there, yet there was undoubtedly a trace of demonic qi to her aura. There was actually such a pure and holy demoness? This simply exceeded the imaginations of everyone.

Xu Qingyao was here as well. She herself was a rarely-seen beauty. However, when the immortal kings beside her glanced at that woman and glanced at her, they actually discovered that be it in terms of beauty or bearing, Xu Qingyao was a shade inferior. Those women gave off a feeling as though they shouldn't exist in this world at all.

"Vixen." Xu Qingyao silently cursed in her heart. It was very rare for her to see a woman whose charm and beauty exceeded hers. But before this woman, she had no choice but to admit that she was inferior. There was also the slightest trace of jealousy in her heart.

Also, this group of females are actually all vixens, nine-tailed vixens!

That demonic woman in the lead didn't even glance at Xu Qingyao but was staring at the beam of light from the sky. Xu Qingyao was the only one treating the woman as a competitor as she compared themselves.

Other than this, in all different directions, magnificent characters appeared one after another.

Qin Wentian finally rushed over. His gaze landed on the beam of light and due to his emperor's fate, he could clearly see the light being made up of countless runes that were clear to his eyes. He was also able to tell that this was a buddha-path dao element. Each and every rune here contained a mysterious energy that's suitable for buddhist-path cultivators to gain insight from.

The runes, that cascaded down unceasingly, were like the words of a book on the Great Dao, immeasurably deep.

Qin Wentian saw Bujie. That fellow cultivates in the buddha-path and was able to sense this dao element. Sadly, his emperor's fate wasn't enough and he had no way to see through its secret.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King. This fellow finally appeared."

"He is truly the Saber-Sword Immortal King. This fellow always disappears for many years after an illustrious battle. Now that dao elements have appeared, he finally couldn't control it any longer and decided not to hide. But how would his enemies spare him?"

Xu Qingyao also saw Qin Wentian. A strange light flashed in her eyes, this crazy fellow appeared again and the amount of emperor's fate behind him was actually already so strong to this extent. This was simply too shocking, he should already be at the point where he could contend against those geniuses standing at the peak. Although Qin Wentian's fame wasn't as high as them yet, the deeds he has done and his battle achievements were simply too dazzling, resulting in him having so much emperor's fate.

There were some greater demons who noticed the amount of emperor's fate on Qin Wentian. One of the greater demons coldly spoke, "Who is this human cultivator? He actually has such a shocking amount of emperor's fate."

"Who are you?" Instantly, another greater demon from the Desolate Mountains stared straight at Qin Wentian as he asked.

With a flash in his gaze, Qin Wentian turned to the greater demon who spoke as he replied, "This seat is the Saber-Sword Immortal King."

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, to think that you have such power. No wonder you are so arrogant back then when we were in Gazing Emperor City." Another greater demon spoke, it was none other than the demonic young man who sat upon one of the floating thrones back then. He met the Saber-Sword Immortal King before.

"We still remembered how you killed a member of my race back then. To think that you are so famous in the City of Ancient Emperors now." A demonic dragon in human form spoke in a glacial tone, staring at Qin Wentian.

"If you want revenge, you can make your move anytime." Qin Wentian's expression was calm as he regarded the greater demons here.

"What arrogance." A supreme greater demon with copious amounts of emperor's fate coldly spoke. "However, since you can be so famous in the City of Ancient Emperors, most probably ordinary peak-stage demon kings wouldn't be able to defeat you. No wonder you are so proud of yourself. But right now, I advise you to better act with more restraint."

"Let me kill him." A greater demon icily spoke.

"No need for that, there would definitely be other humans making a move to deal with him. Why do you need to act?" A greater demon spoke. And as expected, at this moment, a group of humans appeared. The person in the lead was clad in a yellow robe and exuded imposingness, and an unexcelled aura like the king of the world.

Within this crowd, Qin Wentian also saw a familiar face - Huang Shatian who was at the immortal king realm. Clearly, this group of experts were from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

The man in the lead was brimming with a boundlessly vast and mighty aura. There was a crown on his head and it was clear that he is a crown prince character of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, someone with an extraordinary status. He was one of the leaders of this group from his empire here who entered the City of Ancient Emperors.

Qin Wentian recognized Huang Shatian but Huang Shatian had no idea that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was none other than Qin Wentian. Hence, there was no change to his expression, it was as cold as ever. After all, the Saber-Sword Immortal King had killed many experts of his Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

Chapter 1481: Grand Battle Against Huang Jiutian

Qin Wentian's gaze landed on the leading character of this group from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

Huang Jiutian, a crown prince of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, someone with the cultivation base at the peak of the immortal king realm. His combat prowess is extraordinary and ordinary immortal kings simply weren't worthy of even a mention before him.

Right now, in order to deal with this Saber-Sword Immortal King, the strongest character of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire actually came here.

"RUMBLE!" A bright light flashed as a resplendent emperor light radiated from Huang Jiutian. Projections of divine weapons could be seen in the light screen behind his back. This ability was similar to what Huang Shatian used back then but was much stronger in comparison.

"Since you dare to kill someone from my empire, you shall die." Huang Jiutian didn't say much, directly going straight to the point.

"Those who wish to kill me, yet when their skills are not up to the mark, all of them deserved to die." Qin Wentian's tone of voice was tyrannical. Even when facing Huang Jiutian, he was as domineering as ever.

Many people turned their gazes over feeling shock in their hearts. This Saber-Sword Immortal King was like how he was in the past, lawless and tyrannical. In his eyes, there was neither fear nor reverence. Even when facing Huang Jiutian, he refused to bow his head.

"BOOM!" At this moment, the space trembled as more shockingly powerful auras appeared. There was a group of experts riding in a chariot, exuding auras of majesticness. This was especially so for the person in the lead. The demonic beasts pulling the chariot were all demon-king level hydras. Such a demonic beast was usually powerful enough to rule over an area in the immortal realms, but they were actually willing to submit as slaves, acting as a beast of burden.

From this, one could very well imagine how extraordinary the person sitting in the lead was.

That supreme crown prince character has finally arrived.

"Vile creature. This crown prince has ordered you to seek me out to apologize twice but you actually dared to ignore me? Right now, why are you still not kneeling when you see this crown prince?" That supreme crown prince in the air coldly spoke, his voice thundering through the area with unquestionable authority. It was like his words were that of an emperor decree. Everyone had to obey him.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at this person. He had heard the words sent out by this crown prince before. This supreme crown prince was none other than the Crown Prince Yan of the Senluo Immortal Empire, with the title Yama King. He is one of those pursuing Xu Qingyao. Right now, the emperor's fate behind him was incomparably radiant and was in the form of a malevolent dragon, unexcelled in the world.

"Two crown princes have arrived here. One from the Senluo Immortal Empire and the other from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. This Saber-Sword Immortal King is in for it, he came here of his own initiative and now, it would be tough for him to flee even if given wings." Many experts felt pity for Qin Wentian. Although Qin Wentian was arrogant, everyone was impressed by his strength. But now, facing against the two crown princes, especially so with regards to Yama King, it was basically impossible for Qin Wentian to win against them.

In the City of Ancient Emperors, the Yama King, Crown Prince Yan Luowang of the Senluo Immortal Empire, was publicly acknowledged to be one of the strongest individuals here in the City of Ancient Emperors. His combat prowess was unrivalled, none can stand against him. There were once where some peak-stage immortal kings that had dared to compete against him for some treasures and they were all killed with a single strike from him. His strength was basically on a different level, and he was exceedingly famous with everyone knowing him in the central regions of the immortal realms.

"Who the hell do you think you are, daring to speak to this seat like this. Don't you know how those people died?" Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Yama King sitting in the chariot. Regardless of how powerful this opponent is, he himself was already a mid-stage immortal king. There was no need to show any weakness or give face to a mere peak-stage immortal king.

The hearts of everyone trembled. What a good Saber-Sword Immortal King. Tyrannical and lawless, simply having no regards for anyone in his eyes. How lofty a character was the Yama King? Yet he still dared to reply in such a manner, even referring to himself as 'this seat' when speaking to the Yama King and even telling him that he did not know why the others died? How audacious was this?

"Hahaha, there's actually someone who dares to speak to this crown prince like this. I said once before that if you didn't appear before me to beg for mercy, I will cripple your cultivation and gift you to your enemies for them to torture. Since I said it, I will naturally make it happen. How dare you act so insolent towards me." The Yama King cast a glance at Xu Qingyao before turning back to Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke.

His personality was always like this, lofty and high-up in the sky, peering down with disdain at everyone.

"I will handle my own matters. You don't have to do things on my behalf." Xu Qingyao spoke. Although the Yama King wanted to show his kind intentions by dealing with Qin Wentian, she didn't really like the Yama King's personality. In the future, if they really became dao companions, would his attitude be like this when speaking to her as well?

"Your parents instructed me before to take care of you, I will naturally comply with their instructions. Now that someone actually dared to abduct you away, how can I spare him?" The Yama King coldly spoke. He then continued, "Huang Jiutian, since you have a grudge with him, this prince shall allow you to fight him first. If you are unable to handle it, this prince will personally act then."

"A mere Saber-Sword Immortal King but you think I cannot handle him? I will finish him off for sure." Huang Jiutian's strength was weaker than Yan Luowang, but he was also an extraordinary character. How could he show any weakness here? His tone was filled with arrogance and his aura gushed forth.

"Earlier, those who wished to kill this seat have all died one after the other in my hands. I really want to see how you two crown princes have the qualifications to act so arrogantly in front of me." Qin Wentian coldly spoke as terrifying law energies circulated around him. His body was like an indestructible one, radiating a golden brilliance.

"Those people you killed, how can you compare them to I, Huang Jiutian?" Huang Jiutian stepped out, causing the sky to change color as his law domain manifested. In an instant, a resplendent kings light illuminated his surroundings. His astral soul materialized in the center of his law domain. In his surroundings, numerous human emperors appeared, gigantic and imposing, exuding a sense of imperiousness that would cause people to unconsciously want to submit.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, do you know your crime?" The emperors all spoke at the same instant, their voices converging together, producing a thunderous roar that shook the heavens. Countless beams of emperor light shot towards Qin Wentian. For ordinary peak-stage immortal kings, they wouldn't even be able to withstand the beams of light produced by the law domain and would die without a doubt.

Qin Wentian's body gleamed with a brilliant light, like a divine body. When those resplendent beams of light blasted into him, they actually had no way to break through his defense.

This scene once again reminded the crowd how strong the Saber-Sword Immortal King's body of laws was as their hearts shuddered.

"Quite a powerful body." Huang Jiutian's expression was calm. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King was so easily killed, he wouldn't be so famous.

Boundless light congregated behind him as the human emperors that manifested roared, causing countless divine weapons to appear, projecting their divine might which engulfed the law domain, capable of destroying everything.

"RUMBLE!" Waves of that destructive might gushed towards Qin Wentian. When Qin Wentian stepped out, numerous divine weapons slashed towards him, smashing into his body as the impact caused layers of his defense to be broken apart one by one. If this continued, his defense would be completely shattered sooner or later.

"BOOM!"

Stepping out, Qin Wentian released his own law domain. This entire space seemed to be pressed down upon by a crushing pressure from a divine pagoda. The suppressive might with the holy will was able to crush everything here, causing the divine weapons to break apart.

Huang Jiutian's eyes flashed with a bright light when he felt the suppressive pressure. What a powerful law domain, it was akin to a supreme grand formation that had boundless might.

However, Huang Jiutian grabbed out in the air. The human emperors all mirrored his actions as a wave of king's might caused chaotic currents to converged together, forming an energy beam that smashed into Qin Wentian's body. Qin Wentian was forced back, but before he could regain his footing, a chaotic storm of energy bore down on him, wanting to tear him into pieces.

"This law domain is able to boost the strength of his attacks. Huang Jiutian, as expected of a crown prince character that's at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm." Qin Wentian silently mused. Although he was arrogant when he spoke, he knew he definitely couldn't afford to underestimate his enemies and be careless.

His sword intent towered up into the sky as he brandished his sword. With a slash, the storm was slashed apart. He then rushed out, piercing forth with his sword while unleashing the nightmare sword art, causing Huang Jiutian to sink into a daze momentarily. However, what sort of character was Huang Jiutian? How would he be confused for long? He instantly reacted and punched out as the human emperors around him mirrored his actions. Their fist imprint combined together, and unleashed a swath of destruction as it flew towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's sword strikes had the titanic might of true dragons as he clashed head-on with the fist imprint. A deafening explosive sound rang out. Huang Jiutian folded ancient seals as the human emperors fused together, manifesting an ancient one that radiated a powerful might that locked down this space.

"You can die now!"

Huang Jiutian coldly roared as boundless divine weapons shot towards Qin Wentian, humming intensely and emitting sounds of the Great Dao. A supreme might birthed as he slammed out many emperor palm strikes, creating powerful seals, wanting to destroy everything.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a demonic light as he stared at Huang Jiutian. His bloodline power erupted as a blood-red glow radiated from him.

"SLASH!" Qin Wentian howled as his sharp sword frenziedly attacked, shattering the ancient seals one after another. But even so, there was still an overwhelming might boring down on him, crushing Qin Wentian.

Huang Jiutian had a cold look on his face as he saw Qin Wentian's figure vanishing.

"A mid-stage immortal king also dares to challenge the prestige of my Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. You are simply grossly overestimating yourself." Huang Jiutian's aura gradually retracted as he revealed a victorious smile.

The people of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and the surrounding experts were all stunned. What was going on with Huang Jiutian?

Earlier, Qin Wentian's sword strike had opened up a pathway. Although he was injured, he managed to dodge the brunt of the impact. Why was Huang Jiutian speaking like this? Did he believe that he has already killed Qin Wentian?

"This…" The spectators were bewildered. All of a sudden, the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire's countenances drastically changed. Was Huang Jiutian caught in an illusory art?

"CAREFUL!" They roared, warning Huang Jiutian!

Chapter 1482: Supreme Crown Prince

An incomparably resplendent sword beam suddenly erupted at the instant Huang Jiutian retracted his aura, impossibly quick. A roc shadow flashed amidst the light, brimming with the power of a supreme holy will.

Huang Jiutian was shocked awake. His eyes narrowed, staring with shock at the scene before him. How can this be? He was a peak-stage immortal king, a person that stands at the very peak. Hasn't he already killed Qin Wentian with his earlier attack? Shattering his body so badly that his bones crumbled into dust, disintegrating in thin air. But now, what was going on?

"Illusion? But given his cultivation base, how can it be possible for him to bewilder me?" Huang Jiatian silently mused as his aura flared up once more, instantly understanding what just happened. Although he was still unclear how it happened, this wasn't the time to seek out answers. The sword strike was already slashing towards him, wanting to take his life.

His law energy flowed wildly as his defense was maximized to its limits. Huang Jiutian gave a thunderous roar, he was like a supreme ancient emperor and his body abruptly expanded in size. Huang Jiutian knew that this sword strike by his opponent was too quick, there was simply no way for him to evade, he could only forcefully defend head-on against it. Naturally while defending, he didn't forget to launch his own attack to weaken the power of the Saber-Sword Immortal King's sword attack.

However, Huang Jiutian just relaxed and released control over all his energy earlier while Qin Wentian had been preparing for an ultimate killing strike. How could the power of both be compared?

The great roc shone dazzlingly, its wings even sharper than sharp swords. The sword attack manifested a roc and the holy will from Eastern Tomb infused it, granting it indomitable might. A deafening sound rang out, Huang Jiutian howled in pain as a huge bloody wound opened up in his chest.

Borrowing the impact, he retreated with explosive speed, reaching a location far away.

Lowering his head, glancing at the wound on his chest, the golden blood of kings could be seen flowing out of his wound. Despite so, his wound was gradually recovering. He lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian, "How did you do this?"

"Illusion arts. Don't you know what happened?" Qin Wentian stared at his opponent as he replied.

"Impossible, your cultivation base is only at the mid-stage. How can ordinary illusion art confuse me?" Huang Jiutian didn't believe it.

"Frog in a well. You always think of yourself as high up in the air, how could someone like you understand the abilities of this seat?" Qin Wentian tyrannically replied.

"Royal brother be careful, you are still in the illusion!" Huang Shatian shouted, reminding Huang Jiutian. Huang Jiutian stared in front of him only to see that Qin Wentian vanished again before reappearing at the side. Huang Jiutian earlier seemed to be talking to thin air.

"Chi…" Another bright beam of light flashed by. Huang Jiutian gave a loud roar. In fact, he even closed his eyes and attempted to use his immortal sense to lock onto Qin Wentian's position. When he saw Qin Wentian's sword strike arriving, he manifested an ancient emperor with no hesitation, using it for defense. But when this sword strike landed, a bloody wound appeared on his arm as the terrifying sword intent gushed into his body, intent on ravaging his inner organs.

How can this be? He actually fell into the illusion continuously? Everything was just like reality, including the reactions of the crowd. There were no flaws at all.

"What's going on?" The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire stood together as their auras gushed forth, prepared to act at any moment. How could the illusion arts of this Saber-Sword Immortal King be so powerful? Before this, they only heard that his attacks, defense and law domains were tyrannically strong, but they had never heard that this person was proficient in illusionary arts as well.

In addition, this wasn't some ordinary illusion technique, the Saber-Sword Immortal King caused Huang Jiutian to sink into a completely different space where he had no inkling that he was in an illusion at all. If not, he wouldn't have spoken out loud to himself, convinced in his victory.

"His eyes seem a little demonic. Royal brother, but I don't know if things would be effective if you close your eyes." Huang Shatian observed the battle carefully. Huang Jiutian was a peak-stage immortal king with unparalleled combat prowess yet he actually met with such a terrifying opponent. This Saber-Sword Immortal King was someone with only a mid-stage cultivation. Huang Jiutian surpassed his opponent by a full level but couldn't do anything to him?

Given how vast the immortal realms were, there are truly outstanding talents all around. Just speaking of the City of Ancient Emperors, there were quite a few people standing at the peak who were already more outstanding than Huang Jiutian.

This involuntarily caused Huang Shatian to recall a person. That incomparably magnificent figure that shattered his confidence and caused his personality to change - Qin Wentian.

"If royal brother encounters danger, we have to act." A person transmitted his voice to the others. Although they might lose face, it was impossible for them to watch on passively if Huang Jiutian was going to be slain by the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"Mhm." The other experts agreed as they continued to observe the battle. They discovered that other than the Saber-Sword Immortal King using illusionary techniques, he even erupted forth with the power of his bloodline, causing his attacks to grow more violent, brimming with boundless might. Given the momentum now, the situation was very disadvantageous towards Huang Jiutian.

At this moment, everyone saw Qin Wentian suddenly seem to just give up on the combat after slashing out another strike. His body then floated to the side but Huang Jiutian was exuding overwhelming might, frenziedly attacking empty space as he shouted, "Accept your death!"

"Royal brother!" Huang Shatian roared again. At this moment, an old peak-stage immortal king from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire stepped out, moving towards the battlefield as he slashed out a sword beam aiming for Qin Wentian.

Huang Jiutian also finally woke up from his daze. But when he came to his senses, he only saw another sword attack blasting into him. If it wasn't for his defense being strong enough, in addition to the augmentation provided by the manifestation of the ancient emperor, he would already have died.

When Qin Wentian wanted to follow up, that sword attack by the old immortal king had already reached him. He could only give up on his notion of continuing to attack Huang Jiutian.

"Royal brother, are you okay?" Huang Shatian asked.

Huang Jiutian took out a medical pill and consumed it, as the blood in his body was stimulated. His pale face regained color as his wounds gradually closed up. However, his body was still trembling, this was not only because of the injuries but also because of the shame of being defeated. He didn't reply to Huang Shatian and was coldly staring at Qin Wentian as he asked, "How the hell did you manage to do it? Why is it useless even when I closed my eyes to avoid using my vision?"

Qin Wentian naturally didn't use an ordinary illusionary technique. Back then when he was roaming the wilderness, he met an ancient character that was being suppressed. Qin Wentian managed to gain some insights there and improved his own techniques. Although his level wasn't as high as that man, he was still able to easily confuse Huang Jiutian.

Naturally, if his opponent was someone whose cultivation was far beneath him, the dream he created would be the same as reality to that opponent, causing them to unable to break out of it.

For this fight, Huang Jiutian's cultivation base was higher than him and Huang Jiutian also possessed a powerful will. It was extremely difficult to confuse him but Qin Wentian still managed to do so. He used the soul energy aspect from the Undying Scripture and fused it together with his dream law energy and manage to succeed.

Although Huang Jiutian managed to ultimately break free from it, but it was already sufficient to trap him in an illusion for a few seconds in a fight of this level. If it wasn't for that old man from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire interfering, he would have already killed Huang Jiutian.

But how would Qin Wentian tell Huang Jiutian so much?

"The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. Is this man the strongest expert from your side?" Qin Wentian mockingly asked. "Wanting to kill me? If it wasn't for others interfering, this crown prince would have already died by this seat's sword."

"Do you dare to fight me fairly without using illusionary techniques?" Huang Jiutian was angered from embarrassment as he roared.

"Illusionary techniques aren't considered a part of this seat's strength? Fighting fairly? If we did so, you would already be a corpse. As a crown prince of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, can you be any more shameless?" Qin Wentian spoke with cold disdain. The surrounding experts were all speechless, they didn't expect Huang Jiutian to actually be defeated. Who else would still be able to suppress this Saber-Sword Immortal King?

"HAHAHA!" A arrogant laughter rang out. Qin Wentian and the others raised their heads, staring at the Yama King who was sitting in the chariot pulled by hydras. The Yama King laughed, "Saber-Sword, I will take back what I said. Your strength is extraordinary and is bound to accomplish great things in the future. Your accomplishments might even equal mine. Right now, I am willing to give you a chance. As long as you kneel and apologize, and become my follower, I will not make things difficult for you."

"This Yama King actually wants to recruit him now? He must have been shocked after witnessing the battle between Huang Jiutian and the Saber-Sword Immortal King and knew how powerful the Saber-Sword Immortal King is. In the future, this man will definitely become one of those strongest few in the City of Ancient Emperors and hence, the Yama King wanted to recruit him as a subordinate." Everyone silently mused. From this, one could see how extraordinary the Saber-Sword Immortal King is, even causing Yan Luowang to take back the words he said.

It was just that given how outstanding the Saber-Sword Immortal King is, would he really be willing to submit? Now, it was only because his cultivation base was slightly weaker. If he was at the peak-phase of the peak-stage, wouldn't he be a character equal to the Yama King? Is it really possible for him to kneel down and apologize? This was undoubtedly a great humiliation if he did so.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he replied, "If you kneel and apologize to me, I can forget about everything that happened today. I won't find trouble for you in the future."

"Interesting." Yama King laughed. "I know a character on our levels is bound to have some arrogance. However, don't forget that although you might be able to stand equally with me in the future, you might die here today. It isn't easy for you to reach your current level, if you die here, all your dreams would turn into froth and shadows, what a waste of your life."

"Also, don't assume my combat prowess is the same level as Huang Jiutian. This crown prince is completely different from him. Have you thought things through clearly?" The arrogance in the Yama King's voice towered up into the sky, he simply didn't have Huang Jiutian in his eyes at all. For a character like him who was widely proclaimed as the tyrannical and supreme crown prince by the public, his arrogance would naturally exceed ordinary people. Such a character would surely have boundless arrogance and a wildly ambitious heart.

Qin Wentian glanced at the emperor's fate behind the Yama King. It was resplendent to the extreme and from the looks of the emperor's fate, Qin Wentian also understood that Huang Jiutian and this Yama King were truly on completely different levels.

But even so, was it possible that he would kneel here and apologize?

"Today, this seat, at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, shall test the strength of characters who are at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm of the City of Ancient Emperors. I really want to see what capabilities do you have, daring to want me as a follower." Qin Wentian's aura surged forth as his battle intent soared up into the sky!

Chapter 1483: Asura Prison

The people in the surroundings were completely shocked, they didn't expect the Saber-Sword Immortal King to actually dare challenge Yama King like this.

"Yama King, a mid-stage immortal king is going to challenge you?" A supreme greater demon turned his gaze over as he spoke.

This supreme demon sat in the sun chariot and was a royal-blooded one. His eyes were like the sun as he stared at this scene with interest. There weren't many people that could make him feel interest. The Yama King was one of them. Among the humans in the City of Ancient Emperors, the Yama King could be considered to be one of the strongest peak-stage immortal kings here. Huang Jiutian still wasn't qualified enough but today, a mid-stage immortal king actually challenged the Yama King so brazenly. This was sufficient to make him glance over with interest.

"Hahaha, you want to see this crown prince's strength?" Yama King laughed as he stared at Qin Wentian. His arrogant laughter actually caused the space around him to tremble. The spectators in the surroundings felt their bodies shaking from the force of his laughter. This was too terrifying, his laughter was like the sound a desolate beast would emit, and akin to having the power of the sound of the great dao, causing one to feel extreme unease.

Yama King's booming laughter thundered out, some of those initial-stage immortal kings whose cultivation bases were weaker, had no choice but to retreat further away. Even mid-stage immortal kings had to step back. Their bodies were trembling, their blood vessels on the verge of collapse and their vision turned blurry. Staring at the supreme crown prince in the chariot pulled by hydras, their hearts had great tidal waves of shock and fear. Was this the strength of the supreme crown prince? It was truly too overwhelming. There was no way for Huang Jiutian to compare with him.

The figure of the supreme crown prince slowly stood up. His laughter continued as his aura gushed forth, causing him to shine so brightly, as though he was a god staring down at all from the skies.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, he had an unsightly expression. Even with his current level of strength, he still felt his heart and soul trembling from the power of the laughter. This laughter seemed to contain a magical power within it, able to stir up the law energies of heaven and earth. This Yama King was too strong, a character on a different level compared to Huang Jiutian. No wonder he dared to speak with so much arrogance, having no regards for anyone at all.

"Since you want to see the strength of this crown prince, this crown prince shall grant you your wish." A thunderous roar echoed out, shaking the skies. He stood there loftily as his body expanded, giving off a sense of majesticness, a king among kings.

Many people felt a little despair when they saw this scene. Was this the grand era? Even for peak-stage immortal kings on the same level, some were able to cause others to sigh as they shook their heads in inferiority. Both the Yama King and the Saber-Sword Immortal King were characters like this. Their strength was so high that it was sufficient to cause those on the same level to feel useless.

In this world, it seems like it's true that there are those who were already born extraordinary. No wonder he is the supreme crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire. There are so many princes there, with as many experts as the clouds, and there are even princes with cultivation bases at the immortal emperor realm. However, Yan Luowang, the Yama King, was the next in line for ascension, he was directly conferred as the supreme crown prince and everyone accepted it.

The Yama King stared at Qin Wentian with disdain. He was still laughing as he spoke, "Asura Prison!"

As the sound of his voice rang out, cracks appeared on the surface of the ground in the surroundings as a terrifying law energy engulfed everything. A blast of pure power blasted into Qin Wentian. With a deafening boom, Qin Wentian's body was forced back as he groaned in pain. Lifting his head, he only saw the sky changing color as this entire space transformed into a law domain - the Asura Prison.

Asura Prison was like a heavenly prison, terrifying to the extreme. Blood-colored lava permeated the entire area, there was a violent-feeling to the darkness as well as a wild chaotic might. This law domain resembled the underworld, it became a space where the absolute control of everything is in the hands of the Yama King.

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian frowned, he discovered that he had no way to assert control on the law energy outside his body, he was unable to form a connection with heaven and earth to borrow the power of other law-attributes. The cold wind blowing past this hell-like place had changed the heavenly laws completely. This is the domain of the Yama King, no one could interfere inside here.

"This king can tell that you are extraordinary. I'm giving you one final chance. If you are willing to, just kneel and submit to me." Yama King's voice rang out, echoing through the skies.

"Scram!" Qin Wentian roared, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble. The Saber-Sword Immortal King actually still refused to submit.

However, the Saber-Sword Immortal King was considered a supreme character after all. How could such a person be willing to submit to others? What a pity, since he refused to submit, the Yama King would kill him for sure, showing no mercy.

"Scram?" The Yama King laughed out loud again. His laughter grew more and more terrifying, shaking the heavens and earth. That earlier sensation of everything collapsing could be felt again and alongside with his laughter, the Asura Prison started to manifest numerous hell-fiends. These fiends were all gigantic and had underworld spears in their hands. Some of the more powerful ones were known as king fiends, all of them had three-heads and six-arms and were wielding wolf fang clubs, radiating an extremely fearsome aura as though they originated from the abyss.

"When Yama King fights against his enemies, he only needs to depend on his Asura Prison domain to finish off peak-stage immortal kings. Simply terrifying to the extreme, how would this Saber-Sword Immortal King defend against it?" The immortal kings from the central regions were all extremely familiar with Yan Luowang and knew how scary he could be. Yan Luowang, the Yama King, was simply a fiend in human disguise. His Asura Prison was able to suppress and negate law energy to some extent, causing the laws of his opponent to be useless.

Qin Wentian had a heavy expression on his face, he could feel how strong this Yama King was. One could say that the Yama King was the strongest opponent he has ever faced up till now.

In his body, his astral souls flared, brimming with law energy, filling his body up with power. He had to kill his way out of here. If he fought in this domain, he could only depend on the energy within his body and had no way to even unleash his law domain. It would be equivalent to waiting for death, he would have no chance at all.

This Asura Prison was truly powerful, it actually had the ability to create a zone of negation where other laws would be heavily suppressed. With no way to connect to the astral constellations in the nine heavenly layers, opponents trapped within the Asura Prison could only wait for death.

"RUMBLE!" A terrifying underworld king spear stabbed towards him. This spear was like the spear of the death god, having the power to destroy everything.

Qin Wentian brandished his sword and saber as the law energy within his body surged forth. With a cleave of his saber, a dark beam of light collided against the underworld king spear. However, the underworld king spear held the power of negation, it scattered the saber-law energy and broke apart the beam of light easily, continuing on its way towards Qin Wentian.

"Even the manifested fiends are capable of negating law energy too?" Qin Wentian's heart trembled. For immortal kings, all of their attacks were infused with law energy. If an opponent had the ability to negate law energy, the power of the attacks unleashed would undoubtedly be greatly diminished, and it would also result in one's defense being easier to be broken.

Qin Wentian lifted his fist that brimmed with vajra holy might. With a single punch, he shattered the spear. His eyes coldly regarded the countless fiends in this domain.

The Asura Prison trembled violently as more and more fiends manifested. Qin Wentian didn't even have the chance to fight the Yama King directly. The ability of this law domain was too terrifying. Huang Jiutian simply couldn't be compared to him.

A three-headed and six-armed king fiend wielded a wolf fang club, smashing down towards Qin Wentian with boundless might. Chaotic currents flooded the area as Qin Wentian retaliated. His body glowed with golden vajra light and his palm strike manifested a golden dragon, shattering the king fiend.

Behind him, a gigantic fiend moved towards him, lifting his foot to stomp down on Qin Wentian. The fiend's body was covered with lava flames and dark devilish might, as though it originated from the abyss. Destructive flames engulfed the target area of the stomp as the fiend's foot descended.

"Swish~" Qin Wentian's speed was extremely fast. A pair of roc wings appeared behind his back as he evaded the stomp. When the giant foot crushed down, the Asura Prison vibrated wildly as the fiends continued launching unceasing attacks at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's speed erupted explosively as he arced through the air with marvelous movements, evading the attack.

"His movement techniques are so strong too. What other abilities is the Saber-Sword Immortal King hiding?" Many people were shocked. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was truly an outstanding elite. Sadly, his opponent today was the supreme crown prince, the Yama King. The Yama King's cultivation base was higher and his combat prowess was extraordinary too. The Saber-Sword Immortal King had no choice but to be suppressed despite his power.

"Evading? How long can you evade for in my Asura Prison?" The crown prince laughed loudly. His palm stretched out as the law domain turned even more terrifying. Even more king fiends appeared, occupying the entire area.

"The supreme crown prince truly does live up to his reputation." A supreme immortal king from the central regions silently mused. Those who were in the central regions all understood how terrifying Yan Luowang was.

Qin Wentian glanced at the numerous fiends around him as his expression turned ashen. In the Asura Prison, he can only use the law energy inside his body. If this continued, he wouldn't even have the chance to get near the Yama King.

"Swish." Qin Wentian shone with a resplendent light as he soared into the sky, wanting to exit this law domain. However, the Yama King merely laughed. The fiends in the area all lashed out attacks towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian danced about with the saber and sword in his hands, cleaving everything apart but there seemed to be no end to the number of fiends spawning. The power of this Asura Prison seemed endless. And finally, with a loud bang, Qin Wentian was struck by an attack. He coughed out blood as his body fell to the ground.

"BANG!" Another monstrous palm imprint slammed down, smacking towards Qin Wentian. Luckily, Qin Wentian's defense was insanely high. His defense didn't shatter, but the light glowing around him dimmed a little.

"RUMBLE!" That fearsome huge foot appeared once more, trampling downwards. After that, a thunderous boom rang out, shocking the hearts of everyone. Qin Wentian was being trampled underneath that foot, it was unknown if he was already dead or still alive.

"Has the Saber-Sword Immortal King died?" The crowd mused silently.

Chapter 1484: Defeat

The attention of all the spectators was focused there as they sighed in their hearts, feeling that it was truly a pity.

However, the immortal realms were always like this, incomparably brutal. Although the Saber-Sword Immortal King was a demon-level supreme genius. If one wanted to rise up in this grand era, that person had to defeat the countless geniuses underneath the heavens. Despite how outstanding your talent might be, you would still have the probability of dying. Also, this was merely a battle at the immortal king level. If these people here wanted to ascend in the future, they still had to contend with other immortal emperors.

"As expected of the supreme crown prince. There are many peak-stage immortal kings who aren't even qualified to clean his shoes for him. His Asura Prison contains many different kinds of law-attribute, as well as a secret art of the Senluo Immortal Empire, achieving a perfect fusion. His cultivation base is also at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. Only those true elites standing at the very peak of the immortal-king realm can contend against him."

"What a pity. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King was at the peak-stage too, the battle would surely be even more fascinating. Sadly, we won't be able to see it any more." Many of the spectators sighed when they saw Qin Wentian being crushed underneath the giant foot. The death of a supreme character like the Saber-Sword Immortal King was truly a pity. If he broke through to the peak-stage, he would surely be one of those standing at the peak of the immortal-king realm. For this point, even the supreme crown prince the Yama King, agreed. But since the Saber-Sword Immortal King refused to submit, it meant that he was an enemy. Since this was the case, he could only kill him.

"He died…?" A strange sadness appeared in Xu Qingyao's heart, she actually couldn't feel joy at all. Although this fellow had abducted her in the past, he didn't do anything inappropriate to her during the seven days and nights he held her captive, If not, given the tyrannical disposition of the Saber-Sword Immortal King, how would he care about her identity and status if he was truly a lecher? He would do her without a doubt.

In addition, the strength he displayed later on had really shocked her. He was simply too outstanding. Other than his cultivation base being at the mid-stage, all other aspects of his strength could be considered equal to those immortal kings standing at the very peak.

"This king has given him a choice. Since he refused to be my follower, I had no choice but to kill him." The Yama King loftily spoke, his voice filled with a cold disdain. The hydras pulled the chariot towards him, he sat down on the chariot once more as the Asura Prison vanished. Qin Wentian's figure then appeared after the manifestation of the giant foot disappeared. Many wounds could be seen on him, flowing with fresh blood. It was like he had been crushed with that stomp and died. But for some reason, his body was floating in the air.

"Huh?" The eyes of many flickered with a strange light. Could it be that he still hasn't died?

Only to see that right now at this moment, numerous figures rushed over. There were two groups of experts that just arrived and among them, many had looks of worry on their faces.

"Southern Phoenix Clan?" Someone spoke in a low voice. Among these experts, there were actually some from the Southern Phoenix Clan. There were even many holy maidens among them. Nanfeng Yunxi's expression turned pale as her heart pounded violently. She came to Qin Wentian's side and stretched out a trembling hand. She knew that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Yama King. As a peak-stage immortal king who self-proclaims that you are unrivalled, you are actually making a move against a mid-stage immortal king. Don't you know shame?" A peak-stage immortal king holy maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan stared up in the air as she snorted.

"This king has already given him a chance. If he submits and becomes my follower, I will forget what he did before. However, he refused to do so. How can you blame me? Also, when this king wants to do things, do I need you all to interfere in my decisions?" The Yama King stared down with icy disdain at the holy maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan.

"Before this in the Gazing Emperor City, the Saber-Sword Immortal King did help the Southern Phoenix Clan out before. Seems like they must have feelings for him. The Southern Phoenix Clan has the bloodline of our demonkind. If they are willing to become our companions, we might consider helping the Saber-Sword Immortal King to take revenge." A supreme greater demon laughed, his words causing the expressions of the experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan's to turn icy.

Tuoba Saintsky, Jun Mengchen and the others also came here. Jun Mengchen radiated a terrifying aura, Tuoba Saintsky glanced at him and stated, "He shouldn't have died. If not, he wouldn't be still floating in the air."

"Kacha…" Only to see that a cracking sound could be heard from Qin Wentian's body. After that, a wave of devil might gush forth from Qin Wentian, causing the eyes of everyone to gleam. What sort of freak is this Saber-Sword Immortal King exactly? He didn't die from that? Not only so, he was even proficient in devil-path energy? Has he cultivated some devil arts before?

Gushing sounds rang out, akin to the sound of blood flowing within veins. His bones vibrated as devil might churned wildly as the wounds on Qin Wentian's body gradually closed up. An intrigued expression could be seen on the Yama King's face. His Asura Prison created so many powerful fiends that launched countless attacks with power equal to the peak-stage of the immortal king realm yet they were still unable to kill Qin Wentian?

"BOOM!" A huge amount of devil might shot up into the sky. Qin Wentian stood up as an icy light gleamed in his eyes. He soared into the air, his movements resembling a great roc as he rushed towards the Yama King.

"He is actually still alive?" The eyes of everyone flashed with a strange light. Not only did he not die, he actually rushed straight at the Yama King as a fearsome might gushed forth from him. That devil energy engulfed everything, more violent and berserk than before. The color of the sky dimmed, it was like the earlier attack by the Asura Prison didn't really affect the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"What physique is this?" Many experts felt their hearts shaking.

Even the Yama King had an intrigued look on his face as he stared at Qin Wentian who was rushing over. He then coldly laughed, "Interesting."

As he spoke, he stood up once more from his chariot.

The sky changed again, boundless swords filled the air as the law energy within them flooded the area. "KILL!" Qin Wentian roared. His sword might permeated everything, brimming with devilish might that could slay all existences.

"Hmph." The Yama King coldly snorted as a resplendent light radiated from him. He gave a thunderous laugh, causing the space here to twist. In front of him, a king fiend appeared, blocking the attack on behalf of him. There was no need for him to act at all.

A terrifying light gleamed in Qin Wentian's eyes. The Yama King only felt a mysterious energy gushing into his eyes. He frowned as his eyes flashed with the light of negation, protecting himself from falling into the dream.

"Pu!" A beam of resplendent devil light flashed as the devil saber slashed down, brimming with worldshaking might. The Yama King didn't even glance at it, directly blasting forth with his palm, causing this entire space to shake.

However, there was a strand of devil might that shot right towards his soul. This caused the eyes of the Yama King to narrow, he didn't expect that this Saber-Sword Immortal King was even proficient in soul attacks. What a difficult opponent to deal with.

"GO TO HELL!" After roaring thunderously, hellfire crackled in the body of the Yama King, locking down the soul attack component. The Asura Prison appeared once more, engulfing this space, trapping Qin Wentian within,

Qin Wentian continued advancing as though there was nothing that could obstruct him. Three different holy wills circulated around his body as they erupted in a frenzy. Even if he had no way to borrow the power from the laws of heaven and earth, the law energy stored in his body explosively flooded the area. He arrived in front of the Yama King and directly fought in close-combat.

The Asura Prison had the ability of law energy negation. His only chance to win laid in close combat,

How could the Yama King fail to understand Qin Wentian's intentions? His eyes flashed with arrogance and disdain of looking down upon everyone under the heavens. With a wave of his hands, the king fiends all stepped aside. Since this Saber-Sword Immortal King wanted to fight him in close combat, he shall grant him his wish.

As one of those supreme elites that stood at the very pinnacle, the pride in the Yama King's heart was long carved into his bones. No matter what methods Qin Wentian used, he didn't feel any fear at all.

"KILL!" Qin Wentian's sword slashed out. In this sword, immense power was contained within. A curtain of swords sprang up, infused with the holy will, forming a fearsome vortex that could devour the heavens and earth. A supreme devil might radiated from the vortex, along with a sense of extreme sharpness.

"Not bad." The Yama King spoke. He blasted out with his palms with enough might to topple mountains and overturn seas. A terrifying projection akin to a hellish abyss appeared behind him. At this moment, the Yama King became the king of hell, his palm strikes were filled with the law negation energy, capable of vanquishing everything and numerous terrifying king fiends from the abyss manifested around him, protecting him.

Their attacks clashed, causing chaotic currents to ravage their surroundings. A fearsome aftershock shook the entire space, even causing the spectators far away to feel their bodies trembling. From this, one could see how fearsome the impact must be as the two combatants fought in close combat.

Qin Wentian's body was forced back. He groaned in pain, suffering some injuries as he coughed out blood. His eyes were incomparably cold, staring at the Yama King. Even when in close combat, the attack of his opponent was so shockingly strong. As expected of the supreme crown prince. Such a character was extraordinary from birth, possessing many terrifying methods.

In the next moment, the hydras and chariot behind the Yama King actually crumbled into pieces. His palms trembled, he felt a lacerating energy rushing into his body. His eyes flashed with sharpness, a mid-stage immortal king was actually capable of unleashing such a terrifying attack. This Saber-Sword Immortal King was truly qualified to be a supreme elite.

"I feel pity that I must kill you." The Yama King calmly spoke as he stepped towards Qin Wentian.

The experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan and the Heavenly Talisman Realm stepped out as well, walking to Qin Wentian's side. When he saw this scene, the Yama King laughed. "You guys want to block me? Can you all do so?"

As he spoke, he slammed down with a palm, exuding crushing forth.

"Lend me your spatial law energy." Tuoba Saintsky spoke. The expert beside him understood. Law energy fluctuations gushed into Tuoba Saintsky. Tuoba Saintsky lifted his palm as a spatial wall slammed against the Yama King's attack causing both of the attacks to explode together.

"Interesting. If you guys want to interfere, I can only kill you all together." A supreme greater demon spoke. Tuoba Saintsky turned a deaf ear to it, he borrowed the spatial law energy from someone and instantly use it to envelop Qin Wentian and those from the Southern Phoenix Clan.

"Farewell." As the sound of his voice faded, he stepped out and vanished from sight, causing everyone to frown.

"They fled?" That greater demon's eyes flashed with a strange light.

The Yama King was stunned as well. He glanced at the distance, "Interesting. But since a dao element has appeared, I shall spare them temporarily. Unless they all chose to give up on the opportunities in the City of Ancient Emperors, we would encounter them sooner or later. At that time, it wouldn't be too late to kill them."

Chapter 1485: Bad Intentions

The crowd all had intrigued looks on their faces. Before this, that peak-stage immortal king actually shattered a palm strike imprint from the supreme crown prince. Although that spatial wall was created via him borrowing the law attributes of others, such unique abilities were also supremely powerful and extremely wondrous.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King might have many enemies, but he also had plenty of friends. The Southern Phoenix Clan was already very clear, showing their friendship but by doing so, they have offended the supreme crown prince and some peak-stage greater demons. Most probably from now on, it would be tough for them to establish dominance in the City of Ancient Emperors.

"He actually failed to kill him." The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were all unsightly. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was considered a supremely powerful enemy of their empire. Even their strongest immortal king, Huang Jiutian, had lost to him. Both sides already had a death grudge, if the Saber-Sword Immortal King doesn't die, this matter would always be considered a humiliation for the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

After all, everyone knew that the Saber-Sword Immortal King has killed plenty of experts from their Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

Naturally, there were also experts from the Paragon Sword Sect and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty feeling depressed. To think that the Saber-Sword Immortal King had actually managed to escape.

However, for those supreme characters, they didn't have too much of an reaction. Their eyes turned to the radiance emitted by the dao element. This dao element was a buddha-path one and the origin energy radiating from it seemed endless.

In a random direction, an extraordinary figure sat cross-legged in the air. His body emitted boundless buddhic light, akin to an indestructible golden body. Many buddhist runes floated around him, that figure was like an ancient buddha, forming a resonance with the dao element in the sky.

"The inheritor is actually him?" The eyes of many flashed, staring at the figure.

"Who would have thought that this person would succeed. There are many buddhist sects and clans, including the Askheart Temple, but no one managed to gain the approval of this dao element. This person actually managed to succeed. However, it was a fact that this man was an extraordinary individual. This man was one of the strongest elites standing at the very peak, the amount of emperor's fate behind him was extremely shocking.

"I've long heard of the three ancient clans in the Southern Regions. The Jiang Clan has always been low profile and this Jiang Zihua's magnificence knows no bounds, he is one of the most outstanding among the younger generations and might be one of the future leaders of the Jiang Clan. It's rumored that one of the ancestors of the Jiang Clan was an eminent buddhist monk. He had seen through the buddha-path completely and decided to return to the secular world. From then on, the powerful Jiang Clan appeared in the immortal realms and has lasted since the ancient era till now."

"Seems like the buddhist inheritance of the Jiang Clan isn't any weaker compared to the other buddha sects." Many people silently mused.

As for Qin Wentian and the others, Tuoba Saintsky borrowed the spatial law energy and directly teleported them to a remote mountain extremely far away.

"Senior brother, you are so powerful why don't you directly teach that bastard crown prince a lesson?" Jun Mengchen felt a little anger as he asked Tuoba Saintsky.

Given Tuoba Saintsky's strength, his combat prowess might not necessarily be inferior to the supreme crown prince.

"Didn't you see those greater demons eyeing us like how tigers eye their prey? There are also other experts of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and the Violet Mountain. They were at the side, prepared to act any time. Once a war erupt between us, the situation would soon become uncontrollable." Tuoba Saintsky calmly spoke. He had the greater picture in mind. He also knew that Qin Wentian was none other than the Saber-Sword Immortal King and understood that he had already offended those peak powers. Since Zi Daolong died in his hands, the people from the Violet Mountain were definitely here for revenge.

"Detestable! If the Saber-Sword Immortal King was at the peak-stage, how would he be defeated by the Yama King? That fellow merely depended on his higher cultivation base to act so overbearingly. If I was at his level, I could easily smash him apart with a single punch."

"A loss is a loss, you don't have to console me." Qin Wentian didn't mind it at all as he smiled. He knew Jun Mengchen was intentionally wanting to comfort him. How could he not know the intentions of his junior apprentice brother? However, this fellow seemed to have underestimated the state of his heart. How would he overly care about a defeat? He, Qin Wentian, has already cultivated for so many years and had reached the immortal king realm. Although he had his own pride, he was still someone that was able to take a loss.

Jun Mengchen laughed when he saw that his intentions were seen through. This caused several people from the Southern Phoenix Clan and Heavenly Talisman Realm to feel somewhat bewildered. When did Jun Mengchen become so close to the Saber-Sword Immortal King? They only traveled together once before, they shouldn't be so familiar with each other right?

Also, when the Saber-Sword Immortal King was stomped by that gigantic foot, the expression on Nanfeng Yunxi's face drastically changed, turning completely pale as though she lost her spirit. It was like she lost someone extremely dear to her.

Could the charm of this Saber-Sword Immortal King really be so great?

"Is that Yama King really so powerful?" Jun Mengchen asked. He understood Qin Wentian very well. From the start until now, when has Qin Wentian not jumped levels and fought his opponents? Reality was like this too, Qin Wentian completely dominated his opponents in the City of Ancient Emperors prior to the Yama King, easily killing over ten immortal kings, including peak-stage ones.

However, he still lost to Yama King in the end.

"Yan Luowang was directly conferred as a crown price among the many princes of the Senluo Immortal Empire. No one can contend against him, from this, one can very well know how terrifying he is." A maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan spoke. "In truth, for peak-stage immortal kings, there aren't really many of such characters in the entire immortal realms. It's just that right now, many of them all decided to head here to the City of Ancient Emperors, wanting to contend against each other to ascend to the peak, welcoming the arrival of the new grand era."

"Mhm, I heard that Yama King's Asura Prison contains a fusion of many secret arts and law-attribute energy. It even has the power to negate his opponent's laws." As a peak-stage immortal king holy maiden of the Southern Phoenix Clan, this maiden was still considered knowledgeable.

"Mhm, the Asura Prison is his law domain. It's already enough for him to have a single domain. This domain of his was formed from a fusion of secret arts and law-attribute energies and the most terrifying thing is none other than the power of negation in there. Inside his domain, we can only use the law energy that's already stored within our bodies, there's no way we can replenish it by forming a connection with the nine heavenly layers. Undoubtedly, his opponents that are trapped in his domain would be weakened severely, they even wouldn't have the ability to unleash their own domains." Qin Wentian replied. Unleashing a law domain had to depend on oneself as the central core, forming a connection with the constellations between heaven and earth before one could use their domain. With the negation effect, there was simply no way to 'connect' with the heavens and earth, how could one even use their law domains?

"In that case, we must be careful of this fellow in the future." Jun Mengchen spoke.

"That fellow is extremely conceited and incomparably arrogant. For this time, if it wasn't for the Saber-Sword Immortal King abducting Xu Qingyao, he basically wouldn't have made a move. Hence, he might not be bothered to act against us in the future." A holy maiden added.

"Given how chaotic the situation in the City of Ancient Emperors is, there's no mistake if we act more cautiously." Tuoba Saintsky replied. "Saber-Sword Immortal King, what are your plans? Why don't you stick together with us?"

"I'm fine. I'm already used to roaming the wilderness alone and I plan to continue searching for ancient ruins to improve my cultivation." Qin Wentian smiled as he rejected.

"What about your injuries?" Nanfeng Yunxi had a look of worry on her face.

"Don't worry about it, I won't be impeded by such small injuries." Qin Wentian laughed. The others could only nod their heads as they dispersed eventually. Qin Wentian continued roaming the City of Ancient Emperors in search of other opportunities to gain good fortune.

Although he was defeated, his emperor's fate wasn't any lesser in the slightest, it was still as bright as ever, and might even be more resplendent than before. Given that he was at the mid-stage immortal king level and dared to fight with the supreme crown prince, Yama King, everyone in the City of Ancient Emperors was wowed by the Saber-Sword Immortal King's strength. After personally witnessing the battle, their respect for him would naturally soar, resulting in an increase in his emperor's fate.

With his strengthened emperor's fate, Qin Wentian found many secret ruins as his strength slowly improved. That dao element was still visible in the air. After people in the immortal realms heard about it, many experts all surged towards the City of Ancient Emperors, including immortal emperors.

Two years later, on a remote mountain, Qin Wentian turned his gaze into the distance. There were too many changes to the city in these two years, and many bouts of good fortune appeared. Countless experts that came here had all benefited and there were even quite a few who managed to break through their shackles and successfully breaking through to the next realm.

However, Qin Wentian still felt that he still couldn't break through to the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. The higher one climbed, the harder it would be to take the next step. Although he discovered many opportunities, he still wasn't able to break through.

He glanced at the beam of light cascading down from the dao element. He believed that in the future, there might be a possibility for other dao elements to appear here in the City of Ancient Emperors. After contemplating for a long time, he made a decision to temporarily leave this place.

"Although I might miss out on gaining the inheritances from the dao elements, so what of it? Such inheritances were merely things tossed out here from the other immortal realms." Qin Wentian mumbled. He believed that ultimately, cultivation would still have to depend on oneself.

As he thought till here, Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he departed the area. At this point of time where everyone in the immortal realms was rushing to the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian silently left it. Before he departed, he went to visit Bai Qing once more, but he didn't reveal his identity.

Qin Wentian knew that the wondrous phenomena of the City of Ancient Emperors wouldn't cease temporarily and would continue on for quite some time. The attention of the entire immortal realms would be focused here and the people inside wouldn't be willing to leave this place. Even for him, he would definitely come back again in the future.

...

In the Eastern Regions, within the royal palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Qin Wentian had finally returned. However, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and many of the nobles weren't in the palace. They had all gone to the City of Ancient Emperors.

Qin Wentian arrived outside Qing`er's princess manor. As the prince consort, there naturally wouldn't be anyone obstructing him from coming here. However, Qing`er had not returned yet, but Mo Qingcheng was here.

"You've returned." Upon seeing Qin Wentian returning, Mo Qingcheng didn't say anything more. She quietly walked towards him and helped him tidy his clothes. She then spoke in a gentle voice, "Sister Qing`er has been spending these years cultivating with senior Matriarch Ji and rarely returns. Occasionally, she would send people back to check if you are back or not."

"Did you miss me?" Qin Wentian warmly hugged Mo Qingcheng as he asked. Everytime they separated, it would be for many years. This actually caused Qin Wentian to feel guilt but Mo Qingcheng always seemed to have no complaints nor regrets.

"What do you think?" Mo Qingcheng winked mischievously, staring at Qin Wentian.

"I'm sure you didn't miss me at all." Qin Wentian intentionally stated, causing Mo Qingcheng to roll her eyes. She silently laid in his embrace and spoke lightly, "I missed you every day."

Qin Wentian gently stroked her hair and smiled, "Let's wait for Qing`er. When she returns, I will accompany you two properly this time around. We can roam the world for leisure to relax ourselves."

"Really?" Mo Qingcheng inclined her head, staring at Qin Wentian.

"When have I ever lied to you before?" Qin Wentian smiled.

Mo Qingcheng's eyes sparkled with light. She stared at the smile on Qin Wentian's face as she replied, "You want me and sister Qing`er to accompany you, are you having any bad intentions?"

"Eh…" Black lines appeared on Qin Wentian's face. After that, a naughty look flashed on his face as he hugged her tighter, "What bad intentions do you mean?"

Seeing his widening smile, Mo Qingcheng pinched his waist, "Little lecher, you truly have bad intentions!"

Qin Wentian was at a lost for words. How pure and innocent were his thoughts!

Chapter 1486: Qin Wentian's 'Discipline'

Qin Wentian used the teleportation array in the Evergreen Immortal Empire to return to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After that, he discovered that both Bai Wuya and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord weren't here, they had both gone to the City of Ancient Emperors. Not only so, even the Eastern Sage went there. It was unknown how many experts from the immortal realms were currently gathering in the City of Ancient Emperors, but the number definitely wouldn't be fewer compared to that time when the Demongod Mountain appeared.

Qin Wentian commanded Qi Yu, telling him to bring the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe to head over to the City of Ancient Emperors to temper themselves too. They would have to handle any problems that cropped up, but given that these people were all supreme immortal kings, there was no need for Qin Wentian to worry about them even if they were in the City of Ancient Emperors. Furthermore, their combat prowess when in a formation was more than sufficient to handle those people standing at the very peak.

After doing this, Qin Wentian returned back to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Some days later, Qing`er finally came back, returning to her manor.

When Qin Wentian returned, he finally saw Qing`er. Qing`er was robed in white, exuding a transcendent aura as well as a noble elegance. She felt incomparably holy, like a celestial maiden from the nine heavens, so beautiful that none dared to profane her beauty. Right now Qing`er, who was at the immortal king realm, her aura was more majestic than before. Qin Wentian stared at the beautiful woman before him as he fell into a daze. Qing`er quietly looked at him, although her expression was cold, deep emotions could be seen flickering in her eyes.

"Qing`er." Qin Wentian walked up and held her hand, smiling as he stroked her hair.

"Master went to the City of Ancient Emperors along with my other senior sisters." Qing`er spoke in a light voice, her words causing Qin Wentian to start. Seems like the commotion in the City of Ancient Emperors was so great that even peak-stage immortal emperors were all tempted.

"Do you have to go?" Qin Wentian felt some reluctance.

"Do you want me to go?" Qing`er stared at Qin Wentian as she gently asked.

"No." Qin Wentian shook his head. He was really reluctant to be parted from her again. It has been so many years since they last met, he didn't want Qing`er to leave so soon. In addition, the City of Ancient Emperors was an extremely dangerous place. With such a beautiful wife like her, how could he set his heart at ease? Right now, the greater demons and supreme geniuses of the immortal realms were all there, how would they care about her status at all?

“I won’t go there then.” Qing`er spoke in a light voice. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed as he smiled, “Qing`er, you are so good to me.”

“How are you planning to make things up to sister Qing`er?” Mo Qingcheng walked over as she mischievously asked.

“Qing`er, how about I offer my body to you?” A smile lit up Qin Wentian’s face.

“You want to take advantage of her? No way.” Mo Qingcheng pulled Qing`er along as she spoke, “Sister Qing`er, let’s ignore this fellow. Shall we go and play instead?”

“Sure.” Qing`er smiled as she nodded. As the two of them spoke, they started walking away side by side, leaving Qin Wentian alone here.

Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. His harem was in chaos…There was no way he could sit around passively, he had to take some proactive actions to control them. Staring at the two beauties, Qin Wentian’s smile become somewhat shameless. These two supreme beauties, how would they know what he had in mind for them.

After several days, at a beautiful place surrounded by flower petals, extremely far away from the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the two supreme beauties were dancing happily. Mo Qingcheng fashioned a tiara of different colored flower petals as she placed it on Qing`er’s head. “Sister Qing`er, you look really beautiful.”

“You too.” Qing`er smiled.

“Although the flowers are beautiful, the two of you are much more beautiful than them.” Qin Wentian laughed.

Qing`er felt a sensation of sweetness, but Mo Qingcheng mischievously stated, “Sister Qing`er, don’t be taken in by his flowery praises. Let’s ignore him.”

Qing`er turned back to glance at Qin Wentian. A smile appeared on her face, after that, she held hands with Mo Qingcheng and ran forward, completely ignoring Qin Wentian. This caused Qin Wentian’s face to be filled with black lines. He was thinking that it seems like he must find a chance to ‘discipline’ that mischievous lass Mo Qingcheng. How dare she be so naughty.

After several months, they were at the peak of a majestic mountain in the northern regions. This mountain’s height was as tall as the heavens, and at the foot of it, it actually connected with an ocean. The scenery could only be described with the words, ‘nothing more beautiful can be imagined.’

The rising sun rose from the east. At the peak of that mountain, three tiny silhouettes could be seen quietly sitting atop a huge rock as they stared at the ocean. The rays of the rising sun cast an orange-reddish hue on everything. Qin Wentian sat in the center and the two maidens sat on the left and right of him respectively, quietly leaning against him, enjoying these rare moments of tranquillity.

“How beautiful.” A look of sweetness could be seen in Mo Qingcheng’s eyes. For cultivators, it was easy if they wanted to see beautiful sceneries. However, for the vast majority of cultivators, their only aim was to increase their strength. Only a rare few would be in the mood to enjoy the scenery. Unless they had someone they loved, most probably wouldn’t spend the time to admire the scenery.

Although Mo Qingcheng was also growing stronger gradually, she actually really missed the times she shared with Qin Wentian back when they were in Chu. Those days were peaceful and sweet but after they came to the immortal realms, opportunities like that were fleeting and rare. Although she could understand him, but who wouldn’t wish to spend more time with their loved ones? This time around, she truly felt very happy that Qin Wentian was willing to accompany them to roam the immortal realms.

Qin Wentian had a gentle smile on his face, with two of his loved ones admiring the scenery with him, his mood was naturally extremely good. Compared to one person admiring the scenery or doing so with those who were unfamiliar, the feeling definitely wouldn’t be as sweet.

“Mhm.” Mo Qingcheng nodded gently as she leaned closer to him. If it wasn’t for Qin Wentian being here, no matter how beautiful the scenery was, she wouldn’t have the mood to appreciate it.

Qin Wentian saw that Qing`er had no reaction. He lowered his head and stared at the beauty leaning against him. However, when Qin Wentian did so, he actually felt his heart trembling. He could see a tear flowing down from the corners of Qing`er’s eye. Under the radiant sunlight, the tear was sparkling clear, like a treasured gem stone.

However, this tear wasn’t because Qing`er was sad. A smile filled with warmth could be seen on her face, with a hint of gentleness in it.

“Qing`er, Qingcheng, I’m sorry.” Qin Wentian blamed himself. He knew how much the two of them wanted to be together with him. Even just by spending time idling together, they cherished such opportunities incomparably.

Qin Wentian lowered his head and kissed Qing`er’s lips. Qing`er blinked her eyes but didn’t resist it, allowing Qin Wentian to enjoy the sensation of the kiss.

“Aiya.” A shocked cry rang out. Qin Wentian pulled back, only to see a red blush on Qing`er’s face, yet she was more beautiful than ever. Qin Wentian stared with puzzlement at her, only to hear Mo Qingcheng mischievously stating, “Do you need me to hide myself away first?”

“Qingcheng…” Qing`er rolled her eyes.

“Qing`er, tell me, do you think I should punish Qingcheng?” Qin Wentian grinned as he asked. Mo Qingcheng was getting too naughty for words, it was time to ‘discipline’ her properly.

“You should.” Qing`er nodded. Mo Qingcheng saw the ‘evil’ smile on Qin Wentian’s face, she stood up and prepared to flee but how could she flee from the clutches of Qin Wentian? Qin Wentian easily pulled her closer to him and the sound of a resounding smack soon rang out. At this moment, it was Mo Qingcheng’s turn to go red. This lecherous fellow actually smacked her bottom and he did so in front of Qing`er…

“Nice.” Qin Wentian silently exclaimed as he aimed another slap. He then shamelessly added, “Qingcheng, if you are still so naughty in the future, I’ll have no choice but to increase the severity of the ‘discipline.'”

At this moment, even Qing`er was dumbfounded. What was this fellow doing? Would he ‘discipline’ her like this as well in the future? When she thought of this, her body involuntarily trembled.

“Sister Qing`er…” Mo Qingcheng cast a pleading look at Qing`er only to see Qing`er glancing away, “I didn’t see anything.”

“Do you still dare to be so naughty?” Qin Wentian asked Mo Qingcheng as he smiled. Mo Qingcheng’s face was extremely red now, she hurried shook her head in a fluster.

“That’s the obedient Qingcheng I wanted to see.” Qin Wentian laughed. He then embraced her and leaned in for a kiss. How could he be biased and only kissed Qing`er? He, Qin Wentian, was a fair person who treats everyone equally…

When things got heated up, Mo Qingcheng also let go of her shyness and passionately kissed him back. Qing`er smiled when she saw this scene. With a wave of her hand, the flaps of their tent closed around Qin Wentian and Qing`er as a look of shyness could be seen in her eyes. There’s no choice then, she better let Qin Wentian focus on finishing up his disciplining of Mo Qingcheng…

Spring went by and autumn came. Time continued flowing, countless wondrous phenomena appeared increasingly in the City of Ancient Emperors and a second dao element appeared. It was unknown how many geniuses were contending for this, preparing themselves to defeat the others as they climbed to the peak of this new grand era.

However, there was someone who seemingly forgot all about these. With two supreme beauties accompany him, this person traveled around the world, admiring the beautiful scenery as they went to countless places of interest.

In the blink of an eye, several years passed by. Qin Wentian and his companions were currently in an immortal city located in the southern regions and had already spent many months in here. There were no other reasons other than the fact that the environment here was peaceful and tranquil, with many mountains, lakes and rivers all around them.

At this moment, on a certain beautiful lake. There were dragon boats floating about on the water. Not only so, many pavilions around were filled with people. There were beauties playing zithers and dancing, as well as gentlemen reciting poetry, leisurely spending their time away on this paradise-like place.

Right now, on one of the elegant dragon boats, there were several maidens rowing the boat. At the forefront of the boat, a figure lazily lying there could be seen, admiring the scenery before him. Beside him, there were two flawlessly supreme beauties feeding him fruits. Not only were the two of them beautiful, they both exuded a transcendent aura. This caused the maidens rowing the board to glance at the young man lying there. How was this fellow so fortunate? He actually had two supreme beauties serving him. There were naturally many beauties who came here, but they had never before seen such outstanding ones.

This fellow even had a look of extreme enjoyment on his face. How would he bear to let two such supreme beauties serve him? How detestable.

“Qingcheng, are you tired? Do you want me to serve you instead?” Qin Wentian glanced at Mo Qingcheng as an evil smile appeared on his face.

Qing`er who was also at the side, placed her hand before her mouth to hide her laughter. Right now, she was no longer as cold before Qin Wentian. She was smiling a lot more often than before.

“I’m not tired.” Mo Qingcheng glared at him. How would she dare to say that she’s tired? From that time onwards, everytime she tried to antagonize Qin Wentian, he would ‘discipline’ her. Her strength was far below Qin Wentian and hence it was useless even if she resisted. After these few years, she naturally grew ‘afraid’ of him.

“Qingcheng, you are so nice to me.” Qin Wentian shamelessly smiled. Mo Qingcheng had a face full of black lines but she still felt incomparably warm in her heart. If she could spend her entire life with the two of them like this, she didn’t mind serving him like this forever!

Chapter 1487: Thirty Years

“Qing`er, since Qingcheng doesn’t want it, let me serve you instead.” Qin Wentian turned to Qing`er who was by his side. He directly sat up and moved behind her, embracing her from behind before starting to knead her shoulders.

“I don’t want it as well.” Qing`er replied. Qin Wentian smiled, “It’s alright, there’s no need to care about if I’m fatigued or not.”

Mo Qingcheng cast a ruthless glance at this fellow. Who would worry about things like that? Qin Wentian clearly wanted to take advantage of Qing`er.

However, Qing`er didn’t say anything and allowed Qin Wentian to do whatever nonsense he wanted to. Under his administrations, her body softly leaned against him. Qin Wentian’s hands didn’t roam about dishonestly, he merely quietly hugged her with one hand and pulled Qingcheng over with the other. Hugging the two beauties in his arms, he laughed, “This is such a beautiful scene, even celestials would admire us.”

The dragon boat continued floating on the lake, it felt extremely comfortable underneath the warmth the sun provided, as well as the gentle breeze of the wind.

“I wonder how are things in the City of Ancient Emperors.” Qing`er mumbled in a low voice, as though she was reminding Qin Wentian. Right now, the experts of the immortal realms mostly already gathered in the City of Ancient Emperors. Yet as for them, they were leisurely touring the world. Although she loved such days, she was also worried that they might delay Qin Wentian’s cultivation.

“Qing`er, don’t worry, I’ve not been delaying my cultivation.” Qin Wentian knew about their intentions, how could he not tell what Qing`er was worried about?

“Mhm.” Qing`er nodded, she naturally trusted in Qin Wentian.

After touring for a day, they returned to the city to find an inn. In this entire inn, Qin Wentian and the two maidens were the only three living here. When they decided to remain in this city for an extended period of time, Qin Wentian directly bought the entire inn. To him, this expense was nothing more than a single hair on the head of nine oxen.

In the most elegant courtyard of the inn, the resplendent astral energy cascaded down directly on Qin Wentian’s room. Cultivating the state of heart is also a state of cultivation. In the City of Ancient Emperors, he knew that his comprehension was at a bottleneck. Hence, he gave up on the temptation of pursuing more good fortune and decided to spend some time with his loved ones to cultivate his heart instead. By letting go of cultivation, he was using another method to experience and comprehend the world.

During these years, he crossed snow mountains and vast oceans, seeing the tranquillity of nature and the prosperousness of cities. Although this method of comprehending and experiencing the world was naturally far from sufficient for him to break through, he didn't pressure himself, choosing to follow the course of nature.

Why does one cultivate? In this world, the reason behind cultivation was naturally to gain strength for freedom, being carefree and able to do whatever one wanted. Wasn't he doing exactly this now? With the heavens and earth in his heart, his heart was as calm as water. Although he understood that this feeling of peace was only temporarily, he didn't begrudge anything and enjoyed every moment of it to the fullest. He understood that as long as he was in the immortal realms, there was definitely no way to escape the incoming storms of commotions. Cultivation was still the key to everything.

Mo Qingcheng was in her room. She was cultivating earlier but she stopped because Qing`er came.

"Sister Qing`er." Mo Qingcheng welcomed Qing`er into her room.

"Is he not around?" Qing`er asked in a light voice.

"He should be cultivating in his room." Mo Qingcheng replied. "Sister Qingcheng, that fellow bullied you today. We should think of a method to fix him up for good."

Qing`er contemplated for a moment before shaking her head, "We shouldn't."

"Sister Qing`er, you are treating him too well." Mo Qingcheng smiled. "The softer your heart is, the more he will bully you."

"Who is speaking bad about me behind my back?" Qin Wentian laughed as he walked in, smiling at Mo Qingcheng, "Qingcheng, I'm going to 'discipline' you right now."

"You dare?" Mo Qingcheng hid behind Qing`er.

"Why would I not dare to 'discipline' my wife?" Qin Wentian's smile widened as his hands grabbed towards Mo Qingcheng.

"Sister Qing`er…" Mo Qingcheng pleaded.

Staring at Qing`er who was standing protectively before Mo Qingcheng, Qin Wentian laughed, "Qing`er, are you planning to help Qingcheng avoid punishment? Although we are not officially married yet, I've long treated you as my wife. I naturally can 'discipline' you too."

Qing`er naturally understood what Qin Wentian meant by ‘discipline.’ Her face turned red, causing her to be even more beautiful.

“You better discipline Qingcheng instead then.” Qing`er spoke, effortlessly ‘betraying’ Mo Qingcheng to Qin Wentian.

“Sister Qing`er, you…” Mo Qingcheng saw Qing`er stepping aside and directly pushed her towards Qin Wentian, causing Qing`er to collide with Qin Wentian’s chest.

“Qing`er, you came to me yourself.” Qin Wentian hugged her lithe frame and stared at her beautiful face. He suddenly felt an uncontrollable urge and leaned in to kiss her.

Mo Qingcheng giggled when she saw this. “Sister Qing`er, I’ll be sleeping in your room tonight.”

After speaking, she directly left. Qing`er blinked, staring at Qingcheng as a puzzled look appeared on her face. Qingcheng would sleep in her room tonight? What did she mean by that?

Upon thinking of this, the blush on Qing`er’s face grew even redder as her heartbeat quickened.

Her lips were slightly opened as she realized what was going on. Qin Wentian stared at her dazed look as a tenderness flashed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian placed his hands on her rump, causing Qing`er to feel electric shocks as she trembled slightly. After that, Qin Wentian carried her up and placed her onto the bed.

She laid there, staring dumbly at Qin Wentian before slowly closing her eyes, as though she was already prepared in her heart. If Qin Wentian wanted it, she naturally wouldn’t reject him.

Staring at the goddess before him Qin Wentian slowly took off her clothes piece by piece. Looking at her perfect figure, tenderness rose up in his heart.

“Qing`er…” Qin Wentian wanted to say something but he only saw Qing`er stretching a finger out and placing it on his lips, stopping him from saying anything. Her eyes were still closed, but the redness on her face was slowly increasing in intensity.

Qin Wentian didn’t say anything more. He leaned forward and started slowly kissing her, from her face to her lips, caressing every inch of her body.

In the silence of the night, no flowery words were exchanged but there was a gentle warmth in both their hearts. There was no need for them speak, both of them knew each other's thoughts and everything flowed perfectly together.

Outside the room, in the courtyard, Mo Qingcheng inclined her head and stared at the stars in the sky as a sweet smile appeared on her face. Finally, a load of worry was off her mind.

During these years as they were roaming the immortal realms, although both her and Qing`er were always by Qin Wentian's side, Qin Wentian and Qing`er never did anything further than sharing kisses. During these years, Qin Wentian would either spend the night in his room or would be with her in her room.

She and Qing`er were like sisters, both of them were females and she naturally could guess at some of what Qing`er was feeling. But Qing`er's personality made it so that it was impossible for her to take the initiative about such matters. Qin Wentian deeply loved Qing`er and although he would tease her, he had always respected her and wouldn't do anything to her.

This was why there would sometimes be some awkward moments. The man wanted it, the woman didn't mind giving it to the man either. Clearly, both of them had thoughts about that but they always didn't break through that final barrier. Hence, she could only take charge and create opportunities for them.

Turning back to glance at the room, Mo Qingcheng laughed softly as the smile on her face grew even more radiant. Sometimes, she would often think of how wonderful it would be if the three of them could spend eternity like this, roaming the world in leisure. Naturally, she knew this was merely a fantasy. Qin Wentian had never forgotten about his cultivation during their journey. She knew that he would go back to that lifestyle sooner or later, pursuing strength and contending with the others to reach the peak of the immortal realms.

Her man, was able to be tender and soft as water, but was also able to peer down with contempt at all underneath the heavens.

Flowing time was like a dream. It has already been thirty years since Qin Wentian left the City of Ancient Emperors.

In the perspective of the immortal realms, thirty years was an extremely short amount of time. To those powerful characters standing at the peak, it might just be the amount of time it takes for a single session of a closed-door seclusion.

However, these thirty years was extremely long to Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng. This period of time was just too beautiful to them, it felt like an entire lifetime.

Right now, in a certain city in the Taihua Immortal Dynasty located in the eastern regions, snowflakes drifted through the sky, the scene was extremely beautiful and amidst the falling snow, there were two beautiful young ladies building a snowman. They were both giggling, as though in a discussion about something.

After the snowman was finished, one of the young ladies glanced in the distance and called out with a laugh, “Elder sis Qing`er, elder sis Qingcheng, look at the snowman, do you think that it looks like master?”

Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng crossed the snow and glanced at the snowman. It did indeed resemble Qin Wentian a little. They couldn’t help but to laugh out loud, “Yes, it looks exactly like him.”

“Am I that ugly?” Qin Wentian rubbed his nose and stepped across the snow as he asked in a depressed tone of voice.

“Master is the most handsome person out there!” A young girl revealed a radiant smile. She was only about fifteen years of age and was cute and vivacious. She termed Qin Wentian as master yet she referred to Qing`er and Qingcheng as elder sisters.

“Sister Zhi Yan, am I right?” The young girl glanced at the other young lady who was about eighteen years of age as she asked.

“Mhm, since both mistresses are the most beautiful fairies in the world, master would naturally be the most handsome person out there!” Zhi Yan laughed gently.

“Zhi Yan, Zhi Ran, the two of you truly have good judgement.” Qin Wentian shamelessly praised them. Mo Qingcheng rolled her eyes, “What thick skin you have.”

“My Qing`er and Qingcheng naturally are the most beautiful fairies in the world. Am I wrong?” Qin Wentian smiled. Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran are blood-related sisters and they were both orphans. A few years ago when the two of them are out playing, they encountered Qin Wentian and the two others. When they saw how adorable the little girls were, Qing`er and Qingcheng decided to invite them back to their residence to stay. They didn’t expect that the clan of this pair of sisters had been completely annihilated. Both Qingcheng and Qing`er naturally felt their hearts going soft and decided to offer shelter to them. Hence, the three of them stayed in this city for several years of time.

“Mistresses naturally are the most beautiful fairies in the world.” Zhi Ran giggled. Qin Wentian and the others also started laughing.

At this moment, Qin Wentian glanced into the distance as he suddenly frowned. A few moments later, a frown creased Qing`er’s brows as well.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. He turned to Qing`er and Qingcheng, “Qing`er, Qingcheng, do you all still want to continue roaming the world? We might need to return soon.”

“Let’s head back then.” Qing`er smiled at him. After accompanying them for so many years, they were both already very satisfied. Mo Qingcheng also nodded her head with a smile.

“Master, are you guys going to leave?” Zhi Yan started a little when she heard their conversation.

“Master and mistresses, will you all abandon us?” Zhi Ran’s voice was slightly depressed. This pair of sisters knew that Qin Wentian’s group were here for leisure. In the past, they were the ones who showed Qin Wentian around when they encountered him.

“Silly lass.” Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng tousled their hair. “We naturally wouldn’t. Are the two of you willing to return with us?”

“Mhm, we are both willing to!” The two young girls started to smile again as they nodded heavily. However, when they saw the powerful experts flying over here in the distance, both of them started to panic. The pressure this group of people exuded engulfed the city completely, terrifying to the extreme. It felt like this group of people had enmity towards Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Qingcheng and was here for them specifically!

Chapter 1488: Already Matured

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the incoming wave of experts. They were actually a group of immortal kings and there were quite a few peak-stage immortal kings among the group.

Clearly, this wasn't an ordinary group of people and wasn't a force an immortal city would be able to muster. Also, they were clearly here for them and considering the location they were in, it was very clear where these experts came from. They must be from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

"To think that Princess Evergreen came here to the territory of our empire, why didn't you greet us? We would be sure to take good care of you guys." An old man among them laughed, his eyes gleaming with a bright light. Clearly, they were here because they knew of Qing`er's identity.

Qing`er's expression was cold, she didn't say anything. The Taihua Immortal Dynasty was in the same alliance as the Skymist Immortal Empire and had joined the war against the Evergreen Immortal Empire before. They were clearly here with malicious intentions, wanting to capture her.

"Brother Qin came from afar and is surrounded by a bevy of beauties. How admirable." That old man then glanced towards Qin Wentian as he smiled. "Today, my group came here coincidentally and when we saw you guys, we specially came to invite Brother Qin and Princess Qing`er back to our immortal dynasty."

"Invite?" Qin Wentian laughed. Sending a group of powerful immortal kings to 'invite' them back? In addition, there were several peak-stage immortal kings here. Such a powerful group, it seems like they were only lacking immortal emperors.

"There's no need. I'm used to roaming around alone, there's no need to bother with the invitation." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Brother Qin and Princess, it's so rare for you all to come to our dynasty, how can we as the host feel at ease if we don't throw a welcoming banquet and bring you around? Please reconsider." That old man continued. Although his words were polite, arrogance was plain on his face.

"I said there's no need to. Are you deaf?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he coldly replied.

The expressions of the immortal kings in the air all turned frosty. That old man continued, "Brother Qin, are you planning to make things difficult for me?"

"The snow scenery here is a beautiful one. I don't wish to spoil the environment. Scram." Qin Wentian spoke. He long had a grudge with the Taihua Immortal Dynasty and he originally would have already acted to kill them. However, the thirty years he spent here had a calming effect. His heart was as tranquil as nature, and there were also two young girls beside him now. Hence, he didn't wish to start a massacre and told these people to scram instead.

"I heard that after the arrival of the Demongod Mountain, you broke through to the mid-stage of the immortal king realm and became extremely self-confident." That old man who was a peak-stage immortal king sneered coldly. There was an arrogant light in his eyes but his understanding of Qin Wentian's strength was still stuck in the past.

Indeed, after that battle on the Demongod Mountain, Qin Wentian had vanished without a trace. It was only later on did someone else discover his traces at the Eastern Tomb located in the central regions. After that, Qin Wentian disappeared once more. The person who appeared in the City of Ancient Emperors was the Saber-Sword Immortal King, how would these people know what Qin Wentian's strength was? Hence, by sending such a powerful group here, they were already giving Qin Wentian a lot of face.

When things reached this point, Qin Wentian knew that although he didn't wish to start a massacre, it was no longer possible. He couldn't help but to ask, "Since we came here, we have never once exposed our identities. How did you guys find me?"

The three of them roamed the world, using thirty years of time to visit all places of interest in the immortal realms but had never exposed their identities before or make any moves. They had been extremely low-profile when they stayed here, yet they were actually discovered.

The old man glanced at Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran who was standing beside Qin Wentian. He smiled, "These two dolls you saved, their old ancestor is a someone of our dynasty but because they broke some of our dynasty's rules, they were annihilated. When we sent our men down to confiscate their properties, we discovered that the three of you were extraordinary and couldn't be seen through with immortal sense. We then made some guesses and came out to verify things. To think that it was truly none other Princess Qing`er and the prince consort of the Evergreen Immortal Empire who came to our Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran's countenances drastically changed when they heard this. Their clan was also considered an extraordinary one and they naturally knew of some of the reasons why their clan was annihilated. During a battle to contend for treasures, their old ancestor killed someone, but he didn't expect that the someone he killed to be from the royal clan of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty.

"Even if our old ancestor committed a mistake, why is there a need to annihilate my entire clan?" Zhi Yan's eyes instantly turned red, tearing up. She was still very young back then and didn't know how cruel the world could be.

"Since he did something he shouldn't have done, he naturally had to die for it. It's fortunate that the two of you are with Princess Evergreen. You two can come along with us as well." Another expert from the immortal dynasty spoke in a commanding tone.

"So it's like this." Qin Wentian silently mused.

"Master, mistresses." Zhi Ran thought of her clan's extermination as she started sobbing as well.

Qin Wentian gently patted them on their heads. After that, he glanced in the air, "Since this is the case, there's no need for you guys to scram any more."

The expression of that expert who spoke turned stiff. After that, he smiled coldly and the aged peak-stage immortal king laughed as well. "I've long heard of how extraordinary Qin Wentian is, but those were only rumors and I didn't really believe them. Right now, there are so many experts that are gathered in the City of Ancient Emperors, contending against each other to climb to the peak. You, who is so infamous in the eastern regions, actually spent several years here hiding in this city. When countless other geniuses are aspiring to climb to the top, you are actually relaxing and enjoying yourself. Are you hiding from something? You truly fail to live up to your reputation.

As he spoke, he waved his hand as a terrifying pressure bore downwards. A number of immortal kings started descending down from the air.

"After so many years of peace, it's about time for me to go back." Qin Wentian mused to himself. He inclined his head and stared in the air. From his eyes, a towering sword intent instantly erupted, shooting through the void. A moment later, a scream of misery rang out. The eyes of an immortal king started bleeding, pierced by the sword intent as he fell from the air.

Qin Wentian stood there, holding the hands of both Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran. An invisible energy enveloped them, including Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. Everywhere he glanced at, screams would erupt unceasingly. Numerous immortal kings fell one after another, they couldn't even endure a single glance from Qin Wentian.

"BOOM!" The numerous peak-stage immortal kings all had unsightly expressions. Even before they started the battle, so many people from their side already died. Even for mid-stage immortal kings, they couldn't even withstand the pressure of a glance? When did Qin Wentian become so powerful?

Qin Wentian pulled the women along as he slowly rose up in the air. Divine light flared resplendently, he was like a divinity, unexcelled in the world.

"KILL!" The old man unleashed his law domain. The other peak-stage immortal kings all respectively acted. In an instant, chaos rocked the entire area, as all the buildings below crumbled into dust from the pressure.

Qin Wentian glanced towards an immortal king. With just a single glance, that expert only felt that in this entire world, only Qin Wentian's eyes existed. After that, the powerful sword intent gushed forth like a bolt of thunder, straight into his eyes. He roared in anger and retreated explosively while closing his eyes but he discovered that this action was useless. The towering sword intent had already reached his mind.

"ARGH!" A scream echoed out. He only felt the sword intent piercing into his very soul as well. His body convulsed violently and an instant later, his consciousness dissipated and he turned into a corpse, falling from the air.

Even peak-stage immortal kings couldn't withstand the pressure of a single glance.

"How can this be?" The other experts trembled. They turned about wanting to flee but how could Qin Wentian give them such a chance? Numerous experts then died one after another. These powerful immortal kings from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty were like ants before Qin Wentian, dying within the span of a few breaths worth of time. At the very end, only one person survived. However, that person's cultivation base was already crippled. He stared helplessly at Qin Wentian who was rising up in the air as despair and terror was etched on his face. The trembling of his body was a trembling felt in the depths of his soul.

How many years has it been since the Demongod Mountain disappeared? It has only been a short few tens of years. At that time, Qin Wentian was only at the mid-stage immortal king realm, but after such a short period of time, he actually became so terrifying?

They thought they already had overestimated him by sending out such a large group. They came here to capture Qin Wentian and Qing`er, yet their ending was so miserable. Qin Wentian didn't even act, he merely destroyed all of them with a single glance.

In this new grand era where all the experts of the immortal realms were gathered in the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian was leisurely touring places of interests instead. But despite this, why was his cultivation so powerful?

"I shall spare your life. Go back and tell the Taihua Immortal Dynasty that I, Qin, still have something today and won't be going back with you. However, if there's a chance to do so in the future, I'll personally pay a visit to the Taihua Immortal Emperor." A voice rang out from the void. That expert's countenance turned ashen as his heart trembled violently, filled with incomparable despair. He suddenly felt cold, very cold.

After some time, more experts flew over from afar. When they saw the corpses as well as the crippled figure lying on the ground, all of them felt their hearts shaking. Qin Wentian and his group had long disappeared from this area.

Among these newcomers, there were some who was acquainted with Qin Wentian. However, none of them expected him to be so terrifying and domineering, daring to kill them in the territory of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. In fact, none of the experts in the earlier group could withstand a single one of his glance.

After that, a terrifying pressure engulfed the area. The leader of this new group of experts descended from the air and stood before the crippled immortal king. After checking his injuries, the expert knew that this immortal king's cultivation base was already crippled and nothing could change that. He then fed the crippled figure a medical pill, waiting as color returned to that crippled figure's face.

"What's going on? We sent out so many people yet we can't even take down a single Qin Wentian? Did he have reinforcements?" That leader asked.

The crippled figure on the ground trembled. "He alone… using nothing but glances, he wiped us all out. Qin Wentian...invincible. Our dynasty has to kill him at all costs!"

When he heard this, the person who asked the question felt his heart trembling violently. Qin Wentian wiped out the entire group using nothing but glances?

"What level has his cultivation base reached?" That leader asked again.

"Peak-stage immortal king." The crippled figure replied. With a loud boom, that leader released his aura. Peak-stage immortal king? That immortal-foundation character back then who sparked the adjudication battle has already reached the peak-stage of the immortal-king realm now? How many years has it been?

"We have to kill him as soon as possible. If we wait any further, our entire dynasty might not survive any longer." That crippled figure spoke, his voice still tinged with despair and fear.

The expression of the leader turned ashen. Was Qin Wentian really so terrifying? This crippled figure was a peak-stage immortal king before he was crippled, yet he actually gave Qin Wentian such a high evaluation.

Seems like Qin Wentian had already matured.

Chapter 1489: Return to the City of Ancient Emperors

Qin Wentian and the four maidens returned to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. They had spent thirty years out there roaming the world.

During these thirty years, although they had fun, he didn't forget to cultivate. By having different experiences, his state of heart was further tempered, resulting in him having different insights in the laws of heaven and earth. A few years before, he smoothly broke through to the next stage, entering the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. But even so, he still continued roaming the places of interest, not letting himself worry about the pressure of cultivating at all.

And now, they finally returned to the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor was still not back yet. Right now, all the supreme experts had already gathered in the City of Ancient Emperors. How would there be anyone else as carefree as him? Choosing to give up on seeking good fortune in the City of Ancient Emperors and went off to roam the world for fun instead?

Qing`er's manor was as quiet as before. After they returned, they went to pay a visit to Princess Changping, whom they always had good relations with. When Princess Changping saw that they had returned, she and the Crimson-Eye Marquis naturally welcomed them warmly.

Right now, both Princess Changping and the Marquis, could already no longer see through Qin Wentian. When they thought of his name shaking the immortal realms, they couldn't help but to sigh incessantly. Back then a long ago, when Qin Wentian first came to the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he was just a little junior. But now, who would still dare to look upon him as a junior?

This fellow...if he became an immortal emperor one day, he would be a living legend.

"Who are these two little lasses?" Princess Changping asked when she saw Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran.

"Aunt, their names are Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran. We met them when we were roaming the world, they both have very pitiful backgrounds and they are accepted by Wentian as his disciples. If I and Wentian leave, they would still have Qingcheng around. Aunt, if you are able to, help me take care of them as well." Qing`er spoke in a light voice, causing Princess Changping to start slightly. After that, she asked, "You guys just came back, are you all planning on leaving again?"

"Princess, you all should already know about the current situation in the immortal realms. Although the surface appears calm, it's merely the brewing calm before a terrifying storm. The change in the City of Ancient Emperors made everyone in the immortal realms cast their focus there. Huge changes to the immortal realms would occur sooner or later. This time around, we have already enjoyed ourselves for thirty years. It's about time to head back to the City of Ancient Emperors." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Qing`er will go as well?" Princess Changping asked.

"I don't wish for her to go but when she heard that I'm returning, she also wants to tag along. I'm somewhat worried but I have no way to change her mind. Aunt, can you help me to persuade her?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled as he shook his head. Qing`er held on to his hand and replied, "I'll go wherever you go."

Princess Changping's eyes flashed with a bright light when she heard how Qin Wentian addressed her. She then smiled, "Wow, changing my title so fast? Seems like a marriage is impending. Qing`er, Wentian's words make sense. Why don't you stay here to accompany me? Right now, the City of Ancient Emperors is just too lively. Don't you like things to be quieter?"

Right now, the commotion in the City of Ancient Emperors was just too great. Ordinary immortal kings wouldn't dare to enter, they would have no way to contend with others.

"Aunt is right. Qing`er, I have too many enemies in the City of Ancient Emperors. It wouldn't be convenient if I brought you along." Qin Wentian stated.

Qing`er's cool gaze turned to Qin Wentian, instantly causing his heart to soften. She then spoke, "I will return to my sect and see if there are any senior sisters who wish to head along."

"Alright then. Qin Wentian could only nod his head. There should be many experts under Matriarch Ji and they wouldn't be the same as him, having so many enemies. In addition, Qing`er had double-layer protection due to her status. She was not only the personal disciple of Matriarch Ji, she was also the daughter of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. No matter who wanted to make a move against her, they would have to think thrice. If she went with her fellow disciples, she would be much safer compared to him.

"Qing`er, I will head to the City of Ancient Emperors first. After returning to your sect, you can only go there if the other disciples of Matriarch Ji are going along as well. Do not enter the City of Ancient Emperors alone, okay?" Qin Wentian reminded.

Qing`er icily glanced at Qin Wentian when she heard this, as though she was feeling a little resentful. Staring at her face, Qin Wentian suddenly pulled her into a hug, causing her to tremble slightly.

The eyes of Princess Changping and the Crimson Eye Marquis, who were by the side, went wide open. After that, they saw Qing`er struggling futilely in Qin Wentian's embrace.

"Qing`er, I know how you feel. It isn't that I'm heartless but I've truly offended too many major powers. I'm doing this for your sake." Qin Wentian sighed.

Qing`er nodded her head, "I'll listen to you. But if anything happens to you, I don't want to live in this world any longer."

"Silly lass, with you and Qingcheng supporting me, how would anything happen to me?" Qin Wentian gently stroked her hair. After that, he turned to Qingcheng, "Qingcheng when I'm not around, you have to work hard in cultivation too."

"You have to be careful okay..?" Mo Qingcheng smiled. They had been together every day for thirty years, how could she not be reluctant to part? Although she was worried, she still had a radiant smile on her face. She didn't want Qin Wentian to be worried about her.

"Aunt, I'll be leaving first. Just help me out and continue to try and persuade Qing`er." Qin Wentian glanced at Princess Changping as he spoke.

"You are in such a rush?" Princess Changping started. They had just returned, yet Qin Wentian was already going to leave.

